3. At risk of being placed in more restrictive settings, including institutionalization; or

(2) (a) Unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly in a budget bill, any county or independent school district that provides elementary or secondary school services to state agency children shall be reimbursed through a contract with the Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children. The school services furnished to state agency children shall be equal to those furnished to other school children of the district.

(b) The Department of Education shall, to the extent possible within existing appropriations, set aside an amount of the state agency children funds designated by the General Assembly in the biennial budget to reimburse a school district for its expenditures exceeding twenty percent (20%) of the total amount received from state and federal sources to serve a state agency child.

(c) The General Assembly shall, if possible, increase funding for the education programs for state agency children by a percentage increase equal to that provided in the biennial budget for the base funding level for each pupil in the program to support education excellence in Kentucky under KRS 157.360 and, if applicable, by an amount necessary to address increases in the number of state agency children being served.

(d) The Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children shall make to the chief state school officer the reports required concerning school services for state agency children, and shall file with the Cabinet for Families and Children unit operating or regulating the institution or day treatment center, or contracting for services, in which the children are located a copy of the annual report made to the chief state school officer.

(e) The Cabinet for Families and Children shall contract with a university-affiliated training resource center utilizing all funds generated by the children in state agency programs, except Oakwood and Hazelwood funds, and the funds in the Kentucky Department of Education budget, pursuant to this section, as well as any other educational funds for which all Kentucky children are entitled. The total of these funds shall be utilized to provide educational services through the Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children established in KRS 605.110.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute, the Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children shall operate a two hundred thirty (230) day school program.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/98). This section was amended by 1998 Ky. Acts chs. 426, 433, and 538 which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

158.137. Educational passports for state agency children.

(1) As used in this section:
(a) “State agency child” or “state agency children” means “state agency children” defined in KRS 158.135;
(b) “School or educational facility” means any public school, private school, day treatment center, or any other public or private entity that provides educational services to state agency children; and
(c) “Educational passport” means a standard form completed by a school or educational facility which a state agency child is leaving which provides a receiving school or facility with basic demographic and academic information about the state agency child.

(2) When the placement of a state agency child is changed and the state agency child must transfer from one school or educational facility to a different school or educational facility, the school or educational facility that the state agency child is leaving shall, within two (2) days of the state agency child leaving, prepare an educational passport for the child, which shall be delivered to the Cabinet for Families and Children or the Department of Juvenile Justice. The Cabinet for Families and Children or the Department of Juvenile Justice shall, within two (2) days of enrolling a state agency child in a new school or educational facility, present the educational passport to the receiving school or educational facility.

(3) A standard educational passport form shall be developed by the Kentucky Department of Education in consultation with the Cabinet for Families and Children and the Department of Juvenile Justice. The Kentucky Department of Education shall make the form available to all schools or educational facilities serving state agency children.

158.140. Admission to high school — Promotion — Classification — High school diploma — Vocational certificate of completion.

(1) When a pupil in any public elementary school or any approved private or parochial school completes the prescribed elementary program of studies, he is entitled to a certificate of completion signed by the teacher or teachers under whom the program was completed. The certificate shall entitle the pupil to admission into any public high school. Any promotions or credits earned in attendance in any other public school to which a pupil may go, but the superintendent or principal of a school, as the case may be, may assign the pupil to the class or grade to which the pupil is best suited. In case a pupil transfers from the school of one (1) district to the school of another district, an assignment to a lower grade or course shall not be made until the pupil has demonstrated that he is not suited for the work in the grade or course to which he has been promoted.

(2) Upon successful completion of all state and local board requirements, the student shall receive a diploma indicating graduation from high school.

(3) A local school board may award a diploma indicating graduation from high school to any student posthumously with the high school class the student was expected to graduate.

(4) A local board of education shall award a high school diploma to an honorably discharged veteran who was enrolled in, but did not complete, high school prior to being inducted into the United States Armed Forces during World War II, as defined in KRS 40.010, or the Korean conflict, as defined in KRS 40.010. Upon recommendation of the commissioner, the Kentucky Board of Education in consultation with the Kentucky Department of Veterans’ Affairs shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish the guidelines for awarding these diplomas.

(5) The Department of Education shall establish the requirements for a vocational certificate of completion. A student who has returned to school after dropping out shall receive counseling concerning the vocational program. A student who has completed the requirements established for a vocational program shall receive a vocational certificate of completion specifying the areas of competence.

World War II veterans diplomas, 704 KAR 7:140.

Opinions of Attorney General. Retention and promotion of pupils is entirely a matter of local board of education policy and not a matter for control by parents. Parents do not have a right to demand that a child be retained at a particular grade level for any reason, and especially not for athletic purposes. OAG 82-473.

Where a child attends no kindergarten program, either public or nonpublic, before July 1, 1986, but upon attaining six (6) years of age he enrolls in a nonpublic school first grade, and such child subsequently is presented for enrollment in a public common school for the second or a subsequent grade, the child would be entitled to so enroll subject to the usual application of the provisions of this section. OAG 85-55.

158.145. Legislative findings and declarations on school dropout rate.

(1) The General Assembly hereby finds that:

(a) Little progress has been made in reducing the state’s student dropout rate;

(b) The number of school dropouts in Kentucky is unacceptable;

(c) The factors, such as lack of academic success, poor school attendance, lack of parental support and encouragement, low socioeconomic status, poor health, child abuse, drug and alcohol addictions, alienation from school and community, and other factors that are associated with an increased probability of students dropping out of school, occur long before the end of compulsory school age;

(d) Students who drop out of school before graduation are less likely to have the basic capacities as defined in KRS 158.645 and the skills as defined in KRS 158.6451;

(e) The number of school dropouts seriously interferes with Kentucky’s ability to develop and maintain a well-educated and highly trained workforce;

(f) The effects of students dropping out of school can be felt throughout all levels of society and generations in increased unemployment and underemployment, reduced personal and family incomes, increased crime, decreased educational, social, emotional, and physical well-being, and in increased needs for government services; and

(g) The positive reduction in school dropouts can only be achieved by comprehensive intervention and prevention strategies.

(2) The General Assembly declares on behalf of the people of the Commonwealth the following goals to be achieved by the year 2006:

(a) The statewide annual average school dropout rate will be cut by fifty percent (50%) of what it was in the year 2000. All students who drop out of a school during a school year and all students who have not graduated, fail to enroll in the school for the following school year, and do not transfer to another school, shall be included in the statewide annual average school dropout rate, except as provided in KRS 158.6455(1)(b);

(b) No school will have an annual dropout rate that exceeds five percent (5%); and

(c) Each county will have thirty percent (30%) fewer adults between the ages of sixteen (16) and twenty-four (24) without a high school diploma or GED than the county had in the year 2000.

158.146. Establishment of strategy to address school dropout problem — Department to provide technical assistance, award grants, and disseminate information to school districts and school level personnel.

(1) No later than December 30, 2000, the Kentucky Department of Education shall establish and implement a comprehensive statewide strategy to provide assistance to local districts and schools to address the student dropout problem in Kentucky public schools. In the development of the statewide strategy, the department shall engage private and public representatives who have an interest in the discussion. The statewide strategy shall build upon the existing programs and initiatives that have proven successful. The department shall also take into consideration the following:

(a) Analyses of annual district and school dropout data as submitted under KRS 158.148 and 158.6453;

(b) State and federal resources and programs, including, but not limited to, extended school services; early learning centers; family resource and youth service centers; alternative education services; preschool; service learning; drug and alcohol prevention programs; School-to-Careers; High Schools that Work; school safety grants; and other relevant programs and services that could be used in a multidimensional strategy;

(c) Comprehensive student programs and services that include, but are not limited to, identification, counseling, mentoring, and other educational strategies for elementary, middle, and high school students who are demonstrating little or no success in school, who have poor school attendance, or who possess other risk factors that contribute to the likelihood of their dropping out of school; and

(d) Evaluation procedures to measure progress within school districts, schools, and statewide.
(2) No state or federal funds for adult education and literacy, including but not limited to funds appropriated under KRS 164.041 or 20 U.S.C. secs. 9201 et seq., shall be used to pay for a high school student enrolled in an alternative program operated or contracted by a school district leading to a certificate of completion or a General Educational Development (GED) diploma.

(3) The department, with assistance from appropriate agencies, shall provide technical assistance to districts requesting assistance with dropout prevention strategies and the development of district and schoolwide plans.

(4) The department shall award grants to local school districts for dropout prevention programs based upon available appropriations from the General Assembly and in compliance with administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education for this purpose. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the available dropout funds shall be directed to services for at-risk elementary and middle school students, including, but not limited to, identification, counseling, home visitations, parental training, and other strategies to improve school attendance, school achievement, and to minimize at-risk factors. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the funds shall be directed to services for high school students identified as likely to drop out of school, including, but not limited to, counseling, tutoring, extra instructional support, alternative programming, and other appropriate strategies. Priority for grants shall be awarded to districts that average, over a three (3) year period, an annual dropout rate exceeding five percent (5%).

(5) The department shall disseminate information on best practices in dropout prevention in order to advance the knowledge for district and school level personnel to address the dropout problem effectively.

158.148. Student discipline guidelines — Local code of acceptable behavior and discipline.

(1) In cooperation with the Kentucky Education Association, the Kentucky School Boards Association, the Kentucky Association of School Administrators, the Parent-Teachers Association, the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, the Farm Bureau, members of the Interim Joint Committee on Education, and other interested groups, and in collaboration with the Center for School Safety, the Department of Education shall develop:

(a) Statewide student discipline guidelines to ensure safe schools; and

(b) Recommendations designed to improve the learning environment and school climate, parental and community involvement in the schools, and student achievement.

(2) The department shall obtain statewide data on major discipline problems and reasons why students drop out of school. In addition, the department, in collaboration with the Center for School Safety, shall identify successful strategies currently being used in programs in Kentucky and in other states and shall incorporate those strategies into the statewide guidelines and the recommendations under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Copies of the discipline guidelines shall be distributed to all school districts. The statewide guidelines shall contain broad principles to guide local districts in developing their own discipline code and school councils in the selection of discipline and classroom management techniques under KRS 158.154; and in the development of the district-wide safety plan.

(4) Each local board of education shall be responsible for formulating a code of acceptable behavior and discipline to apply to the students in each school operated by the board.

(a) The superintendent, or designee, shall be responsible for overall implementation and supervision, and each school principal shall be responsible for administration and implementation within each school. Each school council shall select and implement the appropriate discipline and classroom management techniques necessary to carry out the code. The board shall establish a process for a two-way communication system for teachers and other employees to notify a principal, supervisor, or other administrator of an existing emergency.

(b) The code shall contain the type of behavior expected from each student, the consequences of failure to obey the standards, and the importance of the standards to the maintenance of a safe learning environment where orderly learning is possible and encouraged.

(c) The principal of each school shall apply the code of behavior and discipline uniformly and fairly to each student at the school without partiality or discrimination.

(d) A copy of the code of behavior and discipline adopted by the board of education shall be posted at each school. Guidance counselors shall be provided copies for discussion with students. The code shall be referenced in all school handbooks. All school employees and parents shall be provided copies of the code.

158.150. Suspension or expulsion of pupils.

(1) All pupils admitted to the common schools shall comply with the lawful regulations for the government of the schools:
(a) Willful disobedience or defiance of the authority of the teachers or administrators, use of profanity or vulgarity, assault or battery or abuse of other students, the threat of force or violence, the use or possession of alcohol or drugs, stealing or destruction or defacing of school property or personal property of students, the carrying or use of weapons or dangerous instruments, or other incorrigible bad conduct on school property, as well as off school property at school-sponsored activities, constitutes cause for suspension or expulsion from school; and

(b) Assault or battery or abuse of school personnel; stealing or willfully or wantonly defacing, destroying, or damaging the personal property of school personnel on school property, off school property, or at school-sponsored activities constitutes cause for suspension or expulsion from school.

(2) Each local board of education shall adopt a policy requiring the expulsion from school for a period of not less than one (1) year for a student who is determined by the board to have brought a weapon to a school under its jurisdiction. The board shall also adopt a policy requiring disciplinary actions, up to and including expulsion from school, for a student who is determined by the board to have possessed prescription drugs or controlled substances for the purpose of sale or distribution at a school under the board’s jurisdiction, or to have physically assaulted or battered or abused educational personnel or other students at a school or school function under the board’s jurisdiction. The board may modify the expulsion requirement for students on a case-by-case basis. A board that has expelled a student from the student’s regular school setting shall provide or assure that educational services are provided to the student in an appropriate alternative program or setting, unless the board has made a determination, on the record, supported by clear and convincing evidence, that the expelled student poses a threat to the safety of other students or school staff and cannot be placed into a state-funded agency program. Other intervention services as indicated for each student may be provided by the board or by agreement with the appropriate state or community agency. A state agency that provides the service shall be responsible for the cost. In determining whether a student has brought a weapon to school, a local board of education shall use the definition of “unlawful possession of a weapon on school property” stated in KRS 527.070.

(3) School administrators, teachers, or other school personnel may immediately remove or cause to be removed threatening or violent students from a classroom setting or from the district transportation system pending any further disciplinary action that may occur. Each board of education shall adopt a policy to assure the implementation of this section and to assure the safety of the students and staff.

(4) A pupil shall not be suspended from the common schools until after at least the following due process procedures have been provided:

(a) The pupil has been given oral or written notice of the charge or charges against him which constitute cause for suspension;

(b) The pupil has been given an explanation of the evidence of the charge or charges if the pupil denies them; and

(c) The pupil has been given an opportunity to present his own version of the facts relating to the charge or charges.

These due process procedures shall precede any suspension from the common schools unless immediate suspension is essential to protect persons or property or to avoid disruption of the ongoing academic process. In such cases, the due process procedures outlined above shall follow the suspension as soon as practicable, but no later than three (3) school days after the suspension.

(5) The superintendent, principal, assistant principal, or head teacher of any school may suspend a pupil but shall report the action in writing immediately to the superintendent and to the parent, guardian, or other person having legal custody or control of the pupil. The board of education of any school district may expel any pupil for misconduct as defined in subsection (1) of this section, but the action shall not be taken until the parent, guardian, or other person having legal custody or control of the pupil has had an opportunity to have a hearing before the board. The decision of the board shall be final.

(6) (a) Suspension of exceptional children, as defined in KRS 157.200, shall be considered a change of educational placement if:

1. The child is removed for more than ten (10) consecutive days during a school year;

2. The child is subjected to a series of removals that constitute a pattern because the removals accumulate to more than ten (10) school days during a school year and because of other factors, such as the length of each removal, the total amount of time the child is removed, and the proximity of removals to one another.

(b) The admissions and release committee shall meet to review the placement and make a recommendation for continued placement or a change in placement and determine whether regular suspension or expulsion procedures apply. Additional evaluations shall be completed, if necessary.

(c) If the admissions and release committee determines that an exceptional child’s behavior is related to his disability, the child shall not be suspended any further or expelled unless the current placement could result in injury to the child, other children, or the educational personnel, in which case an appropriate alternative placement shall be provided that will provide for the child’s educational needs and will provide a safe learning and teaching environment for all. If the admissions and release committee determines that the behavior is not related to the disability, the local education of a primary school student shall be considered only in exceptional cases where there are safety issues for the child or others.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section defines the method of enforcing school disciplinary rules and regulations and does not authorize withholding of a pupil’s school records at the end of the school year because the pupil has damaged school textbooks and other school property and has not made restitution. OAG 61-315.

This section is not applicable to a model and practice school conducted by a state college or university pursuant to KRS 164.380. OAG 70-149.

A teacher may not lower a student’s academic grades because of misconduct. OAG 72-753.

An “in school suspension” is a contradiction in terms and not within the disciplinary procedures authorized by this section as a suspended pupil should be barred from the school premises during the period of suspension in order to produce the desired effect upon the pupil, his parents, and the decorum of the school. OAG 73-305.

This section authorizes expulsion of a child from public school for no longer than the current school year, for it is not the policy of the state to expel a child permanently. OAG 74-165.

Unexcused absence from school may constitute wilful disobedience. OAG 74-312.

If the attendance of a pupil over 16 years of age is so poor as to indicate a lack of interest in completing his school courses, the board of education would be justified in expelling him. OAG 74-312.

A school board regulation providing that a student fails a course after nine (9) absences is invalid since it in effect considers the student to be automatically expelled after the nine (9) absences but does not afford him a hearing or an opportunity to be heard and gives no consideration to the causes of the absences. OAG 75-170.

KRS chapter 387 pertaining to guardians makes no provision for a guardian “for school purposes only” and therefore the appointment of a guardian “for school purposes only” through trial commissioner’s order was a nullity and the school board was not legally bound to recognize such an order. OAG 75-170.

Although there is no provision in this section that entitles a student to a hearing prior to a suspension, under the U.S. Constitution, a student may not be withdrawn from the school roll without a notice and hearing by either the superintendent, principal, head teacher or the board of education. OAG 76-735.

School personnel may not temporarily, by suspension or expulsion, deny a child’s property interest in educational benefits without following rudimentary due process procedures. OAG 77-12.

Since this section provides that the decision of the board is final, legal action would be maintainable in a court of competent jurisdiction with the test being whether the school personnel had acted arbitrarily or maliciously in expelling a student. OAG 77-12.

A suspended student, who is compelled to stay at the school building but who is not being afforded any alternative educational program or school counseling, is legally absent from school and may not be counted for purposes of figuring average daily attendance. OAG 77-419.

School officials have authority to withdraw from any pupil the privilege of participating in out-of-class activities of the school band for misconduct during field trips. OAG 77-427.

School personnel would not be required to permit a student who has been suspended to do make-up work for class activities and assignments missed during the period of a suspension from school. OAG 77-547.

If a school board attorney, if he is to serve the role as the prosecutor, should limit his advice to the board to explaining the legal obligations the board has in an expulsion hearing before the hearing commences and the school board attorney should at no time advise the board during an expulsion hearing in which he is participating. OAG 78-673.

Notice consists of two (2) parts, first the student should be made aware of the standard of expected behavior in a school system; and second the student and the student’s parent(s), guardian or legal custodian should receive adequate written notice from the board of education or its designee containing a statement of the specific charges and grounds which, if proven, would justify expulsion. OAG 78-673.

Only a local board of education, by an official act, can expel a student. OAG 78-673.

Policies regarding discipline of conduct of pupils should be promulgated to the students through the permissive statute outlining the adoption and promulgation of a code of student rights and responsibilities. OAG 78-673.

The board should report in writing the decision of the board to the parent(s), guardian or legal custodian, and if the hearing has involved multiple charges, the report should include which charges, if less than all, the board found to be supported by the evidence, and upon which the board made the decision to expel. OAG 78-673.

The due process hearing of: (1) oral or written notice of the charge or charges, (2) an explanation of the charge or charges, and (3) an opportunity for the pupil to present his own version of the facts to be followed for all suspensions, irrespective of duration. OAG 78-673.

The minimum requirements to be followed for a due process hearing prior to expulsion are: (1) notice, (2) legal counsel, (3) impartial hearing, and (4) written notification of the decision, but a criminal type due process hearing is not required nor is a judicial or quasi-judicial trial required. OAG 78-673.

The procedural due process which must be afforded in an expulsion situation should be greater than that in a suspension situation and the extent and degree of due process to be given in an hearing will increase as the possible penalty affecting constitutionally protected rights becomes greater. OAG 78-673.

The school board must allow the student to be represented by legal counsel, but the board does not have to provide an attorney if the student and his or her parents choose not to have one, or if an attorney cannot be afforded, and the board need not advise the student or parent that they may retain legal counsel to assist them in preparation of a defense at the expulsion hearing. OAG 78-673.

The student is entitled to an orderly hearing, either closed or open, as the student desires, at which he must be given full opportunity to give his or her side of the story before the board and to produce either oral testimony or written affidavits of witnesses in his or her behalf, and the opportunity should be given to cross-examine witnesses. OAG 78-673.

The student is entitled to have consideration of the evidence by an impartial tribunal which means the board members should have shunned prior involvement in the situation, but exposure to evidence prior to the hearing is insufficient in itself to impugn the fairness of the board member at the adversary hearing and there need not be proof of the charges being considered prior to innocence. OAG 78-673.

There is no time duration spelled out in the Kentucky school law or elsewhere for suspension. OAG 78-673.

A general search of all lockers for rotting food, missing library books, or overall cleanliness could be, under most circumstances, an administrative search; and, the fact that contraband, stolen articles, controlled drugs, alcoholic beverages, weapons, or the like were inadvertently discovered during the administrative search would not void the search and any such unlawful items found could stand as evidence and as a basis for cause in a possible suspension or expulsion hearing. OAG 79-168.

Even if the primary purpose of a search of an older student is based upon reasonable suspicion and the purpose of the search is for possible school disciplinary action and not criminal prosecution, it must be remembered the “causes” upon which suspension or expulsion may be based are very much with overtones of criminality. OAG 79-168.

In the situation where a search is conducted by a law enforcement officer with a school officer without consent, without a search warrant, and without any of the case law delineated exceptions existing (e.g., search incident to lawful arrest), the evidence seized would likely be subject to the exclusionary rule in any criminal action and some case authority would support a conclusion that the evidence seized could also not be used in school disciplinary actions. OAG 79-168.

In view of the responsibilities of teachers and school administrators and in view of the fact that teachers and administrators are state officers or employees they are within the purview of fourth amendment and Const., § 10 restraint upon activities of the government. OAG 79-168.

For good cause shown a local board may deny readmission of a nonresident student based upon the student’s prior failure to abide by the board-adopted standards of conduct to which he may be lawfully held. OAG 79-327.

Once a student is permitted to enroll in a nonresident school for a school year, the law applicable to student conduct and the possibility of suspension and/ or expulsion under this section comes into play. OAG 79-327.

The procedural due process which must be followed for a due process hearing prior to expulsion are: (1) notice, (2) legal counsel, (3) impartial hearing, and (4) written notification of the decision, but a criminal type due process hearing is not required nor is a judicial or quasi-judicial trial required. OAG 78-673.
1. Regulations.

The superintendent of a school may make reasonable rules for the school, and suspend students for violation thereof. Byrd v. Begley, 262 Ky. 422, 90 S.W.2d 370 (1936).

A rule requiring students to be in their rooms by a certain hour is reasonable. Byrd v. Begley, 262 Ky. 422, 90 S.W.2d 370 (1936).

Refusal to obey rule requiring students to be in their rooms by a certain hour constitutes willful disobedience and defiance. Byrd v. Begley, 262 Ky. 422, 90 S.W.2d 370 (1936).

This section and KRS 161.180 plainly authorize public schools to make and enforce reasonable regulations for the government of such schools during school hours. Casey County Bd. of Educ. v. Luster, 282 S.W.2d 333 (Ky. 1955).

This statute preempts the right of the school officials to promulgate disciplinary regulations that impose additional punishment for the conduct that results in suspension. Dorsey v. Bale, 521 S.W.2d 76 (Ky. 1975).

2. — Insubordination.

A suspension for insubordination conditioned upon apology before the students is not unreasonable. Byrd v. Begley, 262 Ky. 422, 90 S.W.2d 370 (1936).

3. — Vaccination.

This section together with KRS 160.290 and 214.050 (repealed) authorized county board of education to promulgate and enforce its own rules requiring compulsory vaccination of school children or it would enforce such a rule of the county or State Board of Health by excluding from the schools children who were not vaccinated. Mosier v. Barren County Bd. of Health, 308 Ky. 829, 215 S.W.2d 967 (1948).

4. — Married Students.

School board regulation requiring that any student who shall marry shall withdraw from the school, subject to being readmitted after one year if the principal permits it, is unreasonable and arbitrary and for that reason invalid. Board of Educ. v. Bentley, 383 S.W.2d 677 (Ky. 1964).

5. — Alcohol or Drugs.

A high school regulation, which provides for mandatory suspension on the first offense for the use of, possession of, or trafficking in drugs or alcoholic beverages on school property or at school functions, does not exceed the authority granted to a school under this section, which allows for either suspension or expulsion for the use or possession of alcoholic beverages or drugs. Clark County Bd. of Educ. v. Jones, 625 S.W.2d 586 (Ky. Ct. App. 1981).

With regard to both observers and participants, school athletic events held at other schools are school-sponsored activities; thus student was properly suspended when he was found to be in possession of alcohol during a basketball tournament in which his school was participating. Pirschel v. Sorrell, 2 F. Supp. 2d 930 (E.D. Ky. 1998).

6. Smoking Marijuana.

Where student was expelled for remainder of school year under this section for smoking marijuana, the offense was of sufficient gravity so that the discipline imposed was not excessive to the extent of violating the student’s right to substantive due process. Petrey v. Flaugher, 505 F. Supp. 1087 (E.D. Ky. 1981).

7. Consumption of Alcohol.

Where a county board of education automatically expelled several high school students for consuming alcohol on a school-sponsored trip, the trial court’s finding that the board acted arbitrarily was not clearly erroneous, since the record showed that the board had not given consideration to any other factors such as the previous general conduct of the students involved, the probability of a recurring violation, or the possibility of alternative punishment or restrictions. Clark County Bd. of Educ. v. Jones, 625 S.W.2d 586 (Ky. Ct. App. 1981).

8. Refusal to Consent to Search.

Where freshman high school student, implicated by fellow students in bringing to school firecrackers which were set off during class, refused request of the school administration to search her purse, which request was reasonable under the circumstances, a suspension of five (5) days was not inappropriate. Bahr v. Jenkins, 539 F. Supp. 483 (E.D. Ky. 1982).

Where the principal testified that each of the requirements provided for under subsection (2) of this section were met, and no proof controverted that testimony, the plaintiffs failed to demonstrate that they were denied procedural due process in their five-day suspension from school as a penalty for using alcoholic beverages at a school-sponsored convention. Katchak v. Glasgow Indep. Sch. Sys., 690 F. Supp. 580 (W.D. Ky. 1988).

There was no procedural due process violation where principal informed student that he was being suspended for possession of alcohol on school property rather than at a school-sponsored activity off school property, because this did not prevent student from stating his own version of the facts; furthermore, student did not dispute or deny possessing alcohol. Pirschel v. Sorrell, 2 F. Supp. 2d 930 (E.D. Ky. 1998).

Decisions Under Prior Law

Analysis

1. Refusal to participate in commencement.

2. Interference by courts.

1. Refusal to Participate in Commencement.

Refusal to take a part assigned in commencement exercises constituted disobedience and was ground for suspension. Cross v. Board of Trustees, 129 Ky. 35, 33 Ky. L. Rptr. 472, 110 S.W. 346 (1908).

2. Interference by Courts.

A pupil could be expelled for violation of rules of a school, and courts would not interfere with such an action unless it was arbitrary or malicious. Board of Educ. v. Booth, 110 Ky. 807, 62 S.W. 872 (1901).

Punishment based on child’s records — Disclosure of records — Cause of action — Districtwide standards of behavior for students participating in extracurricular activities.

(1) Unless the action is taken pursuant to KRS 158.150, no school, school administrator, teacher, or other school employee shall expel or punish a child based on information contained in a record of an adjudication of delinquency or conviction of an offense received by the school pursuant to KRS 610.345 or from any other source. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit a local school board or school official from instituting disciplinary proceedings against any student for violating the discipline policy of the school or school district or taking actions necessary to protect staff and students. Actions to protect staff and students may be taken only after the principal makes a determination that the conduct of the student reflected in the records of the school or obtained by the school from the court indicates a substantial likelihood of an immediate and continuing threat that the student will cause harm to students or staff, and that the restrictions to be ordered represent the least restrictive alternative available and appropriate to remedy the threat, and that the determination and supporting material be documented in the child's record. The action of the principal, in addition to or in lieu of any other procedure available, may be appealed by the child or the child's parent or guardian to the superintendent of the school system or to the Circuit Court in the county in which the school is located, and the appealing party may be represented by counsel.

(2) No school, school administrator, teacher, or other school employee who has custody of records received or maintained by the school pursuant to KRS 610.345 or who has received information contained in or relating to a record received by the school pursuant to KRS 610.345 shall disclose the fact of the record's existence, or any information contained in the record or received from the record to any other person, including but not limited to other teachers, school employees, pupils, or parents other than the pupil, or parents of the pupil who is the subject of the record.

(3) The child and his parent or guardian shall have a civil cause of action against the school board and against any school administrator violating subsection (1) or (2) of this section or divulging information in violation of KRS 610.345 or 610.340. This civil cause of action shall be in addition to any other criminal or administrative remedy provided by law.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a local board of education from establishing districtwide standards of behavior for students who participate in extracurricular and cocurricular activities, including athletics. A school principal may deny or terminate a student's eligibility to participate in extracurricular or cocurricular activities if the student has violated the local district behavior standards or the council's criteria for participation, as described in KRS 160.345(2)(i)(8). A student's right to participate in extracurricular or cocurricular activities, including athletics, may be suspended, pending investigation of an allegation that the standards of behavior have been violated.

158.154. Principal's duty to report certain acts to local law enforcement agency.

When the principal has a reasonable belief that an act has occurred on school property or at a school-sponsored function involving assault resulting in serious physical injury, a sexual offense, kidnapping, assault involving the use of a weapon, possession of a firearm in violation of the law, possession of a controlled substance in violation of the law, or damage to the property, the principal shall immediately report the act to the appropriate local law enforcement agency. For purposes of this section, “school property” means any public school building, bus, public school campus, grounds, recreational area, or athletic field, in the charge of the principal.

158.155. Reporting of specified incidents of student conduct — Notation on school records — Report to law enforcement of certain student conduct — Immunity.

(1) If a student has been adjudicated guilty of an offense specified in this subsection or has been expelled from school for an offense specified in this subsection, prior to a student's admission to any school, the parent, guardian, principal, or other person or agency responsible for a student shall provide to the school a sworn statement or affirmation indicating on a form provided by the Kentucky Board of Education that the student has been adjudicated guilty or expelled from school attendance at a public or private school in this state or another state for homicide, assault, or an offense in violation of state law or school regulations relating to weapons, alcohol, or drugs. The sworn statement or affirmation shall be sent to the receiving school within five (5) working days of the time when the student requests enrollment in the new school.

(2) If any student who has been expelled from attendance at a public or private school in this state for homicide, assault, or an offense in violation of state law or school regulations relating to weapons, alcohol, or drugs requests transfer of his records, those records shall reflect the charges and final disposition of the expulsion proceedings.

(3) If any student who is subject to an expulsion proceeding at a public or private school in this state for homicide, assault, or an offense in violation of state law or school regulations relating to weapons, alcohol, or drugs requests transfer of his records to a new school, the records shall not be transferred until that proceeding has been terminated and shall reflect the charges and any final disposition of the expulsion proceedings.

(4) A person who is an administrator, teacher, or other employee of a public or private school shall promptly make a report to the local police department, sheriff, or Kentucky State Police, by telephone or otherwise, if:
(a) The person knows or has reasonable cause to believe that conduct has occurred which constitutes:

1. A misdemeanor or violation offense under the laws of this Commonwealth and relates to:
   a. Carrying, possession, or use of a deadly weapon; or
   b. Use, possession, or sale of controlled substances; or
2. Any felony offense under the laws of this Commonwealth; and

(b) The conduct occurred on the school premises or within one thousand (1,000) feet of school premises, on a school bus, or at a school-sponsored or sanctioned event.

(5) A person who is an administrator, teacher, supervisor, or other employee of a public or private school who receives information from a student or other person of conduct which is required to be reported under subsection (1) of this section shall report the conduct in the same manner as required by that subsection.

(6) Neither the husband-wife privilege of KRE 504 nor any professional-client privilege, including those set forth in KRE 506 and 507, shall be a ground for refusing to make a report required under this section or for excluding evidence in a judicial proceeding of the making of a report and of the conduct giving rise to the making of a report. However, the attorney-client privilege of KRE 503 and the religious privilege of KRE 505 are grounds for refusing to make a report or for excluding evidence as to the report and the underlying conduct.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed as to require self-incrimination.

(8) A person acting upon reasonable cause in the making of a report under this section in good faith shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed from:
   (a) Making the report; and
   (b) Participating in any judicial proceeding that resulted from the report.

158.160. Notification to school by parent or guardian of child’s medical condition threatening school safety — Exclusion of child with communicable disease from school — Closing of school during epidemic.

(1) A parent, legal guardian, or other person or agency responsible for a student shall notify the student’s school if the student has any medical condition which is defined by the Cabinet for Health Services in administrative regulation as threatening the safety of the student or others in the school. The notification shall be given as soon as the medical condition becomes known and upon each subsequent enrollment by the student in a school. The principal, guidance counselor, or other school official who has knowledge of the medical condition shall notify the student’s teachers in writing of the nature of the medical condition.

(2) If any student is known or suspected to have or be infected with a communicable disease or condition for which a reasonable probability for transmission exists in a school setting, the superintendent of the district may order the student excluded from school. The time period the student is excluded from school shall be in accordance with generally accepted medical standards which the superintendent shall obtain from consultation with the student’s physician or the local health officer for the county in which the school district is located. During the presence in any district of dangerous epidemics, the board of education of the school district may order the school closed.

158.163. Earthquake and tornado emergency procedure system.

The board of each local school district, and the governing body of each private and parochial school or school district, shall establish an earthquake and tornado emergency procedure system in every public or private school building in its jurisdiction having a capacity of fifty (50) or more students, or having more than one (1) classroom. The earthquake and tornado emergency procedure system shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) A school building disaster plan, ready for implementation at any time, for maintaining the safety and care of students and staffs. A drop procedure and safe area evacuation practice shall be held at least twice during each school year;

(2) A drop procedure. As used in this section, “drop procedure” means an activity by which each student and staff member takes cover under a table or desk, dropping to his or her knees, with the head 158.165. Possession and use of personal telecommunications device by public school student.

(1) The board of education of each school district shall develop a policy regarding the possession and use of a personal telecommunications device by a student while on school property or while attending a school-sponsored or school-related activity on or off school property, and shall include the policy in the district’s written standards of student conduct. A student who violates the policy shall be subject to discipline as provided by board policy.

(2) In this section, “personal telecommunications device” means a device that emits an audible signal, vibrates, displays a message, or otherwise summons or delivers a communication to the possessor, including, but not limited to, a paging device and a cellular telephone.

158.170. Bible to be read.

The teacher in charge shall read or cause to be read a portion of the Bible daily in every classroom or session room of the common schools of the state in the presence of the pupils therein assembled, but no child shall be required to read the Bible against the wish of his parents or guardian.

(4363-7.)

Opinions of Attorney General. A school teacher may read any portion of the New Testament to students while in a public classroom. OAG 60-1099.

The prohibition against the conduct of religious or devotional exercises through a reading of the Bible in the common school system is not circumvented by the designation of such activities as “classes.” OAG 63-790.

Because of the difficulty of communication for community churches, nonsectarian nondenominational religious instruction can be given to deaf children at the deaf school on a voluntary basis on Sunday by teachers employed by the school. OAG 64-111.

Children can say grace before lunch in the schools. OAG 64-111.

Lunch periods could not be used to conduct religious classes if the district is utilizing portions of the lunch period to meet the six-hour school work requirement of KRS 158.060. OAG 64-111.

Missionaries would be precluded from making periodic visits to the schools to conduct religious services during regular scheduled periods. OAG 64-111.

The nativity scene can be used in schools at Christmas so long as no religious significance is attached thereto. OAG 64-111.

There would be nothing objectionable in a student, during a period of meditation, voluntarily or spontaneously saying a prayer, silent or vocal, but a teacher could not do so. OAG 64-111.

For those school officials, employees and school board members that participate in or permit the continued practice of Bible reading as denounced by the United States Supreme Court, there stands a strong possibility of a legal claim by a student against them that the student’s constitutional rights are being infringed under color of state law by these school personnel’s actions. OAG 79-463.

158.175. Recitation of Lord’s prayer and pledge of allegiance — Instruction in proper respect for and display of the flag — Observation of moment of silence or reflection.

(1) As a continuation of the policy of teaching our country’s history and as an affirmation of the freedom of religion in this country, the board of education of a local school district may authorize the recitation of the traditional Lord’s prayer and the pledge of allegiance to the flag in public elementary schools. Pupil participation in the recitation of the prayer and pledge of allegiance shall be voluntary. Pupils shall be reminded that this Lord’s prayer is the prayer our pilgrim fathers recited when they came to this country in their search for freedom. Pupils shall be informed that these exercises are not meant to influence an individual’s personal religious beliefs in any man-
158.176. Teaching of evolution — Right to include Bible theory of creation.

(1) In any public school instruction concerning the theories of the creation of man and the earth, and which involves the theory thereon commonly known as evolution, any teacher so desiring may include as a portion of such instruction the theory of creation as presented in the Bible, and may accordingly read such passages in the Bible as are deemed necessary for instruction on the theory of creation, thereby affording students a choice as to which such theory to accept.

(2) For those students receiving such instruction, and who accept the Bible theory of creation, credit shall be permitted on any examination in which adherence to such theory is propounded, provided the response is correct according to the instruction received.

(3) No teacher in a public school may stress any particular denominational religious belief.

(4) This section is not to be construed as being adverse to any decision which has been rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 403, effective July 13, 1990.)

158.178. Ten Commandments to be displayed. [Unconstitutional.]

(1) It shall be the duty of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, provided sufficient funds are available as provided in subsection (3) of this section, to ensure that a durable, permanent copy of the Ten Commandments shall be displayed on a wall in each public elementary and secondary school classroom in the Commonwealth. The copy shall be sixteen (16) inches wide by twenty (20) inches high.

(2) In small print below the last commandment shall appear a notation concerning the purpose of the display, as follows: “The secular application of the Ten Commandments is clearly seen in its adoption as the fundamental legal code of Western Civilization and the Common Law of the United States.”

(3) The copies required by this section shall be purchased with funds made available through voluntary contributions made to the State Treasurer for the purposes of this section.

Opinions of Attorney General. The United States Supreme Court in Stone v. Graham, 449 U.S. 39, 101 S. Ct. 192, 66 L. Ed. 2d 199 (1980) determined that this section is unconstitutional, concluding that the permanent posting of copies of the Ten Commandments in the public common schools of Kentucky violates the First Amendment and the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and the decision requires the removal of the copies presently hanging on the walls of the public common schools since the court found that the pre-eminent purpose for posting is plainly religious in nature. OAG 81-12. (Withdraws OAG 78-605).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
Since the pre-eminent purpose for posting the Ten Commandments on schoolroom walls is plainly religious in nature, this section has no secular legislative purpose and is therefore unconstitutional as violative of the establishment clause of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution; it does not matter that the posted copies are financed by voluntary private contributions, for the mere posting of the copies under the auspices of the Legislature provides the official support of the state government that the establishment clause prohibits. Stone v. Graham, 449 U.S. 39, 101 S. Ct. 192, 66 L. Ed. 2d 199 (1980).

158.180. Books criticizing school of healing prohibited. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4363-11a) was repealed by Acts 1978, ch. 21, § 2, effective June 17, 1978.

158.181. Legislative findings.
(1) The General Assembly finds the following:
(a) Judicial decisions concerning religion, free speech, and public education are widely misunderstood and misapplied;
(b) Confusion surrounding these decisions has caused some to be less accommodating of the religious liberty and free speech rights of students than permitted under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution;
(c) Confusion surrounding these decisions has resulted in needless conflicts and litigation;
(d) The Supreme Court of the United States has ruled that the establishment clause of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution requires that public schools neither advance or inhibit religion. Public schools should be neutral in matters of faith and should treat religion with fairness and respect;
(e) Neutrality to religion does not require hostility to religion. The establishment clause does not prohibit reasonable accommodation of religion, nor does the clause prohibit appropriate teaching about religion;
(f) Accommodation of religion is required by the free speech and free exercise clauses of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution; and
(g) Setting forth the religious liberty rights of students in a statute would assist students and parents in the enforcement of the religious liberty rights of students and would provide impetus to efforts in public schools to accommodate religious belief in feasible cases.
(2) The purpose of KRS 158.181 to 158.187 is to create a safe harbor for schools desiring to avoid litigation and to allow the free speech and religious liberty rights of students to the extent permissible under the establishment clause.

158.182. Definitions for KRS 158.181 to 158.187.
As used in KRS 158.181 to 158.187, unless the context requires otherwise:
(1) “Establishment clause” means the portion of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution that forbids laws respecting an establishment of religion;
(2) “Free exercise clause” means the portion of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution that forbids laws prohibiting the free exercise of religion;
(3) “Free speech clause” means the portion of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution that forbids laws abridging the freedom of speech;
(4) “Public school” means any school that is operated by the state, a political subdivision of the state, or a governmental agency within the state; and
(5) “Student” means an individual attending a public school.

158.183. Prohibited acts by students — Rights of student — Administrative remedies.
(1) A student shall have the right to carry out an activity described in any of paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2) of this section, if the student does not:
(a) Infringe on the rights of the school to:
   1. Maintain order and discipline;
   2. Prevent disruption of the educational process; and
   3. Determine educational curriculum and assignments;
(b) Harass other persons or coerce other persons to participate in the activity; or
(c) Otherwise infringe on the rights of other persons.
(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a student shall be permitted to voluntarily:
(a) Pray in a public school, vocally or silently, alone or with other students to the same extent and under the same circumstances as a student is permitted to vocally or silently reflect, meditate, or speak on nonreligious matters alone or with other students in the public school;
(b) Express religious viewpoints in a public school to the same extent and under the same circumstances as a student is permitted to express viewpoints on nonreligious topics or subjects in the school;
(c) Speak to and attempt to discuss religious viewpoints with other students in a public school to the same extent and under the same circumstances as a student is permitted to speak to and attempt to share nonreligious viewpoints with other students. However, any student may demand that this speech or these attempts to share religious viewpoints not be directed at him or her;
(d) Distribute religious literature in a public school, subject to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions to the same extent and under the same circumstances as a student is permitted to distribute literature on nonreligious topics or subjects in the school; and
(e) Be absent, in accordance with attendance policy, from a public school to observe religious holidays and participate in other religious practices to the same extent and under the same circumstances as a student is permitted to be absent from a public school for nonreligious purposes.

(3) No action may be maintained under KRS 158.181 to 158.187 unless the student has exhausted the following administrative remedies:
(a) The student or the student’s parent or guardian shall state his or her complaint to the school’s principal. The principal shall investigate and take appropriate action to ensure that the rights of the student are resolved within seven (7) days of the date of the complaint;
(b) If the concerns are not resolved, then the student or the student’s parent or guardian shall make a complaint in writing to the superintendent with the specific facts of the alleged violation;
(c) The superintendent shall investigate and take appropriate action to ensure that the rights of the student are resolved within thirty (30) days of the date of the written complaint; and
(d) Only after the superintendent’s investigation and action may a student or the student’s parent or legal guardian pursue any other legal action.

158.184. Construction favoring establishment clause, religious liberty, and free speech.
(1) Nothing in KRS 158.181 to 158.187 shall be construed to affect, interpret, or in any way address the establishment clause.
(2) The specification of religious liberty or free speech rights in KRS 158.181 to 158.187 shall not be construed to exclude or limit religious liberty or free speech rights otherwise protected by federal, state, or local law.

158.185. Construction prohibiting school employee from leading, directing, or encouraging religious or anti-religious activity in violation of establishment clause.
Nothing in KRS 158.181 to 158.187 shall be construed to support, encourage, or permit a teacher, administrator, or other employee of the public schools to lead, direct, or encourage any religious or anti-religious activity in violation of the portion of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution prohibiting laws respecting an establishment of religion.

158.186. Copies of law to local school board and school-based decision making council.
The Department of Education shall send copies of KRS 158.181 to 158.187 to each local school board and school-based decision making council in Kentucky on an annual basis.

158.187. Short title for KRS 158.181 to 158.187.
KRS 158.181 to 158.187 may be cited as the Nicole Hadley, Jessica James, and Kayce Steger Act.

158.190. Sectarian, infidel, or immoral books prohibited.
No book or other publication of a sectarian, infidel, or immoral character, or that reflects on any religious denomination, shall be used or distributed in any common school. No sectarian, infidel, or immoral doctrine shall be taught in any common school.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Injunction for Enforcement.
An injunction should have been issued by the Circuit Court prohibiting school officers, including the board of education, from violating this section, expending public school funds for religious or sectarian purposes, keeping sectarian periodicals in and about the libraries of the county schools and stopping the operating of public school buses on religious holidays not legalized as state or national holidays. Wooley v. Spalding, 293 S.W.2d 563 (Ky. 1956), aff’d 365 S.W.2d 323 (Ky. 1962).

158.194. Bill of Rights to be displayed.
Each public elementary and secondary school classroom in the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall prominently display a copy of the Bill of Rights, embodying the individual liberties safeguarded by the Constitution of the United States.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (9/30/99). This statute was created by a joint resolution of the 1988 Regular Session of the General Assembly and was previously carried as an LRC Note under KRS 158.010. Because the enactment is permanent in nature, see KRS 7.131(2), the Reviser of Statutes has codified this text as KRS 158.194 under KRS 7.136(1)(a).
158.195. Reading and posting in public schools of texts and documents on American history and heritage.
Local boards may allow any teacher or administrator in a public school district of the Commonwealth to read or post in a public school building, classroom, or event any excerpts or portions of: the national motto; the national anthem; the pledge of allegiance; the preamble to the Kentucky Constitution; the Declaration of Independence; the Mayflower Compact; the writings, speeches, documents, and proclamations of the founding fathers and presidents of the United States; United States Supreme Court decisions; and acts of the United States Congress including the published text of the Congressional Record. There shall be no content-based censorship of American history or heritage in the Commonwealth based on religious references in these writings, documents, and records.

158.200. Moral instruction.
The boards of education of independent and county school districts may provide for moral instruction of pupils in their jurisdiction, in the manner provided in KRS 158.210 to 158.260.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section is permissive, not mandatory. OAG 60-953.
The State Department of Education has no responsibility for released time religious instruction carried on by a school board in cooperation with churches in the school district. OAG 75-481.
Sections KRS 158.200 to 158.260 do not authorize the releasing of pupils for moral instruction on any basis other than one hour per week and thus a release on an accumulated basis, though equivalent, violates the statutes. OAG 75-218.

158.210. Survey of desire for moral instruction may be made.
The board of education of each school district may authorize a complete survey of all the pupils attending the public schools within the district and determine those pupils who desire moral instruction and have the consent of parent or guardian for the instruction.

Opinions of Attorney General. Students who have been excused from school to attend religious instruction, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 158.210 to 158.260, may be considered in attendance at the public schools for purposes of the Minimum Foundation Program. OAG 66-116.

158.220. Time allowed for moral instruction in suitable place.
The boards of education shall allow pupils who have expressed a desire for moral instruction to be excused for at least one (1) hour, one (1) day each week to attend their respective places of worship or some other suitable place to receive moral instruction in accordance with the religious faith or preference of the pupils.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under this section the Church of the Good Shepherd could, on a released time basis, provide confirmation instruction of one (1) hour each week in parish buildings to students attending the public school system. OAG 61-508.
The Legislature intended that the students be released from school for one (1) hour a week to go to religious instruction conducted by religious organizations of their faith without any coercion by teachers or school administration. OAG 63-937.
Whether students will actually be excused to receive moral instruction at a parochial school is discretionary with the board of education. OAG 66-116.
Under this section a local school board has authority to excuse students for organized religious services or instruction but that authority is limited to one (1) day per week and to a number of hours to be established by the board within the limits prescribed, the minimum being one (1) hour and the maximum determined by the length of the services or instruction. OAG 68-254.
Sections KRS 158.200 to 158.260 do not authorize the releasing of pupils for moral instruction on any basis other than one (1) hour per week, and thus a release on an accumulated basis, though equivalent, violates this section. OAG 75-218.
This section prohibits the use of public school buildings for moral instruction classes, irrespective of whether or not rent is paid for the use of the premises. OAG 75-595.

158.240. Credit for moral instruction.
Pupils who attend the classes for moral instruction at the time specified and for the period fixed shall be credited with the time spent as if they had been in actual attendance in school, and the time shall be calculated as part of the actual school work required by KRS 158.060. The pupil shall not be penalized for any school work missed during the specified time.

Opinions of Attorney General. Students who have been excused from school to attend religious instruction, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 158.210 to 158.260, may be considered in attendance at the public schools for purposes of the Minimum Foundation Program. OAG 66-116.

It is impermissible for a teacher incorporating classroom participation as part of the overall academic grade to give a student a lower grade in a course than he earned while in class for failure to participate in class on days when he was absent under a legitimate excused absence. OAG 79-539.

A school board may not adopt a plan to deduct points from a student's final grade for each unexcused absence. Despite the board's stated intent to act in the best interest of the students, the deduction of five (5) points from a pupil's final grade is a penalty. Such a penalty, in the guise of an incentive to get children to attend school, is not permissible; providing an opportunity for a student to make up the points does not change this conclusion — it is still an impermissible penalty. OAG 90-28.

A school board's decision not to differentiate between excused and unexcused absences was fatal to its policy of providing an opportunity for a student to make up the points does not change this conclusion — it is still an impermissible penalty. OAG 90-28.

158.250. Activities for nonparticipants in moral instruction classes.

Any pupil who does not participate in the moral instruction shall remain in school during the time when the instruction is being given, and shall take noncredit enrichment courses or participate in educational activities not required in the regular curriculum, and that time shall be calculated as part of the actual school-work required by KRS 158.060. Students of different grade levels may be placed into combined classrooms in accordance with maximum class size allotments as described in KRS 157.360. These courses or activities shall be supervised by certified school personnel and may include, but are not limited to, the following: study hall, computer instruction, music, art, library, physical education, and tutorial assistance.

158.280. Instruction in the environment — Selection of books for. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1944, ch. 157; 1972, ch. 41, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1984, ch. 105, § 1, effective July 13, 1984.

158.281. Definitions for KRS 156.476, 158.281, 158.282, and 161.051.

As used in KRS 156.476, 158.282, 161.051, and this section:

1. “Braille” means the system of reading and writing through touch commonly known as Standard English Braille;
2. “Individualized education program (IEP)” means a written statement developed for an exceptional student eligible for special education services in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to KRS 157.200 to 157.290;
3. “Blind student” means a student between the ages of three (3) and twenty-one (21) for whom an individualized education program is required and who:
   a. Has a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting lenses or has a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter subtends an angular distance of no greater than twenty degrees; or
   b. Has a medically indicated expectation of visual deterioration which would bring the student within the provisions of subsection (3)(a) of this section; or
   c. Functions as if he is blind even though the student may not technically meet the visual acuity or medical standards set forth in this subsection.

(3) ''Blind student'' means a student between the ages
4. “Moral instruction” means a program of moral instruction where the school is reimbursed to transport children participating in a released school time
5. “Instruction as to nature and effect of alcoholic liquor and narcotics required — Textbooks to include these subjects.”
6. “Instruction in the environment — Selection of books for.”
7. “Definitions for KRS 156.476, 158.281, 158.282, and 161.051.”

158.282. Instruction of all blind students in the use of braille — Assessment for blind students in program — Exceptions.
(1) The purpose of KRS 156.476, 158.281, 161.051, and this section shall be to assure, to the maximum extent possible, that all blind students shall be instructed in the use of braille.
(2) The written individualized education program for each exceptional student, as promulgated by administrative regulation, shall also include the following assessment for blind students:
(a) A braille skills inventory, including an assessment of the student’s strengths and weaknesses;
(b) A statement as to whether the use of braille shall be that student’s primary mode of communication;
(c) The date on which braille instruction shall begin;
(d) The length of the period of instruction, and the frequency and duration of each instructional session; and
(e) The level of competency in braille reading and writing to be achieved, and the assessment measures to be used in determining if that level has been achieved.
(3) Braille instruction and use shall not be required by this section if, during the course of developing the blind student’s individualized educational program, the members of the Administrative Admission and Release Committee as established for this purpose, pursuant to administrative regulations, concur that the student shall not be required to learn to read and write braille. In reaching its decision, the committee shall consider the student’s reading readiness, functional reading skills, reading comprehension rate and stamina, functional writing skills, communication skills, eye condition and prognosis, and functional vision and tactile discrimination skills. Upon reaching this determination the committee shall write into the individualized education program of a blind student, the factors and evidence considered by the committee in reaching its decision:
(4) Nothing in this section shall require the exclusive use of instruction in braille if other methods of reading and writing may also be learned by the student.

158.285. Teaching of Kentucky government — Statewide program — Instruction of all levels. [Repealed.]

158.286. Teaching of Kentucky government — Adoption of policies by local school districts. [Repealed.]

158.290. School fundraising activities.
(1) No student shall be compelled to solicit or meet any kind of quota in a fundraising activity. Solicitations by students shall be on a completely voluntary basis and no grade changes or any other sanctions shall be imposed for refusal or failure of a student to engage in any solicitations or other fundraising activity. No public school shall promote or engage in a schoolwide fundraising project without the prior approval of the local board of education.
(2) Nothing in this section shall prohibit student participation in classes in which salesmanship is an integral part of the prescribed curriculum.

Opinions of Attorney General. The phrase “schoolwide fund raising project” refers to each individual school or school building, and not the schools collectively within a school system, and only when the solicitation affects the entire school, not necessarily a percentage of the students participating, i.e., when the classes, clubs and organizations, etc., solicit or participate in a fund-raising activity, the profits from which will go to purchase an item for the school, then such a fundraising activity would need to be approved by the local board of education. OAG 78-508.

The prohibition of subsection (1) of this section does not reach participation or involvement in voluntary extracurricular activities sponsored or endorsed by a local school system. OAG 79-330.

The fact that school children participate during nonschool hours in Booster Club activities, or that the activity takes place on school property with prior approval of the local board, does not require the school board to approve of the Booster Club fund raising activity even if it is a so-called “school wide fund raising project.” OAG 79-556.

158.292. Excused absences for students who serve as election officers.
Students who serve as election officers under KRS 117.045(9) shall be granted one (1) day of excused absence for each election day served.

158.293. Excused absences for secondary school students who participate in Military Burial Honor Guard Program — Inclusion in instructional program.
(1) An excused absence may be granted, subject to approval by the local school board, to all students of Kentucky secondary schools who participate in the Military Burial Honor Guard Program, as set out in KRS 36.390 to 36.396. Most likely these would be students already participating in JROTC, drum corps, or other military programs; however, the Military Burial Honor Guard Program is not limited to these students. This excused absence should include time spent training, traveling, and participating in the Military Burial Honor Guard Program.
(2) The local school board may also adopt a policy to allow students to participate in the Military Burial Honor Guard Program as a part of the instructional program.

SCHOOL SAFETY AND SCHOOL DISCIPLINE

158.440. Legislative findings on school safety and order.

The General Assembly finds that:
(1) Every student should have access to a safe, secure, and orderly school that is conducive to learning;
(2) All schools and school districts must have plans, policies, and procedures dealing with measures for assisting students who are at risk of academic failure or of engaging in disruptive and disorderly behavior; and
(3) State and local resources are needed to enlarge the capacities for research, effective programming, and program evaluation that lead to success in addressing safety and discipline within the schools.

Cross-References. Requirements for school and district report cards, 703 KAR 5:140.

158.441. Definitions for chapter.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:
(1) “Intervention services” means any preventive, developmental, corrective, supportive services or treatment provided to a student who is at risk of school failure, is at risk of participation in violent behavior or juvenile crime, or has been expelled from the school district. Services may include, but are not limited to, screening to identify students at risk for emotional disabilities and antisocial behavior; direct instruction in academic, social, problem solving, and conflict resolution skills; alternative educational programs; psychological services; identification and assessment of abilities; counseling services; medical services; day treatment; family services; work and community service programs.
(2) “School resource officer” means a sworn law enforcement officer who has specialized training to work with youth at a school site. The school resource officer shall be employed through a contract between a local law enforcement agency and a school district.

158.442. Center for School Safety — Duties — Members of board.
(1) The General Assembly hereby authorizes the establishment of the Center for School Safety. The center’s mission shall be to serve as the central point for data analysis; research; dissemination of information about successful school safety programs, research results, and new programs; and, in collaboration with the Department of Education and others, to provide technical assistance for safe schools.
(2) To fulfill its mission, the Center for School Safety shall:
   (a) Establish a clearinghouse for information and materials concerning school violence prevention;
   (b) Provide program development and implementation expertise and technical support to schools, law enforcement agencies, and communities, which may include coordinating training for administrators, teachers, students, parents, and other community representatives;
   (c) Analyze the data collected in compliance with KRS 158.444;
   (d) Research and evaluate school safety programs so schools and communities are better able to address their specific needs;
   (e) Administer a school safety grant program for local districts as directed by the General Assembly;
   (f) Promote the formation of interagency efforts to address discipline and safety issues within communities throughout the state in collaboration with other postsecondary education institutions and with local juvenile delinquency prevention councils;
   (g) Prepare and disseminate information regarding best practices in creating safe and effective schools;
   (h) Advise the Kentucky Board of Education on administrative policies and administrative regulations; and
   (i) Provide an annual report by July 1 of each year to the Governor, the Kentucky Board of Education, and the Interim Joint Committee on Education regarding the status of school safety in Kentucky.
(3) The Center for School Safety shall be governed by a board of directors appointed by the Governor. Members shall consist of:
   (a) The commissioner or a designee of the Department of Education;
   (b) The commissioner or a designee of the Department of Juvenile Justice;
   (c) The commissioner or a designee of the Department for Mental Health and Mental Retardation Services;
   (d) The commissioner or a designee of the Department for Community Based Services;
   (e) The secretary or a designee of the Education, Arts, and Humanities Cabinet;
   (f) A juvenile court judge;
   (g) A local school district board of education member;
   (h) A local school administrator;
   (i) A school council parent representative;
   (j) A teacher;
   (k) A classified school employee; and
   (l) A superintendent of schools who is a member of the Kentucky Association of School Administrators.

In appointing the board of education member, the school administrator, the school superintendent, the school council parent member, the teacher, and the classified employee, the Governor shall solicit recommendations from the following groups respectively: the Kentucky School Boards Association, the Kentucky Association of School Administrators, the Kentucky Association of School Councils, the Kentucky Education Association, and the Kentucky Education Support Personnel Association. The initial board shall be appointed by July 15, 1998. The board shall hold its first meeting no later than thirty (30) days after the appointment of the members.

158.443. Terms of board members — Meetings — Selection of administering university — Duties of board of directors.
(1) Each nonstate-government employee member of the board of directors for the Center for School Safety shall serve a term of two (2) years and may be reappointed, but a member shall not serve more than two (2) consecutive terms.
(2) The members who are nonstate-government employees shall be reimbursed for travel, meals, and lodging and expenses relating to official duties of the board from funds appropriated for this purpose.
(3) The board of directors shall meet a minimum of four (4) times per year. The board of directors shall be attached to the office of the secretary of the Education, Arts, and Humanities Cabinet for administrative purposes.
(4) The board of directors shall annually elect a chair and vice chair from the membership. The board may form committees as needed.
(5) Using a request-for-proposal process, the board of directors shall select a public university to administer the Center for School Safety for a period of not less than four (4) years unless funds for the center are not appropriated or the board determines that the university is negligent in carrying out its duties as specified in the request for proposal and contract. The initial request for proposals shall be issued not later than September 15, 1998. The board shall select a university no later than Janu-
The board of directors shall annually approve:
(a) A work plan for the center;
(b) A budget for the center;
(c) Operating policies as needed; and
(d) Recommendations for grants, beginning in the 1999-2000 school year and subsequent years, to local school districts and schools to assist in the development of programs and individualized approaches to work with violent, disruptive, or academically at-risk students, and consistent with provisions of KRS 158.445.

(7) The board of directors shall prepare a biennial budget request to support the Center for School Safety and to provide program funds for local school district grants.

(8) The board shall develop model interagency agreements between local school districts and other local public agencies, including, among others, health departments, departments of social services, mental health agencies, and courts, in order to provide cooperative services and sharing of costs for services to students who are at risk of school failure, are at risk of participation in juvenile crime, or have been expelled from the school district.

158.444. Administrative regulations — Role of Department of Education.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate appropriate administrative regulations relating to school safety, student discipline, and related matters.

(2) The Kentucky Department of Education shall:
(a) Establish and maintain a statewide data collection system by which school districts shall report by sex, race, and grade level:
1. All incidences of violence and assault against school employees and students; incidences of possession of guns or other deadly weapons on school property or at school functions; and incidences of the possession or use of alcohol, prescription drugs, or controlled substances on school property or at school functions;
2. The number of arrests, the charges, and whether civil damages were pursued by the injured party;
3. The number of suspensions, expulsions, and corporal punishments; and
4. Data required during the assessment process under KRS 158.445.

The department shall provide all data collected relating to this subsection to the Center for School Safety according to timelines established by the center.

158.445. Local assessment of school safety and student discipline — District assessment — Local plans.

(1) Each local school shall begin an assessment of school safety and student discipline during the 1998-1999 school year including a review of the following:
(a) Reports of school incidents relating to disruptive behaviors;
(b) The school's behavior and discipline codes for clarity and appropriate notice to students and parents;
(c) The school's hierarchy of responses to discipline problems and actual disciplinary outcomes;
(d) Training needs for instructional staff in classroom management, student learning styles, and other specialized training to enhance teachers' capacity to engage students and minimize disruptive behavior;
(e) The array of school services to students at risk of academic failure, dropping out, or truancy;
(f) The engagement of parents at the earliest stages of problem behavior;
(g) Training needs for students in the development of core values and qualities of good character, anger reduction, conflict resolution, peer mediation, and other necessary skills;
(h) Training needs of parents;
(i) Existing school council policies relating to student discipline and student information;
(j) The school's physical environment;
(k) The school's student supervision plan;
(l) Existing components of the school improvement plan or consolidated plan that focus on school safety and at-risk students, and the effectiveness of the components; and
(m) Other data deemed relevant by the school council or school administration.

A school that does not complete an assessment process shall not be eligible for funds under the state school safety grant program in 1999-2000 and subsequent years.

(2) By May 15, 1999, each local school district shall complete a district-level assessment of district-level data, resources, policies and procedures, and district-wide needs as identified from the individual school assessment process. The district shall engage local community agencies including law enforcement and the courts in the assessment process.

(3) As a result of the district assessment and analysis of data, resources, and needs, each board of education shall adopt a plan for immediate and long-term strategies to address school safety and discipline. The development of the plan shall involve at least one (1) representative from each school in the district as well as representatives from the community as a whole, including representatives from the local juvenile delinquency prevention council if a council exists in that community. The process of planning shall be determined locally depending to a large extent on the size and characteristics of the district.

(4) The district plan under subsection (3) of this section shall be the basis for any request for funds under the state school safety grant program for 1999-2000 and subsequent years. The district plan shall include the local code of acceptable behavior and discipline as required under KRS 158.148 and a description of instructional placement options for threatening or violent students.

158.446. Use of appropriated funds. Of the funds appropriated to support the school safety fund program in the biennial budget, twenty percent (20%) of the funds in 1998-99, and ten percent (10%) in 1999-2000, shall be used for the operation of the Center for School Safety and grants to be distributed by the Center to support exemplary programs in local school districts. The remainder of the appropriation shall be distributed to local school districts on a per pupil basis. The funds shall be used for the purpose of improving school safety and student discipline through alternative education programs and intervention services in compliance with KRS 158.148, 158.150, and 158.445. School districts shall be responsible for documenting the purposes for which these funds were expended.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT AND DUAL ENROLLMENT

158.622. Administrative regulations of Kentucky Board of Education relating to advanced placement courses — Duties of Department of Education relating to advanced placement and dual enrollment programs — Credit for Virtual High School and advanced placement courses.

(1) By December 31, 2002, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations establishing the criteria a school shall meet in order to designate a course an advanced placement course, including content and program standards concerning student admission criteria, data collection, and reporting.

(2) Upon receipt of adequate federal funding for these purposes, by December 31, 2002, the Department of Education shall:

(a) Expand advanced placement teacher training institutes, including offering advanced placement teacher training instruction and assistance through the Kentucky Virtual High School or in conjunction with the Council on Postsecondary Education through the Kentucky Virtual University;

(b) Require teachers who are planning to participate in advanced placement teacher training and complete advanced placement training at advanced placement institutes facilitated by the department to sign an agreement to teach at least one (1) advanced placement course in a Kentucky public school or the Kentucky Virtual High School when assigned by the school principal;

(c) Develop the Kentucky Virtual Advanced Placement Academy which shall offer school districts and their students access to a core advanced placement curriculum through the Kentucky Virtual High School;
(d) Identify, in conjunction with the Council on Postsecondary Education, resources at the secondary and postsecondary levels that can be directed toward advanced placement or dual enrollment instruction;

(e) Compare the costs of offering advanced placement courses through traditional on-site instruction, the Kentucky Virtual High School, and other methods and shall offer each school district assistance, if requested, in analyzing how the school district can most cost-effectively offer the largest number of advanced placement courses;

(f) Identify current and future funding sources for advanced placement or dual enrollment instructional programs and the amount of funds available or anticipated from those sources; and

(g) Submit a report to the Kentucky General Assembly outlining compliance with this section.

(3) Beginning with the 2002-2003 school year and thereafter, each school district shall:

(a) Accept for credit toward graduation any course a student successfully completes through the Kentucky Virtual High School and incorporate the grade the student receives in a Kentucky Virtual High School course in calculating that student’s grade point average without distinction between the grade received in the Kentucky Virtual High School course and courses taught within the school district for which the student receives a grade;

(b) Accept for credit toward graduation and completion of high school course requirements an advanced placement, a high school equivalent, or a Kentucky Virtual High School course taken by a student in grades 5, 6, 7, or 8 if that student attains performance levels expected of high school students in that district as determined by achieving a score of “3” or higher on a College Board Advanced Placement examination or a grade of “B” or better in a high school equivalent or a Kentucky Virtual High School course; and

(c) Pay tuition and other costs for students from their districts who are enrolled in a Kentucky Virtual High School course for credit that is part of the student’s regular school day coursework by proportionately sharing funds generated under KRS 157.360 or other funding sources.

EDUCATIONAL IMPROVEMENT

158.645. Capacities required of students in public education system.

The General Assembly recognizes that public education involves shared responsibilities. State government, local communities, parents, students, and school employees must work together to create an efficient public school system. Parents and students must assist schools with efforts to assure student attendance, preparation for school, and involvement in learning. The cooperation of all involved is necessary to assure that desired outcomes are achieved. It is the intent of the General Assembly to create a system of public education which shall allow and assist all students to acquire the following capacities:

(1) Communication skills necessary to function in a complex and changing civilization;

(2) Knowledge to make economic, social, and political choices;

(3) Core values and qualities of good character to make moral and ethical decisions throughout his or her life;

(4) Understanding of governmental processes as they affect the community, the state, and the nation;

(5) Sufficient self-knowledge and knowledge of his mental and physical wellness;

(6) Sufficient grounding in the arts to enable each student to appreciate his or her cultural and historical heritage;

(7) Sufficient preparation to choose and pursue his life’s work intelligently; and

(8) Skills to enable him to compete favorably with students in other states.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

2. Testing Program.

The essential strategic point of the Kentucky Educational Reform Act (Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 476) is the decentralization of decision making authority so as to involve all participants in the school system, not limited to, but including school councils and local school boards; affording each the opportunity to contribute actively to the educational process and the provisions set out the structural framework by which this decentralization of decision making authority is to occur. Board of Educ. v. Bushee, 889 S.W.2d 809 (Ky. 1994).

2. Testing Program.
Regulations promulgated under the authority of KRS 156.160 authorize local school boards to establish additional graduation requirements above the minimum requirements established by the Kentucky Board of Education; such requirements may include a requirement that students take the Kentucky Instructional Results Information System (KIRIS) examination established by the Board under this act. Triplet v. Livingston County Bd. of Educ., 967 S.W.2d 25 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997), cert. denied, 525 U.S. 1104, 119 S. Ct. 870, 142 L. Ed. 2d 771 (1999).

158.6451. Legislative declaration on goals for Commonwealth’s schools—Model curriculum framework.

(1) The General Assembly finds, declares, and establishes that:
(a) Schools shall expect a high level of achievement of all students.
(b) Schools shall develop their students’ ability to:
   1. Use basic communication and mathematics skills for purposes and situations they will encounter throughout their lives;
   2. Apply core concepts and principles from mathematics, the sciences, the arts, the humanities, social studies, and practical living studies to situations they will encounter throughout their lives;
   3. Become self-sufficient individuals of good character exhibiting the qualities of altruism, citizenship, courtesy, honesty, human worth, justice, knowledge, respect, responsibility, and self-discipline;
   4. Become responsible members of a family, work group, or community, including demonstrating effectiveness in community service;
   5. Think and solve problems in school situations and in a variety of situations they will encounter in life; and
   6. Connect and integrate experiences and new knowledge from all subject matter fields with what they have previously learned and build on past learning experiences to acquire new information through various media sources.
(c) Schools shall increase their students’ rate of school attendance.
(d) Schools shall reduce their students’ dropout and retention rates.
(e) Schools shall reduce physical and mental health barriers to learning.
(f) Schools shall be measured on the proportion of students who make a successful transition to work, post-secondary education, and the military.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education shall disseminate to local school districts and schools a model curriculum framework which is directly tied to the goals, outcomes, and assessment strategies developed pursuant to this section and KRS 158.645 and 158.6453. The framework shall provide direction to local districts and schools as they develop their curriculum. The framework shall identify teaching and assessment strategies, instructional material resources, ideas on how to incorporate the resources of the community, a directory of model teaching sites, alternative ways of using school time, and strategies to incorporate character education throughout the curriculum.

158.6452. School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council.

(1) A School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council is hereby created to study, review, and make recommendations concerning Kentucky's system of setting academic standards, assessing learning, holding schools accountable for learning, and assisting schools to improve their performance. The council shall advise the Kentucky Board of Education and the Legislative Research Commission on issues related to the development and communication of the academic expectations and core content for assessment, the development and implementation of the statewide assessment and accountability program, the distribution of rewards and imposition of sanctions, and assistance for schools to improve their performance under KRS 158.6453, 158.6455, 158.782, and 158.805.

(2) The School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council shall be composed of seventeen (17) voting members appointed by the Governor. On making appointments to the council, the Governor shall assure broad geographical representation and representation of elementary, middle, and secondary school levels; assure equal representation of the two (2) sexes, inasmuch as possible; and assure that appointments reflect the minority racial composition of the Commonwealth. The members shall serve terms of two (2) years with no member serving more than two (2) consecutive terms, except that seven (7) of the initial appointments shall be for four (4) year terms. The members shall be appointed as follows:

(a) Two (2) parents from recommendations submitted by organizations representing school councils and parents;
(b) Two (2) teachers from recommendations submitted by organizations representing teachers;
(c) Two (2) superintendents from recommendations submitted by organizations representing superintendents;
(d) Two (2) principals from organizations representing school administrators;
(e) Two (2) local school board members from recommendations submitted by organizations representing school boards;
(f) Two (2) school district assessment coordinators from recommendations submitted by organizations representing district assessment coordinators;
(g) Two (2) employers in the state from recommendations submitted by organizations representing business and industry;
(h) Two (2) university professors with expertise in assessment and measurement; and
(i) One (1) at-large member.

(3) The School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council shall elect a chair annually from its membership.

(4) The members shall be remunerated for actual and necessary expenses incurred while attending meetings of the council or while serving as representative of the council.

(5) The School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council shall meet at least four (4) times each year at times and places as it determines by resolution.

(6) The School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council shall be attached to the Department of Education for administrative purposes. It shall be provided appropriate staff and resources to conduct its work.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall be responsible for creating and implementing a statewide assessment program to be known as the Commonwealth Accountability Testing System to ensure school accountability for student achievement of the goals set forth in KRS 158.645 and 158.6451. The board shall seek the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability in the development of the program. The statewide assessment program shall not include measurement of a student's ability to become a self-sufficient individual or to become a responsible member of a family, work group, or community.

(2) The assessment program shall include the following components:

(a) A customized or commercially available norm-referenced test that measures, to the extent possible, the core content for assessment. The test shall provide valid and reliable results for individual students;
(b) Open-response or multiple-choice items, or both, to assess student skills in reading, mathematics, science, social studies, the arts, the humanities, and practical living and vocational studies; and an on-demand assessment of student writing. These assessments shall measure, to the extent possible, the core content for assessment;
(c) Writing portfolios consisting of samples of student work. After receiving the advice of the Writing Advisory Committee, the Kentucky Board of Education shall, by September 1 following April 14, 1998, file a notice of intent to promulgate an administrative regulation which reduces the teacher and student time involved in preparing a writing portfolio. Time reduction strategies included in the administrative regulation may include, but are not limited to, limiting the number of revisions, or collecting entries at different grade levels;
(d) Performance assessment events for schools that have students enrolled in performing arts organizations sponsoring sanctioned events with an established protocol for adjudication; and
Results from the state assessment under this section shall be reported to the school district no later than one hundred fifty (150) days following the first day the assessment can be administered.

The Department of Education shall gather information to establish the validity of the assessment and accountability program. It shall develop a biennial plan for validation studies that shall include but not be limited to the consistency of student results across multiple measures, the congruence of school scores with documented improvements in instructional practice and the school learning environment, and the potential for all scores to yield fair, consistent, and accurate student performance level and school accountability decisions. Validation activities shall take place in a timely manner and shall include a review of the accuracy of scores assigned to students and schools, as well as of the testing materials. The plan shall be submitted to the Commission by July 1 of the first year of each biennium. A summary of the findings shall be submitted to the Legislative Research Commission by September 1 of the second year of the biennium.

In addition to statewide testing for the purpose of determining school success, the board shall have the responsibility of assisting local school districts and schools in developing and using continuous assessment strategies needed to assure student progress. The continuous assessment shall provide diagnostic information to improve instruction to meet the needs of individual students.

The Kentucky Board of Education, after the Department of Education has received advice from the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, shall promulgate an administrative regulation under KRS Chapter 13A to establish the components of a school report card that clearly communicates with parents and the public about school performance. The school report card shall be sent to the parents of the students of the districts, and a summary of the results for the district shall be published in the newspaper with the largest circulation in the county. It shall include but not be limited to the following components reported by race, gender, and disability when appropriate:

(a) Student academic achievement, including the results from each of the assessments administered under this section;
(b) Nonacademic achievement, including the school's attendance, retention, dropout rates, and student transition to adult life; and
(c) School learning environment, including measures of parental involvement.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Testing Program.

Regulations promulgated under the authority of KRS 156.160 authorize local school boards to establish additional graduation requirements above the minimum requirements established by the Kentucky Board of Education; such requirements may include a requirement that students take the Kentucky Instructional Results Information System (KIRIS) examination, established by the Board under KRS 158.645 et seq. Triplett v. Livingston County Bd. of Educ., 967 S.W.2d 25 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997), cert. denied, 525 U.S. 1104, 119 S. Ct. 870, 142 L. Ed. 2d 771 (1999).

158.6454. National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability.

The Legislative Research Commission shall appoint a National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability composed of no fewer than three (3) professionals with a variety of expertise in education testing and measurement. The panel shall advise the Commission and, upon approval of the director of the Commission, the Kentucky Board of Education and the Department of Education, in the implementation of KRS 158.6453 and 158.6455. The Commission is authorized to contract for the services and expenses of the panel members.

158.6455. System to identify and reward successful schools — School accountability index — Consequences for schools not meeting goals — Scholastic audits — Formula for school accountability and improvement goal — District accountability — Appeals of performance judgments.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that schools succeed with all students and receive the appropriate consequences in proportion to that success.

(1) (a) After receiving the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations in conformity with KRS 158.6471 and 158.6472 and KRS Chapter 13A to establish a system for identifying and rewarding successful schools. A reward shall be distributed to successful schools based on the number of full-time, part-time, and itinerant certified staff employed in the school on the last working day of the year of the reward to be used for school purposes as determined by the school council or, if none exists, the principal. The Kentucky Board of Education shall identify reports, paperwork requirements, and administrative regulations from which high performing schools shall be exempt.

(b) Effective July 1, 2006, the Kentucky Board of Education shall reward schools that exceed their improvement goal and have an annual average dropout rate below five percent (5%). A student shall be included in the annual average dropout rate if the student was enrolled in the school of record for at least thirty (30) days during the school year prior to the day he or she was recorded as dropping out of school. A student shall not be included in a school’s annual average dropout rate if:

1. The student is enrolled in a district-operated or district-contracted alternative program leading to a certificate of completion or a General Educational Development (GED) diploma; or
2. The student has withdrawn from school and is awarded a General Educational Development (GED) diploma by October 1 of the following school year.

(c) A student enrolled in a district-operated or district-contracted alternative program shall participate in the appropriate assessments required by the Commonwealth Accountability Testing System established in KRS 158.6453.

(2) After receiving the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate by administrative regulation in conformity with KRS 158.6471 and 158.6472 and KRS Chapter 13A the formula for a school accountability index to classify schools every two (2) years based on whether they have met their threshold level for school improvement, with school years 1998-2000 serving as the baseline. The formula shall reflect the school goals described in KRS 158.6451, except there shall be no measurement of the goals included in subsection (1)(b)3. and (1)(b)4.

(3) A student’s test scores shall be counted in the accountability index of:

1. The school in which the student is currently enrolled if the student has been enrolled in that school for at least one hundred (100) days of the school year prior to the beginning of the statewide testing period; or
2. The school in which the student was previously enrolled if the student was enrolled in that school for at least one hundred (100) days of the school year prior to the beginning of the statewide testing period; and
3. The school district if the student is enrolled in the district for at least one hundred (100) days of the school year prior to the beginning of the statewide testing period; or
4. The state if the student is enrolled in a Kentucky public school prior to the beginning of the statewide testing period.

(4) After receiving the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate an administrative regulation in conformity with KRS 158.6471 and 158.6472 and KRS Chapter 13A to establish appropriate consequences for schools failing to meet their threshold.

The consequences shall be designed to improve teaching and learning and may include, but not be limited to:

(a) A scholastic audit process under subsection (5) of this section to determine the appropriateness of a school’s classification and to recommend needed assistance;
(b) School improvement plans;
(c) Eligibility to receive Commonwealth school improvement funds under KRS 158.805;
(d) Education assistance from highly skilled certified staff under KRS 158.782;
(e) Evaluation of school personnel; and
(f) After receiving the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate an administrative regulation in conformity with KRS 158.6471 and 158.6472 and KRS Chapter 13A establishing the guidelines for conducting scholastic audits, which shall include the process for:

1. Appointing and training team members.
   The team shall include at least a highly skilled certified educator under KRS 158.782, a teacher, a principal or other local district administrator, a parent, and a university faculty member;

2. Reviewing a school’s learning environment, efficiency, and academic performance of students and the quality of the school council’s data analysis and planning in accordance with KRS 160.345(2)(j);

3. Evaluating each certified staff member assigned to the school. Only certified members of the audit team shall evaluate personnel; and

4. Making a recommendation to the Kentucky Board of Education about the appropriateness of a school’s classification and a recommendation concerning the assistance required by the school to improve teaching and learning.

(b) The scholastic audit team shall consider the functioning of the school council in its review and make recommendations for improvement of the school council, if needed, and concerning the authority of the school council if required under KRS 160.346.

(c) For information purposes, the board shall also conduct scholastic audits in a sample of schools that achieved their goal and report to the public on the resulting findings regarding each aspect of the schools’ operations required under subparagraph 2. of paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(6) All students who drop out of school during a school year shall be included in a school’s annual average school dropout rate, except as provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section.

(7) After receiving the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate an administrative regulation, in conformity with KRS 158.6471 and 158.6472 and KRS Chapter 13A, a system of district accountability that includes establishing a formula for accountability, goals for improvement over a two (2) year period, rewards for leadership in improving teaching and learning in the district, and consequences that address the problems and provide assistance when the district fails to achieve its goals set by the board.

(8) After receiving the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations in conformity with KRS 158.6471 and 158.6472 and KRS Chapter 13A, to establish a process whereby a school shall be allowed to appeal a performance judgment which it considers grossly unfair. Upon appeal, an administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. The state board may adjust a performance judgment on appeal when evidence of highly unusual circumstances warrants the conclusion that the performance judgment is based on fraud or a mistake in computations, is arbitrary, is lacking any reasonable basis, or when there are significant new circumstances occurring during the biennial assessment period which are beyond the control of the school.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/2004).
This section was amended by 2004 Ky. Acts chs. 58, 103, and 188, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

Opinions of Attorney General. A recommendation of dismissal of a certified staff member from a distinguished educator is binding on the superintendent. Upon receiving the recommendation, the superintendent is required to "notify the staff member pursuant to KRS 161.790." OAG 92-135.

Following the State Board's declaration that a school is "in crisis," the full-time and part-time members of the certified staff are automatically to be placed on probation. This occurs before any determination is made as to whether any particular teacher shall be dismissed, retained, or transferred. Once assigned to work with the school, the Kentucky Distinguished Educator is required, every six (6) months, to evaluate the certified staff, and to make recommendations to the superintendent regarding continued employment. OAG 92-135.

Only recommendations of dismissal from a distinguished educator to a superintendent are binding. Recommendations for transfer must conform to bargained contracts that are in effect between the school district and employees. Accordingly, the superintendent has discretion, when recommendations other than dismissal are made, to take such actions as are feasible, given the limitations of bargained contracts and of available vacancies. OAG 92-135.

Success of each school is to be determined by measuring the school's improvement in its proportion of successful students, based on the outcome goals. OAG 92-135.

Teachers dismissed upon recommendation of a distinguished educator continue to have a statutory right to be given cause for their dismissal and a right of appeal. OAG 92-135.

Termination of a teacher who is placed on probation under the criteria of subsection (5) of this section constitutes termination for cause under KRS 161.790, and accordingly invokes a right of appeal. OAG 92-135.

The distinguished educator has authority to override decisions of the school staff. The distinguished educator also has authority to override decisions of the local superintendent when recommending dismissal of certified personnel. OAG 92-135.

When a distinguished educator makes a dismissal recommendation to the superintendent pursuant to this section, that recommendation is binding on the superintendent. The recommendation is based on an individual evaluation of the teacher by the distinguished educator after a minimum of six (6) months of evaluation. In view of the fact that the termination is for cause, based on an evaluation of the teacher, some documentation or evidence is required. OAG 92-135.

This section permits a local school council or principal to use school reward money to pay teacher bonuses, and these bonuses are permissible under the Kentucky Constitution because they are "for school purposes." OAG 90-2.

Analyses

1. Testing program.
2. Unconstitutionally vague.
3. Reward entitlement.

1. Testing Program.
Regulations promulgated under the authority of KRS 156.160 authorize local school boards to establish additional graduation requirements above the minimum requirements established by the Kentucky Board of Education; such requirements may include a requirement that students take the Kentucky Instructional Results Information System (KIRIS) examination, established by the Board under KRS 158.645 et seq. 2. Unconstitutionally Vague.

3. Reward Entitlement.
A person who was a certified staff member when a school earned a reward, but was no longer on staff when the reward was received by the school, was entitled to a portion of the reward; further, a person who was on staff at the time the reward was received, but not when it was earned, is not entitled to a portion of the reward. Walker v. Kentucky Dep't of Educ., 981 S.W.2d 128 (Ky. Ct. App. 1998).

As used in this section and KRS 158.6452, 158.6453, and 158.6454, unless the context requires otherwise:
(1) "Accountability index" means the statistic, as provided by KRS 158.6455(2), that combines a school's academic and nonacademic factors;
(2) "Core content for assessment" means the content identified for all students to know that is to be included on the state assessment; and
(3) "Nonacademic factors" means the statistic that describes school success on:
(a) Increasing attendance and decreasing retention rates at the elementary school level;
(b) Increasing attendance rates and decreasing retention and dropout rates at the middle school level; and
(c) Increasing attendance rates and decreasing retention and dropout rates and improving the transition to adult life at the secondary school level.
(Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 598, § 1, effective April 14, 1998.)

The Department of Education shall develop a plan for implementing the state assessment and accountability system created under KRS 158.6453 and 158.6454 and shall report quarterly to the Interim Joint Committee on Education on its progress in the following areas:
(1) Establishing a consistent structure of test components, grade-level testing distribution, and test administration procedures;
(2) Beginning a new cycle of equating procedures for which their adequacy and precision can be tested rigorously and conducting appropriate equating analyses to accommodate the new accountability system;
(3) Publishing more complete and informative guides for interpreting school accountability index score changes that include information about the estimated error of the accountability index, as well as information about the connections between index score changes and estimated changes in student performance levels;
(4) Reviewing school accountability classifications to assure their construct validity in all cases where they are applied;
(5) Maintaining and strengthening the annual audit of portfolio scores in ways that serve to minimize the differences between teacher-produced scores and audit-generated scores;

(6) Developing and implementing a validity research plan as required under KRS 158.6453;

(7) Establishing additional routine audits of key processes in the assessment and accountability program;

(8) Maintaining and cataloging a library of technical documents related to the assessment and accountability program for internal and external review purposes. In addition, the department shall produce an annual technical report for audiences that include educators, testing coordinators, parents, and legislators; and

(9) Maintaining a vigorous ongoing program of research and documentation of the effects of the assessment and accountability system on Kentucky schools.

158.646. Kentucky Institute for Education Research Board.

(1) The Kentucky Institute for Education Research Board is hereby created.

(2) The board shall establish a corporation which can qualify and obtain status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The purpose and mission of the corporation shall be to solicit and raise funds through private foundations, grants, and governmental agencies to support the independent evaluation of the Kentucky Education Reform Act and related activities. The corporation shall serve as a stimulus and clearinghouse for Kentucky Education Reform Act related research projects.

(3) (a) The board shall cause an in-depth evaluation of the impact of Kentucky Education Reform Act to be performed. This evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, the effect of the reforms on students, individual schools, school systems, and educators. The evaluation shall also include an analysis of the reliability and validity of the changes in scores between baseline scores and scores from subsequent administrations of tests.

(b) The board shall make recommendations to the citizens and elected leaders of the Commonwealth concerning the enhancement of the benefits of the Kentucky Education Reform Act and the expansion and improvement of services to students.

(c) The board shall establish an organizational capacity to:

1. Develop and manage implementation of a research design to include the issuing of requests for proposals; awarding of contracts; and general oversight and coordination of the quality and quantity of research;

2. Conduct research in accordance with a comprehensive research design and establish priorities; and

3. Design and implement a comprehensive educational data information system.

(d) The board shall prepare an annual report of its activities and the activities of the corporation and forward copies to the Governor, the Legislative Research Commission, the Kentucky Board of Education, and the Council on Postsecondary Education and make copies available to the citizens of the Commonwealth.

(e) The board shall hire an executive officer and other necessary personnel to carry out its responsibilities.

(f) The board shall consist of ten (10) members who shall initially be appointed to two (2) year terms by the Governor. The board shall select from its membership a chairperson and establish bylaws, including bylaws governing board membership and length of terms. Upon expiration of the initial appointments and adoption of bylaws governing membership and length of terms by the board, the board shall be self-perpetuating, and the appointment and length of terms shall be made in accordance with the board's bylaws. Vacancies which occur before the expiration of the initial appointments shall be filled by the Governor for the remaining term of the vacancy.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (9/16/96). This statute has been renumbered as KRS 158.646 from KRS 158.683 in order to remove the statute from the sunset provision contained in KRS 158.710(6). Initial placement of this statute within the range set out in the sunset provision was an inadvertent mistake in codification. 1994 Ky. Acts ch. 408, sec. 1 did not direct that the statute be placed within the range set out in the sunset provision.

Compiler's Notes. This section was formerly codified as KRS 158.683 and was renumbered by the Revisor of Statutes as KRS 158.646, effective September 16, 1996.

Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is compiled as 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

The Kentucky Education Reform Act referred to in subsection (2) of this section was enacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476 and is compiled mainly throughout Title XII. Education.

158.647. Education Assessment and Accountability Review Subcommittee — Members — Duties — Vote required to act.

(1) A permanent subcommittee of the Legislative Research Commission to be known as the Education Assessment and Accountability Review Subcommittee is hereby created. The subcommittee shall be composed of eight (8) members appointed as follows: three (3) members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate; one (1) member of the minority party in the Senate appointed by the Minority Floor Leader in the Senate; three (3) members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and one (1) member of the minority party in the House of Representatives appointed by the Minority Floor Leader in the House of Representatives. Members of the subcommittee shall serve for terms of two (2) years, and the members appointed from each chamber shall elect one (1) member from their chamber to serve as co-chair. The co-chairs shall have joint responsibilities for subcommittee meeting agendas and presiding at subcommittee meetings. A majority of the entire membership of the Education Assessment and Accountability Review Subcommittee shall constitute a quorum, and all actions of the subcommittee shall be by vote of a majority of its entire membership. Any vacancy that may occur in the membership of the subcommittee shall be filled by the same appointing authority who made the original appointment.

(2) The subcommittee shall review administrative regulations and advise the Kentucky Board of Education concerning the implementation of the state system of assessment and accountability, established in KRS 158.6453, 158.6455, and 158.782.

(3) The subcommittee shall advise and monitor the Office of Education Accountability in the performance of its duties according to the provisions of KRS 7.410.

(4) On an alternating basis, each co-chair shall have the first option to set the monthly meeting date. A monthly meeting may be canceled by agreement of both co-chairs. The members of the subcommittee shall be compensated for attending meetings as provided in KRS 7.090.

(5) Any professional, clerical, or other employees required by the subcommittee shall be provided in accordance with the provisions of KRS 7.090.

158.6471. Meetings — Required attendance for department representative — Report — Assignment of regulation to committee — Consideration.

(1) Within forty-five (45) days after publication of an administrative regulation in "The Administrative Register" or within sixty (60) days of the receipt of a statement of consideration, the Education Assessment and Accountability Review Subcommittee shall meet to review the administrative regulation.

(2) The meetings shall be open to the public.

(3) Public notice of the time, date, and place of the subcommittee meeting shall be given in The Administrative Register.

(4) A representative of the Department of Education shall be present to explain the administrative regulation and to answer questions thereon. If a representative of the Department of Education is not present at the subcommittee meeting, the administrative regulation shall be deferred to the next regularly scheduled meeting of the subcommittee.

(5) Following the meeting and before the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Legislative Research Commission, the subcommittee shall forward to the Commission its findings, recommendations, or other comments it deems appropriate in writing. The subcommittee shall also forward to the Commission its findings, recommendations, or other comments it deems appropriate on an existing administrative regulation it has reviewed. One (1) copy shall be sent to the Department of Education. The subcommittee’s findings shall be published in The Administrative Register.

(6) (a) After review by the subcommittee, the Commission shall at its next regularly scheduled meeting assign the matter as appropriate to the Interim Joint Committee on Education, the Senate standing Education Committee, the House standing Education Committee, or the Senate and the House standing committees meeting jointly.

(b) Upon notification of the assignment by the Commission, the Education Committee shall notify the regulations compiler:

1. Of the date, time, and place of the meeting at which it will consider the matter; or

2. That it will not meet to consider the matter.

(7) Within thirty (30) days of the assignment, the Education Committee, when it plans to consider an administrative regulation, shall hold a public meeting during which the regulation shall be reviewed. If the thirtieth day of the assignment falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the deadline for review shall be the workday following the Saturday, Sunday, or holiday. The committee may also review an existing administrative regulation and make a determination as provided by KRS 13A.030(2) and (3). Notice of the time, date, and place of the meeting shall be placed in the legislative calendar.

(8) The Department of Education shall comply with subsection (4) of this section.

(9) The Education Committee shall be empowered to make the same nonbinding determinations and to exercise the same authority as the Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee.

(10) (a) Upon adjournment of the meeting at which the Education Committee has considered an administrative regulation pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, the committee shall inform the regulations compiler of its findings, recommendations, or other action taken on the administrative regulation.

(b) Following the meeting and before the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Commission, the committee shall forward to the Commission its findings, recommendations, or other comments it deems appropriate in writing. One (1) copy shall be sent to the Depart-
158.6472. Review of administrative regulations. The review of administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education under the authority granted by KRS 158.6453, 158.6455, and 158.782 shall comply with the provisions of KRS 158.6471 and KRS Chapter 13A.

(1) The State Advisory Council for Gifted and Talented Education is hereby created and attached to the Kentucky Department of Education. The council's purpose is to make recommendations regarding the provisions of services for gifted and talented students in Kentucky's education system.

(a) The council shall be composed of nineteen (19) voting members who shall be appointed by the Governor and three (3) nonvoting, ex officio members. The members shall be appointed representing various constituencies as follows:

1. Four (4) members shall be teachers within local school districts representing elementary, middle, and high school levels with at least one (1) full-time teacher of gifted and talented students and one (1) full-time teacher who teaches in a regular classroom;
2. Four (4) members shall be parents of students in local school districts, including two (2) parents of students identified as gifted and talented and at least one (1) who serves or has served on a school council;
3. Three (3) members shall be from postsecondary education institutions, including one (1) from an independent college or university;
4. One (1) member shall be a superintendent of a local school district;
5. Two (2) members shall be principals, including one (1) from an elementary or middle school and one (1) from a high school;
6. Two (2) members shall be coordinators of gifted and talented programs and services in local school districts;
7. One (1) member shall be a local board of education member;
8. One (1) member shall represent the visual and performing arts; and
9. One (1) member shall be appointed from the private business sector.

(b) The three (3) nonvoting ex officio members shall be: the state consultant for gifted and talented education in the Kentucky Department of Education, a staff person designated by the executive secretary of the Education Professional Standards Board, and a staff person designated by the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education. Vacancies shall be filled by the Governor as they occur in a manner consistent with the provisions for initial appointment.

(c) Each board member shall serve a three (3) year term or until a successor is appointed, except that for initial appointments to the board, three (3) of the members shall be appointed to serve a one (1) year term, eight (8) of the members shall be appointed to serve a two (2) year term, and eight (8) of the members shall be appointed to serve a three (3) year term. A member may be reappointed but may not serve more than two (2) consecutive terms.

(2) The council shall advise the commissioner of education, the Kentucky Board of Education, and the Education Professional Standards Board concerning the development of administrative regulations and education policy regarding gifted and talented students. The commissioner of education and the executive secretary for the Education Professional Standards Board shall submit proposed administrative regulations and educational policies relating to gifted and talented education and other administrative regulations that impact gifted and talented students for review by the advisory council prior to seeking approval of the appropriate board.

(3) As the advisory council considers issues relating to gifted and talented students, it shall seek dialogue with other agencies and organizations, including the Parent Teachers Association, the Governor's Scholars Program, the Governor's School for the Arts, the Kentucky Association of School Councils, the Kentucky Association for Gifted Education, the Kentucky School Boards Association, the Kentucky Association of School Administrators, and the Kentucky Council for Exceptional Children.

(4) The advisory council shall annually elect a chair from its membership, establish meeting operational procedures, and meet at least two (2) times annually.

(5) The Department of Education shall provide staff and administrative support and shall administer the funds appropriated to support the expenses of the council.

(6) The members of the advisory council shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses in the same manner as state employees.

(1) "Achievement gap" means a substantive performance difference on each of the tested areas by grade level of the Commonwealth Accountability Testing System between the various groups of students including male and female students, students with and without disabilities, students with and without English proficiency, minority and nonminority students, and students who are eligible for free and reduced lunch and those who are not eligible for free and reduced lunch.

(2) By November 1 of each year, the Department of Education shall provide each school council, or the principal if a school council does not exist, data on its students’ performance as shown by the Commonwealth Accountability Testing System. The data shall include, but not be limited to, information on performance levels of all students tested, and information on the performance of students disaggregated by race, gender, disability, English proficiency, and participation in the federal free and reduced price lunch program. The information from the department shall include an equity analysis that shall identify the substantive differences among the various groups of students identified in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) By December 1, 2002, each school board of education upon the recommendation of the local district superintendent shall adopt a policy for reviewing the academic performance on the state assessments required under KRS 158.6453 for various groups of students, including major racial groups, gender, disability, free and reduced price school lunch eligibility, and limited English proficiency. The local board policy shall be consistent with Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations. Upon agreement of the school-based decision making council, or the principal if there is not a council, and the superintendent, the local board shall establish a biennial target for each school for reducing identified gaps in achievement as set out in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) By February 1, 2003, and each February 1 in odd-numbered years thereafter, the school-based decision making council, or the principal if there is not a council, with the involvement of parents, faculty, and staff shall set the school’s biennial targets for eliminating any achievement gap and submit them to the superintendent for consideration. The superintendent and the school-based decision making council, or the principal if there is not a council, shall agree on the biennial targets for reducing the gap in student achievement for the various groups of students identified in subsection (1) of this section.

(5) By April 1, 2003, and each April 1 in odd-numbered years thereafter, the school council, or the principal if a school council does not exist, with the involvement of parents, faculty, and staff, shall review the data and revise the consolidated plan to include the biennial targets, strategies, activities, and a time schedule calculated to eliminate the achievement gap among various groups of students to the extent it may exist. The plan shall include but not be limited to activities designed to address the following areas:
(a) Curriculum alignment within the school and with schools that send or receive the school’s students;
(b) Evaluation and assessment strategies to continuously monitor and modify instruction to meet student needs and support proficient student work;
(c) Professional development to address the goals of the plan;
(d) Parental communication and involvement;
(e) Attendance improvement and dropout prevention; and
(f) Technical assistance that will be accessed.

(6) The principal shall convene a public meeting at the school to present and discuss the plan prior to submitting it to the superintendent and the local board of education for review, in the public meeting required under KRS 160.340.

(7) Based on the disaggregated biennial assessment results, the local board shall determine if each school achieved its biennial targets for each group of students. Only data for a group of students including ten (10) or more students shall be considered.

(8) Notwithstanding KRS 160.345(8) and 158.070(8), if a local board determines that a school has not met its biennial target to reduce the identified gap in student achievement for a group of students, the local board shall require the council, or the principal if no council exists, to submit its revisions to the consolidated plan describing the use of professional development funds and funds allocated for continuing education to reduce the school’s achievement gap for review and approval by the superintendent. The plan shall address how the school will meet the academic needs of the students in the various groups identified in subsection (1) of this section.

(9) The superintendent shall report to the commissioner of education if a school fails to meet its targets to reduce the gap in student achievement for any student group for two (2) successive biennia. The school’s consolidated plan shall be subject to review and approval by the Kentucky Department of Education and the school shall submit an annual status report. The Department of Education may provide assistance to schools as it deems necessary to assist the school in meeting its goals.

(10) The school-based decision making council, or the principal if there is not a council, shall no longer be required to seek approval of the plan under subsections (8) and (9) of this section when it meets its biennial target for reducing the gap in student achievement for the various groups of students identified in subsection (1) of this section.

As used in KRS 158.680 to 158.710, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) “Department” means the Department of Education;
(2) “Competencies” means the possession of skills, knowledge, and understandings to the degree they can be demonstrated or measured;
(3) “Performance goals” means expected student and school district outcomes as approved by the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education;
158.660. Intent and purpose. [Repealed.]

158.665. Basic skills development regulations. [Repealed.]

158.670. Department to administer educational improvement act — Administrative regulations. [Repealed.]

158.680. State Advisory Committee for Educational Improvement. [Expired — See Compiler’s Notes.]

There shall be appointed by the Governor a State Advisory Committee for Educational Improvement in accordance with the following:

(1) The State Advisory Committee for Educational Improvement shall be eighteen (18) members broadly representative of citizens, parents, teachers, and administrators. Their principal duties shall be to advise the Governor, the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education, and the department on the implementation of the provisions of KRS 158.650 to 158.710 and KRS 158.6453 and 158.6455.

(2) All members shall be voting members appointed by the Governor and shall serve terms of four (4) years, except that the original appointments will be made as follows:

(a) Five (5) members for four (4) year terms;
(b) Five (5) members for three (3) year terms;
(c) Four (4) members for two (2) year terms; and
(d) Four (4) members for a one (1) year term.

(3) The State Advisory Committee for Educational Improvement shall elect a chairman annually from its membership;

(4) The members shall be remunerated for actual and necessary expenses incurred while attending meetings of the State Advisory Committee for Educational Improvement or while serving in the capacity as representative of the State Advisory Committee for Educational Improvement.

(5) The State Advisory Committee for Educational Improvement shall meet at least three (3) times each year at times and places as it determines by resolution.

(7/2/97). Although this statute has expired under the terms of KRS 158.710(6), this expiration has been suspended for the period of the 1996-98 biennium by 1996 Ky. Acts ch. 380, part IX, item 12. d., at 1965. 1986 Ky. Acts ch. 362, sec. 4 renamed the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education, referenced in subsection (1) of this statute, as the Kentucky Board of Education.

(7/15/96). Because this statute has expired as of June 30, 1996, under KRS 158.710(6), a reference to the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education in subsection (1) of this statute has not been changed to the Kentucky Board of Education as required by 1996 Ky. Acts ch. 362, sec. 6.

Compiler’s Notes. Pursuant to subsection (7) of KRS 158.710, this section became null and void on June 30, 1996.

Compiler’s Notes. This section was renumbered as KRS 158.646, effective September 16, 1996.

158.685. Standards of student, program, service, and operational performance to be established — Educationally deficient school district — Action to eliminate deficiency — Education development district. [Expired — See Compiler’s Notes.]

(1) The State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education shall adopt administrative regulations establishing standards which school districts shall meet in student, program, service, and operational performance. The State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education shall promulgate regulations establishing operational performance standards by January 1, 1991. These standards shall become effective on July 1, 1991.

(2) The State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education shall declare a school district to be educationally deficient when, in any school year, the district fails to meet minimum student, program, service, or operational performance standards.

(3) The chief state school officer shall provide consultation and assistance to any school district which has been declared educationally deficient by the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education. The school district shall be provided consultation and guidance relative to programs, services, finances, personnel, and any other areas where appropriate changes would be reasonably calculated to eliminate or alleviate the deficiency and in developing and implementing a district improvement plan pursuant to KRS 158.710. The changes may include improved personnel administration, more efficient management practices, and other administrative and academic actions to improve the local district’s performance. The Department of Education shall submit to the local board and superintendent a list of the services and technical assistance the department shall provide. The services listed may include activities and programs offered for the improvement of all districts. The list of services shall be attached to the district improvement plan when it is submitted to the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education for approval.

(4) Failure by an educationally deficient school district to meet the process goals, interim performance goals, or timelines set in the district improvement plan shall constitute grounds for removal of the superintendent and local board members from office and this action shall be initiated by the chief state school officer pursuant to KRS 156.132 and 156.136. The district shall also be declared an education development district. The State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education shall appoint the members of the district's board of education which shall have all the powers, duties, and responsibilities of an elected board, except as provided in this section. The appointed members shall serve a four (4) year term or until the district qualifies for an elected board and the duly elected members have taken office, whichever occurs first. When a new superintendent of schools is selected by the local board, the chief state school officer shall approve the selection before the appointment shall become official. The local board shall revise the district improvement plan with the assistance of the Department of Education. The Department of Education shall continue to provide the district consultation and assistance pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. Local board elections shall resume in the first even-numbered year following two (2) consecutive years of meeting the performance standards set by the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education. This section shall not create a statutory cause of action for educational malpractice by students, their parents or guardians.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/96). Because this statute has expired as of June 30, 1996, under KRS 158.710(6), references to the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education within the statute have not been changed to the Kentucky Board of Education as required by 1996 Ky. Acts ch. 362, sec. 6.

Compiler’s Notes. Pursuant to subsection (6) of KRS 158.710, this section became null and void on June 30, 1996.

158.710. Responsibilities and functions of educationally deficient districts and education development districts — Plans required — Reports required. [Expired. See Compiler’s Notes.]

Each educationally deficient district and education development district shall assume the following responsibilities and functions in implementing the provisions of KRS 158.680 to 158.710:

(1) The district shall develop a plan to improve the education of all students enrolled in preschool and the primary program through grade twelve (12). In developing the plan and prior to approval by the local board of education, the district shall involve local citizens, parents, students, teachers, and administrators. The district, pursuant to KRS 158.685, shall involve Department of Education consultants in the development of the plan;

(2) Educationally deficient districts and education development districts pursuant to KRS 158.685 shall submit a plan each year, or more frequently if ordered by the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education, listing new process goals, the interim performance goals, and timelines until the deficiency has been eliminated;

(3) Local school personnel shall ascertain areas of strength and areas needing improvement in the school program as revealed by the test results and other student assessments and with the advice and counsel of the representatives mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, shall develop appropriate programs to address educational areas needing improvement for all students in preschool and the primary program through grade twelve (12);

(4) The district improvement plan developed and submitted to the department shall include the following:

(a) Performance goals or interim performance goals;

(b) Product goals;

(c) A list of individuals, by occupation, or groups involved in developing the plan;

(d) The areas of needed improvement as revealed by the district assessment results;

(e) A list of priorities for program implementation;

(f) The objectives and activities deemed appropriate and necessary for alleviating the observed educational areas of needed improvement;

(g) A calendar of events and timeline, for implementation;

(h) A brief report, each succeeding year, or more frequently if required by the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education, after submission of the initial plan, of the program status and progress made in areas of needed improvement.

(5) The district improvement plan shall be coordinated with the master staff development plan and the Department of Education shall provide technical assistance in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of this coordination.

(6) Effective June 30, 1996, KRS 158.650 to 158.710 shall become null and void.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/96). Because this statute has expired as of June 30, 1996, under subsection (6) of the statute, references to the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education within the statute have not been changed to the Kentucky Board of Education as required by 1996 Ky. Acts ch. 362, sec. 6.

Compiler’s Notes. Pursuant to subsection (7) of KRS 158.710, this section became null and void on June 30, 1996.

158.720. Coordination of local educational improvement plan with master inservice educational plan — Technical assistance by department. [Repealed.]

158.730. Department to submit plans and reports to various officers and agencies. [Repealed.]

158.740. Title. [Repealed.]

158.760. School-to-Careers System — Legislative intent — Goals.

1. It is the intent of the General Assembly that a School-to-Careers System be developed to serve as an umbrella for career-related programs in the public schools, including School-to-Work, Tech Prep, and High Schools That Work initiatives.

(2) The goals of the School-to-Careers System shall be to:

(a) Increase the math, science, communications, social studies, and technical skills of all students through the implementation of a more rigorous and relevant applied curriculum and instructional process;

(b) Increase the awareness of job and career availability in the future workforce and the skills required to obtain those positions;

(c) Increase the postsecondary education’s entry and completion rates and reduce the percentage of students taking remedial courses;

(d) Decrease the high school dropout rate through a system of increased guidance and extra help focused on academics and career achievement;

(e) Make all students aware of employer expectations in order to be successful;

(f) Increase the daily attendance rate at all secondary schools; and

(g) Provide the educational experiences that will cause all students to meet the goals and capacities identified in KRS 158.645 and KRS 158.6451 for Kentucky students.

158.7603. School-to-Careers Grant Program — Authority for administrative regulations — Advisory committee.

(1) The School-to-Careers Grant Program shall be provided by the General Assembly to provide matching funds to school districts or consortia of school districts for the development and implementation of comprehensive plans that include:

(a) A comprehensive career awareness and exploration program for all students in grades K-8 to include study of Kentucky’s fourteen (14) career clusters;

(b) High level academic and vocational courses for all secondary students to replace a general track curriculum;

(c) A comprehensive career guidance program to assist all secondary students in developing individual graduation plans;

(d) Applied academic instructional models for all disciplines and integration of academics and vocational education curriculum;

(e) Implementation of industry skill standards within all relevant academic and vocational education programs;

(f) Planned instructional programs to meet the needs of students with disabilities and other special needs students;

(g) Opportunity for students to receive, in addition to a high school diploma, a Career Major Certificate upon completion of the high school graduation requirements, work-based learning experiences, specific course work, and a career culminating project;

(h) Opportunity for students to participate in structured workbased learning;

(i) Linkages with postsecondary institutions that create a smooth and seamless transition from secondary to postsecondary education;

(j) Professional development for faculty and staff focused on developing integrated and applied curriculum; and

(k) A School-to-Careers Partnership Council composed of representatives of business, labor, education agencies, parents, students, teachers, administrators, and community organizations.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations that set forth the request for proposal process, the criteria for grant awards, the responsibilities of local districts and consortia seeking matching funds, the level of funding available, and criteria for evaluating the success of the programs.

(3) The Department of Education shall administer the funds and shall provide technical assistance to local districts and consortia in developing, implementing, and evaluating School-to-Careers programs.

(4) The commissioner of education shall establish a state advisory committee composed of business, industry, labor, education, and government with a minimum of fifty-one percent (51%) of its membership from the employment sector to advise the department in the School-to-Careers program. The members shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for necessary travel expenses.

(5) The grant funds may be used to enhance on-going efforts such as Tech Prep, School-to-Work, and High Schools that Work initiatives.

158.770. Advisory committee on writing program.

An advisory committee on writing shall be created by the Kentucky Board of Education to make recommendations to the board regarding the establishment of an intensive writing component in the state program of studies for grades seven (7) through ten (10) and the establishment of innovative pilot writing programs in selected local school districts in grades seven (7) through ten (10).

(1) The advisory committee shall be composed of nine (9) members appointed by the Kentucky Board of Education. The majority of the membership shall be educators currently employed by local school districts or public universities.

(2) (a) On July 13, 1990, the terms of the current members of the advisory committee shall expire and the Kentucky Board of Education shall appoint members as follows: three (3) members shall serve two (2) year terms, three (3) members shall serve three (3) year terms, and three (3) members shall serve four (4) year terms.

(b) As the terms described in subsection (a) of this section expire, members appointed thereafter shall serve four (4) year terms.

(3) All operating expenses of the committee shall be approved by the Kentucky Board of Education and paid from funds budgeted to the writing programs. Members shall be reimbursed for actual expenses for attendance at committee meetings and for other actual expenses incurred in carrying out their official duties.

(4) The functions of the committee shall be as follows:
(a) Analyze the program of studies of grades seven (7) through ten (10) and make recommendations to the Kentucky Board of Education on the options for including an intensive writing program;
(b) Make recommendations to the Kentucky Board of Education on methods of integrating writing into the curriculum in grades seven (7) through ten (10);
(c) Make recommendations to the Kentucky Board of Education relative to the development of teacher training programs and workshops designed to facilitate the effective teaching of writing;
(d) Develop and recommend to the Kentucky Board of Education criteria for local district participation in the pilot program;
(e) Develop a monitoring and ongoing evaluation system; and
(f) Recommend to the Kentucky Board of Education a grant allotment system to award funds to eligible districts.

158.775. Writing program pilot project.
(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall select school districts to participate in pilot programs based upon the criteria recommended by the advisory committee on writing.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education shall authorize grants of funds to school districts selected for participation in the program based on the grant allotment system recommended by the advisory committee on writing.

(3) Teacher aides may be employed in selected districts to assist in the implementation of this program. Such aides shall meet the same qualifications required of kindergarten aides in KRS 161.044.

158.780. Management improvement programs.
(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall establish a program for voluntary management improvement, for involuntary supervision, and for assuming full control of a local school district.

(a) The voluntary improvement program shall assist local districts with the development of innovative management practices and help them adopt currently accepted practices.

(b) If the Kentucky Board of Education believes that a critical lack of efficiency or effectiveness in the governance or administration of a local school district exists, it shall conduct an administrative hearing in compliance with KRS Chapter 13B. If it is determined that there is a critical lack of efficiency or effectiveness in the governance or administration, the state board shall assume sufficient supervision of the district to ensure that appropriate corrective action occurs. Neither the state board, the chief state school officer, nor his designee shall assume the supervision of the district until an administrative hearing has been conducted under KRS Chapter 13B.

(c) If the Kentucky Board of Education believes that the pattern of a lack of efficiency or effectiveness in the governance or administration of a school district warrants action, it shall conduct an administrative hearing in compliance with KRS Chapter 13B. If it is determined that the pattern does warrant action, it shall declare the district a “state assisted district” or a “state managed district” and the state board shall then assume control of the district as set forth in this section and KRS 158.785.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education shall adopt necessary administrative regulations to carry out the provisions of this section and KRS 158.785, including an administrative regulation to more specifically establish and implement the standards for designation as a “state assisted district” and a “state managed district.”

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education may delegate to the chief state school officer the authority it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and KRS 158.785. However, neither the state board, the chief state school officer, nor his designee shall assume the supervision of the district until an administrative hearing has been conducted under the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

158.782. Guidelines to provide highly skilled education assistance to schools and districts — Professional leave for selected employee — Appropriate training — Review of paperwork requirements.

(1) After receiving the advice of the Office of Education Accountability; the School Curriculum, Assessment, and Accountability Council; and the National Technical Advisory Panel on Assessment and Accountability, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations in conformity with KRS 158.6471 and 158.6472 and KRS Chapter 13A, to set forth the guidelines for providing highly skilled education assistance to schools and school districts. The program shall be designated to support improved teaching and learning and may include, but not be limited to, establishing the following:

(a) Criteria for identifying successful strategies of assistance;

(b) Policies and procedures for providing education assistance, which may include training, making assignments, employing certified personnel, and setting salaries that may include supplements; and

(c) Duties of those providing education assistance, which may include personnel evaluation and recommendations concerning retention, dismissal, or transfer of personnel.

(2) A district employee selected to provide assistance shall be granted professional leave pursuant to KRS 161.770 though the time may exceed two (2) years if determined by the state board to be necessary. A certified employee shall not lose any employee benefits as a result of a special assignment.

(3) The Department of Education shall provide appropriate training for the persons selected to provide assistance that shall include but not be limited to training to strengthen the school-based decision making process.

(4) The Kentucky Board of Education shall annually review the paperwork required of schools receiving highly skilled certified education assistance. It shall assure that paperwork requirements are kept to a minimum, relevant to the needs of the school, and are directly related to improving teaching and learning.

Opinions of Attorney General. Both KRS 161.770 and subdivision (2)(e) of this section provide for the granting of a leave for a period of not more than two consecutive school years; however, both statutes authorize renewal of a leave of absence, upon approval. OAG 91-134.

The distinguished educator has authority to override decisions of the school staff. The distinguished educator also has authority to override decisions of the local superintendent when recommending dismissal of certified personnel. OAG 92-135.

158.785. Collection and review of management data — Management audit — Conditions for designation as state assisted or state managed district — Actions required.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall establish a program to improve specific aspects of the management of local school districts as described in KRS 158.780.

(2) The State Department of Education shall, pursuant to administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education, collect and review data relative to the instructional and operational performance of local school districts. When a review of the data or of any other information, including site investigations of local management practices, indicates the presence of critically ineffective or inefficient management, the chief state school officer shall order a management audit of the governance and administration of the district. A local school board or superintendent may also request a management audit of the district.

(3) If a management audit, conducted for any of the reasons set forth in subsection (2) of this section, indicates that there is a pattern of a significant lack of efficiency and effectiveness in the governance or administration of a school district, the chief state school officer shall recommend the district to the Kentucky Board of Education either as a “state assisted district” or a “state managed district.”

(4) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate an administrative regulation establishing a procedure for considering the recommendation of the chief state school officer to declare a district a “state assisted district” or a “state managed district.” This procedure shall fully comply with the procedures for administrative hearings established in KRS Chapter 13B.

(5) When the chief state school officer presents a recommendation to the state board for designation as a “state assisted district” or a “state managed district,” he shall establish the following:

(a) Existence of a pattern of a significant lack of efficiency and effectiveness in the governance or administration of the school district;

(b) The pattern of a significant lack of efficiency and effectiveness in the governance or administration of the school district continues to exist; and

(c) State assistance or state management is necessary to correct the inefficiencies and ineffectiveness.

(6) When a district is designated a “state assisted district” under subsection (4) of this section, the following actions shall be required of the chief state school officer:

(a) Management assistance shall be provided to the district to develop and implement a plan to correct deficiencies found in the management audit.

(b) The Department of Education shall monitor the development and implementation of the correctional plan to improve the governance or administration of the school district. If the chief state school officer determines that the plan is being inadequately developed or implemented, he shall make a recommendation to the Kentucky Board of Education to declare the district a “state managed district.”

(7) If the state board designates a district a “state managed district” under subsection (4) of this section, the following actions shall be required of the chief state school officer:
A school district shall be designated as a "state managed district" any appointment to an administrative position may be revoked by the chief state school officer and the individual employee may be reassigned to any duty for which that person is qualified. The chief state school officer shall provide to the reassigned employee written reasons for the reassignment. The individual shall not be dismissed from subsequent employment except as provided by KRS 156.132 and 161.790.

The chief state school officer shall make the administrative appointments as necessary to exercise full and complete control of all aspects of the management of the district. The chief state school officer, through the appointments, may make any and all decisions previously made by the local school board and the local superintendent. The chief state school officer shall retain clear supervisory and monitoring powers over the operation and management of the district.

A school district shall be designated as a "state managed district" until the Kentucky Board of Education determines that the pattern of ineffective and inefficient governance or administration and the specific deficiencies determined by the management audit have been corrected. Each year following the school year in which the designation of a "state managed district" was made, the chief state school officer shall report the status of the corrective action being taken to the Kentucky Board of Education. No local school district shall remain in the status of a "state managed district" longer than three (3) consecutive school years unless the Kentucky Board of Education extends the time after a complete review of a new management audit. Any judicial review of actions taken by the chief state school officer or the board under KRS 158.780 or this section shall be in accordance with the provisions for conducting judicial review of administrative hearings outlined in KRS Chapter 13B.

(a) All administrative, operational, financial, personnel, and instructional aspects of the management of the school district formerly exercised by the local school board and the superintendent shall be exercised by the chief state school officer or his designee.

(b) Any local school board member or the local superintendent may be removed from office by the Kentucky Board of Education pursuant to KRS 156.132.

(c) Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, after thirty (30) days after a district becomes a "state managed district" any appointment to an administrative position may be revoked by the chief state school officer and the individual employee may be reassigned to any duty for which that person is qualified. The chief state school officer shall provide to the reassigned employee written reasons for the reassignment. The individual shall not be dismissed from subsequent employment except as provided by KRS 156.132 and 161.790.

(d) The chief state school officer shall make the administrative appointments as necessary to exercise full and complete control of all aspects of the management of the district. The chief state school officer, through the appointments, may make any and all decisions previously made by the local school board and the local superintendent. The chief state school officer shall retain clear supervisory and monitoring powers over the operation and management of the district.

8 A school district shall be designated as a "state managed district" until the Kentucky Board of Education determines that the pattern of ineffective and inefficient governance or administration and the specific deficiencies determined by the management audit have been corrected. Each year following the school year in which the designation of a "state managed district" was made, the chief state school officer shall report the status of the corrective action being taken to the Kentucky Board of Education. No local school district shall remain in the status of a "state managed district" longer than three (3) consecutive school years unless the Kentucky Board of Education extends the time after a complete review of a new management audit. Any judicial review of actions taken by the chief state school officer or the board under KRS 158.780 or this section shall be in accordance with the provisions for conducting judicial review of administrative hearings outlined in KRS Chapter 13B.

Definitions for KRS 158.792 and 164.0207 — Early reading incentive fund — Grants for reading models — Administrative regulations.

(1) As used in this section and KRS 164.0207, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Reading" means the process of comprehending the meaning of written text by depending on:

1. The ability to use phonics skills, that is, knowledge of letters and sounds, to decode printed words quickly and effortlessly, both silently and aloud;
2. The ability to use previously learned strategies for reading comprehension; and
3. The ability to think critically about the meaning, message, and aesthetic value of the text.

(b) "Reliable, replicable research" means objective, valid, scientific studies that:

1. Include rigorously defined samples of subjects that are sufficiently large and representative to support the general conclusions drawn;
2. Rely on measurements that meet established standards of reliability and validity;
3. Test competing theories, where multiple theories exist;
4. Are subjected to peer review before their results are published; and
5. Discover effective strategies for improving reading skills.

(2) The early reading incentive fund is created to improve the reading skills of students in the primary program. The Department of Education, upon the recommendation of the Early Reading Incentive Grant Steering Committee, shall provide grants to schools to support teachers in the implementation of reliable, replicable research-based reading models that use a balance of instructional strategies, including phonics instruction, to address the diverse learning needs of those students reading at low levels. Any moneys in the fund at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to be used for the purposes specified in this section.

(3) Upon recommendation of the Early Reading Incentive Grant Steering Committee, the state board shall establish by promulgation of an administrative regulation in accordance with provisions of KRS Chapter 13A an application process and the criteria for funding grants. The application shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
(a) Identification of the research-based model to be implemented;
(b) The method for identifying qualified students to be served;
(c) An implementation plan and timeline, including supporting professional development efforts;
(d) A plan for evaluation to assess the short-term and long-term success of the program;
(e) A budget; and
(f) Approval of the application by the school council if one exists, the principal, and the superintendent of schools.

4. In order to qualify for funding, the school council, or if none exists, the superintendent of schools, shall allocate matching funds. Funding for professional development allocated to the school council under KRS 160.345 and for continuing education under KRS 158.070 may be used as part of the school’s match.

5. The Department of Education shall make available to schools:
(a) Information concerning successful, research-based early reading models, including phonics instruction, from the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development created under KRS 164.0207;
(b) Strategies for successfully implementing early reading programs, including professional development support and the identification of funding sources; and
(c) A list of professional development providers offering teacher training related to phonics instruction.

6. The Department of Education shall submit a report to the Interim Joint Committee on Education no later than September 1 of each year outlining the use of grant funds and a summary of the program’s evaluation conducted by the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development under KRS 164.0207.

158.794. Early Reading Incentive Grant Steering Committee — Membership — Duties.

1. The Early Reading Incentive Grant Steering Committee is hereby created for the purpose of advising the Kentucky Board of Education and the Department of Education concerning the implementation and administration of the early reading incentive grant fund created by KRS 158.792. The committee shall be composed of fifteen (15) members including the commissioner of education or the commissioner’s designee, the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education or the president’s designee, the commissioner of the Department for Adult Education and Literacy or the commissioner’s designee, and the following members, to be appointed by the Governor:
(a) Two (2) primary program teachers with a specialty or background in reading and literacy;
(b) Eight (8) university professors with a specialty or background in reading and literacy representing each of the public universities; and
(c) Two (2) individuals from the state at large with background and interest in reading and literacy.

2. Each member of the committee, other than members who serve by virtue of their position, shall serve for a term of three (3) years or until a successor is appointed and qualified, except that upon initial appointment, four (4) members shall serve a one (1) year term, four (4) members shall serve a two (2) year term, and four (4) members shall serve a three (3) year term.

3. A majority of the full authorized membership shall constitute a quorum.

4. The committee shall elect, by majority vote, a chair, who shall be the presiding officer of the committee, preside at all meetings, and coordinate the functions and activities of the committee. The chair shall be elected or reelected each calendar year.

5. The committee shall be attached to the Department of Education for administrative purposes.

6. The committee shall:
(a) Identify needs in schools throughout the state regarding reading and literacy programs;
(b) Develop criteria for the solicitation, review, and approval of grant applications provided under KRS 158.792;
(c) Develop a process for monitoring grants that are awarded; and
(d) Recommend approval of grant applications based upon criteria established by the committee.

158.798. Program to encourage studies in mathematics, science, and related technologies — Role of Kentucky Science and Technology Council, Inc.

(1) It is the intention of the General Assembly to generate a substantial increase in the number of mathematicians, scientists, and engineers in the Kentucky workforce in order to foster economic growth in the business sector and to provide high quality jobs for Kentuckians. A program shall be established to encourage studies in math, science, and related technologies, beginning with middle school and continuing through advanced college level work, leading to sustained job placements in Kentucky's technological and innovative businesses and industries. Principal activities for developing, coordinating, and implementing this program shall be conducted by the Kentucky Science and Technology Council, Inc., a private, nonprofit corporation comprised of leaders from education, government, and the private sector.

(2) The Kentucky Science and Technology Council, Inc., may solicit, accept, receive, invest, and expend funds from any public or private source for the purpose of implementing the provisions in this section.

(3) The Kentucky Science and Technology Council, Inc., shall coordinate, promote, and support activities designed to:
   (a) Recognize Kentucky middle school students with a high interest, aptitude, or achievement in math, science, and technology related courses, events, and activities; and
   (b) Develop additional learning experiences outside the traditional classroom courses, to enhance interest in math and science for middle and high school students, including summer and weekend institutes, skills, application in real world situations, business and industry internships and mentorships, and career awareness exploration.
   (c) Solicit program support, cooperation, and funds from private businesses, industries, and government entities with an interest and need for technological innovation;
   (d) Develop a college-level academic scholarship program for students in math, science, engineering, and other technology related disciplines, soliciting contributions from private businesses and industries;
   (e) Develop internship and post-degree placement commitment plans for industries and those students participating in internships or receiving scholarships; and
   (f) Submit an annual report to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission concerning:
      1. Activities related to achieving the program's objectives for the preceding year;
      2. Factual information about Kentucky students' progress in math, science, and related technologies and business and industries' changing technological needs; and
      3. Recommendations to improve the program in achieving its purposes.

158.799. Name for program created by KRS 158.798.

The Kentucky Science and Technology Council, Inc., shall, in cooperation with the Department for Education and the Council on Postsecondary Education, develop and conduct a competition among Kentucky middle and high school students for the purpose of choosing a Kentuckian of national or international acclaim as a scientist, mathematician, or engineer for whom the programs developed under KRS 158.798 shall be named.

158.7991. Legislative findings and declarations.

(1) (a) The General Assembly finds and declares that the integration of the arts and foreign languages into the school curriculum benefits students by increasing their motivation to learn; improves attendance; fosters multicultural understanding; and develops neurological cognitive potential through higher-order thinking skills, creativity, and problem solving. Further, the General Assembly finds and declares that arts and foreign language education can renew and invigorate faculty and can foster greater parent and community participation and support.
   (b) The General Assembly notes that it created a system of public education that allows and assists all students to acquire certain capacities provided under KRS 158.645, including communication skills necessary to function in a complex and changing civilization and sufficient grounding in the arts to enable each student to appreciate his or her cultural and historical heritage.
   (c) The General Assembly further notes that its goals for public schools under KRS 158.6451 include: to develop students' abilities to use basic communication and mathematics skills for purposes and situations they will encounter throughout their lives; to apply core concepts and principles from mathematics, the sciences, the arts, the humanities, and social studies; and to connect and integrate experiences and new knowledge from all subject matter fields with what they have previously learned and build on past learning experiences to acquire new information through various sources.

(2) It is the intent of the General Assembly in enacting KRS 158.7992 to address the findings and declarations set out in subsection (1) of this section.

158.7992. Program to promote instruction in the arts and foreign languages.

(1) The Department of Education shall establish a program that promotes the integration of the arts and foreign languages in the elementary school program. A school shall submit an application through the district superintendent, with the agreement of the school council or of the principal, if a council does not exist. The department shall award a grant to at least one (1) school per region based on the quality of the application in meeting the criteria established in subsection (2) of this section. Special consideration shall be given, but not limited to, a school that does not have an existing comprehensive arts and foreign language program.

(2) School programs under subsection (1) of this section shall include, but not be limited to, the following components:

(a) Instruction in each of the four (4) disciplines of dance, drama, music, and the visual arts that includes the core content skills and knowledge taught in a sequential manner and includes all students in the elementary school;

(b) Intense instruction in at least one (1) foreign language that includes skills and knowledge related to communicative language and culture and includes all students in the elementary school;

(c) Integration of arts and foreign language instruction across the curriculum;

(d) Coordination of the programs by teachers with appropriate arts and foreign language certification;

(e) Professional development for teachers and administrators designed to facilitate the effective teaching of arts and foreign languages;

(f) An effective monitoring and evaluation system that includes student performance assessment;

(g) Partnerships with parents, local cultural agencies, individual artists, and native speakers of the foreign language who work in collaboration with classroom teachers;

(h) Support from the local school board, the school council, and teachers; and

(i) Student attendance at one (1) or more live performance or visual art exhibition each school year.

(3) The Department of Education shall report annually by July 1 of each year on the implementation of the program to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission.

158.800. Educational excellence improvement fund — Intent — Allotment of funds. [Repealed.]

158.801. Definitions for KRS 158.801 and 158.803. As used in this section and 158.803, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Program” means the Kentucky Early Mathematics Testing Program; and

(2) “Participating colleges or universities” means all public postsecondary education institutions in Kentucky and any private college or university in Kentucky that chooses to participate in the Kentucky Early Mathematics Testing Program.

158.803. Early mathematics testing program — Purposes — Development and requirements of program — Annual reports.

(1) The Kentucky Early Mathematics Testing Program is created to lower the number of high school graduates in Kentucky who require remediation in mathematics upon enrollment in postsecondary education institutions, by providing information to primarily high school sophomores and juniors statewide regarding their level of mathematics knowledge in relation to standards required for community and technical colleges and university level mathematics courses early enough for students to address deficiencies while still in high school.

(2) The testing program shall be a computer website-based program that incorporates a variety of diagnostic mathematics tests to identify knowledge and skills needed for postsecondary education courses.

(3) The testing program shall be developed and conducted by a public university. The Council on Postsecondary Education, with the advice of the Department of Education, shall develop a process to solicit, review, and select a proposal for the development and implementation of the computer website-based testing program. The council shall approve the location of the program at a public university no later than September 1, 2000. The university shall be the fiscal agent for the testing program and shall receive the funds appropriated by the General Assembly.

(4) The program shall be available to all interested Kentucky public and private high school students in grades ten (10) and eleven (11). Student participation in the program shall be voluntary, and program test scores shall not be:
The computer website testing program shall:

(a) Placed on a student’s high school transcript; or
(b) Used by postsecondary education institutions in the admissions process.

(5) The computer website testing program shall be available to all Kentuckians for evaluation of an individual’s mathematics knowledge and skills.

(6) The program shall encourage the active participation of all public and private high schools in Kentucky.

(7) The computer website testing program shall:
(a) Develop or adopt appropriate tests to determine the level of mathematics knowledge of high school students in relation to the standards of placement tests given at the community and technical colleges and undergraduate public universities. In the development or adoption of the tests, consideration shall be given to the program of studies and the minimum requirements for high school graduation established in KRS 156.160 and the alignment of these standards with postsecondary course standards;
(b) Develop a structure to permit each participating student the opportunity to take the computer-based test at school in the presence of school personnel or at the student’s home in the presence of his or her parents or guardian;
(c) Score the completed tests and provide the test scores and diagnostic information on a student’s knowledge and skills electronically to the student and the high school upon completion of the test in the form of electronic mail or printable files or screens.
(d) Provide the following information for up to three (3) participating postsecondary education institutions specified by the student as a possible college choice:
   1. The student’s test score;
   2. A list of mathematics courses required for the student’s intended major at a postsecondary education institution;
   3. A list of any remedial courses the student might be required to take based on the student’s current level of mathematics knowledge as demonstrated on the test;
   4. The estimated cost of the remedial courses the student might be required to take; and
   5. The high school courses and the specific mathematical concepts or functions a student should consider studying in order to address any deficiencies;
(e) Encourage the chair of the mathematics department or the academic dean at each of the participating postsecondary education institutions specified by the student as a possible college choice to send a personalized letter to the student that:
   1. Encourages the student to take additional high school mathematics courses to address deficiencies in mathematics knowledge; or
   2. Congratulates the student who does well on the test for his or her achievement and encourages continued study in mathematics; and
(f) Develop and implement a strategy to raise awareness and encourage participation in the program, targeting high school students, parents, high school faculty and administrators, mathematics departments or faculty at postsecondary education institutions, and the general public.

(8) The Kentucky Department of Education shall provide assistance as necessary to the Kentucky Early Mathematics Testing Program to implement the provisions of this section and KRS 158.801.

(9) The public university that conducts the testing program shall submit an annual report to the Kentucky Board of Education and the Council on Postsecondary Education regarding its activities, and the effects of the program on levels of remediation required by participating students.

158.805. Commonwealth school improvement fund — Purposes — Criteria for grants to schools needing assistance.

(1) There is hereby created the Commonwealth school improvement fund to assist local schools in pursuing new and innovative strategies to meet the educational needs of the school’s students and raise the school’s performance level. Except for the school years 2002-2003 and 2003-2004 when the priority for the use of the fund shall be to provide technical assistance to schools identified under subsection (2) of this section to reduce the achievement gaps among the various groups of students as described in KRS 158.649, the Kentucky Board of Education shall utilize the Commonwealth school improvement fund to provide grants to schools for the following purposes:
(a) To support teachers and administrators in the development of sound and innovative approaches to improve instruction or management;
(b) To assist in replicating successful programs developed in other districts including those calculated to reduce achievement gaps as defined in KRS 158.649;
(c) To encourage cooperative instructional or management approaches to specific school educational problems; and
(d) To encourage teachers and administrators to conduct experimental programs to test concepts and applications being advanced as solutions to specific educational problems.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education shall develop criteria for awards of grants from the Commonwealth school improvement fund to schools identified by the board as needing assistance under KRS 158.6455.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education shall have the sole authority to approve grants from the fund.

(4) The Kentucky Board of Education may establish priorities for the use of the funds and, through the Department of Education, shall provide assistance to schools in preparing their grant proposals. The board shall require that no funds awarded under the Commonwealth school improvement fund are used to supplant funds from any other source. Requests for necessary equipment may be approved at the discretion of the state board, however the cost of equipment purchased by any grantee shall not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the total amount of money awarded for each proposal and shall be matched by local funds on a dollar for dollar basis.

(5) The Kentucky Board of Education shall establish maximums for specific grant awards. All fund recipients shall provide the board with an accounting of all money received from the fund and shall report the results and conclusions of any funded projects to the Kentucky Board of Education. All fund recipients shall provide the board with adequate documentation of all projects to enable replication of successful projects in other areas of the state.

SECONDARY CAREER AND TECHNICAL EDUCATION

For purposes of KRS 158.810 to 158.816:

(1) “Career and technical education” or “secondary vocational education” or “secondary vocational study” means a program of study that leads to the development of academic and specialized occupational skills in career fields;

(2) “Technical literacy” means a student’s ability to read and comprehend the language of a field of study, understand the major technical concepts of that field, and apply the appropriate mathematics concepts to typical problems encountered in the workplace;

(3) “Secondary area technology center” or “secondary area center” means a school facility dedicated to the primary purpose of offering five (5) or more technical preparation programs that lead to skill development focused on specific occupational areas. An area center may be called a “magnet technology center” or “career center” or may be assigned another working title by the parent agency. An area center may be either state or locally operated; and

(4) “Vocational department” means a portion of a school facility that has five (5) or more technical preparation programs that lead to skill development focused on specific occupational areas.

158.812. Legislative findings and declarations.

(1) The purposes of elementary and secondary education programs of career and technical education:

(a) Provide students opportunities to increase academic skills in mathematics, science, English, and communications as well as technical literacy in work-based settings;

(b) Provide students a variety of opportunities to master the usage of technology;

(c) Prepare individuals with specialized, transferable academic skills and technical skills for gainful employment in entry-level positions in broad-based career fields; and

(d) Assist individuals in the process of preparing for successful transition from school to work, or to postsecondary education, or to the military.

(2) The General Assembly acknowledges that:

(a) Rigorous, high-quality career and technical education offers students an opportunity to develop skills in mathematics, science, communication, problem-solving, and career and technical areas that are essential to meet the goals for Kentucky education as described in KRS 158.6451 and to help students achieve the capacities required of all students and defined in KRS 158.645;

(b) Students need access to programs that meet high standards and connect technical skills with core academic requirements for high school students;

(c) Students can accelerate their overall scholastic achievement when given an opportunity to learn in an integrated school- and work-based environment; and

(d) The General Assembly has a responsibility to provide the resources that recognize the increased costs for offering high-quality, relevant technical programs.

158.814. Joint comprehensive plan on secondary career and technical education programs.

(1) In order to ensure that high-quality, relevant secondary career and technical programs are available to students in all school districts that enable them to gain the academic and technical skills to meet high school graduation requirements and for successful transition to postsecondary education, work, or the military and to support present-day and future needs of Kentucky employers, the Kentucky Department of Education and the Department for Technical Education shall jointly implement a comprehensive plan between July 1, 2001, and January 1, 2004, to:

(a) Review and revise as needed the equipment and facilities standards for each career and technical education program identified and described in the career and technical supplement to the Kentucky program of studies and published by the Kentucky Department of Education; and
(b) Establish a needs assessment process tied to specific criteria for assisting all providers of programs in determining if the current programs offered in their respective facilities are appropriate for the students in the school districts served as well as for determining if new programs are needed.

(2) Representatives from local school districts, the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, business and industry, colleges, universities, and other appropriate agencies shall be consulted in carrying out the requirements of this section.

158.816. Annual statewide analysis and report of academic achievement of technical education students — Assistance plan — Occupation skill standards and assessments.

(1) The Kentucky Department of Education and the Department for Technical Education, with involvement of representatives from the local school districts and teacher preparation institutions, shall jointly complete an annual statewide analysis and report of academic achievement of technical education students who have completed or are enrolled in a sequence of a technical program of at least three (3) high school credits.

(2) The analysis shall include the previous year’s results from the Commonwealth Accountability Testing System. The data shall be disaggregated for all high school students by career cluster areas of agriculture, business and marketing, human services, health services, transportation, construction, communication, and manufacturing and by special populations. Where available, disaggregated data from other national assessments shall also be used.

(3) (a) The Kentucky Department of Education, with assistance from the Department for Technical Education, shall coordinate the development of a statewide technical assistance plan to aid providers of programs in identifying areas for improvement for those schools that do not meet their school performance goal and for those schools where technical students as a group do not score equal to or better than the school average in each of the academic areas.

The plan shall address methodologies for further analysis at each school including, but not limited to:

1. The academic course-taking patterns of the technical students;
2. The rigor and intensity of the technical programs and expectations for student performance in reading, math, science, and writing and other academic skills as well as in technical skill development;
3. The level of communication and collaboration between teachers in technical programs and academic programs, planning, and opportunity for analyzing student achievement, particularly between faculty in the comprehensive high schools with the faculty in state-operated or locally operated secondary area centers and vocational departments;
4. The faculties’ understanding of Kentucky’s program of studies, academic expectations, and core content for assessment;
5. The knowledge and understanding of academic teachers and technical teachers in integrating mutually supportive curricula content;
6. The level of curricula alignment and articulation in grades eight (8) to sixteen (16);
7. The availability of extra help for students in meeting higher standards;
8. The availability and adequacy of school career and guidance counseling;
9. The availability and adequacy of work-based learning;
10. The availability and adequacy of distance learning and educational technology;
11. The adequacy of involvement of business and industry in curricula, work-based learning, and program development; and
12. The adequacy of teachers’ preparation to prepare them for teaching both academic and technical skills to all students that are necessary for successful transition to postsecondary education, work, or the military.

(b) The departments, in cooperation with teacher preparation programs, postsecondary education institutions, and other appropriate partners, shall ensure that academic core content is imbedded or integrated within the performance requirements for students.

c) The departments, in cooperation with the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, shall encourage postsecondary education and business and industry to provide professional development and training opportunities to engage technical faculty in continuous improvement activities to enhance their instructional skills.

d) The departments shall continue efforts with business and industry to develop occupation skill standards and assessments. All efforts shall be made with the involvement of business, industry, and labor. Skill standards and assessments, where available, shall be used as the focus of the curricula.

(4) The departments shall consult with the Education Professional Standards Board in carrying out the requirements of this section as they relate to teacher preparation.

Asthma Medications

158.830. Legislative findings — Construction of KRS 158.830 to 158.836.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky finds that:

1. Asthma is the seventh-most prevalent chronic health condition in the United States and is the leading serious chronic illness of children;
(2) Asthma is the third-ranking cause of hospitalization among children under age fifteen (15) and accounts for almost one (1) in six (6) of all pediatric emergency room visits;

(3) Approximately two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) Kentuckians suffer from asthma, including over sixty thousand (60,000) children;

(4) Nationally more than five thousand four hundred (5,400) individuals die from asthma each year;

(5) Asthma is the number-one cause of school absences attributed to chronic conditions;

(6) Asthma is manageable with treatment and medications;

(7) Physicians and other health care practitioners instruct children with asthma in the proper use of asthma medications; and

(8) KRS 158.830 to 158.836 shall be construed to provide unobstructed access to asthma medications for elementary and secondary school students with asthma.

158.832. Definitions for KRS 158.830 to 158.836. As used in KRS 158.830 to 158.836:

(1) “Anaphylaxis” means an allergic reaction resulting from sensitization following prior contact with an antigen which can be a life-threatening emergency. Anaphylaxis may be triggered by, among other agents, foods, drugs, injections, insect stings, and physical activity.

(2) “Medications” means all medicines individually prescribed by a health care practitioner for the student that pertain to his or her asthma or used to treat anaphylaxis, including but not limited to EpiPen or other auto-injectible epinephrine;

(3) “Health care practitioner” means a physician or other health care provider who has prescriptive authority; and

(4) “Self-administration” means the student’s use of his or her prescribed asthma or anaphylaxis medications, pursuant to prescription or written direction from the health care practitioner.

158.834. Self-administration of medications by students with asthma or anaphylaxis — Authorization — Written statement — Acknowledgment of liability limitation — Duration of permission.

(1) The board of each local public school district and the governing body of each private and parochial school or school district shall permit the self-administration of medications by a student with asthma or by a student who is at risk of having anaphylaxis if the student’s parent or guardian:

(a) Provides written authorization for self-administration to the school; and

(b) Provides a written statement from the student’s health care practitioner that the student has asthma or is at risk of having anaphylaxis and has been instructed in self-administration of the student’s prescribed medications to treat asthma or anaphylaxis. The statement shall also contain the following information:

1. The name and purpose of the medications;

2. The prescribed dosage;

3. The time or times the medications are to be regularly administered and under what additional special circumstances the medications are to be administered; and

4. The length of time for which the medications are prescribed.

(2) The statements required in subsection (1) of this section shall be kept on file in the office of the school nurse or school administrator.

(3) The school district or the governing body of each private and parochial school or school district shall inform the parent or guardian of the student that the school and its employees and agents shall incur no liability as a result of any injury sustained by the student from the self-administration of his or her medications to treat asthma or anaphylaxis. The parent or guardian of the student shall sign a statement acknowledging that the school shall incur no liability and the parent or guardian shall indemnify and hold harmless the school and its employees against any claims relating to the self-administration of medications used to treat asthma or anaphylaxis. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to relieve liability of the school or its employees for negligence.

(4) The permission for self-administration of medications shall be effective for the school year in which it is granted and shall be renewed each following school year upon fulfilling the requirements of subsections (1) to (3) of this section.

158.836. Possession and use of asthma or anaphylaxis medications.

Upon fulfilling the requirements of KRS 158.834, a student with asthma or a student who is at risk of having anaphylaxis may possess and use medications to treat the asthma or anaphylaxis when at school, at a school-sponsored activity, under the supervision of school personnel, or before and after normal school activities while on school properties including school-sponsored child care or after-school programs.

158.990. Penalties.

(1) Any member of a school board who votes to permit entrance to a school of any child not eligible therefore under the provisions of KRS 158.030 shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(2) Any person required to report under KRS 158.155 who fails to report promptly or who refuses to make a report is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

159.270. False report of census prohibited.

Penalties

159.990. Penalties.

159.010. Parent or custodian to send child to school — Age limits for compulsory attendance — Notification and counseling prior to withdrawal — Encouragement to reenroll after withdrawal.

(1) Except as provided in KRS 159.030, each parent, guardian, or other person residing in the state and having in custody or charge any child who has entered the primary school program or any child between the ages of six (6) and sixteen (16) shall send the child to a regular public day school for the full term that the public school of the district in which the child resides is in session or to the public school that the board of education of the district makes provision for the child to attend. A child’s age is between six (6) and sixteen (16) when the child has reached his sixth birthday and has not passed his sixteenth birthday.

(2) An unmarried child between the ages of sixteen (16) and eighteen (18) who wishes to terminate his public or nonpublic education prior to graduating from high school shall do so only after a conference with the principal or his designee, and the principal shall request a conference with the parent, guardian, or other custodian. Written notification of withdrawal must be received from his parent, guardian, or other person residing in the state and having custody or charge of him. The parent(s) and child shall be required to attend a one (1) hour counseling session with a school counselor on potential problems of nongraduates.

(3) A child’s age is between sixteen (16) and eighteen (18) when the child has reached his sixteenth birthday and has not passed his eighteenth birthday. Written permission for withdrawal shall not be required after the child’s eighteenth birthday. Every child actually resident in this state is subject to the laws relating to compulsory attendance, and neither he nor the person in charge of him shall be excused from the operation of those laws or the penalties under them on the ground that the child’s residence is seasonable or that his parent is a resident of another state.

(4) Each school district shall contact each student between the ages of sixteen (16) and eighteen (18) who has voluntarily withdrawn from school within three (3) months of the date of withdrawal to encourage the student to reenroll in a regular program, alternative program, or GED preparation program. In the event the student does not reenroll at that time, the school district shall make at least one (1) more attempt to reenroll the student before the beginning of the school year following the school year in which the student terminated his or her enrollment.

Opinions of Attorney General. The marriage of a child under the age of 16 years emancipates said child from the provisions of this section for the reason that the marriage gives rise to a new relation inconsistent with the concept of subjection to the control and care of the parent. OAG 61-953.

Parents of Negro children who presented their children for admission to two (2) schools located in South Frankfort which were within five blocks of their homes but to which only first grade Negro children had been admitted, who, despite the fact that there was unused classroom space for about 75 or 90 pupils, were refused admission and directed to an all-Negro school located in North Frankfort, about one and one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) miles from their homes and in poor physical condition, could not have the child excused under this section. OAG 74-331.

A county board of education has legal authority to refuse the admission of nonresident children to its schools, but the board would be prohibited from arbitrarily extending school attendance privilege to some nonresident children while denying the same privilege to others. OAG 66-550.

A county board of education must charge all pupils at the same rate which is not based on extraneous factors such as the assessed value of a person’s residential property. OAG 73-837.

A board of education could accept pupils of all school employees without tuition payment regardless of where they live as long as the board complies with the requirements of KRS 159.240 to 159.260 (KRS 159.240 and 159.260 now repealed) and with foundation program provisions of KRS Chapter 157. OAG 72-154.

Under this section a parent residing in one (1) school district with ten children living in another district of its own preference may not have the school district in which he is a resident to pay tuition charges for the children sent to a school in another district. OAG 72-271.

It is not the district in which taxes are paid but the district in which children reside with their parents or guardian that determines where the children may attend the public schools without the payment of tuition. OAG 72-593.

Although there is a board of education does not have to accept nonresident students on a tuition basis, if it decides to do so it must charge all pupils at the same rate which is not based upon a varying scale that is determined upon some extraneous factor such as the assessed value of a person’s residential property. OAG 73-837.

A true dual enrollment whereby pupils attend a public school part time and a private school part time is legally permissible. OAG 74-331.

A child who is unable to sit still in school or remain in the classroom because of an emotional problem is eligible to be excused from public school and may be taught by a teacher coming to his home but it would be reasonable for the attendance officer to require a medical report on the child each year until he is able regularly to attend school. OAG 77-670.

The boards of education of high school districts within a county may require that students transferring to another school without changing residence complete that school year in the school transferred to without further transferring. OAG 75-602.

The compulsory attendance laws only apply to children between the ages of seven (7) and 16. OAG 76-566. (Decision prior to 1978 amendment).

Since KRS 159.990(1) refers only to actions against adults failing to comply with KRS 159.010 to 159.170 and not to juveniles charged under KRS 159.150, KRS 159.990(1) is not applicable in a juvenile proceeding for habitual truancy under KRS 208.020(1)(c) (now repealed). OAG 76-607.

If a parent or legal guardian of a child enrolls that child in a private or parochial day school that has not been approved by the State Board of Education, the parent or legal guardian is not fulfilling his obligation mandated by this section. OAG 77-514.

In keeping with the legislative intent of being as all encompassing as possible, the terms “other person” and “custody or charge” cover everyone from the adult having legal custody of a child to one having mere custody or control. OAG 78-64.

The only exemptions authorized by statute to the compulsory attendance provisions set forth in this section are those spelled out in KRS 159.030, and mode of transportation to school is not included. OAG 78-392.

The lead-in phrase of KRS 158.030, which reads “Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary,” cannot be construed, by implication, to have lowered the compulsory attendance age range to five (5). OAG 85-55.

Existing legislation does not require nonpublic schools in Kentucky to have kindergartens. OAG 85-55.

Where a child attends a nonpublic school kindergarten, so long as the child will be six (6) years old by October 1, the child would be eligible and entitled to enroll in the first grade in a public common school district. If the child would not be six (6) years old until after October 1, the child would be eligible to enroll only in a public school’s kindergarten program rather than first grade, even though he has already been in kindergarten in a nonpublic school. OAG 85-55.

A child who is six (6) years old before October 1, but who has not attended any kindergarten, would have to be enrolled, as far as the public common schools are concerned, in a kindergarten program rather than a public school first grade. OAG 85-55.

Where a child attends no kindergarten program, either public or nonpublic, before July 1, 1986, but upon attaining six (6) years of age he enrolls in a nonpublic school first grade, and such child subsequently is presented for enrollment in a public common school for the second or a subsequent grade, the child would be entitled to so enroll subject to the usual application of the provisions of KRS 158.140. OAG 85-55.

A married child under the age of 16 has a legal responsibility to attend school, but once a child marries, the parent or guardian no longer has a legal obligation to ensure that the child attends school; however, if the spouse of a minor who is under the age of 16 and who is an habitual truant, is found to be a person exercising custodial control or supervision as defined in subdivision (26) of KRS 600.020, the spouse may be subject to penalties under the Juvenile Code. OAG 87-40.

A parent, guardian, or other custodian may be subject to the penalties found in KRS 159.990 for failure to comply with subsection (2) of this section, which requires 60 days’ written notice and counseling prior to an unmarried child between the ages of 16 and 18 withdrawing from school. OAG 87-40, modifying OAG 64-312 to extent inconsistent.

It is clear from the language of KRS 600.020(24) and KRS 610.010(1)(c) that a student under the age of 18 years who is failing to attend school in violation of this section is subject to a delinquency prosecution in accordance with the Juvenile Code. OAG 90-106.
This section requires that all students under the age of 18 years attend school and requires that a student over the age of 16 years and under the age of 18 years may withdraw only after the written notification and school conference, the obvious purpose of the statute being to deter students from leaving high school before graduation. OAG 90-106.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. Compulsory attendance.

2. — Exemption.

4. Purpose of schools.

1. Compulsory Attendance.

This section requiring compulsory attendance at school does not provide the board of education insurers of child’s safety and well-being while attending school. Wood v. Board of Educ., 412 S.W.2d 877 (Ky. 1967).

Jury verdict against school administrator on malicious prosecution claim reversed even though there was a lack of probable cause for the sexual misconduct charges brought against father, because the charges were brought by the county attorney’s office rather than the county school administrator, and the administrator did not allege in his criminal complaint that the father had induced his daughter to engage in sexual activity; merely that the father had failed to send the child to school. Collins v. Williams, 10 S.W.3d 493 (Ky. Ct. App. 1999).

2. — Exemption.

Section 159.030 does not have the effect of exempting from compulsory attendance under this section those pupils who are enrolled in private, sectarian or parochial schools; it merely exempts them from attending the common schools. Nichols v. Henry, 301 Ky. 434, 191 S.W.2d 930 (1945).

Evidence that county superintendent of schools disregarded teachers’ and directors of pupil personnel’s duties to enforce the compulsory school law assisted in sustaining county board of education’s action in removing him from office. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

4. Purpose of Schools.

If the Legislature wishes to monitor the work of private and parochial schools in accomplishing the constitutional purpose of compulsory education, it may do so by an appropriate standardized achievement testing program, and if the results show that one or more private or parochial schools have failed to reasonably accomplish the constitutional purpose, the Commonwealth may then withdraw approval and seek to close them for they no longer fulfill the purpose of “schools.” Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Radasil, 589 S.W.2d 877 (Ky. 1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1980).

159.020. Transferring child from one district to another.

Any parent, guardian, or other person having in custody or charge any child who has entered the primary school program or any child between the ages of six (6) and sixteen (16) who removes the child from a school district during the school term shall enroll the child in a regular public day school in the district to which the child is moved, and the child shall attend school in the district to which he is moved for the full term provided by that district.

Cross-References. Entrance of five (5) year olds into primary school program for compulsory attendance purposes, 704 KAR 5:060.

159.030. Exemptions from compulsory attendance.

(1) The board of education of the district in which the child resides shall exempt from the requirement of attendance upon a regular public day school every child of compulsory school age:

(a) Who is a graduate from an accredited or an approved four (4) year high school; or

(b) Who is enrolled and in regular attendance in a private, parochial, or church regular day school. It shall be the duty of each private, parochial, or church regular day school to notify the local board of education of those students in attendance at the school. If a school declines, for any reason, to notify the local board of education of those students in attendance, it shall so notify each student’s parent or legal guardian in writing, and it shall then be the duty of the parent or legal guardian to give proper notice to the local board of education; or

(c) Who is less than seven (7) years old and is enrolled and in regular attendance in a private kindergarten-nursery school; or

(d) Whose physical or mental condition prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school or application to study; or

(e) Who is enrolled and in regular attendance in private, parochial, or church school programs for exceptional children; or

(f) Who is enrolled and in regular attendance in a state-supported program for exceptional children;

(g) For purposes of this section, “church school” shall mean a school operated as a ministry of a local church group of churches, denomination, or association of churches on a nonprofit basis.

(2) Before granting an exemption under subsection (1)(d) of this section, the board of education of the district in which the child resides shall require satisfactory evidence, in the form of:
(a) A signed statement of a licensed physician, advanced registered nurse practitioner, psychologist, psychiatrist, chiropractor, or public health officer, that the condition of the child prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school or application to study. On the basis of such evidence, the board may exempt the child from compulsory attendance. Any child who is excused from school attendance more than six (6) months shall have two (2) signed statements from a combination of the following professional persons: a licensed physician, advanced registered nurse practitioner, psychologist, psychiatrist, chiropractor, and health officer, except that this requirement shall not apply to a child whose treating physician, advanced registered nurse practitioner, chiropractor, or public health officer certifies that the student has a chronic physical condition that prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school or application to study and is unlikely to substantially improve within one (1) year; or

(b) An individual education plan specifying that placement of the child with a disability at home or in a hospital is the least restrictive environment for providing services.

Exemptions of all children under the provisions of subsection (1)(d) of this section shall be reviewed annually with the evidence required being updated, except that for an exceptional child whose treating physician, advanced registered nurse practitioner, chiropractor, or public health officer certifies that the student has a chronic physical condition unlikely to substantially improve within three (3) years, the child’s admissions and release committee shall annually consider the child’s condition and the existing documentation to determine whether updated evidence is required. Updated evidence shall be provided for a child upon determination of need by the admissions and release committee, or at least every three (3) years.

(3) For any child who is excluded under the provisions of subsection (1)(d) of this section, the board may exempt the child if the board finds it reasonable to do so.

Opinions of Attorney General. A child who is unable to sit still in school or remain in the classroom because of an emotional problem is eligible to be excused from school attendance and may be taught by a teacher coming to his home, but it would be reasonable for the attendance officer to require a medical report on the child each year until he is able regularly to attend school. OAG 74-633.

Pursuant to KRS 157.270, a local board of education is required to provide home training for exceptional children but an institutional home for exceptional children cannot, under KRS 157.230, legally require a school district to establish and maintain special education classes for its inmates. OAG 74-681.

Exceptional children who are residents of a private nonsecular institution are entitled to attend the public schools in the county in which the institution is located free of charge if they are physically and mentally able and qualified to be educated in regular classes. OAG 74-681.

If a parent or legal guardian of a child enrolls that child in a private or parochial day school that has not been approved by the state board of education, the parent or legal guardian is not fulfilling his obligation mandated by KRS 159.010. OAG 77-514.

The only exemptions authorized by statute to the compulsory attendance provisions set forth in KRS 159.010 are those spelled out in this section, and mode of transportation to school is not included. OAG 78-392.

Although there is no delineated exemption under this section for a married student, even though under the age of 16 years, may not be required to attend school, since requiring attendance ignores the hard facts of reality and is in conflict with the concept that marriage is a domestic relation which is highly favored by law. OAG 81-73.

An unmarried girl under the age of 16, who has given birth to a child and is mothering that child, is not required to attend school, even though there is no delineated exemption under this section; however, if the girl finds it necessary to remain out of school for several years, she is entitled to attend school later, up until she has received 12 years of education or reached the age of 21, under KRS 158.100. OAG 81-73.

Prior to childbirth, an unmarried pregnant girl under the age of 16 years is required to go to school unless she can meet one (1) of the exemptions under this section. OAG 81-73.

Existing legislation does not require nonpublic schools in Kentucky to have kindergartens. OAG 85-55.

Where a child attends a nonpublic school kindergarten, so long as the child will be six (6) years old by October 1, the child would be eligible and entitled to enroll in the first grade in a public common school district. If the child would not be six (6) years old until after October 1, the child would be eligible to enroll only in a public school kindergarten program rather than first grade, even though he has already been in kindergarten in a nonpublic school. OAG 85-55.

A child who is six (6) years old before October 1, but who has not attended any kindergarten, would have to be enrolled, as far as the public common schools are concerned, in a kindergarten program rather than a public school first grade. OAG 85-55.

Where a child attends no kindergarten program, either public or nonpublic, before July 1, 1986, but upon attainment of six (6) years of age he enrolls in a nonpublic school first grade, and such child subsequently is presented for enrollment in a public common school for the second or a subsequent grade, the child would be entitled to so enroll subject to the usual application of the provisions of KRS 158.140. OAG 85-55.

A married child under the age of 16 has a legal responsibility to attend school, but once a child marries, the parent or guardian no longer has a legal obligation to ensure that the child attends school; however, if the spouse of a minor who is under the age of 16 and who is an habitual truant, is found to be a person exercising custodial control or supervision as defined in subdivision (2) of KRS 606.020, the spouse may be subject to penalties under the Juvenile Code. OAG 87-40.

The decision to refuse to enroll a student who is a legal resident of the district, but has been expelled from another district for activities placing the safety and welfare of other students at risk, must be made on a case by case basis. OAG 91-171.

There is nothing to prevent a second school district from initiating an exemption based on evidence supplied from another district that attendance is unadvisable. OAG 91-171.

Where the first district finds a child to be unable to attend school based on this section, there is nothing to require the second school district to require the evaluation described under subsection (3) of this section prior to enrollment; nevertheless, the child may qualify for evaluation for special education services under KRS 157.200 through 157.290. OAG 91-171.

The opinion issued in OAG 87-40 reversed OAG 81-79 and therefore married children under sixteen (16) years old must attend school. OAG 93-37.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Attendance at private or parochial school.
2. Transportation.
3. Nonpublic schools.
4. — Closing.
5. — Teachers.
6. — Right to attend.

1. Attendance at Private or Parochial School.

This section does not have the effect of exempting from compulsory attendance laws those pupils who are enrolled in private, sectarian or parochial schools; it merely exempts them from attending the common schools. Nichols v. Henry, 301 Ky. 434, 191 S.W.2d 930 (1945).

2. Transportation.

KRS 158.115 providing that county may provide transportation out of general funds applies to children attending private, sectarian or parochial schools in compliance with the compulsory school attendance laws. Nichols v. Henry, 301 Ky. 434, 191 S.W.2d 930 (1945).

3. Nonpublic Schools.

4. — Closing.

If the Legislature wishes to monitor the work of private and parochial schools in accomplishing the constitutional purpose of compulsory education, it may do so by an appropriate standardized achievement testing program, and if the results show that one (1) or more private or parochial schools have failed to reasonably accomplish the constitutional purpose, the Commonwealth may then withdraw approval and seek to close them for they no longer fulfill the purpose of “schools.” Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Rudasill, 589 S.W.2d 877 (Ky. 1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1980).

5. — Teachers.

It cannot be said as an absolute that a teacher in a nonpublic school who is not certified under KRS 161.030(2) will be unable to instruct children to become intelligent citizens; certainly, the receipt of “a bachelor’s degree from a standard college or university” is an indicator of the level of achievement, but it is not a sine qua non the absence of which establishes that private and parochial school teachers are unable to teach their students to intelligently exercise the elective franchise. Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Rudasill, 589 S.W.2d 877 (Ky. 1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1980).

6. — Right to Attend.

While the state has an interest in the education of its citizens which could be furthered through compulsory education, the rights of conscience of those who desire education of their children in private and parochial schools should be protected. Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Rudasill, 589 S.W.2d 877 (Ky. 1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1980).

159.035. Participation in 4-H activities to be considered attendance — Excused absence for educational enhancement opportunity — Appeal of denial of excused absence — Exception for testing periods.

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute, any student in a public school who is enrolled in a properly organized 4-H club shall be considered present at school for all purposes when participating in regularly scheduled 4-H club educational activities, provided, the student is accompanied by or under the supervision of a county extension agent or the designated 4-H club leader for the 4-H club educational activity participated in.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this subsection, a public school principal shall give a student an excused absence of up to ten (10) school days to pursue an educational enhancement opportunity determined by the principal to be of significant educational value, including but not limited to participation in an educational foreign exchange program or an intensive instructional, experiential, or performance program in one (1) of the core curriculum subjects of English, science, mathematics, social studies, foreign language, and the arts.

(a) A student receiving an excused absence under this subsection shall have the opportunity to make up school work missed and shall not have his or her class grades adversely affected for lack of class attendance or class participation due to the excused absence.

(b) Educational enhancement opportunities under this subsection shall not include nonacademic extracurricular activities, but may include programs not sponsored by the school district.

(c) If a request for an excused absence to pursue an educational enhancement opportunity is denied by a school principal, a student may appeal the decision to the district superintendent, who shall make a determination whether to uphold or alter the decision of the principal. If a superintendent upholds a principal’s denial, a student may appeal the decision to the local board of education, which shall make a final determination. A principal, superintendent, and local board of education shall make their determinations based on the provisions of this subsection and the district’s school attendance policies adopted in accordance with KRS 158.070 and KRS 159.150.

(d) A student receiving an excused absence under the provisions of this subsection shall be considered present in school during the excused absence for the purposes of calculating average daily attendance as defined by KRS 157.320 under the Support Education Excellence in Kentucky program.

(e) A student shall not be eligible to receive an excused absence under the provisions of this subsection for an absence during a school’s testing window established for assessments of the Commonwealth Accountability Testing System under KRS 158.6453 or during a testing period established for the administration of additional district-wide assessments at the school, except if a principal determines that extenuating circumstances make an excused absence to pursue an educational enhancement opportunity appropriate.

Opinions of Attorney General. It is impermissible for a teacher incorporating classroom participation as part of the overall academic grade to give a student a lower grade in a course than he earned while in class for failure to participate in class on days when he was absent under a legitimate excused absence. OAG 79-539.

A school board may not adopt a plan to deduct points from a student’s final grade for each unexcused absence. Despite the board’s stated intent to act in the best interest of the students, the deduction of five (5) points from a pupil’s final grade is a penalty. Such a penalty, in the guise of an incentive to get students to attend school, is not permissible; providing an opportunity for a student to make up the points does not change this conclusion—it is still an impermissible penalty. OAG 96-28.

A school board’s decision not to differentiate between excused and unexcused absences was fatal to its policy of withholding promotion to the next level from students for failure to make up absences in excess of an approved number of days. OAG 96-28.

159.040. Attendance at private and parochial schools.

Attendance at private and parochial schools shall be kept by the authorities of such schools in a register provided by the Kentucky Board of Education, and such school authorities shall make attendance and scholarship reports in the same manner as is required by law or by regulation of the Kentucky Board of Education of public school officials. Such schools shall at all times be open to inspection by directors of pupil personnel and officials of the Department of Education.

only licensed driver in the household or the student is not considered a dropout or academically deficient pursuant to this section. If the student satisfies the court, the court shall notify the cabinet to reinstate the student's license at no cost. The student, if aggrieved by a decision of the court issued pursuant to this section, may appeal the decision within thirty (30) days to the Circuit Court of appropriate venue. A student who is being schooled at home shall be considered to be enrolled in school.

(4) A student who has had his license revoked under the provisions of this section may reapply for his driver's license as early as the end of the semester during which he enrolls in school and successfully completes the educational requirements. A student may also reapply for his driver’s license at the end of a summer school semester which results in the student having passed at least four (4) courses, or the equivalent of four (4) courses, during the successive spring and summer semesters, and the courses meet the educational requirements for graduation. He shall provide proof issued by his school within the preceding sixty (60) days that he is enrolled and is not academically deficient. (Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 234, § 1, effective July 13, 1990; 1994, ch. 503, § 1, effective July 15, 1994.)

Opinions of Attorney General. The requirements of Acts 1990, ch. 234 (KRS 186.450, 186.470 and this section) that applicants for driving permits and operator's licenses who are under the age of 18 and who have not graduated from high school provide proof that they are currently enrolled or have been enrolled in the prior semester of school may be implemented immediately if it is limited to requiring the applicants to provide proof based only on whether the applicants have withdrawn from school; requiring the applicants to provide proof of enrollment based on whether the applicants have "dropped out" of school as defined in Section 1(1) of the Act (KRS 159.051) should not be implemented immediately, because such immediate implementation would cause the Act to be applied retroactively without statutory authorization. In addition, the Act's requirement that these applicants provide proof that they are not or have not been found academically deficient should not be implemented immediately, because such immediate implementation would cause the Act to be applied retroactively without statutory authorization; those requirements of the Act which will not be implemented immediately should be implemented at any future date in which the "preceding semester" referred to in the Act will have occurred after July 13, 1990. OAG 90-54.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Construction with other law.
3. Application.

1. Constitutionality.

The "No Pass-No Drive" law, operating to suspend 16 or 17 year olds' licenses for dropping out or deficient academics, is constitutional since it rationally relates to its objective, provides for sufficient judicial review (limited to clerical errors), and violates neither Equal Protection nor Procedural Due Process (since the interest is a legitimately regulated privilege, not a fundamental right). Codell v. D.F., — S.W.3d —, 2001 Ky. App. LEXIS 71 (Ky. Ct. App. June 22, 2001).

There was no rational basis for the geographically-based distinction created by KRS 159.051 between students subject to losing their operator's licenses under the statute and students precluded from the statute; thus, KRS 159.051 was unconstitutional. D.F. v. Codell, 127 S.W.3d 571 (Ky. 2003).

Fundamental right to an education included the right to the equal opportunity to achieve academic success, it included no guarantee of success itself, and KRS 159.051 in no way interfered with a student's fundamental right to an education. However, there was no rational basis for the geographically-based distinction created by KRS 159.051 between students subject to losing their operator's licenses under the statute and students precluded from the statute; thus, KRS 159.051 was unconstitutional. D.F. v. Codell, 127 S.W.3d 571 (Ky. 2003).

2. Construction With Other Law.

The Transportation Cabinet is authorized to enforce KRS 159.051 as it relates to KRS 186.440, 186.450, and 186.470, all of which concern persons under the age of 18 who apply for or possess an instruction permit or driver's license. Codell v. D.F., — S.W.3d —, 2001 Ky. App. LEXIS 71 (Ky. Ct. App. June 22, 2001).

Although KRS 159.051 violates the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), that does not strike the "No Pass-No Drive" law from the books, since FERPA does not ban disclosures of education records, but simply directs that funds will not be available to any educational agency which has such a policy; moreover, FERPA concerns only nonconsensual disclosure meaning that once a parent has consented to the disclosure of such information, the policy may be continued without sacrificing the entitlement to federal funds. Codell v. D.F., — S.W.3d —, 2001 Ky. App. LEXIS 71 (Ky. Ct. App. June 22, 2001).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Application to Jefferson County.

The last sentence of this section violates the Fourteenth Amendment insofar as it applies to Jefferson County, in that it would operate to frustrate the mandates of the Sixth Circuit to eradicate state-imposed segregation in the Jefferson County school system. 159.080. Director of pupil personnel.

(1) Each superintendent of a local school district shall appoint a director of pupil personnel and assistants as are deemed necessary. Salaries of directors and assistants shall be fixed by the board of education.

(2) Directors of pupil personnel and assistants shall have the general qualifications of teachers and, in addition, shall hold a valid certificate issued in accordance with the administrative regulations of the Education Professional Standards Board. Certificates valid on January 1, 1956, for attendance officer shall hereafter be valid for the positions of director of pupil personnel. Certificates shall be reissued or renewed in accordance with the terms of the administrative regulations of the Education Professional Standards Board in effect at the time of application for reissuance or renewal.

(3) Directors of pupil personnel and assistants shall be allowed their necessary and authorized expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Each board shall bear the expense of its directors of pupil personnel and assistants incurred in its district.

(4) The office of the superintendent of schools shall be the office of the director of pupil personnel and suitable space shall be provided therein or adjacent thereto for him.

Cross-References. Professional certificate for directors of pupil personnel and assistants, 704 KAR 20:540.

Opinions of Attorney General. A person may not serve as director of pupil personnel of a county school district, a state office, and county judge (now county judge/executive) pro tem, a county office, as the two offices are incompatible under KRS 61.080. OAG 74-382.

The mere fact that the legislature has enacted KRS 159.080 to 159.140 does not automatically preempt the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government from enacting local legislation, which would allow the police to stop youths who are off school property during school hours and return to their schools those who do not have a legitimate excuse for their absence; however, such activity by the police would be in direct contravention with KRS 630.030 of the state juvenile code, thus would be deemed invalid. OAG 95-36.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Appointment.

2. Rejection of nominee.

1. Appointment.

This section is mandatory, and the board must appoint the director of pupil personnel recommended by the superintendent, unless the recommendee does not possess the statutory qualifications, is morally or educationally unfit, or some other valid reason for rejection is shown. Bernard v. Sims, 279 Ky. 565, 131 S.W.2d 505 (1939).

2. Rejection of Nominee.

This section contemplates that director of pupil personnel shall be appointed before July 1, but where recommendation was made before July 1, and board illegally rejected nominee, the nomination remained before the board and the nominee should be appointed, in the absence of valid reasons for rejecting him, at a subsequent meeting. Bernard v. Sims, 279 Ky. 565, 131 S.W.2d 505 (1939).

If original nominee is validly rejected, superintendent may nominate another qualified person. Bernard v. Sims, 279 Ky. 565, 131 S.W.2d 505 (1939).

159.130. Powers of directors of pupil personnel.

The director of pupil personnel and his assistants shall be vested with the powers of peace officers, provided, however, that they shall not have the authority to serve warrants. They may investigate in their district any case of nonattendance at school of any child of compulsory school age or suspected of being of that age. They may take such action in accordance with law as the superintendent directs. They may under the direction of the superintendent of schools and the board of education or the Kentucky Board of Education, institute proceedings against any person violating any provisions of the laws relating to compulsory attendance and the employment of children. They may enter all places where children are employed and do whatever is necessary to enforce the laws relating to compulsory attendance and employment of children of compulsory school age. No person shall refuse to permit or in any way interfere with the entrance therein of a director of pupil personnel or in any way interfere with any investigation therein. (Repealed and reenact. constitute devoting the entire time to the duties of the office. OAG 80-389.

ANALYSIS

2. Construction.

This section is mandatory in providing that the director of personnel spend his full time on his duties. Board of Educ. v. Miller, 299 S.W.2d 626 (Ky. 1957).

2. Construction.

Where administrator no longer worked for the Board of Education (Board), claim that the Board violated this section by assigning her job responsibilities not explicitly enumerated in the statute was rendered moot and the injunctive relief granted by the court in response was vacated. Buntin v. Breathitt County Bd. of Educ., 134 F.3d 796, 1998 Fed. App. 25 (6th Cir. 1997).

159.150. Definitions of truant, habitual truant and being tardy — Adoption of truancy policies by local school boards.

Any child who has been absent from school without valid excuse for three (3) or more days, or tardy without valid excuse on three (3) or more days, is a truant. Any child who has been reported as a truant three (3) or more times is an habitual truant. Being absent for less than half of a school day shall be regarded as being tardy. A local board of education may adopt reasonable policies that:

(1) Require students to comply with compulsory attendance laws;
(2) Require truants and habitual truants to make up unexcused absences; and
(3) Impose sanctions for noncompliance.

Opinions of Attorney General. Even though a child over 16 years of age is truant, the penalties of KRS 159.990 cannot be imposed upon the child’s parent, guardian or custodian. OAG 64-312.

Since a boycott by pupils is regarded as offending the truancy statutes, statement by State Superintendent of Education in an official publication that a pupil boycott gained nothing and lost money for the school system was a statement of policy and the publication of such statement was not an improper use of taxpayer’s money. OAG 69-529.

A child is delinquent who, inter alia, is an habitual truant from school pursuant to KRS 208.020 (now repealed) and the punishment for truancy for either the child or his parents is a matter within the discretion of the Juvenile Court. OAG 73-390.

The determination of what is a “valid excuse” for an absence from school rests in the policy making authority of the local board of education and a child may not be determined a truant if the absence is excused in accordance with guidelines concerning excused versus unexcused absences developed by the local board. OAG 76-566.

While the two definitions of “habitual truant” in this section and KRS 600.020(24) cannot be reconciled in terms of their language, it may be possible to reconcile them in their application. KRS 159.140 gives directors of pupil personnel authority to enforce compulsory attendance laws, including this section. Penalties are set forth under KRS 159.990 and are enforced by the District Court. Through exclusive jurisdiction over habitual truants the District Court has discretion in enforcement. The court may either rely on a director of pupil personnel to initiate proceedings for violations of this section, or the court may order a director of pupil personnel to enforce KRS 600.020(24), in which case the director would have authority to apply the definition found therein. OAG 91-79.

The opinion issued in OAG 87-40 reversed OAG 81-79 and therefore married children under sixteen (16) years old must attend school. OAG 93-37.

A married female under 16 years of age is a “child” as defined in KRS 600.020. OAG 93-37.

KRS 600.020(26) controls over this section in ascertaining the number of days a child must have unexcused absences prior to being found habitually truant under the Unified Juvenile Code. OAG 93-37.

A school board's decision not to differentiate between excused and unexcused absences was fatal to its policy of withholding promotion to the next level from students for failure to make up absences in excess of an approved number of days. OAG 96-28.

159.160. Attendance reports to superintendent.

The principal or teacher in charge of any public, private, or parochial school shall report to the superintendent of schools of the district in which the school is situated the names, ages, and places of residence of all pupils in attendance at his school, together with any other facts that the superintendent may require to facilitate carrying out the laws relating to compulsory attendance and employment of children. The reports shall be made within two (2) weeks of the beginning of each school year.

159.170. Withdrawals and transfers — Teachers to investigate and report.

Whenever any child of compulsory school age withdraws from school, the teacher of the child shall ascertain the reason. The fact of the withdrawal and the reason for it shall be immediately transmitted by the teacher to the superintendent of schools of the district in which the school is located. If the child has withdrawn because of change of residence, the next residence shall be ascertained and included in the report. The superintendent shall thereupon forward a card showing the essential facts regarding the child and stating the place of his new residence to the superin-
159.180  Parents responsible for children’s violations.

Every parent, guardian, or custodian of a child residing in any school district in this state is legally responsible for any violation of KRS 159.010 to 159.170 by the child. Before any proceedings are instituted against the parent, guardian, or custodian for violation of KRS 159.010 to 159.170, a written notice of the violation shall be served on the person by the director of pupil personnel, and one (1) day shall be given for the termination of the violation. After such notice, if the violation is continued or if the provisions of KRS 159.010 to 159.170 are again violated during the school term by the child, no further notice shall be necessary and the parent or guardian shall be punishable as provided in KRS 159.990. A notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service by the director of pupil personnel shall be a legal notice.

159.240  Continuing school census to be maintained. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4434-25) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part VI, § 616, effective July 13, 1990.

159.250  Nature of census.

The director of pupil personnel of each school district, working under the direction of the superintendent of schools, shall institute and maintain a complete, accurate, permanent, and continuous census of all children between the ages of five (5) and twenty-one (21) enrolled in the public schools in the district. A child’s age is between five (5) and twenty-one (21) when the child has reached his fifth birthday and has not passed the twenty-first birthday. The school census shall specify the name, date of birth, and sex of each child; the name, nationality, and post-office address of each parent, guardian, or custodian of the child; the school district in which the child resides; and the school in which the child is enrolled. The school shall be described by number and name. The census shall contain any other data required by the chief state school officer. Each board of education shall furnish its director of pupil personnel with assistance it deems necessary for the institution and maintenance of the census.

effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 222, effective July 13, 1990.)

Opinions of Attorney General. Since the purpose of maintaining public school census records is to serve the interest of the state in enforcing the compulsory attendance law the use of such records to compile a private mailing list is not legally warranted. OAG 75-274.

The public school census records are public records but are not always open for public inspection since opening them thereto, without the written consent of the parents, might jeopardize a school district’s entitlement to federal funds. OAG 75-274.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Use.
The pupil census records are superior to teacher’s affidavit in establishing whether individual attended school. Spurlock v. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge, 350 S.W.2d 472 (Ky. 1961).

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

1. Questioning Report.

159.260. Report of census to superintendent of public instruction. [Repealed.]

159.270. False report of census prohibited.
No director of pupil personnel or other person shall willfully or fraudulently report a larger number of children of school age in any district than the actual number, or otherwise make a false report of the census. (4434-28; amend. Acts 1966, ch. 89, § 7; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 223, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 20, § 3, effective July 15, 1996.)

PENALTIES

(1) Any parent, guardian, or custodian who intentionally fails to comply with the requirements of KRS 159.010 to 159.170 shall be fined one hundred dollars ($100) for the first offense, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the second offense. Each subsequent offense shall be classified as a Class B misdemeanor. A new offense shall not be constituted until any previous offense has been finally adjudicated. The court trying the case may suspend enforcement of the fine if the child is immediately placed in attendance at a school, and may finally remit the fine if the attendance continues regularly for the full school term. School attendance may be proved by an attested certificate of the principal or teacher in charge of the school.

(2) Any principal, teacher, director of pupil personnel, assistant director of pupil personnel, or other school officer who intentionally fails to comply with the provisions of KRS 159.010 to 159.250, or of KRS 160.330 shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than fifty dollars ($50). Upon conviction under this subsection, a director of pupil personnel or assistant director of pupil personnel shall be removed from office and have his certificate revoked, and a principal, teacher, or other school officer may have his certificate revoked.

(3) Any person, other than those persons mentioned in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter relating to compulsory attendance, or who violates any of the provisions of KRS 159.130, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than sixty (60) days, or both.

(4) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 159.270 shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) and shall be liable to the punishment prescribed by law for the crime of false swearing. If he is an officer, he shall be removed from office; and if he is a director of pupil personnel, his certificate shall be revoked.

(5) All fines imposed and all sums required to be paid as penalties under this section shall, after payment of the costs of prosecution and recovery thereof, be paid into the treasury of the district board of education and become a part of the school fund of the district.

Opinions of Attorney General. A police court has jurisdiction to try parents of children who fail to attend school in violation of the statute. OAG 61-880.

Even though a child over 16 years of age is truant, the penalties of this section cannot be imposed upon the child’s parent, guardian or custodian. OAG 64-312, modified by OAG 87-40 to the extent of conflict.

Since a boycott by pupils is regarded as offending the truancy statutes statement by state Superintendent of Education in an official publication that a pupil boycott gained nothing and lost money for the school system was a statement of policy and the publication of such statement was not an improper use of taxpayer’s money. OAG 69-529.

A child is delinquent who, inter alia, is an habitual truant from school pursuant to KRS 208.020 (now repealed) and the punishment for truancy for either the child or his parents is a matter within the discretion of the juvenile court. OAG 73-390.

As Judge of the Juvenile Court, the county judge (now county judge/executive) has exclusive jurisdiction over any child who is found to be an habitual truant as well as all persons, including parents, who contribute to conditions which cause a child to become delinquent and any violation can be punished by a fine or imprisonment or both or a parent or guardian can be fined for violation of the compulsory attendance law but no statute provides for committing a child to jail for truancy. OAG 73-769.

The penalty for failure to comply with the compulsory education statutes can only be by fine, and no amount of jail detention is authorized by statute. OAG 73-846.
Unless a child is excepted from immunization or testing for tuberculosis under this section, a child who does not comply with immunization and testing requirements cannot enroll in any public or private school system, and the child’s failure to attend school will subject the parents or the custodians to the penalties set forth in this section. OAG 76-256.

Since subsection (1) of this section refers only to actions against adults failing to comply with KRS 159.010 to 159.170 and not to juveniles charged under KRS 159.150, subsection (1) of this section is not applicable in a juvenile proceeding for habitual truancy under KRS 208.020(1)(c) (now repealed). OAG 76-607.

A charge under subsection (1)(c) of KRS 530.070 requires proof of habitual truancy which is not required to be proved to establish a charge under subsection (1) of this section; therefore a parent or legal guardian could be charged and punished under subsection (1) of this section and a prosecution under one of these sections would not be a bar to a prosecution under the other. OAG 77-514.

A parent, guardian, or other custodian may be subject to the penalties found in this section for failure to comply with subsection (2) of KRS 159.010, which requires 60 days' written notice and counseling prior to an unmarried child between the ages of 16 and 18 withdrawing from school. OAG 87-40, modifying OAG 64-312 to extent inconsistent.

160.010. County school district, what constitutes.

Each county in this state constitutes a county school district, except that, in counties in which there are independent school districts, the county school district consists of the remainder of the county outside of the boundaries of the independent school districts.
Kentucky Board of Education that the district can maintain a more efficient program of school service by operating as an independent district. (4399-3: amend. Acts 1974, ch. 49, § 2; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 224, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.)

Opinions of Attorney General. A person seeking election to an independent school district board must live and reside within the district. OAG 76-121.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. Boundaries conterminous with city.
2. Change of city's classification.
3. Annexation.
4. Pupil census below minimum.
5. Contracts by district.
6. Desegregation.

1. Boundaries Conterminous with City.

The action of a city in appropriating funds to supplement the salaries of teachers in an independent school district whose boundaries were conterminous with those of the city is inhibited by Const., § 179. Board of Educ. v. City of Corbin, 301 Ky. 686, 192 S.W.2d 951 (1946).

Although some of the independent districts are conterminous with cities of the Commonwealth, each is a municipality or political subdivision separate and distinct from such a city and over which the city has no control. Board of Educ. v. City of Corbin, 301 Ky. 686, 192 S.W.2d 951 (1946).

An appropriation of funds by a city, to supplement salaries of teachers in independent school districts having boundaries conterminous with those of city, would violate Const., § 159. Board of Educ. v. City of Corbin, 301 Ky. 686, 192 S.W.2d 951 (1946).

The General Assembly in enacting this section and KRS 160.010 intended and did establish an independent school district in the city of Louisville, free from the control of the city though the boundaries are conterminous. City of Louisville v. Board of Educ., 302 Ky. 647, 195 S.W.2d 291 (1946).

2. Change of City's Classification.

This section does not automatically create a new independent school district when a sixth-class city is made a fifth-class city. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 293 S.W.2d 568 (Ky. 1956).

3. Annexation.

Property in county school district annexed by city does not, by operation of this section automatically become part of the city independent school district. Thomas v. Spragens, 308 Ky. 97, 213 S.W.2d 452 (1948).

KRS 160.045 provides the exclusive procedures by which an independent school district may annex county school district territory. Thomas v. Spragens, 308 Ky. 97, 213 S.W.2d 452 (1948).

City school districts are independent of the city government and legislative provision for school purpose annexation must be considered apart from statutes authorizing cities to annex territory for other purposes involving other consideration. Thomas v. Spragens, 308 Ky. 97, 213 S.W.2d 452 (1948).

4. Pupil Census Below Minimum.

Where, after annexation of part of town by city, census enumeration of children in town independent school district fell below 250, no action was necessary by State Board of Education to place what remained of town school district with county district. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 774, 146 S.W.2d 30 (1940).

Where State Board abolished independent school district whose white pupil census fell below the required minimum and the school was continued by county board until State Board of Education deferred accrediting it because it had less than 60 pupils, consolidation of the high school with other high schools in the county by the county board was not an abuse of discretion. Nethery v. McMullen, 313 Ky. 39, 230 S.W.2d 79 (1950).

5. Contracts by District.

Since the school board was a body politic and corporate, a government agency, and a public corporation, it was authorized to enter into a lease or contract with another governmental agency. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

6. Desegregation.

Where it was stipulated that no student was ever excluded from independent school district because of race and there was no evidence that such district had committed other racial segregatory practices or that the boundaries of the district were drawn in 1911 to include whites and exclude blacks, district was not required to be included in court ordered desegregation plan, for the court rejected the argument that as a matter of law the very existence of an independent school district created under this section prior to the 1974 amendment indicated that the system must of necessity be a vestige of state-imposed segregation. Cunningham v. Grayson, 541 F.2d 538 (6th Cir. 1976), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 1074, 97 S. Ct. 812, 50 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1977).

160.030. Temporary independent districts. [Repealed.]

160.040. Merger of districts.

Boards of education of any two (2) or more contiguous school districts may by concurrent action merge their districts into one (1). In case of a merger, the members of the boards of education of the merged districts may serve out the terms for which they were elected. The resulting district shall take over all the assets and legal liabilities of the districts joining in the merger. Tax levies authorized for the payment of interest and the retirement of bonds or to create sinking funds for such purposes shall continue to be levied and collected over the same area by or for the new board in accordance with the laws under which the levies were originally made until all bonded obligations of the old district have been retired.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Town district with city and county.
2. Two districts when one in two counties.
3. "Concurrent action."
4. Terms of merger.
5. —Motive.
6. Joint board members.
7. —Powers and duties.
8. —Disposition of assets and liabilities.
9. —Ouster of superintendent.
10. Consummation of original plan of financing building.
11. Discretion of boards.

1. Town District with City and County.
   Merger of town independent school district with city district and with county district resulted, where on dissolution of town district part of it went to city district and part to county district. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 774, 146 S.W.2d 30 (1940).

2. Two Districts When One in Two Counties.
   Two contiguous independent school districts may consolidate and merge into a single new independent school district under this section even though portions of one district lie in two counties. Board of Educ. v. Butler, 256 S.W.2d 516 (Ky. 1953).

3. "Concurrent Action."
   "Concurrent action" does not necessitate simultaneous action in joint session. It is sufficient that such steps be taken in cooperation and looking to the same purpose. McGlone v. Horton, 258 Ky. 453, 80 S.W.2d 522 (1935).

4. Terms of Merger.
   This section as opposed to KRS 160.041 governs the powers of the two districts in making a merger agreement to fix the terms of such merger. LaFollette v. Ovesen, 314 Ky. 535, 236 S.W.2d 457 (1951).

5. Motive.
   The motive for merging districts is immaterial. Board of Educ. v. Stevens, 261 Ky. 475, 88 S.W.2d 3 (1935).

6. Joint Board Members.
   All members of the boards of the merged districts become members of the joint board clothed with all the authority conferred by law upon the members of such boards. McGlone v. Horton, 258 Ky. 453, 80 S.W.2d 522 (1935).

   The merger agreements, which provided that if, for any reason, any appointed member of the merged board could not complete his temporary term, the position was to be filled with an alternate, did not conflict with KRS 160.190 as the agreements merely provided temporary security for all school districts during the critical transition, and authority for the agreements was provided by virtue of the merger statute, this section. In re Muhlenberg County Bd. of Educ., 714 S.W.2d 168 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

7. Powers and Duties.
   Where two contiguous school districts were merged, the members of the board of education of the merged districts who were serving out the terms for which they were elected had the power to execute a contract with the superintendent of one of the former districts as superintendent of the new merged district and upon declaration of vacancy of the office before expiration of his contract term he was entitled to salary withheld. McClellan v. Darnell, 351 S.W.2d 191 (Ky. 1961).

8. Disposition of Assets and Liabilities.
   The last part of this section, respecting disposition of assets and liabilities, applies to mergers effected under KRS 160.030 (repealed), as well as to those effected by concurrent action of two contiguous districts. Board of Educ. v. Nelson, 268 Ky. 83, 103 S.W.2d 691 (1937).

   The assumption of debts by a county school district under this section does not violate Const., § 157. Board of Educ. v. Nelson, 268 Ky. 83, 103 S.W.2d 691 (1937).

   Provision in resolution of city board directing employment of superintendent for four-year term that employment should terminate if city and county boards merged, must be deemed part of employment contract actually made with superintendent notwithstanding provision was not contained in contract, since resolution was foundation of contract and no liability continued for county board to assume on merger. Martin v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 818, 146 S.W.2d 12 (1940).

County board is impressed only with legal liabilities of districts joining in merger, and hence where city board, at time of merging with county board, had relieved itself of liability to employ superintendent for four years, county board was not under liability to superintendent. Martin v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 818, 146 S.W.2d 12 (1940).

Contract for four-year term between city board and superintendent was not liability of county board, where city and county boards merged, and contract between boards was drawn by superintendent providing that county board was to employ superintendent and to perform contracts made by city board for one specified school year. Martin v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 818, 146 S.W.2d 12 (1940).

Employment by county board of superintendent for second one-year period following year for which he had been employed pursuant to contract of merger between city and county boards was not ratification of earlier contract for four-year term made by city board, but not assumed by county board on merger. Martin v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 818, 146 S.W.2d 12 (1940).

On merger of city independent school district with county school district by agreement the property owners of former city district become liable for voted indebtedness of county district and referendum on increase in rate within city is unnecessary. Board of Educ. v. Harville, 416 S.W.2d 730 (Ky. 1967).

Superintendent could not be ousted by four to three vote of board of education which had consisted of ten members following merger under this section but had fallen to seven by reason of expiration of some of the terms since KRS 160.350 providing for ouster by four members of a board of education contemplated a board of five members as provided by KRS 160.160 or 80% of the board. Wesley v. Board of Educ., 403 S.W.2d 28 (Ky. 1966).

When an independent district attempts to provide a building pursuant to KRS 162.120, a subsequent merger with the county district does not prevent consummation of the original plan of financing. Piggott v. Kasey, 271 Ky. 651, 113 S.W.2d 5 (1938).

11. Discretion of Boards.
School boards have a liberal discretion in merging districts. Board of Educ. v. Stevens, 261 Ky. 475, 88 S.W.2d 3 (1935).

The burden of proving an abuse of discretion is on the accuser. Board of Educ. v. Stevens, 261 Ky. 475, 88 S.W.2d 3 (1935).

12. Delegation of Board Authority.
Since matters affecting the schools and their management were vested in the local board of education and the State Department of Education, a school board could not delegate or shift its responsibilities to a fiscal court or the electorate by requesting that the fiscal court place on ballot the question of whether the voters favored the consolidation or merger of certain county schools. Hickman County Fiscal Court v. Workman, 528 S.W.2d 730 (Ky. 1975).

160.041. Merger of independent district with county district.

(1) When a board of education of an independent school district desires to have its district become a part of the county school district, it shall by motion so record its desire in the minutes of the board. The board, or its executive officer, shall convey this request to the county board of education. At its next regular meeting, or at a special meeting held prior thereto, the county board of education shall pass upon this request.

(2) If the county board of education refuses, or the two (2) boards of education cannot agree upon such a proposition of merger of the independent district with the county district, the question of merger shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the two (2) districts at the next regular election if the question is filed with the county clerk not later than the second Tuesday in August preceding the regular election.

(a) If a majority of those voting on the question favor merger, the school boards of the two (2) school districts shall jointly develop a plan for adoption of the merger.

(b) If the two (2) school boards cannot agree to the terms of merger within sixty (60) days following the date of the regular election, the chief state school officer shall develop the terms of the adoption of merger.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(a) of this section, if the independent school district cannot meet its current operating expenses from projected revenue and if the two (2) school boards cannot agree to the terms of a merger, the proposition of merger shall be submitted to the Kentucky Board of Education, and the Kentucky Board of Education shall determine whether the two (2) districts should be merged and if merged the terms thereto.

(d) Upon completion of the plan for adoption of the merger, whether prepared by the school boards or the superintendent, it shall become effective and the independent district shall become a part of the county school district as set out in the plan.

Cross-References. Merger of independent and county school districts, 702 KAR 1:100.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where, under the provisions of KRS 160.040 and this section there is a merger of a city and a county school district each of which has special voted taxes applicable to it: (1) The school city would continue to be subject to its special voted taxes unless the merger agreement provided otherwise. (2) The city board of education could decline to have levied the special voted tax if it deemed the tax unnecessary or unwise; however, the county board of education both as originally constituted and as a joint board following merger must concur and cooperate in an agreement to this end. The city board will cease to exist on merger; hence it will have nothing to say about the special voted tax of the corporation for its own district. Acting ex parte the city board may not, prior to merger, adopt the county district's voted levy. (3) The property owners in the city district will be subject to the county district's special voted tax when the merger is completed. This will occur automatically upon merger without referendum. (4) The merger should be drawn so as to coincide with applicable tax and school years to avoid any question about the tax levied for a current school year based upon an assessment that pre-dated merger. OAG 67-315.

This section grants the right to initiate merger proceedings to an independent school district; however, no such authority is granted to a county school district. OAG 72-252., 3 N.Y. St. L.F. 108 (1975).

Where a merger or the terms of a merger cannot be agreed upon this section allows the independent board of education to appeal to the superintendent of public instruction and ask that the matter be submitted to the State Board of Education for final settlement. OAG 72-252., 3 N.Y. St. L.F. 108 (1975).

Where the voters have cast their ballots in favor of the merger of two school districts, but where the two school boards have not agreed on the terms of the plan for adoption of the merger, the terms of adoption developed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to resolve the dispute are not required to be approved by the State Board of Education. OAG 76-341.

Following the merger of an independent school district with a county school district the resultant district is the county district. OAG 83-325.

Upon a merger of a county school district and an independent school district, the utility gross receipts license tax of three percent in effect in the county school district would become effective as to the entire merged district. OAG 83-325.

ANALYSIS

1. Application.
2. Two alternative methods.
4. — Terms or conditions.
5. — Grounds for effectuating.
6. — Desegregation.

1. Application.

Where parties assented to merger of city and county school districts the provisions of KRS 160.041 are inapplicable because there was no failure or refusal to agree on terms. Board of Educ. v. Harville, 416 S.W.2d 730 (Ky. 1967).

2. Two Alternative Methods.

This section provides for two alternatives: (1) merger by agreement or (2) merger by compulsion of the state board. LaFollette v. Ovesen, 314 Ky. 535, 236 S.W.2d 457 (1951).

4. — Terms or Conditions.

In the case of merger by compulsion the state board is to fix the terms, but in the case of merger by agreement no directions are given as to the terms or conditions of the merger. LaFollette v. Ovesen, 314 Ky. 535, 236 S.W.2d 457 (1951).

5. — Grounds for Effectuating.

This section does not specify any grounds which must be established to lawfully effectuate a merger. Hopkins County Bd. of Educ. v. Hopkins County, 242 S.W.2d 742 (Ky. 1951).

6. — Desegregation.

If the District Court should find that a formal consolidation or merger of districts was required to effectuate an effective desegregation plan for the county as a whole, administrative problems would to a large extent be obviated since the merger or consolidation could be effectuated under this section, which authorizes the reconsolidation of school districts within a single county even without the consent of the county school board. Newburg Area Council, Inc. v. Board of Educ., 510 F.2d 1358 (6th Cir. 1974), cert. denied, 421 U.S. 931, 95 S. Ct. 1658, 44 L. Ed. 2d 88 (1975), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 1074, 97 S. Ct. 812, 50 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1977).

160.042. Election of members — Present terms to continue, exception.

(1) Upon a merger under the provisions of KRS 160.040 and 160.041 of an independent school district in a city of the first class with a county school district in counties containing a city of the first class, the members of the county board of education of the merged county school district, shall be elected pursuant to KRS 160.200 and 160.210.

(2) Each member of the respective boards of education at the time of the merger of the districts, may continue to hold office until the expiration of his or her term of office, except as provided in KRS 160.200(4); but any vacancy occurring among such members for any reason shall not be filled. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 419, effective July 13, 1990.)

Compiler's Notes. Former KRS 160.042 (Acts 1952, ch. 90, §§ 1, 2) and former KRS 160.043 (Acts 1952, ch. 90, § 2) were repealed and reenacted as KRS 160.042 by Acts 1958, ch. 126, § 17.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Continuation of Two Boards.

Provision for city school board members to continue serving with county school board upon merger of school district of first-class city with county school district does not constitute “local or special legislation” forbidden by state Constitution where there is a justifiable need for the experience of city board members as to problems arising from urbanization. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 522 S.W.2d 854 (Ky. 1975).

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 18-20, 67.

160.043. Terms of board members unaffected by merger — Vacancies not to be filled. [Repealed and Reenacted.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Acts 1952, ch. 90, § 2) and former KRS 160.042 (Acts 1952, ch. 90, §§ 1, 2) were repealed and reenacted as KRS 160.042 by Acts 1958, ch. 126, § 17.

160.044. Time of election and terms of merged district board members.

(1) At the regular November election during the first even-numbered year nearest to the time of the merger of the districts, as above set out, two (2) members of the county board of education shall be elected from the county at large for a term of four (4) years, and two (2) years after such first election, three (3) members of the county board of education shall be elected for a term of four (4) years, and in each even-numbered year thereafter an election shall be held from the county at large to fill the membership of the county board of education for the term that will expire on the first Monday in January following, and the regularly elected members shall hold office for four (4) years, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

(2) Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the county board after members have been elected from the county at large shall be filled as now provided by KRS 160.190.

Cross-References. Transfer of annexed property; hearing, 702 KAR 1:080.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Elections from Districts.

In merger situations, KRS 160.210 mandates that elections of school board members shall be from districts, not the county-at-large. In re Muhlenberg County Bd. of Educ., 714 S.W.2d 168 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

160.045. Transfer of adjacent territory to school district other than that in which it is located.

(1) If seventy-five percent (75%) of either the registered voters or property owners in an area adjacent to either a county or independent school district petition the respective school boards for a transfer of property to the school board district other than that in which it is located, or if either board initiates an action, the school boards may effect the transfer by agreement, duly spread upon the minutes of their respective boards.

(2) If the boards fail to agree within ninety (90) days from the filing of petitions for the transfer, either board may petition the chief state school officer for approval or disapproval of the transfer of the property involved. In his consideration for giving approval or disapproval, he shall be governed by any policies and rules and regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education which may be affected by the transfer of the property and shall give due consideration to the following: the ratio of the wealth of the territory involved in its relation to the total wealth of the district from which the territory will be annexed; the effect of the proposed territorial loss or gain on the educational programs of the respective districts; extent of and effect on the physical plant, facilities, and equipment available in each of the affected districts; the indebtedness and bonded or rental obligations of the respective districts; any contemplated indebtedness or obligation arising out of the proposed transfer; and other factors as may have a bearing upon the determination of the desirability of the proposed annexation from the vantage point of all interested persons.

(3) In those instances where the requested transfer will result in a surplus of physical plant, facilities, or equipment in the transferring school district, the chief state school officer shall determine an equitable plan for the transfer of any surplus to the annexing district as his plan may determine will be needed. His plan shall be based on the fair value of the property on a replacement basis, taking into consideration its age and condition. In any considerations and suggestions which he may propose for the settlement of the differences between the boards of education, he shall be bound by any agreements outstanding between the boards of education of the school districts on July 15, 1982.

(4) If the chief state school officer is unable to arrive at a satisfactory agreement with the two (2) boards of education concerning the transfer of the involved property within one hundred twenty (120) days from the time it is presented to him, either board may request that he bring the matter before the Kentucky Board of Education at its next regularly scheduled meeting. The state board shall grant and schedule an administrative hearing, and the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. In that event, he shall file with the Kentucky Board of Education all the facts which he has gathered, the recommendation he has made, and the basis for his recommendation, for their consideration. In those instances where, after giving consideration to the factors set forth in subsection (2) of this section, the chief state school officer determines that a transfer of only a portion of the territory in question is in the best interest of the respective districts, he may recommend to the Kentucky Board of Education a modified plan of transfer of territory.

Cross-References. Transfer of annexed property; hearing, 702 KAR 1:080.

Opinions of Attorney General. The term “adjacent” as used in this section means “adjoining” rather than “nearby” and property may not be transferred from one school district to another if it does not adjoin the school district to which it is to be transferred. OAG 62-54.

A county tax commissioner has no authority to transfer property from one school district to another in the county without the approval of either the voters, property owners, or school boards of the districts involved. OAG 67-429.
The methods prescribed by this section are the exclusive methods by which boundary lines between adjacent school districts may be changed, and an erroneous report of a boundary line made pursuant to KRS 136.190 neither established nor altered the boundary line even though it remained unchallenged for a period of 12 years. OAG 70-393.

The phrase “next regularly scheduled meeting” in subsection (4) does not include a specially called meeting. OAG 74-463.

The responsibility of determining the boundaries of two school districts within the same county rests with the boards of education of the two districts. OAG 80-621.

Those citizens living in an annexed area of a city are not entitled to vote in the city school board race unless and until the area annexed is also annexed by the city school district, pursuant to this section; such persons must vote in the county school district in which they presently live, irrespective of any agreement between the two school districts regarding in which district the children of residents of the annexed area will be allowed to attend school. OAG 84-372.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Purpose.
3. Application.
4. Annexed territory.
5. Property owners.

1. Constitutionality.

This section does not violate Const., § 59 as being special legislation. Board of Educ. v. Mescher, 310 Ky. 453, 220 S.W.2d 1016 (1949).

This section does not violate Const., §§ 2, 19, 52 or 183. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 250 S.W.2d 1017 (Ky. 1952).

2. Purpose.

The object of this section was to encourage the making of the city school district boundaries coextensive with those of the city. Howell v. Collier, 282 S.W.2d 327 (Ky. 1955).

3. Application.

This section provides the exclusive procedures by which an independent school district may annex county school district territory. Thomas v. Spragens, 308 Ky. 97, 213 S.W.2d 452 (1948).

This section authorizes only the incorporation of such areas annexed to a city as are coextensive with an area designated, defined or described as a separate territory in the annexation proceedings by the city. Howell v. Collier, 282 S.W.2d 327 (Ky. 1955).

4. Annexed Territory.

Property in county school district annexed by city does not, by operation of KRS 160.020, automatically become part of the city independent school district. Thomas v. Spragens, 308 Ky. 97, 213 S.W.2d 452 (1948).

The annexed territory must be treated as an indivisible unit. Howell v. Collier, 282 S.W.2d 327 (Ky. 1955).

County board had no power to prevent transfer of territory annexed to a city to city school district where 75 percent of owners of real property in the territory petitioned to be taken into city school district and city school board approved the petition. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 250 S.W.2d 1017 (Ky. 1952).

5. Property Owners.

Both the husband and wife in estates known as tenancy by the entirety are owners of property and their interest is sufficient to make them “owners of real property” within the meaning of this section. Campbell County Bd. of Educ. v. Boulevard Enters., Inc., 360 S.W.2d 744 (Ky. 1962).

The term “owners” was meant to designate all people who owned any interest in property which would permit them to be concerned with community school affairs. Campbell County Bd. of Educ. v. Boulevard Enters., Inc., 360 S.W.2d 744 (Ky. 1962).

Compiler's Notes. This section, which was declared unconstitutional in Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 472 S.W.2d 496 (Ky Ct. App. 1971). (Enact. Acts 1970, ch. 189, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. VI, § 616, effective July 13, 1990.

160.048. Transfer of area containing school outside district.

(1) The General Assembly hereby finds that from time to time various school boards, in the exercise of their administrative discretion, have determined that their school districts would be most efficiently administered if one (1) or more of the district’s schools were constructed and operated on land located outside the school districts’ boundaries. The General Assembly further finds that this has been desirable and in furtherance of an efficient system of common schools. As urbanization increases, and school districts throughout the Commonwealth become more densely populated, available school sites within such districts will proportionately diminish, and it will with increasing frequency be necessary to construct schools on land not within the district of the school board constructing such schools. When a school is so located, it is more efficient for the school district constructing the school, but it is less efficient for the statewide system of common schools and for the children residing in the immediate neighborhood of the new school, who reside in a different school district, and therefore must be transported to other, more distant schools. This situation results in an inefficient utilization of state and local school funds and school facilities, and is a result of the artificially-drawn school district boundary lines. The General Assembly further finds that the discretionary method of transfer presently provided by KRS 160.045 is not adequate to assure an efficient operation of the common schools, and that it is desirable to provide for mandatory transfer of such areas. Pursuant to section 183 of the Kentucky Constitution, the General Assembly declares that such situations are special situations and require special treatment. It is the intent of the General Assembly to provide by this statute a special method whereby such areas may be transferred to the school district operating the school or schools.

(2) If seventy-five percent (75%) of either the registered voters or property owners in an area adjacent to a school district other than the district in which such area is located and in which area there is located a school owned and operated by such adjacent school district petition the school board of the school district which owns and operates such school and the school board of the school district in which such area is located for the transfer of such area from the school district in which it is located to the school district which owns and operates such school, then such area shall be so transferred.

(3) The effective date of such transfer shall be sixty (60) days after the date on which the petition is filed with the two (2) school boards; personal delivery of said petition to any member of the school board or to the superintendent of the school district shall constitute "filing" for purposes of this section. Provided, that if such effective date falls during a term of the school district in which such area is located, the two (2) school boards involved may, by agreement, defer the effective date of such transfer until the end of said term.

(4) The terms and conditions of such transfer shall be determined in the manner provided for the determination of the terms and conditions of transfer under KRS 160.045, except that the chief state school officer, the Kentucky Board of Education, and the respective reviewing courts shall have no power to disapprove such transfer.

(5) Upon such transfer, the recipient district shall assume a portion of the bonded indebtedness of the losing district, as provided in KRS 160.065; such bonds shall remain the obligation of the issuing agency, and shall not be affected in any way by such transfer, except that each year the recipient district shall pay to the losing district a sum of money sufficient to make the payments on the portion of such indebtedness assumed by the recipient district, and such annual payments shall continue until all of the bonded indebtedness outstanding at the time of the transfer is paid in full.

(6) The method of transfer provided in this section shall be an alternative method to that set forth in KRS 160.045, and this section shall have no effect whatsoever on KRS 160.045.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section is not indefinite as to its determination of an area, is not ineffective as lacking authority to determine the sufficiency or composition of an area, provides the necessary procedural stress to effect a transfer and is not unconstitutional or ineffective because of vagueness. OAG 72-254.

160.049. Transfer of adjacent territory between school districts in county containing first-class city. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Acts 1970, ch. 189, §§ 2, 3) was repealed by Acts 1978, ch. 34, § 1, effective June 17, 1978.

160.050. Annexation of adjacent part of county school district by independent district — Approval — Vote. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-4b) was repealed by Acts 1956, ch. 240, § 2.

160.060. Annexation of part of independent district by county district. [Repealed.]

160.065. Liability for indebtedness in case of annexation.

When any property assessable for school purposes in one school district is annexed by or transferred to another school district, the recipient district shall assume a part of the indebtedness, if any, of the other school district incurred for school buildings and grounds in the proportion the assessed valuation of property taxable for school purposes transferred bears to the total assessed valuation of property taxable for school purposes in the district losing the territory. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 421, effective July 13, 1990.)

Cross-References. Title to school property in transferred territory, KRS 162.020.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Revenue Bonds.

Revenue bonds do not constitute an indebtedness of the issuing school district and city school district, to which territory was transferred from county school district after voters of county district had authorized special school building tax to pay rentals for school buildings to be financed by issuance of revenue bonds, was not liable for any part of the bonds under this section. Compiler's Notes. This section (4399-8) was repealed by Acts 1956, ch. 237, § 7.

160.105. Fire and extended insurance coverage. The Kentucky Board of Education shall by regulation require each school district to provide for fire and extended insurance coverage on each building owned by the board which is not surplus to its needs as shown by the approved facilities plan. The requirement for such coverage shall not exceed replacement cost and shall allow for the features of coinsurance and deductibles. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 422, effective July 13, 1990; amend. 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.)

160.151. Criminal background check on certified employees and student teachers in private, parochial, and church schools — Fingerprinting — Disclosure — Employment of offenders by nonpublic schools.

(1) (a) Beginning with the 2002-2003 school year, a private, parochial, or church school that has voluntarily been certified by the Kentucky Board of Education in accordance with the provisions of KRS 156.160(3) may require a national and state criminal background check on all new certified hires in the school and student teachers assigned to the school. Certified individuals who were employed in another certified position in a Kentucky school within six (6) months of the date of the hire and who had previously submitted to a national and state criminal background check for previous employment may be excluded from further national or state criminal background checks.

(b) The national criminal history background check shall be conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The state criminal history background check shall be conducted by the Kentucky State Police or the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(c) All fingerprints requested under this section shall be on an applicant fingerprint card provided by the Kentucky State Police. The fingerprint cards shall be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation by the Kentucky State Police after a state criminal background check has been conducted. Any fee charged by the Kentucky State Police, the Administrative Office of the Courts, or the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall be an amount no greater than the actual cost of processing the request and conducting the search.

(2) If a school requires a criminal background check for a new hire, the school shall conspicuously include the following disclosure statement on each application or renewal form provided by the employer to an applicant for a certified position: “STATE LAW AUTHORIZES THIS SCHOOL TO REQUIRE A CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECK AS A CONDITION OF EMPLOYMENT FOR THIS TYPE OF POSITION.”

(3) (a) A nonpublic school voluntarily implementing the provisions of this chapter may choose not to employ any person who is a violent offender as defined by KRS 17.165(2), has been convicted of a sex crime which is classified as a felony as defined by KRS 17.165(1), or has committed a violent crime as defined in KRS 17.165(3). A nonpublic school may employ, at its discretion, persons convicted of sex crimes classified as a misdemeanor.

(b) If a school term has begun and a certified position remains unfilled or if a vacancy occurs during a school term, a nonpublic school implementing the provisions of this chapter may employ an individual who will have supervisory or disciplinary authority over minors on probationary status pending receipt of a criminal history background check.

c) Employment at a nonpublic school implementing the provisions of this chapter may be contingent on the receipt of a criminal history background check documenting a record as a violent offender, of a sex crime, or of a violent crime as defined in KRS 17.165.

d) Nonpublic schools implementing the provisions of this chapter may terminate probationary employment under this section upon receipt of a criminal history background check documenting a record as a violent offender, of a sex crime, or of a violent crime as defined in KRS 17.165.

COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

As used in KRS 160.157, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Board” means the board of education of a local school district;

(2) “Community school” means a school that makes its facilities available for citizen use, coordinates activities of local citizens in identifying program needs and establishing priorities, identifies and utilizes available program resources, and assists in the initiation of programs to improve the cultural, social, recreational, and educational opportunities available in a community;

(3) “Community education program” means a program in which a public building, including a public elementary or secondary school, is used as a community center operated by a local education agency in cooperation with other groups in the community, community organizations, and local governmental agencies to provide educational, recreational, cultural, health care, and other related community services in accordance with the needs, interests, and concerns of the community;

(4) “Community education director” means an employee of a local school district who is responsible for a systemwide program of community education in a school district;

(5) “Community education coordinator” means an employee of a local school district who is responsible for the coordination of a specific program or other component of a total community education program within a local school district or community.

160.156. State plan for community education — Grant program.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall develop a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of the program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education shall administer a grant program pursuant to KRS 160.155 and 160.157 to provide money to local school districts to:

(a) Support staff to plan and manage programs and services for community education;

(b) Support programs that are targeted to the greatest educational needs in the community; and

(c) Encourage cooperation among all local school districts in a county.

(3) Funds appropriated for this purpose shall be distributed by the Kentucky Board of Education through a grant process. Districts shall provide a twenty-five percent (25%) cash match in order to receive state community education funding.

160.157. Funding of community schools.

(1) A public school district may receive funding for a community school program if it meets all of the following criteria:

(a) Submits an application for approval by the Kentucky Board of Education in the manner and form prescribed by the Department of Education;

(b) Submits a plan, approved by the local board, which outlines the proposed community education program, including procedures for obtaining the involvement and cooperation of other agencies and groups in identifying and recommending programs for meeting locally determined needs;

(c) Establishes a council with the power to make district-wide decisions of policy to assist in conducting community needs assessments and recommending program priorities;

(d) Employs at least one (1) full-time community education director.

(2) Two (2) or more school districts may combine for purposes of qualifying for state funds if the local districts identify a district of record for purposes of receiving state community education funds, maintaining records, and filing reports. Two (2) or more districts in the same county that wish to apply for state funds shall submit a joint proposal.

(3) Each grantee receiving state funds for a community education program shall submit an annual report to the State Department of Education. The report shall include an evaluation of the program and a financial statement. Failure to submit the report shall result in the loss of state funding.

(1) A state Council for Community Education shall be established for the purpose of advising the commissioner of education and the Department of Education on issues relating to community education programs and making recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.

(2) The council shall have a membership of fifteen (15) persons, appointed by the Governor. Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups:

(a) Civic organizations;
(b) Community-based organizations;
(c) Community education organizations;
(d) Local government;
(e) Local school district administrators;
(f) Parent organizations;
(g) Postsecondary education;
(h) School boards; and
(i) Teachers.

(3) The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include: chairman, vice chairman, and secretary.

(4) The council shall not meet more than four (4) times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance.

Boards of Education

(1) Each school district shall be under the management and control of a board of education consisting of five (5) members, except in counties containing a city of the first class wherein a merger pursuant to KRS 160.041 shall have been accomplished which shall have seven (7) members elected from the divisions and in the manner prescribed by KRS 160.210(5), to be known as the "Board of Education of..., Kentucky." Each board of education shall be a body politic and corporate with perpetual succession. It may sue and be sued; make contracts; expend funds necessary for liability insurance premiums and for the defense of any civil action brought against an individual board member in his official or individual capacity, or both, on account of an act made in the scope and course of his performance of legal duties as a board member; purchase, receive, hold, and sell property; issue its bonds to build and construct improvements; and do all things necessary to accomplish the purposes for which it is created. Each board of education shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from its membership in a manner and for a term prescribed by the board not to exceed two (2) years.

(2) No board of education shall participate in any financing of school buildings, school improvements, appurtenances thereto, or furnishing and equipment, including education technology equipment without:

(a) First establishing the cost of the project in advance of financing, based on the receipt of advertised, public, and competitive bids for such project, in accordance with KRS Chapter 424; and

(b) Establishing the cost of financing in advance of the sale of any bonds, certificates of participation in any leases, or other evidences of financial commitments issued by or on behalf of such board. Any bonds, leases, participations, or other financial arrangements shall not involve a final commitment of the board until the purchaser or lender involved shall have been determined by public advertising in accordance with KRS Chapter 424.

(3) No board of education shall make a mortgage, lien, or other encumbrance upon any school building owned by the board, or transfer title to any such school building as part of any financing arrangement, without the specific approval of the Department of Education, and without the transaction being entered into pursuant to a detailed plan or procedure specifically authorized by Kentucky statute.

(4) Without the approval of the Department of Education, no board may lease, as lessee, a building or public facility that has been or is to be financed at the request of the board or on its behalf through the issuance of bonds by another public body or by a nonprofit corporation serving as an agency and instrumentality of the board, or by a leasing corporation. Any lease, participation, or other financial arrangement shall not involve a final commitment of the board unless and until the purchaser or lender involved in same shall have been determined by public advertising in accordance with KRS Chapter 424. No transaction shall be entered into by the board except upon the basis of public advertising and competitive bidding in accordance with KRS Chapter 424.

(5) Rental payments due by a board under a lease approved by the Department of Education in accordance with subsection (4) of this section shall be due and payable not less than ten (10) days prior to the interest due date for the bonds, notes, or other debt obligations issued to finance the building or public facility. If a board fails to make a rental payment when due under a lease, upon notification to the Department of Education by the paying agent, bond registrar, or trustee for the bonds not less than three (3) days prior to the interest due date, the Department of Education shall withhold or intercept any funds then due the board to the extent of the amount of the required payment on the bonds and remit the amount to the paying agent, bond registrar, or trustee as appropriate. Thereafter, the Department of Education shall resolve the matter with the board and adjust remittances to the board to the extent of the amount paid by the Department of Education on the board’s behalf. (6) Bonds, notes or leases negotiated to provide education technology shall not be sold for longer than seven (7) years or the useful life of the equipment as established by the state technology master plan, whichever is less.

Opinions of Attorney General. In the exercise of reasonable discretion, a board of education may decide that it is in the best interests of the school district to participate in the student teacher-training program. OAG 63-269.
A commission, agency, or city has the power to condemn property of a school board for the general purpose for which each was created. OAG 65-310.
A board of education may sell property directly to a city or its agency or commission without the necessity of a public offering, and it may also negotiate for a settlement out of court at any point during a condemnation proceeding. OAG 65-330.

As a school district is a municipal corporation and stands on the same constitutional grounds as a county as to levying taxes and as the statutes are now written the school districts set the tax rate and the function of the fiscal court in levying school taxes is merely perfunctory, there should be no reason why the statutes could not be amended to make the school district the tax levying authority for school taxes. OAG 73-704.
A board of education has the authority to bring an action in its own name for the recovery of funds improperly paid and the fact that the Attorney General also has this authority does not delimit the authority of the board of education but provides another means of bringing such an action when a local board for some reason fails to do so and nothing in KRS 156.138 indicates that an action by the Attorney General shall be the exclusive recourse. OAG 73-867.
The school board has broad discretion under this section and KRS 160.290 in the selection of school sites and the establishment of schools so that even if the county is the legal owner of the property and is leasing it to the school board under KRS 162.140 as the school district holds equitable title, the fiscal court has no rights relative to a high school building which the board of education plans to tear down and replace with a new building unless the county could negotiate to purchase the property from the school board. OAG 74-221.
The board of education may purchase land from a booster club under the same authority that it purchases land from any person. OAG 75-1.

Being married is not a legal reason for a regulation forbidding a student to go on a class trip. OAG 75-163.
A local school board has the implied authority to employ an attorney to represent the board in its corporate capacity in litigation with the State Board of Education and to pay resulting legal fees from the general fund. OAG 75-552.
Where a legal action contesting the election of certain board members was brought against individual board members and not the board of education, the payment by the county board of education of legal fees and stenographic costs would be an illegal expenditure of public common school funds. OAG 77-580.

In the sale of surplus school property by a school district, only a cash transaction would be satisfactory. OAG 77-771.
The provision of this section allowing the school board to appropriate funds for the disposal of civil actions brought against school board members due to an act in the scope and course of the performance of their duties does not extend to the defense of a suit brought in quo warranto against a board member for an allegedly disqualifying act under KRS 160.190(4). OAG 78-648.

Since a local board is a “body politic and corporate” which may only transact business at a properly held meeting, by majority vote, a single member is powerless to cause an audit to be conducted of a school’s financial records. OAG 79-321.
There is no legal basis that would require a local board of education to determine “cause” existed before a new chairperson could be chosen. OAG 80-48.
Two members of a five-member board of education have no authority to act for the board as a body, thus where two board members offered to remove a written reprimand by the board from a high school coach’s record in consideration of a resignation by the coach, such an offer was without legal significance. OAG 80-119.
A local county board of education is sufficiently representative of the geographic area that it serves to qualify as an agency with which a community action agency could contract, and therefore, as long as the subject matter of the contract related to the purpose of promoting public education, a county board of education could enter into a contract with a community action agency pursuant to this section and KRS 160.290. OAG 82-387.
Under the broad powers of a school board, pursuant to this section and KRS 160.290, it could employ a security guard to look after its properties; such security guard, to be effective, should be a special local peace officer commissioned according to KRS 61.360. OAG 84-107.
A local board of education may open or close a school without the recommendation of the local superintendent. OAG 85-98.
Where one or more school districts initiate a suit to enforce state equalization of school funding within the Commonwealth, interested school districts may contribute reasonable amounts of money from school funds to meet the costs of the suit, including reasonable attorney’s fees; such expenditure would, however, have to be made in accordance with appropriate budget considerations. OAG 85-100.
Although this section and KRS 160.290(1) do not provide a specific statutory pronouncement upon what a local board of education may expend, school funds may be expended for those purposes authorized either expressly or by necessary implication by the statutes. OAG 85-100.
A local school district may contract to allow funds held for the local district by the Kentucky Department of Education to be transferred as directed, assuming all statutory and constitutional requirements relative to the use of those funds, if any, have been met. OAG 87-22.

The local board has responsibility for control and management of the school district as a whole, and has the authority to make contracts and agreements; the board has management and control of school funds, and fixes the compensation of the employees. OAG 92-29.

A reward, offered by the local school board, for the purpose of apprehending the vandals who damaged school property constitutes a proper educational purpose within the meaning of Sections 180, 184 and 186 of the Kentucky Constitution; the act also falls within the parameters of this section as being necessary in order that the board may accomplish the purposes for which it was created as the resources of each school system are limited, and must be protected. OAG 92-63.

School board approval is required when the superintendent decides to move the central business office to a new location requiring substantial expenditure of school funds because the movement of the office is not, primarily, a personnel decision, but one involving the management of business affairs; while the superintendent has responsibility for the management of business affairs, that responsibility is subject to the control of the board of education and moreover, the school board has control and management of all school funds, public school property and school facilities; depending on the steps taken, approval of the Department of Education may also be required. OAG 92-65.

1. Nature of Board.

A city school board is a municipal corporation. Smith v. Board of Educ., 23 F. Supp. 328 (E.D. Ky. 1938), aff’d, 111 F.2d 573 (6th Cir. 1940).

A board of education is a taxing district or municipality. Lee v. Board of Educ., 261 Ky. 379, 87 S.W.2d 961 (1935); Smith v. Board of Educ., 23 F. Supp. 328 (E.D. Ky. 1938), aff’d, 111 F.2d 573 (6th Cir. 1940). But see Parson v. County Bd. of Educ., 100 F.2d 974 (6th Cir. 1939).

A county board of education is a "quasi municipal corporation" governed by rules applicable to municipalities. Board of Educ. v. Talbott, 286 Ky. 543, 151 S.W.2d 4 (1941); Board of Educ. v. Society of Alumni of Louisville Male High Sch., Inc., 239 S.W.2d 931 (Ky. 1951).

Since a county school board is neither the state nor its alter ego, U.S. Const., amend. XI, does not bar recovery of attorney’s fees against a county board of education in a suit challenging county school desegregation plans. Cunningham v. Grayson, 541 F.2d 538 (6th Cir. 1976), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 1074, 97 S. Ct. 812, 50 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1977).

County board of education is a political body with a corporate structure and is entitled to the protection of Const., § 2. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880 (Ky. 1996).

The local school boards, pursuant to KRS 160.160, as well as the Kentucky Board of Education, pursuant to KRS 156.070, have been established as state agencies through which the General Assembly implements its constitutional mandate to oversee public schools. Yanero v. Davis, 65 S.W.3d 510 (Ky. 2001).

2. Members.

A member of a board of education is a state officer. Polley v. Fortenberry, 268 Ky. 389, 105 S.W.2d 143 (1937); Norton v. Letton, 271 Ky. 353, 111 S.W.2d 1053 (1937); Ward v. Siler, 272 Ky. 424, 114 S.W.2d 516 (1938).

On merger by agreement of independent school district with county school district it is proper to read KRS 160.041 in the light of KRS 160.040 and to look to the latter for the powers of the two districts in making a merger agreement to fix the terms of such merger and the two boards of education have the authority to agree that members of the independent school district board will serve temporarily on the board of the newly enlarged district. LaFollette v. Ovesen, 314 Ky. 535, 236 S.W.2d 457 (1951).

3. Powers and Authority.

School property is held in trust by the board of education for the use and benefit of the school as a "state institution." City of Louisville v. Manning, 309 Ky. 789, 219 S.W.2d 13 ( Ct. App. 1949).

This section vests boards of education with broad powers in the conduct and management of their affairs and the term "school purposes" is a broad and comprehensive one which might well include facilities for the housing of all school activities, including shops and home economics buildings, as well as living quarters for teachers and custodial employees where conditions warrant. Ford v. Pike County Bd. of Educ., 310 Ky. 177, 220 S.W.2d 389 (1949).

County boards have broad discretion under this section and KRS 160.290 in the selection of school sites and when the board has obtained the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction on its plan for a new building, it is not for the court to say whether the board has acted wisely or unreasonably in determining where the school should be located and the only question for the court’s determination is whether the board is exceeding its authority or is acting arbitrarily. Perry County Bd. of Educ. v. Deaton, 311 Ky. 227, 223 S.W.2d 882 (1949).

Local school board could institute co-education in high school where provision in a deed to the land on which the school was located stipulated the property could be used only for white male pupils since there was an invalid delegation of governmental powers in that the covenant restricted the school board’s discretionary powers. Board of Educ. v. Society of Alumni of Louisville Male High Sch., Inc., 239 S.W.2d 931 (Ky. 1951).

The board has the implied powers to employ and pay an accountant to make general audit of the school records. Lewis v. Morgan, 252 S.W.2d 691 (Ky. 1952).

Under the broad authority of this section and KRS 160.290 the county board of education has power to adopt appropriate and reasonable regulations whereby indigent high school pupils may be furnished transportation without charge. Japs v. Board of Educ., 291 S.W.2d 825 (Ky. 1956).

Even though there was no specific statutory authority for school board to employ an attorney, members of county board of education had implied authority to employ attorneys to represent them in actions and had implied power to expend school funds for attorney’s fees and court costs in defending the actions where such employment was necessary for their protection and the accomplishment of the purposes for which they were created. Hogan v. Glasscock, 324 S.W.2d 815 (Ky. 1959).

Since the school board was a body politic and corporate, a government agency, and a public corporation, it was authorized to enter into a lease or contract with another governmental agency. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

A lawsuit to declare an education system unconstitutional falls within the authority, if not the duty, of local school boards to fulfill their statutory responsibilities, no matter who the defendants are. Rose v. Council for Better Educ., Inc., 790 S.W.2d 186 (Ky. 1989).

4. —To Sue and Be Sued.

Words “to sue and to be sued” do not authorize an action for negligence committed by officers or agents of the board in performing public duty but have reference to suits respecting matters within the scope of the duties of the board. Wallace v. Laurel County Bd. of Educ., 287 Ky. 454, 153 S.W.2d 915 (1941).

The legislature created boards of education as bodies corporate with power to sue and be sued in their corporate name. Howell v. Haney, 330 S.W.2d 941 (Ky. 1959).

A county board of education is “a body politic and corporate” which may sue and be sued. Moore v. Babb, 343 S.W.2d 373 (Ky. 1960).

5. —Actions by Board.

A board of education has authority to maintain an action in its own name, against delinquent taxpayers, to recover judgment for delinquent school taxes and to enforce the tax lien, and is not required to await the ordinary process of distraint and sale by the tax collector as the statute makes the tax a debt of the delinquent taxpayer in favor of the particular taxing authority. Board of Educ. v. Ballard, 299 Ky. 370, 185 S.W.2d 538 (1945).

This section and KRS 160.290 place upon the boards of education, not taxpayers, the initial responsibility of maintaining legal actions on behalf of the school districts and an individual has no standing to institute an action for alleged unlawful expenditures of school funds until he has demanded the board to bring the action and the board has refused to comply unless he clearly shows that a demand would have been futile although some members of the board were members at the time of alleged unlawful expenditures. Farler v. Perry County Bd. of Educ., 355 S.W.2d 659 (Ky. 1961).

6. —Actions Against Board Members.

Teacher’s action against members of the board as individuals for a specific order requiring the board to assign her to a school for the year 1959-60 was not maintainable. Moore v. Babb, 343 S.W.2d 373 (Ky. 1960).

Members of board of education are not liable individually for injuries to student caused by employees of board. Wood v. Board of Educ., 412 S.W.2d 877 (Ky. 1967).

7. —Actions Against Board.

A superintendent of schools of city of fourth class who was wrongfully discharged by board of education before the end of his term was not barred from recovering salary by statute of frauds as minutes of board appointing him was a sufficient writing. Smith v. Board of Educ., 23 F. Supp. 328 (E.D. Ky. 1938).

Fact that there is no fund available to pay judgment against county board of education for refund of illegal taxes does not invalidate judgment, since county board of education may sue and be sued, and sufficient funds may be lawfully raised by taxation and used to pay the judgment. Board of Educ. v. Louisville & N.R.R., 280 Ky. 650, 134 S.W.2d 219 (1939).

A taxpayer may not bring suit in a matter concerning public funds until he has first requested the authorized school board, county or other public body to institute such action and the official body has refused to comply. Reeves v. Jefferson County, 245 S.W.2d 606 (Ky. 1951).

County board of education as well as the county are necessary parties in a suit for recount of the ballots and to contest the legality of election under KRS 122.140 (repealed) and the petition cannot be amended to add a new party or parties after the time for filing the petition has expired. Howell v. Haney, 330 S.W.2d 941 (Ky. 1959).

The county board of education is a public corporation which can act only as a body and not by individual members acting separately and it must be made a party in an action alleging unlawful discharge of superintendent of schools rather than three of five board members. Johnson v. King, 349 S.W.2d 845 (Ky. 1961).

8. —Interest on Judgment.

The fact that this section makes a board of education a body politic and subject to suit, does not divest the board of immunity regarding interest, absent a statutory provision. Since a state can be sued only with its consent, a statute waiving immunity must be strictly construed and cannot be read to encompass the allowance of interest unless so specified. Powell v. Board of Educ., 829 S.W.2d 940 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Boards of education are authorized to convey school property. Bellamy v. Board of Educ., 255 Ky. 447, 74 S.W.2d 920 (1934).

Though the board of education has the right to sell and convey school property it cannot sell and convey all of such property in the county at one time and for a grossly inadequate price. Weaks v. Board of Educ., 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094 (1940).

A county board of education had no authority to execute a plan by which board was to convey to a nonprofit corporation 20 percent of school property in county, but not site on which school building was to be erected, and corporation was to erect building and execute lease-option contract to board by which, after payment of rental for period of years, board was to become owner of all property conveyed to corporation. Weaks v. Board of Educ., 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094 (1940).

Although there is no statutory limitation on the action of boards of education in selling and conveying school property, their action in so doing must be consonant with their duty to maintain an adequate school system within the limits of their finances; and any action by a board which impairs the entire school system of a county, or a portion thereof, may be called in question by the courts. Weaks v. Board of Educ., 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094 (1940).

10. —Selection of School Sites.

Subject to the approval of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, county boards of education are given broad discretion in the selection of sites for schools. Once the approval of the State Superintendent has been obtained, the courts will not interfere with the selection of the site unless there is positive proof of fraud, collusion, or a clear abuse of discretion. Justice v. Clemons, 308 Ky. 820, 215 S.W.2d 992 (1948).

Courts may not interfere with proposed plan of county board of education for location of school unless there is shown a clear abuse of discretion vested in the board by this section and KRS 160.290. Goins v. Jones, 255 S.W.2d 723 (Ky. 1953).

In taxpayer suit to enjoin county board of education since evidence did not show that the board was without serious consideration and lacked a reasonable discretion and was arbitrary in locating a proposed new elementary school near the western boundary of the county instead of the geographical center, the court was without authority or power to interfere. Goins v. Jones, 258 S.W.2d 723 (Ky. 1953).
A school board is vested with the power to select public school sites, subject only to the limitation that it cannot act arbitrarily or beyond the pale of sound discretion and has authority to condemn land for future school needs. Pike County Bd. of Educ. v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245 (Ky. 1955).

11. —Conducting of School System.
   Regulation which required students upon marriage to withdraw from school and to remain out of school for one year and then to be readmitted only on permission of principal was arbitrary and unreasonable and therefore invalid. Board of Educ. v. Bentley, 383 S.W.2d 677 (Ky. 1964). Where student population fell below minimum required for state aid a reasonable basis was afforded for school board to order the school closed. Earle v. Harrison County Bd. of Educ., 404 S.W.2d 455 (Ky. 1966).

The conduct of a public school system is committed to the discretion of the school board. Earle v. Harrison County Bd. of Educ., 404 S.W.2d 455 (Ky. 1966). Where student population fell below minimum required for state aid a reasonable basis was afforded for school board to order the school closed. Earle v. Harrison County Bd. of Educ., 404 S.W.2d 455 (Ky. 1966).

The Kentucky General Assembly clearly has given local school boards the power and authority to close schools and consolidate schools within a local system. Coppage v. Ohio County Bd. of Educ., 860 S.W.2d 779 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

12. —Punishment of Students.
   The statute governing the suspension of students for the violation of regulations of the school system preempts the right of the school officials to impose additional punishment for conduct resulting in suspension. Dorsey v. Bale, 521 S.W.2d 76 (Ky. 1975).

   Provision for seven board members rather than five upon merger of the school district of a city of the first class with the county school district does not constitute “local or special legislation” forbidden by state Constitution where a seven-man board is justified by the larger size of student population, greater amount of property to manage, more extensive financing requirements, and the presence of minority group enclaves. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 522 S.W.2d 854 (Ky. 1975).

   Sufficient evidence was presented to support a judgment of removal of school board members for misconduct. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Ball, 847 S.W.2d 743 (Ky. 1993).

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

1. Nature of Board.
   A board, being a continuing body, cannot, following a change of members, rescind a prior sale on the mere ground that it was a bad bargain. Trustees of Congregational Church v. Board of Trustees, 230 Ky. 94, 18 S.W.2d 887 (1919).

160.170. Oath of board members.
   Every person elected to a board of education shall, before assuming the duties of his office, take the following oath, in addition to the constitutional oath: “State of Kentucky, “County of ………
   “……………., being duly sworn, says that he is eligible under the law to serve as a member of the board of education, and that he will not, while serving as a member of such board, become interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with or claim against the board, and that he will not in any way influence the hiring or appointment of district employees, except the hiring of the superintendent of schools or school board attorney.
   “Subscribed and sworn to before me this ……… day of ………
   “……………,”
   The oath shall be kept on record by the board.

Cross-References. Constitutional oath, Const., § 228.
   Opinions of Attorney General. Where five months after taking office school board members had not yet taken the statutory oath of office the board members forfeited their office for failure to qualify within a reasonable time after their election. OAG 61-485.

   Where five months after taking office school board members had not yet taken the statutory oath, the State Board of Education was required to fill the resulting vacancies pursuant to KRS 160.190. OAG 61-485.

   It is permissible for a successful candidate for the school board to take the statutory oath of office at a school board meeting to be held the second Monday in January. OAG 65-4.

   Where a person who was elected a member of the county board of education and who had received a certificate of election refused to take the oath of office, such office became vacant 30 days after the beginning of the term or 30 days after receipt by the person elected of the certificate of election, whichever event was later and the other members of the board should thereafter immediately make an appointment to fill the vacancy under the duty imposed on them by KRS 160.190. OAG 69-60.

   Persons who are ineligible to serve on school board should resign; however, unless a private citizen is claiming the office for himself, there is no proceeding short of an Attorney General ouster complaint which could prevent such individuals from taking the oath of office. OAG 92-160.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
   2. Taking oath and filing of record.

   1. Constitutionality.
   Because this section and KRS 160.180(3) clearly prohibit school board members from engaging in nepotism or favoritism, conduct in which the Commonwealth has a significant interest, and their wording, as their meaning, is simple and unequivocal and not susceptible to arbitrary or discriminatory enforcement, the statutes are not unconstitutionally vague or overbroad. Craig v. Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ., 902 S.W.2d 264 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

   2. Taking Oath and Filing of Record.
   Member elected to board of education qualified by taking oath of office and filing same at first meeting of board at which his term began, and his office could not be declared vacant because he failed to file documentary evidence of his educational qualification as required by bylaws of board. Oakes v. Remines, 273 Ky. 750, 117 S.W.2d 948 (1938).

   Members did not forfeit office and were not subject to removal where they had taken constitutional oath but had failed through inadvertence to take the additional statutory oath until five months after entering office at which time they discovered the omission and took the oath in writing and entered it in the school board records. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge v. Marshall, 361 S.W.2d 103 (Ky. 1962).

160.180. Eligibility requirements.

(1) As used in this section, “relative” means father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son, daughter, aunt, uncle, son-in-law, and daughter-in-law.

(2) No person shall be eligible to membership on a board of education:

   (a) Unless he has attained the age of twenty-four (24) years; and

   (b) Unless he has been a citizen of Kentucky for at least three (3) years preceding his election and is a voter of the district for which he is elected; and

   (c) Unless he has completed at least the twelfth grade or has been issued a GED certificate or has received a high school diploma through participation in the external diploma program and he is elected after July 13, 1990; and

   (d) An affidavit signed under penalty of perjury certifying completion of the twelfth grade or the equivalent as determined by passage of the twelfth grade equivalency examination held under regulations adopted by the Kentucky Board of Education has been filed with the nominating petition required by KRS 118.315; or

   (e) Who holds a state office requiring the constitutional oath or is a member of the General Assembly; or

   (f) Who holds or discharges the duties of any civil or political office, deputyship, or agency under the city or county of his residence; or

   (g) Who, at the time of his election, is directly or indirectly interested in the sale to the board of books, stationery, or any other property, materials, supplies, equipment, or services for which school funds are expended; or

   (h) Who has been removed from membership on a board of education for cause; or

   (i) Who has a relative as defined in subsection (1) of this section employed by the school district and is elected after July 13, 1990. However, this shall not apply to a board member holding office on July 13, 1990, whose relative was not initially hired by the district during the tenure of the board member.

(3) If, after the election of any member of the board, he becomes interested in any contract with or claims against the board, of the kind mentioned in paragraph (g) of subsection (2) of this section, or if he moves his residence from the district for which he was chosen, or if he attempts to influence the hiring of any school employee, except the superintendent of schools or school board attorney, or if he does anything that would render him ineligible for re-election, he shall be subject to removal from office pursuant to KRS 415.050 and 415.060.

(4) A board member shall be eligible for re-election unless he becomes disqualified.

(5) The annual in-service training requirements for all school board members shall be as follows:

   (a) Twelve (12) hours for school board members with zero to three (3) years of experience;

   (b) Eight (8) hours for school board members with four (4) to seven (7) years of experience; and

   (c) Four (4) hours for school board members with eight (8) or more years of experience.

The Kentucky Board of Education shall identify the criteria for fulfilling this requirement.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

This section was amended by two 1990 Acts. Where those Acts are not in conflict, they have been compiled together. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails.

- Opinions of Attorney General. Under this section membership on the school board is politically incompatible with holding a local county office, and a member of the school board who becomes a candidate for county office automatically vacates his position on the school board. OAG 60-341.

Under this section, the question of educational qualification for membership on a board of education is a fact to be determined by the evidence, and an uncontroverted affidavit from a former teacher would be sufficient to establish eligibility. OAG 60-590.

This section which establishes the qualifications for members of local boards of education does not contain any requirements concerning religion, and a person of the Catholic faith, if he meets the statutory qualifications, may be a member of a local board. OAG 60-917.

A person who at the time of his election to the board of education, is a partner in a construction company, which in the current month has been awarded a school contract with the board of education of which he is a member, is ineligible for membership on the board. OAG 60-947.

This section does not prohibit a board of education from transacting business with the son-in-law of one of its members, but the related member must not vote on the proposal. OAG 60-857.

If a board member moves his residence within the district but from the division in which he was chosen, he is no longer eligible for office, but the move does not automatically create a vacancy. OAG 60-1028.

A person is not made ineligible for membership on a board of education because at the time of his election to the board, he had a claim for services rendered pending before the board, when the work on which the claim was based had been completed. OAG 60-1029.

This section does not establish physical health as a qualification of membership on a school board and a person who is given a 100 percent disability rating by the Veteran’s Administration and is under the care of a nurse, is not precluded from serving as a member on a local board of education. OAG 60-1034.

A woman whose husband sells insurance to a board of education has an indirect interest in the insurance and is prohibited by this section from serving on the board. OAG 62-712.

Under this section, an owner and operator of a school bus who is under contract with county school district to transport pupils for the school year, since he cannot unilaterally dissolve his contract, is ineligible to serve as a member of the board of education during the term of the contract. OAG 62-956.

Actions taken as a school board member after filing for nomination for the office of sheriff and thus disqualifying himself would be valid until the school board member resigned or was removed from office. OAG 65-212.

No constitutional or statutory incompatibility exists between membership on the school board and membership on the municipal housing commission. OAG 66-673.

A vote by a member of a board of education for approval of payment to a validly employed kinsman of the board member for services rendered is not proscribed by subsection (4) (now (3)) of this section. OAG 67-47.

A school board member is prohibited from contracting with the board of which he is a member despite the fact that the contract is let pursuant to sealed bids. OAG 67-212.

A board member who receives a subcontract to perform a substantial portion of the work under a prime contract awarded by a board of education thereby becomes “indirectly” interested in the contract in contravention of the statute. OAG 67-212.

If a school board member without previous arrangement or agreement and in the absence of inculpatory circumstances leases equipment to a contractor for use under a school contract, the board member does not thereby violate the statute. OAG 67-212.

The local manager of a public utility firm who has no proprietary interest in the firm, is not disqualified, either by the provisions of this section or at common law, from service on a local board of education by virtue of the fact that the board imposes a utilities gross receipts tax on the utility pursuant to KRS 180.613. OAG 67-274.

A physician is not disqualified by this section from serving on a local board of education by reason of the fact that he renders professional services to school children and is compensated for some of these services by insurance which covers the children in incidents arising at or en route to or from school, since the premium for the insurance is paid by the parents and not from school funds. OAG 68-250.

Where a board of education purchases sporting goods equipment from a sporting goods store located in the county adjoining the school district, which store is owned by a brother of the chairman of the board of education, the existence of a close connection of interest on the part of the board member would depend upon the issues of fact in the case, namely whether the board member possesses a financial and/or proprietary interest in the sporting goods business, either directly or indirectly.
OAG 68-303.

Since the position of county precinct chairman of a political party is neither a constitutional office, a statutory office, nor a form of public employment, the county precinct chairman is not disqualified by subsection (1)(d) (now (1)(f)) of this section from service on a local board of education. OAG 68-535.

The position of executive director or assistant executive director of a municipal housing commission is state employment and there is no incompatibility between these positions and the office of school board member. OAG 68-599.

A person employed as customer relations manager by the telephone company is not disqualified by this section from service on the local board of education because the school board might impose a utility gross receipts tax on his employer, nor would he be prevented from attending a meeting at which the subject was discussed, but he should refrain from participating in the discussion or voting on the proposal and should make his abstinence a matter of record. OAG 69-119.

If payments accepted by a board member of an independent district represent payment for services in any amount or to any degree, or if though purporting to be for actual and necessary expenses, are not for duties authorized by the board, acceptance of such would offend this section in rendering the member ineligible. OAG 69-292.

Where an eighth-grade equivalency test given locally was neither an examination approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or adopted by the state board, nor given under the direction of the state board or the State Superintendent, it would not suffice to qualify the candidate for the school board. OAG 70-463.

A member of the city commission running for membership on a board of education would not become ineligible for city council until he assumed the school board office. OAG 70-558.

A person can become a candidate for school board membership and at the same time continue to serve on the city commission. OAG 70-558.

A person could serve on a county board of health and on the board of education at the same time without forfeiting the first office he held. OAG 70-613.

A person is not made ineligible for membership on a board of education because at the time of his election to the board, he was removed from office. OAG 70-613.

A person is not made ineligible for membership on an independent board of education. OAG 70-723.

A person whose husband sells insurance to a board of hops would not thereby violate the statute. OAG 70-587.

There is no constitutional or statutory provision which would prohibit a member of the county board of education from being appointed as a director or member of a water district. OAG 70-723.

If it could be demonstrated that the assistant cashier’s connection with the depository bank for the school board was limited to the employer-employee relationship, there would be no disqualification from that person’s serving on the school board. OAG 70-809.

If the assistant cashier of the depository bank for school board funds is in fact an officer, having been so designated by the bank’s board of directors, he would be disqualified from serving on the school board. OAG 70-809.

A member of a board of education who is in the building material business may neither supply services nor materials to a prime contractor for use on a school building project which is being constructed with funds of the board of education which he is a member. OAG 70-829.

If a person elected to the school board was the majority stockholder in a corporation that sold soft drinks to school-controlled organizations, the continuation of such sales by the corporation would offend this section. OAG 71-33.

A board member who was employed as truck sales manager and who made a motion and voted to purchase a truck from the firm which he represented forfeits his office immediately upon such a transaction, but if he does not resign, he will have to be removed by the court upon proof of the improper transaction. OAG 72-110.

A school board member who is the editor of a local newspaper is disqualified from serving on the board, where the editor’s paper prints the high school paper, even though the high school paper is self-supporting and does not have its bills paid by the board of education. OAG 72-111.

There was no violation of this section where a member of the board of education voted to pay the salary of his great nephew employed as a teacher in the district as the relationship of great nephew is not proscribed by this section. OAG 72-303.

A member may not own stock in an institution where the board of education deposits its money at a prescribed rate of interest. OAG 72-327.

There is no conflict of interest where a superintendent of schools owns stock in an institution where the board of education deposits its money at a prescribed rate of interest. OAG 72-327.

A temporary absence from the state for three months to take a job in another state on a trial basis would not disqualify that person from being a candidate for the school board. OAG 72-499.

This section would not be violated where a school board member voted to award a contract to a company which employs his nephew. OAG 72-525.

A former resident of Kentucky who moved his residence for several years and returned to Kentucky on August 12, 1972, would not be an eligible candidate for membership on a county board of education in the November, 1972 election. OAG 72-670.

Where a member of the school board is a salesman for a plumbing supply house but does not sell within the county of the school board on which he serves and has no interest in the firm for which he sells, he would not become disqualified to serve on the board when the board contemplates the purchase of equipment from such member’s employer. OAG 72-691.

The term “has been removed” in subsection (1)(f) (now (2)(h)) of this section means that the person has been removed by a court judgment and does not include a voluntary resignation; therefore, a person who voluntarily resigns in a conflict of interest situation may save his eligibility to later serve on the board. OAG 72-777.

There is no conflict of interest where a member of a county board of education is an unpaid officer and director of a nonprofit corporation which, as part of its service, provides water service to some of the county schools. OAG 72-840.

A board of education member is not disqualified for his office when he is a member of the board deposits money in an institution in which he is an officer, director, or stockholder as this is not the type of contract referred to in this section for which school board funds are expended. OAG 73-71.

A member of a district board of education may not be removed from office for being convicted on a charge of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated as this offense is a misdemeanor and conviction therefor would not disqualify a person from office. OAG 73-113.

Unless a person has lost his voting franchise or has committee disqualifying acts in a prior term, alleged wrongdoing prior to his assumption of his office as a board member cannot be used to remove him from the board. OAG 73-128.

Where a member of a county board of education and her husband owned a weekly newspaper, the only newspaper in that county, this section would not in view of KRS 424.120 and KRS 424.220 prohibit the publishing of school financial statements and legal notice in such newspaper. OAG 73-438; OAG 74-516.

Employment of a school board member by a subcontractor on a school construction project is not sufficient direct or indirect interest in the contract so as to disqualify the board member for his office. OAG 73-455.

A member of the board of education who is also an insurance company representative could sell life insurance to teachers employed by the board, where the teachers employed the board in writing to withhold from the teachers’ salary the amount of the premium, since the board member is dealing directly with individual teachers, and the money to be withheld from the individual salary of the teacher has vested in him and is no longer “school funds.” OAG 73-503.

A member of a board of education may be removed only for cause and where two members of a school board have refused to approve payment of bills (there being a vacancy on the board and this refusal therefore effectively blocking payment), it is doubtful if this action would be held sufficient to remove the board members and the apparent solution would be to fill the school board vacancy pursuant to the provisions of KRS 160.190. OAG 73-523.

A member of the board of directors of a southern states cooperative who serves without remuneration other than that received by any other customer of the cooperative is not disqualified from serving as a member of a board of education which makes purchases from the southern states cooperative. OAG 73-530.

Where a superintendent of schools recommended the employment of a high school principal, the employment was moved by the chairman of the board of education and seconded by a member of the board of education who was a first cousin of the candidate for the principal’s position, the chairman of the board voted yes on the motion, the member seconding the motion abstained because of his relationship with the candidate and two other members of the board abstained, there was no illegality involved. The three members of the board abstaining are counted as acquiescing with the majority of those present voting and the vote of the single person voting, the chairman, was decisive in carrying the motion and approving the recommendation of the superintendent. OAG 73-531.

When a school board member moves his residence from the school district, this disqualifies him from membership on the board but his actions as a member of the school board would be legally effective until he either resigns or is removed by court order pursuant to ouster proceedings instituted by and on behalf of the Attorney General under KRS 415.050. OAG 73-558.

Where member of board of education was a gasoline distributor who, solely as the result of federal mandatory fuel allocation regulations, was the supplier of gasoline for the school district, there was no violation of prescription against conflict of interest. OAG 74-132.

Where school board member purchased materials for cheerleader uniforms and was reimbursed by the school principal, such reimbursement was not forbidden as a conflict of interest under this section. OAG 74-293.

No conflict of interests would exist if the wife of a publisher of a paper that publishes legal advertisements for the county board of education is elected to the board of education. OAG 74-516.

When a school board member moves his residence from the district for which he was chosen he will continue as a de facto member of the board of education and all his acts as a board member shall be valid until he either resigns or is removed by judgment of a court upon an action brought in the name of the commonwealth upon relation of the Attorney General. OAG 74-613; OAG 76-612.

A teacher employed by a county board of education may lawfully be a candidate for the county board of education but if he elected he would have to be released from his contract to teach before he would be eligible to serve. OAG 74-649.

A person may not be a school board member and hold a position on the planning and zoning commission at the same time, but until he either resigns or is ousted by a judgment of the court, he is de facto officer in both agencies and his actions as such are valid. OAG 75-129.
A dentist who is a member of a county board of education may perform dental services for school children under the auspices of the county health program since the funds involved are not school funds. OAG 75-358.

There is no conflict where a school board member’s wife is a teacher in the same school system. OAG 75-416.

A formal agreement between a bank and the school board as to a special rate of interest to be paid on money deposited by the board and a special rate of interest to be charged on loans to the board constitutes a contract for services and therefore creates a conflict of interest as to board members who are stockholders in that bank but only an advisory member as he has no monetary interest in the transaction. OAG 75-481, modified by OAG 77-231 to the extent of conflict.

If a bid is accepted, the contract is valid and enforceable even though the contract creates a conflict of interest. OAG 75-481, modified by OAG 77-231 to the extent of conflict.

A local board of education may accept a bid from a bank for the payment of interest on deposits and for the charging of interest on loans if a member of the board of education is not a stockholder in that bank but only an advisory member as he has no monetary interest in the transaction. OAG 75-481, modified by OAG 77-231 to the extent of conflict.

There is no conflict of interest when a school board member holds stock in a public utility or a company having a legally authorized monopoly and sells services or materials to the school board. OAG 75-553, modified by OAG 77-231 to the extent of conflict.

The courts must decide if a school board candidate meets the residency requirements and actually and legally lives in the district or district division which he seeks to represent. OAG 76-121.

It would not be a violation of this section for a board of education to award a contract for milk and dairy products to the companies submitting the low bid where one of the members of the board of education has a son who is employed as one of the 12 route salesmen by the firm submitting the low bid paid on the basis of salary and commission, and if the contract is awarded to his employer, he and the other route salesmen will participate in the contract by furnishing the dairy products to the school system and where the member of the board of education has no interest in or association with the firm submitting the low bid and his son has no ownership in the company but is only an employee. OAG 76-372.

An employee of Kentucky Educational Television Authority under the state merit system who receives no profit from her work other than her regular salary may legally become a candidate for and serve, if elected, as a member of the local school board and at the same time retain her employment with Kentucky Authority for Educational Television. OAG 76-394.

A conflict of interest would exist where an employee of a department store from which material and supplies were purchased with school funds is elected to the school board and the board continues to purchase material and supplies from her employer. OAG 76-408; 77-519.

Since the Economic Development Council is an agency of the city, county and chamber of commerce and the administrator of the Council serves at the same time the city, county and chamber of commerce, the position of assistant administrator is of a so-called hybrid nature, that is neither a city or county position as contemplated in Const., § 165, KRS 61.080 and KRS 160.180 (1)(d) (now §2(2)(d)) and therefore no incompatibility would exist between the position of assistant administrator of the Economic Development Council and membership on a county school board. OAG 76-495.

Since there exists no statutory or state constitutional incompatibility by holding two state office positions, a Circuit Court Clerk or an employee of that office may legally qualify to be elected to membership on a local board of education. OAG 76-509.

A member of a board of education would not be prohibited by this section from doing business with a P.T.A. group. OAG 76-596.

A school board member who sells goods and services to the school sponsor of an eighth grade class within the school district violates the provisions of this section. OAG 76-596.

Where a member of a local school board for an independent school system moves his residency into another school district, he should resign his position on the board at the time of the permanent removal of his residence from the district and where a member of a local school board of an independent school system does not remove his residence from the city until after the election, his election would be valid but the board member should resign as soon as he moves from the city. OAG 76-612.

A member of a board of education which merges with another board of education to form a new board of education composed of the former two boards of education who is permitted to serve out his unexpired term can file for reelection to a vacant seat on the new school board and still retain his present position which he holds as a result of the merger. OAG 77-34.

A member of a county board of education would have to resign his position from the county school board prior to his becoming a candidate for sheriff in a May primary election. OAG 77-134.

Under these transactions with a board of education which cause the school board to expend school funds create the disqualifying act prohibited under this section for the individual who serves on a local board of education and who also is an officer, director or stockholder of a banking institution with which the school board does business. OAG 77-231; OAG 78-830, modifying OAG 75-481 and 75-553 to the extent of conflict.

Members of county board of education are state officers and at the same time the position of state ABC officer is one authorized pursuant to KRS 241.090 and such representatives have full police powers which may or may not place their position in the category of a state officer; and although subsection (1)(d) of this section prohibits a school board member from holding any office in or association with any local office or agency under the city or county of his residence, it would not prohibit a school board member from holding employment or an appointive office with the state and of course a board member could not become a candidate for any public office, local or state; however, Const., § 165 and KRS 61.080 do not prohibit a person from holding two state offices or employment at the same time. OAG 77-245.

A county school board candidate who is a potato chip salesman could not continue to make sales to the county schools if he is elected to the school board. OAG 77-416.

The courts must decide on a case by case basis whether a conflict of interest exists under this section. OAG 77-519.

Although a member of a school board would be disqualified from holding that office at the time of his filing for the office of county judge (now county judge/executive), the board member does not vacate that office unless he either resigns or is removed by court action. OAG 77-588.

A board member confronted with a subsection (4) situation should have the board’s minutes reflect that the school board member has disqualified himself or herself from voting and not merely abstained. OAG 78-159 (opinion prior to 1990 amendment).
Failing to meet the qualifications or doing that which is proscribed in this section constitutes cause for consideration for removal of a board of education member from office for usurpation of that office. OAG 78-159.

The voting on position assignment is a matter coming within the term “appointment” as used in this section. OAG 78-159.

This section is applicable to matters involving position assignments which are in effect appointments within the school system. OAG 78-159.

This section should be a clarion signal to board members that whenever matters are raised which relate to a relative they should consider disqualifying themselves from voting on the matter. OAG 78-159.

Where a member of the board of education sells from his business two locks to a contract bus driver’s hired driver, where the board member did not receive money from claims or contracts of the board no disqualifying act was committed, for the board member did not sell an item of property to the board of education and he did not receive any school funds in payment for this property. OAG 78-274.

If the local board of education votes to approve payment for medical examinations required by school law or regulation and to adopt a policy to regulate such payment, the contracting with the physician/spouse of the chairperson of the local board of education to perform any examinations for which any school money is expended would create a disqualifying condition prohibited by this section. OAG 78-365.

The holding of the two state office positions of superintendent of schools and member of a local school board does not by itself present a statutory or constitutional incompatibility under KRS 61.080 and Const., § 165. OAG 78-413.

It does not constitute a conflict for a person serving an independent school district as a school principal to serve simultaneously as a school board member of the county school district in which the independent district is located. OAG 78-509.

There is no statutory incompatibility between the offices of assistant commissioners of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association and members of a county board of education. OAG 78-583.

Nothing in this section prevents one who has a brother who is a school principal from serving on the school board in the same system provided he does not participate in any vote concerning his brother. OAG 78-620.

If a person is employed as a vocational school coordinator by a county board of education, then he could become a candidate for membership on the board but he could not serve on the board and at the same time continue to serve as an employee of a county school system. OAG 78-645.

A person could hold office on the county board of education and at the same time serve as a state conservation officer. OAG 78-773.

Subsection (1)(f) (now 2(g)) of this section does not prohibit a candidate for board membership from having an interest in a contract or claim with the board for which school funds are expended so long as the contractual or claim relationship is terminated in all respects at the time of the election. OAG 78-830.

The best practice most assuredly would always be for an individual to end any contractual or claim relationship with a board of education prior to becoming a candidate for membership on the board. OAG 78-830.

The spouse of a school board member may not receive compensation from school funds for performing a physical examination required of school bus drivers even if he has been selected to perform said examination by the bus driver and not by the school system. OAG 78-852.

A person holding the position of membership on the Marshall County Board of Education cannot at the same time serve as city treasurer of Calvert City. OAG 79-1.

Since this section does not list “father-in-law,” a board member may vote on a motion to employ or appoint his or her father-in-law in the school system. OAG 79-91.

The intent of this section is to exclude a board member who is related to an individual from casting a negative or affirmative vote regarding a matter of employment concerning the individual and is broad enough to cover any personnel action that particularly applies to the employment status of an individual related to a board member in a degree of kinship spelled out in the law; thus, a board member related to an employee was proper in disqualifying herself from casting a vote on the motion for termination of that employee. OAG 79-249.

Either a board member or his family is free to submit bids for purchase of surplus school property. OAG 79-269.

The key to whether action of a school board member would be in violation of this section is whether the school board member has an interest, directly or indirectly, in a claim or contract for which school moneys are expended, no matter how small. OAG 79-269.

Under this section, a realty firm which employs a board member, or the wife of a board member, may not be considered for use in connection with the sale of surplus school property. OAG 79-269.

Even a small stockholder interest in a bank by a school board member constitutes a disqualifying act when a local board of education borrows from that bank. OAG 79-555.

If the only transaction between a bank and the school board is the deposit demand of funds for the drawing of checks or the deposit of school moneys in time deposits on which interest is paid by the bank to the school, there is no violation of this section when an officer, director or stockholder of the subject bank is also a member of the school board. OAG 79-555.

While local school board members considering tax measures have a twofold interest which may not be always compatible, this kind of action fails to create a legal conflict of interest and does not amount to a situation “for which school funds are expended” and funds received by the local board members as is proscribed in this section. OAG 79-555.

The office of city school board member and that of county comptroller are incompatible. OAG 80-92.

No conflict of interest will arise where a county board of education member, who is also a dairy farmer, begins selling milk to a subsidiary of the company that has the contract to sell the entire school system milk, and he need not disqualify himself from voting as a board member on the milk contract, although he might do so to avoid even an appearance of impropriety. OAG 80-184.

A person is eligible to run for a county board of education from the district from which they normally reside even though he or she has been temporarily forced to live outside the district by virtue of a casualty loss and repairs to their normal domicile. OAG 80-274.

The provisions of subsection (1)(d) (now 2(f)) of this section would prohibit an assistant Commonwealth Attorney from being a member of the board of education while continuing to serve as assistant Commonwealth Attorney since the office of assistant Commonwealth’s Attorney is a state office. OAG 80-476.

This section requires that a teacher who desires to be elected to a position on the board of education by which he or she is employed must not be performing teaching services on or after the date of the election. OAG 80-557.
A school board member is not placed in a disqualifying position under this section simply because the spouse of the board member is a salaried employee with the law firm which is to be retained to represent the school system and/or school board, although the spouse-employee is not in a position to control or have input into who the law firm does business with, is not an owner or an officer/holder in the law firm and actually has no financial interest in the law firm, in that receiving a salary does not create a financial interest. OAG 81-67.

If a board member is in a position of not being able to vote on a matter involving a relative, the proper procedure is to disqualify himself from voting. OAG 82-22, modifying OAG 72-777.

A resignation from office by a school board member prior to the initiation of an ouster proceeding will not purge the board member's disqualifying acts of misconduct so as to preclude the Attorney General from instituting a quo warranto or ouster action in the future should the board member, after resignation, be appointed to or gain a school board member position by election since reappointment or reelection to a school board member position does not stand as condonation of prior disqualifying acts of misconduct and such acts continue to provide legal cause to remove a school board member from membership. OAG 82-32, modifying OAG 72-777.

The question of when an individual became a board member is not being answered by long time service. OAG 81-33.

A teacher employed by a school board of a district where the teacher does not reside is not prohibited from simultaneously serving as a member of a school board of a different district where the teacher does reside. OAG 90-127.

A member of the county board of education may sell insurance to school employees on an individual basis. OAG 90-138.

Any board member in office on July 13, 1990, who is re-elected after that date, will not be eligible to take office and to serve on the board of education if a relative (as defined in this section) who was hired after the incumbent's earlier election, remains employed by the district. OAG 90-141.

Any new candidate who was elected after July 13, 1990, who has relatives (as defined in this section) employed by the school district, will not be eligible to take office and to serve on the board of education. OAG 90-141.

Eligibility criteria for membership on a board of education are mandatory; therefore, unless the elected candidate meets all of the statutory criteria, that individual is ineligible to serve on the board of education. OAG 90-141.

Only the person entitled to the office or the Attorney General (on behalf of the Commonwealth) may institute and prosecute an action to prevent usurpation of office; neither the superintendent of schools nor a private citizen may do so, nor may the county board of education declare the office of one of its members vacant because of forfeiture on account of violation of this section. OAG 90-141.

A conflict of interest exists where the Board of Education is expending school funds to a bank for the handling of bonds for the school district and a member of the Board of Education is married to a member of the Board of Directors of the bank. OAG 91-16.

The superintendent of schools has no liability should an ineligible board member take office and attempt to serve; however, this office has asked superintendents and boards of education to advise the Attorney General office of such circumstances so that the situation may be evaluated and appropriate action may be taken. OAG 91-16.

There is no conflict of interest statute prohibiting school board members from voting on general salary increases that affect teachers who are related to those board members and who work in the school system. OAG 91-60.

An individual who withdrew from high school with 14 credits and entered the Armed Forces on November 4, 1952, honorably completed his military obligations, entered an accredited college in September 1956 and earned 46½ credit hours, has been a board member for 16 years and is presently chairman, is not eligible to run for re-election unless that individual completes the twelfth grade or obtains his GED, and he also must file an affidavit as required under subdivision (2)(d) of this section certifying completion of the twelfth grade or its equivalent. OAG 91-76.

A potential conflict of interest exists between the requirements of subsection (3) of this section for members of boards of education concerning influence in hiring school employees, and the duties authorized by KRS 160.345(2)(g) and (i) for members of site-based councils; subsection (3) of this section expressly prohibits a member of a board of education from having any influence on hiring of school personnel, while KRS 160.345(2)(g) and (i) give members of the council authority to recommend candidates to the principal to be hired. OAG 91-148.

Even if a board member, who was also a council member, were to disqualify himself, while serving on the council, from engaging in any consideration of applicants or from voting on recommended applicants for school district positions, thereby eliminating potential conflicts over hiring issues, other potential conflicts could develop since the board sets policies for the councils of the district on areas in which the interests of the board may differ from the interests of the councils. OAG 91-148.

If a school board member is elected to a site-based decision making council, the provisions of this section and KRS 160.345 create potential statutory conflicts of interest should that board member attempt to carry out the duties of both positions with regard to hiring decisions. OAG 91-148.

The express language of this section does not preclude a board member from seeking election as a parent representative on the school council. OAG 91-148.

The terms “brother” and “sister” include half-brother and half-sister, but not step-daughter or step-son. OAG 91-206.

Attorney General opined that no statutory conflict of interest exists under KRS 45A.340 and this section between the positions of member of the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education and executive director of the Lincoln Foundation; but it was not possible for the Attorney General to provide a general ruling as to whether a potential conflict of interest may exist at common law. OAG 91-226.

Where county board of education incumbent candidate’s aunt was initially employed in August 1975, after incumbent began serving on the school board, and incumbent’s aunt was reemployed in August 1981, again, during incumbent’s tenure as a board member, under the provisions of subdivision (2)(i) of this section incumbent was ineligible to run for reelection to the county school board. OAG 92-81.

A school board member who took the oath of office in January, 1991 and who has an aunt who is a blood relative working as a classified employee for the school system is ineligible to serve as a board member due to his aunt’s employment with the school district and such member should immediately tender his resignation to the school board so that a board member may be appointed to fill his vacancy. OAG 92-160.

A school board member who was re-elected in November 1992 whose spouse is currently working for the school system and was hired after he became a board member is ineligible to serve as a board member due to his wife’s employment with the school district and such member should immediately tender his resignation to the school board so that a board member may be appointed to fill his vacancy. OAG 92-160.

A prospective school board member who was elected in November 1992 and has a father and a sister who are currently working as classified employees for the school system is ineligible to serve on the board due to the school district’s employment of his father and sister and while he has not yet taken the oath of office he should decline to take the oath of office and immediately inform the school board of his intent not to take it. OAG 92-160.

Where school board members who are ineligible to serve on the board due to the employment of a relative by the school system and who refuse to resign, the Office of the Attorney General may instigate ouster proceedings against them. OAG 92-160.

An ineligible school board member who has taken the oath of office is a legal member of the board until he resigns or is ousted by an order of court; such member is considered a de facto officer and discharges his duties under color of title; thus any action taken by the board is legal notwithstanding the vote of the ineligible member. OAG 92-160.

This section expressly prohibits a member of a board of education from remaining on the board after becoming a candidate for any office which is incompatible with the office of school board member, and applies to both county school district boards and to independent schools district boards; therefore, a board member having become a candidate for a city commission while simultaneously serving as a member of that city’s independent schools district board of education, was subject to removal. OAG 96-16.

1. Constitutionality.

Subdivision (1)(d) (now (2)(d)) and subsection (2) (now (3)) of this section, a “resign-to-run” statute, do not deny school board members their rights of free speech or equal protection of the laws. Yonts v. Commonwealth ex rel. Armstrong, 700 S.W.2d 407 (Ky. 1985).

This section is not unconstitutional because of its failure to state the penalty for its violation; the title specifically tells that this statute lists the eligibility requirements necessary to hold office and anyone who cannot meet these requirements cannot hold the office of board member. Cross v. Commonwealth ex rel. Cowan, 795 S.W.2d 65 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

Section (2)(i) of this section does not violate the First Amendment, nor the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Chapman v. Gorman, 839 S.W.2d 232 (Ky. 1992).

Because KRS 160.170 and subsection (3) of this section clearly prohibit school board members from engaging in nepotism or favoritism, conduct in which the Commonwealth has a significant interest, and their wording, as their meaning, is simple and unequivocal and not susceptible to arbitrary or discriminatory enforcement, the statutes are not unconstitutionally vague or overbroad. Craig v. Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ., 902 S.W.2d 264 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

“Aunt, uncle” language of KRS 160.180(1) is unconstitutional, and the proper remedy is to sever the aforementioned unconstitutional language from the statute, pursuant to the severability statute, KRS 446.090, thus preserving the constitutionality of KRS 160.180(1) and (2)(i); there was no rational basis for the difference in the treatment or classification of aunt/uncle and niece/nephew, in KRS 160.180(1). Commonwealth ex rel. Chandler v. Crutchfield, — S.W.3d —, 2003 Ky. App. LEXIS 129 (Ky. Ct. App. May 30, 2003).

2. Construction.

These provisions are mandatory. Whittaker v. Common-

3. Application.

This section applied to all candidates, even though they had previously held office before the enactment of this section. Commonwealth v. Mullins, 286 Ky. 242, 150 S.W.2d 688 (1941). (Decision prior to 1998 amendment).

This section requires a candidate to be a fully qualified legal voter. Moore v. Tiller, 409 S.W.2d 813 (Ky. 1966).

Person who moved into a residence outside of division of school district and lived therein for three years was not a resident of the division of the school district although he had always theretofore lived in division, was registered there and expressed an intention to retain his residence therein. Moore v. Tiller, 409 S.W.2d 813 (Ky. 1966).

A person may have many residences but in the absence of showing an intention of abandoning his Kentucky citizenship, his state of origin, he will be deemed a Kentucky citizen for the purpose of qualifying for office in that state; therefore, where a man was born and raised here, and his every act manifested his intent to remain a citizen of this state, not merely to return here, his temporary and involuntary absences from Kentucky did not serve to terminate his standing as a citizen. Dickey v. Bagby, 574 S.W.2d 922 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

5. Educational Requirements.

The legislature was authorized to require completion of the eighth grade. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Norfleet, 272 Ky. 800, 115 S.W.2d 353 (1938) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

Board of education has no authority to pass bylaw requiring board’s members-elect, when attempting to qualify, to first present to the board legal evidence that they possess educational requirements of this section. Oakes v. Remines, 273 Ky. 750, 117 S.W.2d 948 (1938).

The taking of oath of office before the date the term of office of predecessor expired was merely anticipating and getting ready to assume duties at the appointed time and did not make person elected as member of the county board of education a usurper and no cause of action would lie including quo warranto or injunction on grounds he did not have an eighth grade education so was not qualified and the later assumption of the office and the amendment of the petition thereafter could not give life to the premature petition. Broyles v. Commonwealth, 309 Ky. 837, 219 S.W.2d 52 (1949) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

The requirement of subsection (1)(c) (now (2)(c)) of this section that no person shall be eligible to membership on a board of education unless he has completed at least the eighth grade in the common school, means that such requirement must be met before such member is elected to office. Commonwealth ex rel. Buckman v. Preece, 257 S.W.2d 51 (Ky. 1953) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

Attorney General had the right to withdraw from proceeding at any time prior to judgment and trial court could not render judgment on merits when he had withdrawn from proceeding to oust board of education members on grounds they lacked educational requirements prior to entry of judgment. Choate v. Commonwealth ex rel. Ferguson, 347 S.W.2d 81 (Ky. 1961).

6. — Teacher’s Affidavit.

A verified statement from the teacher under whom the eighth grade was completed is sufficient evidence of educational qualifications. Commonwealth v. Griffen, 288 Ky. 830, 105 S.W.2d 1063 (1937) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

An affidavit that applicant completed the sixth grade, which was then equivalent to the eighth grade, is insufficient. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Norfleet, 272 Ky. 800, 115 S.W.2d 353 (1938) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

An affidavit of a teacher which does not identify the grade completed is insufficient. Whittaker v. Commonwealth ex rel. Att’y Gen., 272 Ky. 794, 115 S.W.2d 355 (1938) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

Affidavit of teacher other than one under whom eighth grade was completed has no probative value. Chadwell v. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith, 288 Ky. 644, 157 S.W.2d 290 (1941) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

In the absence of contradictory proof, teacher’s affidavit is conclusive of qualification. The Commonwealth may introduce evidence contradicting affidavit but it is not required to plead against it. Commonwealth ex rel. Funk v. Sizemore, 243 S.W.2d 671 (Ky. 1951) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

Neither the failure to produce a certificate nor the fact that appellee enrolled in the seventh grade after having completed the eighth grade is sufficient to overcome the probative value of the statements contained in his teacher’s affidavit that appellee successfully completed the eighth grade. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge v. King, 343 S.W.2d 139 (Ky. 1961) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

A teacher’s affidavit is the weakest kind of proof of a person’s completion of the eighth grade and its probative effect may be overcome by contradictory evidence. Spurlock v. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge, 350 S.W.2d 472 (Ky. 1961) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

7. — Schoolmate Affidavit.

Educational qualification cannot be established by member or his schoolmates. Commonwealth ex rel. Funk v. Clark, 311 Ky. 710, 225 S.W.2d 118 (1949).

This section does not permit verbal testimony of the party or even his schoolmates to be considered. Commonwealth ex rel. Buckman v. Preece, 257 S.W.2d 51 (Ky. 1953).

8. — Mandatory.

Provisions of subsection (1)(c) (now (2)(c)) of this section are mandatory and applicant must prove qualification of eighth grade education by one of the methods provided. Commonwealth ex rel. Dummit v. Mullins, 307 Ky. 383, 211 S.W.2d 133 (1948) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

Proof of educational qualifications must substantially comply with this section. Affidavit of substitute teacher who taught for two or three weeks was insufficient, and testimony of fellow students and others could not be considered. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Moye, 273 Ky. 384, 116 S.W.2d 952 (1938).

The legislature intended to permit proof of eligibility in any of the specified methods, so a member may qualify by examination, even if he did not complete the eighth grade, or by affidavit without reference to school records, and a photostatic copy of one member’s signature and samples of his handwriting could not be considered as lack of education. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Moye, 273 Ky. 384, 116 S.W.2d 952 (1938).

Member of county board of education did not possess statutory educational requirements where he admitted his lack in demurrer to petition for ouster. Commonwealth v. Wilson, 273 Ky. 745, 117 S.W.2d 935 (1938).

10. — Summary Judgment.

In action for ouster of county board of education member’s failure to respond properly to request for admission under CR 36.01, that he had never completed the eighth grade constituted an admission and summary judgment should have been sustained and board of education member ousted. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews v. Rice, 415 S.W.2d 618 (Ky. 1966) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

11. Holding Civil or Political Office.
This provision does not deal with offices, deputyships or agencies under the state. Polley v. Fortenberry, 268 Ky. 369, 105 S.W.2d 143 (1937).

Although concurrent membership on county board of education and county election board is not a violation of this section unless it is in law a local office as distinguished from state office it is inherently inconsistent or repugnant as their occupancy by one person is detrimental to public interest. Adams v. Commonwealth ex rel. Buckman, 268 S.W.2d 930 (Ky. Ct. App. 1954).

Where a member of a county board of education was an unsuccessful candidate for his party's nomination to the office of county tax commissioner for his county and an action was brought to enjoin him from membership on the board on the grounds that under the terms of this section his office was vacated when he became a candidate, the trial court erred in sustaining a motion to dismiss the complaint, even though the office of tax commissioner is a state office and is not specifically enumerated in subsection (1)(d) (now (2)(d)) of this section. Commonwealth ex rel. Buckman v. Miller, 272 S.W.2d 468 (Ky. 1954).

The county hospital board serves as an advisory body to the fiscal court agency or deputyship of the county as those terms are used in this section. Commonwealth ex rel. Hancock v. Bowling, 562 S.W.2d 310 (Ky. 1978).

12. Interest in Sale to Board.
In general, the disqualifying interest must be pecuniary or proprietary by which the member stands to gain or lose something. However, the interest is not sufficient to disqualify the officer if the opportunity for self-benefit is a mere possibility or is remote or collateral. Commonwealth ex rel. Vincent v. Withers, 266 Ky. 29, 98 S.W.2d 24 (1936).

The term "service" includes teaching, and one teaching under contract with the board for which he is a candidate is a disqualified candidate. Whittaker v. Commonwealth ex rel. Atty Gen., 272 Ky. 794, 115 S.W.2d 355 (1938).

One under contract to teach school in county was disqualified to hold membership on board of education of that county, because of interest in the sale of services for which school funds were expended. Commonwealth ex rel. Begley, 273 Ky. 636, 117 S.W.2d 599 (1938).

A board member is not guilty of violating this section where he has divested himself of all interest in the note in question prior to his election. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Hardin, 286 Ky. 404, 150 S.W.2d 477 (1941).

Where teacher applied for teaching position and county board of education notified him of employment, he was not eligible to be elected to membership on the board of education because at the time of his election he was interested in sale of services to the board. Commonwealth ex rel. Funk v. Robinson, 314 Ky. 344, 235 S.W.2d 780 (1951).

The office of member of board of education has been declared vacated where member was interested in sale of material or supplies to school even though member’s motives were proper and the sales were nonprofit. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge v. Collins, 379 S.W.2d 436 (Ky. 1964).

Member of board, who at time of his election had contract with board of education to transport students and continued to perform his contract for a period but ceased before taking office, and member who sold small amounts of supplies to a class in the school after becoming a member, were disqualified from holding office. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews v. Coatney, 396 S.W.2d 72 (Ky. 1965).

No profit need be made on a sale of goods by a board member to a school board in order to violate this section, and it is immaterial whether the funds used to make the purchase were the result of an activity fund raised solely by the students. Commonwealth ex rel. Hancock v. Marshall, 559 S.W.2d 497 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a board member is without knowledge of a sale to the board or is not in the position of having to approve a contract or sale to the board, the prohibition of this section is not contravened. Commonwealth ex rel. Hancock v. Marshall, 559 S.W.2d 497 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

One who is the president, employee and majority stockholder of a company selling merchandise to a school board or within the purview of one "indirectly interested" as prohibited by this section. Commonwealth ex rel. Hancock v. Marshall, 559 S.W.2d 497 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Evidence justified trial court’s refusal to declare member of county board a usurper in office because of interest in contracts for purchase of coal from schools where he prepared the bids for five bidders, four of whom received seven contracts out of 25 bids for and three of whom filled the contracts by purchasing the coal from coal mine in which the board member was a partner, in absence of evidence that he reached his object and accomplished his purpose of profiting by the contracts through the bidders as secret agencies or intermediaries or by sharing with them. Commonwealth ex rel. Vincent v. Withers, 266 Ky. 29, 98 S.W.2d 24 (1936).

The interest is not sufficient to disqualify the member if the opportunity for self-benefit is a mere possibility or is remote or collateral, such as being only a debtor, that it cannot be reasonably calculated to affect his judgment or conduct in the making of the contract or in its performance. Commonwealth ex rel. Vincent v. Withers, 266 Ky. 29, 98 S.W.2d 24 (1936).

Mere fact that contractor with a municipal board, without previous arrangement or agreement, saw fit to buy material or supplies from a member of the board does not render the contract vicious or ordinarily subject the officer to merited criticism or a forfeiture of his office; the possibility of profit from a subsequent independent contract in the absence of inculpatory circumstances ought not to be regarded as having a corrupt influence upon the mind of the officer. Commonwealth ex rel. Vincent v. Withers, 266 Ky. 29, 98 S.W.2d 24 (1936).

Bare implication or inference that under the stimulus of expected contingent profit an officer acted wrongfully, in opposition to positive testimony and several contradicting circumstances, should not prevail or justify the court in applying the statute under which office shall without further action be vacant. Commonwealth ex rel. Vincent v. Withers, 266 Ky. 29, 98 S.W.2d 24 (1936).

The mere fact that a contractor with a school board, without previous arrangement or agreement, bought materials from a board member is not ground for forfeiture of office. Commonwealth ex rel. Vincent v. Withers, 266 Ky. 29, 98 S.W.2d 24 (1936).

If the conditions prohibited in subsection (2) of this section exist at the time of election, the candidate is disqualified and board member, who was teacher at time of election, but who resigned prior to qualification as board member, was disqualified. Whittaker v. Commonwealth ex rel. Atty Gen., 272 Ky. 794, 115 S.W.2d 355 (1938).

The interest referred to herein must be a monetary interest moving directly or indirectly to the member, and not a mere emotional interest. Chadwell v. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith, 288 Ky. 644, 157 S.W.2d 280 (1941).

Board member’s testimony that his store had made sales to board but that it was in his wife’s name “for internal revenue purposes” was a violation of this section as an indirect interest in sales to board. Brooks v. Commonwealth ex rel. Buckman, 286 S.W.2d 913 (Ky. 1956).

When county board of education member’s term of office had expired during pendency of appeal, court would not decide whether he became disqualified by becoming directly or indirectly interested in sale to board of stationery and similar supplies since the circumstances had changed or events had occurred making the determination unnecessary and great public interest was not involved and a decision would not set a concrete issue but would declare an academic question of law. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge v. Woods, 342 S.W.2d 534 (Ky. 1961).

The facts that the amount involved was small and trivial and that full value was given to school by the school board member are immaterial on a charge under this section that he sold items totaling $64.85 through his hardware store to the school system. Stringer v. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews, 428 S.W.2d 203 (Ky. 1968).

The fact that a member of the county board of education was re-elected to a new term after his violation of the acts complained of does not “whitewash” him or furnish a defense. Stringer v. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews, 428 S.W.2d 203 (Ky. 1968).

A school board member who violates this section is ineligible for re-election. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge v. Winstead, 430 S.W.2d 647 (Ky. 1968).

15. Employment of Relatives.

Board members have a discretion in voting on an applicant who is related to one of the board members, notwithstanding that the applicant is duly qualified and nominated. Hall v. Boyd County Bd. of Educ., 265 Ky. 500, 97 S.W.2d 38 (1936). Evidences that lame duck members of school board, by agreement with other members and one newly-elected member, employed close relatives of newly-elected member, shortly before expiration of their terms, was insufficient to justify removal of newly-elected member as usurper. Richardson v. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith, 275 Ky. 486, 129 S.W.2d 156 (1938).

Vote of board member to vest in superintendent authority to hire bus drivers without approval of the board, following which the superintendent employed the board member’s son, was not a vote regarding employment of a relative. Chadwell v. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith, 288 Ky. 644, 157 S.W.2d 280 (1941).

Where school board member voted for the employment of his sister he was disqualified as a member and his reelection and assumption of a new term did not “whitewash” such misconduct. Letcher v. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews, 414 S.W.2d 402 (Ky. 1967).

Where the defendant, as a member of the county board of education, seconded a motion to hire certain school bus drivers, one of whom was his cousin, but did not vote, there was no violation, for the statute forbids voting, not seconding a motion. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews v. Combs, 426 S.W.2d 461 (Ky. 1968).

A board of education can speak only through its records and such records cannot be enlarged or restricted to enable a school board member, by parol testimony, to prove that he did not vote for his wife’s employment. Stringer v. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews, 428 S.W.2d 203 (Ky. 1968).

Where the minutes of the school board showed that it had voted unanimously to employ the sister of one of the board members as manager of the school cafeteria, the chancellor’s finding that the member did not vote in violation of the statute was in error. Commonwealth ex rel. Matthews v. Ford, 444 S.W.2d 908 (Ky. 1969).

Where the minutes of a local board of education showed that one of its members had voted for a sister and niece for employment with the board, but these had been amended to show he had not so voted, and the Commonwealth sought to introduce affidavits of witnesses that he had so voted, in opposition to his motion for summary judgment, it was error to grant summary judgment, since such evidence is admissible to show mistake or fraud in the minutes recording these votes. Commonwealth ex rel. Stephens v. Stephenson, 574 S.W.2d 328 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

This section did not imply repeal law regarding usurpation of office in relation to school officers, and Attorney General may institute an action under such law to prevent usurpation of office of member of county board of education, on grounds of misconduct as well as lack of qualifications. Richardson v. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith, 275 Ky. 486, 122 S.W.2d 156 (1938).

One violating this section may be proceeded against as a usurper by Attorney General or person claiming office. Chadwell v. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith, 288 Ky. 644, 157 S.W.2d 280 (1941).

County board of education could not declare the office of one of its duly elected and qualified members vacant, on the ground he had moved from district; removal could be accomplished only by ouster proceedings under KRS 415.050. Salyers v. Lyons, 304 Ky. 320, 200 S.W.2d 749 (1947).

A county board cannot declare vacant the seat of a member of that board, who has been duly elected and qualified, on the ground that the member does not possess some qualification as for membership required by this section. Board of Educ. v. Cassell, 310 Ky. 274, 220 S.W.2d 552 (1949).

Resignation of member of county board of education who was interested in a contract which might disqualify him under this section prior to appointment of his successor was an abandonment of office and not a forfeiture and other members of board could bring a declaratory judgment action for determination of abandonment under KRS 418.045 where only the Commonwealth or a person entitled to the office could bring an action in nature or quo warranto to adjudge forfeiture. Hall v. Allen, 313 Ky. 441, 231 S.W.2d 702 (1950).

County board of education members cannot be ousted or enjoined from the performance of their duties except as the result of an action brought by the person who claims the office or in an action brought by the Attorney General of the Commonwealth. Griffey v. Board of Educ., 385 S.W.2d 319 (Ky. 1964).

A member of a county board of education does not vacate his office without any further action when he is guilty of conduct which violates this section but he must be removed by ouster proceedings and county residents and taxpayers cannot maintain class action for declaratory judgment to enjoin performance of certain official acts. Griffey v. Board of Educ., 385 S.W.2d 319 (Ky. 1964).

The State Board of Elementary and Secondary Education (now Board of Education), under the Kentucky Education Reform Act, has the authority to remove members from a county board of education for misconduct in office; there is no language in either KRS 156.132 or this section which suggests, let alone mandates, that the Attorney General has the exclusive power to remove district board members for violations of KRS 160.180. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Ball, 847 S.W.2d 743 (Ky. 1993).

Sufficient evidence was presented to support a judgment of removal of school board members for misconduct. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Ball, 847 S.W.2d 743 (Ky. 1993).

17. De Facto Officer.

A school board member against whom ouster proceedings are commenced is a de facto officer until he is ousted and should be allowed to vote pending a trial and judgment on the merits. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge v. Winstead, 430 S.W.2d 647 (Ky. 1968).

18. Estoppel Against.

Courts should be slow to invoke estoppel against the state in its efforts to enforce a statute the purpose of which is to prevent “conflict of interest” situations and prevent self-

The burden is upon the board member to establish his eligibility for the office. Commonwealth ex rel. Ferguson v. Coffee, 329 S.W.2d 203 (Ky. 1958). See Saylor v. Rockcastle County Bd. of Educ., 286 Ky. 63, 149 S.W.2d 770 (1941).

The burden of establishing eligibility is on the candidate. Commonwealth v. Mullins, 286 Ky. 242, 150 S.W.2d 668 (1941).

Lack of qualification may be proved by any evidence that would be competent under ordinary rules of evidence to establish the fact in issue. Lear v. Commonwealth ex rel. Ferguson, 317 S.W.2d 492 (1955).

20. Appeal.

Great regard must be had on appeal for the finding of fact by the trial court that board member had not committed the prohibited act which would declare office vacant. Commonwealth ex rel. Vincent v. Withers, 266 Ky. 29, 98 S.W.2d 24 (1936).

21. Members of the Same Family.

A member of a county board of education was properly ousted for affirmatively voting to hire twenty-two individuals, one of whom was his first cousin. Cross v. Commonwealth ex rel. Cowan, 795 S.W.2d 65 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

Although school board member urges the court to carve another exception from the statute which would allow him to remain eligible for office, this cannot be done where the language of the anti-nepotism statute is clear and unambiguous; it is of no importance when his daughter-in-law became a blood relative. Commonwealth v. Mullins, 286 Ky. 242, 150 S.W.2d 668 (1941).

20. Vacancies, how filled.

(1) Any vacancy in any board of education shall be filled by the chief state school officer within ninety (90) days after the vacancy occurs. The member so chosen shall meet the eligibility requirements as established by KRS 160.180 and shall hold office until his successor is elected and has qualified. The local board of education may make nominations and any person may nominate himself or another for the office.

(2) Any vacancy having an unexpired term of one (1) year or more at the next regular November election after the vacancy occurs shall be filled for the unexpired term by an election to be held at the next regular November election after the vacancy occurs. The elected member shall succeed the member chosen by the chief state school officer to fill the vacancy.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where five months after taking office school board members had not yet taken the statutory oath, the state board of education was required to fill the resulting vacancies pursuant to this section. OAG 61-485. (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

Vacancies on school boards are not filled by election for the unexpired terms as is the case with respect to all other vacancies in elective offices. OAG 72-796.

Where a member of the board of education resigned in July 1975, and the board appointed another person to fill the vacancy which expired in January, 1977, since the unexpired term exceeds one year as of the November election, the newly appointed board member will only serve until his successor was elected in the November 1975 election to finish the unexpired term. OAG 75-540.

In view of KRS 63.010 and this section, the resignation of a board member is not effective, and there is no vacancy on the board, until the resignation is tendered in writing to and accepted by the board. OAG 75-635.

A vacancy occurring on a county board of education on September 30 could not be filled at the November election for that year but would have to be filled in the general election the following year. OAG 77-649.

Where a school board member, whose term was not to expire until December, 1982, resigned in August, 1980, the board will appoint someone to fill the vacancy until November, 1980, at which time someone will be elected to fill the unexpired term to serve until December, 1982; where two natural four year vacancies on the board will also be filled at the November, 1980 general election, the candidates interested in running for the unexpired term should specify on the petition form that they are running for the unexpired term as this office is required to be listed as such on the ballot and separately from the offices to be filled for regular four year terms; in the event that no candidates file to fill the unexpired term, the county clerk is nevertheless required to place the office on the ballot for the unexpired term for “write-in” purposes since this section requires that the vacancy be filled which is not predicated on the filing of candidates for the vacancy. OAG 80-414.

Where a county board of education member resigned on March 2 after filing as a candidate for sheriff, lost the primary election for sheriff on May 26 and was reappointed to the board by the other board members on June 2, his reappointment was invalid, since the legal vacancy occurred when the member became a candidate for an incompatible office under subsection (2) of KRS 160.180, and because the board of education did not fill the vacancy within 90 days of the vacancy, as required by this section, the State Board of Education must fill the vacancy, because the power to fill the vacancy passes from the local to the State Board after the 90 days have elapsed, but the State Board’s 30-day period to take action does not begin until it has received notice that the 90 days have passed. OAG 81-316.

Subsection (2) of this section applies to all district school board appointments whether under subsection (1) of this section or under KRS 160.210(1)(b), and it requires an election for the remainder of the term if one year or more of the term remains to be served; therefore, a district school board member appointed pursuant to KRS 160.210(1)(b) serves only until the next (November) regular election unless less than one year remains to be served at the time the position becomes vacant. OAG 90-135.

The legislature’s intent is clear that appointees to a local board of education may serve no longer than one year until the next November election; to conclude that a person appointed at the beginning of the four year term under KRS 160.210(1)(b) could serve the entire four year term but a person appointed to complete a term in which less than four years but more than one year remains could only serve until the next November election would lead to an absurd result. OAG 90-135.

A school board member who took the oath of office in January, 1991 and who has an aunt who is a blood relative working as a classified employee for the school system is ineligible to serve as a board member due to his aunt's employment with the school district and such member should immediately tender his resignation to the school board so that a board member may be appointed to fill his vacancy. OAG 92-160.

A school board member who was re-elected in November 1992 whose spouse is currently working for the school system and was hired after he became a board member is ineligible to serve as a board member due to his wife's employment with the school district and such member should immediately tender his resignation to the school board so that a board member may be appointed to fill his vacancy. OAG 92-160.

A prospective school board member who was elected in November 1992 and has a father and a sister who are currently working as classified employees for the school system is ineligible to serve on the board due to the school district's employment of his father and sister and while he has not yet taken the oath of office he should decline to take the oath of office and immediately inform the school board of his intent not to take the oath. OAG 92-160.

A write in candidate may only run for a school board seat in which there is a validly filed and qualified candidate on the ballot. OAG 03-001.

ANALYSIS

1. Construction.
3. — Ninety Day Limitation.
4. Vacancy from date of judgment.
5. Abandonment of office.
6. Redistricting.
7. Temporary Term During Merger.

1. Construction.

This section and KRS 156.070 and 156.210 must be construed together and mean that the state board should have control over the common schools, with the power of removal of such board members who might be found guilty of specified charges. Gearhart v. Kentucky State Bd. of Educ., 355 S.W.2d 667 (Ky. 1962).

State Board of Education had power to fill vacancies caused by judgments declaring two members of school board to be usurpers, where remaining members did not fill vacancies within 90-day period following entry of judgments. McClendon v. Hamilton, 277 Ky. 734, 127 S.W.2d 605 (1939) (Decision prior to 1990 amendment).

3. — Ninety Day Limitation.

This section makes no distinction between vacancies whether from death, resignation or other cause, and in every case the board's power to fill the vacancy is limited to the period of 90 days after the vacancy occurs. Kash v. Day, 239 S.W.2d 959 (Ky. 1951).

4. Vacancy from Date of Judgment.

Where two members of school board were adjudged to be usurpers in quo warranto proceeding in Circuit Court, judgment was effective as of its date, notwithstanding appeal and execution of supersedeas bond, and where judgment was affirmed on appeal, their offices were vacant from the date of the original judgment, rather than the date the mandate was filed or judgment entered according to the mandate. McClendon v. Hamilton, 277 Ky. 734, 127 S.W.2d 605 (1939).

5. Abandonment of Office.

A vacancy may be created by abandonment of the office, and one who has done so is thereafter estopped from denying the vacancy. Horn v. Wells, 253 Ky. 494, 69 S.W.2d 1011 (1934).

6. Redistricting.

A school board member, sitting as a de facto officer, who casts a deciding vote in favor of a redistricting plan which moves his precinct from one district to another may run for the school board seat in his new district. Burkhart v. Blanton, 635 S.W.2d 328 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

7. Temporary Term During Merger.

The merger agreements, which provided that if, for any reason, any appointed member of the merged board could not complete his temporary term, the position was to be filled with an alternate, did not conflict with this section as the agreements merely provided temporary security for all school districts during the critical transition, and authority for the agreements was provided for by the general authority granted by virtue of the merger statute, KRS 160.040. In re Muhlenberg County Bd. of Educ., 714 S.W.2d 168 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

160.200. Time of election of board members.

1. All elections for members of boards of education shall be in even numbered years, for a term of four (4) years, except as provided in KRS 160.210(5). Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the elections shall be held at the regular November election.

2. In each even numbered year, there shall be held an election in every county and independent district to fill the membership of the boards of education for the terms that will expire on the first Monday in January following, and the regularly elected members shall hold office for four (4) years and until their successors are elected and have qualified.

3. Any independent school district embracing a city of the fifth class may, at the discretion of its board of education, hold its election of board members at its public school building on the first Saturday in May. The election shall be held by three (3) officers appointed by the board of education and the expenses of the election shall be paid from the treasury of the school district. In all other respects the provisions of this chapter relating to holding elections for board members shall apply.

4. In counties containing a city of the first class, wherein a merger pursuant to KRS 160.041 shall have been accomplished, the terms of the members shall be as provided in KRS 160.041 shall have been accomplished, the terms of the members shall be as provided in KRS 160.041(5). Elected members of such boards, excepting those boards of education representing ten percent (10%) or less of the student population of the county, serving at the effective date of such a merger shall continue to serve until their term expires, but no appointments shall be made to fill vacancies. The terms of office of members of boards of education representing ten percent (10%) or less of the student population of the county shall expire on the effective date of the merger.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under subsection (2) of this section, if an apparently successful candidate for school board is restrained or enjoined by a court from taking office pending the outcome of an election contest, the incumbent member of the board will hold over until the controversy is resolved and since the incumbent is continuing his term and not commencing a new term, he need not take the oath of office. OAG 60-1265.

Under subsection (2) of this section an incumbent board member continues to serve until the new member is qualified or until a vacancy is declared to exist. OAG 60-1266.

It is permissible for a successful candidate for the school board to take the statutory oath of office at a school board meeting to be held the second Monday in January. OAG 65-4.

No recall of local school board members is provided for in this chapter. OAG 75-118.

Where, after a merger of school boards during the transitional period due to the procedure for election of members to the new school board provided for in subsection (3) of KRS 160.210, some divisions of the county would not be represented by any board member, the board should, by lot, determine a member to represent these unrepresented divisions until the election for the initial four year term is held for representatives from these sections. OAG 77-35.

1. Time of election.
2. —Designation of election day.
3. —Notice.
4. Local option election.
5. Election contest.

1. Time of Election.

A member of the county board of education is a state officer rather than a local officer and where term would not end at next succeeding annual election vacancy should be filled by election for the remainder of the term at November election along with members for the United States House of Representatives. Ward v. Siler, 272 Ky. 424, 114 S.W.2d 516 (1938).

2. —Designation of Election Day.

When a board designates the first Saturday in May as the regular election day, it remains so until changed. Norton v. Letton, 271 Ky. 353, 111 S.W.2d 1053 (1937).

3. —Notice.

The May elections are regular and general political elections, and no notice thereof is required. Norton v. Letton, 271 Ky. 353, 111 S.W.2d 1053 (1937).

4. Local Option Election.

A local option election cannot be held within 30 days of a school board election held in May. Norton v. Letton, 271 Ky. 353, 111 S.W.2d 1053 (1937).

5. Election Contest.

Appointment of county school superintendent prior to time when vacancy would occur, by board of which three members whose terms had expired purported to act for three duly elected and qualified members pending determination of election contest which was decided prior to occurrence of vacancy, was void. Maynard v. Gilbert, 283 Ky. 227, 140 S.W.2d 1064 (1940).

160.210. Election of board members — Appointments for openings with no candidate filings — Change in boundary lines of divisions — Boards in counties containing city of first class.

(1) (a) In independent school districts, the members of the school board shall be elected from the district at large. In county school districts, members shall be elected from divisions.

(b) If no candidate files a petition of nomination for a county board of education opening pursuant to KRS 118.315, the chief state school officer shall fill the new term of office for all openings that have no candidate filings under KRS 118.315 by appointing a member to the local board who meets the residency requirement and the qualifications for office provided in KRS 160.180. The local board of education may make nominations and any person may nominate himself or another for the office.

(c) Unless a number of candidates equal to or greater than the number of positions to be filled file petitions for nomination for an independent board of education opening pursuant to KRS 118.315, the chief state school officer shall fill the new term of office for all openings that have no candidate filings under KRS 118.315 by appointing a member to the local board who meets the residency requirement and the qualifications for office provided in KRS 160.180. The local board of education may make nominations and any person may nominate himself or another for the office.

(2) The board of education of each county school district shall, not later than July 1, 1940, divide its district into five (5) divisions containing integral voting precincts and as equal in population insofar as is practicable. In first dividing the county district into divisions the board shall, if more than one (1) of its members reside in one (1) division, determine by lot which member from that division shall represent that division and, which members shall represent the divisions in which no member resides. The members so determined to represent divisions in which no member resides shall be considered the members from those divisions until their terms expire, and thereafter the members from those divisions shall be nominated and elected as provided in KRS 160.200 and 160.220 to 160.250.

(3) Any changes made in division boundary lines shall be to make divisions as equal in population and containing integral voting precincts insofar as is practicable. No change may be made in division boundary lines less than five (5) years after the last change in any division lines, except in case of merger of districts, a change in territory due to annexation, or to allow compliance with KRS 117.055(2).
(4) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, if one hundred (100) residents of a county school district division petition the Kentucky Board of Education stating that the school district divisions are not divided as nearly equal in population as can reasonably be expected, the chief state school officer shall cause an investigation to determine the validity of the petition, the investigation to be completed within thirty (30) days after receipt of the petition.

(b) If the investigation reveals the school district to be unequally divided according to population, the Kentucky Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall order the local board of education to make changes in school district divisions as are necessary to equalize population within the five (5) school divisions.

(c) If any board fails to comply with the order of the Kentucky Board of Education within thirty (30) days or prior to August 1 in any year in which any members of the board are to be elected, members shall be elected from the district at large until the order of the Kentucky Board of Education has been complied with.

(d) No change shall be made in the boundary of any division under the provisions of this subsection after August 1 in the year in which a member of the school board is to be elected from any division.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, in counties containing a city of the first class wherein a merger pursuant to KRS 160.041 shall have been accomplished, there shall be seven (7) divisions as equal in population as is practicable, with members elected from divisions. To be eligible to be elected from a division, a candidate must reside in that division. The divisions, based upon 1970 United States Census Bureau Reports on total population by census tracts for Jefferson County, Kentucky shall be as follows: Division One shall include census tracts 1-28; Division Two shall include census tracts 29-35, 47-53, 57-74, 80-84, 93, 129, 130; Division Three shall include census tracts 75-79, 85-88, 98-106, 107.01, 108; Division Four shall include census tracts 121.01, 123-128; Division Five shall include census tracts 36-46, 56, 90, 120, 121.02, 122; Division Six shall include census tracts 54, 55, 91, 92, 94, 95, 110.02, 113, 114, 117.01, 117.02, 118, 119; Division Seven shall include census tracts 89, 96, 97, 107.02, 109, 110.01, 111, 112, 115, 116, 117.03, 131, 132. The terms of the members to be elected, KRS 160.044 notwithstanding, shall be for four (4) years and the election for the initial four (4) year terms shall be as follows: The election of the members from Divisions Two, Four and Seven shall be held at the next regular November election following the effective date of the merger pursuant to KRS 160.041, and the election of the members from Divisions One, Three, Five and Six shall be held at the regular November election two (2) years thereafter.

(6) In counties containing cities of the first class, responsibility for the establishment of or the changing of school board division boundaries shall be with the local board of education, subject to the review and approval of the county board of elections. Where division and census tract boundaries do not coincide with existing election precinct boundaries, school board divisions shall be redrawn to comply with precinct boundaries. In no instance shall precinct boundaries be redrawn nor shall a precinct be divided to accommodate the drawing of school board division lines. Precinct boundaries nearest existing school board division boundaries shall become the new division boundary. All changes under this statute shall be completed on or before January 1, 1979, and on or before January 1 in any succeeding year in which a member of the school board is to be elected from any division. A record of all changes in division lines shall be kept in the offices of the county board of education and the county board of elections. The board of education shall publish all changes pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. A copy of the newspaper in which the notice is published shall be filed with the chief state school officer within ten (10) days following its publication.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (11/18/94). The reference to KRS 118.318 in subsection (1)(b) of this statute is erroneous; that section number has never been used. It appears that KRS 118.356 may have been intended.

Opinions of Attorney General. The statute simply requires that the school division boundaries be changed to coincide with the precinct lines when such is possible under the terms of this section. OAG 62-242.

The attempt of a board of education to redistrict the school boundary lines on January 6 of the year in which school board members were to be elected was invalid and of no effect. OAG 64-166.

If creating an unrepresented division is unavoidable in order to substantially comply with the statutory requirement regarding population, such change would be legal and the provisions of subsection (2) should be utilized. OAG 65-775.

There is nothing illegal where due to consolidation the election precinct boundaries are bisected by the school division boundary lines and the magisterial boundary lines, because they are controlled by separate statutes. OAG 68-141.

If a redistricting of a school district made pursuant to subsection (4) of this section results in a division in which two members of the board reside and a division in which no member of the board resides, the provisions of subsection (2) of this section should be utilized and the board should determine by lot which of the two members residing in the same division shall represent the division in which no member resides. OAG 68-393.

The boundary lines of the divisions of the county school districts are finally determined by the local board of education.
so as to equalize population within the five school divisions. OAG 69-403.

The divisions of a school district for the purpose of electing members to the board of education should be made on the basis of population and the number of registered voters in the respective divisions has no bearing on the matter. OAG 73-862.

Where an attempt by a school district to comply with this statute leaves intact existing voting precinct boundaries but results in a disparity of 15 to 20 percent in population between the districts, the board of education has considerable latitude in adjusting the voting precincts; however, splitting a precinct is a last resort to be used only when equalization cannot be obtained in any other way. OAG 93-6.

Subsection (3) of this section does not set a specific time frame that a school board must follow when drawing the redistricting lines; however, the school board should vote on a redistricting plan as expeditiously as possible. The restriction in subdivision (4)(d) of this section forbidding redrawing division lines after August 1 in a board election year would not apply in a redistricting resulting from an annexation or merger; the August 1 redistricting deadline would only apply when residents file a petition to redistrict with the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. OAG 93-6.

Subsection (6) of this section applies only to counties containing cities of the first class since this subsection may conflict with the redistricting requirements that apply to other counties. OAG 93-6.

Under subsection (3) of this section, a county board of education was required to redraw the divisions where the boundary lines of the county board of education decreased by 1,000 acres of property and caused unequal division of population in the school district. OAG 93-6.

A write in candidate may only run for a school board seat in which there is a validly filled and qualified candidate on the ballot. OAG 03-001.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Divisions or consolidation of schools.
2. “Reside” defined.
3. Contiguous territory.
4. Elections from districts.

1. Divisions or Consolidation of Schools.

Where there has been a merger of an independent school district with the county district, the county board should redivide its territory to take care of the increased constituency. Stull v. Webster County Bd. of Educ., 339 S.W.2d 777 (Ky. 1962); Gearhart v. Kentucky State Bd. of Educ., 355 S.W.2d 667 (Ky. 1962).

KRS 160.190(2) applies to all district school board appointments whether under KRS 160.190(1) or under subdivision (1)(b) of this section and requires an election for the remainder of the term if one year or more of the term remains to be served; therefore, a district school board member appointed pursuant to subdivision (1)(b) of this section serves only until the next regular (November) regular election unless less than one year remains to be served at the time the position becomes vacant. OAG 90-135.

The legislature’s intent is clear that appointees to a local board of education may serve no longer than one year until the next November election; to conclude that a person appointed at the beginning of the four year term under subdivision (1)(b) of this section could serve the entire four year term but a person appointed to complete a term in which less than four years but more than one year remains could only serve until the next November election would lead to an absurd result. OAG 90-135.

In the event of an annexation or merger, the school board may redraw the division lines through existing county voting precincts where it is impracticable to maintain voting precincts; however, splitting a precinct is a last resort to be used only when equalization cannot be obtained in any other way. OAG 93-6.

Where after merger of two school districts the boards of education of the districts divided the county into five divisions which did not contain strict integral voting precincts, but were divided by school district boundary lines, board of elections had no jurisdiction to require boards of education to redraw district lines so as not to split precinct boundary lines. OAG 74-197.

A person seeking election to a county school district board must live and reside in the division of the school district from which he seeks election. OAG 76-121.

It is the sole duty and obligation of the school board, pursuant to this section, to alter school division boundary lines as provided therein. OAG 76-367; OAG 76-417.

Where, after a merger of school boards during the transitional period due to the procedure for election of members to the new school board provided for in subsection (3) of this section, some divisions of the county would not be represented by any board member, the board should, by lot, determine a member to represent these unrepresented divisions until the election for the initial four year term is held for representatives from these sections. OAG 77-35.

Initial four-year terms to the new seven member board positions of the Board of Education of Jefferson County not an election of a successor to those going off the Board, is what is called for in subsection (3) of this section. OAG 77-35.

A local board of education may designate attendance areas and draw boundary lines under its general authority provided by KRS 160.290 and nothing in this section prevents this being done in an election year. OAG 78-366.

Subdivision (1)(b) of this section necessarily precludes write-in votes when no candidate has filed a nominating petition for that school board position within the statutory deadline, since no election is held in that event. OAG 90-105.

Write-in votes are authorized in a county school board division election only if at least one valid nominating petition has been filed for the school board position in that particular geographic division; otherwise, KRS Chapter 160 does not require an election in that particular division, and write-in votes for the school board position in that particular division are not authorized since subdivision (1)(b) of this section directs the “chief state school officer” to appoint the school board member representing that particular division. OAG 90-105.

KRS 160.190(2) applies to all district school board appointments whether under KRS 160.190(1) or under subdivision (1)(b) of this section and requires an election for the remainder of the term if one year or more of the term remains to be served; therefore, a district school board member appointed pursuant to subdivision (1)(b) of this section serves only until the next regular (November) regular election unless less than one year remains to be served at the time the position becomes vacant. OAG 90-135.

The legislature’s intent is clear that appointees to a local board of education may serve no longer than one year until the next November election; to conclude that a person appointed at the beginning of the four year term under subdivision (1)(b) of this section could serve the entire four year term but a person appointed to complete a term in which less than four years but more than one year remains could only serve until the next November election would lead to an absurd result. OAG 90-135.

In the event of an annexation or merger, the school board may redraw the division lines through existing county voting precincts where it is impracticable to maintain voting precincts; however, splitting a precinct is a last resort to be used only when equalization cannot be obtained in any other way. OAG 93-6.

Subsection (3) of this section does not set a specific time frame that a school board must follow when drawing the redistricting lines; however, the school board should vote on a redistricting plan as expeditiously as possible. The restriction in subdivision (4)(d) of this section forbidding redrawing division lines after August 1 in a board election year would not apply in a redistricting resulting from an annexation or merger; the August 1 redistricting deadline would only apply when residents file a petition to redistrict with the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. OAG 93-6.

Subsection (6) of this section applies only to counties containing cities of the first class since this subsection may conflict with the redistricting requirements that apply to other counties. OAG 93-6.

Under subsection (3) of this section, a county board of education was required to redraw the divisions where the boundary lines of the county board of education decreased by 1,000 acres of property and caused unequal division of population in the school district. OAG 93-6.

A write in candidate may only run for a school board seat in which there is a validly filled and qualified candidate on the ballot. OAG 03-001.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Divisions or consolidation of schools.
2. “Reside” defined.
3. Contiguous territory.
4. Elections from districts.

1. Divisions or Consolidation of Schools.

Where there has been a merger of an independent school district with the county district, the county board should redivide its territory to take care of the increased constituency. Stull v. Webster County Bd. of Educ., 339 S.W.2d 189 (Ky. Ct. App. 1960).

The statutory power under this section is vested in the board of education and not in the Circuit Court and the court did not have the power to require the board to redivide its district within the five-year period after the board had adopted an order changing its division boundaries following a merger of an independent school district with the county district. Stull v. Webster County Bd. of Educ., 339 S.W.2d 189 (Ky. Ct. App. 1960).

Consolidation of schools by county board of education could not be collaterally attacked on basis that the five divisions of the county educational district from which members were elected did not comply with the provisions of this section that nearly equal in population and contain integral voting precincts. Stull v. Webster County Bd. of Educ., 339 S.W.2d 189 (Ky. Ct. App. 1960).

Creation of seven election districts by reference to census tracts to be used only upon the merger of the school district of a first-class city with the county school district for election of board members does not violate Const., § 59 since election districts laid out by the board of education would likely give less representation to various minority groups than the census tract districts. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 522 S.W.2d 854 (Ky. 1975).

A school board member, sitting as a de facto officer, who casts a deciding vote in favor of a redistricting plan which moves his precinct from one district to another may run for the school board seat in his new district. Burkhardt v. Blanton, 635 S.W.2d 328 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

2. “Reside” Defined.

To reside means to “live, dwell, abide, sojourn, stay, remain, lodge” and an individual who had physically resided for three years outside division of school district without other than a “floating” intention to return to his former residential area was not temporarily absent from the district and since he had lost his legal voter status in the district he was not qualified to serve the district as a member of the county board of education and his name should be removed from the ballot. Moore v. Tiller, 409 S.W.2d 813 (Ky. 1966).

3. Contiguous Territory.

It was not competent for county school district, under subsection (2) of this section, to divide county school district into election districts which were not composed of contiguous territory. Marshall v. White, 287 Ky. 290, 152 S.W.2d 945 (1941).

4. Elections from Districts.

In merger situations, this section mandates that elections of school board members shall be from districts, not the county-at-large. In re Muhlenberg County Bd. of Educ., 714 S.W.2d 168 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

Discretion of administrative officers as to changing boundaries of school districts. 65 A.L.R. 1523; 135 A.L.R. 1096.

All elections for members of boards of education shall be by secret vote. The county clerk shall cause to be prepared for presentation to the voters the names of legally eligible candidates who have filed a petition as provided in KRS 118.315. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 426, effective July 13, 1990.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analyis

1. Ballot.
2. Name on ballot.
3. Candidate entitled to office.
4. Contest of election.

1. Ballot.

Elections not conducted by secret ballot are illegal and will be set aside. Bowles v. Knight, 257 Ky. 640, 78 S.W.2d 913 (1935).

2. Name on Ballot.

Where court had decided name of candidate for member of county board of education was not properly on the ballot at the November election, therefore he was not elected a member and there was vacancy in the office, appeal from determination in quo warranto as to whether he was qualified was a moot question and was dismissed. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Bogie, 287 Ky. 103, 152 S.W.2d 286 (1941).

Where, through mistake of printer, ballots for election of school board members in one educational division erroneously carried names of candidates from another division, neither election officers nor voters had right to strike out printed names and substitute written names of proper candidates, and all such ballots were void. Lakes v. Estridge, 294 Ky. 655, 172 S.W.2d 454 (1943).

Where ballots furnished to some of precincts in one educational division, in school board election, were void because they erroneously carried names of candidates from another division, and total number of registered voters in such precincts was more than 20 percent of the total for the educational division, the entire election was void although the votes actually cast in such precincts did not change the result of the election. Lakes v. Estridge, 294 Ky. 655, 172 S.W.2d 454 (1943). See Hillard v. Lakes, 294 Ky. 659, 172 S.W.2d 456 (1943).

3. Candidate Entitled to Office.

The candidate for an office who has not received a plurality of the legal votes cast is not entitled to the office although the candidate who received a plurality of the legal votes is, for any reason, ineligible except where a successful candidate has violated the corrupt practice act in a primary election. Bogie v. Hill, 286 Ky. 732, 151 S.W.2d 765 (1941).

4. Contest of Election.

Failure to sue to enjoin placing of opponent's name on ballot does not prevent candidate from thereafter contesting his opponent's election on that ground. Bogie v. Hill, 286 Ky. 732, 151 S.W.2d 765 (1941). A candidate for office duly nominated in the manner prescribed may maintain an action to have the election vacated. Lakes v. Estridge, 294 Ky. 655, 172 S.W.2d 454 (1943).

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 118-128.

160.230. Presentation of candidate names.

The candidate names shall be presented to the voters in the form prescribed by the general election law, except that no party emblem or distinguishing mark shall be used, save the words “School Candidates.” The order in which the names of the candidates are to appear shall be determined by lot. As many additional spaces shall be left blank as there are members to be elected from the district or division as the case may be. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 427, effective July 13, 1990.)

Opinions of Attorney General. The provisions of this section which prohibit placing party emblems or distinguishing marks on school ballots qualify and supersede the provisions of KRS 118.080 (repealed) that require candidates to designate a party and device by which they are to be designated on the ballot and school candidates are not permitted to make such designations. OAG 64-666.

School elections are nonpartisan in the sense that the candidates are under what is designated as a school ballot without any party emblem or party designation and as a consequence would appear to fall within the exception to the Hatch Act. OAG 68-476.

Since school board candidates nominated by petition under KRS 118.315 may not, under this section, be represented by any political organization, the petitioners of such candidates may not fill vacancies occurring after the deadline for filing in the manner prescribed in KRS 118.325. OAG 75-612.

If at least one valid nominating petition is filed for election to an independent school board, an election must be held, and write-in votes may be made for all five school board positions. OAG 90-105.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

2. Right to have name on ballot.
3. Erroneous listing of candidates.

Provisions of this section in conflict with the Voting Machine Act (repealed) are repealed by the act wherever voting machines are used in elections for members of the board of education. Grauman v. Jefferson County Fiscal Court, 294 Ky. 149, 171 S.W.2d 36 (1943).

2. Right to Have Name on Ballot.
The right of a candidate to have his name printed on the ballot is a valuable right not to be lightly disregarded. Lakes v. Estridge, 294 Ky. 655, 172 S.W.2d 454 (1943).

3. Erroneous Listing of Candidates.
Where, through mistake of printer, ballots for election of school board members in one educational division erroneously carried names of candidates from another division, neither election officers nor voters had right to strike out printed names and substitute written names of proper candidates, and all such ballots were void. Lakes v. Estridge, 294 Ky. 655, 172 S.W.2d 454 (1943).

Where ballots furnished to some of precincts in one educational division, in school board election, were void because they erroneously carried names of candidates from another division, and total number of registered voters in such precincts was more than 20 percent of the total for the educational division, the entire election was void although the votes actually cast in such precincts did not change the result of the election. Lakes v. Estridge, 294 Ky. 655, 172 S.W.2d 454 (1943); Hillard v. Lakes, 294 Ky. 659, 172 S.W.2d 456 (1943).

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 118-128.

(1) The general election laws shall apply to all elections of school board members.
(2) In school districts embracing cities of the first five (5) classes, the expense of the election shall be paid by the city from its general funds. In all other districts the expense shall be paid by the fiscal court out of its general funds.

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-25) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 429, effective July 13, 1990.

160.250. Politics of candidate not to be indicated — Definition of election booth.
(1) No election officer or other person within an election booth shall tell or indicate to a voter the political affiliation of any candidate.
(2) An election booth means an area in which a voter casts his vote which is designed in such a manner that the secrecy of the vote is insured.

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-25) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 429, effective July 13, 1990.

(1) The voting in county districts shall be by divisions. Each voter shall vote for only one (1) candidate. The legally eligible candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast in his division shall be declared elected.
(2) In independent school districts each voter may vote for as many candidates as there are members to be elected, and the number of board members to be elected shall be indicated. The candidates, in number equal to the number of members to be chosen, who have the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 614, effective July 13, 1990.)

Opinions of Attorney General. If at least one valid nominating petition is filed for election to an independent school board, an election must be held, and write-in votes may be made for all five school board positions. OAG 90-105.

160.270. Regular and special meetings.

1. Each board of education shall hold at least one (1) regular meeting each month, at a time and place fixed by the board. Special meetings may be called by the chairman. On request of three (3) members of the board the secretary shall call a special meeting. Each member of the board shall have timely notice of each meeting and the nature, object, and purpose for which it is called. Any board member failing to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings, unless excused by the board for reason satisfactory to it, shall be removed from office pursuant to KRS 415.050 and 415.060. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a concurring vote by a majority of the board, the number of board members in the quorum notwithstanding, shall be necessary to take any particular action unless otherwise specified by statute.

2. The secretary shall be present at the meetings of the board except when his own tenure, salary, or the administration of his office is under consideration and shall record in a book provided for that purpose all its official proceedings, which shall be a public record open to inspection. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 430, effective July 13, 1990.)

Opinions of Attorney General. When a member of a board of education fails to attend three regular meetings and is not excused by the board, a vacancy exists and, since a state office is involved, it is the duty of the Attorney General under KRS 415.050 to institute ouster proceedings. OAG 60-1137.

Unless a member of the board of education resigns upon his being called to active duty in the armed forces his position is suspended and no one can be appointed to fill it in his absence. OAG 61-847.

A member of a board of education does not abandon his office within the meaning of the statute by virtue of his being called for military service. OAG 61-847.

To act effectively in voting on a proposal a majority vote of the quorum present is necessary and an abstention is no longer counted as an acquiescence in order to obtain a majority. OAG 61-945, 62-422.

Neither an interested person nor his representative has the absolute right to take the original records of a district board of education into a private room without the secretary or the secretary's representative being present. OAG 68-291.

The right of inspection cannot override the public interest in safe and permanent maintenance of the records. OAG 68-291.

Where the necessary interest is present, the interested person or his representative is entitled to obtain a certified copy of the contract between the board of education and the secretary upon payment of such reasonable fee therefor as may be prescribed by regulation of the district board. OAG 68-291.

A school board may, in its discretion, meet in executive session and may, during such session, take a formal vote, but the matter voted on and the record of the vote taken must be recorded in the minutes. OAG 69-281.

Where five board members were present at a meeting and two voted yes on a motion and three did not vote, the motion did not pass. OAG 69-395, but see OAG 74-545.

Under the common law and the existing statutory law in this state, a school board has the sole discretion as to whether its meetings shall be open to the press and other members of the public. OAG 73-143.

The word "majority" in subsection (1) of this section means a majority of those present and voting; thus, where five board members were present at a meeting, a motion was carried when two members voted yes, one member voted no and two members abstained. OAG 74-545, but see OAG 69-395.

There was no statutory requirement for the president of the school board to provide school board members with an agenda for matters to be taken up at a regular board meeting and the fact that a tentative agenda was sent to the members omitting any mention that a superintendent was to be appointed does not present any irregularity. OAG 75-488.

In absence of any statutory provision to the contrary, when a regular meeting of the local school board is once duly organized at the time and place appointed, the board possesses the incidental power to adjourn its regular meeting to a future time and such adjournment does not require any agenda to be prepared or for there to exist a special purpose for the adjournment; however, the time to which a meeting is adjourned should be specified and if any board members were not present at the regular meeting, they should be notified of the adjournment date and time; moreover there are no limiting provisos in the statutes as to the number of adjournments a regular meeting can in fact have. OAG 76-450.

There is no statutory requirement that an agenda be prepared for regular meetings of the school board but if an agenda is prepared it is a public record; an agenda is required for a special meeting of the school board and it is also a "public record"; such agendas are "public records" pursuant to KRS 61.572 and open for inspection by any person during the regular office hours of the public agency. OAG 77-221.

The minutes of a school board meeting may be amended at a subsequent meeting to conform them to the facts, but the minutes may not be changed to reflect a change in position on a question before the board or to show something other than what had actually occurred at the previous meeting. OAG 77-494.

A motion for a special meeting is made and that motion passes by at least three members of the board, the subject matter of the motion would reflect what the agenda must cover and no other matter may be discussed at the meeting. OAG 77-496.

Where a lawsuit resulted from the action of a majority of a school board in rescinding the contract of the superintendent of schools, the board had implied power to expend school funds... for attorney fees and court costs incurred in defending the board’s actions. OAG 77-608.

The failure on the part of a board member to attend three successive regular meetings does not by itself create a vacancy in the board. The Attorney General’s office must authorize an ouster proceeding. OAG 78-78.

A local board can hire a superintendent or do anything else in a specially called meeting which can be done at a regular meeting. OAG 78-274.

If the superintendent of schools is also the secretary of the board, he or she shall not meet with the board when the superintendent, salary or the administration of which the office is under consideration, for while the two positions of superintendent and secretary may be separable, the body cannot be; in this situation a temporary secretary should be appointed to take the minutes of the board’s proceedings. OAG 78-274.

In view of the language in KRS 61.825 (repealed), the “timely notice” requirement of this section is “at least 24 hours prior to the time of such meeting as specified in the notice.” OAG 78-274.

The statutory language requiring the secretary of the board of education to call a special meeting and to see that properly detailed timely notice is given is mandatory and the secretary’s refusal to act could be the basis for rescission of the secretary’s contract; however, the failure to perform the functions of the secretary of the board could not constitute legal cause for removal from office as superintendent when the same person holds the two positions, for the two positions are separable. OAG 78-274.

A majority vote of the board is required to fill a vacancy on the board. OAG 78-819.

Since KRS 61.850 specifically provides that the provisions of KRS 61.805 to 61.850 should not be construed as repealing any other laws relating to meetings, but merely supplements them, and since this section is a piece of specific legislation dealing with school boards, in the event of a conflict between that section and KRS 61.825 (repealed), which requires a request by a majority of the members of a governing body, the provision of subsection (1) of this section allowing only three members to call a meeting should prevail. OAG 79-130.

Two members of a five-member board of education have no authority to act for the board as a body, thus where two board members offered to remove a written reprimand by the board from a high school coach’s record in consideration of a resignation by the coach, such an offer was without legal significance. OAG 80-119.

When a closed session of a school board is held as authorized by KRS 61.810, minutes of the closed session should be made, but the board, in its discretion, may require the minutes to be sealed and withheld from public inspection and such minutes will not be part of the regular minutes of the meeting required by subsection (2) of this section. OAG 81-235.

For practical examples of the effect of possible votes with a five-member school board, see OAG 82-374.

The practical effect of the 1982 amendment to this section is that, for a typical five-member school board, three board members must agree in order for an action before the board to pass. OAG 82-374.

Under subsection (1) of this section, board members who abstain will be considered to have acquiesced with the majority of those present and voting. OAG 82-374.

A special meeting of a school board may deal only with matters stated in the call, and each member of the board receives timely notice unless all of the members are present and unanimously agree to consider an additional subject which was not included in the call. OAG 83-71.

When all the members of the board of education are present, and all the members agree to take up an additional subject, the required advance notice of the subjects to be discussed in the meeting may be waived since the advance notice is for the benefit of the board members, not for the benefit of the news media or the public; the waiver must be by unanimous consent. OAG 83-71.

A school board member abstaining from voting for a board action in which he or she has a conflict of interest, in order to prevent the problematic circumstance caused by consideration of the abstention as a vote acquiescing with the majority, should be absent either from the entire meeting or from the discussion and the vote on the issue in which he or she has the conflict. OAG 88-35.

A rule that abstaining voters are considered as acquiescing with the majority applies in instances where a required affirmative number of votes is not mandated by the controlling statute or ordinance. OAG 88-35.

The language of this section which is applicable to local boards of education and states that a concurring vote by a majority of the board, the number of board members in the quorum notwithstanding, shall be necessary to take any particular action unless otherwise specified by statute does not apply to KRS 161.120, which is applicable to the Education Professional Standards Board. OAG 91-107.

Subsection (1) of this section requires that a majority of the statutory board of education be present to constitute a quorum and that the majority must concur in their vote to take action; therefore, a minimum of three out of five members on a five member board, or four out of seven members on a seven member board, must be present in order to have a quorum present to transact business and when the bare minimum number of board members necessary to transact business are present, all must concur in their vote to take action. OAG 92-77.

While the school board violated the Open Meetings Act by its failure to file a written response to the complaint within the statutorily mandated time frame, its decision to not renew the superintendent’s contract was not a violation of the Open Meetings Act as that action was within the agenda of activities set forth in the notice for that special meeting which stated that “The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss renewal/or action of the Superintendent’s contract.” OAG 97-OMD-43.

County board of education and superintendent of county schools violated the Open Meetings Act, specifically KRS 61.823(4)(a), by their failure to notify in writing all board members at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of those meetings even though the board had complied with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section. 97-OMD-90.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. Regular place of meeting.
2. Called meeting.
3. Notice.
4. Unexcused absence.
5. Removal proceedings.
6. Changed meeting date.

1. Regular Place of Meeting.

In the absence of a formal designation of a regular place of meeting, such a regular place will be deemed established by the repeated holding of meetings at a particular place. Brown v. Turman, 264 Ky. 407, 94 S.W.2d 1010 (1936).

Notice of a meeting implies that it will be held at the regular place of meeting. Brown v. Turman, 264 Ky. 407, 94 S.W.2d 1010 (1936).

When notice of a meeting does not designate the place of meeting, and it is not held at the regular place of meeting, all steps taken at such meeting are invalid. Brown v. Turman, 264 Ky. 407, 94 S.W.2d 1010 (1936).

2. Called Meeting.
Where a called meeting was a continuation of a previous regular meeting, it was proper for the superintendent to recommend teachers at the called meeting, even though the continuation was for a different purpose. O’Daniel v. McDaniel, 290 Ky. 77, 160 S.W.2d 331 (1942).

3. Notice.
Notices of special meetings need not be written. They may be oral and may be delivered by the secretary. Board of Educ. v. Stevens, 261 Ky. 475, 88 S.W.2d 3 (1935).

When members failed to attend special meeting for lack of interest, the fact that notice was delivered only 15 minutes before the meeting is immaterial. Board of Educ. v. Stevens, 261 Ky. 475, 88 S.W.2d 3 (1935).

In absence of legal notice to all members of a special meeting, absence of a member renders invalid all steps taken at such meeting. Brown v. Turman, 264 Ky. 407, 94 S.W.2d 1010 (1936).

Member of school board was entitled to notice of meeting, although at time of meeting he was under injunction prohibiting him from acting as member or exercising any of the duties of his office, but where a second meeting was held, of which he was given notice, and at which the action taken at the former meeting was ratified, the defect was cured. McClendon v. Hamilton, 277 Ky. 734, 127 S.W.2d 605 (1939).

Where there has not been legal notice of a special meeting of the school board, the action taken at the special meeting is invalid if one of the members of the board is absent. Board of Educ. v. Nevels, 551 S.W.2d 15 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

When all members of the board are present and have an opportunity to participate in all the actions taken at a special meeting, the validity of the action taken at the special meeting is not affected by the form of the notice. Board of Educ. v. Nevels, 551 S.W.2d 15 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where the records of the special meeting of the school board did not reflect that any objection was made to the notice of the special meeting or that any objection was made to any action taken at the meeting on the grounds that it was not included within the notice, the action taken at such meeting was not invalidated because of the form of the notice of the meeting. Board of Educ. v. Nevels, 551 S.W.2d 15 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

4. Unexcused Absence.

A change in the date of meeting during the absence of a member without notice to him and without his knowledge is a good excuse for absence. Baisden v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 270 Ky. 839, 110 S.W.2d 671 (1937).

This section contemplates that type of inaction revealing an intention to abandon the duties of the office. Commonwealth ex rel. Buckman v. Mason, 284 S.W.2d 825 (Ky. 1955).

5. Removal Proceedings.
On appeal of removal cases, the court can only consider whether the board acted arbitrarily, unlawfully, without authority, without evidence, or abused its discretion. Baisden v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 270 Ky. 839, 110 S.W.2d 671 (1937).

6. Changed Meeting Date.
Where school board changed monthly meeting date in open meeting, where press release had been issued, where newspaper article appeared, and where citizens appeared at the meeting, there was no positive showing that the board had decided any matters regarding closing the school in closed session. Coppage v. Ohio County Bd. of Educ., 860 S.W.2d 779 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

160.280. Per diem and expenses for board members — Eligibility for insurance plans.
(1) Members of boards of education shall receive no salaries, but members of boards of education may receive a per diem of seventy-five dollars ($75) in any calendar year, and their actual expenses for each regular or special meeting attended. Members shall receive this same per diem for training required by KRS 160.180. In no case shall the expenses incurred within the district or per diem of any member exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) in any calendar year.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, members of boards of education in counties containing a city of the first class wherein a merger pursuant to KRS 160.041 shall have been accomplished and members elected from the divisions and in the manner prescribed by KRS 160.210(5) shall receive a per diem of seventy-five dollars ($75), and may be reimbursed for other actual and necessary expenditures incurred in the district in the performance of their duties authorized by the board. Members shall receive this same per diem for training required by KRS 160.180. In no case shall the expenses incurred within the district or per diem of any member exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000) per calendar year.

(3) Members of boards of education may be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenditures incurred outside the district in the performance of their duties authorized by the board.

(4) All claims shall be made out according to law and filed with the secretary of the board and shall be approved and paid as other claims against the board.

(5) Board members shall be eligible to participate in any group medical or dental insurance plan provided to employees of the district pursuant to KRS 161.158. Participating board members shall pay the full cost of any premium required for their participation in the plan.

Opinions of Attorney General. Although county school board members are elected on a nonpartisan basis, since they do receive a per diem and expenses, a merit system employee in a classified position would be disqualified from serving on the county school board. OAG 60-441.

A member of a county board of education is only entitled to receive the per diem allowance authorized by this section for meetings actually attended. OAG 60-1135.

Under this section a member of a board of education may receive a maximum of $200 per diem per annum and also receive a maximum of $200 per annum for expenses actually incurred. OAG 60-1313.

A member of a local board of education may not be reimbursed for expenses incurred outside his district in the performance of his duties except when he is attending a meeting or conference called by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to the provisions of KRS 156.190. OAG 61-1052.

The members of a board of education would be entitled to per diem payments for attending adjourned meetings held on a day or days after the regular monthly meeting date. OAG 64-157.

Expeditures under this section are authorized only to legal members of boards of education and a board member who has become ineligible to serve due to moving his permanent residence from within the district would not be entitled to payment for services rendered after that time. OAG 65-800.

If payments accepted by a board member of an independent district represent payment for services in any amount or to any degree, or if though purporting to be for actual and necessary expenses, are not for duties authorized by the board, acceptance of such would offend KRS 160.180 in rendering the member ineligible. OAG 69-292.

The per diem received by a county school board member under this section is synonymous with "salary" and imports the idea of compensation for personal services. OAG 74-385.

A classified state employee cannot seek membership on a county school board which is an elective office and whose members receive a per diem of $10.00 and expenses pursuant to this section. OAG 74-466.

A board of education may not pay a travel reimbursement claim of a board member unless that expense was authorized by the board before the expense is incurred, nor may the board authorize the incurring of out-of-district expenses by board members and then refuse to pay upon presentation to the board of a valid documented claim for the actual expenses incurred. OAG 76-329.

The local board of education cannot compensate a member for earnings lost due to attendance at an approved training session, as required by KRS 160.180(5), since subsection (1) of this section forbids school board members from receiving a salary. OAG 85-53.

Pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, a district board of education may legally pay the expenses of a member for attending an approved training program, as required by KRS 160.180(5). OAG 85-53.

Subsection (1) of this section allows a district to pay a board member $40 for each meeting actually attended up to a maximum per diem of $1,000 during any calendar year. Also, the board member may receive reimbursement, up to a maximum of $1,000, for actual expenses incurred within the district in any calendar year. OAG 92-136.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Transportation Expense for Board Members.
   The superintendent of schools of the county board of education was the executive agent and officer of the board and as such was in charge of the management and control of the school buses owned and operated by the board, with authority to direct the operator of the school bus to permit a member of the county board of education to ride upon the bus and thus save the board the expense of his transportation under this section and the board member was lawfully riding in the school bus within the liability policy issued for protection of any school child or other person from negligence of the bus driver. Standard Accident Ins. Co. v. Perry County Bd. of Educ., 72 F. Supp. 142 (E.D. Ky. 1947).

160.290. General powers and duties of board.
(1) Each board of education shall have general control and management of the public schools in its district and may establish schools and provide for courses and other services as it deems necessary for the promotion of education and the general health and welfare of pupils, consistent with the administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education. Each board shall have control and management of all school funds and all public school property of its district and may use its funds and property to promote public education. Each board shall exercise generally all powers prescribed by law in the administration of its public school system, appoint the superintendent of schools, and fix the compensation of employees.

(2) Each board shall make and adopt, and may amend or repeal, rules, regulations, and bylaws for its meetings and proceedings for the management of the schools and school property of the district, for the transaction of its business, and for the qualification and duties of employees and the conduct of pupils. The rules, regulations, and bylaws made by a board of education shall be consistent with the general school laws of the state and shall be binding on the board of education and parties dealing with it until amended or repealed by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board. The rules, regulations, and bylaws shall be spread on the minutes of the board and be open to the public.

(3) Local boards of education electing to enter into agreements pursuant to the Interlocal Cooperation Act, KRS 65.210 to 65.300, with other local boards of education to establish consortia to provide services in accordance with the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990, 1990 Ky. Acts Ch. 476, may transfer real or personal property to the consortia without receiving fair market value compensation. The joint or cooperative action may employ employees transferred from employment of a local board of education, and the employees shall retain their eligibility for the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. The chief state school officer, under administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education, may allot funding to an interlocal cooperative board created by two (2) or more local school districts pursuant to KRS 65.210 to 65.300 to provide educational services for the mutual advantage of the students in the representative districts. All statutes and administrative regulations that apply to the use of these funds in local school districts shall also apply to cooperative boards.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under this section, a local board of education has the authority to charge a reasonable incidental fee for prescribed courses of study, such as a science course, and also collect a reasonable incidental fee for general school supplies, but may not withhold a pupil's grades or credits for failure to pay such fees. OAG 60-1017.

A local board of education may not lease school property for the purpose of constructing a swimming pool which would permanently impair the future use of the property for school purposes. OAG 60-1018.

Under this section a local board of education may, by regulation, adopt its own policy regarding the employment of pregnant teachers. OAG 61-13.

Under subsection (2) of this section a local board of education may pass a resolution requiring that all of its high school principals hold a master's degree as a prerequisite to their employment but such resolution could not be made applicable to persons serving as principals at the time the resolution was adopted until their present contract as principals has expired. OAG 61-413.

In the exercise of reasonable discretion, a board of education may decide that it is in the best interests of the school district to participate in the student teacher-training program. OAG 63-269.

A board of education may prohibit any student who operates his automobile on the way to or from school in a reckless or wanton manner from driving said motor vehicle to or from school. OAG 63-486.

A board of education may provide and maintain an automobile for the benefit of the school superintendent while discharging the duties attendant to his office. OAG 64-130.

A county board of education regulation, which required that the marriage of any pupil within a school year would be sufficient cause to drop him from school attendance, would probably not be enforceable due to the fact that it did not allow any discretion upon the board's part and applied blanketly without regard to the circumstances of each case. OAG 64-877.

A commission, agency, or city has the power to condemn property of a school board for the general purpose for which each was created. OAG 65-330.

A school board may sell property directly to a city or its agency or commission without the necessity of a public offering, and it may also negotiate for a settlement out of court at any point during a condemnation proceeding. OAG 65-330.

The superintendent of schools may not enter into a binding Kentucky work experience and training program contract on behalf of the district unless authorized to do so by proper action of the school board. OAG 65-411.

A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations, if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

Without a showing that the circumstances differ, the exemption of certain nonresidents without the exemption of all would be arbitrary and illegal. OAG 67-48.

Neither an interested person nor his representative has the absolute right to take the original records of a district board of education into a private room without the secretary or the secretary's representative being present. OAG 68-291.

Neither the interested person nor his representative has the right to reproduce the records of a district board of education by any photostatic means whatsoever the person chooses. OAG 68-291.

The right of inspection cannot override the public interest in safe and permanent maintenance of the records. OAG 68-291.

Where the necessary interest is present, the interested person or his representative is entitled to obtain a certified copy of the contract between the board of education and the secretary upon payment of such reasonable fee therefor as may be prescribed by regulation of the district board. OAG 68-291.

Purchases of athletic equipment of over $1,000 by a district school board would have to be made by the bidding procedure even though the purchase money was derived from admissions to athletic exhibitions. OAG 69-327.

The test of whether a regulation is arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable or discriminatory is whether the conduct, style of dress, hairstyle, beard or mustache may reasonably be forecast to cause substantial disruption or material interference with school activities, or whether it could reasonably be forecast to have a material adverse effect on the health, discipline or decorum of the institution. OAG 69-423.

Under subsection (1) of this section a board of education, consistent with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education, may expend money for the installation of gifts received pursuant to KRS 160.580. OAG 69-431.

Under subsection (2) of this section, a school board may make regulations designed to protect the general welfare and safety of students and in doing so may take into account specific standards of moral conduct, so that school dances could be eliminated as an approved school function by the board unless such ban were imposed for religious reasons, in which case it would violate Const., § 5 and United States Const., Amend. 1. OAG 70-167.

KRS 161.770 is to be regarded as exclusive and takes precedence over this section. OAG 70-771.

School districts have no authority to promulgate regulations which create speed limits which are more stringent than the speed limits allowed by state statute. OAG 71-207.

A board of education may validly enact legislation whereby a teacher shall lose one-fourth of a day's pay if his tardiness during a given month exceeds 15 minutes. OAG 72-362.

Any regulation promulgated by a local board must bear a reasonable relationship to some actual objective within the purview of the local board. OAG 72-498.

A provision in bylaws adopted by a county board of education specifying that the bylaws could not be repealed or abolished except by majority vote of the people of the county was void. OAG 73-5.

A school board may adopt regulations pertaining to hair and dress as long as said regulations are reasonable and have a connection with student conduct, but an individual classroom teacher, athletic coach, band director or other school personnel has no authority to impose his own taste in such matters. OAG 73-233.

Although title to school property is technically vested in the Commonwealth, control of school property is placed in the hands of the district board of education who has the power to convey an interest in the real estate by an easement and, if giving the easement causes any diminution in property value, the school board would be entitled to be compensated for the easement. OAG 73-276.

The authority to make regulations pertaining to hair styles resides in the board of education and cannot be delegated to individuals. The board of education is the policy-making agent of the Commonwealth and the school superintendent and principals are the administrators of the board's policy and are to see that teachers and other school personnel carry out that policy. OAG 73-284.

The board of education may enact a hair style code for boys, but it may enact only one and it must apply to the entire district alike and to all boys of the district alike and such code should have a reasonable relationship to student conduct and to furthering the educational process. OAG 73-284.

As the board of education of the school district is given general authority over the business affairs of the district and the control of school property, there would be nothing wrong with school districts leasing the school buses for a fair remuneration if, in the board's discretion, said leasing would cause no interference with the operation of the school system and it would receive a fair return for the use of its property. OAG 73-306.

A board of education has the power to make general regulations pertaining to its employees becoming candidates for elective office. OAG 73-322.

A school board has the authority to require a teacher or principal to take a leave of absence if he announces as a candidate for public office whether the teacher or principal desires the leave or not; however, the board is under no legal obligation to grant such a leave and may grant or refuse a request therefor. OAG 73-322.

As the superintendent is the executive agent of the board of education and has the responsibility to carry out the lawful orders of the board, the order of the board eliminating the position of deputy superintendent for the year 1973-74 and to whom the incumbent is a lawful agent but the incumbent becomes a lawful agent but the incumbent must be notified by May 15 that his salary for the next year will be reduced or he will be entitled to at least the same salary he received during the present year. OAG 73-378.

When a board of education officially decides to eliminate a position or not to fill a position for the coming year and to employ the person filling the eliminated position in a position of reduced responsibility and salary, it is necessary that the employee be notified that his position and salary will be reduced for the coming year before May 15 and the superintendent and the board will then have until July 1 to decide on the new position for said employee. OAG 73-378; 76-360.

The section empowers a local school board to pay a termination payment of three months' pay to a superintendent of schools who resigns before his contract has expired. OAG 74-708.

A board of education may reasonably regulate the use of school property by charging $5.00 for a permit allowing students who drive to school to park on school grounds. OAG 74-734.

Whether a board of education may allow a period of sick leave and leave of absence for maternity confinement to run in immediate succession is a matter within the sole discretion of the board. OAG 74-745.

As an agency of the state a school district enjoys sovereign immunity from liability and may not legally expend school funds for premises liability insurance without an enabling statute. OAG 74-746.

In the absence of statute or regulation governing emergency or sick leave for regular part-time employees of the county board of education, the board may enact such policy as it deems proper. OAG 74-770.

This section is not authorization for boards of education to regulate students' use of cars as a means of transportation to and from school nor could the boards be held liable in tort for injury to students on or off school grounds, due to the school boards' sovereign immunity. OAG 74-783.

A board of education may not legally expend public funds to purchase insurance to protect board members from personal liability arising from claims against them for errors and omissions committed by them in the performance of their official duties. OAG 75-51.

A school board regulation providing that a student fails a course after nine absences is invalid since it in effect considers the student to be automatically expelled after the nine absences but does not afford him a hearing and an opportunity to be heard and gives no consideration to the cause of the absences. OAG 75-124.

There is no obligation on a school board's part to negotiate with its employees as the internal management of common schools and teachers is vested in the local board of education and through KRS 161.140, 161.170, 160.290 and 160.370 the board has vested control over the compensation, duties, working conditions and related items concerning teachers. OAG 75-126.

Being married is not a legal reason for forbidding a student to go on a class trip. OAG 75-183.
KRS Chapter 387 pertaining to guardians makes no provision for a guardian “for school purposes only” and therefore the appointment of such a guardian through trial commission- er’s order is a nullity and the school board is not legally bound to recognize such an order. OAG 75-170.

Where a board of education has adopted different time schedules for the city and the rural schools within its district, rural teachers who are required to work a reasonably longer day than city teachers in the same district are not entitled to extra compensation solely on the basis of a longer working day. OAG 75-297.

Within the statutory limits of from six to nine hours (KRS 158.060), each school district may adopt its own schedule of classes and professional duties of its teachers and it is not required that the working day of all teachers in the same district be exactly the same length of time. OAG 75-297.

Although KRS 160.560 requires each board of education to elect a treasurer but is silent as to compensation for the treasurer, under this section, the board may fix a reasonable compensation for the treasurer. OAG 75-461.

A local civil defense unit has no authority to demand the use of school property and, while the school district may not donate the use of its property for nonschool purposes, it may lease the property for fair remuneration. OAG 75-466.

A local school board has the implied authority to employ an attorney to represent it in its corporate capacity in litigation with the State Board of Education and to pay resulting legal fees from the general fund. OAG 75-552.

A board of education may adopt a uniform policy relative to sick leave which would permit granting a teacher credit for accumulated sick leave at the time of previous termination of employment but a board should not grant sick leave credit on only a case by case basis. OAG 75-587.

A board of education of a county may adopt a policy requiring that students transferring to another school without changing residence complete that school year in the school transferred to without further transferring. OAG 75-602.

Boards of education under their general powers may establish reasonable policies for the retention, demotion and promotion of pupils, including requiring that pupils passed by their teachers move on to the next higher grade. OAG 75-603.

In view of sections 180, 184 and 186 of the Constitution public school funds may not be expended to employ persons to control vehicular and pedestrian traffic on public streets or roads in or around school premises. OAG 75-614.

There have been no decisions by the Court of Appeals indicating the authority of boards of education to authorize their members for personal injuries or property damage resulting from the boards’ authorized use of student safety patrols to control vehicular and pedestrian traffic on public streets in or around school premises, but the general principle is that school board members will not be held personally liable for a loss or injury resulting from an act within the scope of their authority and within their jurisdiction in the absence of negligence. OAG 75-614.

A board of education may establish student safety patrols for street traffic instructional purposes inside the limits of school property but may not make or enforce traffic regulation on roads or driveways within or outside the limits of school property. OAG 75-614.

There is no constitutional or legislative requirement that the cost of education to public school pupils must be free and a board of education may require that pupils be charged a reasonable fee for school supplies. OAG 75-619.

An off-duty constable employed as a school security guard is an employee of the school board which may compensate him for his services. OAG 75-631.

Where a school board provides a fixed source of money to be used in purchasing fringe benefits for each of its teachers, it may afford the teachers the option to receive the fringe benefits or an equivalent fixed sum in cash. OAG 75-646.

Although the board of education, under this section, has the power to adopt rules for the operation of schools, the General Assembly did not intend to impose upon local boards the duty to make and enforce rules which reach into each classroom. OAG 75-656.

The broad powers given to boards of education allow enactment by them of a regulation governing whether a school absence not authorized by statute will be considered excused or unexcused, subject only to the restriction that the regulation be reasonable and not arbitrary. OAG 75-694.

A board of education, pursuant to the powers granted in subsection (2) of this section, may adopt a uniform policy of sick leave for teachers which would permit a teacher to transfer all or a specific number of accumulated sick leave days from another school district, whether in state or out. OAG 75-697.

The local board of education, not the child, has the right to determine which school the child shall attend. OAG 76-55.

The board of education, in its discretion, determines the number of administrative and teaching positions it deems necessary and proper for the school system. OAG 76-118.

The requirement of the State Department of Education that a child participate in a health and physical education course does not impose a significant constitutional burden upon the freedom to exercise religious beliefs, and therefore the state’s interest in establishing a sound curriculum format for graduation must prevail over patchwork exceptions to course requirements. OAG 76-225.

A teacher would not be bound by a local board of education policy restricting the number of semester hours of college or university study that can be taken by its certified employees during a school year, for such a policy would pose an unreasonable burden on teachers who by mandatory law must complete additional college or university study within a specified period of time in order to continue their professional work. OAG 76-311.

A board of education may adopt rules and regulations governing out-of-district travel for its members. OAG 76-329.

A board of education cannot lawfully contract away amendatory obligation of approval given it by the statutes and, therefore, any contractual provisions of a superintendent’s contract in derogation of the expressed statutory outline of powers and duties of a superintendent of a public common school system and a local board of education would be void. OAG 76-360.

A local board of education has the power to adopt reasonable policies over and above, but not in conflict with, the State Board of Education regulations concerning the selection of children from those eligible to attend kindergarten classes, therefore a local board of education does not have to permit a six (6) year old child in its kindergarten program. OAG 76-412.

While there is no law prohibiting the operation of motorcycles and minibikes upon the parking lot and grounds of a school, such activity may be regulated by the local board of education and the local board of education could adopt such rules and regulations as it deemed necessary regarding these activities; however, it would be illegal for the local board of education to spend public school moneys to support this activity on school property. OAG 77-11.

A local board of education may enact a personal leave policy for its noncertified employees as it deems proper. OAG 77-115.

The county board of reeducation has the power and authority to grant a permanent easement over school grounds to a property owner for purposes of ingress and egress to his property by pedestrians and vehicles. OAG 77-298.

A local board of education would be without legislative authority to lease to a private corporation six outdoor tennis courts and adjacent parking area to be used for private gain during the winter months. OAG 77-342.
Local school boards may not establish policies or regulations which serve to discriminate against married students. OAG 77-361.

A board of education policy denying automatically a married student the right to participate in extracurricular activities associated with the school would interfere with the married student's civil liberties. OAG 77-361.

Although a board of education has authority to establish a fee for extracurricular activities, the board could not compel the payment of the fee nor could the board withhold the recording of grades of a student who has failed to pay the fee. OAG 77-595.

A local board of education may adopt a blanket policy of retirement of noncertified employees at age 65. OAG 77-736.

It is within the discretionary power of the board of education of a county school system to adopt an enrollment policy which would permit the parents of students residing in the county to enroll their children in schools outside the usual attendance area. OAG 77-736.

A local school board may elect to purchase liability insurance for its employees and pay all or a portion of the premium from board of education funds. OAG 78-21.

A local board of education can appoint a committee, the function of which would be advisory in nature with respect to the search for qualified individuals to fill the position of chief deputy superintendent insomuch as a local board of education may appoint a committee concerning any matter that relates to a proper subject of inquiry by it. OAG 78-41.

The local board of education has authority over the control and management of the school and the duty to adopt rules and regulations governing various aspects of the schools in the school district. OAG 78-204.

A school board may, but is not required to, pay from school funds costs of contracting with local physicians for the performing of physical examinations required by school law or regulation. OAG 78-365.

A local board of education may designate attendance areas and draw boundary lines under its general authority provided by this section and nothing in KRS 160.210 prevents this being done in an election year. OAG 78-386.

A school district has the right to suspend a child from the school bus for misconduct. OAG 78-392.

A local school board has the discretionary power and authority to structure course offerings so as to require attendance in a school district for eight school semesters before graduation. OAG 78-606.

When the board of education opened a new school which was to accommodate all students in certain grades who formerly were enrolled in several schools, it was permissible, under this section, to transfer proportionate amounts of school activities account moneys from the accounts of the old schools and set up a new account with them for the new school since this section gives school boards control over internal account funds as well as general account moneys. OAG 78-644.

The fixing of the salary for an assistant superintendent position is left as a sole responsibility of a local board. OAG 79-88.

Teachers and administrators and other school officials are responsible for the public education and are charged with the responsibility of implementing the rules and regulations of the Commonwealth for the control and management of the common schools and local board rules and regulations for schools in the school district. OAG 79-168.

A local board of education may not permit the use of any school facilities that interferes with school activities. OAG 79-321.

The use of school facilities is subject to the determination of a local board of education and it is paramount that the board adopt rules and regulations regarding the permitting of the use of school property so that such use does not in any way interfere with the conducting of any school program, curricular or co-curricular. OAG 79-321.

It is impermissible for a teacher incorporating classroom participation as part of the overall academic grade to give a student a lower grade in a course than he earned while in class for failure to participate in class on days when he was absent under a legitimate excuse absence. OAG 79-539.

A local board of education may prescribe the manner and duration of the selection of a board chairperson. OAG 80-48.

There is no legal basis that would require a local board of education to determine “cause” existed before a new chairperson could be chosen. OAG 80-48.

A local board of education has the lawful authority and duty to prescribe the manner in which school buildings and facilities may be used by groups during nonschool hours. OAG 80-78.

A local board of education, pursuant to its broad authority under this section, may require additional credit requirements over those minimally established by regulation of the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education (now State Board of Education), pursuant to KRS 156.160(2). OAG 80-118.

While there is no statutory language in the state school laws providing for written reprimands, under a board of education's broad authority granted to it by this section, a written reprimand is permissible. OAG 80-119.

A school district may not advance money to its employees for travel or other necessary expenses prior to the expense actually being incurred since the applicable statutes contemplate reimbursement, not an advancement of money. OAG 80-395.

KRS 438.050, as it is written, proscribes only the smoking of tobacco products; however, the board of education may regulate under the authority of this section and KRS 160.340, the use of tobacco products such as snuff or chewing tobacco in ways other than smoking, by its employees, other adults or students. OAG 81-295.

Subsection (2) of this section does not permit an attempt by a school board to establish residential requirements for school employees, particularly in light of the fact that there are no other teacher qualification statutes requiring residence in the district where employed. OAG 82-59.

A local county board of education is sufficiently representative of the geographic area that it serves to qualify as an agency with which a community action agency could contract, and therefore, as long as the subject matter of the contract related to the purpose of promoting public education, a county board of education could enter into a contract with a community action agency pursuant to KRS 160.160 and this section. OAG 82-387.

Retention and promotion of pupils is entirely a matter of local board of education policy and not a matter for control by parents. Parents do not have a right to demand that a child be retained at a particular grade level for any reason, and especially not for athletic purposes. OAG 82-473.

Although school boards must see that their policies and regulations are reasonable and nonarbitrary, both on their face and as applied, this responsibility does not require the exact identical result in all situations. OAG 82-623.

Pursuant to KRS 158.150, a school board may adopt a policy establishing, as a separate legal cause for suspension or expulsion, those practices prohibited by KRS 218A.350 concerning substances that simulate controlled substances. OAG 82-653.

Even though local boards of education are to promote “the general health and welfare of pupils,” as a matter of prudence teachers probably should not dispense drug store health remedies such as aspirin to school children, whether of elementary or secondary school age. OAG 83-115.

It is within the legal prerogative of the local board to fairly establish the nature of professional activities for which it will be willing to incur expenses. OAG 83-228.
While there is a legal basis for the expenditure of school moneys for professional activities, a school board is not mandated to approve the incurring of these expenses and costs for reimbursement from school funds. OAG 85-228. School boards are permitted to bear the direct and indirect expenses incurred by teachers and administrators who attend, after prior approval by the board, professional activities and functions; however, school boards are not wholly unfettered in exercising their discretion in approving attendance at sundry professional activities since Const., §§ 180 and 184 require that school funds may be used only for school purposes. The test being whether the expenditure is for an educational purpose rather than whether an activity might be beneficial to education. OAG 83-228.

It is legal for a board of education to pay salaries and/or expenses, including travel, lodging, and meals for school administrators to attend business sessions of their respective professional organizations, training and professional improvement meetings conducted by their professional organization and accreditation associations to which their schools or districts belong and/or lobbying activities conducted by their professional associations. OAG 83-228.

A school board may, by regulation, establish reasonable rules and policies affecting the use of motor vehicles by students and school employees on school grounds and in school-related activities; however, there has been no authority delegated by the General Assembly to school boards under which such boards may create and punish public offenses either in the area of traffic regulation or parking. OAG 84-107.

The local board of education continues to have responsibility for control and management of all school funds, public school business affairs, that responsibility is subject to the control of the board of education and moreover, the school board has delegated by the General Assembly to school boards under authority concerning the use of all tobacco products by employees, students and visitors in school buildings, on school grounds or on field trips rests with the local board of education. OAG 91-60.

A local board of education may open or close a school without the recommendation of the local superintendent. OAG 85-98.

A local school district may contract to allow funds held for school purposes; such expenditure would, however, have to be made in accordance with appropriate budget considerations. OAG 85-100.

Although KRS 160.160 and subsection (1) of this section do not provide a specific statutory pronouncement upon what a local board of education may expend, school funds may be expended for those purposes authorized either expressly or by necessary implication by the statutes. OAG 85-100.

A local school district may contract to allow funds held for the local district by the Kentucky Department of Education to be transferred as directed, assuming all statutory and constitutional requirements relative to the use of those funds, if any, have been met. OAG 87-22.

With limited exceptions, as provided for open meetings of public agencies, a local school board may prohibit nonstudents from entering upon school property, irrespective of the nature of activities being conducted upon the property. OAG 90-11.

Based on the language of subsection (2) it does appear that the board may, in general, prescribe qualifications and duties with regard to categories of employees while the superintendent prescribes with more specificity, the duties of individual positions. OAG 91-10.

The board of education continues to have responsibility for "general control and management of the public schools in its district" including "control and management of all school funds," and including setting "compensation of employees," but the board alone continues to have the power to create and abolish positions and it is the responsibility of the superintendent to make decisions regarding how and when to fill positions. OAG 91-10.

There is no conflict of interest statute prohibiting school board members from voting on general salary increases that affect teachers who are related to those board members and who work in the school system. OAG 91-60.

An expenditure of common school funds or a donation of school property for a public purpose other than public education is not permissible under Const., §§ 180, 184 and 186; therefore, under Const., §§ 180, 184, and 186, any transfer of surplus school buildings to community service organizations must be based on the fair market value of the property. OAG 91-122.

The board of education, as part of its responsibility for the management of the district public schools as a whole, manages all school funds (which includes setting compensation of employees); creates and abolishes positions of employment in the school system; and has the authority to adopt rules and regulations concerning the qualifications and duties of employees by categories. OAG 91-122.

The school council does not have authority, unilaterally, to create and abolish positions or to set compensation for the school as a whole. Once the school council learns of available funding and the number of positions available for the school from the board, then the council may determine the number of individuals to be employed in each job class. It remains the responsibility of the local board of education, to establish the overall number of positions and to set the compensation of employees. If this were not the case, staffing and salaries from school funds could lack consistency with drastic effects on the district budget. OAG 91-122.

Authority concerning the use of all tobacco products by employees, students and visitors in school buildings, on school grounds or on field trips rests with the local board of education, not with superintendents and principals, unless that authority is delegated to them by the board. OAG 91-137.

KRS 438.050 does not grant authority to superintendents or principals beyond that authority granted to those officials by the Board; and, as currently written, does not forbid smoking of tobacco products at outdoor athletic events, depending on what smoking areas are to be designated in the schools. OAG 91-137.

The local board has responsibility for control and management of the school districts as a whole, and has the authority to make contracts and agreements; the board has management and control of school funds, and fixes the compensation of the employees. OAG 92-29.

While the superintendent is responsible for personnel actions including, among other things, hiring and assignments, to the extent that the local board is responsible for control and management of school funds, the board may determine the amount of extended employment and compensation for personnel employed beyond the 185 day period; any reduction in salary to a teacher (which includes most administrators for purposes of the teachers tenure law), must be accompanied by appropriate notice. OAG 92-29.

School board approval is required when the superintendent decides to move the central business office to a new location requiring substantial expenditure of school funds because the movement of the office is not, primarily, a personnel decision, but one involving the management of business affairs; while the superintendent has responsibility for the management of business affairs, that responsibility is subject to the control of the board of education and moreover, the school board has control and management of all school funds, public school property and school facilities; depending on the steps taken, approval of the Department of Education may also be required. OAG 92-65.

The superintendent has the responsibility to make individual personnel decisions and to define the duties of particular employee positions. However, the local board has the responsibility to manage the entire district, control school funds, set compensation, create and abolish positions of employment and adopt regulations for qualifications and duties of classes of employees. OAG 92-133.

If a local board in a single-school district elects to implement SBDM this decision controls over the vote of the school staff. OAG 93-31.

The decision of the local board of education in a single-school district not to implement SBDM controls over the school's desires to enter SBDM. OAG 93-31.

The local board may reject a school council's policy on corporal punishment if the local school board has a policy banning corporal punishment based on concerns for liability or concerns for health and safety. OAG 93-31.

A school board may not require principals to be residents of the school district. OAG 01-7.

19. Donation to board.
20. Sale and conveyance of school property.
21. Adoption of grievance procedure.
22. Maintaining legal actions.
24. Liability of individual board members.
25. Appeal.

1. Constitutionality.

This section did not delegate legislative power to the county board in violation of the Constitution. County Bd. of Educ. v. Goodpaster, 260 Ky. 198, 84 S.W.2d 55 (1935).

2. Limitation.

The authority of county boards of education is strictly statutory, and they must closely follow the statute prescribing the manner and form of the performance of their duties. Knott County Bd. of Educ. v. Martin, 256 Ky. 515, 76 S.W.2d 601 (1934).

These powers are not arbitrary, and the reasonable discretion of the board must not be abused. Ex parte County Bd. of Educ., 260 Ky. 246, 84 S.W.2d 59 (1935).

A board can exercise no power not expressly or by necessary implication granted to it; nor can it by its own actions deprive itself of the powers given it, nor enlarge or diminish them. Smith v. Board of Educ., 264 Ky. 150, 94 S.W.2d 321 (1936).

Discretion vested in boards of education to expend school moneys is subject to constitutional restriction that such expenditures must be for purposes of common school education. Schuerman v. State Bd. of Educ., 284 Ky. 556, 145 S.W.2d 42 (1940).

School boards have no powers except those relating to operation and management of public schools and they are vested with broad governmental powers in the management of public schools under their jurisdiction. Board of Educ. v. Society of Alumni of Louisville Male High Sch., Inc., 239 S.W.2d 931 (Ky. 1951).

Since matters affecting the schools and their management were vested in the local school board, the State Department of Education, a school board could not delegate or shift its responsibilities to a fiscal court or the electorate by requesting that the fiscal court place on ballot the question of whether the voters favored the consolidation or merger of certain county schools. Hickman County Fiscal Court v. Workman, 528 S.W.2d 730 (Ky. 1975).

Each participating group in the common school system had been delegated its own independent sphere of responsibility and the Kentucky Education Reform Act (Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 476) did not delegate to local boards of education the authority to require board approval of school council actions. Board of Educ. v. Bushee, 889 S.W.2d 809 (Ky. 1994).

The waiver requirement of KRS 160.345 enables a school council to ask for a deviation from district policy, if it determines that the needs of an individual school would best be met in a manner different than that devised by the local board. The waiver provision is present to enable flexibility, not to indicate approval authority by the board over council policy development. Board of Educ. v. Bushee, 889 S.W.2d 809 (Ky. 1994).

4. Control of State Board of Education.

The administrative control of the board exercised under this section must be consistent with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. Gearhart v. Kentucky State Bd. of Educ., 355 S.W.2d 667 (Ky. 1962). See Earle v. Harrison County Bd. of Educ., 404 S.W.2d 455 (Ky. 1966).

Where members of county board disagree with and refused to follow state board recommendations for consolidation and construction of school buildings the members of the county board could not be suspended from office for neglect of duty or misconduct. Kentucky State Bd. of Educ. v. Isenberg, 421 S.W.2d 81 (Ky. 1967).

5. Determining School Attendance.

The school board has the right to determine which school within the district a pupil shall attend. Hines v. Pulaski County Bd. of Educ., 239 S.W.2d 166 (Ky. 1942).

6. Transportation.

The general powers of the board of education under KRS 158.110, 160.160, 160.330 and this section are broad enough to encompass the operation of a transportation system under which high school pupils are charged a fee. Japs v. Board of Educ., 291 S.W.2d 825 (Ky. 1956).

Under the broad authority of KRS 160.160 and this section the county board of education has power to adopt appropriate and reasonable regulations whereby indigent high school pupils may be furnished transportation without charge. Japs v. Board of Educ., 291 S.W.2d 825 (Ky. 1956).

7. Suspension or Expulsion of Pupils.

Regulation of school board that a student who marries must... immediately withdraw from school and cannot be readmitted for one full year, and then only as a special student with permission of the principal is invalid as it is arbitrary and unreasonable. There is the complete absence of any standard or guideline for the principal concerning readmission and the fatal vice of the regulation lies in its sweeping, advance determination that every married student, regardless of the circumstances, must lose at least a year’s schooling. Board of Educ. v. Bentley, 383 S.W.2d 677 (Ky. 1964).

The school board is empowered to suspend or expel pupils for violations of lawful regulations of the school. Board of Educ. v. Bentley, 383 S.W.2d 677 (Ky. 1964).

The school board is vested with the duty and power to control and manage high school and is authorized to enforce reasonable regulations, including disciplinary rules. Board of Educ. v. Bentley, 383 S.W.2d 677 (Ky. 1964).

This statute is directed to the rules and regulations for the conduct of students and not to the disciplinary measures taken for the breach of those rules and regulations. Dorsey v. Barte, 521 S.W.2d 76 (Ky. 1975).

8. Courses of Instruction.

Under this section a school board is vested with general control and management of the public schools in its district, and may provide such courses of instruction and other services as it deems necessary for the promotion of education and the general health and welfare of its pupils, consistent with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. Board of Educ. v. Society of Alumni of Louisville Male High Sch., Inc., 239 S.W.2d 931 (Ky. 1951).

The board has the implied power to employ and pay an accountant to make a general audit of the school records. Lewis v. Morgan, 252 S.W.2d 691 (Ky. 1952).

Even though there was no specific statutory authority for school board to employ attorney, members of county board of education had implied authority to employ attorneys to represent them in actions and had implied power to expend school funds for attorneys’ fees and court costs in defending the actions where such employment was necessary for their protection and the accomplishment for the purposes for which they were created and for the promotion of public education. Hogan v. Glasscock, 324 S.W.2d 815 (Ky. 1959).

10. Teachers.

Boards may establish reasonable qualifications for teachers higher than the minimum provided by statute. Board of Educ. v. Messer, 257 Ky. 836, 79 S.W.2d 224 (1935).

The board has discretion to determine the number of teachers necessary to properly conduct each of its schools. Simpson County Bd. of Educ. v. Strickler, 268 Ky. 72, 103 S.W.2d 705 (1937).

11. —Mandatory Leave.

Policy G25.000 of the Jefferson County school board mandating a one-month leave of absence, without pay, from October 15 to November 15, for employees who were candidates for part-time political offices violated such candidates’ rights to free speech and free political association, and denied those candidates the equal protection of the law, in violation of both federal and Commonwealth constitutions. Allen v. Board of Educ., 584 S.W.2d 408 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

12. Membership Dues.

This section and KRS 165.270 (now repealed) vestsing boards of education with control of school funds with right to use same to promote public education in such ways as they may deem necessary and proper, is sufficiently broad to authorize payment by county and city board of education, out of public school fund, of annual membership dues in Kentucky school boards association. Schuerman v. State Bd. of Educ., 284 Ky. 556, 145 S.W.2d 42 (1940).

A board may ratify a defective contract if it had authority to make it originally, provided that the method of ratification conforms to the procedure necessary for its original execution. Knott County Bd. of Educ. v. Martin, 256 Ky. 515, 76 S.W.2d 601 (1934).

Architect could not recover on quantum meruit, where his alleged contract with school superintendent was void because not ratified, by order in writing, by board of education at a regular meeting. Oberwarth v. McCreary County Bd. of Educ., 275 Ky. 319, 121 S.W.2d 716 (1938).

A fiscal court cannot exercise its judgment in opposition to the judgment of the county board of education as to the need to enlarge and improve the school system for the county unless expenditures or illegal computation is unlawfully arrived at or bad faith appears. Fyfe v. Hardin County Bd. of Educ., 305 Ky. 589, 205 S.W.2d 165 (1947).

Where school board accepted gift from alumni society to purchase land for school building and had covenant in deed that school was for white male students the covenant was void as it ceded away the board’s governmental powers and restricted its discretion and was against public policy. Board of Educ. v. Society of Alumni of Louisville Male High Sch., Inc., 239 S.W.2d 931 (Ky. 1951).

A school board is vested with the power to select public school sites, subject only to the limitation that it cannot act arbitrarily or beyond the pale of sound discretion and has authority to condemn land for future school needs. Pike County Bd. of Educ. v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245 (Ky. 1955).

15. —Financing.

School boards have broad powers in financing their property. Scott County Bd. of Educ. v. McMillen, 270 Ky. 483, 109 S.W.2d 1201 (1937).

Where population of county was approximately 8,617, estimated assessment of property for taxation in county was $6,425,000, county had existing bonded debt of $225,000 and county board of education approximately $100,000 and the 150 high school pupils of the system were taken care of at the headquarters building in the extreme western part of the county along with the elementary grade pupils, an additional bonded debt of $250,000 to erect a new high school building to be paid by rents received annually from board of education as provided by KRS 162.140 was not arbitrary action or abuse of the discretion of the board that would justify judicial review. Carter v. Taylor, 313 Ky. 445, 231 S.W.2d 601 (1950).

Whether county board of education was financially able to erect high school building and whether its erection jeopardized future program of county educational system were matters strictly for administrative decision of the board. Carter v. Taylor, 313 Ky. 445, 231 S.W.2d 601 (1950).

16. —Location.

Subject to the approval of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, county boards of education are given broad discretion in the selection of sites for schools. Once the approval of the State Superintendent has been obtained, the courts will not interfere with the selection of the site unless there is positive proof of fraud, collusion, or a clear abuse of discretion. Justice v. Clemens, 308 Ky. 820, 215 S.W.2d 992 (1948).

Courts may not interfere with proposed plan of county board of education for location of school unless there is shown a clear abuse of discretion vested in the board by this section and KRS 160.160. Goins v. Jones, 258 S.W.2d 723 (Ky. 1953).

In taxpayer suit to enjoin county board of education evidence did not show that the board was without serious consideration and lacking a reasonable discretion and was arbitrary in locating a proposed new elementary school near the western boundary of the county instead of the geographi-17. Closing Schools.

A board of education must act in good faith upon a sound, just and reasonable basis, and have due regard for the public interests and consequences of its actions upon the children affected and it must not act arbitrarily in discontinuing a school. Wells v. Board of Educ., 289 S.W.2d 492 (Ky. 1956).

Where student population fell below minimum required for state aid a reasonable basis was afforded for school board to order the school closed. Earle v. Harrison County Bd. of Educ., 404 S.W.2d 455 (Ky. 1966).

The Kentucky General Assembly clearly has given local school boards the power and authority to close schools and consolidate schools within a local system. Coppage v. Ohio County Bd. of Educ., 860 S.W.2d 779 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

18. Recreation Center.

Purchase by a school district, acting alone, of land in another county for the establishment of a recreation center for the joint benefit of school children and 4-H club members was an arbitrary administration of public funds and, thus, illegal. Wilson v. Graves County Bd. of Educ., 307 Ky. 203, 210 S.W.2d 350 (1948).

19. Donation to Board.

The jurisdiction conferred by this section relates to school property arising from public funds and necessarily does not apply to specific charitable trust donations made to a particular type of school district for its exclusive benefit, which is controlled by KRS 160.580. Board of Educ. v. Todd County Bd. of Educ., 289 Ky. 803, 160 S.W.2d 170 (1942).

The county board of education in taking out insurance policy on district school building built by specific charitable trust donation was only a naked trustee of the property, while pupils of district school were the real beneficiaries and thus entered to proceeds of the insurance. Board of Educ. v. Todd County Bd. of Educ., 289 Ky. 803, 160 S.W.2d 170 (1942).

A county board of education had no authority to execute a plan by which board was to convey to a nonprofit corporation 20 percent of school property in county, but not site on which school building was to be erected, and corporation was to erect building and execute lease-option contract to board by which, after payment of rental for period of years, board was to become owner of all property conveyed to corporation. Weak v. Board of Educ., 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094 (1940).

Although there is no statutory limitation on the action of boards of education in selling and conveying school property, their action in so doing must be consonant with their duty to maintain an adequate school system within the limits of their finances; and any action by a board which imperils the entire school system of a county, or a portion thereof, may be called in question by the courts. Weak v. Board of Educ., 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094 (1940).

Though the board of education has the right to sell and convey school property it cannot sell and convey all of such property in the county at one time and for a grossly inadequate price. Weak v. Board of Educ., 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094 (1940).

The adoption of a grievance procedure is clearly within the authority granted a school board by this section. International Bhd. of Firemen & Oilers, Local 320 v. Board of Educ., 393 S.W.2d 793 (Ky. 1965).

Denial of third-party representation in grievances before a school board is not arbitrary. International Bhd. of Firemen & Oilers, Local 320 v. Board of Educ., 393 S.W.2d 793 (Ky. 1965).

22. Maintaining Legal Actions.

A board of education has authority to maintain an action in its own name, against delinquent taxpayers, to recover judgment for delinquent school taxes and to enforce the tax lien, and is not required to await the ordinary process of distraint to recover the tax a debt of the delinquent taxpayer in favor of the particular taxing authority. Board of Educ. v. Ballard, 299 Ky. 370, 185 S.W.2d 538 (1945).

Boards of education and not the taxpayers have the initial responsibility of maintaining legal actions on behalf of the school districts and a taxpayer may not bring suit in a matter concerning public funds until he has first requested the authorized school board to institute suit and it has failed to comply. Reeves v. Jefferson County, 245 S.W.2d 606 (Ky. 1951).

This section and KRS 160.160 place upon the boards of education, not taxpayers, the initial responsibility of maintaining legal actions on behalf of the school districts and an individual has no standing to institute an action for alleged unlawful expenditures of school funds until he has demanded of board to bring the action and the board has failed to comply unless he clearly shows that a demand would have been futile although some members of the board were members at the time of alleged unlawful expenditures. Farler v. Perry County Bd. of Educ., 355 S.W.2d 659 (Ky. 1962).

A lawsuit to declare an education system unconstitutional falls within the authority, if not the duty, of local school boards to fulfill their statutory responsibilities, no matter who the defendants are. Rose v. Council for Better Educ., Inc., 790 S.W.2d 186 (Ky. 1989).

The essential strategic point of the Kentucky Educational Reform Act (Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 476) is the decentralization of decision making authority so as to involve all participants in the school system, not limited to, but including school councils and local school boards; affording each the opportunity to contribute actively to the educational process and the provisions set out the structural framework by which this decentralization of decision making authority is to occur. Board of Educ. v. Bushee, 889 S.W.2d 809 (Ky. 1994).

24. Liability of Individual Board Members.

The individual members of a board of education cannot be subjected to individual liability for failing to perform a general duty owed the public in the administration of a good school program, but where the members fail to perform some definite and specific ministerial act they may be held liable individually. Bronbaugh v. Murray, 294 Ky. 715, 172 S.W.2d 591 (1945).

25. Appeal.

The only question for the court's determination is whether the board is exceeding its authority or is acting arbitrarily. Perry County Bd. of Educ. v. Deaton, 311 Ky. 227, 223 S.W.2d 882 (1949).

Where the county board in the exercise of its statutory discretion had promulgated a plan and the highest educational administrative body, the state board, had approved it, the court will not substitute its own judgment for such quasi-legislative and quasi-executive action unless clearly exceeded statutory or constitutional limitations of power. Carter v. Taylor, 313 Ky. 445, 231 S.W.2d 601 (1950).

The government and conduct of public schools, in general, is committed to the discretion of the school board and courts will not interfere with the board's exercise of such discretion unless it appears the board has acted arbitrarily or maliciously. Board of Educ. v. Bentley, 383 S.W.2d 677 (Ky. 1964).
1. Establishment of Schools.
   A school board must maintain a 12-grade service, but need not do so in each school it maintains. It may maintain schools (1) in which only the elementary grades are taught, (2) in which only the four higher grades are taught, (3) in which all 12 grades are taught, (4) in which the first six grades are taught, (5) junior high schools (seventh, eighth and ninth grades), (6) senior high schools (tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades), or (7) any combination of same, provided it does not act arbitrarily or abuse its discretion. Wilson v. Alsip, 256 Ky. 466, 76 S.W.2d 288 (1934).

   A board, being a continuing body, cannot, following a change of members rescind a prior sale on the mere ground that it was a bad bargain. Trustees of Congregational Church v. Board of Trustees, 230 Ky. 94, 18 S.W.2d 887 (1929).

Boards of education were authorized to convey school property. Bellamy v. Board of Educ., 255 Ky. 447, 74 S.W.2d 920 (1934).

160.291. Manner of payment of salaries to school employees — Pay for extra duties or services — Fringe benefits program.

(1) All school employees working on a continuing, regular basis shall be paid regularly, on dates determined by the employing board of education, during the school year or during the fiscal year for twelve (12) month employees, the provisions of KRS 337.020 notwithstanding. The gross salary received on each pay date will be an amount equal to the school employee’s annual salary divided by the number of pay dates, except a local board of education shall pay an employee any remaining salary owed prior to the end of the fiscal year upon completion of the employee’s responsibilities or duties if so notified by the employee.

(2) Salary amounts shall be paid on the prescribed pay dates without deduction for days on which schools were closed; provided, however, any time not worked for which pay is received must be made up prior to the end of that current school year, or pay so received shall be withheld from the final salary payment of that school year.

(3) Gross Salary payments under subsection (1) of this section need not, but may, include pay for extra duties or services. Payment for extra duties or services must be paid pursuant to a payment plan adopted by the board of education prior to the beginning of the school year. The board of education may also adopt a plan for providing a program of fringe benefits to its employees.

(4) All payments made for salaries, extra duties, and fringe benefits by the board of education under the authority of this section are deemed to be for services rendered and for the benefit of the common schools; the payments do not affect the eligibility of any school system to participate in the public school fund as established in KRS Chapter 157. Nor shall any individual board member or administrator be held liable where additional payments for such service become necessary. Provided, however, that nothing in this section authorizes or requires the payment of salaries to personnel when schools are closed as a result of a strike or other work stoppage or when schools are open and personnel fail to render services. No part of this section shall be law if any part is declared unconstitutional.

(5) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to those employed on a twelve (12) month basis.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section is limited to certified personnel. OAG 79-337.

As classified employees usually will not have performed any services for so-called snowbank days, these employees would be ineligible to be paid for these days. If classified employees have been already paid for such snowbank days, they would have to have deducted from their pay at the end of the school year an amount equal to the snowbank days pay received. OAG 82-132.

School boards do not have an option on whether to pay classified employees for snow days; all regular, full-time employees (except those employed on a 12-month basis) are to continue to receive their regular pay even though school is closed. OAG 82-132.

There is no improper discrimination between classified employees and certified employees of a school district based upon an ability of teachers to participate in an extended school day plan (snowbank) days and an inability of classified employees to do the same, as there are two distinct classifications of school employees. It is only the arbitrary classification and treatment of individuals that runs afoul of Const., § 2 and U.S. Const., Amend. 14. OAG 82-132.

This section applies to all school employees, certified and classified, who work on a continuing, regular basis excluding those employed on a 12-month basis. OAG 82-132.

This section calls for all of the full-time, regular employees of a school district to be treated in parity. Thus, while school employees are to continue to receive their pay checks even though not actually working, it is the school district’s obligation under this section and Const., § 3 to see that before the school year has ended, teachers and classified employees alike have only been paid for school days actually worked. OAG 82-132.

This section must be viewed as applying to classified employees even though they may not be paid a “salary” in the sense that term is usually thought of, because to interpret it otherwise would be to continue to limit the statute to only school teachers and that, obviously, is not what was intended by the General Assembly by its 1980 amendment. OAG 82-132.

OAG 82-132.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a “present” service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.
160.293. Development of school property recreational facilities for school and community purposes.

Any statute to the contrary notwithstanding, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, the Kentucky Board of Education may adopt administrative regulations authorizing a local board of education to enter into an agreement with a public agency for the purpose of developing and maintaining on school property recreational facilities for school and community purposes in accordance with the following standards:

(1) The property must be used in such a manner and at such times so that there will be no interference with school activities.

(2) The control and management of this property shall be in accordance with administrative regulations adopted hereunder by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(3) All agreements must have the prior approval of the chief state school officer and the Attorney General.

(4) Any agreement executed herein shall not be considered an indebtedness within the meaning of Sections 157 and 158 of the State Constitution of Kentucky.

Cross-References. Recreational facilities; school and community, 702 KAR 4:005.

Opinions of Attorney General. A city may lease land from a school board over a long term, and may install recreational facilities thereon, when those facilities will be beneficial to the school district. OAG 78-472.

An expenditure of common school funds or a donation of school property for a public purpose other than for the benefit of public education is not permissible under Const., §§ 180, 184 and 186; therefore, under Const., §§ 180, 184, and 186, any transfer of surplus school buildings to community service organizations must be based on the fair market value of the property. OAG 91-85.

(1) Each local board of education shall adopt a plan and procedures for recycling white paper and cardboard in all board-owned and operated facilities.

(2) A local board of education shall be exempt from the requirement to establish a recycling program as described in this section if:

(a) There is no recycling facility within the county or within a reasonable distance in an adjoining geographic area; or

(b) The district cannot locate a recycling vendor to service the school district, without incurring a negative fiscal impact.

(3) The board may delegate to each school or school council the responsibility for designing its own procedures; however, the superintendent or the superintendent's designee shall periodically review the operating procedures to assure that recycling is being carried out.

160.295. Procedure for promulgation of code of student rights and responsibilities for secondary schools — Prohibited student activities.

(1) The board of education of each public school district in the Commonwealth may adopt and promulgate a code of student rights and responsibilities for secondary schools from recommendations of a committee composed of students, faculty, parents, and school district administrative personnel.

(2) Such committee shall consist of two (2) students, two (2) parents of students, two (2) faculty members, two (2) representatives from administrative personnel of the district, and one (1) member of the local school board.

(3) The student and faculty members of such committee shall be elected by their peers in the local school district; the administrative personnel shall be appointed by the school district superintendent, and the parents selected by the faculty and student body. Members of such committee shall serve for a term of one (1) year and may be reelected or reappointed in following years. Initial composition of the elected members of such committee shall be by the following:

(a) The district superintendent shall notify each school within the district, each school principal or head teacher, the students of the district, and the parents of students within the district as to the method for receiving nominations for membership on the committee and of the methods by which the election of members shall take place. Such notification shall take place on or before the first day of school for each school term.

(b) Nominations for the student, faculty, and parent members of the committee shall be received in writing by the district superintendent within thirty (30) days following the commencement of each school term.

(c) The election of student, faculty, and parent members of the committee shall be held within fourteen (14) days following the closing of nominations under the supervision of the district superintendent.

(d) The initial meeting of the elected and appointed members shall be no later than fourteen (14) days following the election.

(4) Each committee member shall be entitled to a single vote and any code of student rights and responsibilities adopted by a majority of the committee membership shall be submitted to the district board of education which may cause such code, in whole or in part, to be implemented in the public schools of the district.

(5) All meetings of the committee shall be open to the public and the committee shall hold at least one (1) public hearing on the proposed code before it is adopted and submitted to the district board of education for implementation.

(6) The code of student rights and responsibilities adopted by the committee may define rights and responsibilities regarding, but not limited to, the following:
Students shall refrain from activity which materially or substantially disrupts the educational process or presents a clear and present danger to the health and safety of persons or property, or infringes on the rights of others.

Opinions of Attorney General. Policies regarding discipline of conduct of pupils should be promulgated to the students through the permissive statute outlining the adoption and promulgation of a code of student rights and responsibilities. OAG 78-673.

This section merely outlines one suggested plan for enacting a code of student rights and responsibilities, and a different committee structure is permissible where all elements of the community are represented and the board of education has final determination of such a code. OAG 79-322.

160.297. Military recruiters’ access to public high school campuses and student directory information. [Renumbered].

Compiler's Notes. This section was amended by Acts 1994, ch. 98, § 6 and renumbered as KRS 160.725 by the Revisor of Statutes pursuant to KRS 7.136.

160.300. Investigations by board — Power to summon witnesses.

A board of education may, in any investigation or proceeding before it, concerning a matter that may be a proper subject of inquiry by it, summon witnesses by subpoena, enforce their attendance, and require that they testify under properly administered oath.

No person so summoned shall refuse to attend or to produce a written statement to be used as legal evidence in the investigation or proceeding, or, if present, refuse to testify concerning any matter that may be a proper subject of inquiry.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4399-55) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 434, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under the provisions of this section, a local board of education may not conduct an investigation of one of its own members for alleged improper official acts. OAG 76-491.

A person appointed under this section to receive testimony regarding the conduct of the schools would have no authority to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of persons who are not employees of the school district. OAG 77-965.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Discovery and Amendment.

160.305. Contracts for use of school buses to transport persons eligible for transportation services.

(1) The Cabinet for Families and Children may enter into a contract with the local board of education of any school district in the Commonwealth for the use of school buses to transport persons eligible for transportation services at times when the buses are not needed to transport students to or from school or school events. Persons eligible for these transportation services shall be:

(a) Sixty-two (62) years of age or older;
(b) Those with physical or mental disabilities; or
(c) Any other person designated by the Cabinet for Families and Children as appropriate for these transportation services.

(2) Before this contract is entered into, the Cabinet for Families and Children shall formulate a plan for the use of school buses for these purposes and shall submit it to the local board of education for its approval or disapproval. The plan for the use of school buses for these transportation purposes shall include routes, schedules, cost, and any other matters deemed necessary by both parties.

(3) The cost of transporting persons eligible under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be borne by the Cabinet for Families and Children.

160.306. Implementation of KRS 160.305 — Pilot projects. [Repealed.]

160.310. Board to provide insurance for school buses.
Each board of education may set aside funds to provide for liability and indemnity insurance against the negligence of the drivers or operators of school buses, other motor vehicles, and mobile equipment owned or operated by the board. If the transportation of pupils is let out under contract, the contract shall require the contractor to carry indemnity or liability insurance against negligence in such amount as the board designates. In either case, the indemnity bond or insurance policy shall be issued by some surety or insurance company authorized to transact business in this state, and shall bind the company to pay any final judgment, not to exceed the limits of the policy, rendered against the company authorized to transact business in this state, and shall bind the company to pay any final judgment, not to exceed the limits of the policy, rendered against the insured for loss or damage to property of any school child or death or injury of any school child or other person.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Coverage mandatory.
3. Liability of county school superintendent.
4. Liability of board.
5. Judgment against board.

1. Constitutionality.
The carrying of liability insurance on school buses is an expense incident to a rational program of school transportation, and the requirement of this section that such insurance be carried does not violate Const. § 184. Bronaugh v. Murray, 294 Ky. 715, 172 S.W.2d 591 (1943).

2. Coverage Mandatory.
Provision of this section that coverage of policy shall include “any school child or other person” who suffers injury or death as the result of the negligence of a driver of a school bus owned or operated by the board of education is mandatory and constitutes a part of the policy as fully and effectively as if written in the policy and provisions of policy to restrict liability within narrower limits are void. Standard Accident Ins. Co. v. Perry County Bd. of Educ., 72 F. Supp. 142 (E.D. Ky. 1947).

3. Liability of County School Superintendent.
County school superintendent is not individually liable for failing to see that board requires liability insurance of bus contractors. Bronaugh v. Murray, 294 Ky. 715, 172 S.W.2d 591 (1943).

4. Liability of Board.
Fact that this section allows board to carry liability insurance against negligence of drivers of school buses owned by board or operated under contract by it, does not make board liable for tort of its agents or employees. Wallace v. Laurel County Bd. of Educ., 287 Ky. 454, 153 S.W.2d 915 (1941).
Members of school board who fail to require bus contractors to carry liability insurance are individually liable in damages to person injured through negligent operation of bus. Bronaugh v. Murray, 294 Ky. 715, 172 S.W.2d 591 (1943).
Failure to carry pupil transportation insurance as provided in this section may result in individual liability of board members. Gilbert v. Harlan County Bd. of Educ., 309 S.W.2d 771 (Ky. 1958).
Where a board of education had liability insurance covering a specific situation and selling surplus material was a governmental function, the board could be sued, but a judgment was only enforceable against its insurance carrier to the extent of the policy limits. Casey v. Grayson County Bd. of Educ., — S.W.3d —, 2003 Ky. App. LEXIS 36 (Ky. Ct. App. Feb. 14, 2003).

5. Judgment Against Board.
When a board of education has secured an insurance policy, under this section, insuring against liability (rather than loss) arising from the operation of its school buses, the board may not interpose the defense, in an action for damages arising from the operation of its school buses, that the operation of school buses is a governmental function. Taylor v. Knox County Bd. of Educ., 292 Ky. 767, 167 S.W.2d 700, 145 A.L.R. 1333 (1942).
If judgment is entered in such a case, it cannot be collected out of school funds, but will furnish the basis for suit against the insurer. Taylor v. Knox County Bd. of Educ., 292 Ky. 767, 167 S.W.2d 700, 145 A.L.R. 1333 (1942).

160.320. Roads or passways to school buildings for pupils.
Any board of education may make provision for roads or passways to its school buildings to accommodate all pupils who are entitled to attend school, and may apply to the county judge/executive or the governing authority of the city having jurisdiction to open the same as other roads and passways are opened for public necessity and convenience. If there is no road or passway from the residence of any pupil to the school building which he attends it shall be lawful for such pupil, in attending school, to walk over the property of any person between the residence of the pupil and the school building.
160.330. Board may furnish necessary school supplies free of charge — Free textbooks for indigent children — Waiver of fees.

(1) Each board of education may furnish necessary school supplies free of charge to indigent children in its school district or to such other children as it deems advisable, under such rules and regulations as it may adopt, except that free textbooks must be provided to indigent children as provided in KRS 157.110.

(2) Local school districts shall establish, pursuant to Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations, a process by which to waive fees for pupils who qualify for free and reduced priced lunches, including a process by which such students shall be informed of the fee waiver provisions.

(3) (a) The local board of education may adopt a policy requiring that each school council, or if none exists, the principal, make an annual policy requiring that each school council, or if none exists, the principal, make an annual report at a public meeting of the board describing the school's progress in meeting the educational goals set forth in KRS 158.6451 and district goals established by the board.

(b) Biennially, the local board shall review in a public meeting the portion of each school's consolidated plan that sets forth the activities and schedule to reduce the achievement gaps among the various groups of students as required in KRS 158.649. If a district has more than twenty (20) schools, the district may review the achievement gap data of each school in a comprehensive district report at a regularly scheduled meeting of the board. The report shall include the schools' and district's plans to reduce any identified gaps in student achievement.

160.340. Reports by boards to Kentucky Board of Education — Filing of policies on specified matters.

(1) Each board of education shall, on the forms prepared by the chief state school officer and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education, prepare and submit to the Kentucky Board of Education reports on all phases of its school service. Each board may prepare and publish for the information of the public a report on the progress of its schools.

(2) Each board of education shall file in the board's office its policies relating to the following matters:

(a) Transportation of pupils;
(b) Discipline and conduct of pupils;
(c) Limitations or restrictions on use of school facilities;
(d) Conduct of meetings of the board of education, including policies on the calling of executive sessions;
(e) Personnel policies that apply to certified employees, including fringe benefits, salary schedules, nonclassroom duties, in-service training, teacher-student ratio, hiring, assignment, transfer, dismissal, suspension, reinstatement, promotion, and demotion;
(f) Evaluation of certified employees;
(g) Selection of textbooks and instructional materials;
(h) Expenditure and accounting for school funds, including all special funds; and
(i) Policies dealing with school-based decision making.

(3) (a) The local board of education may adopt a policy requiring that each school council, or if none exists, the principal, make an annual report at a public meeting of the board describing the school's progress in meeting the educational goals set forth in KRS 158.6451 and district goals established by the board.

(b) Biennially, the local board shall review in a public meeting the portion of each school's consolidated plan that sets forth the activities and schedule to reduce the achievement gaps among the various groups of students as required in KRS 158.649. If a district has more than twenty (20) schools, the district may review the achievement gap data of each school in a comprehensive district report at a regularly scheduled meeting of the board. The report shall include the schools' and district's plans to reduce any identified gaps in student achievement.

(4) It is intended that these policies shall cover matters within the authority and discretion of the district board of education and not matters otherwise required by law or regulation. Such policies shall be filed in the board's office by August 15, 1974, shall be kept up to date by filing annual amendments thereto each August 15 and shall be public records.

Opinions of Attorney General. A local board of education is not obligated to pay for medical examinations and if the board is going to approve such payment it should be done based upon a local school board policy directed specifically at the matter, since this section requires a local board of education to have on file in its office policies relating to “expenditure and accounting for school funds.” OAG 78-365.

A school system has the right to suspend a child from the school bus for misconduct. OAG 78-392.

Policies regarding discipline of conduct of pupils should be promulgated to the students through the permissive statute outlining the adoption and promulgation of a code of student rights and responsibilities. OAG 78-673.

KRS 438.050, as it is written, prescribes only the smoking of tobacco products; however, the board of education may regulate, under the authority of KRS 160.290 and this section, the use of tobacco products such as snuff or chewing tobacco in ways other than smoking, by its employees, other adults or students. OAG 81-295.

School board approval is required when the superintendent decides to move the central business office to a new location requiring substantial expenditure of school funds because the movement of the office is not, primarily, a personnel decision, but one involving the management of business affairs; while the superintendent has responsibility for the management of business affairs, that responsibility is subject to the control of the board of education and moreover, the school board has control and management of all school funds, public school property and school facilities; depending on the steps taken, approval of the Department of Education may also be required. OAG 92-65.

(1) For the purpose of this section:

(a) “Minority” means American Indian; Alaskan native; African-American; Hispanic, including persons of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, and Central or South American origin; Pacific Islander; or other ethnic group underrepresented in the school;

(b) “School” means an elementary or secondary educational institution that is under the administrative control of a principal or head teacher and is not a program or part of another school. The term “school” does not include district-operated schools that are:

1. Exclusively vocational-technical, special education, or preschool programs;

2. Instructional programs operated in institutions or schools outside of the district; or

3. Alternative schools designed to provide services to at-risk populations with unique needs;

(c) “Teacher” means any person for whom certification is required as a basis of employment in the public schools of the state with the exception of principals, assistant principals, and head teachers; and

(d) “Parent” means:

1. A parent, stepparent, or foster parent of a student; or

2. A person who has legal custody of a student pursuant to a court order and with whom the student resides.

(2) Each local board of education shall adopt a policy for implementing school-based decision making in the district which shall include, but not be limited to, a description of how the district’s policies, including those developed pursuant to KRS 160.340, have been amended to allow the professional staff members of a school to be involved in the decision making process as they work to meet educational goals established in KRS 158.645 and 158.6451. The policy may include a requirement that each school council make an annual report at a public meeting of the board describing the school’s progress in meeting the educational goals set forth in KRS 158.6451 and district goals established by the board. The policy shall also address and comply with the following:

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this subsection, each participating school shall form a school council composed of two (2) parents, three (3) teachers, and the principal or administrator. The membership of the council may be increased, but it may only be increased proportionately. A parent representative on the council shall not be an employee or a relative of an employee of the school in which that parent serves, nor shall the parent representative be an employee or a relative of an employee in the district administrative offices. A parent representative shall not be a local board member or a board member’s spouse. None of the members shall have a conflict of interest pursuant to KRS Chapter 45A, except the salary paid to district employees;
(b) 1. The teacher representatives shall be elected for one (1) year terms by a majority of the teachers. A teacher elected to a school council shall not be involuntarily transferred during his or her term of office. The parent representatives shall be elected for one (1) year terms. The parent members shall be elected by the parents of students preregistered to attend the school during the term of office in an election conducted by the parent and teacher organization of the school or, if none exists, the largest organization of parents formed for this purpose. A school council, once elected, may adopt a policy setting different terms of office for parent and teacher members subsequently elected. The principal or head teacher shall be the chair of the school council.

2. School councils in schools having eight percent (8%) or more minority students enrolled, as determined by the enrollment on the preceding October 1, shall have at least one (1) minority member. If the council formed under paragraph (a) of this subsection does not have a minority member, the principal, in a timely manner, shall be responsible for carrying out the following:
   a. Organizing a special election to elect an additional member. The principal shall call for nominations and shall notify the parents of the students of the date, time, and location of the election to elect a minority parent to the council by ballot; and
   b. Allowing the teachers in the building to select one (1) minority teacher to serve as a teacher member on the council. If there are no minority teachers who are members of the faculty, an additional teacher member shall be elected by a majority of all teachers. Term limitations shall not apply for a minority teacher member who is the only minority on faculty;

(c) 1. The school council shall have the responsibility to set school policy consistent with district board policy which shall provide an environment to enhance the students' achievement and help the school meet the goals established by KRS 158.645 and 158.6451. The principal or head teacher shall be the primary administrator and the instructional leader of the school, and with the assistance of the total school staff shall administer the policies established by the school council and the local board.

2. If a school council establishes committees, it shall adopt a policy to facilitate the participation of interested persons, including, but not limited to, classified employees and parents. The policy shall include the number of committees, their jurisdiction, composition, and the process for membership selection;

(d) The school council and each of its committees shall determine the frequency of and agenda for their meetings. Matters relating to formation of school councils that are not provided for by this section shall be addressed by local board policy;

(e) The meetings of the school council shall be open to the public and all interested persons may attend. However, the exceptions to open meetings provided in KRS 61.810 shall apply;

(f) After receiving notification of the funds available for the school from the local board, the school council shall determine, within the parameters of the total available funds, the number of persons to be employed in each job classification at the school. The council may make personnel decisions on vacancies occurring after the school council is formed but shall not have the authority to recommend transfers or dismissals;

(g) The school council shall determine which textbooks, instructional materials, and student support services shall be provided in the school. Subject to available resources, the local board shall allocate an appropriation to each school that is adequate to meet the school's needs related to instructional materials and school-based student support services, as determined by the school council. The school council shall consult with the school media librarian on the maintenance of the school library media center, including the purchase of instructional materials, information technology, and equipment;

(h) From a list of applicants submitted by the local superintendent, the principal at the participating school shall select personnel to fill vacancies, after consultation with the school council, consistent with subsection (2)(i)10. of this section. The superintendent may forward to the school council the names of qualified applicants who have pending certification from the Education Professional Standards Board based on recent completion of preparation requirements, out-of-state preparation, or alternative routes to certification pursuant to KRS 161.028 and 161.048. Requests for transfer shall conform to any employer-employee bargained contract which is in effect. If the vacancy to be filled is the position of principal, the school council shall select the new principal from among those persons recommended by the local superintendent. When a vacancy in the school principalship occurs, the school council shall receive training in recruitment and interviewing techniques prior to carrying out the process of selecting a principal. The council shall select the trainer to deliver the training. Personnel decisions made at the school level under the authority of this subsection shall be binding on the superintendent who completes the hiring process. Applicants after the duties of a position in accordance with KRS 161.020. The superintendent shall provide additional applicants upon request when qualified applicants are available.

(i) The school council shall adopt a policy to be implemented by the principal in the following additional areas:

1. Determination of curriculum, including needs assessment and curriculum development;
2. Assignment of all instructional and noninstructional staff time;
3. Assignment of students to classes and programs within the school;
4. Determination of the schedule of the school day and week, subject to the beginning and ending times of the school day and school calendar year as established by the local board;
5. Determination of use of school space during the school day;
6. Planning and resolution of issues regarding instructional practices;
7. Selection and implementation of discipline and classroom management techniques as a part of a comprehensive school safety plan, including responsibilities of the student, parent, teacher, counselor, and principal;
8. Selection of extracurricular programs and determination of policies relating to student participation based on academic qualifications and attendance requirements, program evaluation, and supervision;
9. Procedures, consistent with local school board policy, for determining alignment with state standards, technology utilization, and program appraisal; and
10. Procedures to assist the council with consultation in the selection of personnel by the principal, including, but not limited to, meetings, timelines, interviews, review of written applications, and review of references. Procedures shall address situations in which members of the council are not available for consultation; and

(j) Each school council shall annually review data on its students’ performance as shown by the Commonwealth Accountability Testing System. The data shall include but not be limited to information on performance levels of all students tested, information on the performance of students disaggregated by race, gender, disability, and participation in the federal free and reduced price lunch program. After completing the review of data, each school council, with the involvement of parents, faculty, and staff, shall develop and adopt a plan to ensure that each student makes progress toward meeting the goals set forth in KRS 158.645 and 158.6451(1)(b) by April of each year and submit the plan to the superintendent and local board of education for review as described in KRS 160.340. The Kentucky Department of Education shall provide each school council the data needed to complete the review required by this paragraph no later than November 1 of each year. If a school does not have a council, the review shall be completed by the principal with the involvement of parents, faculty, and staff.

(3) The policy adopted by the local board to implement school-based decision making shall also address the following:

(a) School budget and administration, including: discretionary funds; activity and other school funds; funds for maintenance, supplies, and equipment; and procedures for authorizing reimbursement for training and other expenses;
(b) Assessment of individual student progress, including testing and reporting of student progress to students, parents, the school district, the community, and the state;
(c) School improvement plans, including the form and function of strategic planning and its relationship to district planning, as well as the school safety plan and requests for funding from the Center for School Safety under KRS 158.446;
(d) Professional development plans developed pursuant to KRS 156.095;
(e) Parent, citizen, and community participation including the relationship of the council with other groups;
(f) Cooperation and collaboration within the district, with other districts, and with other public and private agencies;
(g) Requirements for waiver of district policies;
(h) Requirements for record keeping by the school council; and
(i) A process for appealing a decision made by a school council.

(4) In addition to the authority granted to the school council in this section, the local board may grant to the school council any other authority permitted by law. The board shall make available liability insurance coverage for the protection of all members of the school council from liability arising in the course of pursuing their duties as members of the council.

(5) After July 13, 1990, any school in which two-thirds (2⁄3) of the faculty vote to implement school-based decision making shall do so. All schools shall implement school-based decision making by July 1, 1996, in accordance with this section and with the policy adopted by the local board pursuant to this section. Upon favorable vote of a majority of the faculty at the school and a majority of at least twenty-five (25) voting parents of students enrolled in the school, a school meeting its goal as determined by the Department of Education pursuant to KRS 158.6455 may apply to the Kentucky Board of Education for exemption from the requirement to implement school-based decision making, and the state board shall grant the exemption. The voting by the parents on the matter of exemption from implementing school-based decision making shall be in an election conducted by the parent and teacher organization of the school or, if none exists, the largest organization of parents formed for this purpose. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a local school district shall not be required to implement school-based decision making if the local school district contains only one (1) school.

(6) The Department of Education shall provide professional development activities to assist schools in implementing school-based decision making. School council members elected for the first time shall complete a minimum of six (6) clock hours of training in the process of school-based decision making, no later than thirty (30) days after the beginning of the service year for which they are elected to serve. School council members who have served on a school council at least one (1) year shall complete a minimum of three (3) clock hours of training in the process of school-based decision making no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the beginning of the service year for which they are elected to serve. Experienced members may participate in the training for new members to fulfill their training requirement. School council training required under this subsection shall be conducted by trainers endorsed by the Department of Education. By November 1 of each year, the principal through the local superintendent shall forward to the Department of Education the names and addresses of each council member and verify that the required training has been completed. School council members elected to fill a vacancy shall complete the applicable training within thirty (30) days of their election.

(7) A school that chooses to have school-based decision making but would like to be exempt from the administrative structure set forth by this section may develop a model for implementing school-based decision making, including but not limited to a description of the membership, organization, duties, and responsibilities of a school council. The school shall submit the model through the local board of education to the commissioner of education and the Kentucky Board of Education, which shall have final authority for approval. The application for approval of the model shall show evidence that it has been developed by representatives of the parents, students, certified personnel, and the administrators of the school and that two-thirds (2/3) of the faculty have agreed to the model.

(8) The Kentucky Board of Education, upon recommendation of the commissioner of education, shall adopt by administrative regulation a formula by which school district funds shall be allocated to each school council. Included in the school council formula shall be an allocation for professional development that is at least sixty-five percent (65%) of the district's per pupil state allocation for professional development for each student in average daily attendance in the school. The school council shall plan professional development in compliance with requirements specified in KRS 156.095, except as provided in KRS 158.649. School councils of small schools shall be encouraged to work with other school councils to maximize professional development opportunities.

(9) (a) No board member, superintendent of schools, district employee, or member of a school council shall intentionally engage in a pattern of practice which is detrimental to the successful implementation of or circumvents the intent of school-based decision making to allow the professional staff members of a school and parents to be involved in the decision making process in working toward meeting the educational goals established in KRS 158.645 and 158.6451 or to make decisions in areas of policy assigned to a school council pursuant to paragraph (i) of subsection (2) of this section.

(b) An affected party who believes a violation of this subsection has occurred may file a written complaint with the Office of Education Accountability. The office shall investigate the complaint and resolve the conflict, if possible, or forward the matter to the Kentucky Board of Education.

(c) The Kentucky Board of Education shall conduct a hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B for complaints referred by the Office of Education Accountability.

(d) If the state board determines a violation has occurred, the party shall be subject to reprimand. A second violation of this subsection may be grounds for removing a superintendent, a member of a school council, or school board member from office or grounds for dismissal of an employee for misconduct in office or willful neglect of duty.

(10) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (9) of this section, a school's right to establish or maintain a school-based decision making council and the powers, duties, and authority granted to a school council may be rescinded or the school council's role may be advisory if the commissioner of education or the Kentucky Board of Education takes action under KRS 160.346.
Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/96). This section was amended by 1996 Ky. Acts chs. 34, 74, 146, 318, and 362. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. A conflict exists between Acts chs. 34 and 362. Under KRS 448.290, Acts ch. 362, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails.

Opinions of Attorney General. “Relative” as used in this section should have the same definition as “relative” in KRS 160.380(1)(a), a meaning “father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son, daughter, aunt, uncle, son-in-law, and daughter-in-law.” OAG 90-102.

Administrative opposition to the implementation of School Based Decision Making (SBDM) decisions should be easily circumvented since each SBDM council will include the school’s lead administrator who will have the same input that the faculty members and parents have on the council and therefore, any administrative opposition that exists will be a part of the council’s decision-making process and any decision the council reaches should represent a consensus of the entire school community. OAG 91-24.

If there is school board opposition to school based decision making (SBDM) the SBDM council could seek assistance from the Office of Education Accountability and if they cannot assist the council, then legal action should be considered to force the school board to comply with this section. OAG 91-24.

It was proper for faculty to vote to enter School Based Decision Making (SBDM) before the 1-19-91 date by which the school board must have in place a policy implementing SBDM, for the SBDM statute specifically allows early entry into school-based decision making. OAG 91-24.

Since subdivision (2)(g) (now (2)(f)) of this section expressly prohibits the council from having authority to recommend transfers or dismissals, that responsibility remains part of the principal’s duties and according to subdivision (2)(i) (now (2)(h)) of this section, those decisions are binding on the superintendent. Therefore in a school where there are two physical education teachers, and one will suffice, it is the principal (not the council) who has the authority to move a teacher to a classroom teacher position, as needed, assuming that the physical education teacher is certified for the other position in the same manner, the principal, not the council, who may transfer one of two librarians, as needed, to another position within the same school so long as the librarian is certified for that position. OAG 91-115.

“Transfer” as used in this section encompasses both movement from one position to another within a school as well as movement from a position in one school to a position in another school. OAG 91-115.

Assuming that a school council exists, KRS 160.380(2)(a), which gives the authority and responsibility for all appointments and promotions of teachers and other public school employees to the superintendent, is qualified by subdivision (2)(g) and (i) (now (2)(f) and (2)(h)) of this section to the extent that the superintendent recommends applicants to a particular school and the principal fills the vacancies after consultation with the school council. Therefore, when an initial assignment or the filling of a vacancy is involved, the principal and council make personnel decisions upon receiving the list of recommended applicants from the superintendent. OAG 91-122.

In case of requests for transfer, subdivision (2)(g) (now (2)(f)) of this section clearly specifies that the school council has no authority to make recommendations to either the principal or superintendent in such matters. OAG 91-122.

The school council does not have the authority, unilaterally, to create and abolish positions or to set compensation for the school as a whole. Once the school council learns of available funding and the number of positions available for the school from the board, then the council may determine the number of individuals to be employed in each job class. It remains the responsibility of the local board of education, to establish the overall number of positions and to set the compensation of employees. If this were not the case, staffing and salaries from school to school could lack consistency with drastic effects on the district budget. OAG 91-122.

Authority concerning the use of all tobacco products by employees, students and visitors in school buildings, on school grounds or on field trips rests with the local board of education, not with superintendents and principals, unless that authority is delegated to them by the board. OAG 91-137.

KRS 438.050 does not grant authority to superintendents or principals beyond that authority granted to those officials by the Board; and, as currently written, does not forbid smoking of tobacco products at outdoor athletic events, depending on what smoking areas are to be designated in the schools. OAG 91-145.

A potential conflict of interest exists between the requirements of KRS 160.180(3) for members of boards of education concerning influence in hiring school employees, and the duties authorized by subsections (2)(g) and (i) of this section for members of site-based councils; KRS 160.180(3) expressly prohibits a member of a board of education from having any influence on hiring of school personnel, while subsections (2)(g) and (i) of this section give members of the council authority to recommend candidates to the principal to be hired. OAG 91-148.

Even if a board member, who was also a council member, were to disqualify himself, while serving on the council, from engaging in any consideration of applicants or from voting on what smoking areas are to be designated in the schools, OAG 91-148.

Potential conflicts could develop since the board sets policies for the councils of the district on areas in which the interests of the board may differ from the interests of the councils. OAG 91-148.

If a school board member is elected to a site-based decision making council, the provisions of KRS 160.180 and this section create potential statutory conflicts of interest should that board member attempt to carry out the duties of both positions with regard to hiring decisions. OAG 91-148.

Members of school councils are not entitled to receive compensation for their services to the school at this time because funds have not been appropriated by the General Assembly. OAG 91-192.

Subsections (2)(c) and (2)(e) (now (2)(i) and (5)) of this section do not authorize a school council to create a parking lot on their school campus through private funding because the local school board has the responsibility to initiate construction. OAG 91-215.

Within broad parameters set by the local school board on school property, subsection (2)(j) of this section provides the council with the authority to set policies on the use of school property outside of the school as well as inside of the school during the school day; therefore, a school council may set limits concerning use of a school parking lot where staff members park their vehicles, and where school children are dropped off, e.g., to ensure the safety of children. OAG 91-215.

Whether parents may participate on school-based decision making committees is a matter to be addressed by local school board policy. OAG 92-57.

A superintendent may not transfer a principal from school A to school B without school council approval, when both schools are operating under the guidance of a council; under this section, the superintendent makes recommendations to school B when the principal retires and once that position is filled by the principal, and finalized by the superintendent, if another vacancy exists for a principal in school A, then the superintendent repeats the process. OAG 92-78.

As of July 14, 1992, parent representatives who are elected after the effective date of House Bill 182 (Acts 1992, ch. 376) shall be eligible to serve on a school council so long as they are neither employed by the school district, nor related to employees of the school district; parent representatives who are elected prior to the effective date of the act must meet the requirements in effect at the time that they begin to serve. OAG 92-88.

The office of the Attorney General opined that House Bill 182 (Acts 1992, ch. 376) operates prospectively to require that parent representatives who are elected after the act becomes effective (July 14, 1992), shall comply with the eligibility criteria imposed by House Bill 182; therefore, parent representatives who are elected prior to July 14, 1992, need not resign due to the change in eligibility criteria. OAG 92-88.

Consultation, as used in this section, has only that meaning applied through customary usage, i.e., to seek, advice. Therefore, the principal retains final hiring authority. OAG 92-131.

In the fact that the statute clearly gives to the superintendent the power to make recommendations to the principal for his consideration, upon consultation of the principal with the council, the council has a right to see applications and accompanying materials on applicants who have been recommended, but not on applicants who have not been recommended by the superintendent. OAG 92-131.

It is impermissible for the council to interview applicants who have not been recommended by the superintendent. Whether the council may interview recommended applicants who have not been recommended by the superintendent is a matter to be negotiated between the council and the principal. OAG 92-131.

The appointment of a tenured certified employee who is on leave from the County School System may not serve as a parent member of a School Based Decision Making Council in the County School System school. OAG 92-157.

The school council anti-nepotism clause in subsection (2)(a) of this section is an attempt by the General Assembly to rid Kentucky schools of conflicts of interests and favoritism. OAG 95-157.

A local school district or a school would be ill-advised to adopt a policy determining that parent members of a committee formed pursuant to subdivision (2)(d) of this section are "school officials" and entitled to access of confidential student records. The danger in enacting so broad a policy interpreting "school officials" for purposes of the Federal Education Records Privacy Act (FERPA) finding that the administrator or principal, teacher and parent members of a school-based decision making council are "school officials" pursuant to 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(b)(1)(A). The policy must also define the "legitimate educational interests" of the school council members. 34 CFR 99.6(a)(4). OAG 93-5.

In order to achieve the educational goals envisioned by the Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA) the school council must be intricately aware of the grades, test scores and special needs of the students attending the school; therefore, in order to carry out their statutory duties, all of the members of a school based decision making council may be considered "school officials" for purposes of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 20 U.S.C. § 1232g. OAG 93-5.

Any board policy relating to the initial vote to enter SBDM must offer the faculty a reasonable opportunity to vote. OAG 93-31.

If a local board in a single-school district elects to implement SBDM this decision controls over the vote of the school staff. OAG 93-31.

If a school's staff votes to enter SBDM in October, but board policy states that school council terms run from July to June, the school does not need to wait nine months to implement SBDM. Rather, the school should be given a brief time to permit elections and training before allowing the school council to begin its tenure. This delay should not exceed a couple of months. OAG 93-31.

It is consistent with the goals of KERA for a superintendent to receive input from a council-elect prior to selecting a principal for its school in the event there is a vacancy in the spring before council members' terms officially begin. However, the final decision will remain with the superintendent. OAG 93-31.

The decision of the local board of education in a single-school district not to implement SBDM controls over the school's desires to enter SBDM. OAG 93-31.

The exemption in subsection (5) of this section for single-school districts from SBDM will continue to apply until the statute is amended or repealed. OAG 93-31.

The local board may reject a school council's policy on corporal punishment if the local school board has a policy banning corporal punishment based on concerns for liability or concerns for health and safety. OAG 93-31.

A teacher may cast a vote for the teacher representatives at her or his school and also cast a vote for the parent representatives at another school where his or her child is enrolled. Additionally, if the teacher has been assigned to the same school where his or her child is enrolled then the teacher may vote for the teacher representatives and the parent representatives. OAG 93-49.

Although there is no statutory nepotism prohibition in the Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA) prohibiting a School Based Decision Making Council member from participating in the selection of the principal when the member's son has applied for the principal position, allowing a school council member to cast a vote to select her son as principal violates the spirit of KERA and has the appearance of impropriety. OAG 93-50.

Pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, a school may apply to be exempt from the school-based decision making (SBDM) administrative structure to allow the SBDM council to elect any member as a chair by submitting an administrative model through the appropriate channels to the Chief State School Officer and the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education. OAG 93-52.

The correct interpretation of subdivision (2)(j) (now 2(i)) of this section is that school councils have authority to set policy regarding the assignment of all instructional and non-instructional staff time and the principal is authorized to administer the policy and to make assignments as to individual staff members. OAG 93-55.
A local school board does not have the authority to adopt a policy requiring school councils to have committees; however, individual school councils have the discretion to form committees. OAG 94-8.

While a local school board may not require a school council to form committees, if committees are formed at the discretion of the council, this section authorizes the local school board to adopt policies requiring parental representation on school council committees. OAG 94-8.

While local school boards cannot require school councils to have committees, if councils at their discretion have committees, the school board had the statutory authority to enact a policy requiring the school council to allow parents to serve on committees; however, a school board could not enact a policy precluding any parents from serving on school council committees. OAG 94-8.

School council committees are advisory bodies created by Kentucky Education Reform Act, therefore, school council committees must be formed consistent with KRS 156.500, which requires reasonable minority representation on the committees. OAG 94-8.

This section authorizes a local school board to require that proposed SBDM policies be timely reviewed by legal counsel and a Central Office Administrator prior to implementation for consistency with state or federal law, concerns for health and safety, concerns for liability, available financial resources or contractual obligations. OAG 94-29.

When the amendment to this section by 1994, Ch. 484, § 1 became effective on July 15, 1994, any schools having eight percent or more minority students enrolled and having school councils which did not have minority members on that date, were required to immediately have a special election to elect a minority parent and a minority teacher to the school council, even if the first regular election after July 15, 1994 was not until some time later. OAG 94-41.

Although schools are not required to implement school-based decision making (SBDM) until 1996, once the decision to implement SBDM is made then the schools or school district is bound by the dictates of this section. Accordingly, the school district must follow the statutory method of opting out of SBDM as allowed pursuant to subsection (5) of this section and may not enact a policy allowing for repeal of SBDM in a method not contemplated by statute. OAG 94-51.

Proposed school council plan to allow all parents, and not just the parents of minority students, to participate in special minority representative election did not comply with subdivision (2)(a) of this section. OAG 94-60.

School council plan to hold a special minority election, if necessary, on the same night as and immediately following the regular election did not comply with subdivision (2)(b) of this section since the election would not be held in a "timely manner" and proper notice would not be given to all minority parents and parents of minority students regarding the special election. OAG 94-60.

Subdivision (2)(b) of this section limits participation in the election of the minority representative to minority parents only (rather than permitting all parents — minority and non-minority) to vote is not unconstitutional. OAG 94-60.

"Qualified applicants" referred to in subsection (2) of this section means all persons who meet all qualifications set forth by statute, regulations, and school board policies. OAG 95-10.

Under this section, if a school seeking to fill personnel vacancies continues to request more names of qualified applicants, the superintendent, then it must be provided with all available applications which conform to minimum statutory, regulatory and board policy requirements and the superintendent is not allowed to withhold applicants from consideration by the school based on his or her subjective considerations; which does not mean that the superintendent is denied the opportunity to render subjective comments and recommendations, but that the superintendent must eventually give the school all applications which meet the minimum legal qualifications and comply with legitimate school board policies. OAG 95-10.

A school council has the authority to determine the school curriculum and to make corresponding decisions as to the number of personnel in each job classification necessary to implement its policies. While this may result in the transfer of an employee, it is not the recommendation of such by the council, and thus is not a violation of the statutory prohibition against a school council recommending transfers or dismissals. Such recommendations and decisions, which have a district-wide impact, are still in the purview of the local school board and superintendent. OAG 96-38.

The Office of Education Accountability cannot prosecute a case to have an executive branch employee disciplined or removed for violation of subsection (9)(a). OAG 02-4.

In both KRS 160.345 hearings and KRS 156.132 hearings, the role of the Commissioner of Education in the hearings is authorized not by those statutes, but by the grant of authority vested in the commissioner as the executive and administrative officer of the Board of Education by KRS 156.148(3). OAG 02-4.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
   Since the General Assembly has made a strong showing of intent to eradicate nepotism within the school districts of the Commonwealth, this legislation enjoys a strong presumption of constitutionality. Kentucky Dep't of Educ. v. Risner, 913 S.W.2d 327 (Ky. 1996).

   Since the school based council is an authoritative body within the local school district, and the restriction in subdivision (2)(a) of this section prohibiting school district employees or their spouses from serving as parent members on the school based councils directly addresses the appearance of nepotism within that body and is clearly related to the goals of the legislature to eradicate nepotism within the school districts of the Commonwealth, they are not unconstitutional as a violation of the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Kentucky Dep't of Educ. v. Risner, 913 S.W.2d 327 (Ky. 1996).

   The essential strategic point of the Kentucky Educational Reform Act (Enact. Acts of 1990, ch. 476) is the decentralization of decision making authority so as to involve all participants in the school system, not limited to, but including school councils and local school boards; affording each the opportunity to contribute actively to the educational process and the provisions set out the structural framework by which this decentralization of decision making authority is to occur. Board of Educ. v. Bushee, 889 S.W.2d 809 (Ky. 1994).

   Each participating group in the common school system had been delegated its own independent sphere of responsibility and the Kentucky Education Reform Act (Enact. Acts of 1990, ch. 476) did not delegate to local boards of education the authority to require board approval of council actions. Board of Educ. v. Bushee, 889 S.W.2d 809 (Ky. 1994).

   The waiver requirement of KRS 160.345 enables a school council to ask for a deviation from district policy, if it determines that the needs of an individual school would best be met in a manner different than that devised by the local board. The waiver provision is present to enable flexibility, not to indicate... approval authority by the board over council policy development. Board of Educ. v. Bushee, 889 S.W.2d 809 (Ky. 1994).

4. Hiring in Local Schools.

Since passage of the Kentucky Education Reform Act, the local school has stopped its direct involvement in hiring school personnel, the school principal has the responsibility, after consulting with the school council, of hiring school personnel from a list of applicants submitted by the superintendent. Yanero v. Davis, 65 S.W.3d 510 (Ky. 2001).

Trial court erred in interpreting KRS 160.345(2)(h), which would have allowed a superintendent to manipulate the system by recommending with impunity only one (1) applicant out of ten (10) or twelve (12) of those seeking an open principal's position and refusing to provide more, in effect forcing the council to select his choice; such was contrary to the Legislature's intent to create a decentralized decision-making authority that so long as the applicants possessed the qualifications as required by statute, they must be provided to the decision-making authority for its consideration in selection of a principal. Robinson v. Back, — S.W.3d —, 2003 Ky. App. LEXIS 104 (Ky. Ct. App. May 16, 2003).

Only reading of KRS 160.345(2)(h) that is in line with the Kentucky Education Reform Act's stated goals of decentralization and shared decision-making authority is one by which the school council holds ultimate authority in selecting the school's principal; thus, "qualified," as used in the last sentence of KRS 160.345(2)(h) means that, upon the request of the school council, the local superintendent is required to forward all remaining applications that meet statutory requirements for the position. Young v. Hammond, 139 S.W.3d 895 (Ky. 2004).

In a rejected applicant's action alleging gender discrimination and a violation of KRS 160.345(2)(h), summary judgment in favor of the local school superintendent was properly reversed because he acted contrary to the requirements of KRS 160.345(2)(h) when he refused to forward the applicant's application for the position of principal to the local school board, even though they requested the applications for all "qualified" candidates, and because she had established a prima facie case for gender discrimination in light of the court's holding that KRS 160.345(2)(h) did not require a recommendation from the superintendent to be a "qualified" candidate. Young v. Hammond, 139 S.W.3d 895 (Ky. 2004).

160.346. Identification of school council needing improvement — School district assistance plan — Scholastic audit team reviews — Transfer of council's authority — Restoration of council's authority.

(1) (a) A school with a school council identified as needing improvement under KRS 158.6455 shall include in its school improvement plan actions to strengthen the school council and the school-based decision making process at the school.

(b) The local school district shall include in its assistance plan for a school identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection actions to strengthen the functioning of the school council and the school-based decision making process at the school.

(2) (a) A scholastic audit team, established under KRS 158.6455, auditing a school a second time that for two (2) or more successive accountability cycles failed to meet its goal, shall include in the review:

1. The functioning of the school and the school council;

2. The implementation of the school improvement plan and actions related to the school council developed under subsection (1)(a) of this section;

3. The interaction and relationship between the superintendent, central office personnel, and the council; and

4. A recommendation to the commissioner of education in the audit report concerning whether the school council should retain the authority granted to it under KRS 160.345. If the recommendation is to transfer the authority of the school council, the team shall also recommend whether:

   a. The authority should be transferred to the superintendent or a highly skilled educator; and

   b. The school council should continue to act in an advisory capacity until all authority has been restored under subsection (6) of this section.

(b) A scholastic audit team, established under KRS 158.6455, auditing a district of a school subject to subsection (2)(a) of this section, shall include in its review:

1. The overall functioning of the school district;

2. The interaction and relationship between the superintendent, central office personnel, school board members, and the council; and

3. The implementation of the district assistance plan for the audited school. In the audit report, the team shall make a recommendation to the commissioner of education concerning whether the school's council should retain its authority granted under KRS 160.345. If the recommendation is to transfer the authority of the school council, the team shall also recommend whether:

   a. The authority should be transferred to the superintendent or a highly skilled educator; and

   b. The school council should continue to act in an advisory capacity until all authority has been restored under subsection (6) of this section.

(3) (a) 1. If both the school and the district audit teams recommend transfer of the council's authority to the superintendent, the commissioner of education shall transfer the council's authority under KRS 160.345 to the superintendent. The commissioner shall determine whether the school council shall continue in an advisory capacity and shall notify the local board of education, the district superintendent, the principal of the school, and the school council members of the action.

2. Within thirty (30) days of the commissioner's action, the school council may request that the Kentucky Board of Education consider the matter by submitting a written request including any supporting information. The Kentucky Board of Education shall consider the audit reports, the commissioner's decision, and the request for reconsideration with any supporting information, and make a final determination.

(b) If both audit teams recommend transfer of the council's authority to a highly skilled educator or if both recommend transfer of the council's authority but are not in agreement as to the party to be granted authority, the commissioner shall make a recommendation to the Kentucky Board of Education, which shall make the final determination. The school council and the superintendent may submit supporting information. The commissioner shall include as part of the recommendation whether the school council shall continue in an advisory capacity. The Kentucky Board of Education shall consider the audit reports, the commissioner's recommendation, and supporting information provided by the school council and superintendent. The commissioner shall notify the local board of education, the district superintendent, the principal of the school, and the school council members of the recommendation and the Kentucky Board of Education's final action.

(c) If the two (2) audit teams disagree in their recommendations about whether the council's authority should be transferred, the school council shall retain its authority.

(4) Subject to the policies adopted for the district by the local board of education, the local district superintendent or the highly skilled educator shall assume all powers, duties, and authority granted to a school council under KRS 160.345 thirty (30) days following the commissioner's recommendation if no request for consideration by the Kentucky Board of Education is submitted or following the final determination of the Kentucky Board of Education, whichever is appropriate.

(5) Within thirty (30) days after assuming the powers, duties, and authority under subsection (4) of this section, the superintendent or highly skilled educator shall consult with the council, if the council has been given an advisory role under subsection (3) of this section, and with stakeholders at the school including parents, the principal, certified staff, and classified staff, and prepare a plan for developing capacity for sound school-based decision making at the school. The commissioner of education shall review the plan and approve it or identify specific areas for improvement. The superintendent or highly skilled educator shall report to the commissioner every six (6) months on the implementation and results of the approved plan.

(6) The school's right to establish a council or the school's right for the council to assume the full authority granted under KRS 160.345 shall be restored when the school meets its goal for an accountability cycle as determined by the Kentucky Department of Education under KRS 158.6455.

(7) If, in the course of a school or district scholastic audit, the audit team identifies information suggesting that a violation of KRS 160.345(9)(a) may have occurred, the commissioner of education shall forward the evidence to the Office of Education Accountability for investigation.

160.347. Removal of school council member.
A member of a school council may be removed from the council for cause, after an opportunity for hearing before the local board, by a vote of four-fifths (4/5) of the membership of a board of education after the recommendation of the chief state school officer pursuant to KRS 156.132. Written notices setting out the charges for removal shall be spread on the minutes of the board and given to the member of the school council.

160.348. Advanced placement, International Baccalaureate, dual enrollment, and dual credit courses.
(1) Beginning with the 2003-2004 school year and thereafter, each secondary school-based decision making council shall offer a core curriculum of advanced placement, International Baccalaureate, dual enrollment, or dual credit courses, using either or both on-site instruction or electronic instruction through the Kentucky Virtual High School or other on-line alternatives. In addition, each school-based decision making council shall comply with any additional requirements for advanced placement, International Baccalaureate, dual enrollment, and dual credit courses that may be established cooperatively by the Kentucky Department of Education, the Education Professional Standards Board, and the Council on Post-secondary Education in accordance with the definitions in KRS 158.007.

(2) Each secondary school-based decision making council shall establish a policy on the recruitment and assignment of students to advanced placement, International Baccalaureate, dual enrollment, and dual credit courses that recognizes that all students have the right to be academically challenged and should be encouraged to participate in these courses.

DISTRICT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

(1) After considering the recommendations of a screening committee, as provided in KRS 160.352, each board of education shall appoint a superin-
A superintendent of schools whose term of office shall begin on July 1, following the individual’s appointment. The appointment may be for a term of no more than four (4) years. In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of superintendent prior to the expiration of the term set by the board, the term shall expire on the date the vacancy occurs. Therefore, the board may appoint a superintendent for a new term as provided in this subsection, which shall begin on the date of the superintendent’s appointment, except when the vacancy occurs after a school board election and before the newly elected members take office. When a vacancy occurs during this period, the position shall not be filled until the new members take office, but the board may appoint an acting superintendent to serve a term not to exceed six (6) months. This appointment may be renewed once for a period not to exceed three (3) months. If a vacancy occurs, a local board may also appoint an acting superintendent during the period the screening committee pursuant to KRS 160.352 conducts its business and prior to the actual appointment of the new superintendent. No superintendent shall resign during a term and accept a new term from the same board of education prior to the expiration date of the present term. In the case of a vacancy in the office for an unexpired term, the board of education shall make the appointment so that the term will end on June 30. The board shall set the salary of the superintendent to be paid in regular installments.

(4) After the completion of a superintendent’s first contract or after four (4) years, whichever comes last, the board of education may, no later than June 30, extend the contract of the superintendent for one (1) additional year beyond the current term of employment.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section, which establishes the qualifications for superintendents does not contain any requirements concerning religion, and a person of the Catholic faith, if he meets the statutory qualifications, may be superintendent. OAG 60-917.
A board of education that approved the employment of a superintendent for a period of two years could amend the order to read four years and extend the length of employment prior to the time the superintendent took office. OAG 61-548.
Where a superintendent whose term was to expire on June 30 planned to resign prior to January 1 and three board members were to be elected at the preceding November election, an appointment by the old board could be made only until the expiration of the resigning superintendent’s term. OAG 64-592.
In June, 1964, a board, some of whose members had terms which expired in January, 1965, did not have authority to issue to its superintendent a contract to begin July 1, 1965, since the terms of some of its members did not extend beyond the date when the new term of office was to begin. OAG 65-96.
In the event of a vacancy created by resignation this section authorizes the appointment of a successor for the unexpired portion of the term only, and the board is without power to make an appointment for a term that would commence prior to the expiration of any other term. OAG 67-213.
After school board decided to employ an individual as superintendent for a one-year term, the board had authority to adopt another resolution 12 days later hiring the same individual as superintendent and secretary to the board for a two-year term. OAG 72-74.
There is no obligation to contract with one man to serve the entire unexpired term of a school superintendent as long as said part of term expires on June 30 and there is no splicing together of partial terms of office but only a fragmenting of a four-year term which was established by the board of education and as long as the appointment is made by the same authority that is authorized to act when the vacancy actually occurs. OAG 73-743.

There is no conflict between this section and KRS 161.721 as, irrespective of when a superintendent becomes eligible for continuing contract status in the district, such status is not as to the position of superintendent but just to employment in the school district. OAG 76-82.

A local board of education has the authority and discretion under the circumstances to establish the salary of a superintendent but is under no obligation to negotiate the superintendent's salary and the superintendent is without power to compel a board of education to contract to pay him more than the board, in its judgment, deems appropriate. OAG 76-360.

The statutory language requiring the secretary of the board of education to call a special meeting and to see that properly detailed timely notice is given is mandatory and the secretary's refusal to act could be the basis for rescission of the secretary's contract; however, the failure to perform the functions of the secretary of the board could not constitute legal cause for removal from office as superintendent when the same person holds the two positions, for the two positions are separable. OAG 78-274.

By provisions of this section the board is to fix the salary of the superintendent and only that board which entered into the contract to take effect on July 1 of this year had or ever could have had any right to set its terms; since that board in office in July at the commencement of the contract could have increased the salary of the superintendent starting on July 1, it may now increase the salary to a figure mutually agreeable to the superintendent and the board of education. OAG 78-819.

The holding of the two state officer positions of superintendent of schools and member of a local school board does not by itself present a statutory or constitutional incompatibility, under KRS 61.080 and Const., § 165. OAG 78-413.

By provisions of this section the board is to fix the salary of the superintendent and only that board which entered into the contract to take effect on July 1 of this year had or ever could have had any right to set its terms; since that board in office in July at the commencement of the contract could have increased the salary of the superintendent starting on July 1, it may now increase the salary to a figure mutually agreeable to the superintendent and the board of education. OAG 78-274.

The position of local superintendent of schools is a state office. OAG 79-149.

A local board of education may give a superintendent who is over 65 a contract for more than one year. OAG 79-213.

An individual may serve as a superintendent under contract pursuant to this section until the end of the school year in which the age of 70 is reached. OAG 79-213.

Although the duration of an existing contract's terms may not be changed, a board of education membership that will be in office at the time a new contract term is to be established may agree in advance to enter into a contract with an individual to be the superintendent. OAG 79-321.

While a superintendent may acquire tenure in the same manner as for teachers pursuant to KRS 161.721, that does not make an appointment as a superintendent under this section, which is under an entirely different contractual basis and which may be for one, two, three or four years, employment where "teacher tenure" may be transferred to the position pursuant to KRS 161.740; thus, where a teacher attains tenure in the school system and then accepts the position of superintendent of schools in another school district, the superintendent would be required to attain tenure in the new school system by following KRS 161.721. OAG 80-147.

A local board of education can direct the superintendent to make a recommendation relative to a teacher's contract since a recommendation is required by law and may be a part of appropriately adopted local board policies; the refusal by a superintendent to make a recommendation could be considered legal cause for the superintendent's removal. OAG 80-205.

A local board of education, after having once fixed the term of a superintendent's office cannot then change the number of years of the term. OAG 84-283.

If for any reason a superintendent-elect did not want the one year contract offered by the local board of education and resigned, the person taking his place would be limited to the one year contract. OAG 84-283.

1. Compatibility of offices.

One cannot at the same time be superintendent and teacher. Knuckles v. Board of Educ., 272 Ky. 431, 114 S.W.2d 511 (1938).

Position of assistant superintendent of county schools is an administrative position and is incompatible with the position of teacher and by holding the incompatible position of teacher one appointed assistant superintendent failed to enter upon his duties as such barring him from recovering compensation as assistant superintendent. Richardson v. Bell County Bd. of Educ., 296 Ky. 520, 177 S.W.2d 871 (1944).

The office of superintendent is one of trust. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

3. Time of Appointment.

A county superintendent of schools may be appointed prior to the first day of April in the year in which his term begins, provided that the terms of the members of the board in office at the time the appointment is made must extend beyond the date when the term of the superintendent begins. Maynard v. Allen, 276 Ky. 485, 124 S.W.2d 765 (1939).

A second contract for office of superintendent was enforceable although the second contract was entered into one year prior to the expiration of the first contract, where it was ratified by the board of education after the expiration of the first contract. Farley v. Board of Educ., 424 S.W.2d 124 (Ky. 1968).

Since there is nothing in this section authorizing the appointment of the school superintendent which would justify limiting the power of the school board to appoint a school superintendent prior to the first day of January, the board of education could appoint a school superintendent at a Decem-
4. Rescission of Appointment.

Where person was appointed superintendent by resolution duly adopted, and four-year contract was executed and approved by proper resolution, following which the board adopted a resolution rescinding its former action and appointed another person as superintendent, person first appointed was entitled, before commencement of term for which appointment was made, to bring declaratory judgment action to establish his right to office. Chestnut v. Reynolds, 291 Ky. 231, 163 S.W.2d 456 (1942).

In declaratory judgment proceeding to establish right of appointee to office of superintendent, it was proper for court to set matter for early hearing. Chestnut v. Reynolds, 291 Ky. 231, 163 S.W.2d 456 (1942).

Alleged duress by State Board of Education consisting of threats by State Board to prosecute county board members for school law violations unless certain person was appointed as superintendent did not authorize county board to rescind order of appointment, where appointee did not participate in alleged duress. Chestnut v. Reynolds, 291 Ky. 231, 163 S.W.2d 456 (1942).

Alleged immoral conduct of appointee to office of superintendent would not justify rescission of resolution of appointment; in such case board must resort to power of removal. Chestnut v. Reynolds, 291 Ky. 231, 163 S.W.2d 456 (1942).

The appointment of a superintendent does not result from a contract negotiated between the board and the appointee, but from a formal election prescribed by statute, and once made in the manner prescribed cannot be rescinded. Chestnut v. Reynolds, 291 Ky. 231, 163 S.W.2d 456 (1942).

Fact that appointee to office of superintendent in Laurel County held appointment to same office in Jackson County, covering same term, was not ground for rescinding appointment, since appointee could resign appointment in Jackson County before commencement of term in Laurel County, and in any event acceptance of Laurel County office would vacate Jackson County office. Chestnut v. Reynolds, 291 Ky. 231, 163 S.W.2d 456 (1942).

5. Term.

The fact that the board adopted an order fixing the term of the superintendent did not prevent it from subsequently employing a superintendent for a term of four years. Smith v. Board of Educ., 264 Ky. 150, 94 S.W.2d 321 (1936).

Once the length of term has been fixed the board loses control over the term thus created. Board of Educ. v. Gulick, 398 S.W.2d 483 (Ky. 1966).

Where the board employed a superintendent for a four-year term it could not create a new term until the expiration of the four-year period. Consequently the reemployment of the superintendent for a four-year term three years after his first four-year term had begun was invalid. Board of Educ. v. Gulick, 398 S.W.2d 483 (Ky. 1966).

Where a school superintendent resigned after serving only ten days of his four-year term and there remained a vacancy of three years and 355 days, the board could not shorten that term and appoint one man for one year and another man for the remaining three years of the vacancy as the vacancy exists in the term of office rather than in the office itself and the contract with the first appointee, by operation of law, was for the remainder of the term. Childers v. Pruitt, 511 S.W.2d 233 (Ky. 1974).

Until the superintendent’s term is finally established (either by formal acceptance of the board of education’s offer or by commencement of service of the term), the board retains complete control over the process and has authority to increase the length of the term. Stagnolia v. Board of Educ., 714 S.W.2d 486 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

Where the superintendent refused to accept the one-year term, the county board of education could change the term of the superintendent to four years prior to the commencement of that term. Stagnolia v. Board of Educ., 714 S.W.2d 486 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

The salary of a superintendent cannot be changed during the term of office. Whitley County Bd. of Educ. v. Rose, 267 Ky. 924, 112 S.W.2d 28 (1937). But see Board of Educ. v. DeWeese, 343 S.W.2d 598 (Ky. 1960).

Superintendent of schools is not an “officer” within Const., §§ 161, 235 and 246 prohibiting change in compensation of officers during term. Board of Educ. v. DeWeese, 343 S.W.2d 598 (Ky. 1960).

7. Qualifications.

In an action to compel county board of education to employ him for a specific school at a specific salary, a school principal was bound by stipulation of facts as to qualifications of school superintendent in the absence of fraud or mistake in entering into the stipulation. Board of Educ. v. Hogge, 239 S.W.2d 459 (Ky. 1951).

8. Removal.

A superintendent wrongfully ousted is entitled to his full salary until his successor is appointed, and thereafter he is entitled to any part of his salary not being paid to his successor. Smith v. Board of Educ., 23 F. Supp. 328 (E.D. Ky. 1938), aff’d, 111 F.2d 573 (6th Cir. 1940).

On appeal of removal cases, the court can only consider whether the board acted arbitrarily, unlawfully, without authority, without sufficient legal evidence, or abused its discretion. Meade County Bd. of Educ. v. Powell, 254 Ky. 352, 71 S.W.2d 638 (1934); Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936); Starns v. Board of Educ., 280 Ky. 747, 134 S.W.2d 643 (1939).

The motive for initiation of removal proceedings is immaterial. Meade County Bd. of Educ. v. Powell, 254 Ky. 352, 71 S.W.2d 638 (1934); Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

The findings of fact of the board in removal proceedings are conclusive, in the absence of abuse of discretion. Thompson v. Pendleton County Bd. of Educ., 258 Ky. 843, 81 S.W.2d 863 (1935); Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

Hostile or prejudiced attitude of board does not disqualify them to try a removal proceeding. Thompson v. Pendleton County Bd. of Educ., 258 Ky. 843, 81 S.W.2d 863 (1935).

School boards have a wide discretion in removing teachers and employees. Smith v. Board of Educ., 264 Ky. 150, 94 S.W.2d 321 (1936).

In the absence of an affirmative showing to the contrary, 15 days is a sufficient period for the presentation of evidence. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

Where after merger of a county and independent district the board consisted of seven members, a vote of four members was insufficient to oust the superintendent of schools. Since this section requires 80 percent of a five member board to oust the superintendent 80 percent of a seven member board should likewise be required. Wesley v. Board of Educ., 403 S.W.2d 28 (Ky. 1966).

The object of the statutory requirements imposed on the school board is to create a record on which its action may be tested for arbitrariness. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

9. —Cause.

Fact that superintendent filed charges against board members is not legal cause for removal, when he acted in good faith. Smith v. Board of Educ., 264 Ky. 150, 94 S.W.2d 321 (1936).

Political activity is ground for removal. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

Charge, sufficiently supported by evidence, that superintendent had signed contract with director of pupil personnel and sent contract to State Board of Education, without notifying county board and with knowledge that county board had not approved appointment of director of pupil personnel, and that two actions were pending in court involving appointment of director of pupil personnel constituted legal cause for removal of superintendent. Starns v. Board of Educ., 280 Ky. 747, 134 S.W.2d 643 (1939).

The word "cause" means legal cause and not any cause which board authorized to make such removal may deem sufficient and it is implied that removal cannot be at mere will of those vested with power of removal or without any cause but it must be a cause relating to and affecting the administration of the office and must be restricted to something of a substantial nature directly affecting the rights and interests of the public and evidence did not show "good cause or legal cause" which must be the basis of removal of superintendent of schools by county board of education. Bourbon County Bd. of Educ. v. Darnaby, 314 Ky. 419, 235 S.W.2d 66 (1950).

The word "cause" means legal cause and not any cause which the board authorized to make such removal may deem sufficient. Hoskins v. Keen, 350 S.W.2d 467 (Ky. 1961).

Failure to perform duties prescribed by law is cause for removal. Hoskins v. Keen, 350 S.W.2d 467 (Ky. 1961).

The sufficiency of the cause is a question of law for the courts. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

The word "cause," as used in this section, means a "legal" cause. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

10. —Charges.

It is not the duty of the person filing charges to record them on the board's minutes. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

The board cannot be deprived of its power to hear charges because of the failure of the secretary to record the charges in the minutes. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

Written notice served on superintendent setting out charges for removal need not be signed, sworn to or verified. Starns v. Board of Educ., 280 Ky. 747, 134 S.W.2d 643 (1939).

The specified charges must be definite enough to give the accused a fair opportunity to defend himself. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

When the board conducted a hearing, the production of its evidence in support of the charges served the purpose of making specific that which might otherwise have been considered too general from the charges alone. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

11. —Hearing.

Since, under this section, a hearing is not necessary in the first place, the absence of order and fairness in its conduct cannot be prejudicial. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

12. —Evidence.

Although it was a primary responsibility of the school principals to carry out fire drills, their uniform failure to have fire drills over a long period of time sustained the charge that the defendant failed to see that fire drills were carried out. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

Where a witness gave direct testimony sufficient to convict on the allegation that the defendant used or sought to use the distribution of federal relief money to get votes for his candidates, that alone was sufficient to support the board's case. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

13. Procedure on Appeal.

Where the transcript of the proceedings before the board was used in lieu of the introduction of original proof, the dismissed superintendent was free to subject the school board members to interrogation under the Rules of Civil Procedure at any time after his suit was filed. Bell v. Board of Educ., 450 S.W.2d 229 (Ky. 1970).

Where five-member board of education voted to grant superintendent a new four-year contract but due to an election contest one of the members was a de facto officer whose vote could not be counted in determining whether the superintendent was validly appointed to a new term, the superintendent's appointment was valid where two members voted in favor of the contract, one member voted against and one member abstained, for the vote of the member who abstained will be taken as being in favor of the appointment. Board of Educ. v. Nevels, 551 S.W.2d 15 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

DECREES UNDER PRIOR LAW

1. Nature of Office.

A superintendent was a state officer. Commonwealth ex rel. Baxter v. Burnett, 237 Ky. 473, 35 S.W.2d 857 (1931).

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 204-208, 221-225, 228-235, 255, 257, 258.

160.352. Screening committee — Minority representation — Recommendations for superintendent.

(1) For purposes of this section the term “minority” means American Indian; Alaskan native; African-American; Hispanic, including persons of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, and Central or South American origin; Pacific islander; or other ethnic group underrepresented in a local school district.

(2) Each board of education shall appoint a superintendent of schools after receiving the recommendations of a screening committee. A screening committee shall be established within thirty (30) days of a determination by a board of education that a vacancy has occurred or will occur in the office of superintendent, except that when the board determines a vacancy will not occur before six (6) months from the date of determination, the board shall establish a screening committee at least ninety (90) days before the first date on which the position may be filled.

(3) A screening committee shall be composed of:

(a) Two (2) teachers, elected by the teachers in the district;
(b) One (1) board of education member, appointed by the board chairman;
(c) One (1) principal, elected by the principals in the district;
(d) One (1) parent, elected by the presidents of the parent-teacher organizations of the schools in the district;
(e) One (1) classified employee, elected by the classified employees in the district; and
(f) If a minority member is not elected or appointed to a screening committee in districts with a minority population of eight percent (8%) or more, as determined by the enrollment on the preceding October 1, the committee membership shall be increased to include one
(1) minority parent. This minority parent member shall be elected by the parents in an election conducted by the local school board. Parents in the district shall be given adequate notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the election.

(4) Prior to appointing a superintendent of schools, the board of education shall consider the recommendations of the screening committee, but the board shall not be required to appoint a superintendent from the committee’s recommendations.

Opinions of Attorney General. A screening committee may be composed only of those individuals expressly mentioned in this section and to appoint additional members by unilateral action on the part of the board or pursuant to a regulation passed by the Board of Education would be in violation of KRS 13A.120 and KRS 13A.130. OAG 91-3.

While the Board of Education receives recommendations from the screening committee concerning the appointment of a superintendent, the board is not required to appoint a superintendent from the committee’s recommendations; the Board of Education has the discretion to consult with and to receive recommendations from sources other than the committee in order to insure consideration of qualified applicants and to enable the board to honor its commitment to Affirmative Action. OAG 91-3.

While this section unambiguously provides that local school boards establish the rules and procedures governing the superintendent selection committee, the election of the teacher representatives to that committee must be conducted under the sole authority of the teachers themselves. OAG 02-006.

160.360. Assistant superintendents. [Repealed.]

160.370. Superintendent as executive agent of board — Duties.

The superintendent shall be the executive agent of the board that appoints him and shall meet with the board, except when his own tenure, salary, or the administration of his office is under consideration. As executive officer of the board, the superintendent shall see that the laws relating to the schools, the bylaws, rules, and regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education, and the regulations and policies of the district board of education are carried into effect. He may administer the oath required by the board of education to any teacher or other person. He shall be the professional adviser of the board in all matters. He shall prepare, under the direction of the board, all rules, regulations, bylaws, and statements of policy for approval and adoption by the board. He shall have general supervision, subject to the control of the board of education, of the general conduct of the schools, the course of instruction, the discipline of pupils, and the management of business affairs. He shall be responsible for the hiring and dismissal of all personnel in the district.

Cross-References. Boundaries of district, superintendent to furnish to railroad or bridge company, KRS 136.190, 136.990.

Conferences of public school officials, superintendent to attend, KRS 156.190.

Reports of financial matters to state board of education, KRS 157.060.

Opinions of Attorney General. A county board of education regulation, which required that the marriage of any pupil within a school year would be sufficient cause to drop him from school attendance, would probably not be enforceable due to the fact that it did not allow any discretion upon the board's part and applies blanketly without regard to the circumstances of each case. OAG 64-877.

The superintendent of schools may not enter into a binding Kentucky work experience and training program contract on behalf of the district unless authorized to do so by proper action of the school board. OAG 65-411.

A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations, if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

Where the superintendent in the proper exercise of discretion does not recommend a particular certified teacher for a certain vacancy, it is not legally possible to employ that teacher in that district and for the purposes of KRS 161.100, no qualified teacher is available. OAG 69-389.

The superintendent’s professional function in providing recommendations of personnel inherently vests him with the authority and responsibility of exercising sound discretion in determining whether a particular applicant can be recommended based upon the superintendent's professional knowledge and judgment and includes the responsibility and authority to recommend unfavorably and/or withhold recommendations. OAG 69-389.

There is no obligation on a school board's part to negotiate with its employees as the internal management of schools and teachers is vested in the local board of education and through KRS 161.140 (repealed), 161.170, 160.290 and 160.370 the school board has vast control over the compensation, duties, working conditions and related items concerning teachers. OAG 75-126.

An administrative employment policy which was adopted at the same county school board meeting at which it was first presented without an opportunity for the superintendent to make comment or recommendation would be void. OAG 77-336.

A board of education cannot lawfully contract away mandatory obligation of approval given it by the statutes and, therefore, any contractual provisions of a superintendent's contract in derogation of the expressed statutory outline of powers and duties of a superintendent of a public common school system and a local board of education would be void. OAG 76-360.

Where, at the regular June meeting of the board of education, the board ordered the superintendent of schools to advertise for bids for insurance and, at the July regular meeting of the board, the superintendent asked the board to rescind so much of its order to advertise for bids of insurance because negotiations for a contract for insurance were in the making and a motion for the requested recession was passed by a three-two vote, the board voted in essence to ratify the actions of the superintendent by rescinding so much of the order to bid relating to insurance and, since the board of education may ratify any action it could have legally taken in the first place, it was legal for the board not to bid on insurance contracts. OAG 77-518.

If the superintendent of schools is also the secretary of the board, he or she shall not meet with the board when the superintendent’s tenure, salary or the administration of his office is under consideration, for while the two positions of superintendent and secretary may be separable, the body cannot be; in this situation a temporary secretary should be appointed to take the minutes of the board’s proceedings. OAG 78-274.

Since the language in this section, to the effect that the superintendent shall meet with the board except when his own tenure, salary or administration of his office is considered, is merely directory, a local board of education may, by a concurring vote of a majority of the board, waive its statutory prerogative of meeting out of the presence of the superintendent when the superintendent’s tenure, salary or the administration of his office will be considered. OAG 82-604.

A local board of education may open or close a school without the recommendation of the local superintendent. OAG 85-98.

When the legislature provided the superintendent with discretion to recommend a candidate to the board for appointment, the legislature did not choose to restrict the superintendent to one individual; beyond consideration of minimum requirements, set by law, the exercise of discretion necessitates freedom to choose, and where a qualified candidate is related to a board member, the superintendent is not precluded from recommending that candidate, despite the relationship, nor is the board precluded from approving that candidate if it so chooses. OAG 89-58.

There is no authority for a Board of Education to retain some right to hear charges concerning classified employees, to make a decision, and later to direct the superintendent on whether or not to dismiss an employee. OAG 90-129.

School board approval is required when the superintendent decides to move the central business office to a new location requiring substantial expenditure of school funds because the movement of the office is not, primarily, a personnel decision, but one involving the management of business affairs; while the superintendent has responsibility for the management of business affairs, that responsibility is subject to the control of the board of education and moreover, the school board has control and management of all school funds, public school property and school facilities; depending on the steps taken, approval of the Department of Education may also be required. OAG 92-65.

Enacting a seniority policy for classified employees exceeds the legal authority of the board and circumvents the superintendent’s role in personnel matters. It ties the hands of the superintendent in making personnel decision and may be an attempt by the local board to influence the hiring or appointment of district employees in violation of KRS 160.170. OAG 92-133.

The Kentucky Education Reform Act removed personnel duties from the local board and placed the responsibility in the hands of the superintendent. OAG 92-133.

The superintendent has the responsibility to make individual personnel decisions and to define the duties of particular employee positions. However, the local board has the responsibility to manage the entire district, control school funds, set compensation, create and abolish positions of employment and adopt regulations for qualifications and duties of classes of employees. OAG 92-133.

The opinion in OAG 92-133 is overruled since the 1994 General Assembly enacted House Bill 50 (Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 25) which provides local school boards with the authority to adopt a seniority policy for classified employees. OAG 94-37.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Public officer.
3. Liability.
4. Discretion of assistant superintendent.

1. Public Officer.
Superintendent of schools is not an “officer” within Const., §§ 161, 235 and 246 prohibiting change in compensation of officers during term. Board of Educ. v. DeWeese, 343 S.W.2d 598 (Ky. 1960).

2. Management and Control of School Buses.
The superintendent of schools of the county board of education was the executive agent and officer of the board and as such was in charge of the management and control of the school buses owned and operated by the board, with authority to direct the operator of the school bus to permit a member of the county board of education to ride upon the bus and thus save the board the expense of transportation under KRS 160.280 and the board member was lawfully riding in the school bus within the liability policy issued for protection of any school child or other person from negligence of the bus driver. Standard Accident Ins. Co. v. Perry County Bd. of Educ., 72 F. Supp. 142 (E.D. Ky. 1947).

Where memorandum containing guidelines for public school bus drivers was issued by director for transportation services rather than by superintendent of schools, court held that guidelines issued were not tantamount to regulations and that the superintendent had an oversight role and duty of preparation, but not necessarily a duty to write the memorandum at issue. Cornette v. Commonwealth, 899 S.W.2d 502 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

3. Liability.
School superintendent is not liable individually for failing to see that board require school bus contractors to carry liability insurance as required by KRS 160.310. Bronaugh v. Murray, 294 Ky. 715, 172 S.W.2d 591 (1943).

A county board of education could not be held accountable for the failure of its superintendents to properly apply KRS 161.155. Ramsey v. Board of Educ., 789 S.W.2d 784 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

4. Discretion of Assistant Superintendent.
The assistant superintendent was allowed no discretion in enforcing a school board policy which required a high school student to maintain a 2.0 grade point average in five of six classes to remain eligible to participate in extracurricular activities. Thompson v. Fayette County Pub. Sch., 786 S.W.2d 879 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Relative" shall mean father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son, daughter, aunt, uncle, son-in-law, and daughter-in-law.

(b) "Vacancy" shall mean any certified position opening created by the resignation, dismissal, nonrenewal of contract, transfer, or death of a certified staff member of a local school district, or a new position created in a local school district for which certification is required. However, if an employer-employee bargained contract contains procedures for filling certified position openings created by the resignation, dismissal, nonrenewal of contract, transfer, or death of a certified staff member, or creation of a new position for which certification is required, a vacancy shall not exist, unless certified positions remain open after compliance with those procedures.

(2) (a) All appointments, promotions, and transfers of principals, supervisors, teachers, and other public school employees shall be made only by the superintendent of schools, who shall notify the board of the action taken. All employees of the local district shall have the qualifications prescribed by law and by the administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education and of the employing board. Supervisors, principals, teachers, and other employees may be appointed by the superintendent for any school year at any time after February 1 preceding the beginning of the school year. No superintendent of schools shall appoint or transfer himself to another position within the school district.

(b) When a vacancy occurs in a local school district, the superintendent shall notify the chief state school officer thirty (30) days before the position shall be filled. The chief state school officer shall keep a registry of local district vacancies which shall be made available to the public. The local school district shall post position openings in the local board office for public viewing.

(c) When a vacancy needs to be filled in less than thirty (30) days' time to prevent disruption of necessary instructional or support services of the school district, the superintendent may seek a waiver from the chief state school officer. If the waiver is approved, the appointment shall not be made until the person recommended for the position has been approved by the chief state school officer. The chief state school officer shall respond to a district's request for waiver or for approval of an appointment within two (2) working days.

(d) When a vacancy occurs in a local district, the superintendent shall conduct a search to locate minority teachers to be considered for the position. The superintendent shall, pursuant to administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education, report annually the district's recruitment process and the activities used to increase the percentage of minority teachers in the district.

(e) No relative of a superintendent of schools shall be an employee of the school district. However, this shall not apply to a relative who is a classified or certified employee of the school district for at least thirty-six (36) months prior to the superintendent assuming office, or prior to marrying a relative of the superintendent, and who is qualified for the position the employee holds. A superintendent's spouse who has at least twenty (20) years of service in school systems may be an employee of the school district. A superintendent's spouse who is employed under this provision shall not hold a position in which the spouse supervises certified or classified employees. A superintendent's spouse may supervise teacher aides and student teachers. However, the superintendent shall not promote a relative who continues employment under an exception of this subsection.

(f) No superintendent shall employ a relative of a school board member of the district, unless on July 13, 1990, the board member's relative is an employee of the district, the board member is holding office, and the relative was not initially hired by the district during the tenure of the board member. A relative employed in 1989-90 and initially hired during the tenure of a board member serving on July 13, 1990, may continue to be employed during the remainder of the board member's term. However, the superintendent shall not promote any relative of a school board member who continues employment under the exception of this subsection.

(g) 1. No principal's relative shall be employed in the principal's school, except a relative who is not the principal's spouse and who was employed in the principal's school during the 1989-90 school year.

2. No spouse of a principal shall be employed in the principal's school, except:

   a. A principal's spouse who was employed in the principal's school during the 1989-90 school year for whom there is no position for which the spouse is certified to fill in another school operated in the district; or

   b. A principal's spouse who was employed in the 1989-90 school year and is in a school district containing no more than one (1) elementary school, one (1) middle school, and one (1) high school.
3. A principal’s spouse who is employed in the principal’s school shall be evaluated by a school administrator other than the principal.

4. The provisions of KRS 161.760 shall not apply to any transfer made in order to comply with the provisions of this paragraph.

3. No superintendent shall employ in any position in the district any person who is a violent offender or has been convicted of a sex crime as defined by KRS 17.165 which is classified as a felony. The superintendent may employ, at his discretion, persons convicted of sex crimes classified as a misdemeanor.

4. (a) Beginning January 1, 1999, a superintendent shall require a national and state criminal background check on all new certified hires in the school district and student teachers assigned within the district. Excluded are certified individuals who were employed in another certified position in a Kentucky school district within six (6) months of the date of hire and who had previously submitted to a national and state criminal background check for the previous employment.

(b) The superintendent shall require that each new certified hire and student teacher, as set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection, submit to a national and state criminal history background check by the Kentucky State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(c) All fingerprints requested under this section shall be on an applicant fingerprint card provided by Kentucky State Police. The fingerprint cards shall be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation from the Kentucky State Police after a state criminal background check is conducted. The results of the state and federal criminal background check shall be sent to the hiring superintendent. Any fee charged by the Kentucky State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall be an amount no greater than the actual cost of processing the request and conducting the search.

(d) The Education Professional Standards Board may promulgate administrative regulations to impose additional qualifications to meet the requirements of Public Law 92-544.

5. A superintendent shall require a state criminal background check on all classified initial hires.

(a) The superintendent shall require that each classified initial hire submit to a state criminal history background check by the Kentucky State Police.

(b) Any request for records under this section shall be on an applicant fingerprint card provided by Kentucky State Police. The results of the state criminal background check shall be sent to the hiring superintendent. Any fee charged by the Kentucky State Police shall be an amount no greater than the actual cost of processing the request and conducting the search.

6. (a) If a school term has begun and a certified or classified position remains unfilled or if a vacancy occurs during a school term, a superintendent may employ an individual, who will have supervisory or disciplinary authority over minors, on probationary status pending receipt of the criminal history background check. Application for the criminal record of a probationary employee shall be made no later than the date probationary employment begins.

(b) Employment shall be contingent on the receipt of the criminal history background check documenting that the probationary employee has no record of a sex crime nor as a violent offender as defined in KRS 17.165.

(c) Notwithstanding KRS 161.720 to 161.800 or any other statute to the contrary, probationary employment under this section shall terminate on receipt by the school district of a criminal history background check documenting a record of a sex crime or as a violent offender as defined in KRS 17.165 and no further procedures shall be required.

(d) The provisions of KRS 161.790 shall apply to terminate employment of a certified employee on the basis of a criminal record other than a record of a sex crime or as a violent offender as defined in KRS 17.165.

7. (a) Each application or renewal form, provided by the employer to an applicant for a certified position, shall conspicuously state the following: “FOR THIS TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT, STATE LAW REQUIRES A NATIONAL AND STATE CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECK AS A CONDITION OF EMPLOYMENT.”

(b) Each application or renewal form, provided by the employer to an applicant for a certified position, shall conspicuously state the following: “FOR THIS TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT, STATE LAW REQUIRES A NATIONAL AND STATE CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECK AS A CONDITION OF EMPLOYMENT.”

8. The provisions of subsections (4), (5), (6), and (7) of this section shall apply to a nonfaculty coach or nonfaculty assistant as defined under KRS 161.185.

Opinions of Attorney General. While there are no express provisions which would prohibit an outgoing superintendent from recommending himself for a position as principal, an outgoing superintendent is prohibited from taking official action on his own employment. OAG 60-451.
The phrase “and other public school employee” as used in this section, includes the position of director of pupil personnel, and the board of education must accept the recommendation of an outgoing superintendent unless the nominee is found to be morally unfit or educationally unqualified. OAG 60-451.
A board of education is not required to advertise for bids in the selection of school bus drivers. OAG 61-634.
The employment of school bus drivers is not within the purview of either former law identical to present KRS 162.070 or 424.260. OAG 61-634.
An attorney engaged by a county board of education is not a “public school employee” within the meaning of this section and may be engaged without the recommendation of the school superintendent. OAG 67-84.
Where the superintendent in the proper exercise of discretion does not recommend a particular certified teacher for a certain vacancy, it is not legally possible to employ that teacher in that district and for the purposes of KRS 161.100, no qualified teacher is available. OAG 69-389.
The failure of the board to review and approve the transfers of two teachers from one school to another would not of itself invalidate the transfers unless it could be shown that the teachers were improperly transferred to a position to which they were not qualified, or that the transfers were made arbitrarily or solely for political or improper purposes. OAG 71-431.
The movement of two teachers from one school to another in the same school district would constitute a transfer as referred to in this section. OAG 71-431.
When the superintendent and the majority of the board of education are stalemated to the extent that the board will not approve any recommendation for a certain position made by the superintendent, the matter may be submitted to State Board of Education pursuant to this section. OAG 73-353.
The board’s failure to act decisively on the superintendent’s recommendation before May 15 will result in the reemployment of a currently employed teacher for the ensuing school year. OAG 74-661.
As the superintendent is the executive agent of the board of education and has the responsibility to carry out the lawful orders of the board, the order of the board eliminating the position of deputy superintendent for the year 1973-74 and to notify the incumbent is a lawful order but the incumbent must be notified by May 15 that his salary for the next year will be reduced or he will be entitled to at least the same salary he received during the present year. OAG 73-378.
When a board of education officially decides to eliminate a position or not to fill a position for the coming year and to employ the person filling the eliminated position in a position of reduced responsibility and salary, it is necessary that the employee be notified that his position and salary will be reduced for the coming year before May 15 and the superintendent and the board will then have until July 1 to decide on the new position for said employee. OAG 73-378; 76-360.
While a board of education may act only upon the recommendations of the superintendent as to the placement of teachers and other certificated personnel in specific positions in specific schools, it is the board ultimately which must approve such assignments and must give notice to the teachers and other personnel as to their assignment and a superintendent may not place teachers and other certificated personnel in specific jobs in specific schools without the approval of the board of education. OAG 73-523.
While noncertificated employees of the school district may be employed only upon the recommendation of the superintendent, the superintendent may not employ an individual he has recommended without the approval of the board of education. If the board rejects the superintendent’s recommendation, the superintendent may recommend another person for the said position. The board of education may continue to require the superintendent’s recommendations but may not employ a person for the said position that the superintendent has not recommended. It is only when the superintendent and the majority of the board of education are stalemated to the extent that the board will not approve any recommendations for a certain position made by the superintendent that the matter may be submitted to the State Board of Education for resolution. OAG 73-523.
Before a teacher acquires tenure, the school administration need not make a finding as to the moral fitness of a teacher in order to elect that the teacher shall not be reemployed but may base their decision upon fitness to teach. OAG 74-575.
If a teacher can make a case of arbitrary action against him by the local school board or by the State Board of Education, he may obtain relief in court despite the provision that the decision of the State Board shall be final. OAG 74-575.
The State Board of Education sits as an administrative body not as a judicial body and the hearing is not designed to satisfy the requirements of due process of law. OAG 74-575.
The board’s failure to act decisively on the superintendent’s recommendation before May 15 will result in the reemployment of a currently employed teacher for the ensuing school year. OAG 74-661.
If an outgoing superintendent has recommended the appointments of noncertificated personnel and the board desires to approve these recommendations, there is nothing that may be done by the new superintendent, but the superintendent has the power to remove clerks at pleasure. OAG 76-290.
Unless a recommended position reassignment for a certified employee is made and approved by the board of education before July 15, these positions would stand unchanged for the next school year. OAG 76-290.
A board of education cannot lawfully contract away amendingatory obligation of approval given it by the statutes and, therefore, any contractual provisions of a superintendent’s contract in derogation of the expressed statutory outline of powers and duties of a superintendent of a public common school system and a local board of education would be void. OAG 76-290.
A local board of education may create and dispose of administrative positions without a recommendation of the superintendent; however, when an administrative position is created, it is the responsibility of the superintendent to recommend an individual to that position. OAG 77-114.

While an advisory search committee may be established by the board of education to assist the superintendent in seeking out qualified individuals for a position in the school system, in the end it is the superintendent alone who decides who will be recommended to the board to fill a position. OAG 78-41.

A board of education may reject a recommendation or nomination of a local superintendent, whether it is of a certified or classified employee, only for a legal cause of substantial nature relating to and affecting the carrying out of the position for which the individual was recommended. OAG 79-78.

A local board of education may not reject a superintendent’s recommendation regarding personnel employment or appointment for just any reason it chooses, and the reasons for such rejection must be based in good faith on legal causes in order for the rejection to have legal justification. OAG 79-78.

In situations where the board has in good faith, based upon legal causes, rejected the recommendations of a superintendent, it behooves the local board to take the matter to the state board for review. OAG 79-78.

A local board of education can direct the superintendent to make a recommendation relative to a teacher’s contract since a recommendation is required by law and may be a part of appropriately adopted local board policies; the refusal by a superintendent to make a recommendation could be considered legal cause for the superintendent’s removal. OAG 80-205.

Although a superintendent could refuse to make a recommendation to the board of education regarding the renewal or not of a teacher’s contract, such refusal would be a neglect of a lawfully imposed duty. OAG 80-205.

Being a jailer and a school bus driver at the same time involves no statutory incompatibility. However, it is possible that such dual roles will, in a particular county, present a common law incompatibility in that the jailer may not be able to execute both functions in the manner required by law. OAG 82-452.

A board of education cannot discuss the “hiring, firing, promotion or discipline” of individual employees without first receiving a recommendation from the superintendent. OAG 82-379.

The superintendent must make an unequivocal recommendation on personnel matters before the board goes into closed session to discuss specific individuals, and the superintendent’s list of teachers to be employed or not employed is not to be composed in conference between the superintendent and the board. OAG 83-379.

When the legislature provided the superintendent with discretion to recommend a candidate to the board for appointment, the legislature did not choose to restrict the superintendent to one individual; beyond consideration of minimum requirements, set by law, the exercise of discretion necessitates freedom to choose, and where a qualified candidate is related to a board member, the superintendent is not precluded from recommending that candidate, despite the relationship, nor is the board precluded from approving that candidate if it so chooses. OAG 89-58.

Relationships by marriage must be expressly included in a statute making the statutory exception inapplicable. OAG 89-48.

The term “aunt” does not include aunts by marriage, particularly where a statute has expressly prohibited certain relationships by marriage. OAG 90-68.

If a superintendent who received his contract from the local board of education in July, 1989 were to remain superintendent on July 1, 1991, the spouse who has been a classified employee for five years would not be eligible to retain employment under the exception of this section pertaining, generally, to relatives; however, if the spouse has 20 or more years of service in school systems, then that spouse would be eligible to retain employment so long as she would not be supervising other classified employees. OAG 90-94.

Spouses are eligible for the first exception set forth pertaining to relatives in subsection (2)(e) of this section; that is, spouses, along with other qualified relative who are employees of the district prior to July 13, 1990 and who are certified employees, may retain their positions so long as their spouse, the superintendent, holds office on July 1, 1991, and any successor of a superintendent is not precluded from retaining employment under the exception pertaining, generally, to relatives, may be eligible to retain employment under the second exception which pertains to both certified and classified employees by having 20 or more years of service in school systems. OAG 90-94.

The Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990 clearly provides, in transitional sections, that incumbent members of school boards are eligible both to serve out the remainder of their terms, and to run for re-election, despite having relatives who were hired during their tenure employed by the school district; however, the elected candidate will not be eligible to take the oath of office and to serve as a board member unless the relatives first resign from employment. OAG 90-109.

If superintendent’s wife’s employment by the school district does not qualify under one of the two exemptions contained within subdivision (2)(e) of this section, the school board would be required to terminate superintendent’s employment or spouse’s employment effective July 1, 1991. OAG 90-130.

Where a board member has served continuously as a member of the local Board of Education from 1955 up to present year, for re-election in the fall of 1990, and where a spouse worked for the Board of Education as a teacher in 1948-49, before the two were married and the spouse returned to work as a teacher from 1956-1985 and returned in 1986 and is currently employed as a teacher, the spouse’s “initial employment” would be when the spouse most recently came on board and remained continuously employed, that being the school year of 1986-87, and, as the board member became a member of the board in 1955, and the spouse subsequently became employed, the spouse could continue to be employed only for the remainder of the board member’s current term which ended December 31, 1990. OAG 91-10.

The term “principal’s spouse” does not include spouses of an assistant principal, particularly where this section has expressly prohibited certain relationships; had the legislature wished to include spouses of assistant principals the legislature would have done so. OAG 91-13.

Because a classified school employee who is a principal’s spouse is not included in the statutory exception, there are no conditions under which a classified spouse of a principal may work in his or her spouse’s school, but a certified school employee who is the principal’s spouse may work in his or her spouse’s school, but a certified school employee who is the principal’s spouse may work in his or her spouse’s school if: (1) the certified spouse was employed in the principal’s school during the 1989-90 school year; and (2) there is no position for which the certified spouse is certified to fill in another school operated in the district. OAG 91-28.

The requirements of subsection (2)(g) apply to all school employees, whether the employees are certified or classified. OAG 91-28.

The use of the word “certified” in the language of the exception in subsection (2)(g) limits the application of this subsection to certified employees. OAG 90-94.

The term “which the spouse is certified to fill,” indicates that the spouse must be certified to fill some position in the school district for this exception to apply to the spouse. OAG 91-28.

The application of the exception under subdivision (2)(g) of this section depends only on whether a position exists in another school, not on whether a vacancy exists in another school and if an appropriate position exists in another school.
in the district, then the certified spouse must be transferred to that position; an individual occupying the position that is needed for the principal’s spouse must also be transferred to accommodate the transfer of the principal’s spouse. OAG 91-149.

Where the spouse of a superintendent, assuming such spouse had been employed for 20 years or more in the school system, was employed by a school system on July 1, 1990, as a food service director and assuming such position was not supervisory but rather a liaison role, the school board would be able to continue to employ her as food service director after July 1, 1991, without violating subdivision (2)(e) of this section, but if the facts of spouse’s employment are contrary to either of these assumptions, then her continued employment after July 1, 1991, could violate subdivision (2)(e) of this section. OAG 91-64.

Assuming that a school council exists, subdivision (2)(a) of this section, which gives the authority and responsibility for all appointments and promotions of teachers and other public school employees to the superintendent, is qualified by KRS 160.345(2)(g) and (i) to the extent that the superintendent recommends applicants to a particular school and the principal fills the vacancies after consultation with the school council. Therefore, when an initial assignment or the filling of a vacancy is involved, the principal and council make personnel decisions upon receiving the list of recommended applicants from the superintendent. OAG 91-122.

A superintendent may change assignments of personnel prior to July 16 without creating “vacancies” as defined by subsection (1)(b) of this section, but after July 15, when positions are occupied by personnel as assigned by the superintendent, and when certified position openings occur due to resignation, dismissal, transfer, death, nonrenewal of contract, or creation of new positions, those openings constitute “vacancies” under subsection (1)(b) of this section. OAG 91-149.

Coaches’ positions must be handled the same as other extra-duty or extra-curricular assignments in that the distinction to be made is whether the extra duties are added to a new or vacant full-time position or to a separate position as opposed to whether the extra duties are merely assigned to the incumbent of a full-time position. OAG 91-149.

Employment of teachers is deemed to be employment in the district, not in a particular position or school, consequently, assignments of position and school, under certain conditions, do not constitute transfers when those assignments are different from previous assignments of position and school. OAG 91-149.

Generally, paid extra-duty or extra-curricular assignments do not have to be posted in accordance with this section. OAG 91-149.

The superintendent may post extra-duty or extra-curricular assignments which are to be assigned to the incumbent of a full-time position to ensure that anyone who is interested in the position can be considered for the assignments may apply. OAG 91-149.

To the extent that a separate position is created for the purpose of hiring an individual to provide duties which cannot be carried out by a full-time member of the faculty, then the extra-duty or extra-curricular assignments would be posted as part of that position. OAG 91-149.

When extra duties are merely additional assignments, posting of those assignments is not required under the provisions of subsections (2)(a) through (c) of this section, however, when a duty is created or becomes vacant, to the extent that extra-duty or extra-curricular assignments are considered to be attached to the full-time new or vacant position, then the extra-duty or extra-curricular assignments would be posted as part of the new or vacant full-time position. OAG 91-149.

Where a superintendent contemplates filling an opening created by resignation transferring another teacher into that position; filling the second opening by transferring another teacher into the second position, and contemplates advertising the third opening for which he has no specific hiring plan, it is necessary to post each vacancy as it occurs at the end of each school year. OAG 91-149.

Where an interim superintendent’s spouse does not have 20 years’ service in school districts, the spouse is not required to resign, so long as the interim superintendent is not a candidate for permanent appointment, and serves only for the brief period necessary to appoint a permanent superintendent, not to exceed 6 months. OAG 91-179.

The terms “brother” and “sister” include half-brother and half-sister, but not step-child or step-child. OAG 91-206.

A teacher and athletic director in a junior high school who accepts a position in a new high school as teacher and athletic director has not necessarily experienced a promotion; the change may simply be a transfer. OAG 92-1.

Extra-service positions involve payment for additional tasks that a teacher assumes, such as coach or yearbook sponsor, and to conclude that any assumption of special tasks within the school would constitute promotion, when the level of duties may not change in a material way, and when the compensation is small, would appear to be unduly burdensome; therefore, whether assumption of an extra-service position constitutes a promotion will require analysis of the level of duties and responsibilities and of the level of compensation, as well, perhaps, of the manner in which such positions are assumed; without facts to indicate a material and permanent change in duties, extra-service positions would not constitute promotions. OAG 92-1.

The assumption of teaching duties in a full-time position by a former substitute teacher does not necessarily constitute a promotion, as substitute teaching may include part-time or full-time duties, similar in nature to the duties assumed in a regular full-time position; the determination of whether or not a promotion has occurred will depend on the facts of the individual case in question. OAG 92-1.

Under subsection (2)(e) of this section, as of July 1, 1991, a superintendent has been prohibited from employing a relative as a principal for its school in the event there is a vacancy in the school district. The prohibition does not apply to a superintendent’s spouse who has 20 years of service in school systems so long as the superintendent’s spouse does not supervise anyone other than teacher aides and student teachers. OAG 92-45.

Subsection (2)(e) of this section prohibits supervisory responsibilities that is regular and permanent, and not to encompass the occasional episodes that may occur when one acts, temporarily, in the place of the principal. OAG 92-45.

A superintendent can transfer a principal from site based school A to site based school B upon the retirement of the current principal in school B, without council approval, making a vacancy in site based school A, if schools A and B are not school-based decision making schools. OAG 92-78.

The superintendent has ultimate authority over personnel decisions affecting non-certified or classified staff in the school district. Nevertheless, principals and school councils share responsibility over certain personnel decisions, related to classified employees. OAG 92-135.

It is consistent with the goals of KERA for a superintendent to receive input from a council-elect prior to selecting a principal for its school in the event there is a vacancy in the spring before council members’ terms officially begin. However, the final decision will remain with the superintendent. OAG 93-51.

A vacancy, as defined by KRS 160.380(1)(b), can occur at any time during the year, not just after July 15. As a general rule, when a vacancy occurs in a local school district, the superintendent must notify the Kentucky Department of Education, and post the position opening in the local school board office for thirty days before filling the position. OAG 97-7, withdrawing, in pertinent part, OAG 91-149.
A school superintendent cannot promote his son to assistant principal in the same school district; changing from the position of teacher to assistant principal constitutes a promotion, regardless of whether there is a corresponding salary increase, and a superintendent is prohibited by subsection (2)(e) from promoting a relative. OAG 99-6.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

12. Time for appointments.
15. Teaching credentials.
17. Removal of superintendent.
18. Erroneous designation of position.
20. Liability of local boards of education.

1. Constitutionality.
Subdivision (2)(f) of this section does not violate the First Amendment, nor the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Chapman v. Gorman, 839 S.W.2d 232 (Ky. 1992).

Since the General Assembly has made a strong showing of intent to eradicate nepotism within the school districts of the Commonwealth, this legislation enjoys a strong presumption of constitutionality. Kentucky Dep’t of Educ. v. Risner, 913 S.W.2d 327 (Ky. 1996).

2. Application.
This section does not apply to the employment of school bus drivers, since the board has the privilege of either contracting with a person who provides his own vehicle or hiring drivers for vehicles owned by the board. Smith v. Rose, 293 Ky. 583, 169 S.W.2d 609 (1943).

Janitors, bus drivers, and mechanics are public employees within the meaning of this section. Reed v. Greene, 243 S.W.2d 892 (Ky. 1951).

Certified public accountant hired by board to audit records is independent contractor and not employee requiring recommendation of superintendent. Lewis v. Morgan, 292 S.W.2d 691 (Ky. 1952).

An attorney employed by the board in an attorney-client relationship is an independent contractor and not a “public school employee” within the meaning of this section. Hobson v. Howard, 367 S.W.2d 249 (Ky. 1963).

3. State Employees.
A principal is a state employee. Board of Trustees v. Renfroe, 259 Ky. 644, 83 S.W.2d 27 (1935).

Teachers in the common schools are state employees. Board of Educ. v. Talbott, 261 Ky. 66, 86 S.W.2d 1059 (1935).

4. Recommendations.
A verbal recommendation is sufficient if made in person by the superintendent. Amburgey v. Draughn, 288 Ky. 128, 155 S.W.2d 740 (1941).

This section contemplates that the superintendent of schools shall nominate teachers for the next school year at some time between April 1 and the beginning of the next school year on July 1, though the particular school may not open until a later date. Beckham v. Kimbell, 282 Ky. 648, 139 S.W.2d 747 (1940).

Where superintendent attempted to recommend teachers at two separate meetings, and at the first meeting the board refused to consider recommendations because two members of board were absent, although a quorum was present, at second meeting board claimed that recommendations could not be considered because it was a special meeting, and at third meeting board adjourned when superintendent offered recommendations, conduct of board indicated a fixed determination to thwart recommendations, which amounted to an unjustified rejection. O’Daniel v. McDaniel, 290 Ky. 77, 160 S.W.2d 331 (1942).

The fact that the list containing recommendations was filed with minutes, and was later used by board in making some appointments, the fact that the board expunged at a later meeting so much of minutes as recited that superintendent had offered list to board did not make recommendations ineffective. O’Daniel v. McDaniel, 290 Ky. 77, 160 S.W.2d 331 (1942).

The recommendation of teachers may be written or oral. O’Daniel v. McDaniel, 290 Ky. 77, 160 S.W.2d 331 (1942).

Teachers may be employed by the local board of education only upon the recommendation of the local superintendent of schools, and any employment without that recommendation is void. Gaines v. Board of Educ., 554 S.W.2d 394 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

5. —Appointments.
Failure of superintendent to object to appointment by county board of education without her recommendation did not estop her from objecting where the appointment was being used to perpetuate appointee in office. Beverly v. Highfield, 307 Ky. 179, 209 S.W.2d 739 (1948).

An appointment or election of a school principal by the county board of education without the recommendation of the county superintendent is void and the principal cannot use it as a foundation upon which to rest his claim that because of it the board is compelled to continue his employment. Beverly v. Highfield, 307 Ky. 179, 209 S.W.2d 739 (1948).

6. —Time for Approval.
Since school year begins July 1, teachers must be chosen by that date, and school board cannot refuse to act on recommendations before that date or postpone action until after that date. Cottongim v. Stewart, 277 Ky. 706, 127 S.W.2d 149 (1939).

The board of education cannot divest a nominated teacher of his rights by postponing its approval of his nomination until after July 1 without legal cause. Beckham v. Kimbell, 282 Ky. 648, 139 S.W.2d 747 (1940).

It is the duty of the superintendent to nominate teachers for the ensuing year, and the duty of the board to accept the nominations, in the absence of cause for rejection, before the beginning of the school year. Duff v. Cheney, 291 Ky. 308, 164 S.W.2d 483 (1942).

A teacher recommended by the superintendent has a vested right to have her nomination recognized by the board before the school year begins. Duff v. Chaney, 291 Ky. 308, 164 S.W.2d 483 (1942).

7. —Approval.
It is ordinarily the duty of the board to employ persons nominated by the superintendent, provided said nominees possess the necessary moral and educational qualifications. Hall v. Boyd County Bd. of Educ., 265 Ky. 500, 97 S.W.2d 38 (1936).

Board members have a discretion in voting on an applicant who is related to one of the board members, notwithstanding the applicant is duly qualified and nominated. Hall v. Boyd County Bd. of Educ., 265 Ky. 500, 97 S.W.2d 38 (1936).

It is the duty of the board to approve appointment of those recommended, except in instances where substantial cause is shown. Amburgey v. Draughn, 288 Ky. 128, 155 S.W.2d 740 (1941).

School board was entitled to reject a recommendation for a continuing contract for a teacher without a finding of cause. Dorr v. Fitzer, 525 S.W.2d 462 (Ky. 1975).

KRS 161.740 providing that "if the teacher is employed by the board" a continuing contract shall be issued, when construed in regard to its relation with this section, means that the board has an open choice whether or not to make the employment that will result in a continuing contract. Dorr v. Fitzer, 525 S.W.2d 462 (Ky. 1975).

8. —Rejection.
Action by teacher whose recommendation for employment had been rejected without cause was primarily against school board, and it was only necessary to join teacher who, through customary mode of appointment, was put in her place, and not teacher who had been given her place by subsequent shifting of teachers. Cottongim v. Stewart, 277 Ky. 706, 127 S.W.2d 149 (1939).

Arbitrary action of school board members in rejecting nominations of teachers by superintendent would be grounds for removal, and would perhaps subject them to liability for loss to school fund by payments to teachers wrongfully employed. Cottongim v. Stewart, 277 Ky. 706, 127 S.W.2d 149 (1939).

Where nominations were presented by superintendent at board meeting, and motion to accept recommendation and employ teachers was lost, the action of the board was a rejection, and later resolutions changing the minutes to show otherwise were ineffective. Cottongim v. Stewart, 277 Ky. 706, 127 S.W.2d 149 (1939).

Where a county has been made one district by the consolidation and abolition of subdistricts, the county superintendent has the authority to nominate teachers, and his recommendations can be rejected only for cause. Cottongim v. Stewart, 277 Ky. 706, 127 S.W.2d 149 (1939).

Nomination under this section of a teacher possessing the requisite qualifications gives him the prima facie right of approval, and the burden of showing legal disqualification rests upon the board of education. Beckham v. Kimbell, 282 Ky. 648, 139 S.W.2d 747 (1940).

The power of the board of education to disapprove prospective teachers nominated by the superintendent of schools must not be exercised arbitrarily; the board must show some legal cause for disapproving the persons nominated. Beckham v. Kimbell, 282 Ky. 648, 139 S.W.2d 747 (1940).

General conclusions by board of education that certain certified persons nominated as teachers were not "fit" or "suitable" did not show sufficient legal cause for rejection of nominations. Beckham v. Kimbell, 282 Ky. 648, 139 S.W.2d 747 (1940).

Although teacher whose recommendation for position of principal was unlawfully rejected had not suffered any monetary loss because she was employed as ordinary teacher at same salary as principal, and although term for which recommendation was made had expired at time of appeal to court of appeals, teacher was nevertheless entitled to judgment hold-locked vote such deadlock did not constitute approval under the terms of this section, and consequently, the attempted transfer was invalid. Burkhart v. Board of Educ., 649 S.W.2d 855 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

10. —Arbitrariness.
A mere showing by school employees that the school board gave no legitimate reasons for the transfers would not be enough, in the absence of a showing of circumstances attending the transfer such as would raise an inference of arbitrariness. Snapp v. Deskins, 450 S.W.2d 246 (Ky. 1970).

The strength of the inferences of arbitrariness is to be measured in the light of the very broad discretionary authority necessarily vested in the superintendent and board of education in the administration of the schools. Snapp v. Deskins, 450 S.W.2d 246 (Ky. 1970).

11. —Justification.
The burden is not on the board, initially, to justify the transfers of employees, and the burden will shift to the board only when the complaining employees have made an affirmative showing of nonjustification. Snapp v. Deskins, 450 S.W.2d 246 (Ky. 1970).

12. Time for Appointments.
A county superintendent of schools may be appointed prior to the first day of April in the year in which his term begins provided the appointment is made by the same board that is authorized to act when the vacancy actually occurs but this does not mean that the personnel of the board must remain the same but that members in office at the time the appointment is made must extend beyond the date when the term of the appointed officer begins. Maynard v. Allen, 276 Ky. 485, 124 S.W.2d 765 (1939).

13. Rights of Employee.
When approval of nominations is arbitrarily refused, the law implies a contract which may be specifically enforced, and for breach of which damages may be allowed against the board members individually to the extent to which damage could not be minimized by the nominee, the burden of proving an effort to minimize damages being on the nominee. Amburgey v. Draughn, 288 Ky. 128, 155 S.W.2d 740 (1941).

Teacher whose nomination has been wrongfully rejected or ignored has no cause of action against members of board individually until they have caused payments to be made to another teacher employed for the same position. Duff v. Chaney, 291 Ky. 308, 164 S.W.2d 483 (1942).

Superintendent who recommends teacher in place of one whose nomination by former superintendent was wrongfully rejected is personally liable in damages. Duff v. Chaney, 291 Ky. 308, 164 S.W.2d 483 (1942).

A teacher whose nomination has been wrongfully rejected or ignored by the board has the right, before the board has employed and paid another teacher in her place, to compel the board by suit for specific performance to accept her recommendation; if she waits until after the board has employed and paid another teacher in her place, to compel the board members individually to the extent to which damage could not be minimized by the nominee, the burden of proving an effort to minimize damages being on the nominee. Amburgey v. Draughn, 288 Ky. 128, 155 S.W.2d 740 (1941).
under KRS 160.380(2)(a), (b); likewise, a school district making purchases without approval, not accounting for funds earmarked for a specific purpose, and not balancing sections of the budget would affect and interest the community taxpayers. Banks v. Wolfe County Bd. of Educ., 330 F.3d 888, 2003 Fed. App. 184 (6th Cir. 2003).

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

ANALYSIS

1. Recommendations.
2. — Approval.
3. — Withdrawal.

1. Recommendations.

   It is not necessary that the recommendations be made in writing; a verbal recommendation is sufficient if it is made in person by the superintendent. Hudson v. Ohio County Bd. of Educ., 253 Ky. 709, 70 S.W.2d 375 (1934).

   The county superintendent may nominate teachers in all county schools except in subdistrict schools, where only the elementary grades, that is, up to or through the eighth grade, are taught. Hudson v. Ohio County Bd. of Educ., 253 Ky. 709, 70 S.W.2d 375 (1934). See Wilson v. Alsip, 256 Ky. 466, 76 S.W.2d 288 (1934).

2. — Approval.

   If a nominee possesses the necessary educational and moral qualifications it is the duty of the board to approve of his recommendation. Stith v. Powell, 251 Ky. 155, 64 S.W.2d 491 (1933).

3. — Withdrawal.

   A superintendent may withdraw a nomination at the meeting at which it is considered. Stith v. Powell, 251 Ky. 155, 64 S.W.2d 491 (1933).

   Upon rejection of a nominee by the board, the superintendent may withdraw said nomination, and nominate another. Hale v. Board of Educ., 254 Ky. 96, 70 S.W.2d 975 (1934).

160.390. General duties as to condition of schools — Responsibilities — Reports.

1. The superintendent shall devote himself exclusively to his duties. He shall exercise general supervision of the schools of his district, examine their condition and progress, and keep himself informed of the progress in other districts. He shall prepare or have prepared all budgets, salary schedules, and reports required of his board by the Kentucky Board of Education. He shall advise himself of the need of extension of the school system, shall receive and examine reports from teachers and other school officers, and shall make reports from time to time as required by the rules of his board or as directed by the board. He shall be responsible to the board for the general condition of the schools. He shall be responsible for all personnel actions including hiring, assignments, transfer, dismissal, suspension, reinstatement, promotion, and demotion and reporting the actions to the local board.

2. All personnel actions by the superintendent as described in subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the local board of education at the next meeting after the action is taken and shall not be effective prior to receipt of written notice of the personnel action by the affected employee from the superintendent.

Opinions of Attorney General. If an outgoing superintendent had recommended the appointments of noncertified personnel and the board desires to approve these recommendations, there is nothing that may be done by the new superintendent, but the superintendent has the power to remove clerks at pleasure. OAG 76-290.

This section cannot be construed to prohibit or even necessarily curtail the nonschool related activities of a local superintendent of schools. OAG 79-149.

There is no authority for a Board of Education to retain some right to hear charges concerning classified employees, to make a decision, and later to direct the superintendent on whether or not to dismiss an employee; the only involvement of the board after July 13, 1990, is to receive notice of the action taken by the superintendent. OAG 90-129.

As an employee of the local board of education, the superintendent is bound to carry out the duties and responsibilities assigned by the board so long as those duties are permissible under the law; the superintendent is to prepare all budgets, salary schedules, and reports required by the local board of education and by the state board of elementary and secondary education. OAG 92-29.

School board approval is required when the superintendent decides to move the central business office to a new location requiring substantial expenditure of school funds because the movement of the office is not, primarily, a personnel decision, but one involving the management of business affairs; while the superintendent has responsibility for the management of business affairs, that responsibility is subject to the control of the board of education and moreover, the school board has control and management of all school funds, public school property and school facilities; depending on the steps taken, approval of the Department of Education may also be required. OAG 92-65.

Members of the board of education may only inspect the nonexempt records contained in the personnel files of certified and classified employees. Since the board of education no longer plays any role in personnel actions, it does not enjoy any greater right of access to the files and board’s right to inspect the personnel files of certified and classified employees of the school system is therefore the same as the right of inspection enjoyed by any citizen under this section. OAG 92-141.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. Administrative duties.
2. Application.

1. Administrative Duties.

This section requires the superintendent and, necessarily, the assistant superintendent, to devote themselves exclusively to their duties, which are administrative in nature and do not include teaching, and the holding of the incompatible position of teacher operates to prevent a duly appointed assistant superintendent from being entitled to compensation as assistant superintendent. Richardson v. Bell County Bd. of Educ., 296 Ky. 520, 177 S.W.2d 871 (1944).

2. Application.

Since superintendent’s action in demoting school administrator was effective when administrator received notice of demotion from superintendent, while KRS 161.765 admittedly provides administrators with enhanced procedural protections, it does nothing to change the effective date of a demotion, and it is that effective date that controls for the purpose of the May 15 deadline set forth in KRS 161.760 and the fact that an administrator might contest the demotion, and thus the action might not become final for some time is of no consequence under subsection (2) of the section. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

KRS 161.760(2) does not require finality to effect a reduction in salary and by its very terms subsection (2) of this section makes the superintendent’s personnel action effective upon receipt of the written notice by the affected employee; therefore, where administrator received notice of demotion on April 26 followed by a specific statement of reasons for the demotion on May 9, the requirements of KRS 161.760(3) have been met. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

160.400. Duties of outgoing superintendent.

An outgoing superintendent shall, before his last month’s salary is paid, make all reports required by law to date of his retirement and shall have information assembled to date of his retirement for any reports to be made by the incoming superintendent.

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-34) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 438, effective July 13, 1994.

Opinions of Attorney General. If the superintendent of schools is also the secretary of the board, he or she shall not meet with the board when the superintendent’s tenure, salary or the administration of his office is under consideration, for while the two positions of superintendent and secretary may be separable, the body cannot be; in this situation a temporary secretary should be appointed to take the minutes of the board’s proceedings. OAG 78-274.

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 351, 352.

160.410. Expenses of superintendent and employees.

A board of education may pay the necessary expenses of its superintendent and other employees when such expenses are incurred on order of the board.

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-35) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 439, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where the use of the superintendent of school’s personal car on school business was not considered and approved by the board of education prior to the use, the board could not legally pay the superintendent’s claim for reimbursement. OAG 77-331.

A school district may not advance money to its employees for travel or other necessary expenses prior to the expense actually being incurred since the applicable statutes contemplate reimbursement, not an advancement of money. OAG 80-395.

It is within the legal prerogative of the local board to fairly establish the nature of professional activities for which it will be willing to incur expenses. OAG 83-228.

While there is a legal basis for the expenditure of school monies for professional activities, a school board is not mandated to approve the incurring of these expenses and costs for reimbursement from school funds. OAG 83-228.

Within reason, school boards are permitted to bear the direct and indirect expenses incurred by teachers and administrators who attend, after prior approval by the board, professional activities and functions; however, school boards are not wholly unfettered in exercising their discretion in approving attendance at sundry professional activities since Const., §§ 180 and 184 require that school funds may be used only for school purposes, the test being whether the expenditure is for an educational purpose rather than whether an activity might be beneficial to education. OAG 83-228.

It is legal for a board of education to pay salaries and/or expenses, including travel, lodging, and meals for school administrators to attend business sessions of their respective professional organizations, training and professional improvement meetings conducted by their professional organization and accreditation associations to which their schools or districts belong and/or lobbying activities conducted by their professional associations. OAG 83-228.

It is legal for a board of education to pay salaries and/or expenses, including travel, lodging, meals, and substitute teachers, for teachers to attend business sessions of their respective professional organizations, training and professional improvement meetings conducted by their professional organization, and/or lobbying activities conducted by their organization. OAG 83-228.

160.420. Interest in teacher’s claim prohibited. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-36) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. VI, § 616, effective July 13, 1990.

160.430. Business directors in cities of first two classes. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-37) was repealed by Acts 1966, ch. 89, § 16.

(1) The local district superintendent shall appoint a finance officer who shall be responsible for the cash, investment, and financial management of the school district.

(2) The school finance officer shall be required to complete forty-two (42) hours of continuing education every two (2) years from a provider approved by the Department of Education.

160.440. Secretary of board of education.

Each board of education shall appoint a secretary for a term of one (1), two (2), three (3), or four (4) years. The secretary shall not be a member of the board of education. The board of education of any district may appoint its superintendent as secretary. However, a superintendent who serves as secretary to the board shall not receive compensation in addition to that which he receives for serving as superintendent. The board may fix a reasonable salary for the secretary. The secretary shall keep the records of the board and perform other duties imposed upon him by the board. All orders of the board must be signed by the secretary and countersigned by the chairman of the board. The secretary shall be custodian of all securities, documents, title papers, and other papers of the board under such conditions as the board may direct. The secretary, when other than the superintendent, shall make all records of the board available to the superintendent and the board of education at any time and shall furnish the superintendent of schools and the board of education such information as is revealed by the records at any time upon the request of the superintendent or the board of education.

Opinions of Attorney General. The secretary to the board of education is not a public officer within the meaning of Const., § 235 and consequently, subject to the general principles of contract law, the salary of the secretary may be changed during his term. OAG 60-480.

The secretary of a board of education is an employee and not an officer and, by mutual agreement, his contract may be renegotiated both as to salary and to length of term of office. OAG 61-509.

Serving as a legal assistant is not a legitimate duty to be imposed upon the secretary to the local board of education. OAG 78-274.

The amendment of this section by Acts 1990, ch. 176, pt. II, § 91, which provided that a superintendent may not be paid for secretarial duties performed for the board of education, terminates a contract between a superintendent and a school board that allows the superintendent to be paid for serving as secretary to the board; however, compensation already paid to a superintendent for performance of a pre-existing contract since adoption of the Kentucky Education Reform Act need not be refunded since no legal recovery can be had a subsequent illegal performance. OAG 91-63.

ANALYSIS

1. Superintendent as secretary.
2. Notice of special meetings.
3. Custodian of records.
4. Recordation of charges upon minutes.

1. Superintendent as Secretary.

The statutory limit imposed by KRS 64.620 (now repealed) on officers and employees of local governmental units does not apply to officers and employees of school districts as they are deemed officers and employees of the state under KRS 64.600 (now repealed) and the addition of $3,000 secretarial salary to the $7,000 salary and $600 expense account of a superintendent when he served in both capacities was within the authority of the school board and there was no basis to support contention that the $3,000 compensation of the superintendent for acting as secretary of the board exceeded a reasonable amount as authorized by this section. Board of Educ. v. DeWeese, 343 S.W.2d 598 (Ky. 1960).

Where all five members of the board of education were present at meeting where superintendent was appointed secretary of the board, but due to the fact that the vote of one member should have been disregarded since her election had been declared invalid by the court, the vote on the motion to appoint superintendent as secretary would have been a tie vote, the appointment of the superintendent as secretary was an invalid appointment. Board of Educ. v. Nevels, 551 S.W.2d 15 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

2. Notice of Special Meetings.

Notices of special meetings may be delivered by the secretary. Board of Educ. v. Stevens, 261 Ky. 475, 88 S.W.2d 3 (1935).

3. Custodian of Records.

The secretary is custodian of the records of the board, and acts under the supervision of the superintendent. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

4. Recordation of Charges upon Minutes.

Failure of the secretary to record charges upon the minutes does not deprive the board of its right to hear and try the charges against an employee. Hunter v. Board of Educ., 265 Ky. 162, 96 S.W.2d 265 (1936).

DISTRICT FINANCES

160.450 Fiscal year of school districts.

The fiscal year of all school districts shall begin on July 1 and end on June 30. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 440, effective July 13, 1990.)

160.455 Definition of tax-levying authority.

160.460 Levy of school taxes — Procedures.

(1) All school taxes shall be levied by the board of education of each school district. The tax-levying authority shall levy an ad valorem tax within the limits prescribed in KRS 160.470, which will obtain for the school district the amount of money needed as shown in the district’s general school budget submitted under the provisions of KRS 160.470.
(2) The tax-levying authority shall make an annual school levy not later than July 1. The school levy shall not be made until the general school budget has been received and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education. The failure of the authority to make the levy by the date prescribed shall not invalidate any levy made thereafter.

(3) All school taxes shall be levied on all property subject to local taxation in the jurisdiction of the tax-levying authority. If the school levy is to be made upon the city assessment, which is hereby authorized for independent school districts embraced by the city, the clerk of the city shall furnish to the school district or districts which the city embraces, the assessed valuation of property subject to local taxation in the school district, as determined by its tax assessor. If the school levy is to be made upon the county assessment the county clerk shall furnish to the proper school district or districts the assessed valuation of property subject to local taxation in the district or districts, as certified by the Kentucky Revenue Cabinet. No later than July 1, 1994, all real property located in the state and subject to local taxation shall be assessed at one hundred percent (100%) of fair cash value.

(Cross-References. Bank franchise and local deposit tax, KRS 136.560 to 136.575.

Revenue Cabinet to certify to county clerk the portion of corporate franchises or tangible property subject to local taxation, KRS 136.180.

Foundation program fund, distribution of, Const., § 186; KRS 273.130.

Lien for taxes, KRS 132.990, 134.420.

Municipal electric plant to pay sum equivalent to tax based on book value, KRS 96.820.

Municipal light, water or gas plant may pay tax equivalent to school district, KRS 96.536.

Property of dissolved religious society to go to county seminary, KRS 273.130.

Superintendent of schools may recommend assessment changes, KRS 133.120.

Tax rate not to be fixed until assessment is certified by tax commission to county clerk, KRS 133.185.

Opinions of Attorney General. When a portion of an independent school district lies outside of the city limits, the school district is not “embraced” by the city within the meaning of subsection (1) (now (2)) of this section and the fiscal court is the levying authority for school taxes and the governmental unit which approves the school budget. OAG 61-414.

There is no deadline in terms of a calendar date by which a city board of education must submit its tax rate to the city. OAG 64.380.

An independent school district in the city could not share part of the expense incurred by the city in reassessing property located within the city. OAG 67-1.

Where an independent school district is composed of different cities, the tax-levying authority is the governing body of each city in the district. OAG 68-584.

Where not all of the residents of three cities included in an independent school district lived inside the school district and one city had its own tax assessor while two other cities were assessed by the county assessor, the proper tax-levying authority for the district was the county fiscal court and the election expense should be borne by the fiscal court. OAG 69-2.

School taxes shall be levied by the fiscal court in each county, except in independent school districts embraced by cities of the first four classes. OAG 74-187.

Local boards of education must assume all administrative responsibility concerning bond issues for school sites and buildings; however, since school financing is done almost exclusively through school building revenue bonds pursuant to KRS 162.210 to 162.300 and KRS 58.010 to 58.120 inclusive, there is no authority for any change in the preexisting procedure used for school revenue bonds and the fiscal courts and county treasurers must continue to perform the customary functions heretofore served by them in that regard. OAG 77-497.

Pursuant to this section and KRS 132.280, independent school districts embraced in cities of the first four classes may use the city assessment or the county assessment. OAG 77-497.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. All school taxes state taxes.

2. Levy.

3. —Time of making.

4. —Refusal.

5. —Amount.

6. Surplus revenue.

7. Taxing district.

8. Collection of delinquent taxes.

1. All School Taxes State Taxes.

A local school tax is a state tax. Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337 (1941).

2. Levy.

Where boundary lines of independent school district were not coterminous with those of the city, the fiscal court of the county was the tax-levying authority for the district. Howard v. Board of Educ., 311 Ky. 130, 223 S.W.2d 721 (1949).

Tax levy made on June 21 was valid, in view of provision of this section that failure to make levy in April should not invalidate a levy thereafter made. Harlan-Wallins Coal Corp. v. Cawood, 303 Ky. 544, 198 S.W.2d 218 (1946) (Decision prior to 1949 amendment).

4. —Refusal.

When the council relies on bad faith or corruption as ground for refusal to make the levy desired by the school board, the bad faith or corruption must be clearly charged. White v. Board of Educ., 263 Ky. 91, 91 S.W.2d 539 (1936).

Inaccuracies in estimated items in county school budget submitted by board of education, due to subsequent developments, did not justify fiscal court's refusal to levy taxes required by budget, in absence of showing board had acted illegally or in bad faith. Stokley v. Fleming County Bd. of Educ., 305 Ky. 602, 205 S.W.2d 168 (1947).

5. — Amount.
The board of education of a city of the second class has the exclusive right to determine within lawful limits the amount of money necessary to be expended and the items for which it shall be expended in the operation of the schools, and, unless the board of commissioners of the city can show an illegal expenditure, or a computation unlawfully arrived at, or bad faith on the part of the school board, it must levy a tax within the limits prescribed by the Constitution and statutes sufficient to raise the revenue required under the provisions of the budget filed with it by the board of education. The board of commissioners has no legal right to question the advisability of the expenditure of the items contained in the budget submitted. City of Paducah v. Board of Educ., 289 Ky. 284, 158 S.W.2d 615 (1942).

Since the legislature has provided for penalties to offset any deficiency which might be incurred by failure to pay taxes when due, commissioners were within legal rights in deciding that a $1.00 levy requested by the school board was based on a computation unlawfully arrived at, as it appeared 89 cents would produce sufficient revenue if fully collected. City of Paducah v. Board of Educ., 289 Ky. 284, 158 S.W.2d 615 (1942).

The board of commissioners of a second-class city performs its whole duty when it levies upon the taxable property of the city a tax which, when collected, will produce the sum requested by the board and it is not required to levy a higher tax on the theory that some of the taxpayers will fail to pay during the year for which the tax is levied. City of Paducah v. Board of Educ., 289 Ky. 284, 158 S.W.2d 615 (1942).

The fiscal court must levy the ad valorem tax and the poll tax at the rate specified by the board of education; it has no discretion in the matter. Fiscal Court v. Board of Educ., 294 Ky. 758, 172 S.W.2d 624 (1943).

Where board of education undertook to have two levies simultaneously made upon bank shares, namely, 40¢ for general purposes and 50¢ for special purposes the trial court reasonably apportioned the 40¢ maximum between the general and special purpose in the proportion that the resolution of the board of education called to be levied on all other property, namely, $1.50 for general school purposes and 50¢ for special school building purpose. Board of Educ. v. Citizens Fid. Bank & Trust Co., 263 S.W.2d 112 (Ky. 1953).

Where a proposed general budget for fiscal year was submitted to the fiscal court and to the State Board of Education for approval by county board of education as provided by KRS 160.470 requesting it to impose a general school tax of $1.50 per $100 valuation of property subject to local tax and Superintendent of Public Instruction certified to the board that the rate of $1.57 for general school purposes the trial court should have levied and imposed a tax rate of $1.57 for general school purposes. Holmes v. Walden, 394 S.W.2d 458 (Ky. 1965).

The mere fact that an expenditure will absorb that portion of anticipated revenue which would otherwise have been surplus does not preclude the school board from making necessary expenditures upon discovery that the funds are available for that purpose. City of Paducah v. Board of Educ., 289 Ky. 284, 158 S.W.2d 615 (1942).

7. Taxing District.
A board of education is a taxing district or municipality. Lee v. Board of Educ., 261 Ky. 379, 87 S.W.2d 961 (1935).

In independent districts embracing cities of the first four classes, it is the duty of the city, and not of the school board, to cause delinquent taxes to be collected and to allow credits thereon. McKinney's Adm'r v. Commonwealth ex rel. Bd. of Educ., 260 Ky. 608, 86 S.W.2d 167 (1935).

9. Decisions by Local School Board.
The underlying theme of this section is that the actual decisions addressed hereunder are to be made by the local school board, not the state. Blackburn v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 749 F. Supp. 159 (E.D. Ky. 1990).

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

ANALYSIS

1. In general.
2. Levy.

1. In General.
The fiscal court must make the levy requested when the proposed budget shows facts authorizing it, and the board has not acted in bad faith. Elliott County Fiscal Court v. Elliott County Bd. of Educ., 193 Ky. 66, 234 S.W. 947 (1921); Board of Educ. v. Fiscal Court, 229 Ky. 774, 17 S.W.2d 1009 (1929); McCracken County Fiscal Court v. McCravy County Bd. of Educ., 236 Ky. 149, 32 S.W.2d 741 (1930); Hockensmith v. County Bd. of Educ., 240 Ky. 76, 41 S.W.2d 656 (1931); Allen County Fiscal Court v. Allen County Bd. of Educ., 242 Ky. 546, 46 S.W.2d 1070 (1932); Madison County Bd. of Educ. v. Madison County Fiscal Court, 246 Ky. 201, 54 S.W.2d 652 (1932); Newell v. Cincinnati, N.O. & T.P. Ry., 246 Ky. 628, 55 S.W.2d 662 (1932).

All taxes imposed for common school purposes in this state are state taxes even though they are for use in schools located in the territory affected by the tax. Paducah-Illinois R.R. v. Graham, 46 F.2d 806 (W.D. Ky. 1931); Commonwealth ex rel. Milton Bd. v. Louisville Nat'l Bank, 220 Ky. 89, 294 S.W. 815 (1927).

2. Levy.
Mandamus may issue to compel the calling of a special term of the fiscal court and the making of a levy. Fiscal Court v. Board of Educ., 191 Ky. 263, 230 S.W. 57 (1921).

If the levy requested is insufficient, the court may levy a sufficient tax. Madison County Bd. of Educ. v. Madison County Fiscal Court, 246 Ky. 201, 54 S.W.2d 652 (1932); Newell v. Cincinnati, N.O. & T.P. Ry., 246 Ky. 628, 55 S.W.2d 662 (1932).

Fact that State Board of Education had not approved the tax rate is not fatal. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000 (1934).

The form of the levy is not material. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000 (1934).

Compiler's Notes. This section (Acts 1972, ch. 254, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1978, ch. 275, § 1, effective June 17, 1978.

160.463. Publication of financial statements of school systems in counties of 300,000.
The school board of each public school system in any county having 300,000 or more inhabitants shall direct its superintendent to publish, in full, annually, in the newspaper of the largest general circulation in the county, the annual financial statements of the school system audited by certified public accountants or an accountant approved by the State Department of Education. Each system’s financial statements shall be prepared and presented on a basis consistent with that of the other systems.

160.464. School board to brief members of General Assembly (counties of 300,000). [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1972, ch. 254, § 3) was repealed by Acts 1984, ch. 146, § 1, effective July 13, 1984.

160.470. Tax rate limits — Hearing — Levy exceeding four percent increase subject to recall vote or reconsideration — Levy of minimum equivalent tax rate.

(1) (a) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, no district board of education shall levy a general tax rate which will produce more revenue, exclusive of revenue from net assessment growth as defined in KRS 132.010, than would be produced by application of the general tax rate that could have been levied in the preceding year to the preceding year’s assessment, except as provided in subsection (9) of this section and KRS 157.440.

(b) If an election is held as provided for in KRS 132.017 and the question should fail, such failure shall not reduce the “...general tax rate that could have been levied in the preceding year...,” referred to in subsection (1)(a) of this section, for purposes of computing the general tax rate for succeeding years.

In the event of a merger of school districts, the limitations contained in this section shall be based upon the combined revenue of the merging districts, as computed under the provisions of this section.

(2) No district board of education shall levy a general tax rate within the limits imposed in subsection (1) of this section which respectively exceeds the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010, except as provided in subsection (9) of this section, KRS 157.440, and KRS 157.621, until the district board of education has complied with the provisions of subsection (7) of this section.

(3) Upon receipt of property assessments from the Revenue Cabinet, the commissioner of education shall certify the following to each district board of education:

(a) The general tax rate that a district board of education could levy under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, and the amount of revenue expected to be produced;

(b) The compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010 for a district’s general tax rate the amount of revenue expected to be produced;

(c) The general tax rate which will produce, respectively, no more revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property, than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010, and the amount of revenue expected to be produced.

(4) Upon completion of action on property assessment data, the Revenue Cabinet shall submit certified property assessment data as required in KRS 133.125 to the chief state school officer.

(5) Within thirty (30) days after the district board of education has received its assessment data, the rates levied shall be forwarded to the Kentucky Board of Education for its approval or disapproval. The failure of the district board of education to furnish the rates within the time prescribed shall not invalidate any levy made thereafter.

(6) (a) Each district board of education shall, on or before January 31 of each calendar year, formally and publicly examine detailed line item estimated revenues and proposed expenditures for the subsequent fiscal year. On or before May 30 of each calendar year, each district board of education shall adopt a tentative working budget which shall include a minimum reserve of two percent (2%) of the total budget.

(b) Each district board of education shall submit to the Kentucky Board of Education no later than September 30, a close estimate or working budget which shall conform to the administrative regulations prescribed by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(7) (a) Except as provided in subsection (9) of this section and KRS 157.440, a district board of education proposing to levy a general tax rate within the limits of subsection (1) of this section which exceed the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010 shall hold a public hearing to hear comments from the public regarding the proposed tax rate. The hearing shall be held in the principal office of the taxing district or, in the event the taxing district has no office, or the office is not suitable for such a hearing, the hearing shall be held in a suitable facility as near as possible to the geographic center of the district.

(b) The district board of education shall advertise the hearing by causing the following to be published at least twice for two (2) consecutive weeks, in the newspaper of largest circulation in the county, a display type advertisement of not less than twelve (12) column inches:
1. The general tax rate levied in the preceding year, and the revenue produced by that rate;
2. The general tax rate for the current year, and the revenue expected to be produced by that rate;
3. The compensating general tax rate, and the revenue expected from it;
4. The revenue expected from new property and personal property;
5. The general areas to which revenue in excess of the revenue produced in the preceding year is to be allocated;
6. A time and place for the public hearing which shall be held not less than seven (7) days nor more than ten (10) days after the day that the second advertisement is published;
7. The purpose of the hearing; and
8. A statement to the effect that the General Assembly has required publication of the advertisement and the information contained herein.

(c) In lieu of the two (2) published notices, a single notice containing the required information may be sent by first-class mail to each person owning real property, addressed to the property owner at his residence or principal place of business as shown on the current year property tax roll.

(d) The hearing shall be open to the public. All persons desiring to be heard shall be given an opportunity to present oral testimony. The district board of education may set reasonable time limits for testimony.

(8) (a) That portion of a general tax rate, except as provided in subsection (9) of this section, KRS 157.440, and KRS 157.621, levied by an action of a district board of education which will produce, respectively, revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property, more than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010, shall be subject to a recall vote or reconsideration by the district board of education as provided for in KRS 132.017, and shall be advertised as provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) The district board of education shall, within seven (7) days following adoption of an ordinance, order, resolution, or motion to levy a general tax rate, except as provided in subsection (9) of this section and KRS 157.440, which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property as defined in KRS 132.010, more than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010, cause the following to be published, in the newspaper of largest circulation in the county, a display type advertisement of not less than twelve (12) column inches:
1. The fact that the district board of education has adopted such a rate;
2. The fact that the part of the rate which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of new property as defined in KRS 132.010, in excess of four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010 is subject to recall; and
3. The name, address, and telephone number of the county clerk of the county or urban-county in which the school district is located, with a notation to the effect that that official can provide the necessary information about the petition required to initiate recall of the tax rate.

9. (a) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, effective for school years beginning after June 30, 1990, the board of education of each school district shall levy a minimum equivalent tax rate of thirty cents ($0.30) for general school purposes. Equivalent tax rate is defined as the rate which results when the income collected during the prior year from all taxes levied by the district for school purposes is divided by the total assessed value of property plus the assessment for motor vehicles certified by the Revenue Cabinet. School districts collecting school taxes authorized by KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.633, or 160.635 to 160.648 for less than twelve (12) months during a school year shall have included in income collected under this section the pro rata tax collection for twelve (12) months.

Opinions of Attorney General. There is no deadline in terms of a calendar date by which a city board of education must submit its tax rate to the city. OAG 64-380.

Under the 1965 amendment to KRS 160.470, school districts with special voted tax rates do not seek percentage increases if the combined revenue and combined current assessment figures had been certified on a New Era or Nothing New Under the Sun?, 83 Ky. L.J. 123 (1994-95).

The increase is to be permitted for "school years" rather than "fiscal years." OAG 65-820.

A school board may elect to continue to operate at the 1965-1966 revenue level for the coming and following school years, may request one percentage increase for either 1966-1967 or 1967-1968, or may request percentage increases for both of those years. OAG 66-387.

A local board of education may forego requesting any percentage increase in its ad valorem tax revenue for the 1965-1966 school year, in which event the limitations prescribed in subsection (2) of this section govern, but may then request an increase for the 1967-1968 school year if its need for that school year so dictates. OAG 66-387.

Revenue received by school districts from electric plant boards is not ad valorem tax revenue for purposes of this section and a plant board does not have net assessment growth that can be included in the Department of Revenue's certification of net assessment growth. OAG 66-441.

A county school board could request a budget increase and the levy of a utility gross receipts license tax in the same year. OAG 66-635.

The words "preceding year's rate" mean the correct rate that could have been levied for the preceding year if final assessment figures had been available and used in the certification given by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. OAG 67-165.

A county school district may receive a credit toward the "required local tax effort" figure of former law regarding the regression of the program. OAG 70-474.

State Government had the authority and duty to provide supplemental payments to certain schools under the minimum foundation program as would insure the orderly continuation of the common schools program and as would prevent the regression of the program. OAG 70-474.

It is mandatory that local boards of education use the rates prescribed by the Department of Education. OAG 70-540.

The Department of Education has authority under this section for setting local tax rates for school purposes. OAG 70-540.

Assessments for school tax levy purposes under this section and for state aid purposes under KRS 157.380 (repealed) must be the same. OAG 72-330.

The county ad valorem tax revenue is limited to the application of the preceding year's tax rate to the preceding year's assessment, exclusive of voting levies, plus the revenue determined from applying the effective tax rate to the net assessment growth base. OAG 74-393.

Unless a school board indicates that the budget goes beyond the limit of this section or the fiscal court proves illegality, fraud, or bad faith, and assuming budget approval by the State Board of Education, the fiscal court must accept the board's budget, fixing the necessary tax rate and making the tax levy required accordingly. OAG 74-455.

The mere fact that a school authority waited until after the city fixed its tax rate to come in and fix the school board's tax rate, in the absence of a showing of corruption, bad faith or illegality on the part of the school board, is not sufficient grounds for the city council to refuse to set the rate asked. OAG 74-499.

Even though due to a delay in certifying the county assessment, the advertising and hearing requirements necessary to levying a school district’s tax rate would not be completed 45 days before the date of the next regular election, the school district, of its own volition, could waive the petition and place the question on the ballot. OAG 82-485.

While the amending of KRS 160.470 and the making of each school district’s own tax levying authority repeals that part of KRS 424.250 as to filing the budget with a clerk, the other part of the statute calling for the budget to be published in a newspaper is capable of being observed. OAG 82-603.

Even though the 1990 amendment to this section by Ch. 476, § 105 set a new maximum equivalent tax rate, since in subdivision (1)(c) of KRS 157.440 the 1990 amendment by Ch. 476, § 107 to that section provided that any school district, which is at or above the equivalent tax rate permitted, shall not be required to levy an equivalent tax rate which is lower than the rate levied during the 1989-90 school year, Jefferson County may keep its equivalent tax rate at 75.9 cents for the 1990-91 school year. OAG 90-45.

When levying a utilities gross receipts license tax for the purpose of complying with the minimum equivalent tax rate requirement set forth in subdivision (12)(a) of this section or for the purpose of participating in the “Tier 1” program set forth in KRS 157.440, a school board must follow the notice and hearing requirements of KRS 160.593 and KRS 160.603, but the recall provisions of KRS 160.597 do not apply. OAG 90-88.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Determination of expenditures.
3. Estimate of anticipated revenue.
4. Premature submission.
5. Indebtedness.
6. Amendment by court.
7. Evidence of budget.
8. Determination of maximum rate.

1. Constitutionality.

This statute did not violate the Fourteenth Amendment because it was not arbitrary, not irrelevant to the achievement of the state’s objectives, not invidiously discriminatory, not administered unevenly, not based on some hidden motive and did bear a reasonable relationship to the legitimate purpose of preserving the financial integrity of the state. Baker v. Strode, 348 F. Supp. 1257 (W.D. Ky. 1971).

The “rollback” law is not unconstitutional as perpetuating unconstitutional assessments, for the taxing power of the district is not frozen, because under KRS 157.440 a district, by popular vote, can select as high a rate as it chooses. Miller v. Nunneley, 446 S.W.2d 298 (Ky. 1969), cert. denied, 404 U.S. 941, 92 S. Ct. 286, 30 L. Ed. 2d 255 (1971).

The present school funding statutes permit local Boards of Education to raise funds through property taxes and permissive taxes such as the utilities tax; base funding and Tier One funding can be produced by a property tax not subject to voter recall and this nonrecallable option enables Boards of Education to fund schools without relying on permissive taxes; the General Assembly has supplied a mechanism to satisfy base funding, as well as Tier One funding, according to the mandate of Section 183 of the Kentucky Constitution; and that is all that Rose v. Council for Better Educ., Inc., 790 S.W.2d 196 (Ky. 1989) requires. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 451 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

2. Determination of Expenditures.

Board of education had right to appropriate by amended budget additional funds to be received in the fiscal year from collection of delinquent taxes which it had not anticipated to improvement of its physical properties, which had been badly damaged by flood, and the propriety of its decision in doing so cannot be questioned by the board of commissioners of second-class city, unless the board of commissioners can show the properties not to be in need of repair or reconstruction and the mere fact that the expenditure will absorb that portion of the anticipated revenue which would otherwise be surplus does not preclude the school board from making necessary expenditures upon discovery that the funds are available for the purpose. City of Paducah v. Board of Educ., 289 Ky. 284, 158 S.W.2d 615 (1942).

The board of education has the exclusive right to determine within lawful limits the amount of money necessary to be expended and the items for which it shall be expended in the operation of the schools, and, unless the governing authorities of the tax levying districts can show an illegal expenditure, or a computation unlawfully arrived at, or bad faith on the part of the school board, it must levy a tax within limits prescribed by the Constitution and statutes sufficient to raise the revenue required under the provisions of the budget filed with it by the board of education. City of Paducah v. Board of Educ., 289 Ky. 284, 158 S.W.2d 615 (1942).

Budget submitted by board of education was not unlawful or did not indicate bad faith which would warrant refusal by fiscal court to levy taxes pursuant to it where collection was correct when made, but was rendered excessive by a subsequent court of appeal’s decision. Stokley v. Fleming County Bd. of Educ., 305 Ky. 602, 205 S.W.2d 168 (1947).

3. Estimate of Anticipated Revenue.

The board of education cannot base its estimate of anticipated revenue on experience in collecting taxes and deduct the amount which may not be collected within the fiscal year but it must base its estimate on what the rate would produce if all the taxes were collected in the fiscal year. City of Paducah v. Board of Educ., 289 Ky. 284, 158 S.W.2d 615 (1942).

4. Premature Submission.

Premature submission of budget does not show bad faith. White v. Board of Educ., 263 Ky. 91, 91 S.W.2d 539 (1936).

5. Indebtedness.

Where voted building fund levy of school district had always been insufficient to meet rental payments required for the payment of revenue bonds, so that part thereof had been paid from the general fund levy, the addition of subsection (7) to KRS 160.477 (repealed) in a 1965 “rollback” act did not authorize an increase in building fund levy over the compensating rate as defined in KRS 132.010 to pay all of such rentals. Fayette County Bd. of Educ. v. White, 410 S.W.2d 612 (Ky. 1966).

6. Amendment by Court.

When a court finds a budget to be incorrect, it is not necessary that an amended budget be submitted to the council. It may be amended in the trial court. White v. Board of Educ., 263 Ky. 91, 91 S.W.2d 539 (1936).

7. Evidence of Budget.

In all cases where budgets and financial reports are available they are the best evidence of the information therein contained and they should be made a part of the record in order for the courts to have a clear and definite idea as to whether or not the officials have had due regard for the finances of the taxing district. Ebert v. Board of Educ., 277 Ky. 633, 126 S.W.2d 1111 (1939).

8. Determination of Maximum Rate.
   The language of KRS 132.487(3), governing a centralized ad valorem tax system for motor vehicles, clearly and unequivocally removes all valuations of and tax revenues from motor vehicles from the base amount used in determining the compensating tax rate and maximum possible tax rate envisioned under the provisions of KRS 68.245, 132.023, 132.027, and this section. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379 (Ky. 1984).

   The 1990 change in subsections (10) and (11) of this section prevents voter recall of a property tax levy if the tax revenue is intended to provide mandatory minimum base funding or permissive Tier One funding, but under the previous funding scheme, the "notwithstanding" language of this section had no abrogative effect on voter recall of permissive utility taxes and the General Assembly preserved this right in the funding scheme. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

   County Board of Education's levy of a utility gross receipts license tax, designed to produce additional revenue up to 15% of the base funding level, was subject to statutory recall election provisions. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

160.472. Determination of maximum permissible school district revenue.
   Notwithstanding any provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the tax rate on motor vehicles and trailers for the preceding year shall be applied to the preceding year's total valuation of such motor vehicles and trailers and the resulting amount added to the revenue from other tangible personal property for purposes of determining the maximum permissible school district revenue under KRS 160.470.

   (1) Except as otherwise provided in KRS 157.440, 160.470(1), and 160.474(4), the ad valorem tax levy for school purposes, other than sinking fund purposes, in each school district, shall be not more than one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) annually on each one hundred dollars ($100) of property subject to local taxation.
   (2) All existing subdistrict school tax levies, except those required to retire voted bonds, are hereby abolished.

   (1) Except as otherwise provided in KRS 157.440, 160.470(1), and 160.474(4), the ad valorem tax levy for school purposes, other than sinking fund purposes, in each school district, shall be not more than one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) annually on each one hundred dollars ($100) of property subject to local taxation.
   (2) All existing subdistrict school tax levies, except those required to retire voted bonds, are hereby abolished.

   Opinions of Attorney General. A fiscal court may legally levy a tax at a figure above the $1.50 maximum set by this section where the figure is the amount necessary to provide the required local tax effort for participation in the minimum foundation program by the local school district. OAG 65-600.

(1) The board of education of any district may, in addition to other taxes for school purposes, levy not less than four cents ($0.04) nor more than twenty cents ($0.20) on each one hundred dollars ($100) valuation of property subject to local taxation, to provide a special fund for the purchase of sites for school buildings and physical education and athletic facilities, for the erection and complete equipping of school buildings and physical education and athletic facilities, and for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of existing buildings and physical education and athletic facilities, provided, however, that such tax shall come within the maximum school tax levy provided by KRS 160.470. In addition to or in lieu of this special tax, any board of education may pay into this special fund at the close of any fiscal year the proceeds from the sale of land or property no longer needed for school purposes and all or any balances remaining in the general fund over and above the amount necessary for discharging obligations for the fiscal year in full.

(2) The special fund provided for herein shall be kept in a separate account designated as "school building fund." The fund shall be kept in a depository selected by the board of education, or invested in bonds of the United States, of this state, or county or municipality in this state, provided, however, that such investments shall be approved by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(3) All expenditures from such fund shall be made solely for the purposes enumerated herein and shall be made in accordance with the school laws of the state at such times as the board of education determines. The board of education shall cause to be made annually an audit of the building fund by a certified public accountant or by an accountant approved by the State Department of Education.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other subsection of this section to the contrary, for the 1966 tax year and for all subsequent years no district board of education shall levy a tax at a rate under the provisions of this section which exceeds the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010. The chief state school officer shall certify the compensating tax rate to the district board of education.

Opinions of Attorney General. Boards of education may place their general funds in banks designated as depositories pursuant to KRS 160.570 and obtain from such banks certificates of deposit representing time deposits of surplus funds subject to withdrawal on demand. OAG 64-70.

A fund resulting from the sale of school property could be used for the purchase of sites for school buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of school buildings, and for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of buildings, in accordance with the provisions of this section, even though refunding revenue bonds were outstanding on other school property. NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Exceeding Maximum.

Regardless of time or amount, the principle remains the same, that the voting of the tax does not impose a tax in futuro, but merely grants authority to the taxing power to increase the amount of the annual tax that the law otherwise authorizes to be levied. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 250 S.W.2d 1017 (Ky. 1952).

Only a maximum rate need be specified in the proposition submitted to the voters under KRS 157.440 to exceed the maximum levy under this section. Hopson v. Board of Educ., 280 S.W.2d 489 (Ky. 1955).

A special annual tax levy above the present maximum regular levy authorized by this section may be made to authorize the principal and interest of the bonds. Bell v. Board of Educ., 343 S.W.2d 804 (Ky. 1961).

The maximum school property tax rate of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) on each $100 valuation may be exceeded when increased levy is necessary to provide the required local tax effort in order to participate in the foundation program under KRS 157.380 (now repealed). Holmes v. Walden, 394 S.W.2d 458 (Ky. 1965).

meaning of this section. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 256 S.W.2d 29 (Ky. 1953).

160.477. Special voted building taxes — Purposes — Special fund to be in separate account — Expenditures from fund. [Repealed.]

160.480. Minimum limits on ad valorem tax — Poll tax. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (2980, 4399-40) was repealed by Acts 1946, ch. 36, § 3.

160.482. Occupational license, policy (counties of 300,000).

To help provide for an efficient system of common schools in any county having three hundred thousand (300,000) or more inhabitants, the General Assembly delegates to the fiscal courts and boards of education of any such county the powers and duties set forth in KRS 160.482 to 160.488. The General Assembly finds and declares that in any such county there are besetting public education special problems which can best be solved pursuant to KRS 160.482 to 160.488. Furthermore, the General Assembly declares that the public policy of the Commonwealth is not offended but is best served by the authority of KRS 160.482 to 160.488 for the imposition, payment, and collection of license fees on businesses, trades, occupations, and professions over and above license fees that may already be imposed thereon.

Collateral References. 84 C.J.S., Taxation, § 18.

160.483. Occupational license fees, rates, exemptions (counties of 300,000).

The license fees imposed under KRS 160.482 to 160.488 on businesses, trades, occupations, and professions shall be at a single, uniform percentage rate not to exceed one-half of one percent (0.5%) of (a) salaries, wages, and commissions, and other compensations earned by persons within the county for work performed or rendered in the county, and (b) the net profits of all businesses, trades, occupations, and professions, for activities conducted in the county. The license fees, once imposed, shall continue from year to year until changed as prescribed in KRS 160.484. No public service company which pays an ad valorem tax is required to pay a license fee hereunder.

No license fee shall be imposed upon or collected from any bank, trust company, combined bank and trust company, combined trust, banking and title business in this state, any savings and loan association whether state or federally chartered, or upon income received by members of the Kentucky National Guard for active duty training, unit training assemblies, and annual field training, or upon income received by precinct workers for election training or work at election booths in state, county, and local primary, regular, or special elections. No license tax shall be collected from any individual who is not a resident of the county of the tax-levying authority imposing the tax.

160.484. Occupational license fees, imposition and discontinuation (counties of 300,000).

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) the fiscal court has discretion to impose or not impose the license fees authorized by KRS 160.482 to 160.488 at a percentage rate, not to exceed one-half of one percent (0.5%), determined by the fiscal court. A fiscal court shall not proceed under this subsection without first giving all boards of education in the county thirty (30) days notice of its intention.

(2) If one (1) or more boards of education of school districts within the county which contain at least ninety percent (90%) of county's inhabitants, in the same calendar year certify to the fiscal court requests for a license fee at an identical percentage rate, not to exceed one-half of one percent (0.5%), then the fiscal court shall impose such license fees at the requested rate.

(3) Any license fees imposed under subsections (1) or (2) shall remain in full effect from year to year until all boards of education within the county have certified to the fiscal court requests for a reduction in the percentage rate theretofore imposed. Thereafter, the fiscal court shall reduce the rate to the highest rate certified as yet necessary by any board of education in the county. The fiscal court may require each board of education to make no more than one (1) certificate annually.

(4) In any calendar year in which one (1) or more boards of education of school districts containing at least ninety percent (90%) of the county's inhabitants make a certification pursuant to subsection (2) for a rate which is at a higher percentage than any currently imposed, the fiscal court shall impose the license fee at the higher rate and any rate imposed pursuant to subsections (1), (2), or (3) shall be rescinded upon the date the new rate takes effect.
160.485. Occupational license fees, adoption — Referendum procedure (counties of 300,000).

(1) The imposition of license fees authorized hereby shall be by order or resolution of the fiscal court. There shall be no more than one (1) such order or resolution passed in any one (1) calendar year. In the case of license fees required to be imposed pursuant to subsection (2) of KRS 160.484, the fiscal court shall make the order or resolution within ten (10) days following receipt of the first request which makes subsection (2) of KRS 160.484 effective.

(2) The order or resolution of the fiscal court imposing license fees pursuant to subsections (1), (2), or (4) of KRS 160.484 shall go into effect thirty (30) days after its passage. If during the thirty (30) days next following the passage of the order or resolution a petition signed by a number of registered and qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the votes cast in the county for the office receiving the greatest total vote at the last preceding presidential election is presented to the fiscal court protesting against passage of the order or resolution, the order or resolution shall be suspended from going into effect until after the election referred to in subsection (3) of this section. Each sheet of the petition shall contain the names and addresses of voters in but one (1) voting precinct, and each sheet shall state the name, number, or designation of the precinct and, where applicable, the name, designation, or number of the district or ward wherein the precinct is situated. If the signature is difficult to read, the voter shall, on the same line legibly write or print his name in the same fashion as he signed it. One (1) or more persons shall verify by affidavit the signatures and addresses of the signers of the petition. The board or boards of registration in the county shall give necessary and appropriate aid to the fiscal court so that the latter body may make the initial, but not conclusive, determination of whether the petition contains enough signatures of qualified voters to suspend the effect of the order or resolution.

(3) Thereupon the fiscal court shall submit to the voters of the county at the next regular election or called common school district election, either of which to be held not less than sixty (60) days from the date of passage of said order or resolution, the question as to whether such license fees for common school purposes shall be levied. If the election is to be held in conjunction with a regular election, the question shall be submitted to the county clerk not later than the second Tuesday in August preceding the regular election. The question shall be so framed that the voter may by his vote answer, “for” or “against.” If a majority of the votes cast upon the question oppose its passage, the order or resolution shall not go into effect. If a majority of the votes cast upon the question favor its passage, the order or resolution shall go into effect.

(4) License fees imposed pursuant to KRS 160.482 to 160.488 shall become applicable upon the date specified in the order or resolution, but in no event later than the first day of the calendar year first beginning after the day upon which the said order or resolution is made. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 445, effective July 13, 1990.)

Opinions of Attorney General. Although subsection (2) of this section provides that each sheet of the petition should contain the signatures of voters in but one voting precinct, the whole sheet would not be disqualified where one of the persons signing that sheet was not a voter in that precinct, even though that person would be subject to disqualification. OAG 72-174.

Opinion of Attorney General. The election referred to in subsection (3) of this section refers to the regular November election that takes place every four years. OAG 72-174.

The “not less than sixty days” provision in subsection (3) of this section refers to the date of passage of the fiscal court order levying the school tax. OAG 72-174.

The provision in subsection (2) of this section that the petition contain the signatures of 15% of the votes cast in the county for the office receiving the greatest total vote at the last preceding presidential election does not mean that every precinct in the county must be represented by 15% of the votes cast in the precinct, but that the aggregate number of signers must be 15%. OAG 72-174.

Under subsection (2) of this section, the fiscal court must conduct an examination of the petition, and if it is regular on its face then the election is ordered as directed in subsection (3) of this section, subject to an appeal from the fiscal court order to the circuit court. OAG 72-174.

In order to generate the referendum provisions of this section the signatures equal to 15 percent of those districts whose boards of education requested the tax are needed. OAG 72-471.

After a tax levy is approved by the court under KRS 160.593 the question as to whether such tax should be levied may be passed on by the voters pursuant to the procedures specified in this section. OAG 72-521.

Any school district in which a special school tax is levied or about to be levied may petition for a referendum to recall said tax within the district and such recall would not have to be on a countywide basis as the 1972 amendment to KRS 160.593 by chapter 271, section 1 provides that a tax shall be limited to the district requesting the tax. OAG 72-576.

The provisions of this section providing for recall on a countywide basis were amended by implication by the 1972 amendment to KRS 160.593 by chapter 271, section 1. OAG 72-603.

Where a request for the levy of a utility gross receipts tax for schools was defeated at the 1972 general election and the fiscal court has been presented with new requests for the imposition of said tax and the residents of the districts have filed petitions protesting the tax levy and requesting that the matter be placed on the ballot, the utility tax question can only be held at the general election in November, unless there has been a called election with respect to county school questions at a time other than the November election. OAG 73-301.

The petition provided for in this section should be filed with the county clerk who is the clerk of the fiscal court. OAG 76-440.

In a referendum seeking recall of certain school taxes while there is no specific wording for the ballot question provided in this section, it would appear that under the terms of subsection (5) it is the responsibility of the fiscal court to frame the question. OAG 76-440.
The county clerk’s responsibilities on behalf of the fiscal court concerning a referendum petition that may be filed seeking the recall of certain taxes are that of accepting and checking the petition to see that it is legal on its face and in compliance with this section and KRS 160.609 (repealed), insofar as the number and validity of the signatures are concerned. OAG 76-440.

There is no requirement that notice be published with respect to the filing of the petition for referendum seeking recall of certain school taxes or the referendum election provided for in this section; however, if such petition is found to be valid, the referendum question would appear on the ballot face required to be published by the clerk pursuant to KRS 424.290. OAG 76-440.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. Verification of petition.
2. Number of petitioners needed.

1. Verification of Petition.

Where the petition contained the signatures and addresses of the signers, but there was no verification of the addresses on the petition, and where the proponents of the petition undertook to file new verifying affidavits subsequent to the expiration of the time for filing, such late action could not cure the defectiveness of the petition and it remained insufficient to fulfill the requirements of this section. Board of Educ. v. Fiscal Court, 485 S.W.2d 752 (Ky. 1972).

2. Number of Petitioners Needed.

Where fiscal court imposed a tax on utilities in the county and the school districts, and within 30 days after passage of the tax levy, a petition was filed with the court for a referendum on the tax, containing a number of names equal to 15% of the votes in the school districts, the fiscal court was not authorized to order the tax levy suspended since the recall petition was not countywide and therefore contained insufficient number of signatures. Fiscal Court v. Board of Educ., 522 S.W.2d 454 (Ky. 1975).

160.486. Occupational license fees — Collection — Distribution (counties of 300,000).

The license fees imposed by authority of KRS 160.482 to 160.488 shall be collected by the fiscal court or its agent, and the proceeds thereof shall be promptly divided and distributed to each school district within the county in proportion to the number of pupils in average daily attendance in each school district as shown by the most recent statistics certified by the chief state school officer pursuant to KRS 157.310 to 157.440. The fees shall be used for any purpose for which other common school funds may be used.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section requires the distribution of the proceeds of the occupational license fees on the basis of the “most recent” data on average daily attendance and revised average daily attendance statistics cannot be applied retroactively to the beginning of the fiscal year to alter the percentage of proceeds distributed to the school districts in the county. OAG 67-183.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

This section is valid and does not contravene the express will of the people contained in the Constitution of Kentucky. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 458 S.W.2d 6 (Ky. 1970).

160.487. Action for refund of occupational license fees (counties of 300,000).

Any person who has paid the license fees imposed under KRS 160.484 and 160.485 may bring an action for the refund thereof without interest only within one year after the license fees for any year become due. If the court finds that the license fees were invalidly collected for any reason, it shall order a refund thereof. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 446, effective July 13, 1990.)

160.488. Effect of occupational license fees law (counties of 300,000).

(1) KRS 68.180, 68.185, 68.190, and 160.482 to 160.488 shall not be construed as repealing any other laws of the Commonwealth relating to the levy, assessment, and collection of taxes or license fees but shall be held and construed to authorize an additional license fee, against which the credit allowed by KRS 68.190 does not apply.

(2) KRS 68.180, 68.185, 68.190, and 160.482 to 160.488 shall not in any manner repeal, amend, affect, or apply to any existing statute exempting property from local taxation, or fixing a special rate on proper classification, or imposing a state tax which is declared to be in lieu of all local taxation.

(3) The provisions of any statute relating to ad valorem taxes do not apply to KRS 68.180, 68.185, 68.190, and 160.482 to 160.488 or to the license fees authorized by it. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 447, effective July 13, 1990.)

160.490. Maximum limits on ad valorem tax. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (2980, 4399-40) was repealed by Acts 1946, ch. 36, § 3.

160.500. Collector of school taxes — Allowances to — Special collector — Tax bills.

(1) School taxes shall be collected by the sheriff for county school districts and by the regular tax collector of the city or special tax collector for the independent school districts at the same time and in the same manner as other local taxes are collected, except as provided in this section and in KRS 160.510. The bond of the regular or special tax collector shall be made to cover his duties as the tax collector of the school district or districts for which he collects taxes. The tax collector shall be entitled to a fee equal to his expense but not less than one and one-half percent (1.5%) and not to exceed the rate of four percent (4%) for the collection of school taxes, which fee may be charged only for collecting or receiving school taxes or school funds received from the local school levy. No allowance shall be made for the collection of school taxes by any collecting officer who continues to collect taxes after his term that would not be allowed him had he collected the taxes during his term.
(2) An independent school district may select a special tax collector to collect its school taxes, and in the event such independent school district does so select a special tax collector, a majority of the members of the independent school district board of education shall fix a fee for such special tax collector at a rate of not less than one and one-half percent (1.5%) and not more than four percent (4%) of the school taxes or school funds collected by such special tax collector from the local school levy in such independent school district. The special tax collector shall be required to execute bond in the same manner as provided in KRS 160.560 for the execution of a treasurer’s bond, and the penal sum of the bond shall not be less than the aggregate of the tax bills that come into the hands of the special tax collector.

(3) The clerk shall include all school taxes on the regular tax bills furnished the tax collector except in case an independent district has selected a special tax collector, in which case the school taxes shall be listed by the clerk on a separate bill. The clerk shall be allowed a fee not to exceed three cents ($0.03) for each separate school tax bill, to be paid by the independent district board of education.

(4) The county clerk shall be the ad valorem tax collector for motor vehicle taxes for county and independent school districts, and shall receive a commission of four percent (4%) of all such moneys collected for any school district, which commission shall be deducted monthly before payment to the depository of the district board of education.

(5) For collections related to January 1, 1984 assessments other than motor vehicles, no county or independent school district shall fix a fee for the sheriff or special tax collector at a lesser percentage rate than was fixed in the prior year.

(6) The General Assembly of Kentucky finds that commissions and fees set by the General Assembly for services performed in collecting ad valorem taxes by county clerks are the reasonable costs of collection by county clerks and their offices. The county clerk shall account for all funds collected to each taxing authority; however, in any accounting or settlement with district boards of education, the county clerk shall not be required to itemize any incremental costs in any accounting or settlement for ad valorem taxes collected.

Sheriff is tax collector, by virtue of his office, unless payment is directed to be made to some other officer, KRS 134.140.

Opinion of the Attorney General. Since, under KRS 160.400, the fiscal court is the levying authority for school districts not embraced by cities of the first four classes, the county sheriff must collect the taxes levied on behalf of such schools. OAG 61-141.

Under subsection (1) of this section a board of education may not enter into a contract with a sheriff to pay, as a fee for the collection of school taxes, a certain percentage of the amount collected but may contract to pay a reasonable amount which approximates the cost of collection not to exceed four percent. OAG 62-335.

If penalties collected on delinquent taxes are due and owing to the local school district, then to permit the sheriff to retain such penalty moneys would constitute an unlawful use of school funds for other than school purposes. OAG 63-121.

Subsection (1) of this section requires that the sheriff’s bond be made to cover his duties as tax collector of the school district or districts for which he collects taxes and if the sheriff fails to pay over to the school district the proper amount of tax money, he is liable on his official bond. OAG 64-159.

Where the sheriff turned in all school taxes for which he was accountable, excess fees should not have been paid to the school board. OAG 65-779.

A special tax collector selected by an independent school district pursuant to subsection (2) of this section is an officer of the school district and an employee of the school district under the definition of that term in the Social Security Act and enabling legislation enacted by the Kentucky General Assembly. OAG 67-95.

A county attorney would have no official duty to represent the sheriff in a lawsuit filed by the school board against the sheriff for fees reimbursable to the school board. OAG 67-144.

A fee increase to the sheriff for collecting county school taxes could be made retroactive to the beginning of the tax year. OAG 67-164.

The county clerk is entitled to a fee of three cents per bill for preparation of separate tax bills if a special school tax collector is selected, but the clerk is entitled to no compensation if the sheriff collects the school taxes on the regular county tax bills. OAG 67-288.

It is mandatory that the county clerk prepare the tax bills for an independent school district. OAG 67-288.

Separate tax bills should be prepared only if the independent school district selects a tax collector other than the sheriff. OAG 67-288.

The sheriff’s excess fees for collecting school tax should be turned over to the county as excess fees and any part of such fees which exceeds the cost of collection should be delivered to the county clerk as school money. OAG 69-59.

Under subsection (1) of this section, the regular tax collecting authority is required to collect school taxes for the independent school district if so requested. OAG 69-283.

A special tax collector is not liable for uncollectible tax bills but can only be held to a duty to diligently and faithfully attempt to collect all taxes due. OAG 72-290.

There is no final date by which the independent school district must notify the county attorney or the county clerk of its intent to change collectors and if the tax bills in question have been prepared by the county clerk and delivered to the sheriff for collection, it would appear that the sheriff is the collector of taxes for the independent school district and the fee for such collection can be from one percent to four percent, depending upon what is sufficient to cover the costs of collection. OAG 73-630.

The tax collector is entitled to recover the reasonable cost of collection of school taxes, not to exceed four percent of the amount collected, in accordance with an itemized statement of collection expenses which he must file. OAG 73-804.

It is up to the sheriff to keep the school tax collection separate from other collections in order to determine the legal fee. OAG 74-595.

The sheriff should not settle his fee with the school board or receive it until after he computes the reasonable cost of collection, since his fee cannot exceed the reasonable cost of collection. OAG 74-595.

If a sheriff receives 4% for school taxes collected under this section, and a later determination indicates that the reasonable cost of collection is a lesser fee, then he must charge the school board the lesser fee and the excess or illegal part of the fee must be returned to the school board. OAG 74-595.

The county sheriff who acts as the regular tax collector for the school district is not required by this section to purchase an additional bond for the collection of school taxes and, if the school board decides for any reason that an additional bond is required, such premium for such bond should be paid with school funds. OAG 75-23.

There is no requirement of a written contract for the collection of school taxes. OAG 75-131.

Even though a 4% commission fee for the collection of school taxes is authorized, if the charge including his compensation exceeds the reasonable costs of collecting the taxes, the sheriff can be limited to a lesser commission rate. OAG 75-131.

Where the fiscal court directly pays a portion of the expenses of the sheriff's office, the portion of that payment which is attributable to the expenses of the sheriff's office incurred in collecting school taxes may be collected by the sheriff from the county board of education as a part of the cost of collecting school taxes and, in turn, should be repaid by the sheriff to the fiscal court. OAG 75-361.

The sheriff's fee for collecting school taxes can be up to four percent of the taxes collected, except the fee cannot exceed the reasonable cost of collecting such taxes. OAG 76-627.

A sheriff could not base his fee for collecting school taxes on nine months of his salary, for the sheriff must compute his cost of collection of school taxes as a percentage of the cost of collecting other taxes. OAG 77-98.

Nothing in this section provides for the fiscal court to either assume part of the cost for each special tax collector or share envelope and postage costs. OAG 77-290.

Once the sheriff's total fee for collecting school taxes is properly computed the constitutional test of diversion is met since the constitutional diversion occurs no sooner than the reasonable cost of collection is exceeded, regardless of how much the excess is. OAG 78-146.

The reasonable cost of collecting school taxes is based upon a proper determination of the cost of collecting all taxes, and then the determination of the cost of collecting school taxes and that percentage of the total time allocable to school tax collection is really the percentage of all taxes collected represented by school taxes. OAG 78-146.

The total cost of collecting school taxes (prior to the 75% and 25% distribution at state level) is strictly constitutional as being an expenditure for school purposes. OAG 78-146.

The definition of the word “shall” as used in subsection (3) of this section is mandatory and the county clerk may not break the tax bill down into two installments. OAG 79-536.

A school system need not delay payment of the collection fee until all taxes are collected; a predetermined time, be it monthly or otherwise, for payment by the school district to the sheriff of his fee for school tax collection, if based upon a reasonable approximation of the cost of collection, is legally permissible. OAG 82-587. (Opinion prior to effective date of 1982 amendment.)

A sheriff, or other tax collection agent, if retained by an independent school district, may not deduct the collection fee before school tax funds are presented to the depository for the school district. The sheriff, pursuant to KRS 160.510, the sheriff, and special tax collector also, are obligated to make monthly statements of the amount of school taxes collected, all tax amounts collected must be turned over to the depository of the district board of education. OAG 82-587. (Opinion prior to effective date of 1982 amendment.)

A school system may write a money check for the collection fee for the collection of taxes providing the sheriff delivers a proper bill; a school may monthly, or bimonthly, agree to pay the sheriff his fee, up to four percent, covering the school taxes collected for the particular reporting period, based upon a showing by the sheriff of the reasonable costs incurred in collection is a reasonabe fee. OAG 82-587. (Opinion prior to effective date of 1982 amendment.)

It is clear from the express language and context of subsection (1) of this section that the one and one-half percent fee must be based upon an actual and reasonable expense at least equal to that percentage; where the facts indicate that the actual and reasonable expense was something less than one and one-half percent, only that lesser percentage could be paid the sheriff. Regardless of the statutory fee treatment given by the General Assembly, the sheriff's fee cannot exceed the actual and reasonable cost of collection up to a maximum of four percent. OAG 84-325.

The clerk's fee for collecting school ad valorem taxes on motor vehicles is the reasonable cost of collecting such taxes, not to exceed four percent. OAG 84-369.

City is not entitled to a collection fee under this section for its services in collecting a utility gross receipts license tax levied by the County Board of Education when the city is the owner and operator of the water utility taxed. OAG 91-170.

A board of education cannot designate the sheriff to collect some school taxes, and designate an employee to collect the remainder, because a shared responsibility would defeat the legislative intention present in this section and KRS 160.505 to make a single person responsible for collection of the taxes. OAG 92-11.

Collection agencies may not collect school taxes imposed by county school districts because under subsection (1) of this section the sheriff is designated as the party responsible for the collection of school taxes for county schools; the only alternative is provided by KRS 160.505, which authorizes a board of education to "appoint a person who shall be responsible for collection and administration" of the tax which clearly contemplates that the person so appointed will be an employee of the school district rather than a private contractor. OAG 92-11.

While delinquent taxes may be placed in a separate logical category from school taxes imposed in general, it is a category without legal significance; delinquent school taxes are still school taxes, and their collection must comply with the statutory provisions for the collection of school taxes. OAG 92-11.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Fee to be reasonable cost.
3. — Determination.
5. Collection costs.

1. Constitutionality.

The additional three percent fee formerly allowed the sheriff of Jefferson County for the collection of school taxes violated Const., §§ 180, 184 as a diversion of more than $50,000 annually from school purposes would have resulted. Dickson v. Jefferson County Bd. of Educ., 311 Ky. 781, 225 S.W.2d 672 (1949).

A flat four percent fee violates provisions of Const., §§ 180, 184, against diverting taxes or school funds in cases where the reasonable cost of collection is less than the amount reached by the application of the four percent formula to the total amount of taxes collected. Dickson v. Jefferson County Bd. of Educ., 311 Ky. 781, 225 S.W.2d 672 (1949).
Retention by sheriff of four percent of school tax collected was unconstitutional diversion of school funds where evidence indicated one percent was sufficient to cover cost of collecting school tax and the extra three percent was to be used by the sheriff for general expenses of his office. Board of Educ. v. Wagers, 239 S.W.2d 48 (Ky. 1951).

Although it may have been that the General Assembly's intent was to create a flat four percent commission for the county clerks for collecting the taxes, such interpretation would bring subsection (3) of KRS 134.805 into conflict with Const., §§ 180, 184; therefore, a county clerk may not receive a fee for collecting the school tax which is in excess of his or her actual cost of collection, not exceeding four percent. Benson v. Board of Educ., 748 S.W.2d 156 (Ky. Ct. App. 1988).

2. Fee to Be Reasonable Cost.

Four percent fee fixed by this section could only be allowed where the reasonable cost of collection justified allowance of the maximum fee and where sheriff did not employ deputies and had no expenses for supplies and equipment, maximum fee was not allowable. Wells v. Board of Educ., 244 S.W.2d 160 (Ky. 1951).

Under this section, the sheriff is entitled to retain as compensation the reasonable cost of collecting school taxes, not to exceed four percent. Davie v. Board of Educ., 249 S.W.2d 954 (Ky. 1952).

The school fund is chargeable only with the reasonable expenses actually incurred in collecting the school tax. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

The sheriff's fee was not allowable. Benson v. Board of Educ., 239 S.W.2d 48 (Ky. 1951).

The sheriff has charge of the collection of school taxes and the extra three percent was to be used by the sheriff for his own services, but allowance should be made for collection of school taxes to any extent that could have been made by the sheriff's deputies. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

The school fund cannot be compelled to finance law-enforcement functions of the sheriff's office. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

Although each case must be decided upon the particular facts involved, the general formula in computing the cost of collection (although it is not intended to be applied as an exact mathematical rule) has been to (1) first determine the percentage of their time the sheriff and his deputies devote to all tax collection work, and take this percentage of their total compensation giving the compensation for personal services allocable to the collection of all taxes then (2) to determine the ratio of school tax collections to total tax collections and apply it to the amount of compensation for personal services allocable to the cost of collecting all taxes, thus producing the amount allocable to school tax collection and (3) when costs other than personal services were involved to allocate them according to the same formula except where clearly attributable to a specific activity and (4) local standards of compensation were given some consideration in determining the sum that should be allowed the sheriff for his own services. However the keeping of more adequate and detailed records by the sheriff might eliminate the necessity of applying any formula. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

Where from the record it was clear that no settlement had been made in the county court for school taxes, and that by tacit understanding the sheriff had paid over to the school board all tax collections except the amount of his commission which was in dispute, the sheriff's contention that the only remedy of the school board was by taking exceptions to the sheriff's settlement in county court was without merit and an action for declaratory judgment was maintainable. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

Where no accurate time accounting could be made for school tax collection by the sheriff and his employees but the four percent he retained was not excessive, there was no diversion of school funds in the retention of the four percent. Grayson County Bd. of Educ. v. Boone, 452 S.W.2d 371 (Ky. 1970).

3. Determination.

The question of whether a four percent fee is reasonable will be adjudged according to the facts developed in each case. Board of Educ. v. Wagers, 239 S.W.2d 48 (Ky. 1951).

Entire annual salaries of sheriff's deputies were not chargeable to collection of taxes, but allowance should be made for personal supervisory services of sheriff and under the facts allowance in fixing the reasonable cost of collection at two percent of the school taxes collected was not erroneous. Board of Educ. v. Ballard, 249 S.W.2d 956 (Ky. 1952).

The trial court must fix the quantity of the fee for collecting school taxes at a figure commensurate with the services rendered. Barren County Bd. of Educ. v. Edmunds, 252 S.W.2d 882 (Ky. 1952).

For the purpose of determining the cost of school tax collections the expense must be determined on the basis of a reasonable compensation for the time devoted by the deputies to tax collection work and a percentage contract between the sheriff and his deputies whereby they receive compensation computed on basis of tax collection cannot be used to determine cost of collection of such tax. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

In an action to determine the sheriff's fees for school tax collection where it was stipulated that the county attorney and county clerk received $6,100 through salary and fees, it was proper to allow the sheriff the same amount, as a basis upon which to compute the percentage of the sheriff's compensation chargeable to tax collections. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

Sheriff could be allowed compensation for collecting the franchise and oil production taxes which were paid by large checks at his office with no collection work required. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

Simply deducting from the total expenses of the sheriff's office the amount of money paid the sheriff by the state for law-enforcement work, was not a proper way of determining what expenses were attributable to tax collection work for the amount of money received by sheriff in the form of compensation has nothing at all to do with a determination of the expenses of office. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

In a declaratory judgment action to determine the sheriff's fee for collecting school taxes where the proof was not adequate to enable the court to make a final and correct decision, the case was remanded for the purpose of taking further proof designed to show what portion of the time of the sheriff and his deputies was devoted to tax collection work. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

The school fund cannot be compelled to finance law-enforcement functions of the sheriff's office. Board of Educ. v. Workman, 256 S.W.2d 528 (Ky. 1953).

In view of provision of subsection (1) of this section that no allowance shall be made for collection of school taxes to any collecting officer who continues to collect taxes after his term that would not be allowed to him had he collected the taxes during his term, a sheriff who could not claim, during his term, the increased collection fee provided by the 1946 amendment to this section, because he was in office at the time the amendment became effective, likewise could not claim the increased fee in serving as special tax collector after expiration of his term. Weber v. True, 304 Ky. 681, 202 S.W.2d 174 (1947).

5. Collection Costs.

The allocation of the costs of collection of school taxes based on a percentage of revenue collected does not violate Const., § 184; such collection costs in no way diminish the constitutional command that school taxes must be appropriated to the common schools and no other purpose. These basic principles were not changed by the adoption of the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 930 S.W.2d 399 (Ky. 1996).
160.505. Certain taxes to be collected by person appointed by board of education.

KRS 160.500 to the contrary notwithstanding, if a tax authorized by KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.633, and 160.635 to 160.648 shall be collected by a board of education, the board of education shall appoint a person who shall be responsible for collection and administration of such tax. If one (1) or more boards of education agree in writing to levy identical taxes authorized by the statutes mentioned hereinabove, the boards of education so agreeing shall jointly appoint a person who shall be responsible for collection and administration of such tax as provided for in KRS 160.593(2). The position may be full-time or part-time and his compensation shall be fixed by the board and/or boards of education. The bond of this person shall be made to cover his duties as tax collector.

Opinions of Attorney General. A board of education cannot designate the sheriff to collect some school taxes, and designate an employee to collect the remainder, because a shared responsibility would defeat the legislative intention present in KRS 160.500 and this section to make a single person responsible for collection of the taxes. OAG 92-11.

Collection agencies may not collect school taxes imposed by county school districts because under KRS 160.500(1), the sheriff is designated as the party responsible for collection of school taxes for county schools; the only alternative is provided by this section, which authorizes a board of education to "appoint a person who shall be responsible for collection and administration" of the tax which clearly contemplates that the person so appointed will be an employee of the school district rather than a private contractor. OAG 92-11.

While delinquent taxes may be placed in a separate logical category from school taxes in general, it is a category without legal significance; delinquent school taxes are still school taxes, and their collection must comply with the statutory provisions for the collection of school taxes. OAG 92-11.

160.510. Taxes paid to depository — Reports of tax collector.

The tax collector shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, pay to the depository of the district board of education the amount of school tax collected up to and including the last day of the preceding month, except that the county clerk shall deduct his collection fee before payment to the district board of education depository. The amount so paid together with the classes of property from which it was received shall be reported in writing to the treasurer of the board. The report shall be accompanied by a duplicate of the receipt for the money given to the tax collector by the depository. The tax collector shall make final settlement with the district board of education at the same time he makes final settlement with the local taxing authority to which he is responsible. Blanks for such purposes shall be furnished by the Kentucky Board of Education.

1. Prior month's collection.
2. Liability of collector.
3. Deduction before deposit.

1. Prior Month's Collection.
   The sheriff becomes indebted to the school board each month for taxes collected the month before. Helton v. Hoskins, 278 Ky. 352, 128 S.W.2d 732 (1939).

2. Liability of Collector.

   Where sheriff collected $201,210.40 in school taxes and at the time of settlement withheld $8,048.40 representing a fee of 4 percent but claimed $4,900 as a fee and the board of education claimed he was entitled to only $800 and the court allowed him $3,782.75, he was liable for interest on the difference between the $4,900 commission allowed him by the court and the $8,048.40 he withheld. However, the costs should be divided equally between the sheriff and the board since the fee awarded the sheriff by the court was substantially in excess of the amount to which the board sought to limit him. Board of Educ. v. Collins, 259 S.W.2d 17 (Ky. 1953).

3. Deduction Before Deposit.
The plain reading of this section requires that the whole amount of school tax collected be paid to the depository; thus, a clerk may not deduct his or her fee prior to paying to the depository of the School District Board of Education the amount of the school tax collected. Benson v. Board of Educ., 748 S.W.2d 156 (Ky. Ct. App. 1988).

160.520. Penalties for tax delinquency — General laws apply. [Effective until July 1, 2005.]
The laws applying to penalties on and the collection of delinquent school taxes shall be the same as the general laws applying to penalties on and the collection of delinquent taxes of the taxing districts which embrace the various school districts.

Compiler’s Notes. For this section as effective until July 1, 2005, see the preceding section, also numbered KRS 160.520.

160.530. Use of school money.
The money collected by taxation under the provisions of KRS 160.460 to 160.520 and other school money shall be expended by the board of education in accordance with the recommendations contained in the budget submitted to the Kentucky Board of Education.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where the General Assembly failed to include a delayed effective date for the provisions regarding the teachers’ duty-free lunch period and class-size limitations in grades 1-8 contained in the education package enacted in the 1985 extraordinary session, the effective date of these provisions was October 18, 1985. However, given the restrictions of KRS 160.550(1) and this section, as well as the impracticalities of implementation on October 18, it was doubtful that any local school district could be expected to implement these programs on October 18. Therefore, except where otherwise expressly indicated in a particular provision, the education improvement programs which the local school districts have a duty to implement would have to be implemented by the local school districts beginning with the 1986-87 school year. OAG 85-132.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. District school funds.

2. Judgment against county board of education.

3. Decisions by local school board.

1. District School Funds.

District school funds collected by taxation under the provisions of KRS 160.460 to 160.520 do not become part of the common school fund of the state which is distributed by the state to the various school districts on a per capita basis and the state has nothing to do with the funds of the local school district. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Reeves, 289 Ky. 73, 157 S.W.2d 751 (1941).

2. Judgment Against County Board of Education.

Fact that there is no fund available to pay judgment against county board of education for refund of illegal taxes does not invalidate judgment, since county board of education may sue and be sued, and sufficient funds may be lawfully raised by taxation and used to pay the judgment. Board of Educ. v. Louisville & N.R.R., 260 Ky. 650, 134 S.W.2d 219 (1939).

3. Decisions by Local School Board.

The underlying theme of this section is that the actual decisions addressed hereunder are to be made by the local school board, not the state. Blackburn v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 749 F. Supp. 159 (E.D. Ky. 1990).

160.540. Power to borrow money in anticipation of taxes.

Any board of education may borrow money on the credit of the board and issue negotiable notes in anticipation of revenues from school taxes and state revenue for the fiscal year in which the money is borrowed, and may pledge the anticipated revenues from state and local sources for the payment of principal and interest on the loan. The rate of interest shall be at the rate or rates or method of determining rates as the board determines. In all cases such loans shall be repaid within the fiscal year in which they are borrowed. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 453, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 274, § 33, effective July 15, 1996.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Floating indebtedness.

2. Limitation on borrowing.

3. Liquidation of notes.

1. Floating Indebtedness.

2. Limitation on Borrowing.

A county board of education can accumulate a valid indebtedness only by borrowing in anticipation of the collection of a levy an amount not exceeding the total of said taxes to be collected, which borrowing is to be paid from said revenue when collected. Farson v. County Bd. of Educ., 100 F.2d 974 (6th Cir. 1939).

A school board cannot validly anticipate revenue in excess of the amount which it has fixed in its budget. Ebert v. Board of Educ., 278 Ky. 75, 128 S.W.2d 185 (1939).

3. Liquidation of Notes.

Where county board of education had incurred a $141,000 debt represented by promissory notes due to great deficiency in allocable franchise tax collections and the expenditures giving rise to the debt were for legitimate school purposes, revenue bonds could be issued to liquidate the indebtedness and an annual special tax in excess of maximum regular ad valorem tax levy authorized by statute could be levied to amortize principal and interest of funding bonds validly issued by the county school district where the maximum regular levy provided by KRS 160.475 was insufficient. Bell v. Board of Educ., 343 S.W.2d 804 (Ky. 1961).

Decisions Under Prior Law

Analysis

1. Floating indebtedness.

2. Limitation on borrowing.

1. Floating Indebtedness.

A floating indebtedness cannot be funded without violating Const., §§ 157 and 158 when it arose because expenditures exceeded the revenue provided for. Downey v. Board of Educ., 243 Ky. 66, 47 S.W.2d 931 (1932).

2. Limitation on Borrowing.

Provisions of this section are held to be limitations on actual borrowing, and not on the power to incur indebtedness which is controlled by the Constitution. Waller v. Georgetown Bd. of Educ., 209 Ky. 726, 273 S.W. 498 (1925).
160.550. Expenditure of funds in excess of income and revenue of any year.

(1) No superintendent shall recommend and no board member shall knowingly vote for an expenditure in excess of the income and revenue of any year, as shown by the budget adopted by the board and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education, except for a purpose for which bonds have been voted or in case of an emergency declared by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(2) Any school district having authorized an expenditure in violation of subsection (1) of this section may be so certified at any time by the Kentucky Board of Education. A district so certified shall thereafter, any contrary statutory provisions notwithstanding, make no expenditure of money, give no authorization involving the expenditure of money, and make no employment, purchase, or contract, unless the chief state school officer has approved the expenditure, authorization, employment, purchase, or contract. Any expenditure, authorization, employment, purchase, or contract made in violation of this subsection shall be void.

(3) Any school district subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall so remain until such time as the Kentucky Board of Education has approved, in conformity with KRS 160.470, a budget for the district for a succeeding fiscal year.

(4) In addition to the penalties set forth in KRS 160.990, any person who knowingly expends or authorizes the expenditure of school district funds or who knowingly authorizes or executes any employment, purchase, or contract, in violation of this section, shall be jointly and severally liable in money, and make no employment, purchase, or contract, in violation of this section, shall be jointly and severally liable in employment, purchase, or contract. Any expenditure, authorization, employment, purchase, or contract made in violation of this subsection shall be void.

160.560. Treasurer of board of education — Selection — Bond — Duties.

(1) Each board of education shall elect a treasurer for the board. The board may elect its secretary to conduct the affairs of the district.
serve as treasurer. The board may remove the treasurer from office at any time for cause by a vote of a majority of the members of the board.

(2) The treasurer shall execute an official bond for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, to be approved by the local board and the commissioner of education. The bond shall be guaranteed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, and shall be in an amount determined by the board of education in accordance with the administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. The premium on the bond shall be paid by the board of education. A copy of the bond shall be filed with the board of education and with the commissioner of education.

(3) The treasurer shall receive all moneys to which the board is entitled by the Constitution or by the statutes, except as otherwise provided by law, or which may in any way come into its possession, and deposit such funds in the properly designated depository. He shall withdraw such funds from the depository only upon proper order of the board. He shall keep a full and complete account of all funds in such manner and make such reports concerning them as is required by the board of education or by the Kentucky Board of Education. He shall preserve all records relating to the transactions and duties of the office and turn them over to his successor along with all public funds in his hands and all accounts and records after due and proper audit is made by a competent outside agent when he is required to do so by the board of education.

Whalen, The Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990 and Local Boards of Education, Vol. 57, No. 1, Winter 1991, Ky. Bench & Bar 11. Opinions of Attorney General. The treasurer of a local board of education, who received a salary of $10.00 per month and who had a pecuniary interest in an agency that sold insurance to the board of education, would be disqualified as treasurer if the pecuniary interest in the sale, direct or indirect, was in excess of $25.00. OAG 61-211. The offices of treasurer of the school board and city clerk are incompatible. OAG 61-823. The secretary and treasurer of the city board of education and the treasurer of the county board of education were disqualified from serving on the electric plant board. OAG 61-846.

While a board of education may discharge its secretary and its attorney at any time, the board may only remove its treasurer for cause by a vote of three members of the board and the treasurer is entitled to a hearing as to the cause of removal. OAG 73-128.

The treasurer of a county school board is considered a state officer and may not at the same time serve as commissioner of a municipal public utility which office in all probability constitutes a municipal office and, even if not, constitutes municipal employment. OAG 74-707.

As this section requires each board of education to elect a treasurer but is silent as to compensation for the treasurer, under the general powers given to boards of education under KRS 160.290, the board may fix a reasonable compensation. OAG 75-461.

The bond of a depository is a guarantee of the security of the funds and the assurance that they will be delivered on demand, and such bond imposes a greater responsibility than a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of an officer. Phillips v. Board of Educ., 283 Ky. 173, 140 S.W.2d 819 (1940).

2. —Approval.

Failure of school board or officer to approve or secure approval of bond of depository does not affect liability of sureties on bond, since requirement for approval is for protection of public funds and not for benefit of sureties, and since government is not responsible for laches or wrongful acts of its officers. Bennett v. County Bd. of Educ., 273 Ky. 143, 116 S.W.2d 302 (1938).

3. —Alterations.

Burden was on plaintiff seeking to recover from defendants as sureties on depository bond to prove that alterations changing bond from treasurer's bond to depository bond were made prior to defendants' signatures, or if subsequent, by their agreement. Phillips v. Board of Educ., 283 Ky. 173, 140 S.W.2d 819 (1940).

4. Application of Funds.

A bank, which is treasurer of a school board, and to which the board is indebted, cannot apply funds held by it to satisfaction of a matured debt due it by the board. Citizens' Bank v. Rowan County Bd. of Educ., 245 Ky. 384, 53 S.W.2d 549 (1932).

5. Audit of Records.

Statutory power to audit records of depository was merely an addition to the powers of the board and was not intended as limiting or restricting the inherent power to conduct its final affairs. Lewis v. Morgan, 252 S.W.2d 691 (Ky. 1952).

Treasurer and sureties are not liable for failure of a depository when its selection is by law given to another. Edwards v. Logan County, 244 Ky. 296, 50 S.W.2d 83 (1932).

Opinions of Attorney General.

Under this section a board of education may designate as its depository the authorized and bonded depository of the governing authority of the territory which the school district embraces. In such cases, the bond of the depository shall be made to cover specifically the safekeeping of the school board's funds, and all conditions set out in this section shall be carried out.

Opinions of Attorney General. Subsection (4) of this section does not require the county board of education to designate a depository within the county. OAG 60-554.

Subsection (1) of this section requires that interest be paid on the average daily or monthly balances of school board funds in a depository. OAG 60-554.

While the exact rate is not specified, subsection (1) of this section requires that some interest be paid. OAG 60-600.

The requirements of this section are mandatory, not directory, and unless they are fully complied with there has been no valid designation of a depository. OAG 60-600.

Boards of education may place their general funds in banks designated as depositories pursuant to this section and obtain from such banks certificates of deposit representing time deposits of surplus funds subject to withdrawal on demand. OAG 64-70.

A local board of education is violating the law if it deposits money in a bank other than its named depository bank. OAG 79-538.

Applicable Kentucky administrative regulations could be amended to lawfully provide that obligations of a Federal Farm Credit Bank, the Federal National Mortgage Association and the Federal Home Loan Bank could be used as collateral as security for the depository bond mentioned in this section, since KRS 41.240(9)(a) permits as collateral obligations or securities issued or guaranteed by any federal governmental agency. NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. Application.

   The jurisdiction conferred by KRS 160.290 relates to school property arising from public funds and necessarily does not apply to specific charitable trust donations made to a particular type of school district for its exclusive benefit, which are controlled by this section. Board of Educ. v. Todd County Bd. of Educ., 289 Ky. 803, 160 S.W.2d 170 (1942).

2. Trustee.

   The county board of education in taking out insurance policy on district school building built by specific charitable trust donation was only a naked trustee of the property, while pupils of district school were the real beneficiaries and thus entitled to proceeds of the insurance. Board of Educ. v. Todd County Bd. of Educ., 289 Ky. 803, 160 S.W.2d 170 (1942).

3. Discretionary Powers of Board.

   School board could make a white male high school coeducational although the land on which the school was built was partially purchased with funds contributed by the alumni association and the school board allowed the alumni association to be made a third party to the deed conveying the land and inserted a covenant that the school board agreed with the alumni association that it would hold said property for the exclusive use and benefit of white male students since the covenant in the deed was void as interfering with the exercise of the board's discretionary powers in the management and control of the public schools under its jurisdiction and against general public policy. Board of Educ. v. Society of Alumni of Louisville Male High Sch., Inc., 239 S.W.2d 931 (Ky. 1951).

160.590. Special funds — Disposition of. [Repealed.]

Opinions of Attorney General. A board of education of a school district has no discretion as to the subject of the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-551.

A county board of education had acted in bad faith the fiscal court had no alternative but to accept the school budget as presented to them and levy the requested three percent utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 67-435.

If the school board complies with this section and with KRS 160.603, the fiscal court is mandatorily required to levy a utility gross receipts license tax, within 15 days of such request, at the rate requested. OAG 69-367.

The term “shall” in the statute is mandatory. OAG 69-367.

Where a school board complies with the provisions of this section and KRS 160.603, the fiscal court is mandatorily required to levy the requested tax within 15 days of such request and at the rate requested. OAG 72-365.

It would appear that a school board which does not wish to have the tax applied to its district should make such fact known by formal written motion entered into the board minutes. OAG 72-471.

Under the 1972 amendment to this section the voters of one district can recall the tax for that particular district while the voters of another district can vote to have the tax remain in effect. OAG 72-471.

If the fiscal court refuses to levy a requested tax, the school board would have the right to sue the court to compel the levy but if only a minority of the members of the court vote against the levy the board would have no right of action against such minority. OAG 72-521.

The fiscal court is required to levy a requested tax when it is presented with a properly passed resolution of the school board requesting such tax. OAG 72-521.

This section empowers either of two county school districts to levy a utilities tax under KRS 160.613, OAG 72-521.

Any school district in which a special school tax is levied or about to be levied may petition for a referendum to recall said tax within the district and such recall would not have to be on a countywide basis. OAG 72-576.

Where a petition to have the issue of a school tax placed on the ballot is filed, the names of residents of an independent school district which does not desire to have the tax imposed in its jurisdiction may properly be removed from the petition. OAG 72-579.

Districts which have taken no action to either request or deny a levy may come in at a later date and make a request as applicable to their particular district. OAG 72-603.

Once the fiscal court has approved a requested levy the question of whether or not such tax should be levied may be passed on to the voters pursuant to the procedures specified in KRS 160.485. OAG 72-603.

The 1972 amendment to this section amends by implication the provisions of KRS 160.485 insofar as that section provides for recall on a countywide basis. OAG 72-603.
The question of the imposition of a utilities gross receipts tax should be placed on the ballot only in the territory encompassed by the three districts requesting the tax. OAG 72-603.

The tax is to be imposed only in the territorial limits of the district making the request for the levy. OAG 72-603.

The word "shall" appearing in this section is mandatory. OAG 75-152.

Where the school board had requested the fiscal court to levy a gross receipts utility tax for school purposes after compliance with this section and KRS 160.603 and the fiscal court refused to levy such tax, the county attorney could not represent the school board if a suit against fiscal court became necessary because of conflict of interest as county attorney pursuant to KRS 69.210. OAG 75-152.

Where a county adopts a three percent utility gross receipts license tax for schools, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section the applicable board or boards of education must levy the school tax, not the fiscal court, since the fiscal court has nothing to do with the levying and collecting of this tax. OAG 80-331.

The consequence of the 1976 amendment to this section was to let school districts that had been mandatorily tied together by preexisting law go their separate ways unless they requested in writing to levy an identical tax as a combined taxing district and had that request approved by the State Board of Education. School districts that had their request approved by the State Board would have the receipts from the tax distributed between the districts based upon average daily attendance as set forth in KRS 160.644. If this positive step of requesting the State Board of Education approval was not sought, each school district by itself continued to levy the tax, but was limited to the territory of its school district. Of course, any school district wishing to decrease the rate of its tax or cease levying the tax altogether could do so. OAG 82-146.

When levying a utilities gross receipts license tax for the purpose of complying with the minimum equivalent tax rate requirement set forth in KRS 160.470(12)(a) or for the purpose of participating in the “Tier 1” program set forth in KRS 157.440, a school board must follow the notice and hearing requirements of this section and KRS 160.603, but the recall provisions of KRS 160.597 do not apply. OAG 90-88.

ANALYSIS

1. Utility tax.
2. — Levy.
3. — Distribution.

1. Utility Tax.

2. — Levy.

As presently worded, this section and KRS 160.644 do not prohibit an individual school district from unilaterally levying a utility tax on the territory within its school district. Moreover, the legislature obviously intended this practice to be the rule rather than the exception. Board of Educ. v. Independent Bd. of Educ., 681 S.W.2d 429 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

There is nothing in this section and KRS 160.644 to preclude a school district which had agreed with another district or districts to levy taxes from rescinding that agreement and levying the taxes unilaterally. Board of Educ. v. Independent Bd. of Educ., 681 S.W.2d 429 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

3. — Distribution.

If a utility tax is levied by an individual school district, all the money goes to that school board. If the tax is levied by multiple districts in combination, the money is distributed proportionately. Board of Educ. v. Independent Bd. of Educ., 681 S.W.2d 429 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

160.595. Only one tax to be in effect at any time. [Repealed.]

160.597. Levy recall procedure.

Any school tax authorized by KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.633, and 160.635 to 160.648 may be recalled as follows:

(1) The order or resolution levying any of the school taxes designated heretofore in this section shall go into effect not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days after its passage. If, during the thirty (30) days immediately following the passage of the order or resolution, a petition signed by a number of registered and qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%), except in counties containing a city of the first class, equal to five percent (5%), of the votes cast in the school district or combined taxing district levying the tax for the office receiving the greatest total vote at the last preceding presidential election is presented to the county clerk requesting that the order or resolution of the tax be placed before the voters for approval, the order or resolution shall be suspended from going into effect for that district until after the election provided for in subsection (2) of this section. The person presenting the petition shall be given a receipt indicating the date of presentation. Each sheet of the petition shall contain the names, residence addresses, Social Security numbers, or dates of birth of voters in but one (1) voting precinct and each sheet shall state the name, number, or designation of the precinct and, where applicable, the name, number, or designation of the district or ward wherein the precinct is situated. If the signature is difficult to read, the voter shall, on the same line legibly write or print his name in the same fashion as he signed it. One (1) or more persons shall verify by affidavit the signatures and addresses of the signers of the petition. The county clerk shall make the determination of whether the petition contains enough signatures of qualified voters to suspend the effect of the order or resolution, and immediately shall notify the school board that the petition has been received and that the order or resolution levying the tax will be placed before the voters for approval. The county clerk shall certify to the school board within thirty (30) days of receipt of the petition that the petition is properly presented and in compliance with the provisions of this section. If the county clerk finds the petition to be invalid, it shall state in writing the deficiency of said petition. Written notification that the petition has been declared invalid and the deficiencies thereof shall Opinions of Attorney General. A recall petition must be filed within 30 days following the passage of the order or resolution of the fiscal court levying the tax. OAG 72-522.

A county may proportionately reduce the occupational license tax imposed under KRS 160.605 by enacting an ordinance with a logical arrangement for such a reduction, when the tax is to be levied after the start of the fiscal year and likewise penalties may be imposed for failure to pay the tax, but such penalties must be codified by ordinance. OAG 78-383.

It is the responsibility of the county board of elections to frame the question for the ballot proposal for recall of school taxes under this section. OAG 79-462.

Where a county board of education levied a utility gross receipts tax pursuant to an order authorized by KRS 160.613, after which a recall petition was presented to the county board of elections requesting that the tax levy be placed on the ballot for voter approval or disapproval, the board of education’s subsequent withdrawal of the tax levy order was a valid exercise of its discretion and the board of elections would not be required to still submit the recall question to the voters, since the necessity of the public having to bear the expense of holding such an election would serve no useful purpose. OAG 80-442.

When levying a utilities gross receipts license tax for the purpose of complying with the minimum equivalent tax rate requirement set forth in KRS 160.470(12)(a) or for the purpose of participating in the “Tier 1” program set forth in KRS 157.440, a school board must follow the notice and hearing requirements of KRS 160.593 and KRS 160.603, but the recall provisions of this section do not apply. OAG 90-88.

Any board complying fully with the provisions of KRS 160.614 and KRS 160.603 is not subject to the provisions of this section. OAG 90-96.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Application.
3. Timeliness of petition.
4. Verification by affidavit.
5. Levy subject to recall.
6. Levy not subject to recall.

1. Constitutionality.

The present school funding statutes permit local Boards of Education to raise funds through property taxes and permissive taxes such as the utilities tax; base funding and Tier One funding can be produced by a property tax not subject to voter recall and this nonrecallable option enables Boards of Education to fund schools without relying on permissive taxes; the General Assembly has supplied a mechanism to satisfy base funding, as well as Tier One funding, according to the mandate of Section 183 of the Kentucky Constitution; and that is all that Rose v. Council for Better Educ., Inc., 790 S.W.2d 186 (Ky. 1989) requires. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

2. Application.

The county Board of Education argued that the enactment of KRS 160.614 indicated that the General Assembly intended that the recall provisions of this section would not be applicable to utility taxes levied to provide base or Tier One funding, but KRS 160.614 merely expanded the utilities subject to a permissive school funding levy to include cable television and in the absence of a strong statutory indication to the contrary, an express statute will not be deemed to have been abrogated by implication. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

3. Timeliness of Petition.

Where the 30th day following the levy of a utility gross receipts tax was a Saturday, and the taxpayers’ petition to recall the levy and place the question before the voters for approval was filed on the following Monday, the county board of elections erroneously refused to consider the petition on the ground that it was not filed within the 30-day period since, under KRS 446.030(1) and (2), the last day of the period is not included in the 30 days if it is a Saturday or Sunday; however, the taxpayers’ remedy was to reapply to the board of elections, pointing out the error, rather than to file an action in court.

4. Verification by Affidavit.

Where affidavits were merely read, signed, and notarized, and only one circulator of the petition testified that some form of oath may have taken place, while testimony of the others was clear that it did not, the petitions were not “verified by affidavit” as required by this section. Board of Elections v. Board of Educ., 635 S.W.2d 324 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

An affidavit implies the taking of an oath as to the truth of its contents. A later administration of an oath to persons who previously signed affidavits cannot make the affidavits sufficient after the time has elapsed for filing the petitions to be verified, nor does the later administration of an oath constitute the “newly discovered evidence” provided for in Civil Rule 59.01(g). Board of Elections v. Board of Educ., 635 S.W.2d 324 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

5. Levy Subject to Recall.

County Board of Education’s levy of a utility gross receipts license tax, designed to produce additional revenue up to 15% of the base funding level, was subject to statutory recall election provisions. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

School district board of education’s levy of a utility gross receipts license tax on cable television services, pursuant to subsection (2) of KRS 160.614, was subject to the levy recall procedure set out in this section. Owensboro Cablevision, Inc. v. Libs, 863 S.W.2d 331 (Ky. Ct. App. 1993).

6. Levy Not Subject to Recall.

The 1990 change in KRS 160.470(10) and (11) prevents voter recall of a property tax levy if the tax revenue is intended to provide mandatory minimum base funding or permissive Tier One funding, but under the previous funding scheme, the “notwithstanding” language of KRS 160.470 had no abrogative effect on voter recall of permissive utility taxes and the General Assembly preserved this right in the funding scheme. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

160.599. Emergency loans to public common school districts.

(1) A special fund is hereby created which shall be known as “the emergency revolving school loan fund account,” hereinafter referred to as account. This account, which shall be administered by the Kentucky Board of Education, is for the purpose of providing emergency loans to eligible public common school districts.

(2) In order to be eligible for a loan from the account, a school district shall meet all of the following conditions:

(a) A loss of physical facilities must have been suffered as a result of a fire or a natural disaster;

(b) Insurance on such facilities was insufficient to replace the loss;

(c) The district is bonded to practical capacity and has insufficient resources to meet its immediate capital outlay needs as determined by an investigation of the chief state school officer.

(3) As an alternative to the criteria in subsection (2) of this section, a school district shall be eligible for a loan from the account if the sheriff has failed to collect or disburse delinquent tax revenue, which is for the benefit of the school district, within the fiscal year that the school district is to utilize those receipts according to its budget.

(4) Under the criteria of subsection (2) of this section, no loan from the account shall be made for a period in excess of ten (10) years, and under the criteria of subsection (3) of this section, no loan from the account shall be made for a period in excess of three (3) years. The maximum amount of any one (1) loan from the account shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) and shall be determined by the Kentucky Board of Education on recommendation of the chief state school officer.

(5) The Kentucky Board of Education shall establish the terms and conditions for repaying the principal of such loan and interest shall not be charged on the loan. No loan shall cover a loss prior to January 1, 1972.

(6) School districts eligible under this section to borrow from the account shall file formal application for such loan on forms provided by the state department of education. Before any loan is made, the application must be approved by the Kentucky Board of Education on the recommendation of the chief state school officer.

(7) All repayments of loans made under this section shall be paid into the emergency revolving school loan fund account, which shall be funded by an appropriation through the biennial budget. Balances remaining in the fund shall not revert to the general fund at the end of any fiscal year.

(8) On approval of the loan application by the Kentucky Board of Education on the recommendation of the chief state school officer, the Finance and Administration Cabinet, on the certification of the chief state school officer, shall draw a warrant on the State Treasurer for the amount of the approved loan that is due the school district. The check shall be issued by the State Treasurer and transmitted to the Department of Education for distribution to the proper officials of the school district when the district has complied with the rules and regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education.

(9) Any loan to a local school district under the provisions of this section shall not be considered as an indebtedness of the school district within the meaning of Sections 157 and 158 of the Kentucky Constitution.

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-58) was renumbered as KRS 160.991 and has since been repealed.
OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE TAX FOR SCHOOLS

160.601. Taxes, how designated.
The school taxes authorized by KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633 shall be known as an occupational license tax for schools, a utility gross receipts tax for schools, and an excise tax for schools as set out in the following sections.

Opinions of Attorney General. A board of education of a school district has no discretion as to the subject of the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-551.

Any settlement of claims for taxes owed, including interest and penalties, would be a diversion of school fund moneys for a purpose other than that of the common schools. OAG 88-46. Interest and penalties on past due and unpaid taxes belong to the local school district in the same manner as the taxes. OAG 88-46.

The allowance of a settlement or compromise of interest and penalties which have accrued to taxes owed a school district would be a circumvention of the provisions of this section. The result of the settlement or reduction would be that the property for which the tax was reduced would have been taxed at a different rate, which would be determined only upon the negotiating skills of the parties involved. OAG 88-46.

There is no statute which allows a local board to remit or release a claim for taxes, interest or penalty, in whole or in part. OAG 88-46.

160.603. Notice and hearing before levy.
No school district board of education shall levy any of the school taxes authorized by KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.633, and 160.635 to 160.648 until after compliance with the following:

1. The school district board of education desiring to levy any one (1) of these taxes shall give notice of any proposed levy of one (1) of the school taxes. Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, notice shall be given by causing to be published, at least one (1) time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or by posting at the courthouse door if there be no such newspaper, the fact that such levy is being proposed. The advertisement shall state that the district board of education will meet at a place and on a day fixed in the advertisement, not earlier than one (1) week and not later than two (2) weeks from the date of the advertisement, for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints regarding the proposed increase and explaining the reasons for such proposal.

2. The school district board of education shall conduct a public hearing at the place and on the date advertised for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints regarding the proposed levy and explaining the reasons for such proposal.

3. In the event that a combined taxing district desires to levy any one (1) of these taxes, the boards of education shall make a joint advertisement and hold a joint hearing in the manner prescribed heretofore for an individual school district.

Opinions of Attorney General. Unless a county board of education had acted in bad faith the fiscal court had no alternative but to accept the school budget as presented to them and levy the requested three percent utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 67-435.

If the school board complies with KRS 160.593 and with this section, the fiscal court is mandatorily required to levy a utility gross receipts license tax, within 15 days of such request, at the rate requested. OAG 69-367.

Where a school board complies with the provisions of this section and KRS 160.593, the fiscal court is mandatorily required to levy the requested tax within 15 days of such request and at the rate requested. OAG 72-365.

Where the fiscal court levies the utility gross receipts license tax authorized by KRS 160.613, the public should be notified by the school board in compliance with this section. OAG 74-288.

Where the school board had requested the fiscal court to levy a gross receipts utility tax for school purposes after compliance with KRS 160.593 and this section and the fiscal court refused to levy such tax, the county attorney could not represent the school board in a suit against fiscal court because necessary because of conflict of interest as county attorney pursuant to KRS 69.210. OAG 75-152.

The utility gross receipts license tax is levied by the fiscal court at the request of the school district board of education. OAG 80-22.

When levying a utilities gross receipts license tax for the purpose of complying with the minimum equivalent tax rate requirement set forth in KRS 160.470(12)(a) or for the purpose of participating in the “Tier 1” program set forth in KRS 157.440, a school board must follow the notice and hearing requirements of KRS 160.593 and this section, but the recall provisions of KRS 160.597 do not apply. OAG 90-88.

Any board complying fully with the provisions of KRS 160.614 and this section is not subject to the provisions of KRS 160.597. OAG 90-96.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.

2. Notice.

1. Constitutionality.

The authorization to the school boards to adopt an occupational tax does not violate Const., § 29. Turrell v. Board of Educ., 441 S.W.2d 767 (Ky. 1969).

2. Notice.

Wide publicity is not a substitute for statutory compliance, but when coupled with a notice which substantially follows the legal requirements the notice may be held valid. Turrell v. Board of Educ., 441 S.W.2d 767 (Ky. 1969).

Where the notice of a public hearing on the adoption of the occupational tax did not state that it was for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints and the number of the house bill under which the hearing was to be held was incorrectly printed but the notice was supported by front-page publicity, there was substantial compliance with the notice requirement. Turrell v. Board of Educ., 441 S.W.2d 767 (Ky. 1969).

160.605. Occupational tax — Exemptions.
There is hereby authorized the levy of an occupational license tax for schools on salaries, wages, commissions, and other compensation of individuals for work done and services performed or rendered in a county and on the net profits of all businesses, professions, or occupations from activities conducted in a county. No public service company which pays an ad valorem tax is required to pay an occupational license tax for schools. No occupational license tax for schools shall be imposed upon or collected from any insurance company, bank, trust company, combined bank and trust company, combined trust, banking and title business in this state, any savings and loan association whether state or federally chartered, or upon income received by members of the Kentucky National Guard for active duty training, unit training assemblies, and annual field training, or upon income received by precinct workers for election training or work at election booths in state, county, and local primary, regular, or special election.

Section 10 of Acts 1998, ch. 509, provided that the 1998 amendments to this section "apply to tax years beginning after December 31, 1997."

Opinions of Attorney General. A county may impose an occupational license tax for school purposes under this section only as to earned income and such a tax can be levied against natural or artificial persons as to the amount of income earned or services performed within the county limits, except as to those activities which are isolated, occurring infrequently (nonsystematic) or are a result of temporary special employment and, furthermore, an occupational license tax may be imposed upon a federal reservation by a county, notwithstanding the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal government. OAG 78-383.

A county may proportionately reduce the occupational license tax imposed under KRS 160.605 by enacting an ordinance with a logical arrangement for such a reduction, when the tax is to be levied after the start of the fiscal year and likewise penalties may be imposed for failure to pay the tax, but such penalties must be codified by ordinance. OAG 78-383.

A proportionate deduction may be used where the taxing ordinance is effectuated during the middle of a calendar-tax year, so long as it is logically arranged. OAG 78-383.

If a Union County business, whether a partnership or a corporation, performs work and services outside the county, only that portion which is earned in Union County is taxable. OAG 78-383.

The board of education can require the employer to comply with the occupational license tax ordinance by explicitly stating in a separate ordinance a penalty for failure to comply. OAG 78-383.

The scope of an occupational license tax as relates to revenue received for the privilege of engaging in a livelihood is confined to earned income. OAG 78-383.

Where a person resides is not the basis for levying an occupational license tax; the touchstone is where the person works and whether that activity is continuous or systematic. OAG 78-383.

Where an employee enters his place of employment is not important; rather, the question is where he is to perform the work, and therefore, in the case of a coal miner, the location of the entrance to the mine is unimportant but the location of the vein he works is important. OAG 78-383.

Union county may impose and collect an occupational license tax on earned income of persons employed at Camp Breckinridge. OAG 78-383.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Resolution and order.

1. Constitutionality.
The statute did not make an unconstitutional delegation of authority to tax. Turrell v. Board of Educ., 441 S.W.2d 767 (Ky. 1969).

2. Resolution and Order.
Where a resolution was adopted making the tax levy at the meeting of the fiscal court on July 2, 1968 and it was implemented by amendment at the August 20 meeting and the amendment did not change the amount, nature or purpose of the levy, there was no violation of the enabling statute. Turrell v. Board of Educ., 441 S.W.2d 767 (Ky. 1969).

Where the resolution and order as amended adopting the tax levy did not provide for all possible controversies, it was not void for uncertainty. Turrell v. Board of Educ., 441 S.W.2d 767 (Ky. 1969).

Where the notice of a public hearing on the adoption of the occupational tax did not state that it was for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints and the number of the house bill under which the hearing was to be held was incorrectly printed but the notice was supported by front-page publicity, there was substantial compliance with the notice requirement. Turrell v. Board of Educ., 441 S.W.2d 767 (Ky. 1969).

160.607. Rate of tax.
(1) The school tax authorized by KRS 160.482 to 160.488 and 160.605 shall be at a single uniform rate not to exceed one-half of one percent (0.5%) and shall continue from year to year until changed as prescribed in KRS 160.635 and 160.484.

(2) Any county having three hundred thousand (300,000) or more inhabitants is authorized to increase the school tax rate to exceed the maximum set in subsection (1) of this section by one-quarter of one percent (0.25%).

160.608. Authorization for levy of either or both utility gross receipts tax and excise tax on income, in addition to occupational license taxes. [Repealed.]

160.609. Procedure for recall of levy. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1974, ch. 251, § 3; 1982, ch. 50, § 1, effective March 4, 1982) was repealed by Acts 1984, ch. 43, § 2, effective July 13, 1984.

160.610. Fort Knox independent school district. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Acts 1944, ch. 26, §§ 1, 2) was repealed by Acts 1966, ch. 255, § 283.

160.611. Nonresidents of school districts exempt.

No occupational license tax for schools shall be collected from any individual who is not a resident of the school district imposing the school tax.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constuitionality.

This section, which exempts nonresidents of the county from paying the license or occupational tax for schools, did not violate either the state or federal Constitutions because it taxed only the persons living in that area that would receive the benefit. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 458 S.W.2d 6 (Ky. 1970).

UTILITY GROSS RECEIPTS LICENSE TAX FOR SCHOOLS

160.613. Utility gross receipts license tax — Exemptions. [Effective until July 1, 2005.]

(1) There is hereby authorized a utility gross receipts license tax for schools not to exceed three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the furnishing, within the county, of telephonic and telegraphic communications services, electric power, water, and natural, artificial, and mixed gas. "Gross receipts" includes all amounts received in money, credits, property, or other money's worth in any form, as consideration for the furnishing of the above utilities, except that "gross receipts" shall not include amounts received for furnishing energy or energy-producing fuels, used in the course of manufacturing, processing, mining, or refining to the extent that the cost of the energy or energy-producing fuels used exceeds three percent (3%) of the cost of production, and shall not include amounts received for furnishing any of the above utilities which are to be resold.

(2) In the event that any user of telephonic and telegraphic communications services, electrical power, water, and natural, artificial, or mixed gas purchases the telephonic and telegraphic communications services, electrical power, water, and natural, artificial, or mixed gas directly from any supplier who is exempt either by state or federal law from the utility gross receipts license tax under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, then the consumer, if such tax has been levied in his district, shall be liable for the tax and shall pay directly to the county finance officer, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 160.615, a utility gross receipts license tax for schools computed by multiplying the gross cost of all telephonic and telegraphic communications services, electrical power, water, and natural, artificial, or mixed gas received by the tax rate levied under the provisions of this section.

(3) "Gross cost" shall mean the total cost of the telephonic and telegraphic communications, electrical power, water, and natural, artificial, or mixed gas including the cost of the tangible personal property and any services associated with obtaining the telecommunication and telegraphic services or tangible personal property, such as gas, electricity, and water, regardless from whom purchased.

(4) The tax imposed by this section shall apply to mobile telecommunications services as defined in 4 U.S.C. sec. 124 only if the customer’s place of primary use is within the jurisdictional boundaries of the taxing jurisdiction. The provisions of 4 U.S.C. secs. 116 to 126 are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference.

(5) If a customer believes that a tax, charge, fee, or assignment of place of primary use or taxing jurisdiction on a bill is incorrect, the customer shall notify the home service provider about the alleged error in writing. This notification shall include the address for the customer’s place of primary use, the account name and number for which the customer seeks a correction, a description of the alleged error, and any other information that the home service provider reasonably requires. Within sixty (60) days of receiving the customer’s notification, the home service provider shall either correct the error and refund or credit all taxes, charges, and fees incorrectly charged to the customer within four (4) years of the customer’s notification, or explain to the customer in writing how the bill was correct and why a refund or credit will not be made.

(6) A customer shall not have a cause of action against a home service provider for any erroneously collected taxes, charges, or fees until the customer has exhausted the procedure set forth in subsection (5) of this section.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/2002).

The amendments made to this statute in 2002 Ky. Acts ch. 69, sec. 5, which created subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this statute, “take effect for customer service bills issued after August 1, 2002.” 2002 Ky. Acts ch. 69, sec. 6.

Compiler's Notes. For this section as effective July 1, 2007, see the following section, also numbered KRS 160.613. This section (Enact. Acts 1966, ch. 24, Part III, § 9; 1974, ch. 250, § 1, 1980, ch. 27, § 1, effective March 6, 1980) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 462, 250, § 1, 1980, ch. 27, § 1, effective March 6, 1980) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 462, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. A board of education of a school district has no discretion as to the subject of the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-555.

Bottled gas companies are not utilities and are not subject to the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-555.

Electrical power furnished to coal mines for the purpose of mining coal would be exempt from the three percent utility gross receipts license tax if it can be shown by the mining companies that such electrical power consumed by them is more than three percent of their total cost of production. OAG 66-599.

The county fiscal court would be the proper party to institute any legal action to enforce the collection and payment of the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-599.

Electrical power furnished to coal mines for the purpose of mining coal would be exempt from the three percent utility gross receipts license tax to the extent that such power used by the company exceeds three percent of their total cost of production. OAG 66-663.

A county school board could request a budget increase and the levy of a utility gross receipts license tax in the same year. OAG 66-675.

The utility gross receipts license tax would not apply to the sale of mineral spring water, fuel oil, or drinking water in a pure state, or in a public school district. OAG 66-581.

Since the utility gross receipts license tax for schools is on the vendor there is no exemption for agencies of the federal government. OAG 67-201.

A water district is not required to pay the three percent utility tax on sewerage charges where such charges are made a part of the total water bill and are not itemized or separated on the bill to the customer. OAG 67-282.

Utility companies are not responsible for payment of the three percent tax on sewerage charges when the charge is determined from water consumption but is separated from the rest of the utility bill. OAG 67-282.

The monthly remittance of the gross receipts license tax for schools is mandatory and the Attorney General's office has no authority to approve a different period for the payment of the tax. OAG 67-403.

Unless a county board of education had acted in bad faith the fiscal court had no alternative but to accept the school budget as presented to them and levy the requested three percent utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 67-435.

For a pulp and paper company the price of pulp wood and other raw materials would be excluded from operating costs. OAG 68-58.

Each source of energy or energy-producing fuel would be taxable to the extent it does not exceed three percent of production. OAG 68-58.

In determining the cost of energy or energy-producing fuels each type of energy-producing fuel would have to be treated separately. OAG 68-58.

The cost to a pulp and paper company of treating water from the river could be treated as cost of production, but not as a cost of energy or energy-producing fuels. OAG 68-58.

A natural gas pipeline company, required by the provisions of KRS 278.485 to furnish gas to homeowners living adjacent to its lines, but not required to serve the public in general, is not a public utility and is not required to collect the tax imposed by this section. OAG 68-179.

The school board may request the tax at any time. OAG 69-17.

The levy can become effective within a reasonable time after the provisions of this section have been complied with which would be 30 to 60 days. OAG 69-17.

A county public library is required to pay a school tax on utilities. OAG 69-202.

If the school board complies with KRS 160.593 and with 160.603, the fiscal court is mandatorily required to levy a utility gross receipts license tax, within 15 days of such request, at the rate requested. OAG 69-367.

The collection of the tax authorized by this section is limited to utility services furnished to customers located within the county and would not extend to utility services furnished customers in an adjoining state. OAG 69-576.

Energy furnished a company for manufacturing, processing, mining, or refining purposes would be exempt from the utility gross receipts tax only to the extent that the cost of the energy exceeds three percent of the cost of production. OAG 70-757.

The housing authority of Lexington, under the provisions of KRS 80.190, is required to pay the utility gross receipts license tax for schools provided for in this section. OAG 70-788.

The procedure for reducing the tax is set out in KRS 160.635. OAG 71-323.

This section contains no tax exemptions for counties and other political subdivisions. OAG 72-460.

A city-owned utility, as well as a public utility, is required to pay the three percent utility gross receipts tax for schools when it has been enacted by the fiscal court upon request of the school district after notice and hearing in accordance with KRS 160.603. OAG 73-822.

A city-owned utility is not entitled to be paid the expense of collecting the utility gross receipts tax since it may pass the tax on to consumers through a rate increase which, in contrast to a public utility under the Public Service Commission, may be done without commission approval. OAG 73-822.

Whether or not a rural electric cooperative corporation increases its rates it must pay the utility gross receipts license tax for schools provided for in KRS 279.200 was repealed by the later enactment of KRS 160.613 and 160.617, leaving as the only exemption that provided for in KRS 160.613. OAG 74-507.

As the tax authorized by this section may be passed on to the customers directly as a rate increase, the amounts paid thereunder are not deductible by the utility for state income tax purposes. OAG 74-814.

The flat charge for the furnishing of energy to security lights would fall within the definition of gross receipts set out in this section and would subject such fee to the tax provided in the section. OAG 75-432.

A rural water district required to pay the utility gross receipts tax may increase its rates by 3%, but the increase shall be noted on the bills as a “rate increase for school taxes” and any expenses incurred in passing the tax on to the customers must be absorbed by the utility company. OAG 75-455.

The state, county and city governments are subject to the utility gross receipts license tax authorized by this section. OAG 76-269.

Where a water district, which purchases water from the municipal water and sewer commission, sells water to its own customers and bills them individually, the water district must pay the utility gross receipts license tax to the county finance officer on the amount it bills to its individual customers, but if the customers resell the water to commercial haulers, then the customers must pay the utility tax. OAG 76-269.

Since the utility gross receipts license tax is denominated a rate increase with only those exceptions set out herein, religious institutions would not be exempt from paying the tax. OAG 80-22.
A school board is not prohibited from decreasing the tax rate below the maximum three percent if, in the board’s discretion, such a decrease is deemed warranted. OAG 80-59.

The local board of education has discretion to adopt a resolution calling for the levying of a utility gross receipts license tax for an indefinite number of years to come or to prescribe a predetermined number of years for existence of the tax. OAG 80-59.

Where a county board of education levied a utility gross receipts tax pursuant to an order authorized by this section, after which a recall petition was presented to the county board of education requesting that the tax levy be placed on the ballot for voter approval or disapproval pursuant to KRS 160.597, the board of education’s subsequent withdrawal of the tax levy order was a valid exercise of its discretion and the board of elections would not be required to still submit the recall question to the voters, since the necessity of the public having to bear the expense of holding such an election would serve no useful purpose. OAG 80-442.

The furnishing of telephonic communications services “within the county” is the taxable event and the basis of the county’s jurisdiction to impose the gross receipts tax. OAG 82-45.

The installation, maintenance and continued provision of telephones to residents within a county must constitute the furnishing of “telephonic communications services” and the phrase “telephonic communications services” makes no distinction between local calls and intrastate long distance calls; consequently, there is no reasonable basis to assume that the legislature ever intended to make such a distinction. OAG 82-45.

Any intrastate long distance telephone call which is made to or from a telephone located within a county where the tax is applicable and which is billed to that telephone is subject to the utility gross receipts license tax and the customer’s payment for such a call would then be included in “gross receipts” as defined in this section; any suggestion that such a payment should not be included in gross receipts is simply not supported by the plain language of this section since the only amounts that are to be exempted from gross receipts are specifically set out and those exemptions do not include receipts from intrastate long distance telephone calls. OAG 82-45.

Two school districts, which were a combined taxing district prior to 1976 amendment of KRS 160.593, were no longer a combined taxing district for the levying of the three percent utility gross receipts license tax, where, at no time after June 19, 1976, did the two school districts seek and obtain written approval from the State Board of Education to continue to levy an identical tax as a combined taxing district. OAG 82-146.

A religious institution is not exempt from paying the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 82-190.

The 3% utility gross receipts license tax authorized by this section may not be collected on sewerage and thus the water usage and sewerage usage will have to be separated on the bill in order for the 3% to be charged only on the water usage. OAG 82-519.

Upon a merger of a county school district and an independent school district, the utility gross receipts license tax of three percent in effect in the county school district would become effective as to the entire merged district. OAG 83-325.

Telephonic communications services encompass telephonic equipment provided to consumers by telephone companies for a periodic fee which would be included in gross receipts subject to the tax. OAG 83-346.

Since cable television is not specifically named in this section, and does not fall within the meaning of “telephonic and telegraphic communications services” because it is not a form of communication provided by telephones or telegraphs, the tax does not apply to cable television. OAG 83-346.

Even though a utility company may raise its rates under KRS 160.617 to compensate for the utility gross receipts license tax levied by this section, this does not make it a tax levied on the customers; it remains the utility company’s liability. Consequently, the Providence Housing Authority, a tax exempt organization, is not exempt from paying the added cost since it is not paying the utility gross receipts license tax, it is paying for utility services. OAG 83-445.

The utility gross receipts tax is not actually a tax on the consumer, but rather is a tax on the utility itself although the utility does have the statutory authority, under KRS 160.617, to pass on the tax to the consumer; there is no statutory basis for providing an exemption to any consumer. OAG 84-70.

Where the only road by which one could gain access to property located in a county which had a utility gross receipts tax was through the adjacent county, which did not have such a tax, and where the Property Valuation Administrators of the two counties agreed to allow residents of such property to pay their property taxes in adjacent county in exchange for the county magistrate in that area caring for the roads and providing other services to these people, such arrangement had no valid legal basis and residents of the property were not entitled to exemption from utility gross receipts tax if their property was within the boundaries of the county school district, even though their children attended school in the adjacent county. OAG 84-70.

While this section does contain an exemption for utilities that are resold, it is obvious that the exemption applies only to utility purchases that are resold as utilities, in which event the reseller becomes liable for the tax as a supplier of the utility; in the case of a brick manufacturer, presumably the water purchases represent the cost of a raw material necessary for production; although the water may be a component of the finished bricks, nobody buys bricks to get the water out of them and therefore, the manufacturer may not be deemed to be reselling the water utility, and consequently its water purchases are taxable. OAG 92-22.

County is obligated to pay the cost of taxes imposed on utilities that are passed through to the county as a consumer. County is not entitled to a refund of such taxes that have been previously paid. OAG 93-17.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Liability for tax.
3. Exemptions.
4. Regulations.
5. Refund.
6. Recall election.

1. Constitutionality.

The tax authorized under this section is for state purposes and, therefore, does not violate the provisions of Const., § 181. Lamar v. Board of Educ., 467 S.W.2d 143 (Ky. 1971).

Taxation of gross receipts from sales of gas which has moved in interstate commerce and is delivered direct to a Kentucky consumer is not an infringement of the commerce clause of the United States Constitution. Texas Gas Transmission Corp. v. Board of Educ., 502 S.W.2d 82 (Ky. Ct. App. 1973).

The county regulation requiring the payment of the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax by the direct payment method in order to claim the exemption under this section to the extent that the cost of energy or energy-producing fuels used by a manufacturer, processor, miner, or refiner exceeds three per-
2. Liability for Tax.
Where a fiscal court levied a utility gross receipts license tax of three percent pursuant to KRS 160.613 and a utility therefore increased its customers' bills by three percent pursuant to KRS 160.617, the utility was the taxpayer liable for its consequent increase in gross receipts since such receipts were not exempt from sales tax and the increase could not be considered as a tax on customers in which the utility company merely acted as a collection agency. Luckett v. Electric & Water Plant Bd., 558 S.W.2d 611 (Ky. 1977).

3. Exemptions.
The county regulation requiring the payment of the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax in order to claim the exemption under subsection (1) of this section did not enlarge or limit the terms of the legislative enactment, and the county fiscal court had the authority to promulgate regulations for the collection of the tax; therefore, the regulation did not violate the law, and the taxpayer was not entitled to a refund for the overpaid tax on the ground that the regulation was invalid and it paid the excess tax involuntarily. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

The regulation requiring the payment of the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax by the direct payment method in order to claim the exemption to the extent that the cost of energy or energy-producing fuels used by a manufacturer, processor, miner or refiner exceeds three percent of its cost of production did not conflict with the enabling statute. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

A local regulation providing for a local utility tax for the purpose of collecting revenue for schools was invalid to the extent that it allowed taxpayers with an energy direct pay method to claim the exemption to the extent that the cost of energy or energy-producing fuels used by a manufacturer, processor, miner or refiner exceeded three percent of their cost of production. OAG 66-551.

4. Regulations.
Where the direct payment method caused less disruption in the finances of the county school district, the county regulation which gave refunds or credits to taxpayers who paid according to the direct payment method when their cost of energy or energy-producing fuels used exceeded three percent of their cost of production, but denied it to those who failed to use that method, did not violate the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

5. Refund.
Since the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax is a local tax and the moneys levied by the tax are not paid into the state treasury, KRS 134.580 would not provide a refund to a taxpayer. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

6. Recall Election.
County Board of Education's levy of a utility gross receipts license tax, designed to produce additional revenue up to 15% of the base funding level, was subject to statutory recall election provisions. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

160.613. Utility gross receipts license tax — Exemptions. [Effective July 1, 2005.]
(1) There is hereby authorized a utility gross receipts license tax for schools not to exceed three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the furnishing, within the district, of utility services, except that “gross receipts” shall not include amounts received for furnishing energy or energy-producing fuels, used in the course of manufacturing, processing, mining, or refining to the extent that the cost of the energy or energy-producing fuels used exceeds three percent (3%) of the cost of production, and shall not include amounts received for furnishing any of the above utilities which are to be resold.

(2) If any user of utility services purchases the utility services directly from any supplier who is exempt either by state or federal law from the utility gross receipts license tax, then the consumer, if the tax has been levied in the consumer's district, shall be liable for the tax and shall pay directly to the cabinet, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 160.615, a utility gross receipts license tax for schools computed by multiplying the gross cost of all utility services received by the tax rate levied under the provisions of this section.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/2002). The amendments made to this statute in 2002 Ky. Acts ch. 69, sec. 5, which created subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this statute, “take effect for customer service bills issued after August 1, 2002.” 2002 Ky. Acts ch. 69, sec. 6.

Compiler's Notes. For this section as effective until July 1, 2005, see the preceding section, also numbered KRS 160.613. This section (Enact. Acts 1966, ch. 24, Part III, § 9; 1974, ch. 250, § 1, 1980, ch. 27, § 1, effective March 6, 1980) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 462, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. A board of education of a school district has no discretion as to the subject of the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-551.

Bottled gas companies are not utilities and are not subject to the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-555.

Electrical power furnished to coal mines for the purpose of mining coal would be exempt from the three percent utility gross receipts license tax if it can be shown by the mining companies that such electrical power consumed by them is more than three percent of their total cost of production. OAG 66-599.

The county fiscal court would be the proper party to institute any legal action to enforce the collection and payment of the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-599.

Electrical power furnished to coal mines for the purpose of mining coal would be exempt from the three percent utility gross receipts license tax to the extent that such power used by the companies exceeds three percent of their total cost of production. OAG 66-663.

A county school board could request a budget increase and the levy of a utility gross receipts license tax in the same year. OAG 66-675.

The utility gross receipts license tax would not apply to the sale of mineral spring water, fuel oil, or drinking water in a particular school district. OAG 67-51.

Since the utility gross receipts license tax for schools is on the vendor there is no exemption for agencies of the federal government. OAG 67-201.
A water district is not required to pay the three percent utility tax on sewerage charges where such charges are made a part of the total water bill and are not itemized or separated on the bill to the customer. OAG 67-282.

Utility companies are not responsible for payment of the three percent tax on sewerage charges when the charge is determined from water consumption but is separated from the rest of the utility bill. OAG 67-282.

The monthly remittance of the gross receipts license tax for schools is mandatory and the Attorney General's office has no authority to approve a different period for the payment of the tax. OAG 68-55.

Unless a county board of education had acted in bad faith the fiscal court had no alternative but to accept the school budget as presented to them and levy the requested three percent utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 67-435.

For a pulp and paper company the price of pulp wood and other raw materials would be excluded from operating costs. OAG 68-58.

Each source of energy or energy-producing fuel would be taxable to the extent it does not exceed three percent of production. OAG 68-58.

In determining the cost of energy or energy-producing fuels each type of energy-producing fuel would have to be treated separately. OAG 68-58.

The cost to a pulp and paper company of treating water from the river could be treated as cost of production, but not as a cost of energy or energy-producing fuels. OAG 68-58.

A natural gas pipeline company, required by the provisions of KRS 278.485 to furnish gas to homeowners living adjacent to its lines, but not required to serve the public in general, is not a public utility and is not required to collect the tax imposed by this section. OAG 68-179.

The school board may request the tax at any time. OAG 69-17.

The levy can become effective within a reasonable time after the provisions of this section have been complied with which would be 30 to 60 days. OAG 69-17.

A county public library is required to pay a school tax on utilities. OAG 69-202.

If the school board complies with KRS 160.593 and with 160.603, the fiscal court is mandatorily required to levy a utility gross receipts license tax, within 15 days of such request, at the rate requested. OAG 69-367.

The collection of the tax authorized by this section is limited to utility services furnished to customers located within the county and would not extend to utility services furnished customers living adjacent state. OAG 69-576.

Energy furnished a company for manufacturing, processing, mining, or refining purposes would be exempt from the utility gross receipts tax only to the extent that the cost of the energy used exceeds three percent of the cost of production. OAG 70-757.

The housing authority of Lexington, under the provisions of KRS 80.190, is required to pay the utility gross receipts license tax for schools provided for in this section. OAG 70-788.

The procedure for reducing the tax is set out in KRS 160.635. OAG 71-323.

This section contains no tax exemptions for counties and other political subdivisions. OAG 72-460.

A city-owned utility, as well as a public utility, is required to pay the three percent utility gross receipts tax for schools when it has been enacted by the fiscal court upon request of the school district after notice and hearing in accordance with KRS 160.603. OAG 73-822.

A city-owned utility is not entitled to be paid the expense of collecting the utility gross receipts tax since it may pass the tax on to consumers through a rate increase which, in contrast to a public utility under the Public Service Commission, may be done without commission approval. OAG 73-822.

Whether or not a rural electric cooperative corporation increases its rates it must pay the utility gross receipts license tax for schools provided in KRS 160.613 since the exemption provided for in KRS 278.200 was repealed by the later enactment of KRS 160.613 and 160.517, leaving as the only exemption that provided for in KRS 160.613. OAG 74-507.

As the tax authorized by this section may be passed on to customers directly as a rate increase, the amounts paid thereunder are not deductible by the utility for state income tax purposes. OAG 74-814.

The flat charge for the furnishing of energy to security lights which fall within the definition of gross receipts set out in this section and would subject such fee to the tax provided in the section. OAG 75-432.

A rural water district required to pay the utility gross receipts tax may increase its rates by 3%, but the increase shall be noted on the bills as a “rate increase for school taxes” and any expenses incurred in passing the tax on to the customers must be absorbed by the utility company. OAG 75-455.

The state, county and city governments are subject to the utility gross receipts license tax authorized by this section. OAG 76-269.

Where a water district, which purchases water from the municipal water and sewer commission, sells water to its own customers and bills them individually, the water district must pay the utility gross receipts license tax to the county finance officer on the amount it bills to its individual customers, but if the customers resell the water to commercial haulers, then the customers must pay the utility tax. OAG 76-269.

Since the utility gross receipts license tax is denominated a rate increase with only those exceptions set out herein, religious institutions would not be exempt from paying the tax. OAG 80-22.

A school board is not prohibited from decreasing the tax rate below the maximum three percent if, in the board's discretion, such a decrease is deemed warranted. OAG 80-59.

The local board of education has discretion to adopt a resolution calling for the levying of a utility gross receipts license tax for an indefinite number of years to come or to prescribe a predetermined number of years for existence of the tax. OAG 80-59.

Where a county board of education levied a utility gross receipts tax pursuant to an order authorized by this section, after which a recall petition was presented to the county board of elections requesting that the tax levy be placed on the ballot for voter approval or disapproval pursuant to KRS 160.597, the board of education's subsequent withdrawal of the tax levy order was a valid exercise of its discretion and the board of elections would not be required to still submit the recall question to the voters, since the necessity of the public having to bear the expense of holding such an election would serve no useful purpose. OAG 80-442.

The furnishing of telephonic communications services “within the county” is the taxable event and the basis of the county's jurisdiction to impose the gross receipts tax. OAG 82-45.

The installation, maintenance and continued provision of telephones to residents within a county must constitute the furnishing of “telephonic communications services” and the phrase “telephonic communications services” makes no distinction between local calls and intrastate long distance calls; consequently, there is no reasonable basis to assume that the legislature ever intended to make such a distinction. OAG 82-45.

Any intrastate long distance telephone call which is made to or from a telephone located within a county where the tax is applicable and which is billed to that telephone is subject to the utility gross receipts license tax and the customer's payment for such a call would then be included in “gross receipts” as defined in this section; any suggestion that such a payment should not be included in gross receipts is simply not supported by the plain language of this section since the only amounts that are to be exempted from gross receipts are specifically set out and those exemptions do not include receipts from intrastate long distance telephone calls. OAG 82-45.

Two school districts, which were a combined taxing district prior to 1976 amendment of KRS 160.593, were no longer a combined taxing district for the levying of the three percent utility gross receipts license tax, where, at no time after June 19, 1976, did the two school districts seek and obtain written approval from the State Board of Education to continue to levy an identical tax as a combined taxing district. OAG 82-146.

A religious institution is not exempt from paying the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 82-190.

The 3% utility gross receipts license tax authorized by this section may not be collected on sewerage and thus the water usage and sewerage usage will have to be separated on the bill in order for the 3% to be charged only on the water usage. OAG 82-519.

Upon a merger of a county school district and an independent school district, the utility gross receipts license tax of three percent in effect in the county school district would become effective as to the entire merged district. OAG 83-325.

Telephonic communications services encompass telephonic equipment provided to consumers by telephone companies for a periodic fee which would be included in gross receipts subject to the tax. OAG 83-346.

Since cable television is not specifically named in this section, and does not fall within the meaning of “telephonic and telegraphic communications services” because it is not a form of communication provided by telephones or telegraphs, the tax does not apply to cable television. OAG 83-346.

If a utility company may raise its rates under KRS 160.617 to compensate for the utility gross receipts license tax levied by this section, does this make it a tax levied on the customers; it remains the utility company’s liability. Consequently, the Providence Housing Authority, a tax exempt organization, is not exempt from paying the added cost since it is not paying the utility gross receipts license tax, it is paying for utility services. OAG 83-445.

The utility gross receipts tax is not actually a tax on the consumer, but rather is a tax on the utility itself although the utility does have the statutory authority, under KRS 160.617, to pass on the tax to the consumer; there is no statutory basis for providing an exemption to any consumer. OAG 84-70.

Where the only road by which one could gain access to property in a county which had a utility gross receipts tax was through the adjacent county, which did not have such tax, and where the Property Valuation Administrators of the two counties agreed to allow residents of such property to pay their property taxes in adjacent county in exchange for the county magistrate in that area caring for the roads and providing other services to these people, such arrangement had no valid legal basis and residents of the property were not entitled to exemption from utility gross receipts tax if their property was within the boundaries of the county school district, even though their children attended school in the adjacent county. OAG 84-70.

While this section does contain an exemption for utilities that are resold, it is obvious that the exemption applies only to utility purchases that are resold as utilities, in which event the reseller becomes liable for the tax as a supplier of the utility; in the case of a brick manufacturer, presumably the water purchases represent the cost of a raw material necessary for production; although the water may be a component of the finished bricks, nobody buys bricks to get the water out of them and therefore, the manufacturer may not be deemed to be reselling the water utility, and consequently its water purchases are taxable. OAG 92-22.

County is obligated to pay the cost of taxes imposed on utilities that are passed through to the county as a consumer. County is not entitled to a refund of such taxes that have been previously paid. OAG 93-17.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Liability for tax.
3. Exemptions.
4. Regulations.
5. Refund.
6. Recall election.

1. Constitutionality.

The tax authorized under this section is for state purposes and, therefore, does not violate the provisions of Const., § 181. Lamar v. Board of Educ., 467 S.W.2d 143 (Ky. 1971).

Taxation of gross receipts from sales of gas which has been moved in interstate commerce and is delivered direct to a Kentucky consumer is not an infringement of the commerce clause of the United States Constitution. Texas Gas Transmission Corp. v. Board of Educ., 502 S.W.2d 82 (Ky. Ct. App. 1973).

The county regulation requiring the payment of the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax by the direct payment method in order to claim the exemption under this section to the extent that the cost of energy or energy-producing fuels used by a manufacturer, processor, miner, or refiner exceeds three percent of its cost of production, did not violate Const., §§ 171 and 172, as the regulation was neither arbitrary nor unreasonable, and the taxpayer was not assessed for excess tax. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

2. Liability for Tax.

Where a fiscal court levied a utility gross receipts license tax of three percent pursuant to KRS 160.613 and a utility therefore increased its customers’ bills by three percent pursuant to KRS 160.617, the utility was the taxpayer liable for its consequent increase in gross receipts since such receipts were not exempt from sales tax and the increase could not be considered as a tax on customers in which the utility company merely acted as a collection agency. Luckett v. Electric & Water Plant Bd., 558 S.W.2d 611 (Ky. 1977).

3. Exemptions.

The county regulation requiring the payment of the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax in order to claim the exemption under subsection (1) of this section did not enlarge or limit the terms of the legislative enactment, and the county fiscal court had the authority to promulgate regulations for the collection of the tax; therefore, the regulation did not violate the law, and the taxpayer was not entitled to a refund for the overpaid tax on the ground that the regulation was invalid and it paid the excess tax involuntarily. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

The regulation requiring the payment of the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax by the direct payment method in order to claim the exemption to the extent that the cost of energy or energy-producing fuels used by a manufacturer, processor, miner or refiner exceeds three percent of its cost of production did not conflict with the enabling statute. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

A local regulation providing for a local utility tax for the purpose of collecting revenue for schools was invalid to the extent that it allowed taxpayers with an energy direct pay authorization (EDPA) to claim an exemption for energy costs that exceeded three percent (3%) of the cost of production and provided no regulatory scheme for a refund of excess tax paid prior to the time a taxpayer is eligible to obtain an EDPA. Inland Container Corp. v. Mason County Bd. of Educ., 6 S.W.3d 374 (Ky. 1999).

4. Regulations.
Where the direct payment method caused less disruption in the finances of the county school district, the county regulation which gave refunds or credits to taxpayers who paid according to the direct payment method when their cost of energy or energy-producing fuels used exceeded three percent of their cost of production, but denied it to those who failed to use that method, did not violate the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

5. Refund.
Since the Utility Gross Receipts License Tax is a local tax and the moneys levied by the tax are not paid into the state treasury, KRS 134.580 would not provide a refund to a taxpayer. Martin Marietta Aluminum, Inc. v. Hancock County Bd. of Educ., 806 F.2d 678 (6th Cir. 1986).

6. Recall Election.
County Board of Education’s levy of a utility gross receipts license tax, designed to produce additional revenue up to 15% of the base funding level, was subject to statutory recall election provisions. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

160.6131. Definitions for KRS 160.613 to 160.617. [Effective July 1, 2005.]
As used in KRS 160.613 to 160.617:
(1) “Cabinet” means the Revenue Cabinet.
(2) “Communications service” shall have the same meaning as provided in KRS 139.195 but does not include:
(a) Prepaid calling services;
(b) Interstate telephone service, if the interstate charge is separately itemized for each call; and
(c) If the interstate calls are not itemized, the portion of telephone charges identified and set out on the customer’s bill as interstate as supported by the provider’s books and records.
(3) “Gross cost” means the total cost of utility services including the cost of the tangible personal property and any services associated with obtaining the utility services regardless from whom purchased.
(4) “Gross receipts” means all amounts received in money, credits, property, or other money’s worth in any form, as consideration for the furnishing of utility services.
(5) “Utility services” means the furnishing of communications services, electric power, water, and natural, artificial, and mixed gas.
(Enact. Acts 2004, ch. 79, § 1, effective July 1, 2005.)

160.614. Tax on gross receipts from furnishing of cable television services. [Effective until July 1, 2005.]
(1) A utility gross receipts license tax initially levied by a school district board of education on or after July 13, 1990, shall be levied on the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of cable television services in addition to the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of the services enumerated in KRS 160.613.
(2) A utility gross receipts license tax initially levied by a school district board of education prior to July 13, 1990, shall be levied on the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of cable television services, in addition to the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of the services enumerated in KRS 160.613, if the school district board of education repeats the notice and hearing requirements of KRS 160.603, but only as to the levy of the tax on the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of cable television services.

Compiler’s Notes. For this section as effective July 1, 2005, see the following section, also numbered KRS 160.614.

Opinions of Attorney General. Any board complying fully with the provisions of this section and KRS 160.603 is not subject to the provisions of KRS 160.597. OAG 90-96.

The inclusion of cable television services under the utility gross receipts license tax is merely an enlargement of the class of utilities subject to the utility gross receipts license tax and not a new tax. OAG 90-96.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Application.
2. Recall election.

1. Application.
The county Board of Education argued that the enactment of this section indicated that the General Assembly intended that the recall provisions of KRS 160.597 would not be applicable to utility taxes levied to provide base or Tier One funding, but this section merely expanded the utilities subject to a permissive school funding levy to include cable television and in the absence of a strong statutory indication to the contrary, an express statute will not be deemed to have been abrogated by implication. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

2. Recall Election.
County Board of Education’s levy of a utility gross receipts license tax, designed to produce additional revenue up to 15% of the base funding level, was subject to statutory recall election provisions. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

School district board of education’s levy of a utility gross receipts license tax on cable television services, pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, was subject to the levy recall procedure set out in KRS 160.597. Owensboro Cablevision, Inc. v. Libs, 863 S.W.2d 331 (Ky. Ct. App. 1993).

160.614. Tax on gross receipts from furnishing of cable television services. [Effective July 1, 2005.]
(1) A utility gross receipts license tax initially levied by a school district board of education on or after July 13, 1990, shall be levied on the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of cable television services in addition to the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of the services enumerated in KRS 160.613.
from the furnishing of the utility services defined in KRS 160.6131.

(2) A utility gross receipts license tax initially levied by a school district board of education prior to July 13, 1990, shall be levied on the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of cable television services, in addition to the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of the utility services defined in KRS 160.6131, if the school district board of education repeats the notice and hearing requirements of KRS 160.603, but only as to the levy of the tax on the gross receipts derived from the furnishing of cable television services.

Compiler’s Notes. For this section as effective until July 1, 2005, see the preceding section, also numbered KRS 160.614.

160.615. Taxes payable, when. [Effective until July 1, 2005.]

The school taxes authorized by KRS 160.613 shall be due and payable monthly and shall be remitted on or before the twentieth day of the next succeeding calendar month.

Compiler’s Notes. For this section as effective until July 1, 2005, see the following section, also numbered KRS 160.615.

Opinions of Attorney General. A board of education of a school district has no discretion as to the subject of the utility gross receipts license tax. OAG 66-551.

The monthly remittance of the gross receipts license tax for schools is mandatory and the Attorney General’s office has no authority to approve a different period for the payment of the tax. OAG 67-403.

The levy can become effective within a reasonable time after the provisions of KRS 160.613 have been complied with which would be 30 to 60 days. OAG 69-17.

160.615. Taxes payable, when — Extension. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

(1) The school taxes authorized by KRS 160.613 and 160.614 shall be due and payable monthly and shall be remitted to the cabinet on or before the twentieth day of the next succeeding calendar month.

(2) On or before the twentieth day of the month following each calendar month, a return for the preceding month shall be filed with the cabinet in the form prescribed by the cabinet, together with any tax due.

(3) For purposes of facilitating the administration, payment or collection of the taxes levied by KRS 160.613 and 160.614, the cabinet, in consultation with the impacted school district, may permit or require returns or tax payments for periods other than those prescribed in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) The cabinet may, upon written request received on or prior to the due date of the return or tax, for good cause satisfactory to the cabinet, extend the time for filing the return or paying the tax for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days.

(5) Any person to whom an extension is granted and who pays the tax within the period for which the extension is granted shall pay, in addition to the tax, interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date on which the tax would otherwise have been due.

Compiler’s Notes. For this section as effective until July 1, 2005, see the preceding section, also numbered KRS 160.615.

160.6151. Application of sales and use tax laws to taxes authorized by KRS 160.613 and 160.614. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

For purposes of administering the taxes authorized by KRS 160.613 and 160.614 relating to the sourcing of communications services and the rights of customers, the provisions of KRS 139.105(2), 139.195, and 139.775 shall apply.

160.6152. Superintendents to provide information to cabinet and to utilities — Allocation of tax payments — Resolution of conflicts. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

(1) The superintendent of schools in each school district levying the tax permitted by KRS 160.593 shall, on or before March 31, 2005, provide to the cabinet and to each entity providing utility services within the school district, the boundaries of the school district.

(2) If the boundaries reported to the cabinet and to each entity providing utility services within the school district change, the superintendent of schools shall report the boundary changes to the cabinet and to each entity providing utility services within the school district.

(3) The cabinet and entities providing utility services within the school district shall allocate tax payments among the various school districts imposing the taxes authorized by KRS 160.613 and 160.614 in accordance with the most recent boundary information provided by the superintendents, as adjusted by any agreements entered into pursuant to KRS 160.6153. The cabinet and entities providing utility services within a school district shall not be responsible for nor subject to the imposition of penalties or interest relating to, distribution errors resulting from incorrect boundary information provided pursuant to this section, and may rely upon the most recent boundary information and any agreements entered into pursuant to KRS 160.6153 and provided by each superintendent as accurate.
(4) If there is a conflict regarding school district boundaries, the cabinet may, until the conflict is resolved, distribute the total tax revenues collected for the districts involved in the conflict proportionately to the districts based upon the average daily attendance in the districts for the previous school year.

160.6153. Procedure when allocation on taxpayer’s return varies from school district boundary information provided by superintendents — Adjustment — Exceptions — Reallocation agreement. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

(1) If the cabinet determines that the allocation among districts as submitted by the taxpayer on the return varies from the school district boundary information submitted to the cabinet pursuant to KRS 160.6152, the cabinet shall:

(a) Make a proposed administrative adjustment to correct the erroneous allocation going forward;

(b) Determine whether the erroneous allocation was used on prior returns and if it was, make a proposed administrative adjustment going back a maximum of one (1) year from the date the erroneous allocation was discovered; and

(c) Retain taxes collected and still on hand for distribution to the impacted districts that are related to the erroneous allocation until the proposed administrative adjustment becomes final.

(2) Within ten (10) days of the discovery of the erroneous allocation, the cabinet shall notify the taxpayer and the impacted school districts in writing of the allocation discrepancy, including the dollar amount at issue, the proposed administrative adjustment to be made, and the process for agreeing to or filing an exception to the proposed administrative adjustment.

(3) The proposed administrative adjustment shall become final upon the earlier of the receipt by the cabinet of written acceptance of the administrative adjustment by all impacted school districts or the expiration of forty-five (45) days from the date of the notice with no exception having been filed.

(4) (a) Exceptions to the proposed administrative adjustment shall be filed with the secretary of the cabinet, within forty-five (45) days from the date of the notice, and shall include a supporting statement setting forth the basis of the exception. A copy of any exception filed shall also be mailed to the impacted utility services provider and any other impacted school district.

(b) After the exception has been filed, the impacted school district may request a conference with the cabinet. The request shall be granted in writing stating the time and date of the conference. Other impacted school districts and the impacted utility services provider may also attend any conference. Additional conferences may be held upon mutual agreement.

(c) After considering the exceptions filed by the impacted school district, including any information provided during any conferences, a final administrative ruling shall be issued by the cabinet. The final administrative ruling shall be mailed to all impacted school districts as well as the impacted utility services provider.

(d) The impacted school district filing the exception may request in writing a final ruling at any time after filing exceptions and a supporting statement, and the cabinet shall issue the ruling within thirty (30) days after the request is received by the cabinet.

(e) After a final ruling has been issued, the school district may appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court or to the Circuit Court of the county in which the school district is located.

(5) The method and timing of the implementation of a final administrative ruling that requires a reallocation of previously distributed tax receipts shall be determined by agreement of the impacted school districts, provided that any agreement allowing for adjustments to be made over time in the future shall not extend beyond four (4) years.

(a) The cabinet shall, upon request of the impacted school districts, assist in the development of an agreement.

(b) An agreement that requires distribution changes that vary from the district boundary information shall be provided to the cabinet so that distributions can be made in accordance with the agreement.

(c) If the impacted school districts fail to reach an agreement regarding the reallocation of previously distributed tax receipts, the cabinet shall adjust distributions going forward for four (4) years so that at the expiration of four (4) years, the district that should have received the original distribution has recouped all of the funds distributed erroneously, and the district that erroneously received the funds has repaid all of the funds distributed erroneously.

160.6154. Collection and distribution of taxes imposed under KRS 160.613 and 160.614. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

(1) The cabinet shall collect all taxes imposed by school districts pursuant to KRS 160.613 and 160.614, and shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of these taxes as provided under KRS Chapters 131, 134, and 135, except as otherwise provided in KRS 160.613 to 160.617. The cabinet shall distribute the taxes collected to each school district imposing the tax on a monthly basis. Distributions shall be made in accordance with the district boundary information submitted to the cabinet pursuant to KRS 160.6152, as modified by any adjustments or agree-
If the cabinet denies a requested refund in whole or in part, the taxpayer may appeal the denial to the Circuit Court in the county where the school district is located.

160.6157. Penalty provisions applicable to taxes levied by school districts. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

The uniform penalty provisions of KRS 131.180 shall apply to all taxes levied by school districts pursuant to KRS 160.613 and 160.614.

160.6158. Waiver of penalties. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, the secretary of the cabinet, in consultation with impacted school district, shall waive any penalty, but not interest, where it is shown to the satisfaction of the cabinet that the failure to file or pay timely is due to reasonable cause.

160.6167. Utility rate increase. [Effective until July 1, 2005.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 278.040(2), any utility required to pay the tax authorized by KRS 160.613 may increase its rates in any county in which it is required to pay the school tax by three percent (3%). Any utility so increasing its rates shall separately state on the bills sent to its customers the amount of such increase and shall identify such amount as: “Rate increase for school tax.”

A utility may not impose Kentucky sales and use tax upon that part of the bill which is a license tax as there is nothing in the Kentucky Constitution which authorizes the levy of a tax on a tax. OAG 75-221.

Where a water district, which purchases water from the municipal water and sewer commission, sells water to its own customers and bills them individually, the water district must pay the utility gross receipts license tax to the county finance officer on the amount it bills to its individual customers, but if the customers resell the water to commercial haulers, then the customers must pay the utility tax. OAG 76-269.

Even though a utility company may raise its rates under this section to compensate for the utility gross receipts license tax levied by KRS 160.613, this does not make it a tax levied on the customers; it remains the utility company's liability. Consequently, the Providence Housing Authority, a tax exempt organization, a tax exempt organization, is not exempt from paying the added cost since it is not paying the utility gross receipts license tax, it is paying for utility services. OAG 83-445.

The utility gross receipts tax is not actually a tax on the consumer, but rather is a tax on the utility itself although the utility does have the statutory authority, under this section, to pass on the tax to the consumer; there is no statutory basis for providing an exemption to any consumer. OAG 84-70.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Increase in gross receipts.

1. Constitutionality.
This section does not impose an arbitrary or discriminatory tax classification in violation of Const., §§ 2, 171. Lamar v. Board of Educ., 467 S.W.2d 143 (Ky. 1971).

2. Increase in Gross Receipts.
Where a fiscal court levied a utility gross receipts license tax of three percent pursuant to KRS 160.613 and a utility therefore increased its customers' bills by three percent pursuant to KRS 160.617, the utility was the taxpayer liable for its consequent increase in gross receipts since such receipts were not exempt from sales tax and the increase could not be considered as a tax on customers in which the utility company merely acted as a collection agency. Luckett v. Electric & Water Plant Bd., 558 S.W.2d 611 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

160.617. Utility rate increase. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 278.040(2), any utility services provider required to pay the tax authorized by KRS 160.613 may increase its rates in any school district in which it is required to pay the school tax by three percent (3%). Any utility so increasing its rates shall separately state on the bills sent to its customers the amount of the increase and shall identify the amount as: “Rate increase for school tax.”

Compiler’s Notes. For this section as effective until July 1, 2005, see the preceding section, also numbered KRS 160.617.

160.620. Independent school district at Louisville and Jefferson County Children’s Home. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Acts 1946, ch. 198) was repealed by Acts 1966, ch. 255, § 283.

EXCISE TAX FOR SCHOOLS

160.621. Excise tax on individual income for schools.

There is hereby authorized an excise tax for schools not to exceed twenty percent (20%) on a county resident's state individual income tax liability as computed under KRS Chapter 141. The tax year, for purposes of this school tax, shall be the same as the individual's tax year for state income tax purposes. An individual is a resident of a county if, on December 31 of his tax year, he was domiciled in such county.

160.623. Regulations on excise. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1966, ch. 24, part III, § 13) was repealed by Acts 1976, ch. 127, § 23.

160.625. Excise tax returns — Payment — Form.

The school tax authorized by KRS 160.621 shall be self-assessing. Each county resident paying state individual income taxes under KRS Chapter 141 shall file, or on or before July 1 of each year for calendar year taxpayers and six (6) months after the close of the tax year for all other taxpayers, with the proper tax collector, a return showing his state individual income tax liability and the amount of county school tax due. This school tax shall be remitted with the return and shall be delinquent six (6) months after the close of the individual's tax year. The district board of education shall furnish the necessary tax returns for the administration of this school tax.

160.627. Information on state income tax liability of school district residents — Revenue Cabinet as tax collector.

(1) The Revenue Cabinet shall, where that cabinet is not acting as such, make available to the tax collector, or to the school district, where the Revenue Cabinet is acting as tax collector under subsection (2) of this section, by October 1 of each year, such information as the tax collector or the school district may request concerning the state income tax liability of the school district residents. Such information shall be made available on a confidential basis as provided in KRS 131.190.

(2) The Revenue Cabinet, upon request by a school district, shall act as tax collector for the school tax authorized by KRS 160.621, and the Revenue Cabinet, where so acting, KRS 160.625 notwithstanding, may in its own discretion incorporate its tax collecting duties with those relative to collection of state individual income taxes under KRS Chapter 141, thereby making an individual's tax payment hereunder due along with his individual income tax payment and subject to law applicable to such as to time and manner of payment. Tax required to be paid under the provisions of this chapter shall be remitted together with the state income tax return. The Revenue Cabinet, when so acting, KRS 160.500 notwithstanding, shall remit school excise taxes collected to the school districts for which it is acting as tax collector in a reasonably timely and expeditious manner.

160.630. Schools at houses of reform and Louisville-Jefferson County Children's Home classed as common schools and entitled to benefits as such. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (Acts 1950, ch. 184, §§ 1-5) was repealed by Acts 1966, ch. 255, § 283.

160.631. Definitions for KRS 160.632. [Renumbered.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (Acts 1952, ch. 88, § 1; 1958, ch. 126, § 19) has been recompiled as KRS 158.135(1), (2).

160.632. Reimbursement of districts for school services to out-of-school district children — Reports — Payment. [Renumbered.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (Acts 1952, ch. 88, §§ 2 to 4) has been recompiled as KRS 158.135(3) to (5).

160.633. Deposit of excise tax proceeds.

The proceeds of the tax authorized by KRS 160.621 shall, except when collected pursuant to KRS 160.627(2), be deposited in a special fund until they have been distributed as provided in KRS 160.644.

General Provisions on School Taxes

160.635. Continuance of tax until reduced — Expiration date.

School taxes imposed under the provisions of KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.633, and 160.635 to 160.648 shall remain in full force and effect from year to year until the board of education reduces the rate in effect; however, at the time the tax is first levied the board may set a date on which the tax shall expire.

Opinions of Attorney General. A school board is not prohibited from decreasing the tax rate below the maximum three percent if, in the board's discretion, such a decrease is deemed warranted. OAG 80-59.

160.637. Administrative costs — Revenue Cabinet collection procedure.

(1) “Requesting school districts” shall mean those school districts for which the Revenue Cabinet is requested to act as tax collector under the authority of KRS 160.627(2).

(2) Reasonable expenses not to exceed the actual costs of collection incurred by any tax collector, except the Revenue Cabinet, for the administration or collection of the school taxes authorized by KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633 shall be reimbursable by the school district boards of education on a monthly basis or on the basis agreed upon by the boards of education and the tax collector. The expenses shall be borne by the school districts on a basis proportionate to the revenue received by the districts.

(3) The following shall apply only when the Revenue Cabinet is acting as tax collector under the authority of KRS 160.627(2):

(a) When the cabinet is initially requested to be the tax collector under KRS 160.627(2), the cabinet shall estimate the costs of implementing the administration of the tax so requested, and shall inform the requesting school district of this estimated cost. The requesting school district shall pay to the cabinet ten percent (10%) of this estimated cost referred to as “start-up costs” within thirty (30) days of notification by the cabinet. Subsequent requesting school districts shall pay their pro rata share, or ten percent (10%), whichever is less, of the unpaid balance of the initial “start-up costs” until the cabinet has fully recovered the costs. The payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of notification by the cabinet.

(b) The Revenue Cabinet shall also be reimbursed by each school district for its proportionate share of the actual operational expenses incurred by the cabinet in collecting the excise tax. The expenses, which shall be deducted by the Revenue Cabinet from payments to school districts made under the provisions of KRS 160.627(2), shall be allocated by the cabinet to school districts on a basis proportionate to the number of returns processed by the Revenue Cabinet for each district compared to the total processed by the Revenue Cabinet for all districts.

(c) All funds received by the cabinet under the authority of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall be deposited into an account entitled the "school tax fund account," an account created within the restricted fund group set forth in KRS 45.305. The use of these funds shall be restricted to paying the cabinet for the costs described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection. This account shall not lapse.

(d) The cabinet may retain a portion of the school tax revenues collected in a special account entitled the "school tax refund account" which is an account created within the restricted fund group set forth in KRS 45.305. The sole purpose of this account shall be to authorize the Revenue Cabinet to refund school taxes. This account shall not lapse. Refunds shall be made in accordance with the provisions in KRS 134.580(4), and when the taxpayer has made an overpayment or a payment where no tax was due as defined in KRS 134.580(5), and when the cabinet is not pursuing collection of the excise tax. The expenses, which shall be deductible by the cabinet in collecting the excise tax liabilities of that individual have been paid.

(e) KRS 160.621 notwithstanding, when the cabinet is acting as tax collector under the authority of KRS 160.627(2), the requesting school district may enact the tax enumerated in KRS 160.621 only at the following rates: five percent (5%), ten percent (10%), fifteen percent (15%), and twenty percent (20%) on a school district resident's state individual income tax liability as computed under KRS 134.580(5), within four (4) years of payment.

(f) Beginning August 1, 1982, any school district which requests the cabinet to collect taxes under the authority of KRS 160.627(2) shall inform the cabinet of this request not less than one hundred fifty (150) days prior to January 1.

(g) The cabinet shall not be required to collect taxes authorized in KRS 160.621 of an individual when the cabinet is not pursuing collection of that individual's state income taxes. The cabinet shall not be required to collect or defend the tax set forth in KRS 160.621 in any board or court of this state.

(h) Any overpayments of the tax set forth in KRS 141.020 or payments made when no tax was due may be applied to any tax liability arising under KRS 160.621 before a refund is authorized to the taxpayer. No individual's tax payment shall be credited to the tax set forth in KRS 160.621 until all outstanding state income tax liabilities of that individual have been paid.

(i) KRS 160.510 notwithstanding, the State Auditor shall be the only party authorized to audit the Revenue Cabinet with respect to the performance of its duties under KRS 160.621.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 1940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

160.640. Custodian of tax funds to give bond — Expense, how paid. [Effective July 1, 2005.]

Any person having custody of the proceeds of any school tax authorized by KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633, except the Revenue Cabinet, shall be required to secure a corporate surety bond in an amount to be set by the Kentucky Board of Education. The cost of the surety bond shall be considered a part of the cost of the administration of the school taxes authorized under KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633.

Compiler's Notes. For this section as effective July 1, 2005, see the following section, also numbered KRS 160.640.

For this section as effective until July 1, 2005, see the preceding section, also numbered KRS 160.640.

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 11.

160.642. Custodian to be audited.

Any person having custody of the proceeds of any school tax authorized by KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, 160.621 to 160.633 shall be audited as provided by KRS 156.265 to 156.285.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (9/29/94). By letter of September 2, 1994, the Secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, acting under KRS 48.500, advised the Reviser of Statutes of his determination "that no funds appropriated by the Executive Branch Appropriations Act for the 1995-96 biennium can be identified as having been appropriated for the purpose of implementing Sections 1 to 7 of House Bill No. 616, Chapter (296), Acts of the 1994 Regular Session of the General Assembly." Accordingly, the amendment to this statute contained in 1994 Ky. Acts ch. 296 is void under sec. 3(8) of that Act and has not been codified into the statute.

160.644. Tax proceeds, apportionment to districts.

The school taxes and penalties collected under KRS 160.593 to 160.597, 160.601 to 160.633, 160.635 to 160.648 shall be distributed to the treasurer of the board of education of the school district. In the event that more than one (1) board of education within the county is participating in one (1) of these tax levies, the funds collected shall be distributed in proportion to the daily attendance in the participating districts as shown by the final certification by the chief state school officer for the previous school year pursuant to the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where two school districts which were a combined taxing district prior to the 1976 amendment of KRS 160.593 never obtained written approval to continue to act as a combined district, this section was no longer applicable to the collection and distribution of the utility gross receipts tax as levied in one of the two districts. OAG 82-146.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Utility Tax.
2. —Levy.
3. —Distribution.

160.648. Penalty for failure to make returns or pay tax. [Effective until July 1, 2005.]

(1) Any person, individual, or corporation required by the provisions of KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633 to file any return or report or furnish any information requested under the authority of KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633 who fails to file such return or report or furnish such information on or before the date required shall pay a penalty in the amount of ten dollars ($10) for each such failure.

(2) Any person, individual, or corporation who fails to pay, on or before the due date, any school tax authorized by KRS 160.605 to 160.611, 160.613 to 160.617, and 160.621 to 160.633 and levied by the district board of education shall pay a penalty of one percent (1%) per month of the amount of such tax past due until paid.

Compiler’s Notes. For this section as effective July 1, 2005, see the following section, also numbered KRS 160.648.

Opinions of Attorney General. Neither the school nor the tax collector can abate past due interest or penalty on local school taxes paid prior to or after filing suit for collection of the unpaid taxes, penalty and interest. OAG 88-46.

This section is not written in a permissive form but requires the payment of the penalty which has accrued at a rate of one percent per month until the taxes have been paid. OAG 88-46.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. In General.

The statute does not allow a county board of education to negotiate the amount of tax, interest, or penalties owed by a taxpayer prior to collection of the tax. Inland Container Corp. v. Mason County Bd. of Educ., 6 S.W.3d 374 (Ky. 1999).

KENTUCKY FAMILY EDUCATION RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

160.700. Definitions related to KRS 160.700 to 160.730.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Directory information” means the student’s name, address, telephone listing, date and place of birth, participation in school recognized sports and activities, height and weight of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, awards received, major field of study, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student, contained in education records in the custody of the public schools;

(2) “Educational institution” means any public school providing an elementary and secondary education, including vocational;

(3) “Education record” means data and information directly relating to a student that is collected or maintained by educational institutions or by a person acting for an institution including academic records and portfolios; achievement tests; aptitude scores; teacher and counselor evaluations; health and personal data; behavioral and psychological evaluations; and directory data recorded in any medium including handwriting, magnetic tapes, film, video, microfiche, computer-generated and stored data, or data otherwise maintained and used by the educational institution or a person acting for an institution. “Education record” shall not include:

(a) Records of instructional, supervisory, and assisting administrative personnel which are in the sole possession of the maker and are not accessible or revealed to any other person except a substitute for any of those persons;

(b) Records maintained by a law enforcement unit of the educational institution that were created by that law enforcement unit for the purpose of law enforcement;

(c) In the case of persons who are employed by an educational agency or institution but who are not in attendance at that agency or institution, records made and maintained in the normal course of business which relate exclusively to that person in the person’s capacity as an employee and are not available for use for any other purpose; or

(d) Records on a student who is eighteen (18) years of age or older, which are made, used, or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional for treatment of the student, and are not available to anyone other than persons providing this treatment, except a physician or other appropriate professional of the student’s choice.

(4) “Eligible student” means a student, or a former student, who has reached the age of eighteen (18) or is pursuing an education beyond high school and therefore the permission or consent required of, and the rights accorded to the parents of the student shall thereafter be required of, and accorded to the student;

(5) “School official” means personnel employed in instructive and administrative positions with a school board or educational institution. Parents and other noneducational persons who are elected or appointed to school-based decision making councils or committees thereof, or other voluntary boards or committees shall not be considered school officials.

Opinions of Attorney General. A county school system did not violate the Open Records Act in denying a request to inspect a videotape recording of an incident involving the requester’s son that occurred on a county school bus; the videotape qualified for exclusion from public inspection under KRS 61.878(1)(k) and (1)(l) which incorporate the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and its state counterpart into the Open Records Act as it contained information on more than one student and such information was inextricably intermingled and therefore nonsegregable, and, therefore, the school system could not disclose the videotape in such a way as to meaningfully honor the rights of the requester to inspect the tape without violating the corresponding rights of the other students and their parents in nondisclosure of the tape to third parties. OAG 99-ORD-217.

160.705. Confidentiality of students’ educational records — Protection and preservation of records.

(1) Education records of students in the public educational institutions in this state are deemed confidential and shall not be disclosed, or the contents released, except under the circumstances described in KRS 160.720.

(2) School officials shall take precautions to protect and preserve all education records including records generated and stored in the education technology system.

Opinions of Attorney General. A county public school system violated the Open Records Act in partially denying a request for records relating to traditional school enrollment policies and residency requirements; the school system’s reliance on KRS 160.705 et seq. and 20 U.S.C. § 1232g, incorporated into the Open Records Act by operation of KRS 61.878(1)(k) and (1)(l), was misplaced. OAG 00-ORD-119.

160.710. Notification of privacy rights — Written policies.

Parents or eligible students shall be informed of the rights of privacy and confidentiality accorded student education records. The educational institution shall determine the means and method of notice and adopt written policies consistent with the state law.

(1) Parents of students or eligible students attending public institutions or who have been in attendance shall have the right to inspect and review student education records within a reasonable time of making a request to inspect.

(2) Educational institutions shall establish procedures for honoring requests for inspection within a reasonable time. Fees for copying materials and documents may be charged.

(1) Parents or eligible students may consent to the release of written documents by completing and signing forms devised by the educational institution identifying the records to be released, the date of the release, the party to whom the release is granted, and the purpose of the request.

(2) Educational institutions shall not permit the release or disclosure of records, reports, or identifiable information on students to third parties other than directory information as defined in KRS 160.700, without parental or eligible student consent except to:

(a) Other school officials, including teachers, with legitimate education interests and purposes.

(b) Other school systems, colleges, and universities to which the student has sought enrollment and transfer, or from which the student was graduated.

(c) Federal, state, or local officials who carry out a lawful function and who are authorized to receive this information pursuant to statute or regulation. This authority includes requests from any agency of the federal and state government for the purpose of determining a student's eligibility for military service.

(d) Federal, state, or local officials to whom the information is required to be disclosed or reported.

(e) Individuals or organizations conducting legitimate studies, surveys, and data collection in such a manner so as not to permit personal identification of the students or parents.

(f) Accrediting organizations enlisted to carry out accrediting functions.

(g) Parents of a dependent student of the parent as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. sec. 152).

(3) Students may waive the right to inspect confidential recommendations relating to admission to educational institutions, application for employment, and receipt of an honor or honorary recognition. In the case of admissions, the waiver of release shall apply if the student, upon request, is notified of names of persons or organizations making confidential recommendations, and those recommendations are used solely for the purpose intended.

(4) Records of release for information contained in education records, other than directory information indicating the agency, institution, or organization that has requested or has had access to student education records and indicating the purpose of the release or inspection shall be maintained by the educational institution. These records of release shall be limited to inspection by parents, eligible students, school officials and their assistants who are responsible for custody of education records; by school officials within the educational institution who have legitimate educational interests; and by federal and state officials and representatives conducting audits and evaluations of the education programs or in connection with the enforcement of federal or state legal requirements relating to the programs.

160.725. Directory information on student — Student's right to restrict release — Official recruiters' access to public high school campuses and student directory information.

(1) An educational institution may publish and release to the public general directory information relating to a student. An educational institution shall give public notice of the categories of directory information that it has designated as directory information with respect to each student in attendance and shall allow a reasonable time after the notice has been given for a parent or eligible student to inform the institution that any or all of the information designated should not be released without prior consent.

(2) (a) If an educational institution provides access to its campus or its student directory information to persons or groups which make students aware of occupational or educational options, the board shall provide access on the same basis to official recruiting representatives of:

1. The Armed Forces of the United States;
2. The Kentucky Air National Guard;
3. The Kentucky Army National Guard; and
4. The service academies of the Armed Forces of the United States.

(b) Local secondary schools shall provide the student directory information to official recruiting representatives by September 30 of each year.

(c) Student directory information given to official recruiting representatives may be used for the purpose of informing students of educational and career opportunities available in the Armed Forces of the United States, the Kentucky Air National Guard, the Kentucky Army National Guard and the service academies of the Armed Forces of the United States.

(1) Parents or eligible students may challenge the content of a student record to ensure that the record or report is not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of privacy or other rights of the student. The right to challenge shall also provide the opportunity for rebuttal to, and the correction, deletion, or expunction of, any inaccurate, misleading, or inappropriate information.

(2) A challenge to the record may take the form of an informal discussion among the parents, student, and school officials. Any agreement between these parties shall be reduced in writing, signed by all parties, and placed in the student's records. If no agreement can be reached, either party may request a formal hearing to the challenge which shall be conducted in accordance with procedures established by rules and regulations of the Department of Education and the Council on Postsecondary Education for educational institutions under their jurisdiction. The rules and regulations shall provide that a formal hearing be conducted within a reasonable time after the request for a hearing; and an official of the educational institution who has no direct interest in the outcome of the challenge shall conduct the hearing and render a decision on the challenge within a reasonable time after the hearing. All parties to the challenge shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues raised. Furthermore, school officials shall take the necessary action to implement the decision.

160.990. Penalties.

(1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 160.250 shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars ($200).

(2) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 160.300 shall be fined not less than ten ($10) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(3) Any superintendent who violates any of the provisions of KRS 160.350 to 160.400 shall be fined not less than one hundred ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each offense, and the violation is grounds for revocation of his certificate.

(4) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 160.550 shall be fined not less than fifty ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), and shall be subject to removal from office.

(5) The Kentucky Board of Education may withhold funds allotted under KRS 157.350 from any local district which violates subsection (3) of KRS 160.380 in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation.

(6) In addition to penalties listed in this section, any local district which violates subsection (3) of KRS 160.380 shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

161.010  Definitions for KRS 161.020 to 161.120.
As used in KRS 161.020 to 161.120:
(1) “Continuing education” means study or other activities to provide professional improvement and personal growth for certified teachers throughout their career. It may include, but shall not be limited to, university courses, an advanced degree, or a combination of university courses, field-based experience, individual research, and approved professional development activities, pursuant to KRS 156.095.
(2) “Standard college or university” means an institution accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools or by one of the other recognized regional accrediting agencies or by the Education Professional Standards Board.
(3) “College or university work of graduate grade” means academic preparation which extends beyond the usual four (4) year program of undergraduate studies leading to a bachelor’s degree and which is completed at a college or university accredited for the graduate level.
(4) “Student teacher” means an adult who has completed the prerequisite teacher preparation as prescribed by the accredited teacher education institution in which he or she is enrolled, and who is jointly assigned by the institution and a local school district to engage in a period of practice teaching under the direction and supervision of the administrative and teaching staff of the school district and the institution.
(5) “Teacher’s aide” means an adult school employee who works under the direction of the professional administrative and teaching staff in performing, within the limitations of his or her training and competency, certain instructional and noninstructional functions in the school program including, but not limited to, clerical duties, tutoring individual pupils, leading pupils in recreational activities, conducting pupils from place to place, assisting with classroom instruction as directed by the teacher, aiding the school librarian, and preparing and organizing instructional materials and equipment.

Opinions of Attorney General. Although conservation officers cannot act as teachers, they may act as guest lecturers on conservation without being licensed as teachers if a certified teacher remains in the classroom and maintains control of the class. OAG 63-37.

A student teacher may not legally take charge of a classroom in the absence of the regular teacher. OAG 63-269.

In view of the description of duties and definition of “paraprofessional” and “teacher’s aide” given in subsections (6) and (7) (now subsections (4) and (5)) of this section, and the fact... that KRS 161.044 (1), (2), and (3) refers to such persons performing "supplementary instructional and noninstructional activities with pupils," and that while reference is made to "provisions established by the State Board of Education," such regulations have not been prepared and adopted, it would appear that a teacher's aide cannot conduct a class, even with a teacher present. OAG 73-206.

Since the State Board of Education has adopted regulations relating to paraprofessional personnel (704 KAR 15:080), a local board of education could prepare a job description outlining the duties of a paraprofessional which would include some limited teaching responsibilities if the paraprofessional has held a valid and appropriate teaching certificate; however, the instructional assistance of a paraprofessional with a teaching certificate may not be permitted to supplant the day-to-day teaching responsibilities of the regular classroom teacher. OAG 76-555.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Limited or Continuing Contract.
Under Teachers' Tenure Act the county board of education could enter into a limited or continuing contract with teacher. Beverly v. Highfield, 307 Ky. 179, 209 S.W.2d 739 (1948).

161.011. Definitions of "classified employee" and "seniority" — Job classifications and minimum qualifications — Requirements of written contracts and written personnel policies — Reduction in force — Registry of vacant classified employee positions — Review of local board policies by Department of Education.

1 (a) "Classified employee" means an employee of a local district who is not required to have certification for his position as provided in KRS 161.020; and

(b) "Seniority" means total continuous months of service in the local school district, including all approved paid and unpaid leave.

2. The commissioner of education shall establish by January 1, 1992, job classifications and minimum qualifications for local district classified employment positions which shall be effective July 1, 1992. After June 30, 1992, no person shall be eligible to be a classified employee or receive salary for services rendered in that position unless he holds the qualifications for the position as established by the commissioner of education.

3. No person who is initially hired after July 13, 1990, shall be eligible to hold the position of a classified employee or receive salary for services rendered in such position, unless he holds at least a high school diploma or high school certificate of completion or GED certificate, or he shows progress toward obtaining a GED. To show progress toward obtaining a GED, a person shall be enrolled in a GED program and be progressing satisfactorily through the program, as defined by administrative regulations promulgated by the commissioner of the Department for Adult Education and Literacy.

4. Local school districts shall encourage classified employees who were initially hired before July 13, 1990, and who do not have a high school diploma or a GED certificate to enroll in a program to obtain a GED.

5. Local districts shall enter into written contracts with classified employees. Contracts with classified employees shall be renewed annually except contracts with the following employees:

(a) An employee who has not completed four (4) years of continuous active service, upon written notice which is provided or mailed to the employee by the superintendent, no later than April 30, that the contract is not being renewed due to one (1) or more of the reasons described in subsection (7) of this section. Upon written request within ten (10) days of the receipt of the notice of nonrenewal, the superintendent shall provide, in a timely manner, written reasons for the nonrenewal.

(b) An employee who has completed four (4) years of continuous active service, upon written notice which is provided or mailed to the employee by the superintendent, no later than April 30, that the contract is not being renewed due to one (1) or more of the reasons described in subsection (7) of this section. Upon written request within ten (10) days of the receipt of the notice of nonrenewal, the employee shall be provided with a specific and complete written statement of the grounds upon which the nonrenewal is based. The employee shall have ten (10) days to respond in writing to the grounds for nonrenewal.

6. Local districts shall provide in contracts with classified employees of family resource and youth services centers the same rate of salary adjustment as provided for other local board of education employees in the same classification.

7. Nothing in this section shall prevent a superintendent from terminating a classified employee for incompetency, neglect of duty, insubordination, inefficiency, misconduct, immorality, or other reasonable grounds which are specifically contained in board policy.

8. The superintendent shall have full authority to make a reduction in force due to reductions in funding, enrollment, or changes in the district or school boundaries, or other compelling reasons as determined by the superintendent.

(a) When a reduction of force is necessary, the superintendent shall, within each job classification affected, reduce classified employees on the basis of seniority and qualifications with those employees who have less than four (4) years of continuous active service being reduced first.

(b) If it becomes necessary to reduce employees who have more than four (4) years of continuous active service, the superintendent shall make reductions based upon seniority and qualifications within each job classification affected.

(c) Employees with more than four (4) years of continuous active service shall have the right... of recall positions if positions become available for which they are qualified. Recall shall be done according to seniority with restoration of primary benefits, including all accumulated sick leave and appropriate rank and step on the current salary schedule based on the total number of years of service in the district.

(9) Local school boards shall develop and provide to all classified employees written policies which shall include, but not be limited to:
(a) Terms and conditions of employment;
(b) Identification and documentation of fringe benefits, employee rights, and procedures for the reduction or laying off of employees; and
(c) Discipline guidelines and procedures that satisfy due process requirements.

(10) Local school boards shall maintain a registry of all vacant classified employee positions that is available for public inspection in a location determined by the superintendent and make copies available at cost to interested parties. If financially feasible, local school boards may provide training opportunities for classified employees focusing on topics to include, but not be limited to, suicide prevention, abuse recognition, and cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

(11) The evaluation of the local board policies required for classified personnel as set out in this section shall be subject to review by the Department of Education while it is conducting district management audits pursuant to KRS 158.785.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/5/2001). Previous references to “subsection (6) of this section” in subsection (5)(b) of this statute were not changed to “subsection (7)” when the subsections were renumbered in 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 271, sec. 2. It is clear from the context that this should have been done but was inadvertently overlooked. This omission has been corrected by the Reviser of Statutes under KRS 7.136(1)(e) and (b).

Cross-References. Qualifications for progressing satisfactorily through a GED program, 785 KAR 1:110.

Opinions of Attorney General. Anyone employed as a bus driver or cook initially before or on July 13, 1990, does not need a high school diploma or GED certificate; anyone initially employed after that date may satisfy the requirement by enrolling in a GED program and proceeding under the schedule for satisfactory progress set by the Board of Adult, Vocational Education and Vocational Rehabilitation (now Department for Adult Education and Literacy). OAG 90-103.

“Certified employee” means teacher, principal, superintendent, director of pupil personnel, and any employee who supervises any such employee or who has any type of responsibility for instruction or teaching of pupils; school bus drivers and cooks are not “certified employees” and therefore are “classified employees.” OAG 90-103.

The opinion in OAG 92-133 is overruled since the 1994 General Assembly enacted House Bill 50 (Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 25) which provides local school boards with the authority to adopt a seniority policy for classified employees. OAG 94-37.

161.017. Executive director of Education Professional Standards Board.

(1) The Education Professional Standards Board, established in KRS 161.028, shall be headed by an executive director who shall be responsible for the day to day operations of the board including the following:
(a) Setting up appropriate organizational structures and personnel policies for approval by the board;
(b) Appointing all staff, including the deputy executive director;
(c) Preparing annual reports on the board’s program of work;
(d) Carrying out policy and program directives of the board;
(e) Preparing and submitting to the board for its approval a proposed biennial budget; and
(f) Performing all other duties and responsibilities assigned by state law.

(2) When it is necessary to fill the position of executive director, the board shall conduct a comprehensive search for candidates and may employ a search firm if the board deems it necessary. The executive director shall possess broad-based experience in education and teacher development, and have demonstrated leadership skills in addition to other qualifications to be established by the board as authorized in KRS 161.028.

(3) With approval of the board, the executive director may enter into agreements with any state agency or political subdivision of the state, any post-secondary education institution, or any other person or entity to enlist assistance to implement the duties and responsibilities of the board.
The executive director shall have access to the papers, books, and records of education personnel as part of an inquiry or investigation relating to disciplinary actions against a certified employee.

Pursuant to KRS 161.120, the executive director, on behalf of the board, may issue administrative subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents relevant to disciplinary cases under consideration. Compliance with the subpoenas shall be enforceable by the Circuit Court in Franklin County.

161.020. Certificates required of school employees — Filing requirements — Validity and terms for renewal.

(1) No person shall be eligible to hold the position of superintendent, principal, teacher, supervisor, director of pupil personnel, or other public school position for which certificates may be issued, or receive salary for services rendered in the position, unless he or she holds a certificate of legal qualifications for the position, issued by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(2) No person shall enter upon the duties of a position requiring certification qualifications until his or her certificate has been filed or credentials registered with the local district employer.

(3) The validity and terms for the renewal of any certificate shall be determined by the laws and regulations in effect at the time the certificate was issued.

Opinions of Attorney General. A school psychologist does not fall within the group of school personnel excluded from the provisions of KRS Ch. 319 by KRS 319.015(4) and consequently, an individual may not be employed as a school psychologist without being a licensed psychologist pursuant to the provisions of that chapter. OAG 67-189.
Since a school district is a public agency under the Open Records Law and the certificates required by this section are public records as defined in KRS 61.870(2), denial of a request to inspect certificates required by this section to be filed with the board of education was improper under the Open Records Law except for information, if any, on the certificates of a personal nature, such as social security numbers, home addresses and telephone numbers, need not be released. OAG 85-109.
Notwithstanding the apparent legislative intent of this section to make the revocation of any instructional leader’s certificate contingent upon laws then in force, KRS 156.101 clearly controls revocation of an instructional leader’s certificate; therefore a certificate of an instructional leader may be revoked for failure to obtain the hours of intensive training required by KRS 156.101. All instructional leaders, including those who received a certificate prior to the effective date of the statute, are required to comply with KRS 156.101. OAG 88-37.
The legislative purpose of the instructional leadership program, set forth in subsection (1) of KRS 156.101, was to develop a program which would result in improvement in the quality of performance of principals, assistant principals, supervisors of instruction, guidance counselors or directors of special education. Practically, this prescribed program of improvement could not be effective if it did not supersede this section. OAG 88-37.
The requirement of subsection (3) of this section, that certificates be considered pursuant to the application of the laws which were in effect at the time of the granting of the certificate, is not in harmony with the instructional leadership program. Therefore, subsection (3) of this section is controlling except when an instructional leader fails to comply with the instructional leader improvement program. At such time, the state board may exercise its power of revocation granted by subsection (4) of KRS 156.101. OAG 88-37.
"Employee" means teacher, principal, superintendent, director of pupil personnel, and any employee who supervises any such employee or who has any type of responsibility for instruction or teaching of pupils; school bus drivers and cooks are not “certified employees” and therefore are “classified employees.” OAG 90-103.
The Cabinet for Workforce Development was directed to release the employment applications and resumes of the named employees of a state vocational-technical school, after separating or otherwise masking any information of a personal nature which appeared on those documents, including the employees’ home addresses, social security numbers, and medical information; if the employees’ teaching certificates were contained in the file, they too should have been released. OAG 92-59.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Limitation or Abolishment of Professional Standing.
A certificate of professional standing may be abolished or limited by the legislature. Gullette v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901 (Ky. 1969).

2. Tenure.
Teacher tenure is statutory and not contractual, and the legislature may abridge or destroy it. Gullette v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901 (Ky. 1969).

3. Certificate.
The qualification of an applicant as teacher must be determined as of time he begins to fulfill the contract and not as of date of application, but teacher must hold certificate when he begins to teach. Martin v. Knott County Bd. of Educ., 275 Ky. 483, 122 S.W.2d 98 (1938).

Boards of education may establish minimum qualifications for teachers higher than those required by statute. Board of Educ. v. Messer, 257 Ky. 836, 79 S.W.2d 224 (1935).

5. —Date Determined.
The qualification to teach is to be determined as of the day an applicant is to begin teaching, and not as of the date of application for the position. Reynolds v. Spurlock, 257 Ky. 582, 78 S.W.2d 787 (1935). See Swinford v. Chasteen, 261 Ky. 249, 87 S.W.2d 373 (1935); Cottongim v. Stewart, 277 Ky. 706, 127 S.W.2d 149 (1939).

6. —Ineligibility.
Where minor was ineligible to be teacher because she held no certificate and failed to qualify for same under former KRS 161.040, she was a volunteer and entitled to no salary for the period prior to her eighteenth birthday. Floyd County Bd. of Educ. v. Slone, 307 S.W.2d 912 (Ky. 1957).

7. Filing of Certificate.
A discharged teacher, suing to compel reinstatement, must allege compliance with subsection (2). Bullock v. Brown, 258 Ky. 522, 80 S.W.2d 593 (1935).

Teacher, whose certificate had expired previous year and who failed to file with school board evidence of his qualification to teach, was not entitled to damages for board’s failure to employ him. Martin v. Knott County Bd. of Educ., 275 Ky. 483, 122 S.W.2d 98 (1938).

8. Less Than Four-Year Degree.
The General Assembly has the power to provide that teachers with less qualification than a four-year degree shall receive only a minimum salary and the fact that the motive of such a provision might be to make teaching so economically unattractive as to discourage the less-qualified teachers from continuing in service does not make the provision unfair. Gullet v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901 (Ky. 1969).

An administrator is one who (1) holds a position categorized as an administrative position pursuant to KRS 161.720(8) or pursuant to approval by the State Board of Education of the position as a certified administrative position; and (2) is duly certified by the State Board of Education as an administrator. Petett v. Board of Educ., 684 S.W.2d 7 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

161.027. Preparation program for principals — Assessment and internship requirements.

(1) The Education Professional Standards Board, pursuant to KRS 161.028, shall by administrative regulation establish requirements for a preparation program in institutions of higher education for all new applicants for principal certification and establish criteria for admission to the program.

(2) The Education Professional Standards Board and the Council on Postsecondary Education shall evaluate the preparation programs for principals and maintain only those institutional programs that can demonstrate both the quality and the capability to enroll adequate numbers of students to justify the resources necessary for maintenance of a quality program.

(3) The Education Professional Standards Board shall develop or select appropriate assessments for applicants seeking certification as principals, including:
(a) An assessment of the ability to apply knowledge, instructional leadership, management, and supervision skills; and
(b) A specialized assessment on the current instructional and administrative practices in Kentucky public education.

(4) The Education Professional Standards Board shall establish the minimum score for successful completion of assessments and shall establish a reasonable fee to be charged applicants for the actual cost of administration of the assessments. The Education Professional Standards Board shall provide for confidentiality of assessment scores.

(5) The Education Professional Standards Board shall develop an internship program which shall provide for the supervision, assistance, and assessment of beginning principals and assistant principals. The internship shall not be required of applicants who have completed, within a ten (10) year period prior to making application, at least two (2) years of successful experience as a principal in a school situation. The Education Professional Standards Board, by administrative regulation, shall establish the internship program.

(6) The certification of principals shall require the successful completion of the examinations required by subsection (3) of this section. A one (1) year certificate may be given to a person who has:

161.028. Education Professional Standards Board — Powers and duties regarding the preparation and certification of professional school personnel — Membership.

The Education Professional Standards Board is recognized to be a public body corporate and politic and an agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth, in the performance of essential governmental functions. The Education Professional Standards Board has the authority and responsibility to:

(a) Establish standards and requirements for obtaining and maintaining a teaching certificate;

(b) Set standards for, approve, and evaluate college, university, and school district programs for the preparation of teachers and other professional school personnel. Program standards shall reflect national standards and shall address, at a minimum, the following:

1. The alignment of programs with the state's core content for assessment as defined in KRS 158.6457;

2. Research-based classroom practices, including effective classroom management techniques;

3. Emphasis on subject matter competency of teacher education students;

4. Methodologies to meet diverse educational needs of all students;

5. The consistency and quality of classroom and field experiences, including early practicums and student teaching experiences;

6. The amount of college-wide or university-wide involvement and support during the preparation as well as the induction of new teachers;

7. The diversity of faculty;

8. The effectiveness of partnerships with local school districts; and

9. The performance of graduates on various measures as determined by the board;

(c) Conduct an annual review of diversity in teacher preparation programs;

(d) Provide assistance to universities and colleges in addressing diversity, which may include researching successful strategies and disseminating the information, encouraging the development of nontraditional avenues of recruitment and providing incentives, waiving administrative regulations when needed, and other assistance as deemed necessary;

(e) Discontinue approval of programs that do not meet standards or whose graduates do not perform according to criteria set by the board;

(f) Issue, renew, revoke, suspend, or refuse to issue or renew; impose probationary or supervisory conditions upon; issue a written reprimand or admonishment; or any combination of actions regarding any certificate;

(g) Develop specific guidelines to follow upon receipt of an allegation of sexual misconduct by an employee certified by the Education Professional Standards Board. The guidelines shall include investigation, inquiry, and hearing procedures which ensure the process does not revictimize the alleged victim or cause harm if an employee is falsely accused;

(h) Receive, along with investigators hired by the Education Professional Standards Board, training on the dynamics of sexual misconduct of professionals, including the nature of this abuse of authority, characteristics of the offender, the impact on the victim, the possibility and the impact of false accusations, investigative procedures in sex offense cases, and effective intervention with victims and offenders;

(i) Recommend to the Kentucky Board of Education the essential data elements relating to teacher preparation and certification, teacher supply and demand, teacher attrition, teacher diversity, and employment trends to be included in a state comprehensive data and information system and periodically report data to the Interim Joint Committee on Education;

(j) Submit reports to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission and inform the public on the status of teaching in Kentucky;

(k) Devise a credentialing system that provides alternative routes to gaining certification and greater flexibility in staffing local schools while maintaining standards for teacher competence;

(l) Develop a professional code of ethics;

(m) Set the qualifications and salary for the positions of executive director and deputy executive director to the board, notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 64.640;

(n) Recruit, select, employ and evaluate the executive director to the board;

(o) Approve employment procedures for the employment of policy level staff, subject to the provisions of KRS 12.050;

(p) Approve the biennial budget request;

(q) Charge reasonable fees for the issuance, reissuance, and renewal of certificates that are established by administrative regulation. The proceeds shall be used to meet a portion of the costs of the issuance, reissuance, and renewal of certificates, and the costs associated with disciplinary action against a certificate holder under KRS 161.120;

(r) Waive a requirement that may be established in an administrative regulation promulgated by the board. A request for a waiver shall be submitted to the board, in writing, by an applicant for certification, a postsecondary institution, or a superintendent of a local school district, with appropriate justification for the waiver. The board may approve the request if the person or institution seeking the waiver has demonstrated extraordinary circumstances justifying the waiver. Any waiver granted under this subsection shall be subject to revocation if the person or institution falsifies information or subsequently fails to meet the intent of the waiver;

(s) Promote the development of one (1) or more innovative, nontraditional or alternative administrator or teacher preparation programs through public or private colleges or universities, private contractors, the Department of Education, or the Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual University and waive administrative regulations if needed in order to implement the program;

(t) Grant approval, if appropriate, of a university’s request for an alternative program that enrolls an administrator candidate in a postbaccalaureate administrator preparation program concurrently with employment as an assistant principal, principal, assistant superintendent, or superintendent in a local school district. An administrator candidate in the alternative program shall be granted a temporary provisional certificate and shall be a candidate in the Kentucky Principal Internship Program, notwithstanding provisions of KRS 161.030, or the Superintendent’s Assessment process, notwithstanding provisions of KRS 156.111, as appropriate. The temporary certificate shall be valid for a maximum of two (2) years, and shall be contingent upon the candidate’s continued enrollment in the preparation program and compliance with all requirements established by the board. A professional certificate shall be issued upon the candidate’s successful completion of the program, internship requirements, and assessments as required by the board;

(u) Employ consultants as needed;

(v) Enter into contracts. Disbursements to professional educators who receive less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) in compensation per fiscal year from the board for serving on an assessment validation panel or as a test scorer or proctor shall not be subject to KRS 45A.690 to 45A.725;

(w) Sponsor studies, conduct research, conduct conferences, and publish information as appropriate; and

(x) Issue orders as necessary in any administrative action before the board;

(2) (a) The board shall be composed of seventeen (17) members. The commissioner of education and the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education, or their designees, shall serve as ex officio voting members. The Governor shall make the following fifteen (15) appointments:

1. Nine (9) members who shall be teachers representing elementary, middle or junior high, secondary, special education, and secondary vocational classrooms; and

2. Two (2) members who shall be school administrators; one (1) of whom shall be a school principal;
3. One (1) member representative of local boards of education; and

4. Three (3) members representative of post-secondary institutions, two (2) of whom shall be deans of colleges of education at public universities and one (1) of whom shall be the chief academic officer of an independent not-for-profit college or university.

(b) The members appointed by the Governor after June 21, 2001, shall be confirmed by the Senate and the House of Representatives under KRS 11.160. If the General Assembly is not in session at the time of the appointment, persons appointed shall serve prior to confirmation, but the Governor shall seek the consent of the General Assembly at the next regular session or at an intervening extraordinary session if the matter is included in the call of the General Assembly.

(c) A vacancy on the board shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment within sixty (60) days after it occurs. A member shall continue to serve until his successor is named. Any member who, through change of employment status or residence, or for other reasons, no longer meets the criteria for the position to which he was appointed shall no longer be eligible to serve in that position.

(d) Members of the board shall serve without compensation but shall be permitted to attend board meetings and perform other board business without loss of income or other benefits.

(e) A state agency or any political subdivision of the state, including a school district, required to hire a substitute for a member of the board who is absent from the member’s place of employment while performing board business shall be reimbursed by the board for the actual amount of any costs incurred.

(f) A chairman shall be elected by and from the membership. A member shall be eligible to serve no more than three (3) one (1) year terms in succession as chairman. The executive director shall keep records of proceedings. Regular meetings shall be held at least semiannually on call of the chairman.

(g) To carry out the functions relating to its duties and responsibilities, the board is empowered to receive donations and grants of funds; to appoint consultants as needed; and to sponsor studies, conduct conferences, and publish information.

Opinions of Attorney General. The Educational Professional Standards Board (EPSB) lacks the authority to delegate the holding of a revocation hearing, as found in KRS 161.120, to a hearing officer. Nowhere in the statutory sections dealing with the board is there any authority for such a delegation of power, and therefore, based upon the lack of authority granted to the EPSB under their statutes, the board must be physically present to “hear” the evidence introduced during a hearing. Of course, a hearing officer may assist the Board during and following the hearing. OAG 91-37.

(1) Notwithstanding the age of the pupil, the certification of all teachers and other school personnel, in public schools only, is vested in the Education Professional Standards Board. When so certified, teachers and other school personnel shall not be required to have licensure, certification, or other forms of approval from any other state agency for the performance of their respective assignments within the common schools, except as provided for by law. All certificates authorized under KRS 161.010 to 161.126 shall be issued in accordance with the administrative regulations of the Education Professional Standards Board. After July 15, 1994, all certificate applications and other data collection instruments of the board shall include a request for voluntary information about the applicant’s ethnic background. This information shall be available to help local school districts locate minority candidates. A person who holds a certificate prior to this requirement may request that ethnic information be added to his or her file. Nothing in this section shall preclude the right of an individual in a nonpublic school from seeking voluntary certification by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(2) Certificates shall be issued upon written application and in accordance with statutes and regulations in effect at the time of application to persons who have completed, at colleges, universities, or local school district programs approved by the Education Professional Standards Board for the preparation of teachers and other school personnel, the curricula prescribed by the administrative regulations of the Education Professional Standards Board.

(3) (a) Certification of all new teachers and teachers seeking additional certification shall require the successful completion of appropriate assessments prior to certification. The assessments shall be selected by the Education Professional Standards Board and shall measure knowledge in the specific teaching field of the applicant, including content of the field and teaching of that content. The Education Professional Standards Board shall determine the minimum acceptable level of achievement on each assessment. The assessments shall measure those concepts, ideas, and facts which are being taught in teacher education programs in Kentucky. Upon successful completion of the assessments and the approved teacher preparation program, a certificate valid for one (1) year shall be issued.

(b) If an applicant for teacher certification has completed the approved teacher preparation program and has taken but failed to successfully complete the appropriate assessments selected by the Education Professional Standards Board, a conditional certificate may be issued for a period not to exceed one (1) year, if the employing school district, in collaboration with the teacher education institution, agrees to provide technical assistance and mentoring support to the conditionally certified teacher.

The teacher shall retake the assessments during the validity period of the conditional certificate. The conditional certificate shall not be reissued. Upon successful completion of the required assessments, a certificate valid for one (1) year shall be issued and the teacher shall be eligible to participate in the internship program as provided in subsection (5) of this section. The teacher shall not be eligible to participate in the internship program while teaching on the conditional certificate. The Education Professional Standards Board shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish the standards and procedures for issuance of the conditional certificate.

(c) If an out-of-state teacher with less than two (2) years’ experience comes to Kentucky after the deadline for taking the assessments, a temporary certificate may be issued for a period up to six (6) months provided the local board cannot fill the vacant position with a certified teacher. The teacher shall take the assessments if they are administered during the period of the temporary certificate. The certificate shall be extended for the remainder of the year if the teacher successfully completes the assessments. If the teacher fails the assessments, the temporary certificate shall be valid only for the current semester.

(4) A reasonable fee to be paid by the teacher and directly related to the actual cost of the administation of the assessments shall be established by the Education Professional Standards Board. Provisions shall be made for persons having less than minimum levels of performance on any assessment to repeat that assessment, and candidates shall be informed of their strengths and weaknesses in the specific performance areas. The Education Professional Standards Board shall provide for confidentiality of the individual assessment scores. Scores shall be available only to the candidate and to the education officials who are responsible for determining whether established certification standards have been met. Scores shall be used only in the assessment for certification of new teachers and of out-of-state teachers with less than two (2) years of teaching experience who are seeking initial certification in Kentucky.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b) of this section, all new teachers and out-of-state teachers with less than two (2) years of successful teaching experience who are seeking initial certification in Kentucky shall serve a one (1) year internship. The teacher shall be a full-time employee or shall have an annual contract and serve on at least a half-time basis and shall have supervision, assistance, and assessment during the one (1) year internship. The internship may be served in a public school or a nonpublic school which meets the state performance standards as established in KRS 156.160 or which has been accredited by a regional or national accrediting association. Successful completion shall be determined by a majority vote of the beginning teacher committee. The internship period shall be counted as experience for the purpose of continuing contract status, retirement eligibility, and benefits for single salary experience increments. Upon successful completion of the beginning teacher program, the one (1) year initial teaching certificate shall be extended for the remainder of the usual duration period established for that particular certificate by Education Professional Standards Board administrative regulations.

(6) The beginning teacher committee shall be composed of three (3) persons who have successfully completed special training in the supervision and assessment of the performance of beginning teachers as provided in subsection (8) of this section, except as provided in paragraph (g) of this subsection. The committee shall consist of a resource teacher, the school principal of the school where the internship is served, and a teacher educator appointed by a state-approved teacher training institution.

(a) If more than two (2) teacher interns are employed in the same school, the principal’s responsibility may be shared with an assistant principal who holds certification as a principal.

(b) In unusual situations, the Education Professional Standards Board may permit the assistant principal to serve in lieu of the principal on a beginning teacher committee.

(c) If the teacher training institution is unable to provide a member, the district superintendent shall appoint an instructional supervisor from the school district.

(d) If the intern is teaching in a regionally or nationally accredited nonpublic school without a principal, the person filling the principal member position may have other appropriate qualifications as required by administrative regulations promulgated by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(e) If the teacher training institution is unable to provide a member to serve on the beginning teacher committee in a nonpublic school, the chief officer of the school shall appoint an instructional supervisor or a teacher with like qualifications and responsibilities to serve on the beginning teacher committee in lieu of the teacher educator.

(f) The resource teacher shall be appointed by the Education Professional Standards Board with recommendations from the local school district from a pool of qualified resource teachers, and, any statutes to the contrary notwithstanding and to the extent of available appropriations, shall be entitled to be paid a reasonable stipend by the Education Professional Standards Board for work done outside normal working hours. In the case of a resource teacher in a nonpublic school, payment shall be made directly to the resource teacher by the Education Professional Standards Board. Priority shall be given to resource teachers in the following order, except as provided in paragraph (g) of this subsection:

1. Teachers with the same certification in the same school;
2. Teachers with the same certification in the same district;
3. Teachers in the same school;
4. Teachers in the same district; and
5. Teachers in an adjacent school district.

(g) 1. The resource teacher for an individual pursuing initial certification as a baccalaureate level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders shall be a master’s level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders if one is available. Teachers in an adjacent school district;
4. Teachers in the same school; and
5. Teachers in an adjacent school district.

2. If a master’s level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders is not available, the Education Professional Standards Board may allow a licensed speech-language pathologist to serve on the beginning teacher committee in lieu of a resource teacher.

(h) The committee shall meet with the beginning teacher a minimum of three (3) times per year for evaluation and recommendation with all committee members present. In addition, each member of the committee shall observe the beginning teacher in the classroom a minimum of three (3) times per year. If the teacher’s first year performance is judged by the committee to be less than satisfactory, the teacher shall be provided with an opportunity to repeat the internship one (1) time if the teacher is employed by a school district.
(7) The resource teacher shall spend a minimum of seventy (70) hours working with the beginning teacher. Twenty (20) of these hours shall be in the classroom setting, and fifty (50) of these hours shall be in consultation other than class time or attending assessment meetings. The resource teacher shall have completed at least four (4) years of successful teaching experience as attested to by his or her immediate supervisor or by having achieved tenure and be able to show evidence of continuing professional development by having achieved a master’s degree or its equivalent or the accumulation of two thousand (2,000) hours of continuing professional activities.

(8) By contract with teacher education institutions in the Commonwealth, the Education Professional Standards Board shall provide special training for persons who will be serving on the beginning teacher committees. Completion of special training shall be evidenced by successfully passing the assessments as prescribed by the Education Professional Standards Board. A principal hired after July 15, 1996, shall be required to complete the beginning teacher committee training program within one (1) year after his or her appointment.

(9) If an applicant establishes eligibility for a one (1) year certificate under the provisions of subsection (3)(a) of this section, but does not become employed on the basis needed to satisfy the one (1) year internship requirement, the applicant shall be eligible for the issuance of a certificate for substitute teaching as provided by the administrative regulations of the Education Professional Standards Board. The applicant shall remain eligible for the one (1) year certificate, as provided in subsection (3)(a) of this section, and for the opportunity to serve the internship for a period of five (5) years after establishing eligibility. If the internship is not completed within the five (5) year period, the applicant must reestablish eligibility by repeating and passing the assessment program in effect for new teachers at that time or by completing a minimum of six (6) graduate hours toward completion of a graduate program required by administrative regulations promulgated by the Education Professional Standards Board. The option for renewal through completion of graduate hours shall be available only for the first reestablishment of eligibility.

(10) The Education Professional Standards Board shall approve the curricula of any college or university, or of any department thereof, for the training of teachers, and any nontraditional or alternative teacher preparation program offered in a public or private postsecondary education institution, private contractor, or state agency, and shall also approve the curricula of any local district alternative certification program, when the curricula comply with the administrative regulations of the Education Professional Standards Board for the issuance of certificates and when the institution has met the terms and conditions provided in KRS 161.010 to 161.120. Any student who has completed any of these curricula, as approved by the Education Professional Standards Board, and who has completed the prescribed requirements for the issuance of certificates shall be granted a certificate corresponding to the curricula completed.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Nonpublic school teachers.
2. Administrator.

1. Nonpublic School Teachers.
It cannot be said as an absolute that a teacher in a nonpublic school who is not certified under subsection (2) of this section will be unable to instruct children to become intelligent citizens; certainly, the receipt of “a bachelor’s degree from a standard college or university” is an indicator of the level of achievement, but it is not a sine qua non the absence of which establishes that private and parochial school teachers are unable to teach their students to intelligently exercise the elective franchise. Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Rudaill, 589 S.W.2d 877 (Ky.
1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792 (1980).

2. Administrator.

An administrator is one who (1) holds a position categorized as an administrative position pursuant to KRS 161.720(8), or pursuant to approval by the State Board of Education of the position as a certified administrative position; and (2) is duly certified by the State Board of Education as an administrator.

161.042. Status of student teachers — Responsibility to administrative staff and supervising teachers — Professional competency requirement for supervising teachers.

(1) The Education Professional Standards Board shall provide through administrative regulation for the utilization of the common schools for the preparation of teacher education students from the colleges and universities.

(2) Within the provisions established by the Education Professional Standards Board, local boards of education are authorized to enter into cooperative agreements, including financial arrangements, with colleges and universities for the purpose of providing professional laboratory experiences and student teaching experiences for students preparing for the education profession.

(3) The Education Professional Standards Board shall promulgate administrative regulations defining the professional requirements and general duties of a supervising teacher and requirements for a local school district and school to be used for this purpose.

(4) A student teacher who is jointly assigned under agreement by a teacher education institution and a local board of education shall have the same legal status and protection as a certified teacher employed within the school district and shall be responsible to the administrative staff of the school district and the supervising teacher to whom he or she is assigned. All student teachers shall be subject to the state and national criminal records checks required of certified hires under provisions of KRS 160.380.

(5) Teacher education students, other than student teachers, may be permitted through cooperative agreements between the local school district and the teacher education institution, to engage in supplementary instructional activities with pupils under the direction and supervision of the professional administrative and teaching staff of the school district. Teacher education students shall not be subject to the criminal records checks required under KRS 160.380 or KRS 161.148.

regular classroom teacher. OAG 75-70.

A student teacher may be held liable in tort for his negligent acts or omissions just as may a regular teacher but his actions, and whether he acted as a reasonable person would act under the circumstances, must be judged in the light of the fact that he is acting under the supervision and direction of a regular classroom teacher. OAG 75-70.

161.044. Requirements for teachers' aides — Legal status — Preference to certified applicants — Training.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations governing the qualifications of teachers’ aides in the common schools. All teachers’ aides working in kindergarten or with entry level students in primary classes and all instructional teachers’ aides initially employed after July 1, 1986, except those with current teacher certification, shall have a high school diploma or a general equivalency diploma.

(2) “Noninstructional teacher’s aide” means an adult who works under the direct supervision of the teaching staff in performing noninstructional functions such as clerical duties, lunch room duties, leading pupils in recreational activities, aiding the school librarian, preparing and organizing instructional material and equipment and monitoring children during a noninstructional period. Noninstructional teachers’ aides employed on a full-time basis shall possess skills necessary to perform their duties and shall meet the requirements established in KRS 160.380(5).

(3) Within the administrative regulations established by the Kentucky Board of Education, a local district may employ teachers’ aides in supplementary 161.046 Adjunct instructors.

(1) For purposes of this section, “adjunct instructor” means an individual who has training or experience in a specific subject area and who has met the requirements for certification as an adjunct instructor established by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(2) The Education Professional Standards Board shall adopt administrative regulations governing the qualifications and utilization of adjunct instructors. These administrative regulations shall specify the minimum essential competencies which must be demonstrated by persons seeking an adjunct instructor certificate.

(3) Holders of an adjunct instructor certificate shall be employed on an annual contract basis and shall not be eligible for continuing service status pursuant to KRS 161.740 or for the retirement provisions of KRS 161.220 through 161.714. The granting of successive annual contracts to the holder of an adjunct instructor certificate shall not give rise to a claim of expectation of continuing employment.

(4) Local school boards may contract with certificated adjunct instructors for part-time services on an hourly, daily, or other periodic basis as best meets the needs of the board. An adjunct instructor shall not fill a position that will result in the displacement of a qualified teacher with a regular certificate who is already employed in the district.

(5) An orientation program shall be developed and implemented for adjunct instructors by the local school board.

161.048 Alternative certification program — Purpose — Options — Testing and eligibility requirements — Salary schedule.

(1) The General Assembly hereby finds that:

(a) 1. There are persons who have distinguished themselves through a variety of work and educational experiences that could enrich teaching in Kentucky schools;

2. There are distinguished scholars who wish to become teachers in Kentucky's public schools, but who did not pursue a teacher preparation program;

3. There are persons who should be recruited to teach in Kentucky's public schools as they have academic majors, strong verbal skills as shown by a verbal ability test, and deep knowledge of content, characteristics that empirical research identifies as important attributes of quality teachers;

4. There are persons who need to be recruited to teach in Kentucky schools to meet the diverse cultural and educational needs of students; and

5. There should be alternative procedures to the traditional teacher preparation programs that qualify persons as teachers.

(b) There are hereby established alternative certification program options as described in subsections (2) through (8) of this section.

(c) It is the intent of the General Assembly that the Educational Professional Standards Board inform scholars, persons with exceptional work experience, and persons with diverse backgrounds who have potential as teachers of these options and assist local boards of education in implementing these options and recruitment of individuals who can enhance the education system in Kentucky.

(d) The Education Professional Standards Board shall promulgate administrative regulations establishing standards and procedures for the alternative certification options described in this section.

(2) Option 1: Certification of a person with exceptional work experience. An individual who has exceptional work experience and has been offered employment in a local school district shall receive a one (1) year provisional teaching certificate with approval by the Education Professional Standards Board of a joint application by the individual and the employing school district under the following conditions:

(a) The application contains documentation of all education and work experience;
(b) The candidate has documented ten (10) years of exceptional work experience in the area in which certification is being sought;
(c) The candidate possesses:

   1. a. A minimum of a bachelor’s degree, with a cumulative grade point average of two and five-tenths (2.5) on a four (4) point scale or a grade point average of three (3.0) on a four (4) point scale on the last sixty (60) hours of credit completed, including undergraduate and graduate coursework from a nationally or regionally accredited postsecondary institution; or
   b. A graduate degree with a cumulative grade point average of two and five-tenths (2.5) on a four (4) point scale or a grade point average of three (3.0) on a four (4) point scale on the last sixty (60) hours of credit completed, including undergraduate and graduate coursework from a nationally or regionally accredited postsecondary institution; and

   2. An academic major or a passing score on the academic content assessment designated by the Education Professional Standards Board; and

(d) The candidate shall participate in the teacher internship program under subsections (5), (6), (7), and (8) of KRS 161.030. After successful completion of the internship, the candidate shall receive a regular professional certificate and shall be subject to certificate renewal requirements the same as any other teacher with a regular professional certificate.

(3) Option 2: Certification through a local district training program. A local district or group of districts may seek approval for a training program. The state-approved local district training program is an alternative to the college teacher preparation program as a means of acquiring teacher certification for a teacher at any grade level. The training program may be offered for all teaching certificates approved by Education Professional Standards Board, including interdisciplinary early childhood education, except for specific certificates for teachers of exceptional children. To participate in a state-approved local district alternative training program, the candidate shall:

(a) Possess a bachelor’s degree with a grade point average of two and five tenths (2.5) on a four (4) point scale or, upon approval by the Education Professional Standards Board, at least a grade point average of two (2) on a four (4) point scale if the candidate has exceptional life experience related to teaching and has completed the bachelor’s degree at least five (5) years prior to submitting an application to the program.

(b) Pass written tests designated by the Education Professional Standards Board for content knowledge in the specific teaching field of the applicant with minimum scores in each test as set by the Education Professional Standards Board. To be eligible to take a subject field test, the applicant shall have completed a thirty (30) hour major in the academic content area or five (5) years of experience in the academic content area as approved by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(c) Have been offered employment in a school district which has a training program approved by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(d) Upon meeting the participation requirements as established in this subsection, the candidate shall be issued a one (1) year provisional certificate by the Education Professional Standards Board. The regular provisional certificate shall be issued upon satisfactory completion of the program and the teacher testing internship program pursuant to KRS 161.030.

(e) The Education Professional Standards Board may reject the application of any candidate who is judged as not meeting academic requirements comparable to those for students enrolled in Kentucky teacher preparation programs.

(4) Option 3: Certification of a professional from a postsecondary institution: A candidate who possesses the following qualifications may receive alternative certification for teaching at any level:

(a) A master’s degree or doctoral degree in the academic content area for which certification is sought;

(b) A minimum of five (5) years of full-time teaching experience, or its equivalent, in the academic content area for which certification is sought in a regionally or nationally accredited institution of higher education; and

(c) Successful completion of the teacher internship requirement imposed under KRS 161.030.

(5) Option 4: Certification of an adjunct instructor. A person who has expertise in areas such as art, music, foreign language, drama, science, and other specialty areas may be employed as an adjunct instructor in a part-time position by a local board of education under KRS 161.046. An individual certified as an adjunct instructor shall not be deemed “highly qualified” under the provisions of the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, 20 U.S.C. secs. 6301 et seq.

(6) Option 5: Certification of a veteran of the Armed Forces. The Education Professional Standards Board shall issue a statement of eligibility, valid for five (5) years, to a veteran for teaching at the elementary, secondary, and secondary vocational education levels with the following qualifications:

(a) Discharged or released from active duty under honorable conditions after six (6) or more years of continuous active duty immediately before the discharge or release;

(b) At least a bachelor’s degree in the content area or closely related area for which certification is sought, issued by a regionally or nationally accredited institution of higher education;

(c) A grade point average of two and five-tenths (2.5) on a four (4) point scale for a bachelor’s degree or an advanced degree; and

(d) A passing score on the written exit assessment examination designated by the Education Professional Standards Board for content knowledge.

Upon an offer of employment by a school district, the eligible veteran shall receive a one (1) year provisional teaching certificate with approval by the Education Professional Standards Board of a joint application by the veteran and the employing school district. During this year, the veteran shall participate in the teacher internship program under subsections (5), (6), (7), and (8) of KRS 161.030. Upon successful completion of the internship program, the veteran shall receive a regular professional certificate.

(7) Option 6: University alternative program. With approval of the Education Professional Standards Board, a university may provide an alternative program that enrolls students in a postbaccalaureate teacher preparation program concurrently with employment as a teacher in a local school district. A student in the alternative program shall be granted a temporary provisional certificate and shall be a candidate in the Kentucky teacher internship program, notwithstanding provisions of KRS 161.030. The temporary provisional certificate shall be valid for a maximum of one (1) year, and may be renewed two (2) additional years, and shall be contingent upon the candidate’s continued enrollment in the preparation program and compliance with all requirements established by the board. A professional certificate shall be issued upon the teacher candidate’s successful completion of the program, the internship requirements, and all assessments required by the board.

(8) Option 7: Certification of a person in a field other than education to teach in elementary, middle, or secondary programs. This option shall not be limited to teaching in shortage areas.

(a) An individual certified under provisions of this subsection shall be issued a one (1) year temporary provisional teaching certificate, renewable for a maximum of two (2) additional years with approval of the Education Professional Standards Board provided that the candidate:

1. Possesses a bachelor’s degree with a declared academic major in the area in which certification is sought and a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale, or a professional or graduate degree in a field related to the area in which certification is sought;

2. Has a minimum score of five hundred (500) on the verbal section and a minimum score of four (4) on the analytical writing section of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). In addition, teachers of mathematics and physical and biological sciences shall have a minimum score of four hundred fifty (450) on the quantitative section of the GRE. A candidate who has a professional degree shall be exempt from the requirements of this subparagraph; and

3. Passes written tests designated by the Education Professional Standards Board for content knowledge in the specific teaching field of the applicant with minimum scores in each test as set by the board.

(b) Prior to receiving the temporary provisional certificate or during the first year of the certificate, the teacher shall complete the following:

1. For elementary teaching, the individual shall successfully complete the equivalent of a two hundred forty (240) hour institute, based on six (6) hour days for eight (8) weeks. The providers and the content of the institute shall be approved by the Education Professional Standards Board. The content shall include research-based teaching strategies in reading and math, research on child and adolescent growth, knowledge of individual differences, including teaching exceptional children, and methods of classroom management.

2. For middle and secondary teaching, the individual shall successfully complete the equivalent of a one hundred eighty (180) hour institute, based on six (6) hour days for six (6) weeks. The providers and the content of the institute shall be approved by the Education Professional Standards Board and shall include research-based teaching strategies, research on child and adolescent growth, knowledge of individual differences, including teaching exceptional children, and methods of classroom management.

(c) The candidate shall participate in the teacher internship program under subsections (5), (6), (7), and (8) of KRS 161.030. After successful completion of the internship program, the candidate shall receive a regular professional certificate.

(9) A teacher certified under subsections (2) to (8) of this section shall be placed on the local district salary schedule for the rank corresponding to the degree held by the teacher.

(10) Veterans who were discharged or released from active duty under honorable conditions after six (6) or more years of continuous active duty immediately before the discharge or release, and who have at least four (4) years of occupational experience in the area in which they seek certification as a vocational industrial education teacher, shall apply for certification under and meet the requirements of the administrative regulations promulgated by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(11) Subsections (1) to (3) of this section notwithstanding, a candidate who possesses the following qualifications may receive certification for teaching programs for exceptional students:

(a) An out-of-state license to teach exceptional students;
(b) A bachelor’s or master’s degree in the certification area or closely related area for which certification is sought; and
(c) Successful completion of the teacher internship requirement under KRS 161.030.

161.049. Professional support teams — Training program — Alternate training program.

(1) As used in this section, “professional support team” means a school principal, an experienced teacher, a college or university faculty member, and an instructional supervisor. If an instructional supervisor or college or university faculty member is not available, the district shall assign a member with comparable experience. The school principal shall serve as the chairman of the team.

(2) The Education Professional Standards Board shall establish a training program for professional support teams which shall be implemented by the board or contracted with another agency. The training shall include content and procedures for the evaluation of teacher candidates. Completion of the training shall be evidenced by successfully passing the examinations prescribed by the board.

(3) A local school district seeking to hire a teacher pursuant to KRS 161.048(3) shall submit a plan for a local district alternative training program to the Education Professional Standards Board and have it approved in accordance with administrative regulations established by the Board. The district shall show evidence that it has sought joint sponsorship of the program with a college or university. No local school district shall employ a teacher seeking certification in a state-approved local district training program unless it has submitted a plan and received approval by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(4) Each state approved local district alternative training program shall provide the teacher candidate with essential knowledge and skills and include, but not be limited to, the following components:

(a) A full-time seminar and practicum of no less than eight (8) weeks’ duration prior to the time the candidate assumes responsibility for a classroom. The content of the formal instruction shall be prescribed by the Education Professional Standards Board and shall include an introduction to basic teaching skills through supervised teaching experiences with students, as well as an orientation on the policies, organization, and curriculum of the employing district.

(b) A period of classroom supervision while the candidate assumes responsibility on a one-half (½) time basis for a classroom and continuing for eighteen (18) weeks. During this period, the candidate shall be visited and critiqued no less than one (1) time per week by one (1) or more members of a professional support team appointed by the local district and assigned according to the administrative regulations adopted by the Education Professional Standards Board. The candidate shall be formally evaluated at the end of five (5) weeks, at the end of the second five (5) weeks, and at the end of the last eight (8) weeks by the members of the team. During this period, the candidate shall continue formal instruction which emphasizes student assessment, child development, learning, curriculum, instruction of exceptional children, and school and classroom organization.

(c) An additional period of at least eighteen (18) weeks continued supervision of the teacher candidate who may be assigned full-time classroom duties. During this period the teacher candidate shall be critiqued at least once per month and shall be observed formally and evaluated at least twice. No more than two (2) months shall pass without a formal observation. Formal instruction shall also continue during this period. In addition, opportunities shall be provided for the teacher candidate to observe the teaching of experienced teachers.

(5) At least two hundred fifty (250) hours of formal instruction shall be provided in all three (3) phases of the program combined.

(6) At the conclusion of the alternative training program, the chair of the support team shall prepare a comprehensive evaluation report on the teacher candidate's performance. This report shall be submitted to the Education Professional Standards Board and shall contain a recommendation as to whether the teacher candidate shall be issued a one (1) year certificate of eligibility to complete the internship pursuant to KRS 161.030. The support team shall make one (1) of the following recommendations:

(a) Approved: recommends issuance of certificate to complete the internship;
(b) Insufficient: recommends the candidate be allowed to seek reentry into a teacher preparation program; or
(c) Disapproved: recommends the candidate not be allowed to enter a teacher preparation program.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4502-3) was repealed by Acts 1950, ch. 103, § 2.

161.051. Braille requirements for teacher certification of blind and visually impaired students.

Teachers seeking to be certified in the education of blind and visually impaired students shall be required, prior to certification, to demonstrate competence in reading and writing braille, and in the use of appropriate instructional methods for teaching braille by use of the braille writer, the slate and stylus, and through the use of computer devices commonly used in the elementary and secondary instruction of blind students. Any teacher who teaches a blind student braille, or monitors a student's braille usage, shall demonstrate competence in braille. The Education Professional Standards Board shall promulgate administrative regulations to assess such competency which shall be consistent with the guidelines for braille instructors as adopted by the National Library Services for the Blind and Physically Handicapped.

161.052. Certification of teachers for gifted education.

All persons employed as teachers for gifted education shall hold an appropriate certificate endorsement for gifted education, except that all teachers having certificates initially issued for a duration period on or before July 1, 1984, or proper renewals thereof, shall remain eligible thereafter for assignment as teachers for gifted education, for the grade levels of the base certificate, provided any such assignment was valid under the original certificate at the time it was issued.

Cross-References. Endorsement for teachers of gifted education, 704 KAR 20:280E.

161.053. Certification of teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders.

(1) The Education Professional Standards Board shall have the authority and responsibility to certify as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, an individual who has:
(a) Completed an approved program of preparation that corresponds to the certificate;
(b) Achieved a passing score on an appropriate assessment as determined by the Education Professional Standards Board;
(c) Fulfilled other requirements for teacher certification as determined by the Education Professional Standards Board, in accordance with KRS Chapter 161 and administrative regulations promulgated thereunder; and
(d) Completed the requirements set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The Education Professional Standards Board shall issue two (2) levels of certification for teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders:
(a) Baccalaureate level certification shall be issued to a person who has:
   1. Completed an approved program of preparation leading to a bachelor’s degree in speech-language pathology;
   2. Been granted licensure as a speech-language pathology assistant from the Kentucky Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, under KRS Chapter 334A; and
   3. Completed the other requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section; and
(b) Master's level certification shall be issued to a person who has:
   1. Completed an approved program of preparation leading to a master's degree in speech-language pathology; and
   2. Completed the other requirements specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A person holding licensure through the Kentucky Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology as a speech-language pathology assistant, but not certified as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, may:
(a) Continue to work in the public schools as a classified employee under the provisions of KRS Chapter 334A and administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology; or
(b) Pursue certification as a baccalaureate level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders while working as a speech-language pathology assistant.

(4) Candidates for certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders shall participate in the teacher internship program under KRS 161.030.

(5) A bachelor's level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders shall work under requirements for speech-language pathology assistants set forth in KRS Chapter 334A.

(6) The Education Professional Standards Board shall develop a policy through the promulgation of administrative regulations by June 30, 2001, to permit a speech-language pathology assistant with two (2) years or more of successful professional experience pursuing certification as a baccalaureate level teacher of exceptional children to:

(a) Substitute prior professional experience for student teaching requirements; and

(b) Substitute prior professional experience for beginning teacher internship requirements.

(7) A teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders shall receive salary and benefits, including membership in the Teachers’ Retirement System, commensurate with his or her education, certification, and experience as prescribed by law. Years of experience as a speech-language pathology assistant shall be included in the calculation of all benefits, including membership in the Teachers’ Retirement System, for individuals with baccalaureate level certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders.

161.095. Continuing education for teachers. By July 1, 1997, the Education Professional Standards Board, with the advice of the Kentucky Board of Education, shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures for a teacher to maintain his certificate by successfully completing meaningful continuing education. The Education Professional Standards Board shall develop standards for continuing education related to maintaining a certificate, including university courses, an advanced degree, or a combination of university courses, field-based experience, individual research, and approved professional development. The Education Professional Standards Board shall establish a system of quality assurance related to continuing education activities and certification requirements. The requirements shall become effective January 1, 1998.

161.100. Emergency certificates. When a district board of education satisfies the Education Professional Standards Board that it is impossible to secure qualified teachers for a position in a school under the control of the district board, the Education Professional Standards Board may issue emergency certificates to persons who meet the qualifications determined by the Education Professional Standards Board for emergency certificates. An emergency certificate shall be valid only for the specific job for which it issued and for the current school term. The Education Professional Standards Board may require the passing of a written examination before an emergency certificate is issued. The examination shall be prepared and administered and the papers graded in the state offices of the Education Professional Standards Board under the direction of the executive director, in accordance with administrative regulations approved by the Education Professional Standards Board.

161.115. Deletion of certificate, certificate endorsement, or subject specialization from official certification record at holder’s option — Restoration of deleted areas of certification.

The holder of any type of Kentucky teacher certification issued by the Education Professional Standards Board may, at the holder’s option, have any certificate, certificate endorsement, or subject specialization deleted from the official certification record upon application, subject to the following provisions:

(1) The application shall be submitted to the Education Professional Standards Board on a form furnished by the board. The form shall include the information required by this section and the applicant shall verify the information by affidavit. The application shall be submitted between September 1 and December 1 and shall become effective on the following July 1. If the requirements of this section are satisfied, the Education Professional Standards Board shall notify the applicant and the applicant’s employing school or school district on or before February 1 following submission of the application, that the decertification has been approved.

(2) No portion of the certification shall be deleted for any subject or assignment in which the teacher has had experience during the three (3) year period preceding the request in an amount equivalent to one (1) year of full-time employment (140 days) during which at least one (1) period per day was in the subject or assignment corresponding to the portion of the certification requested for deletion.

(3) If the certification for classroom teaching at the secondary level is to be retained, at least one (1) teaching major or one (1) area of concentration shall be retained.

(4) A certificate which is a prerequisite or a concurrent requirement to the issuance of another certificate or certificate endorsement held by the applicant shall be retained.

(5) Applications for restoration of areas of certification deleted under this section shall be submitted to the Education Professional Standards Board showing restored competency and proficiency by completion of twelve (12) semester hours of credit pertinent to the deleted areas as prescribed by an institution approved for teacher education. A transcript or other appropriate verification of completion of the twelve (12) semester hours of credit from the institution approved for teacher education shall be accepted as evidence showing restoration of competency and proficiency in the areas of certification.

161.120. Disciplinary actions relating to certificates — Appeals.

(1) Except as described in KRS 161.795, the Education Professional Standards Board may revoke, suspend, or refuse to issue or renew; impose probationary or supervisory conditions upon; issue a written reprimand or admonishment; or any combination of those actions regarding any certificate issued under KRS 161.010 to 161.100, or any certificate or license issued under any previous law to superintendents, principals, teachers, substitute teachers, interns, supervisors, directors of pupil personnel, or other administrative, supervisory, or instructional employees for the following reasons:

(a) Being convicted of, or entering an “Alford” plea or plea of nolo contendere to, notwithstanding an order granting probation or suspending imposition of any sentence imposed following the conviction or entry of the plea, one (1) of the following:

1. A felony;
2. A misdemeanor under KRS Chapter 218A, 508, 509, 510, 522, 525, 529, 530, or 531; or
3. A misdemeanor involving a student or minor.

A certified copy of the conviction or plea shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction or plea;

(b) Having sexual contact as defined in KRS 510.010(7) with a student or minor. Conviction in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action;

(c) Committing any act that constitutes fraudulent, corrupt, dishonest, or immoral conduct. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action;

(d) Demonstrating willful or careless disregard for the health, welfare, or safety of others;

(e) Physical or mental incapacity that prevents the certificate holder from performing duties with reasonable skill, competence, or safety;

(f) Possessing, using, or being under the influence of alcohol, which impairs the performance of duties;

(g) Unlawfully possessing or unlawfully using a drug during the performance of duties;

(h) Incompetency or neglect of duty;

(i) Making, or causing to be made, any false or misleading statement or concealing a material fact in obtaining issuance or renewal of any certificate;

(j) Failing to report as required by subsection (2) of this section;

(k) Failing to comply with an order of the Education Professional Standards Board;

(l) Violating any state statute relating to schools or the teaching profession;

(m) Violating the professional code of ethics for Kentucky school certified personnel established by the Education Professional Standards Board through the promulgation of administrative regulation;
(n) Violating any administrative regulation promulgated by the Education Professional Standards Board or the Kentucky Board of Education; or

(o) Receiving disciplinary action or having the issuance of a certificate denied or restricted by another jurisdiction on grounds that constitute a violation of this subsection.

(2) The superintendent of each local school district shall report in writing to the Education Professional Standards Board the name, address, phone number, Social Security number, and position name of any certified school employee in the employee's district whose contract is terminated or not renewed, for cause except failure to meet local standards for quality of teaching performance prior to the employee gaining tenure; who resigns from, or otherwise leaves, a position under threat of contract termination, or nonrenewal, for cause; who is convicted in a criminal prosecution; or who otherwise may have engaged in any actions or conduct while employed in the school district that might reasonably be expected to warrant consideration for action against the certificate under subsection (1) of this section. The duty to report shall exist without regard to any disciplinary action, or lack thereof, by the superintendent, and the required report shall be submitted within thirty (30) days of the event giving rise to the duty to report.

(b) The district superintendent shall inform the Education Professional Standards Board in writing of the full facts and circumstances leading to the contract termination or nonrenewal, resignation, or other absence, conviction, or otherwise reported actions or conduct of the certified employee, that may warrant action against the certificate under subsection (1) of this section, and shall forward copies of all relevant documents and records in his possession.

(c) The Education Professional Standards Board may consider reports and information received from other sources.

(d) The certified school employee shall be given a copy of any report provided to the Education Professional Standards Board by the district superintendent or other sources. The employee shall have the right to file a written rebuttal to the report which shall be placed in the official file with the report.

(3) A finding or action by a school superintendent or tribunal does not create a presumption of a violation or lack of a violation of subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The board may issue a written admonishment to the certificate holder if the board determines, based on the evidence, that a violation has occurred that is not of a serious nature. A copy of the written admonishment shall be placed in the official file of the certificate holder. The certificate holder may respond in writing to the admonishment within thirty (30) days of receipt and have that response placed in his official certification file. Alternatively, the certificate holder may file a request for a hearing with the board within thirty (30) days of receipt of the admonishment. Upon receipt of a request for a hearing, the board shall set aside the written admonishment and set the matter for hearing pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

(5) (a) The Education Professional Standards Board shall schedule and conduct a hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B:

1. Before revoking, suspending, refusing to renew, imposing probationary or supervisory conditions upon, issuing a written reprimand, or any combination of these actions regarding any certificate;

2. After denying an application for a certificate, upon written request filed within thirty (30) days of receipt of the letter advising of the denial; or

3. After issuing a written admonishment, upon written request for a hearing filed within thirty (30) days of receipt of the written admonishment.

(b) Upon request, a hearing may be public or private at the discretion of the certified employee or applicant.

(c) The hearing shall be conducted before the full board, a panel of three (3) members of the board, or a person appointed as hearing officer by the board pursuant to KRS 13B.030(1).

(6) The Education Professional Standards Board or its chair may take emergency action pursuant to KRS 13B.125. Emergency action shall not affect a certificate holder's contract or tenure rights in the school district.

(7) If the Education Professional Standards Board substantiates that sexual contact occurred between a certified employee and a student or minor, the employee's certificate may be revoked or suspended with mandatory treatment of the employee as prescribed by the Education Professional Standards Board. The Education Professional Standards Board may require the employee to pay a specified amount for mental health services for the student or minor which are needed as a result of the sexual contact.

(8) At any time during the investigative or hearing processes, the board may enter into an agreed order or accept an assurance of voluntary compliance with the certificate holder.

(9) The board may reconsider, modify, or reverse its decision on any disciplinary action.

(10) Suspension of a certificate shall be for a specified period of time, not to exceed two (2) years.

(a) At the conclusion of the specified period, upon demonstration of compliance with any educational requirements and the terms set forth in the agreed order, the certificate shall be reactivated.

(b) A suspended certificate is subject to expiration and termination.

(11) Revocation of a certificate is a permanent forfeiture. The board shall establish the minimum pe-period of time before an applicant can apply for a new certificate.

(a) At the conclusion of the specified period, and upon demonstration of compliance with any educational requirements and the terms set forth in the agreed order, the applicant shall bear the burden of proof to show that he or she is again fit for practice.

(b) The board shall have discretion to impose conditions that it deems reasonably appropriate to ensure the applicant’s fitness and the protection of public safety. Any conditions imposed by the board shall address or apply to only that time period after the revocation of the certificate.

(12) An appeal from any final order of the Education Professional Standards Board shall be filed in Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/96). This section was amended by 1996 Ky. Acts chs. 318 and 343. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 343, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails under KRS 446.250.

(7/15/94). This statute was amended by 1994 Ky. Acts chs. 265 and 470, which were companion bills and are substantively identical. These Acts have been codified together. For the few minor variations between the Acts, Acts ch. 470 prevails under KRS 446.250, as the Act which passed the General Assembly last.

Opinions of Attorney General. Although this section seems to provide for an abbreviated consideration by the state board of revocation of certificate, a fundamentally fair adversary due process hearing would, at the minimum, be required, and a decision to revoke a certificate must be by a majority vote of the membership of the state board (four votes). OAG 79-394.

The state superintendent need not recommend revocation of certificate even though he has recommended suspension or removal under KRS 156.132 for the same acts. OAG 79-394.

The Educational Professional Standards Board (EPSB) lacks the authority to delegate the holding of a revocation hearing, as found in this section, to a hearing officer. Nowhere in the statutory sections dealing with the board is there any authority for such a delegation of power, and therefore, based upon the lack of authority granted to the EPSB under their statutes, the board must be physically present to “hear” the evidence introduced during a hearing. Of course, a hearing officer may assist the Board during and following the hearing. OAG 91-37.

The Education Professional Standards Board, as a public agency, may meet to take action so long as a majority of the members are present and express themselves by vote. This section provides that a majority of the board may take official action upon hearing the evidence presented, and it would not be appropriate to require that additional members who are not present and did not hear the evidence should render a vote. It is clear that the quorum necessary for the board to conduct business may also act. The Education Professional Standards Board, composed of 15 members, may act when eight members are present to hear the evidence and to take action; that action may consist of a vote of which a majority of those present prevail over the rest. OAG 91-107.

The language of KRS 160.270 which is applicable to local boards of education and states that a concurring vote by a majority of the board, the number of board members in the quorum notwithstanding, shall be necessary to take any particular action unless otherwise specified by statute does not apply to this section, which is applicable to the Education Professional Standards Board. OAG 91-107.

A report written under subsections (2)(a) and (b) (now (3)(a) and (b)) of this section does not represent final agency action, but is more closely analogous to an internal affairs report and is exempt under KRS 61.878. OAG 91-198.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Immunity.
A school superintendent as a public official acting under express authority of law is entitled to absolute immunity from a defamation action, even if the information he forwarded to the Professional Standards Board, regarding the reasons why a principal’s contract wasn’t renewed, was false. 161.121. Definitions for KRS 161.122. [Repealed.]

161.1211. Classification of teachers.

(1) The Education Professional Standards Board shall rank teachers as follows:

Rank I. Those holding regular certificates and who have a master’s degree in a subject field approved by the Education Professional Standards Board or equivalent continuing education and who have earned thirty (30) semester hours of approved graduate work or equivalent continuing education; and those teachers who have met the requirements for Rank II and hold current certification of the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards.

Rank II. Those holding regular certificates and who have a master's degree in a subject field approved by the Education Professional Standards Board or equivalent continuing education.

Rank III. Those holding regular certificates and who have an approved four (4) year college degree or the equivalent.

Rank IV. Those holding emergency certificates and who have ninety-six (96) to one hundred twenty-eight (128) semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent.

Rank V. Those holding emergency certificates and who have sixty-four (64) to ninety-five (95) semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent.

(2) In determining ranks, the Education Professional Standards Board shall classify teachers who hold valid certificates in the respective ranks according to approved college semester hours of credit or equivalent continuing education. The board, in defining preparation for certain types of vocational teachers as equivalent to college training, shall give consideration to apprenticeship training and industrial experience.

(3) For purposes of the state salary schedule only as referenced in KRS 158.070, rank shall be determined on September 15 of each year.

(4) Nothing in this section shall allow the Education Professional Standards Board to reclassify downward any teachers in Ranks II or I.

161.122. Career-ladder commission to develop pilot program — Commission report required — Initiation of two-year program. [Repealed.]

(1) The Education Professional Standards Board shall define "out-of-field" teaching and inform all local school districts of the definition.

(2) By October 15 of each year, the Education Professional Standards Board shall identify every teacher assigned classes out-of-field in the current school year and shall inform the Kentucky Department of Education.

(3) The Kentucky Department of Education shall provide to each school district a summary of the teachers identified as teaching out-of-field and give the district opportunity to correct the situation during the year. No teacher shall be reduced in salary due to being involuntarily moved out-of-field or being hired into a position out of his or her field. Emergency certification shall not be a valid reason for reducing any certified teacher's salary.

Cross-References. Emergency certification and out-of-field teaching, 704 KAR 20:120.

161.1222. Pilot teacher internship program — Report to Interim Joint Committee on Education — Appropriated funds.

(1) Whereas, the Education Professional Standards Board is studying the value of modifying the current teacher internship program under KRS 161.030 to provide improved support for beginning teachers, and whereas, the Education Professional Standards Board has received a federal Teacher Quality Enhancement Grant under incentives provided by the 1999 amendments to the Higher Education Act, Pub. L. No. 105-244, to support a pilot program to address this issue and other improvements to teacher preparation, the board is authorized, notwithstanding the requirements of KRS 161.030(5), to conduct a pilot program to study a two (2) year internship program. The pilot program may serve up to eight hundred (800) interns. The program shall be conducted between July 1, 2003 and June 30, 2006.

(2) All interns in the pilot program shall be governed by the provisions of KRS 161.030, except requirements specified in subsections (5), (6), (7), and (9) of KRS 161.030 which the board may deem inappropriate to the pilot program and which shall be modified in administrative regulations promulgated by the board. The board shall promulgate administrative regulations by July 1, 2003, that specify:

(a) Conditions under which prospective intern candidates shall be chosen for participation;
(b) Incentives to encourage participation in the two (2) year pilot program;
(c) Responsibilities of the beginning teacher committee;
(d) Duties of teacher mentors;
(e) Certification options for interns who may leave the pilot program or lose employment during the pilot years or who have not successfully completed the internship within the two (2) year period;
(f) Time, content, and assessment requirements during the mentoring and assessment phases of the internship period; and
(g) Other provisions necessary to implement the pilot program.

(3) The two (2) year internship period shall be counted as experience for teachers for the purpose of continuing contract status, retirement eligibility, and benefits for single salary experience increments.

(4) A professional teaching certificate shall not be awarded to a participant in the pilot project until successful completion of the pilot internship program.

(5) Participation in the pilot internship program shall not exempt the interns from personnel evaluations to be conducted under KRS 156.557.

(6) The board shall collect data, conduct formal evaluations throughout the pilot project, and complete analyses of the data. The board shall provide preliminary findings to the Interim Joint Committee on Education by October 1, 2005 and a final report by October 1, 2006. The reports shall provide data and information relating to the value and costs of a two (2) year internship program, including the benefits of additional mentoring for new teachers, the impact on the retention of new teachers, and the impact on student learning.

(7) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, beginning with the 2003-2004 fiscal year, the board may carry forward general funds appropriated for the internship program into the next fiscal year and each subsequent fiscal year through fiscal year 2005-2006 in an amount necessary to support the interns' second year internship experience and to match the federal funds appropriated under the grant described in subsection (1) of this section.

(Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 6, § 1, effective March 7, 2003.)

Compiler’s Notes. The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, referred to herein, is primarily compiled as 20 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq.

Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, an experienced, out-of-state teacher shall qualify for a regular provisional certificate if the applicant:
(1) Completes the application process;
(2) Holds a valid certificate issued by the state where the applicant most recently taught; and
(3) Holds a valid certificate issued by the National Board of Professional Teaching Standards.

INTERSTATE AGREEMENT ON QUALIFICATION OF EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL

161.124. Interstate Agreement on Qualification of Educational Personnel.
The Interstate Agreement on Qualification of Educational Personnel is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in the form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE, FINDINGS, AND POLICY

(1) The states party to this agreement, desiring by common action to improve their respective school systems by utilizing the teacher or other professional educational person wherever educated, declare that it is the policy of each of them, on the basis of cooperation with one another, to take advantage of the preparation and experience of these persons wherever gained, thereby serving the best interests of society, of education, and of the teaching profession. It is the purpose of this agreement to provide for the development and execution of these programs of cooperation as will facilitate the movement of teachers and other professional educational personnel among the states party to it, and to authorize specific interstate educational personnel contracts to achieve that end.

(2) The party states find that included in the large movement of population among all sections of the nation are many qualified educational personnel who move for family and other personal reasons but who are hindered in using their professional skill and experience in their new locations. Variations from state to state in requirements for qualifying educational personnel discourage these personnel from taking the steps necessary to qualify in other states. As a consequence, a significant number of professionally prepared and experienced educators is lost to our school systems. Facilitating the employment of qualified educational personnel, without reference to their states of origin, can increase the available educational resources. Participation in this compact can increase the availability of educational manpower.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS

As used in this agreement and contracts made pursuant to it, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) “Educational personnel” means persons who must meet requirements pursuant to state law as a condition of employment in educational programs.

(2) “Designated state official” means the education official of a state selected by that state to negotiate and enter into, on behalf of his state, contracts pursuant to this agreement.

(3) “Accept,” or any variant thereof, means to recognize and give effect to one (1) or more determinations of another state relating to the qualifications of educational personnel in lieu of making or requiring a like determination that would otherwise be required by or pursuant to the laws of a receiving state.

(4) “State” means a state, territory, or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(5) “Originating state” means a state and its subdivisions, if any, whose determination that certain educational personnel are qualified to be employed for specific duties in schools is acceptable in accordance with the terms of a contract made pursuant to Article III.

(6) “Receiving state” means a state and its subdivisions which accept educational personnel in accordance with the terms of a contract made pursuant to Article III.

ARTICLE III. INTERSTATE EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL CONTRACTS

(1) The designated state official of a party state may make one or more contracts on behalf of his state with one or more other party states providing for the acceptance of educational personnel. Any contract for the period of its duration shall be applicable to and binding on the states whose designated state officials enter into it, and the subdivisions of those states, with the same force and effect as if incorporated in this agreement. A designated state official may enter into a contract pursuant to this Article only with states in which he finds that there are programs of education, certification standards or other acceptable qualifications that assure preparation or qualification of educational personnel on a basis sufficiently comparable, even though not identical to that prevailing in his own state.

(2) Any contract shall provide for:
   (a) Its duration.
   (b) The criteria to be applied by an originating state in qualifying educational personnel for acceptance by a receiving state.
   (c) Waivers, substitutions, and conditional acceptance as shall aid the practical effectuation of the contract without sacrifice of basic educational standards.
   (d) Any other necessary matters.

(3) No contract made pursuant to this agreement shall be for a term longer than five years but any contract may be renewed for like or lesser periods.

(4) Any contract dealing with acceptance of educational personnel on the basis of their having completed an educational program shall specify the earliest date or dates on which originating state approval of the program or programs involved can have occurred. No contract made pursuant to this agreement shall require acceptance by a receiving state of any persons qualified because of successful completion of a program prior to January 1, 1954.

(5) The certification or other acceptance of a person who has been accepted pursuant to the terms of a contract shall not be revoked or otherwise impaired because the contract has expired or been terminated. However, any certificate or other qualifying document may be revoked or suspended on any ground which would be sufficient for revocation or suspension of a certificate or other qualifying document initially granted or approved in the receiving state.

(6) A contract committee composed of the designated state officials of the contracting states or their representatives shall keep the contract under continuous review, study means of improving its administration, and report no less frequently than once a year to the heads of the appropriate education agencies of the contracting states.

ARTICLE IV. APPROVED AND ACCEPTED PROGRAMS

(1) Nothing in this agreement should be construed to repeal or otherwise modify any law or regulation of a party state relating to the approval of programs of educational preparation having effect solely on the qualification of educational personnel within that state.

(2) To the extent that contracts made pursuant to this agreement deal with the educational requirements for the proper qualification of educational personnel, acceptance of a program of educational preparation shall be in accordance with such procedures and requirements as may be provided in the applicable contract.

ARTICLE V. INTERSTATE COOPERATION

The party states agree that:
(1) They will, so far as practicable, prefer the making of multilateral contracts pursuant to Article III of this agreement.
(2) They will facilitate and strengthen cooperation in interstate certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification and for this purpose shall cooperate with agencies, organizations, and associations interested in certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification.

ARTICLE VI. AGREEMENT EVALUATION

The designated state officials of any party state may meet from time to time as a group to evaluate progress under the agreement, and to formulate recommendations for changes.

ARTICLE VII. OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to prevent or inhibit other arrangements or practices of any party state or states to facilitate the interchange of educational personnel.

ARTICLE VIII. EFFECT AND WITHDRAWAL

(1) This agreement shall become effective when enacted into law by two (2) states. Thereafter it shall become effective as to any state upon its enactment of this agreement.

(2) Any party state may withdraw from this agreement by enacting a statute repealing the agreement, but no withdrawal shall take effect until one (1) year after the Governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the Governors of all other party states.

(3) No withdrawal shall relieve the withdrawing state of any obligation imposed upon it by a contract to which it is a party. The duration of contracts and the methods and conditions of withdrawal therefrom shall be those specified in their terms.

ARTICLE IX. CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state participating therein, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

161.126. Designation of executive director of the Education Professional Standards Board as state official under agreement — Handling contracts under agreement.

(1) The “designated state official” for this state shall be the executive director of the Education Professional Standards Board. The executive director shall enter into contracts pursuant to Article III of the agreement only with the approval of the specific text by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(2) True copies of all contracts made on behalf of this state pursuant to the agreement shall be kept on file in the office of the Education Professional Standards Board and in the office of the Secretary of State. The executive director of the board shall publish all contracts in convenient form.

161.130. Fees for certificates — Agency fund account. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4502-8: amend. Acts 1950, ch. 103, § 3) was repealed by Acts 1960, ch. 98.

National Board Certification of Teachers

161.131. Legislative findings and goals on national board certification.

(1) The General Assembly hereby finds that:

(a) Student achievement is directly related to the competency levels of the teachers and the teachers’ ability to nurture student learning;

(b) All students are entitled to have teachers who know the subjects they teach and who demonstrate skill for managing and monitoring student learning;

(c) Teachers who meet entry-level standards need support and opportunities to develop higher-level skills throughout their teaching careers;

(d) Certification through the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards is based on high and rigorous standards and provides a process of development and assessment of teachers’ knowledge, skills and abilities embedded in classroom practices in the certificate field; and

(e) Teachers who successfully meet the certification requirements through the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards can help strengthen the teaching profession within their schools and school districts by advising, assisting, and mentoring new teachers; by serving as role models and master teachers to student teachers; and by assisting other experienced teachers who seek national board certification.

(2) The General Assembly establishes, on behalf of the public school teachers and students in the Commonwealth, a goal that by the year 2020 there will be at least one (1) national board certified teacher in every public school in Kentucky.

As used in KRS 161.131 to 161.134 and KRS 157.395 and 161.123, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Mentor” means a highly skilled, experienced teacher who provides systematic and ongoing support and assistance to other teachers in a school or school district to help them improve their teaching skills and practices;

(2) “National Board for Professional Teaching Standards” and “national board” means a nonpartisan, independent, and nonprofit board composed of certified teachers and others that has developed a set of high and rigorous standards for accomplished teachers and that operates a national voluntary system to assess and certify teachers who meet their standards; and

(3) “National board certification” means a demonstration by an experienced teacher of his or her teaching practice as measured against high and rigorous standards through a comprehensive assessment process administered by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards.

161.133. Teachers’ national certification incentive trust fund — Purposes — Appropriations.

(1) There is hereby established a “Teachers’ National Certification Incentive Trust Fund” in the State Treasury for the purposes of:

(a) Funding stipends for teachers to prepare for certification by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards;

(b) Reimbursing a portion of the certification fee to each teacher who is awarded national board certification;

(c) Reimbursing local boards of education for persons who serve as substitute teachers for national board certification candidates; and

(d) Funding stipends for national board certified teachers who serve as mentors to other teachers within the school district.

(2) Appropriations by the General Assembly in each biennial budget for the purpose of supporting national board certification shall be credited to the fund and invested until needed. All money credited to the fund, including interest earned on money in the fund, shall be retained in the fund for reinvestment and used for the purposes of this section. Funds appropriated to the fund shall not lapse at the end of a fiscal year or a biennium.

(3) The Education Professional Standards Board shall promulgate administrative regulations that establish the procedures for the administration of the funds as described in this section and the requirements for participating teachers and local boards of education. The board shall allocate only those funds to teachers or school districts for the purposes in this section for which other sources of funds are not being received. The board may limit the number of participants accepted in any given enrollment or application period due to the lack of available funds.

(4) Money in the fund shall be distributed to local boards of education and teachers by the Kentucky Department of Education in compliance with the administrative regulations promulgated by the board.

Cross-References. Teachers’ National Certification Incentive Trust Fund, 704 KAR 20:750.

161.134. Preparation for national board certification — Incentives — Authority to prorate reimbursements if funds insufficient — Administrative regulations for mentoring program.

(1) (a) A teacher pursuing national board certification shall receive from the fund established under KRS 161.133 a stipend of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for two (2) days beyond the school contract year to prepare for the certification assessments.

(b) A local board of education shall provide five (5) days’ released time during the school year for a teacher pursuing national board certification. The local board of education shall request reimbursement from the fund established under KRS 161.133 for substitute teacher pay based on the local board of education salary schedule for substitute teachers and for stipends paid to a teacher described in subsection (3) of this section. A local board of education may, at its own expense, provide additional released time for teachers pursuing national board certification.

(c) If a teacher does not successfully complete all assessments required for national board certification during a school year, the provisions in this subsection may be applied to a second school year.

(d) When funds are not available to fully fund the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection for all national board applicants, the board may prorate the specified reimbursements in paragraphs (a) and (b) and may limit the conditions under which provisions of paragraph (c) shall be applied to second year participants. The board shall establish the procedures for carrying out the provisions of this subsection in an administrative regulation.

(2) (a) As of July 14, 2000, a teacher who attains national board certification shall be reimbursed seventy-five percent (75%) of the certification fee for the initial ten (10) year certificate, except the Education Professional Standards Board may decrease the percentage of reimbursement if a teacher receives payment other than a repayable loan for the same purpose from another source and the cumulative amount would exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the cost of the certification fee.

(b) Fees for retaking one (1) or more entries of the national board assessment for the initial national board certificate and fees for renewal of the certificate shall be at the teacher’s expense.

(c) Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the board from reimbursing a percentage of the initial certification fee to a teacher who has received a repayable loan from a local board of education or other agency to offset initial costs.

(3) A national board certified teacher may receive a stipend in addition to his or her annual compensation for serving as a mentor to teachers within his or her school or school district. The Education Professional Standards Board shall promulgate administrative regulations under which a local board of education, in cooperation with the school-based decision making council, may establish a mentoring program within a school to utilize national board certified teachers. The administrative regulations shall specify the conditions for the mentoring program as well as the amount of the stipend that will be provided to a teacher serving as a mentor.

Regulations as to School Employees

161.140. Duties of school employees prescribed by board of education. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4503-1) was repealed by Acts 1982, ch. 34, § 1, effective July 15, 1982.

161.145. Cost of physical examination required for employment of classified personnel.

(1) When a physical examination is required as a condition of employment of classified personnel, excluding bus drivers, the examination shall be provided at no cost to the employee by the board. The examination shall be provided by the county health department if appropriate health department personnel are available.

(2) If employee elects to be examined by private physician, the cost of examination shall be borne by employee.

(3) Each examination shall include a test for tuberculosis and shall be conducted prior to August 1 of the employable year in which the person is employed.

(1) As used in this section, “volunteers” means adults who assist teachers, administrators, or other staff in public school classrooms, schools, or school district programs, and who do not receive compensation for their work.

(2) Local school districts may utilize adult volunteers in supplementary instructional and noninstructional activities with pupils under the direction and supervision of the professional administrative and teaching staff.

(3) Each board of education shall develop policies and procedures that encourage volunteers to assist in school or district programs.

(4) Each local board of education shall develop and adopt a policy requiring a state criminal records check on all volunteers who have contact with students on a regularly scheduled or continuing basis, or who have supervisory responsibility for children at a school site or on school-sponsored trips. The request for records may be from the Justice Cabinet or the Administrative Office of the Courts, or both, and shall include records of all available convictions as described in KRS 17.160(1). Any request for a criminal records check of a volunteer under this subsection shall be on a form or through a process approved by the Justice Cabinet or the Administrative Office of the Courts. If the cabinet or the Administrative Office of the Courts charges fees, the local board of education shall arrange to pay the cost which may be from local funds or donations from any source including volunteers.

(5) The local board of education shall provide orientation material to all volunteers who have contact with students on a regularly scheduled or continuing basis, including school policies, safety and emergency procedures, and other information deemed appropriate by the local board of education.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to students enrolled in an educational institution and who participate in observations and educational activities under direct supervision of a local school teacher or administrator in a public school.

(7) The local board of education shall provide orientation material to all volunteers who participate in school activities under direct supervision of a local school teacher or administrator in a public school.

161.150. Minimum salary for teachers. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-46) was repealed by Acts 1954, ch. 214, § 16.

161.151. Removal of references to criminal allegations, not resulting in charge or conviction from school employee’s personnel file — Nonpreclusion of separate investigation.

(1) All records and references relating to an allegation of a criminal offense committed by a school employee that did not lead to formal charges and all records relating to a criminal proceeding in which a school employee was found not guilty or the charges were dismissed shall be removed from the school employee’s personnel file by the superintendent or the superintendent’s designee in the local school district.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not preclude a school district from separately investigating, taking action upon, and creating and maintaining records on the same or a similar fact situation upon which the allegations of a criminal offense was based.

161.152. Emergency leave for school employees.

(1) For the purpose of this section, “school personnel” shall mean any person employed as a full-time employee in the public schools.

(2) Each district board of education may allow each person employed as a full-time employee in the public schools not to exceed three (3) emergency days per school year for reasons designated by the district board of education, without loss of salary to the employee and without affecting his sick leave.

(3) Personal leave granted under this section shall not be treated as having effect on the provisions of KRS 161.155, except that school personnel, after using the maximum days allowed in subsection (2) of this section, may, upon the recommendation of the school district superintendent and approval of the district board of education, use up to three (3) sick-leave days per school year for emergency leave according to the district board policy as established pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Payments made by a district board of education under the provisions of this section are presumed to be for services rendered and for the benefit of the common schools and the payments do not affect the eligibility of any school district to participate in the public school funding program as established in KRS Chapter 157.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under this section the granting of emergency leave is discretionary on the part of the board of education, and if the board, within its discretion, decides to grant emergency leave, this section provides that the district board of education may designate the specific reasons for which the leave will be granted, and limitations which exclude the death of a mother-in-law from the emergency leave benefits is a legal limitation. OAG 71-199.

The fact that teachers of the Jewish faith are not granted emergency days with pay when they are absent on religious holidays does not constitute unjust discrimination against such teachers. OAG 72-348.

A school board does not have to have an emergency leave regulation, but if it does have one, it cannot provide that emergency leave shall be charged as sick leave. OAG 73-532.

Proposal of school board to grant certified personnel two emergency leave days and one personal leave day for a total of three and to grant noncertified personnel three emergency leave days and no personal leave days does not follow the requirements of this section and KRS 161.154 and the board cannot permit two emergency days for certified personnel and three emergency days for noncertified personnel. OAG 76-427.

If a teacher is absent on an extended school day and is not covered by sick leave, personal leave or emergency death leave, he or she loses one and one-fifth day's salary. OAG 78-367.

161.153. Leave for jury duty for teachers and state employees.

(1) Any teacher or state employee, except employees subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A, who serves on a jury in any duly constituted local, state, or federal court shall be granted leave with full compensation, less any compensation received as jury pay, for the period of his actual jury service, which leave shall be in addition to all other leave to which the teacher or state employee may be entitled.

(2) Any state employee who is subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A and who serves on a jury in any duly constituted local, state, or federal court shall be granted leave with full compensation for the period of his actual jury service, which shall be in addition to all other leave to which the employee may be entitled.

Compiler’s Notes. This section as enacted (Enact. Acts 1972, ch. 97, § 1) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 476, effective June 17, 1978.

Opinions of Attorney General. A teacher who resides in the teacher’s or employee’s home; and

(d) “Sick leave bank” shall mean an aggregation of sick leave days contributed by teachers or employees for use by teachers or employees who have exhausted all sick leave and other available paid leave days.

161.154. Personal leave days for school employees.

(1) For the purpose of this section, “school employees” shall mean any person for whom certification is required as a basis of employment in the public schools. Sick leave shall mean any person, other than a teacher, employed in the public schools, whether on a full or part-time basis;

(c) “Immediate family” shall mean the teacher’s or employee’s spouse, children including stepchildren and foster children, grandchildren, daughters-in-law and sons-in law, brothers and sisters, parents and spouse’s parents, and grandparents and spouse’s grandparents, without reference to the location or residence of said relative, and any other blood relative who resides in the teacher’s or employee’s home; and

(2) Each district board of education shall allow to each teacher and full-time employee in its common school system not less than ten (10) days of sick leave during each school year, without deduction of salary. Sick leave shall be granted to a teacher or employee if he or she presents a personal affidavit or a certificate of a physician stating that the teacher or employee was ill, that the teacher or employee was absent for the purpose of attending to a member of his or her immediate family who was ill, or for the purpose of mourning a member of his or her immediate family. The ten (10) days of sick leave granted in this subsection may be taken by a teacher or employee on any ten (10) days of the school year and shall be granted in addition to accumulated sick leave days that have been credited to the teacher or employee under the provisions of subsection (3) of this section.
(3) Days of sick leave not taken by an employee or a teacher during any school year shall accumulate without limitation and be credited to that employee or teacher. Accumulated sick leave may be taken in any school year. Any district board of education may, in its discretion, allow employees or teachers in its common school system sick leave in excess of the number of days prescribed in this section and may allow school district employees and teachers to use up to three (3) days’ sick leave per school year for emergency leave pursuant to KRS 161.152(3). Any accumulated sick leave days credited to an employee or a teacher shall remain so credited in the event he or she transfers his or her place of employment from one (1) school district to another within the state or to the Kentucky Department of Education or transfers from the Department of Education to a school district.

(4) Accumulated days of sick leave shall be granted to a teacher or employee if, prior to the opening day of the school year, an affidavit or a certificate of a physician is presented to the district board of education, stating that the teacher or employee is unable to commence his or her duties on the opening day of the school year, but will be able to assume his or her duties within a period of time that the board determines to be reasonable.

(5) Any school teacher or employee may repurchase previously used sick leave days with the concurrence of the local school board by paying to the district an amount equal to the total of all costs associated with the used sick leave.

(6) A district board of education may adopt a plan for a sick leave bank. The plan may include limitations upon the number of days a teacher or employee may annually contribute to the bank and limitations upon the number of days a teacher or employee may annually draw from the bank. Only those teachers or employees who contribute to the bank may draw upon the bank. Days contributed will be deducted from the days available to the contributing teacher or employee. The sick leave bank shall be administered in accordance with a policy adopted by the board of education.

(7) (a) A district board of education shall establish a sick leave donation program to permit teachers or employees to voluntarily contribute sick leave to teachers or employees in the same school district who are in need of an extended absence from school. A teacher or employee who has accrued more than fifteen (15) days’ sick leave may request the board of education to transfer a designated amount of sick leave to another teacher or employee who is authorized to receive the sick leave donated. A teacher or employee may not request an amount of sick leave be donated that reduces his or her sick leave balance to less than fifteen (15) days.

(b) A teacher or employee may receive donations of sick leave if:
   1. a. The teacher or employee or a member of his or her immediate family suffers from a medically certified illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that has caused or is likely to cause the teacher or employee to be absent for at least ten (10) days; or
   b. The teacher or employee suffers from a catastrophic loss to his or her personal or real property, due to either a natural disaster or fire, that either has caused or will likely cause the employee to be absent for at least ten (10) consecutive working days;
   c. While a teacher or employee is on sick leave provided by this section, he or she shall be considered a school district employee, and his or her salary, wages, and other employee benefits shall not be affected.

(d) Any sick leave that remains unused, is not needed by a teacher or employee, and will not be needed in the future shall be returned to the teacher or employee donating the sick leave.

(e) The board of education shall adopt policies and procedures necessary to implement the sick leave donation program.

(8) A teacher or employee may use up to thirty (30) days of sick leave following the birth or adoption of a child or children. Additional days may be used when the need is verified by a physician’s statement.

(9) After July 1, 1982, a district board of education may compensate, at the time of retirement or upon the death of a member in active contributing status at the time of death who was eligible to retire by reason of service, an employee or a teacher, or the estate of an employee or teacher, for each unused sick leave day. The rate of compensation for each unused sick leave day shall be based on a percentage of the daily salary rate calculated from the employee’s or teacher’s last annual salary, not to exceed thirty percent (30%). Payment for unused sick leave days shall be incorporated into the annual salary of the final year of service; provided that the member makes the regular retirement contribution for members on the sick leave payment. The accumulation of these days includes unused sick leave days held by the employee or teacher at the time of implementation of the program.

(10) Any statute to the contrary notwithstanding, employees and teachers who transferred from the Department of Education to a school district, from a school district to the Department of Education, or
The death benefit provided in subsection (9) of this section shall be for the purposes set forth in subsection (9) of this section.

(11) The death benefit provided in subsection (9) of this section may be cited as the Baughn Benefit.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 659(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

Opinions of Attorney General. Subsection (2) of this section includes sick leave for mental or emotional illnesses as well as physical sickness. OAG 60-1193.

Under this section the cause of the illness is not controlling and sick leave is allowed for illness due to pregnancy. OAG 61-13.

A school board has legal authority to purchase liability insurance to cover the liability for sick leave payments imposed by this section. OAG 64-841.

This section does not authorize a “lump-sum” payment of additional salary in lieu of accumulated sick leave at the termination of employment either during or at the end of the school year or in the event of the termination of employment for purposes of retirement. OAG 67-371.

Subsection (2) of this section authorizes the use of either a personal affidavit or a physician's certificate to support a sick leave absence and a regulation of the board prohibiting the use of the personal affidavit would be improper. OAG 67-447.

Aside from the inherent right of the board to disallow sick leave by reason of fraud, the allowance of sick leave, within the minimum prescribed by this section, upon the presentation of a personal affidavit or physician's certificate is not discretionary. OAG 67-523.

Former subsection (4) of this section (deleted by 1970 amendment) did not authorize a district board of education to adopt a regulation which would permit the utilization of sick leave by a teacher for the purpose of attending religious observances. OAG 68-525.

The phrase “member of his immediate family,” added to this section by the 1970 amendment, includes any member of the teacher’s household who is bound to the teacher by blood or marriage. OAG 70-412.

Maternity leave is not “sick leave” within the meaning of this section but a “leave of absence" under KRS 161.770 and as such it results in a cessation of salary benefits during the period of absence. OAG 70-730.

There is no apparent legal basis for distinguishing between types of illnesses which may incapacitate a teacher for duty or for restoring and crediting, as accumulated sick leave, those sick leave days either unused during the 1958-68 period or cut off by the prior 20-day ceiling. OAG 71-144.

Under this section a teacher not treated by a physician may present a personal affidavit and a teacher treated by a physician may present a certificate signed by the physician which need not be in the form of an affidavit. OAG 72-302.

A teacher may receive full sick leave and workers' compensation benefits at the same time. OAG 72-684.

A school board does not have to have an emergency leave regulation, but if it does have one, it cannot provide that emergency leave shall be charged as sick leave. OAG 73-832.

Whether or not a teacher was entitled to payment for accumulated sick leave was a question of fact within the province of the board of education to decide and in making the determination as to the facts the board could consider what effect its decision would have on similar circumstances which might arise in the future where the teacher presented a certificate of a physician stating that she was totally disabled from her teaching position but the board had in its possession a statement from another high school that part of the time during the teacher’s absence from her teaching position she was completing her library practice at that high school. OAG 74-119.

A regulation by a board of education that not more than thirty days of accumulated sick leave may be used in one year is void. OAG 74-378.

A public school teacher does not have an absolute right to receive paid sick leave, even if already accumulated, for a normal pregnancy but does have a statutory right to such leave for illness due to surgery performed after, but not connected with, the birth of the child. OAG 74-741.

A teacher, who is absent to care for a spouse who is ill, is entitled to all accumulated sick leave up to 60 days as of June 21, 1974 and all accumulated, unused sick leave without limit after that date. OAG 75-209.

Accumulated sick leave must, if requested, be given for childbirth but only for the days the physician certifies the teacher is actually disabled from performing her teaching duties, but this ruling need not be made retroactive. OAG 75-259.

Although accumulated sick leave may not be granted for child care following childbirth, a leave of absence for that purpose is appropriate. OAG 75-259.

A certificate by a physician signed by rubber stamp is sufficient certification of a teacher’s illness. OAG 75-359.

In allowing paid sick leave for childbirth, a teacher should be granted leave only for the days she, or a member of her immediate family, were ill, based upon the presentation of her personal affidavit or the certificate of a physician. OAG 75-367.

A public school teacher may claim sick leave in addition to receiving worker's compensation benefits. OAG 75-604 (affirming OAG 40-041).

When a teacher transfers from the local board of education to the vocational school system, none of the teacher's accrued benefits are carried over to the new position. OAG 76-151.

A local board of education could establish a policy permitting a school principal to accept statements signed by teachers requesting to receive sick leave even though the statements have not been notarized. OAG 77-307.

Where a school teacher was ill and missed most of one month and part of the next, during which time the schools were closed 17 days due to severe weather and permission was granted by the department of education to cut short the school year by five days, as calamity days, the teacher was entitled to be paid for the calamity days; however, since she would have been unable to teach on these days, she must take these days as sick leave days under this section. OAG 78-311.

If a teacher is absent on an extended school day and is not covered by sick leave, personal leave or emergency death leave, he or she loses one and one-fifth day's salary. OAG 78-367.

In the event a teacher is absent for illness during the time the school system is operating on the extended school day, this constitutes a deduction of one and one-fifth days from his or her current or accumulated sick leave. OAG 78-367.

A local board of education continues to have at its reasonable discretion the authority to adopt a uniform policy relative to sick leave which would permit granting to teachers, who had resigned with accumulated sick leave and who were subsequently reemployed, part or all of the previously accumulated sick leave, and the length of time between resignation and reemployment issue is simply for the board to determine. OAG 79-148.

KRS 161.770(1)(c) and subsection (3) of this section are quite similar and should be construed consistently one with the other. OAG 79-148.

The language in subsection (3) of this section that “any accumulated sick leave days, not to exceed thirty (30) days, credited to a teacher shall remain so credited in the event he transfers his place of employment from one school district to another within the state” contemplates a continuity of employment from one school district to another. OAG 79-148.

Although this section will not permit a school board requirement of a physician’s certificate of an employee’s disability to work in that an affidavit of the teacher will suffice, there is nothing in KRS 161.770 to preclude a board of education from requiring a physician’s certificate; a school board could adopt such a policy pursuant to KRS 160.340(2)(c) which requires the board to adopt personnel policies that apply to certified employees. OAG 80-151.

Sick leave with pay under this section is available to the pregnant teacher who is thereby disabled from performing her teaching duties, but a pregnant condition in and of itself would not entitle a teacher to sick leave; if, however, the teacher by affidavit or physician’s certificate states she is ill or otherwise disabled from teaching due to her “pregnancy, childbirth or other related medical conditions,” then a local board of education must permit the teacher to take days of accumulated sick leave. OAG 80-151.

The teacher who requests and goes on a leave of absence under KRS 161.770 is not entitled to sick leave days authorized under this section; any sick leave accrued that is desired to be taken should be used before the teacher commences the leave of absence without pay status, authorized by KRS 161.770. OAG 80-151.

The language in subsection (5) of this section stating that compensation may be credited for unused sick leave “after July 1, 1981,” does not prohibit crediting of such credit to those certified employees, otherwise eligible, who retire prior to July 1, 1981, provided that the additional amount to be added to their last year of final salary, due to accumulated unused sick days, is determined not later than July 15, 1981. OAG 81-1.

A plan which provides an annual bonus to teachers who use no sick leave is not legally permissible in Kentucky. There is no statute authorizing a bonus for unused sick leave and, if the legislature passed such a statute, it would be unconstitutional as violative of Const., § 3. OAG 82-316.

The provisions of this section preempt the field of teachers’ sick leave and set the limits for local boards on that subject. OAG 82-316.

A county school board may not by policy choose to compensate an employee or teacher, at the time of retirement, for less than all of the unused sick leave days rightly accumulated; although subsection (5) of this section gives the board discretion in setting the rate of compensation as long as it does not exceed 30 percent of the teacher’s last annual salary, the language of that subsection clearly requires that the retiring teacher be compensated for “each” unused sick leave day. OAG 82-319.

A teacher may take his or her sick leave days on any day of the school year upon compliance with the statutorily required presentation of a personal affidavit or certificate of a physician or as provided for by an appropriately adopted regulation or policy of a local board of education, and a teacher who uses accumulated sick leave to cover a period of absence is not required to use a sick leave day when the schools are already closed for a paid holiday, since the teacher is authorized by KRS 158.070 to be paid for such holidays without the payment being charged to accumulated sick leave. OAG 83-457.

The 1986 amendment to subsection (5) (now (8)) of this section is constitutionally valid so that a teacher may use up to 30 days of sick leave following the adoption of a child or children. OAG 86-66.

A teacher is entitled to utilize earned sick leave due to disability from pregnancy, childbirth or recovery therefrom. OAG 86-66.

Employee who transferred from one school district to another is entitled to the sick leave days earned during her prior employment in the other school district. OAG 91-135.

Compensation for sick leave as set forth in subsections (8) and (9) (now (9) and (10)) of this section is constitutionally permissible. OAG 91-219.

Compensation for unused sick leave at time of retirement does not constitute a bonus, in contravention of Section 3 of the Kentucky Constitution, but instead constitutes part of retirement benefits. OAG 91-219.

There is no authority that would have enabled the superintendent to transfer more than 30 days of sick leave from county to county, but once in the new county, the superintendent could accumulate sick leave days without limitation. OAG 91-219.

This section allows the board to grant a superintendent only those unused sick leave days which he was entitled to keep upon transfer from county to county. OAG 91-219.

Under subsection (9) (now (10)) of this section, a teacher who has transferred from one school district to another after July 15, 1981, is entitled to credit for unused sick leave days “to which entitled on the date of transfer,” for the purpose of compensation at the time of retirement as per subsection (8) of this section. OAG 91-219.

Under subsection (1)(a) of this section, “teacher” consistently has been defined to include “any person for whom certification is required as a basis of employment in the common schools of the state;,” this definition includes principals and superintendents, who are certified as teachers and as administrators. OAG 91-219.

Under subsections (8) and (9) (now (9) and (10)) of this section, after employee has completed 27 years of service, notwithstanding sick leave, the school board may approve compensation for unused sick leave days, and apply that compensation toward the teacher or employee's final salary. OAG 91-219.

A son-in-law and daughter-in-law are not included in the definition of immediate relative in subdivision (1)(c) of this section. OAG 93-39.

At the death of an employed active public school teacher, a school board may not pay the decedent’s estate or named beneficiary the value of the employee’s accumulated unused sick leave even if the employee were eligible for retirement; rather, a local school district may only compensate a district employee at the time of retirement for accumulated unused sick leave. OAG 94-39.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Purpose.
2. Transfer of accumulated leave.
3. Reduction of accumulated leave.
4. Property interest.
5. Liability for improper application.
6. Accumulation above statutory caps.

1. Purpose.
The sick leave statute and the tenure statute, as embodied in this section and in KRS 161.740 respectively, are both designed to protect a teacher by allowing transfer from one school district to another without losing accumulated benefits. Young v. Board of Educ., 661 S.W.2d 787 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

2. Transfer of Accumulated Leave.
Even though the legislature has not specifically defined a meaning for the phrase, “transfers his place of employment from one school district to another within the state” as used in subsection (3) of this section, it is quite logical to infer that the construction to be applied to the statutory language infers that the sick leave statute requires continuity of employment from one district to another. Young v. Board of Educ., 661 S.W.2d 787 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

Under the provisons of subsection (3) of this section, in order for accumulated sick leave days to remain credited upon transfer from one school district to another within the state, the transfer must be a direct one; accordingly, county board of education properly refused to credit teacher, who left school system entirely and subsequently returned, with the unused sick leave days accumulated during her first period of employment in the public school system. Young v. Board of Educ., 661 S.W.2d 787 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

3. Reduction of Accumulated Leave.
The conduct of the school board in reducing the teacher’s unused accumulated sick leave was rational in that it desired to conform its records with this section, and no denial of substantive due process took place. Sublette v. Board of Educ., 664 F. Supp. 265 (W.D. Ky. 1987).

4. Property Interest.
This section, as well as the recording of the teacher’s accumulated sick leave days on her sick leave cards by school officials, could have created a legitimate claim of entitlement by the teacher to her accumulated sick leave days; consequently, she could have had a constitutionally protected property interest in those days and could not be deprived of such interest without being afforded due process of law. Ramsey v. Board of Educ., 844 F.2d 1268 (6th Cir. 1988).

5. Liability for Improper Application.
A county board of education could not be held accountable for the failure of its superintendents to properly apply this section. Ramsey v. Board of Educ., 789 S.W.2d 784 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

There is no dispute but that this section requires affirmative action by a board of education to allow accumulation above the statutory caps. Ramsey v. Board of Educ., 789 S.W.2d 784 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

161.158. Group insurance — Board’s termination of participation in state health plan — Deductions from salaries.
(1) Each district board of education may form its employees into a group or groups or recognize existing groups for the purpose of obtaining the advantages of group life, disability, medical, and dental insurance, or any group insurance plans to aid its employees including the state employee health insurance group as described in KRS 18A.225, as long as the employees continue to be employed by the board of education. Medical and dental group insurance plans obtained under authority of this section may include insurance benefits for the families of the insured group or groups of employees. Any district board of education may pay all or part of the premium on the policies, and may deduct from the salaries of the employees that part of the premium which is to be paid by them and may contract with the insurer to provide the above benefits. As permitted in KRS 160.280(5), board members shall be eligible to participate in any group medical or dental insurance provided by the district for employees.
(b) If a district board of education participates in the state employee health insurance program, as described in KRS 18A.225, for its active employees and terminates participation and there is a state appropriation approved by the General Assembly for the employer’s contribution for active employees’ health insurance coverage, neither the board of education nor the employees shall receive the state-funded contribution after termination from the state employee health insurance program.
(2) Each district board of education shall adopt policies or regulations which will provide for deductions from salaries of its employees or groups of employees whenever a request is presented to the board by said employees or groups thereof. The deductions shall be made from salaries earned in at least eight (8) different pay periods, and shall be remitted to the appropriate organization or association as specified by the employees within thirty (30) days following the deduction provided the district has received appropriate invoices or necessary documentation. The deductions may be made for, but are not limited to, membership dues, tax-sheltered annuities, and group insurance premiums. With the exception of membership dues, the board shall not be required to make more than one (1) remittance of amounts deducted during a pay period for a separate type of deduction. Health insurance, life insurance, and tax-sheltered annuities shall be interpreted as separate types of deductions. When amounts have been correctly deducted and remitted by the board, the board shall bear no further responsibility or liability for subsequent transaction.

(3) Payments and deductions made by the board of education under the authority of this section are presumed to be for services rendered and for the benefits and deductions shall not affect the eligibility of any school system to participate in the public school funding program as established in KRS Chapter 157.

Cross-References. Group health and life insurance, 702 KAR 1:035.

Opinions of Attorney General. The members of families of employees and/or the dependents of employees may, within the discretion of the board, participate in the various types of group coverage provided the extra cost of the family coverage or dependent coverage is paid by the employee. OAG 70-336.

Where a district board of education desires to pay all or any part of the premiums on group policies for district employees, the advertising and competitive bid procedure of KRS 424.260 should be followed where the amount to be paid by the board is in excess of $1,000. OAG 70-687.

This section does not disqualify political organizations from receiving the authorized deductions. OAG 72-663.

This section requires that each school board make payroll deductions for the Kentucky Educators' Public Affairs Council when properly authorized according to its adopted policies and regulations. OAG 72-663.

A school board cannot be required, after making one deduction for health insurance, to make any other deductions for cancer insurance or for insurance for any other specific disease. OAG 72-707.

The board of education may make such rules as are reasonable and it would be reasonable to require that there be a minimum number of employees desiring a particular deduction before it shall be made by the board. OAG 72-802.

Board of education may contract for an insurance plan for its employees as long as it pays all or part of the premium on the policies. OAG 73-390.

In a proposed contract between an insurance company and Fayette County Board of Education to provide tax sheltered annuities in lieu of full salary for any employee, a section holding the school district liable for any act of negligence was improper under this section and the doctrine of sovereign immunity. OAG 74-414.

Where a school board provides a fixed sum of money to be used in purchasing fringe benefits for each of its teachers, it may afford the teachers the option to receive the fringe benefits or an equivalent fixed sum in cash. OAG 75-646.

Although a board of education would be required to make deductions from teachers' salaries for membership in a credit union, the board would not be required to withhold monthly payments on loans taken out by members from the credit union. OAG 77-353.

A local school board may elect to purchase liability insurance for its employees and pay all or a portion of the premium from board of education funds. OAG 78-21.

This section, permissive in nature, would permit a school board to pay any or all of the costs of a group optical insurance plan coverage for its employees, but for the employees' families unless such a plan was included in a group medical plan. OAG 78-592.

A reduction for the Kentucky Deferred Compensation System Program is not a "deduction" for a tax-sheltered annuity, but is a different type of program than tax-sheltered annuities; accordingly, where an employee participates in a tax-sheltered annuity and the Kentucky Public Employee's Deferred Compensation System, the reduction for both is not the "same type" of deduction, and does not violate subsection (2) of this section. OAG 80-515.

KRS 18.510 to 18.600 (now see KRS 18A.230 to 18A.275) and this section are not in conflict and school employees can participate in both school annuity programs and the Kentucky Deferred Compensation System Program. OAG 80-515.

There is nothing in the school laws to preclude a school district from establishing a cafeteria insurance plan for its teachers, pursuant to the conditions and criteria set out in 26 U.S.C. § 125. However, the money available to the teacher to be applied, if desired, to a cafeteria plan is still a part of that teacher's salary even though nontaxable; the teacher can elect to take a part of the money provided for by the school district in this regard as cash and, of course, this amount would be taxable. Moreover, the school districts must include the amount of money established for such a plan in all computations required for single salary schedule determinations, including the procedure required for determining the amount of money to be received by a school district for teachers' salaries from the Minimum Foundation Fund. OAG 83-151.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Payroll deductions.
2. Membership dues.

1. Payroll Deductions.

This chapter permits employee organizations to participate in payroll deductions. Kentucky Educators Pub. Affairs Council v. Kentucky Registry of Election Fin., 677 F.2d 1125 (6th Cir. 1982).

Reverse check-off procedure utilized by the Kentucky Educators Public Affairs Council, an unincorporated political action committee established by the Kentucky Education Association (KEA), whereby contributions were deducted from KEA members' paychecks unless the member affirmatively checked off that he declined to contribute and whereby the member could subsequently decide not to participate and obtain a refund, was neither coercion nor an assessment under KRS 121.320, and sufficiently protected the rights of dissenting members. Hence, an order of the Kentucky Registry of Election Finance finding KEPAC's procedure violative of KRS 121.320, O'Meara infringed on KEPAC's first amendment rights to collect money for political purposes. Kentucky Educators Pub. Affairs Council v. Kentucky Registry of Election Fin., 677 F.2d 1125 (6th Cir. 1982).

Section 337.060 did not prohibit a school board from deducting union dues from employees' wages where such deduction was authorized by subsection (2) of this section. Clevinger v. Board of Educ., 759 S.W.2d 5 (Ky. 1990).
2. Membership Dues.

The common, ordinary meaning of "membership" is the total number of members of an organization. Unions are made up of members. There is nothing in this section that hints that union members were not to be included along with other membership organizations. Thus, "membership dues" perforce includes union dues. Clevinger v. Board of Educ., 789 S.W.2d 5 (Ky. 1990).

161.159. Adoption of rules and regulations to implement life insurance program.

The Kentucky Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall adopt rules and regulations to implement the state life insurance program provided for employees of the common schools subject to the following standards:

(1) The life insurance program shall cover both certified and noncertified common school personnel.

(2) The life insurance program shall be made available to all regular full-time personnel as defined by the Kentucky Board of Education regulations.

161.162. Discrimination prohibited. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 244, Art. IV, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. VI, § 616, effective July 13, 1990. For present law see KRS 161.164.

161.163. Employees' application form not to require disclosure of religious affiliation.

No application form for certified or classified employees used by any school district shall contain any block or question that would require the applicant to disclose his religious affiliation.

(1) No employee of the local school district shall take part in the management or activities of any political campaign for school board.

(2) No candidate for school board shall solicit or accept any political assessment, subscription, contribution, or service of any employee of the school district.

(3) No person shall use or promise to use, directly or indirectly, any official authority or influence, whether possessed or anticipated, to secure or attempt to secure for any person an appointment or advantage in appointment to a position as teacher or employee of any district board of education, or an increase in pay or other advantage in employment in any such position, for the purpose of influencing the vote or political action of any person.

(4) No teacher or employee of any district board of education shall be appointed or promoted to, or demoted or dismissed from, any position or in any way favored or discriminated against with respect to employment because of his political or religious opinions or affiliations or ethnic origin or race or color or sex or age or disabling condition.

(5) The local superintendent shall inform all school employees of the provisions of this section.

Opinions of Attorney General. A teacher employed by a school board of a district where the teacher does not reside is not prohibited from simultaneously serving as a member of a school board of a different district where the teacher does reside. OAG 90-127.

Employee of a school board for a county in which employee does not live, may campaign for or seek election to the school board in the district of employee's residence since employee is not employed by that district's school board. OAG 90-127.

Subsection (3) of this section refers to "any district" whereas subsection (1) refers to "the local school district" and subsection (2) refers to "the school district"; because of the difference in wording (namely, the use of "the" in subsection (1) as opposed to "any," prior to "district"), the General Assembly intended the restrictions on campaigning under subsections (1) and (2) only to apply to persons employed by the school district where the candidate is seeking to be elected. OAG 90-127.

A member of the county board of education may sell insurance to school employees on an individual basis. OAG 90-138.

A school board candidate may not solicit or accept any money, goods, property, or services, from a school district employee. However, in the case of "services," the First Amendment right to voice one's political opinion must be balanced against the state's interest in ridding schools of undue political influence. Conduct which would be permitted includes: registration and voting, signing of nominating petitions, the expressing of personal opinions regarding a school board candidate, and the display of political pictures, signs, buttons, or bumper stickers. Additionally, school board candidates may provide on request, campaign literature for the personal use of a school district employee. In contrast, the following activities would be prohibited: campaign literature distribution by a school employee; solicitation of political support by a school district employee in canvassing a district or soliciting political support for a school board candidate, either in person, by telephone, or in writing, and providing assistance or working for the school board candidate's campaign. OAG 92-145.

School board candidates may not solicit or accept contributions and services from school district employees. This prohibition applies equally to agents of the candidate; therefore, the school board candidate's campaign manager and staff are prohibited from soliciting or accepting the services of school employees on behalf of the campaign. OAG 92-145.

A school board candidate need not either accept or decline any endorsement of a local education association or similar employee union. Endorsing a school board candidate is not the same as contributing or providing a service to the campaign; rather, voluntary endorsement of a candidate is the same as an expression of personal opinion and therefore not prohibited by this section. OAG 92-145.

A school board candidate may not solicit or accept the following services from a school district employee: (1) distributing campaign material, literature, or signs; (2) working for the campaign by canvassing voters, stuffing campaign envelopes, working at a campaign phone bank, or driving the candidate; (3) performing any fundraising services or contributing money, goods or property; or (4) being involved with the management of a school board campaign. OAG 92-145.

This section prohibits a school board candidate from accepting contributions from a political action committee (PAC) whose members are local school employees. OAG 92-145.

This section prohibits a school board candidate from accepting contributions or services from school employees. The fact that the school employees have formed a political action committee does not change the fact that the employees are actually providing the service or contribution, even if activities such as manning telephone banks, door-to-door solicitation, or distribution of campaign material are described by the PAC as "in-kind" contributions. Allowing the PAC to do indirectly what the school board candidates are prohibited from doing directly is a violation of this section. OAG 92-145.

The local education association or school employee union may not attempt to evade the statutory prohibition against contributing to school board elections by claiming their actions are independent of the campaign. OAG 92-145.

Constitutional factors that should be utilized when determining whether a political expression or promise by a school board candidate has violated subsection (3) of this section are the precise nature of the promise; the conditions upon which it is given; the circumstances under which it is made; the size of the audience; and the nature and size of the group to be benefited. OAG 92-156.

A statement by a school board candidate that he prefers a certain individual to serve as superintendent is protected by the first amendment of the United States Constitution and the Kentucky Constitution. OAG 92-156.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
2. — Management.
3. — Activities.
4. Purpose.
5. Solicitation of money or services.

1. Constitutionality.

The word "management" as used in subsection (1) of this section is constitutional because it does give school employees a fair notice of the standard of conduct to which they are held accountable. While there may be some confusion over what constitutes a political activity, a person exercising ordinary common sense can discern the difference between a political activity, such as placing a sign in the yard, and managing or directing a school board candidate's campaign. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657 (Ky. 1992).

3. — Activities.

A person of ordinary intelligence cannot identify the conduct prohibited under the word "activities" as used in subsection (1) of this section. Moreover, the word "activities" is not facially intelligible or clear; therefore, this section is unconstitutionally vague because it does not give school employees a fair notice of the standard of conduct to which they are to be held accountable. The criteria established are so vague that the enforcing authority is vested with too much discretion. Consequently, many school employees would suffer a chilling effect on political expression of all kinds. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657 (Ky. 1992).

4. Purpose.

Constitution § 183 places a duty on the General Assembly to establish an efficient common school system free from political influence and this section and KRS 161.990 were enacted by the General Assembly in an effort to comply with this directive. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657 (Ky. 1992).

5. Solicitation of Money or Services.

Subsection (2) of this section clearly puts a school board candidate on notice that he or she is not to solicit school district employees for either money or services; it gives fair and plain notice to those to whom it applies and is not subject to arbitrary enforcement. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657 (Ky. 1992).

Subsection (2) of this section is not overly broad. The state has a legitimate compelling interest in regulating the conduct of school board candidates in connection with their ability to receive money and services from school district employees. There is a real and present danger in any system where those who have the overall responsibility for the administration of the schools can attain their position in large part because of solicitations from those who work for the system. Political neutrality for school employees is a sound element in any efficient system of education. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657 (Ky. 1992).

6. Discrimination Suit.

An applicant who was denied consideration for two teaching positions could not bring a discrimination suit under this section, which applies only to teachers and employees — not applicants — of any state board of education. Creech v. McQuinn, 957 S.W.2d 261 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997).

Summary judgment in favor of defendants was reversed because the teacher's claims of violations of her First and Fourteenth Amendments' rights of freedom of expression, speech, and association and her rights under KRS 161.164 and 161.162 were not precluded by the alleged political nature of her position as the grants department director because the teacher lacked political discretion in her position as director and nothing in the teacher's duties rendered her advice particularly sensitive or confidential, nor did the teacher control the lines of communication between the superintendent and the general public. Justice v. Pike County Bd. of Educ., 348 F.3d 554, 2003 Fed. App. 92 (6th Cir. 2003).
within the prohibition of this section and where the evidence showed that an assistant principal and the school superintendent supported opposing candidates in a board of education election and that, shortly thereafter, the superintendent dismissed the principal because of an alleged decrease in student population and funding, which did not in fact exist, arbitrariness was clearly established. Harlan County Bd. of Educ. v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

2. Office of Superintendent.
Former law similar to subsection (4) of this section did not prevent a board of education from failing to reappoint a superintendent once his contract has expired; and with the office of superintendent being an appointed position, it was not inconceivable that political views and allegiances could be a consideration in the selection. Floyd v. Board of Educ., 598 S.W.2d 460 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

An administrator has been given no right of tenure to an administrative position and may be removed from such position by the local board of education upon recommendation of the superintendent for any reason not offending some right protected by the state or federal constitutions or this section. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

4. Protected Conduct.
Although a school administrator’s use of her religious beliefs in exercising her administrative duties and in exercising authority over teachers was offensive to some of the teachers, it did not invariably pose some substantial threat to public safety, peace or order, rendering her behavior in this regard to be protected conduct. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

161.165. Recruitment of minority teachers.
(1) The Kentucky Department of Education in cooperation with the Education Professional Standards Board, the Kentucky Board of Education, local school districts, universities, and colleges, and the Council on Postsecondary Education shall review and revise as needed the strategic plan for increasing the number of minority teachers and administrators in the Commonwealth. The plan shall include, but not be limited to, recommendations on ways to:
   (a) Identify methods for increasing the percentage of minority educators in proportion to the number of minority students;
   (b) Establish programs to identify, recruit, and prepare as teachers minority persons who have already earned college degrees in other job fields;
   (c) Create awareness among secondary school guidance counselors of the need for minority teachers.
(2) The Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board shall promote programs that increase the percentage of minorities who enter and successfully complete a four (4) year teacher preparation program and provide support to minority students in meeting qualifying requirements for students entering a teacher preparation program at institutions of higher education.

(3) The Kentucky Department of Education with input from the Education Professional Standards Board shall periodically submit a report to the Interim Joint Committee on Education that evaluates the results of these efforts and includes accompanying recommendations to establish a continuing program for increasing the number of minorities in teacher education.

161.167. Program to encourage persons to enter Kentucky teaching profession — Reports.
(1) By January 1, 2001, the Kentucky Department of Education, with help from representatives of the Education Professional Standards Board, the Council on Postsecondary Education, the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, the Association of Independent Kentucky Colleges and Universities, public and private not-for-profit postsecondary institutions, and local educational agencies, shall develop a plan, including timelines for implementation, for a multidimensional recruitment and information program, to encourage persons to enter the teaching profession and to seek employment in Kentucky.
(2) The program shall not supplant or diminish current efforts required in KRS 161.165.
(3) The components of the program shall include:
   (a) Early recruitment programs to inform middle and high school students about the potential of teaching as a career;
   (b) Programs to encourage paraprofessionals in schools, as well as other nontraditional students, to pursue additional education to become teachers;
   (c) Programs to enlist highly skilled career employees in specific content areas to pursue teaching as a second career;
   (d) Options for recruiting persons with liberal arts and sciences majors and current students with nondeclared majors into nontraditional and accelerated teacher preparation programs;
   (e) Marketing strategies for informing the public of the importance of high quality teaching to student achievement, the value of teachers to society as a whole, the benefits and rewards of teaching, and the options for entering teacher preparation, including scholarship information; and
   (f) Expanding the Kentucky Department of Education’s electronic bulletin board for certified vacancies in local school districts to include an option for potential teachers to voluntarily post their availability for education positions within the state.
(4) No later than March 15, 2001, the Department of Education shall present a status report of the recruitment and information program to the Interim Joint Committee on Education; and no later than October 15, 2001, the Department of Education shall present to the Interim Joint Committee on Education and the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue a summary report with recommendations.

161.168. Certified employee granted leave of absence — Medical insurance — Contribution to retirement system — Credit given — Exclusions.

Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, a certified employee of a local board of education who is called to active military duty shall be granted a leave of absence for this purpose and shall be considered to be rendering service to the state.

(1) A local board of education that has granted military leave to a certified employee and has a commitment from the employee to return to work upon the conclusion of military leave may provide the employer's contribution toward the purchase of the state's medical insurance program during the period of military leave as long as the employee or spouse pays the additional cost of dependent coverage.

(2) Upon the employee's return to work, a local school district may pay the member contribution and any accrued interest that is required to be paid to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System under KRS 161.507(4)(b) in order for the member to receive retirement service credit for the period of active military duty. This payment shall be paid in lump sum by the school district directly to the retirement system on the member's behalf under the conditions set forth in KRS 161.540(2). This lump sum payment shall not be included in a member's annual compensation as defined under KRS 161.220(10). Under no circumstances shall a member be entitled to service credit under this paragraph that is in violation of the provisions of KRS 161.500.

(3) For each year of military service or each year of combined military and school service within a school year, the certified employee shall receive a year of service credit for purposes of the district's single salary schedule defined in KRS 157.320.

(4) No provisions of this section shall be construed to provide disability benefits under KRS 161.611 or 161.663, survivorship benefits under KRS 161.520, life insurance benefits under KRS 161.555 or any other benefit available from the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System as a result of active military service, or conditions or injuries resulting from active military service, except for the accrual of service credit which shall be acknowledged by the retirement system subject to the relevant conditions set forth in KRS 161.507.

161.170. Teachers to enforce course of study and use of books — Removal for failure.

Each teacher in the public schools shall enforce the course of study, the use of the legally authorized textbooks, and the rules and regulations prescribed for the schools. If any teacher willfully refuses or neglects to comply with the law or such rules and regulations, the local superintendent may remove him at any time. When so removed the teacher shall receive payment only for the time taught.

Cross-References. Removal of teachers, KRS 156.132 to 156.142.

Opinions of Attorney General. A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

A school board may impose reasonable regulations governing the appearance of the teachers it employs. OAG 79-158.

A teacher is obligated, not only to enforce the rules and regulations for the school system, but also to comply with those rules and regulations. OAG 79-158.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a "present" service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

161.180. Supervision of pupils' conduct.

(1) Each teacher and administrator in the public schools shall in accordance with the rules, regulations, and bylaws of the board of education made and adopted pursuant to KRS 160.290 for the conduct of pupils, hold pupils to a strict account for their conduct on school premises, the way to and from school, and on school sponsored trips and activities.

(2) The various boards of education of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and the principals of the public schools, may use teacher's aides in supervisory capacities, such as playground supervision, hallway supervision, lunchroom and cafeteria supervision, and other like duties, including, but not limited to, recreational activities and athletic events, relating to the supervision and control of the conduct of the pupils; and while so engaged, such teacher's aides shall have the same authority and responsibility as is granted to and imposed by law upon teachers in the performance of the same or similar duties.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under this section, a teacher is authorized to detain a student who had failed to complete his lessons for a reasonable period of time after school hours. OAG 61-293.

A teacher may be assigned "extra duties" without "extra compensation" so long as said "extra duties" are not unreasonable, arbitrary, or discriminatory. OAG 63-106.

A board of education may prohibit any student who operates a motor vehicle to or from school in a reckless or wanton manner from driving said motor vehicle to or from school. OAG 63-486.

A school teacher may search a pupil's pockets or purse and confiscate such articles as cigarette lighters, pocket knives, or key chains with cigarette lighters attached if the teacher acts with reasonable judgment and for good cause, without malice and for the welfare of the child, as well as the school, but the parents should be advised of the action. OAG 64-329.

A principal may be held liable in damages to the child and possibly subject to criminal penalties. OAG 78-704.

A teacher has the right to administer corporal punishment to students enrolled in the school but not enrolled in the teacher's classroom so long as it does not exceed that which appears to be appropriate under the circumstances. OAG 69-534.

A teacher does not have the legal authority to discipline students enrolled in the school but not enrolled in the teacher's classroom. OAG 69-534.

Teachers' aides, both paid and volunteer, may serve in supervisory capacities with the same authority and responsibility as teachers when assigned these duties by the school principal and will be held to the same accountability for negligence as a teacher but the school board itself cannot be held liable for the negligence of either teachers or teachers' aides. OAG 73-770.

It was improper for supervisor to order a teacher to bathe a first grade pupil as such a duty may not reasonably be defined as a teaching duty. OAG 74-241.

This section is not authorization for school officials to regulate students' use of cars as a means of transportation to and from school nor could the school board be held liable in tort for injury to students on or off school grounds, due to the school boards' sovereign immunity in torts. OAG 74-783.

This section does not conflict with a school board's policy, requiring that corporal punishment take place in the principal's office with both the principal and teacher being present, to such a degree that the policy can be considered invalid. OAG 75-783.

Under this section, teachers could impose some reasonable form of punishment to regulate student conduct off school grounds when a child is coming to or going from the school. OAG 76-348.

If a child brings to school medication that has been prescribed by a physician, the teacher would not be required to assume the responsibility to see that the medication is taken. OAG 77-550.

A principal may require teachers to supervise the loading of school buses even though the last bus does not leave until after 3:30 p.m. OAG 77-718.

A school system has the right to suspend a child from the school for misconduct. OAG 78-392.

Corporal punishment is a legitimate form of discipline to be used in Kentucky's public common schools but with some restraints legally implied, for example, the force used must be reasonable and not excessive; and, although teachers have, by Kentucky Penal Code provision (KRS 503.110), guidelines for justification of use of physical force upon a pupil, if the punishment is excessive, the school teacher or administrator inflicting the spanking may be held liable in damages to the child and possibly subject to criminal penalties. OAG 78-704.

In view of the responsibilities of teachers and school administrators and in view of the fact that teachers and administrators are state officers or employees they are within the purview of fourth amendment and Const., § 10 restraint upon activities of the government. OAG 79-168.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Construction.
2. Use of discipline.

1. Construction.

This section and KRS 158.150 plainly authorize public schools to make and enforce reasonable regulations for the government of such schools during school hours. Casey County Bd. of Educ. v. Luster, 282 S.W.2d 333 (Ky. 1955).

2. Use of Discipline.

Where a teacher believes that she is in danger of bodily harm, the jury must be instructed as to the defendant teacher's power under this section to exercise such disciplinary force as is necessary to restrain the complaining witness before the defendant teacher can be found guilty of assault and battery. Owens v. Commonwealth, 473 S.W.2d 827 (Ky. 1971).

78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 351, 352.

161.185. Teacher or staff member to accompany students on school-sponsored or endorsed trips — Exceptions.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), boards of education shall require a member of the school faculty or a member of the administrative staff to accompany students on all school-sponsored or school-endorsed trips.

(2) Boards of education may permit a nonfaculty coach or nonfaculty assistant, as defined by administrative regulation promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education under KRS 156.070(2), to accompany students on all school-sponsored or school-endorsed athletic trips. A nonfaculty coach or nonfaculty assistant shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age, shall not be a violent offender or convicted of a sex crime as defined by KRS 17.165 which is classified as a felony, and shall submit to a criminal record check under KRS 160.380.

(3) Prior to assuming his or her duties, a nonfaculty coach or nonfaculty assistant shall successfully complete training provided by the local school district. The training shall include, but not be limited to, information on the physical and emotional development of students of the age with whom the nonfaculty coach and nonfaculty assistant will be working, the district's and school's discipline policies, procedures for dealing with discipline problems, and safety and first aid training. Follow-up training shall be provided annually.
161.190. Abuse of teacher prohibited.
Whenever a teacher or school administrator is functioning in his capacity as an employee of a board of education of a public school system, it shall be unlawful for any person to direct speech or conduct toward the teacher or school administrator when such person knows or should know that the speech or conduct will disrupt or interfere with normal school activities or will nullify or undermine the good order and discipline of the school.

Opinions of Attorney General. The public harassment of schoolteachers by pupils could be dealt with under this section in the event of a student's injury or death while driving to or from the location.

161.200. Records to be kept by teachers — Exceptions.
(1) Each teacher in the public schools shall keep an approved record which shall be left with the superintendent or as he directs at the close of the term. The record shall show the program of recitations, classification, attendance, and grading of all pupils who attended school at any time during the school year, and such other facts as are required.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, approved pupil attendance records, for state accounting purposes and for the purpose of state computation of pupil attendance, may be kept in a central location in the local elementary or secondary school. After attendance is reported and recorded by the classroom teacher, either a certified or noncertified person shall complete and check records in accordance with the methods and regulations approved by the superintendent of the local school district and the chief state school officer. A designated certified person within the local elementary or secondary school shall be responsible for auditing and certifying state attendance documents to verify their accuracy.

(1) Each teacher or other person in the public schools shall make reports and inventories to the district superintendent at the time and in the manner prescribed by the district board of education and the Kentucky Board of Education.

(2) No teacher shall willfully make a false monthly or term report of time taught or other item or shall willfully fail to make a required report.

Teachers’ Retirement

As used in KRS 161.220 to 161.716 and KRS 161.990:

(1) “Retirement system” means the arrangement provided for in KRS 161.230 to 161.716 and KRS 161.990 for payment of allowances to members;

(2) “Retirement allowance” means the amount annually payable during the course of his natural life to a member who has been retired by reason of service;

(3) “Disability allowance” means the amount annually payable to a member retired by reason of disability;

(4) “Member” means the commissioner of education, deputy commissioners, associate commissioners, and all division directors in the State Department of Education, and any full-time teacher or professional occupying a position requiring certification or graduation from a four (4) year college or university, as a condition of employment, and who is employed by public boards, institutions, or agencies as follows:

(a) Local boards of education;

(b) Eastern Kentucky University, Kentucky State University, Morehead State University, Murray State University, Western Kentucky University, and any community colleges established under the control of these universities;

(c) State-operated secondary area vocational education or area technology centers, Kentucky School for the Blind, and Kentucky School for the Deaf;

(d) The State Department of Education, the Education Professional Standards Board, other public education agencies as created by the General Assembly, and those members of the administrative staff of the Teachers’ Retirement System of the State of Kentucky whom the board of trustees may designate by administrative regulation;

(e) Regional cooperative organizations formed by local boards of education or other public educational institutions listed in this subsection, for the purpose of providing educational services to the participating organizations;

(f) All full-time members of the staffs of the Kentucky Association of School Administrators, Kentucky Education Association, Kentucky Vocational Association, Kentucky High School Athletic Association, Kentucky Academic Association, and the Kentucky School Boards Association who were members of the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System or were qualified for a position covered by the system at the time of employment by the association in the event that the board of directors of the respective association petitions to be included. The board of trustees of the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System may designate by resolution whether part-time employees of the petitioning association are to be included. The state shall make no contributions on account of these employees, either full-time or part-time. The association shall make the employer’s contributions, including any contribution that is specified under KRS 161.550. The provisions of this paragraph shall be applicable to persons in the employ of the associations on or subsequent to July 1, 1972;

(g) Employees of the Council on Postsecondary Education who were employees of the Department for Adult Education and Literacy and who were members of the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System at the time the department was transferred to the council pursuant to Executive Order 2003-600;

(h) The Department for Technical Education, except that the commissioner shall not be a member;

(i) The Department of Vocational Rehabilitation;

(j) The Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children;

(k) The Governor’s Scholars Program;

(l) Any person who is retired for service from the retirement system and is reemployed by an employer identified in this subsection in a position that the board of trustees deems to be a member;

(m) Employees of the Cabinet for Workforce Development who are transferred to the Kentucky Community and Technical College System and who occupy positions covered by the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System shall remain in the Teachers’ Retirement System. New employees occupying these positions, as well as newly created positions qualifying for Teachers’ Retirement System coverage that would have previously been included in the Cabinet for Workforce Development, shall be members of the Teachers’ Retirement System;

(n) Effective January 1, 1998, employees of state community colleges who are transferred to the Kentucky Community and Technical College System shall continue to participate in federal old age, survivors, disability, and hospital insurance and a retirement plan other than the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System offered by Kentucky Community and Technical College System. New employees occupying positions in the Kentucky Community and Technical College System as referenced in KRS 164.5807(5) that would not have previously been included in the Cabinet for Workforce Development, shall participate in federal old age, survivors, disability, and hospital insurance and have a choice at the time of employment of participating in a retirement plan provided by the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, including participation in the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System, on the same basis as faculty of the state universities as provided in KRS 161.540 and 161.620; and

(o) Employees of the Office of General Counsel, the Office of Budget and Administrative Ser-
"Subsequent service" means the number of years during which the member was a teacher on or before July 1, 1940, and became a member of the retirement system created by 1938 (1st Extra. Sess.) Ky. Acts ch. 1, on the date of the inauguration of the system or within one (1) year after that date, and any teacher who was a member of a local teacher retirement system in the public elementary or secondary schools of the state on or before July 1, 1940, and continued to be a member of the system until he, with the membership of the local retirement system, became a member of the state Teachers' Retirement System or who becomes a member under the provisions of KRS 161.470(4);

(6) "New teacher" means any member not a present teacher;

(7) "Prior service" means the number of years during which the member was a teacher in Kentucky prior to July 1, 1941, except that not more than thirty (30) years' prior service shall be allowed or credited to any teacher;

(8) "Subsequent service" means the number of years during which the teacher is a member of the Teachers' Retirement System after July 1, 1941;

(9) "Final average salary" means the average of the five (5) highest annual salaries which the member has received for service in a covered position and on which the member has made contributions, or on which the public board, institution, or agency has picked-up member contributions pursuant to KRS 161.540(2), or the average of the five (5) years of highest salaries as defined in KRS 61.680(2)(a), which shall include picked-up member contributions. Additionally, the board of trustees may approve a final average salary based upon the average of the three (3) highest salaries for members who are at least fifty-five (55) years of age and have a minimum of twenty-seven (27) years of Kentucky service credit. However, if any of the five (5) or three (3) highest annual salaries used to calculate the final average salary was paid within the three (3) years immediately prior to the date of the member's retirement, the amount of salary to be included for each of those three (3) years for the purpose of calculating the final average salary shall be limited to the lesser of:

(a) The member's actual salary; or
(b) The member's annual salary that was used for retirement purposes during each of the prior three (3) years, plus a percentage increase equal to the percentage increase received by all other members employed by the public board, institution, or agency, or for members of school districts, the highest percentage increase received by members on any one (1) rank and step of the salary schedule of the school district. The increase shall be computed on the salary that was used for retirement purposes.

This limitation shall not apply if the member receives an increase in salary in a percentage exceeding that received by the other members, and this increase was accompanied by a corresponding change in position or in length of employment. This limitation shall also not apply to the payment to a member for accrued annual leave or accrued sick leave which is authorized by statute and which shall be included as part of a retiring member's annual compensation for the member's last year of active service;

(10) "Annual compensation" means the total salary received by a member as compensation for all services performed in employment covered by the retirement system during a fiscal year. Annual compensation shall not include payment for any benefit or salary adjustments made by the public board, institution, or agency to the member or on behalf of the member which is not available as a benefit or salary adjustment to other members employed by that public board, institution, or agency. Annual compensation shall not include the salary supplement received by a member under KRS 158.6455 or 158.782 on or after July 1, 1996. Under no circumstances shall annual compensation include compensation that is earned by a member while on assignment to an organization or agency that is not a public board, institution, or agency listed in subsection (4) of this section. The board of trustees shall determine if any benefit or salary adjustment qualifies as annual compensation;

(11) "Age of member" means the age attained on the first day of the month immediately following the birthdate of the member. This definition is limited to retirement eligibility and does not apply to tenure of members;

(12) "Employ," and derivatives thereof, means relationships under which an individual provides services to an employer as an employee, as an independent contractor, as an employee of a third party, or under any other arrangement as long as the services provided to the employer are provided in a position that would otherwise be covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and as long as the services are being provided to a public board, institution, or agency listed in subsection (4) of this section;

(13) "Regular interest" means interest at three percent (3%) per annum;
(14) “Accumulated contributions” means the contributions of a member to the teachers’ savings fund, including picked-up member contributions as described in KRS 161.540(2), plus accrued regular interest;

(15) “Annuitant” means a person who receives a retirement allowance or a disability allowance;

(16) “Local retirement system” means any teacher retirement or annuity system created in any public school district in Kentucky in accordance with the laws of Kentucky;

(17) “Fiscal year” means the twelve (12) month period from July 1 to June 30. The retirement plan year is concurrent with this fiscal year. A contract for a member employed by a local board of education may not exceed two hundred sixty-one (261) days in the fiscal year;

(18) “Public schools” means the schools and other institutions mentioned in subsection (4) of this section;

(19) “Dependent” as used in KRS 161.520 and 161.525 means a person who was receiving, at the time of death of the member, at least one-half ($1\over2$) of the support from the member for maintenance, including board, lodging, medical care, and related costs;

(20) “Active contributing member” means a member currently making contributions to the Teachers’ Retirement System, who made contributions in the next preceding fiscal year, for whom picked-up member contributions are currently being made, or for whom these contributions were made in the next preceding fiscal year;

(21) “Full-time” means employment in a position that requires services on a continuing basis equal to at least seven-tenths ($7\over10$) of normal full-time service on a fiscal year basis;

(22) “Full actuarial cost,” when used to determine the payment that a member must pay for service credit means the actuarial value of all costs associated with the enhancement of a member’s benefits or eligibility for benefit enhancements, including health insurance supplement payments made by the retirement system. The actuary for the retirement system shall determine the full actuarial value costs and actuarial cost factor tables as provided in KRS 161.400; and

(23) “Last annual compensation” means the annual compensation, as defined by subsection (10) of this section and as limited by subsection (9) of this section, earned by the member during the most recent period of contributing service, either consecutive or nonconsecutive, that is sufficient to provide the member with one (1) full year of service credit in the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System, and which compensation is used in calculating the member’s initial retirement allowance, excluding bonuses, retirement incentives, payments for accumulated sick, annual, personal and compensatory leave, and any other lump-sum payment.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). This section was amended by three Acts. Where those Acts are not in conflict, they have been compiled together. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under KRS 61.410 participation in the social security program is mandatory for all public employees of the Commonwealth except those employees occupying a position to which the provisions of KRS 161.220 to 161.710 are applicable and consequently, the executive secretary, assistant executive secretary, senior accountant and administrative officer of the teacher’s retirement system are neither subject to, nor eligible for, participation in the social security program. OAG 69-355.

If additional teaching activity falls within the category of being in fact a part of the regularly approved program of the public school district or the vocational school for which certification or a professional level of training is required as a condition of employment, then teachers’ retirement applies and the teacher would not be eligible for social security participation. The additional hours requiring services beyond the normal teaching day are regarded as an extension of the regular full-time employment. OAG 69-450.

When the professional staff members of the division of disability determinations were a part of the department of education they were allowed to participate in the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System and were exempt from participation in the federal social security program; however, when this division was transferred to the Department for Human Resources, the members lost their status as professional staff members and, although they had the option of retaining membership in the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System or joining the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, it was mandatory they participate in the federal social security program. OAG 73-767.

Any employee of the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television currently a member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System who, because of subsection (4)(d) of this section, may be qualified to participate in the teachers' retirement system has the option of joining the teachers' retirement system as provided by KRS 161.607(3) or retaining membership in Kentucky Employees Retirement System as provided by KRS 61.680. OAG 74-305.

ROTC teachers may be employed without being certified but an uncertified ROTC teacher may not be a member of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. OAG 74-387.

Participation by the faculty of Western Kentucky University in the State Teacher's Retirement System is mandatory and where, as in this case, a majority of the faculty elects under KRS 61.435 to participate in the federal social security program, participation in that program also is mandatory and there is no legal way thereafter that the faculty can withdraw or discontinue its participation. OAG 75-268.

The salary an individual earns as a state legislator does not fall within the statutory definition under KTRS law as "annual compensation" which is subject to employee contributions in the KTRS. OAG 78-226.

Interpretation of what constitutes a "professional level of training" is a responsibility resting with the Board of Trustees of the Teachers Retirement System of the state of Kentucky, which has defined the term to mean graduation from a recognized college or university or its equivalent. 161.230. Retirement system — Purpose — Name. The Teachers' Retirement System is established as of July 1, 1940, for the purpose of providing retirement allowances for teachers, their beneficiaries, and survivors under the provisions of KRS 161.155 and 161.220 to 161.714. The Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky shall be an independent agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth and this status shall only be amended or changed by the General Assembly. It shall have the powers and the privileges of a corporation and shall be known as the "Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky." Its business shall be transacted, its funds invested, and its cash and securities held in that name, or in the name of its nominee provided that its nominee is authorized by board of trustees' resolution solely for the purpose of facilitating the transfer of securities. The board of trustees may designate a nominee as provided in KRS 287.225; or it may name as nominee a partnership composed of selected trustees and employees of the system, and formed for the sole purpose of holding legal or registered title of such securities, and for the transfer of securities in accordance with directions of the board of trustees.

161.250. Board of trustees to control retirement — Membership — Appeals.

(1) The general administration and management of the retirement system, and the responsibility for its proper operation and for making effective provisions of KRS 161.155 and 161.220 to 161.714 are vested in a board of trustees to be known as the "Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky." The board of trustees shall consist of the chief state school officer, the State Treasurer, and seven (7) other trustees elected as provided in KRS 161.260. Four (4) of the elective trustees shall be members of the retirement system, to be known as teacher trustees, two (2) shall be persons who are not members of the teaching profession, to be known as the lay trustees, and one (1) shall be an annuitant of the retirement system to be known as the retired teacher trustee. One (1) teacher trustee shall be elected annually for a four-year term. The retired teacher trustee shall be elected every four (4) years. The chief state school officer and the State Treasurer are considered ex officio members of the board of trustees and may designate in writing a person to represent them at board meetings.

(2) A member, retired member, or designated beneficiary may appeal the retirement system's decisions that materially affect the amount of service retirement allowance, amount of service credit, eligibility for service retirement, or eligibility for survivorship benefits to which that member, retired member, or designated beneficiary claims to be entitled. All appeals must be in writing and filed with the retirement system within thirty (30) days of the claimant's notice of the retirement system's decision. For purposes of this section, notice shall be complete and effective upon the date of mailing of the retirement system's decision to the claimant at the claimant's last known address. Failure by the claimant to file a written appeal with the retirement system within the thirty (30) day period shall result in the decision of the retirement system becoming permanent with the effect of a final and unappealable order. Appeals may include a request for an administrative hearing which shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B. The board of trustees may establish an appeals committee whose members shall be appointed by the chairperson and who shall have the authority to act upon the report and recommendation of the hearing officer by issuing a final order on behalf of the full board of trustees. A member, retired member, or designated beneficiary who has filed a timely, written appeal of a decision of the retirement system may, following the administrative hearing and issuance of the final order by the board of trustees, appeal the final order of the board of trustees to the Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

Opinions of Attorney General. A certified teacher who has taught long enough to acquire a vested interest in the teachers' retirement system but who left teaching for another occupation several years before would be “a member of the teaching profession” and would not be eligible to serve as a lay member of the board of trustees of the teachers' retirement system, since this section envisioned a person with an objective approach who would not be influenced by having a teaching background. OAG 71-150.

161.260. Election of members of board of trustees. An election shall be held on or before June 1 of each year to elect trustees. The trustees to be elected each year shall depend upon the respective terms of the trustees elected under Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), Ch. 1, paragraph 7 and Acts 1940, Ch. 192, paragraph 7a, and KRS 161.250. Each trustee shall assume office on July 1 following his election and shall serve for a term of four (4) years. The elections shall be conducted by ballot under the supervision of the chief state school officer. Each person who is a contributing member as a result of full-time employment in a position covered by the retirement system or who is an annuitant of the retirement system shall have the right to vote. Each person who is a contributing member as a result of part-time or substitute employment in a position covered by the retirement system shall be permitted to vote as provided in KRS 161.612. Nominations for trustees shall be made by a nominating committee consisting of one (1) committee member selected by the retirement system membership of each of the districts of the Kentucky Education Association, and one (1) committee member to be selected by retired teachers, on a statewide basis, from among the annuitants of the retirement system. No person may be a member of the nominating committee who is not a member of the system, except for the committee member to be selected from among the annuitants of the system. The president of the Kentucky Education Association shall preside over the meeting of the nominating committee and the secretary of the Teachers' Retirement System shall act as secretary to the committee. Two (2) persons shall be nominated by the nominating committee for each position to be filled. All expenses of the election shall be paid by the board of trustees out of its general expense fund.

Opinions of Attorney General. The members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System Trustee Nominating Committee are entitled to reimbursement out of the board of trustees' general expenses fund for all reasonable, actual and necessary expenses incurred in attending the nomination meeting. 161.280. Oath of board members. Each member of the board of trustees shall, within ten (10) days after his appointment or election, take an oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Kentucky, that he will diligently and honestly administer the affairs of the board, and that he will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provisions of the law applicable to the retirement system. The oath of office shall be subscribed to by the member making it and certified to by the officer before whom it is taken, and shall be immediately filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

161.290. Meetings, compensation, and expenses of board members. (1) The board of trustees shall meet on the third Monday during the months of March, June, September, and December of each year. Special meetings may be called by the chairperson upon giving adequate notice to each member of the board of trustees. The business to be transacted at special meetings shall be specified in the notice of the meeting.
(2) The members of the board of trustees shall serve without compensation, except that elective trustees shall receive ninety dollars ($90) for each day the board is in session and all elected trustees shall be reimbursed from the expense fund for all necessary expenses they incur through service to the board without limitation of the provisions of KRS Chapters 44 and 45.

(3) The board of trustees may authorize a per diem, not to exceed ninety dollars ($90) per day, for trustees representing the system on committees or commissions established by statute or for service as an official representative of the board of trustees.

(4) The school district which employs a teacher trustee who is required to attend regular or special meetings of the board of trustees, represent the system on committees or commissions, or serve as an official representative of the board of trustees shall provide the teacher trustee with special leave with pay and pay the compensation for a substitute for the teacher trustee during periods of absence upon certification by the teacher trustee that the trustee is performing these duties for the system.

161.300. Quorum.

Five (5) members of the board of trustees shall constitute a quorum. Each trustee shall be entitled to one (1) vote. Four (4) votes or a majority of the trustees present whichever is the larger number shall be necessary for a decision by the trustees at any meeting of the board.

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 148, 149.

161.310. Administrative regulations — Rules, regulations, and policies of participating employers to conform to chapter.

(1) The board of trustees shall from time to time promulgate administrative regulations for the administration of the funds of the retirement system and for the transaction of business.

(2) All rules, regulations, or policies adopted by school districts, universities, or other employers participating in the Teachers’ Retirement System that pertain to the retirement system shall conform to this chapter.

(3) All rules, regulations, or policies adopted, or decisions made, by school districts, universities, or other employers participating in the Teachers’ Retirement System that pertain to retirement incentives for members as defined in KRS 161.220(4) shall contain provisions for the school district, university, or other employer to make full payment to the retirement system at the time a member retires for all actuarial obligations that occur to the retirement system as a result of retirement incentive payments. This subsection shall not apply to retirement incentive plans adopted by local boards of education prior to December 31, 1997, and to those employees of local school districts who retired on or before July 1, 1998.

161.330. Cost of administration, how paid — Office space.
The cost of administration of the retirement system shall be paid out of the expense fund established for that purpose by the board of trustees. The board of trustees shall be responsible for the approval and administration of the expense fund budget, subject to the limitations imposed by KRS 161.420(1). Expenses for the operation of the retirement system shall be in such amounts as the board of trustees approves. The board of trustees is authorized to purchase or lease suitable office quarters for the operation of the retirement system.

161.340. Officers of board — Personnel of system — Contracting for services — Bond of officers and employees.

(1) The board of trustees shall elect from its membership a chairperson and a vice chairperson on an annual basis as prescribed by the administrative regulations of the board of trustees. The board of trustees shall employ an executive secretary by means of a contract not to exceed a period of four (4) years and fix the compensation and other terms of employment for this position without limitation of the provisions of KRS Chapters 18A, 45A, 56, and KRS 64.640. The executive secretary shall be the chief administrative officer of the board. The executive secretary, at the time of employment, shall be a graduate of a four (4) year college or university, and shall possess qualifications as the board of trustees may require. The executive secretary shall not have held by appointment or election an elective public office within the five (5) year period next preceding the date of employment of the candidate.

(2) The board shall employ clerical, administrative, and other personnel as are required to transact the business of the retirement system. The compensation of all persons employed by the board shall be paid at the rates and in amounts as the board approves. Anything in the Kentucky Revised Statutes to the contrary notwithstanding, the power over and the control of determining and maintaining an adequate complement of employees in the system shall be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the board of trustees.

(3) The board shall contract for actuarial, auditing, legal, medical, investment counseling, and other professional or technical services as are required to carry out the obligations of the board in accordance with the provisions of this chapter without limitations, including KRS Chapters 12, 13B, 45, 45A, 56, and 57, and shall provide for legal counseling and other legal services as may be required in defense of trustees, officers, and employees of the system who may be subjected to civil action arising from the performance of their legally assigned duties if counsel and services are not provided by the Attorney General.

(4) The board shall require the trustees, executive secretary, and employees it determines proper to execute bonds for the faithful performance of their duties notwithstanding the limitations of KRS Chapter 62.

(5) The board of trustees may expend funds from the expense fund as necessary to insure the trustees, employees, and officials of the Teachers’ Retirement System against any liability arising out of an act or omission committed in the scope and course of performing legal duties.

(6) Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, employees shall not be considered legislative agents as defined in KRS 6.611.

Opinions of Attorney General. The board of the teachers’ retirement system could provide for payment for annual leave for its executive secretary, but such action would be subject to the approval of the commissioner of personnel. OAG 70-470.

Just as KRS 64.640 provides an upper limit for all employees with regard to their potential salary, including any five percent increases, this section must be read into KRS 18A.350 to 18A.360 (now repealed) to provide an absolute upper salary limit for the executive secretary of the Teachers’ Retirement System to be the maximum set for commissioners by KRS 64.640(2). Compiler's Notes. This section (4506b-35) was repealed by Acts 1996, ch. 154.

161.370. Treasurer, auditor, and legal adviser of board — Annual audit of Teachers' Retirement System.

(1) The State Treasurer, the Auditor of Public Accounts, and the Attorney General shall be treasurer, auditor, and legal adviser, respectively, of the board of trustees, and shall be liable upon their official bonds for the faithful performance of such duties. They shall serve without compensation. When the board of trustees deems it for the best interests of the retirement system, it may employ attorneys and pay reasonable fees for the services rendered.

(2) The board shall annually procure an audit of the Teachers' Retirement System. The audit shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The board may select an independent certified public accountant and pay reasonable fees for the services rendered. If the audit is performed by an independent certified public accountant, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall not be required to perform an audit pursuant to KRS 43.050(2)(a), but may perform an audit at his discretion.

(3) The board shall make copies of the audit required by this section available for examination by any active contributing member or annuitant in the office of the executive secretary of the Teachers' Retirement System and in such other places as may be necessary to make the audit available to all active contributing members and annuitants. A copy of the annual audit shall be sent to the Legislative Research Commission no later than ten (10) days after receipt by the board.

Opinions of Attorney General. The teacher's retirement system is not required by law to honor an inter-account bill from the state auditor for the expense incurred as a consequence of an audit of the system. OAG 74-164. If the state auditor cannot perform the services requested by the board of the teachers' retirement system, the board may contract with outside auditors to perform these services, but a contract with the state auditor to provide auditing services for the retirement system at a cost equal to or less than that which could be secured from other outside auditors is illegal since, if the state auditor can perform the services, they are to be provided without compensation. OAG 74-564.

161.380. Duties of treasurer — Custodian of securities.

(1) The State Treasurer is the custodian of all cash funds of the retirement system. He shall honor and pay all vouchers drawn on the retirement funds. The Treasurer shall honor and pay all vouchers drawn on the retirement funds for payment of securities purchased upon order of the board. All payments from the several funds of the retirement system shall be made only upon vouchers signed by the executive secretary, the chairman of the board of trustees of the retirement system, or persons delegated in writing by the board.

(2) The board of trustees shall appoint a custodian or custodians of the securities acquired under authority of KRS 161.430 and the custodian or custodians shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all securities placed in his custody. The custodian shall collect dividends, interests, and payments on principal as they become due, and deposit such funds with the State Treasurer for credit to the guarantee fund of the system. The custodian shall, upon delivery of the securities to him, make payment for same as authorized by the board of trustees. When securities are sold by the board of trustees, the custodian shall deliver such securities to the purchaser upon receipt of payment from said purchaser.

(3) The board of trustees may require such surety from the custodian as they deem necessary for the protection of securities held by such custodian.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Application.

The Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA) Board of
Education’s failure to take official, and presumably final, action in informing school personnel of demotion prior to May 15 as provided by KRS 161.760(3) and thus invalidating the demotion had been changed by the enactment of KRS 160.390 which effectively supersedes the May 15 requirement and under the plain language of KRS 161.760 and 160.390 makes the superintendent’s action of demotion effective upon mere written notice to the affected employee of the action. 161.400. Actuary.
(1) The board of trustees shall designate as actuary a competent person who shall be a fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries or a member of the American Academy of Actuaries. He shall be the technical adviser of the board on matters regarding the operation of the funds of the system and shall perform such other duties as are required in connection therewith. At least once in each six (6) year period after the first year of operation of the system, the actuary shall make an actuarial investigation into the actuarial assumptions used, including but not limited to mortality, investment rate of return, and service and compensation of the members and beneficiaries of the retirement system; and make a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the funds of the system. At least annually the actuary shall make an actuarial valuation of the retirement system. The valuation shall include a description of the actuarial assumptions used, and the assumptions shall be reasonably related to the experience of the system and represent the actuary’s best estimate of anticipated experience. On the basis of the results of the valuations, the board of trustees shall make necessary changes in the retirement system within the provisions of law and shall recommend the contributions payable by the state within the limits specified in KRS 161.550.

(2) Actuarial factors and actuarial cost factor tables in use by the retirement system for all purposes shall be determined by the actuary of the retirement system and approved by the board of trustees by resolution and implemented without the necessity of an administrative regulation. The assets of the system shall be valued at market value, or at a modified market value determined by the board to be a prudent measure of asset value. Effective July 1, 1992, the spread between investment and salary shall be a prudent measure of asset value. Effective July 1, 1992, the spread between investment and salary assumptions shall be reviewed and adjusted at the time of actuarial valuation, based upon the most recent five (5) year experience of the system.

(3) A copy of each actuarial investigation and valuation shall be forwarded to the Legislative Research Commission no later than ten (10) days after receipt by the board.

161.410. Medical review board, designation — Duties. [Repealed.]

161.420. Funds of retirement system.
All of the assets of the retirement system are for the exclusive purpose of providing benefits to members and annuitants and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the system. The board of trustees shall be the trustee of all funds of the system and shall have full power and responsibility for administering the funds. It is hereby declared that the restrictions and rights provided herein shall not be subject to reduction or impairment by alteration, amendment, or repeal. All of the assets of the retirement system shall be credited according to the purpose for which they are held to one of the following funds:

(1) The expense fund shall consist of the funds set aside from year to year by the board of trustees to defray the expenses of the administration of the retirement system. Each fiscal year an amount not greater than four percent (4%) of the dividends and interest income earned from investments during the immediate past fiscal year shall be set aside into the expense fund or expended for the administration of the retirement system;

(2) The teachers' savings fund shall consist of the contributions paid by members of the retirement system into this fund and regular interest assigned by the board of trustees from the guarantee fund. A member may not borrow any amount of his or her accumulated contributions to this fund, or any interest earned thereon. The accumulated contributions of a member returned to him upon his withdrawal or paid to his estate or designated beneficiary in the event of his death shall be paid from the teachers' savings fund. Any accumulated contributions forfeited by a failure of a teacher or his estate to claim these contributions shall be transferred from the teachers' savings fund to the guarantee fund. The accumulated contributions of a member shall be transferred from the teachers' savings fund to the allowance reserve fund in the event of retirement by reason of service or disability;

(3) The state accumulation fund shall consist of funds appropriated by the state for the purpose of providing annuities and survivor benefits, including any sums appropriated for meeting unfunded liabilities, together with regular interest assigned by the board of trustees from the guarantee fund. At the time of retirement or death of a member there shall be transferred from the state accumulation fund to the allowance reserve fund an amount which together with the sum transferred from the
The school employee annuity fund shall consist of those funds voluntarily contributed under the provisions of section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code by a retired member of the Teachers’ Retirement System with accounts that existed on or after July 1, 1996. The contributions shall not be picked up as provided in KRS 161.540(2). Separate member accounts shall be maintained for each member. The board of trustees may promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A to manage this program;

The supplemental retirement benefit fund shall consist of those funds contributed by the employer for the purpose of constituting a qualified government excess benefit plan as described in Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code for accounts that existed on or after July 1, 1996. The board of trustees may promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A to administer this program; and

The life insurance benefit fund shall consist of amounts accumulated for the purpose of providing benefits provided under KRS 161.655. The board of trustees may allocate to this fund a percentage of the employer and state contributions as provided under KRS 161.550. The allocation to this fund will be in an amount that the actuary determines necessary to fund the obligation of providing the benefits provided under KRS 161.655.

Compiler’s Notes. Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code referred to in subsection (7) of this section is compiled as 26 U.S.C. § 403(b).

Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, referred to in subsection (8), is codified as 26 U.S.C. § 415.

SCHOOL EMPLOYEES—TEACHERS' RETIREMENT AND TENURE

staff employees, shall adhere to "The Code of Ethics" and "The Standards of Professional Conduct" promulgated by the Association for Investment Management and Research. Effective July 1, 1991, no investment counselor shall manage more than forty percent (40%) of the funds of the retirement system. The board may appoint an investment committee consisting of the executive secretary and two (2) trustees to act for the board in all matters of investment, subject to the approval of the board of trustees. The board of trustees, in keeping with their responsibilities as trustees and wherever consistent with their fiduciary responsibilities, shall give priority to the investment of funds in obligations calculated to improve the industrial development and enhance the economic welfare of the Commonwealth. Toward this end, the board shall develop procedures for informing the business community of the potential for in-state investments by the retirement fund, accepting and evaluating applications for the in-state investment of funds, and working with members of the business community in executing in-state investments which are consistent with the board's fiduciary responsibilities. The board shall include in the criteria it uses to evaluate in-state investments their potential for creating new employment opportunities and adding to the total job pool in Kentucky. The board may cooperate with the board of trustees of Kentucky Retirement Systems in developing its program and procedures, and shall report to the Legislative Research Commission annually on its progress in placing in-state investments. The first report shall be submitted by October 1, 1991, and subsequent reports shall be submitted by October 1 of each year thereafter. The report shall include the number of applications for in-state investment received, the nature of the investments proposed, the amount requested, the amount invested, and the percentage of applications which resulted in investments.

The board members and investment counselor shall discharge their duties with respect to the assets of the system solely in the interests of the active contributing members and annuitants and:

(a) For the exclusive purpose of providing benefits to members and annuitants and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the system;

(b) With the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and with like aims;

(c) By diversifying the investments of the plan so as to minimize the risk of large losses, unless under the circumstances it is clearly prudent not to do so; and

(d) In accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and other instruments governing the system.

In choosing and contracting for professional investment management services the board must do so prudently and in the interest of the members and annuitants. Any contract that the board makes with an investment counselor shall set forth policies and guidelines of the board with reference to standard rating services and specific criteria for determining the quality of investments. Expenses directly related to investment management services shall be financed from the guarantee fund in amounts approved by the board.

(b) An investment counselor appointed under this section shall acknowledge in writing his fiduciary responsibilities to the fund. To be eligible for appointment, an investment counselor must be:

1. Registered under the Federal Investment Advisors Act of 1940; or

2. A bank as defined by that Act; or

3. An insurance company qualified to perform investment services under the laws of more than one (1) state.

No investment or disbursement of funds shall be made unless authorized by the board of trustees, except that the board, in order to ensure timely market transactions, shall establish investment guidelines, by administrative regulation, and may permit its staff and investment counselors employed pursuant to this section to execute purchases and sales of investment instruments within those guidelines without prior board approval.

161.440. Assignment of interest to funds.

At the end of each fiscal year the board of trustees shall assign from the guarantee fund interest at the rate of three percent (3%) to the teachers' savings fund, the state accumulation fund, and the allowance reserve fund. The amounts so allowed shall be due and payable to the funds and shall be annually credited thereto by the board of trustees from interest and other earnings on money of the retirement system.

(1) The membership of the retirement system shall consist of all new members, all present teachers, and all persons participating under the retirement system as of June 30, 1986, except as provided in Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), Ch. 1, paragraph 29. The board of trustees of the Teachers’ Retirement System shall be responsible for final determination of membership eligibility and may direct employers to take whatever action that may be necessary to correct any error relating to membership.

(2) Service credit shall be forfeited upon withdrawal. If a member again enters service it shall be as a new member, except that any teacher who withdraws by claiming his deposits may repay the system the amount withdrawn plus interest and reestablish his service credit as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Effective July 1, 1988, and thereafter, an active contributing member of the retirement system with contributing service equal to one (1) year may regain service credit by depositing in the teachers’ savings fund the amount withdrawn with interest at the rate to be set by the board of trustees, and computed from the first of the month of withdrawal and including the month of redeposit.

(4) Effective July 1, 1974, any active contributing member with at least two (2) years of contributing service credit who declined membership as provided in Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), Ch. 1, paragraph 29, may secure service credit for prior service, and for any subsequent service prior to date of membership, by depositing in the teachers’ savings fund contributions for each year of subsequent service prior to date of membership, with interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) compounded annually to the date of deposit.

(5) Membership in the retirement system shall be terminated:

(a) By retirement for service;
(b) By death;
(c) By withdrawal of the member’s accumulated contributions;
(d) When a member, having less than five (5) years of Kentucky service is absent from service for more than three (3) consecutive years; or
(e) For persons hired on or after August 1, 2000, when a member is convicted, in any state or federal court of competent jurisdiction, of a felony related to his employment as provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph.

1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a member hired on or after August 1, 2000, who is convicted, in any state or federal court of competent jurisdiction, of a felony related to his employment shall forfeit rights and benefits earned under the retirement system, except for the return of his accumulated contributions and interest credited on those contributions.

2. The payment of retirement benefits ordered forfeited shall be stayed pending any appeal of the conviction. If the conviction is reversed on final judgment, no retirement benefits shall be forfeited. Except for paragraph (e) of this subsection, upon termination of membership accounts under this subsection, funds in the account shall be transferred to the guarantee fund. Inactive members may apply for refunds of these funds at any time. The terminated service shall be reinstated, if not withdrawn by the member, in the event that the member returns to active contributing service.

(6) In case of withdrawal from service prior to eligibility for retirement, the board of trustees shall on request of the member return all of his accumulated contributions with regular interest, including any payments made by the member to the state accumulation fund, but the member shall have no claim on any contributions made by the state with a view to his retirement or to contributions made to the medical insurance fund. If the member is eligible for an immediate service retirement allowance as provided in KRS 161.600, no withdrawal and refund shall be permitted, unless the allowance would prohibit the member from qualifying for Social Security benefits or the member elects to withdraw part or all of his service for the purpose of obtaining credit in another retirement plan. Requests for refund of contributions by the member must be filed on forms prescribed by the Teachers' Retirement System and the employer shall be financially responsible for all information that is certified on the prescribed form. A member may not withdraw any part of his or her contributions to the retirement system except as provided by this subsection.

(7) Except as provided in KRS 161.520 and 161.525, in case of death prior to retirement, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate of the deceased member, unless a beneficiary was otherwise applicable designated by the deceased member, then to the beneficiary, all of his accumulated contributions, with regular interest, including any payments made by the member to the state accumulation fund, but the estate or beneficiary shall have no claim on any contributions made by the state with a view to the retirement of the member or to contributions made to the medical insurance fund.

(8) Any active contributing member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, the County Employees Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System, or the Judicial Retirement System may use service, under that retirement system for the purpose of meeting the service requirement of subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

Opinions of Attorney General. If additional teaching activity falls within the category of being in fact a part of the regularly approved program of the public school district or the vocational school for which certification or a professional level of training is required as a condition of employment, then teachers' retirement applies and the teacher would not be eligible for social security participation. The additional hours requiring services beyond the normal teaching day are regarded as an extension of the regular full-time employment. OAG 69:430.

ROTC teachers may be employed without being certified but an uncertified ROTC teacher may not be a member of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. OAG 74:387.

161.480. Statement of member — Designation of beneficiaries.

Each person, upon becoming a member of the retirement system, shall file a detailed statement as required by the board of trustees and shall designate a primary beneficiary or two (2) or more cofoundaries to receive any benefits accruing from the death of the member. A contingent beneficiary may be designated in addition to the primary beneficiary or cofoundaries. The member may name more than one (1) contingent beneficiary. Any beneficiary designation made by the member shall remain in effect until changed by the member on forms prescribed by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, except in the event of subsequent marriage or divorce. Subsequent marriage by the member shall void the primary beneficiary and any cofoundatory designation and the spouse of the member at death shall be considered as the primary beneficiary, unless the member subsequent to marriage designates another beneficiary. A final divorce decree shall terminate an ex-spouse's status as either primary beneficiary, cofoundatory, or contingent beneficiary, unless subsequent to divorce the member redesignates the former spouse as primary beneficiary, cofoundatory, or contingent beneficiary. To the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, a trust may be designated as beneficiary for receipt of a member's contributions to the retirement system as provided under KRS 161.470(7).

A final divorce decree shall not terminate the designation of a trust as beneficiary regardless of who is designated as beneficiary of the trust. The provisions of this section shall be retroactive as they relate to election of beneficiaries by members still in active status on the effective date of this section. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any account from which a member is drawing a retirement allowance or to the life insurance benefit available under KRS 161.655.

161.500. Service credit.
(1) At the close of each fiscal year, the retirement system shall add service credit to the account of each member who made contributions to his or her account during the year. Members shall be entitled to a full year of service credit if their total paid days were not less than one hundred eighty (180) days of a one hundred eighty-five (185) day contract for a regular school or fiscal year. In the event a member is paid for less than one hundred eighty (180) days, the member may purchase credit according to administrative regulations established by the board of trustees. In no case shall more than one (1) year of service be credited for all service performed in one (1) fiscal year. Members who complete their employment contract prior to the close of a fiscal year and elect to retire prior to the close of a fiscal year shall have their service credit reduced by eight percent (8%) for each calendar month that the retirement becomes effective prior to July 1.

(2) Members who are employed and paid for less than the number of days required in their normal employment year shall be entitled to prorata service credit for the fractional service. Such credit shall be based upon the number of days employed and the number of days in the member’s annual employment agreement or normal employment year.

(3) Service credit may not exceed the ratio between the school or fiscal year and the number of months or fraction of a month the member is employed during that year.

(4) No service credit shall be granted in the Teachers’ Retirement System for service that has been or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds.

161.507. Prior service credit for veterans — Credit for military service and uniformed service by active contributing member.

(1) An active contributing member of the Teachers’ Retirement System may receive service credit for active service rendered in the uniformed services of the Armed Forces of the United States, including the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, subject to the provisions of the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 and to administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees. Military service includes service in the uniformed services that occurs before the employment of a member in a position covered by the retirement system or where a member leaves covered employment without giving advance written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services. Service in the uniformed services also includes uniformed service that occurs after employment in a position covered by the retirement system where the member has given advance written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services and the member returns directly from uniformed services to covered employment. Military service may be credited only if discharge was honorable or was not terminated upon the occurrence of any of the events listed in 38 U.S.C. sec. 4304. Service shall be considered as Kentucky teaching service, except that service may not be used for meeting the service requirements set forth in KRS 161.600(1)(a) or 161.661(1) unless the service occurred after the member gave written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services and the member returned directly from uniformed services to covered employment. A maximum of six (6) years of military service may be credited, but in no case a greater number of years than the actual years of contributing service in Kentucky.

(2) No credit shall be granted for military service which has been or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds.

(3) A member having twenty (20) years or more of active duty in the military service, and who is qualified for regular federal retirement benefits based on this military service, may not receive credit for any military service in the Teachers’
Retirement System. This subsection shall apply to service presented for credit on July 1, 1975, and after this date.

(4) (a) A member receiving retirement credit for active duty in the armed services of the United States prior to employment in a position covered by the retirement system or where the member leaves covered employment without giving advance written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services shall pay to the retirement system the full actuarial cost of the service credit purchased as provided under KRS 161.220(22). These contributions shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 161.540(2). In purchasing retirement credit for active duty in the armed services, the latest years of service shall be considered first in allowing credit toward retirement. The board of trustees shall adopt a table of actuarial factors to be used in calculating the amount of contribution required for crediting this service.

(b) If military service occurred after the member gave written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services and the member returns directly from uniformed services to covered employment, the member shall contribute the regular member contribution required by KRS 161.540. The member may make the payment of delayed contributions in a lump sum payment or in installments not to exceed five (5) years beginning with the member’s date of reemployment. Interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum shall be charged for delayed contributions beginning with the member’s date of reemployment until paid.

(5) An active contributing member of the Teachers’ Retirement System may receive service credit for service in the military reserves of the United States or the National Guard. The member may purchase one (1) month of service for each six (6) months of service in the reserves or the National Guard. Notwithstanding any other statute, regulation, or policy to the contrary, the system shall provide a member, upon request, the estimated actuarial cost of the National Guard or military reserves service purchase based upon the information available at the time of the request. The member shall be entitled to enter into a contract with the system at the time of the request to purchase the National Guard or military reserves service by paying to the system the estimated actuarial cost, either by installments or in lump sum. The member shall pay the full actuarial cost of this service in the military reserves or the National Guard as provided in KRS 161.220(22). Service in the military reserves or the National Guard shall be treated as service earned prior to participation in the system and shall not be used for meeting the service requirements set forth in KRS 161.600(1)(a) or 161.661(1). The payment shall not be picked up by the employer, as described in KRS 161.540(2).

161.510. Prior service allowed new members. [Repealed.]

   (1) For the purposes of this section, “out-of-state service” shall mean service in any state in a comparable position on a full-time basis, which would be covered if in Kentucky.

   (2) (a) An active contributing member who has been a contributing member of the retirement system for at least one (1) full scholastic year subsequent to the latest out-of-state service, may present for credit service rendered out of state, not to exceed ten (10) years, actually taught as a certified or licensed teacher. With the exception of university faculty members, all members who elect to purchase this service shall pay to the retirement system an amount equal to the current member contribution rate based on the first Kentucky salary of the member subsequent to the out-of-state service, provided this service was rendered after June 30, 1983. In the event this service was rendered prior to July 1, 1983, the contribution rate shall be seven and eighty-four hundredths percent (7.84%). University faculty members shall pay on a contribution rate of seven and eighty-four hundredths percent (7.84%) based on the first Kentucky salary subsequent to the out-of-state service, regardless of when the service was rendered. Members shall pay to the retirement system the employer contribution at the rates set forth in KRS 161.550. In addition, all members shall pay interest on the contributions for this service at a rate to be set by the board of trustees on each annual contribution from the last day of the scholastic year in which the service was rendered to date of payment to the retirement system. The payments shall not be picked up as described in KRS 161.540(2). For each year of which the retirement system shall accept the contribution and interest, one (1) year of service credit shall be given. This credit may not be used to meet the service requirements of KRS 161.525, 161.600, or 161.661, except as provided in subsection (2)(c) of this section. No credit shall be granted for service which has been or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds; however, no service may be presented as described in subsections (2)(a) or (2)(b) of this section for the purchase of out-of-state service credit. A member, having completed service as a federal Peace Corps volunteer, may purchase up to two (2) years of service credit for time served in the corps on the same basis as provided in this section for the purchase of out-of-state service credit. A member, having completed service as a federal Peace Corps volunteer, may purchase up to two (2) years of service credit for time served in the Peace Corps on the same basis as provided in this section for the purchase of out-of-state service credit.

(4) A member, having completed service as a voluntary in the Kentucky Peace Corps created by KRS 154.01-720, may purchase service credit for the time served in the corps on the same basis as provided in this section for the purchase of out-of-state service credit. A member, having completed service as a federal Peace Corps volunteer, may purchase up to two (2) years of service credit for time served in the Peace Corps on the same basis as provided in this section for the purchase of out-of-state service credit. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section to the contrary, purchase of service credit for out-of-state teaching, Kentucky Peace Corps, and federal Peace Corps service on July 1, 2005, or thereafter shall be purchasable only at full actuarial cost.

Opinions of Attorney General. A teacher who retires from his Kentucky teaching position without informing the teachers' retirement system of any teaching service he may have accumulated as a teacher outside the state and whose annuity is calculated on the basis of his service in Kentucky cannot be credited with his out-of-state service more than two years after the effective date of his retirement. OAG 74-671.

An individual who taught in schools in East Africa as part of the United States Agency for International Development program in schools which were part of the Uganda and Kenya educational systems and under the direct control of those countries may not be credited by the Teachers' Retirement System for such teaching service. on death.

Upon the death of an active contributing member or upon the death of a member retired for disability, except as provided in KRS 161.661(6), the survivors of the deceased member in the following named order, may elect to receive a survivor's benefit payable as follows:

(1) Where there is a surviving widow or widower who is named as the primary beneficiary of the member's retirement account, the benefit shall be:

(a) One hundred eighty dollars ($180) per month with no restriction on other income;

(b) Two hundred forty dollars ($240) per month when the surviving widow or widower's total income from all sources does not exceed six thousand six hundred dollars ($6,600) per year or five hundred fifty dollars ($550) per month;

or

(c) If the deceased member has a minimum of ten

(10) years of service credit with the Teachers' Retiirement System, the surviving widow or widower can provide for the administration of the provisions in this section shall terminate upon the attainment of age eighteen (18) or upon reaching age nineteen

(19), if a full-time student in high school, or upon marriage, except that benefits shall continue until the attainment of age twenty-three (23) for an unmarried child who is a full-time student in a recognized educational program beyond the high school level. The benefit to a widow, widower, dependent parent, or dependent brother or sister or dependent child age eighteen (18) or older shall terminate upon marriage, or upon termination of the condition creating the dependency.

(7) The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency of any beneficiary, and may require formal application or information relating to eligibility or dependency, including proof of annual income satisfactory to the board. The board of trustees may subpoena records and individuals whenever it deems this action necessary.

(8) No payment of benefits shall be made unless the board of trustees authorizes the payment. The board shall promulgate administrative regulations for the administration of the provisions in this section and in every case the decision of the board of trustees shall be final as to eligibility, dependency, or disability, and the amount of benefits payable.

(9) In the event that there are no eligible survivors as defined in subsections (1) to (5) of this section, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate or assigns of the deceased member a refund of his accumulated contributions as provided in KRS 161.470(7).

Benefits under this subsection shall apply in addition to benefits which may be payable under sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) Where the sole eligible survivors are dependent parents aged sixty-five (65) or over, the benefit shall be two hundred dollars ($200) per month for one (1) parent or two hundred ninety dollars ($290) per month for two (2) parents. Dependency of a parent shall be established as of the date of the death of the member. The mental or physical condition of the adult child shall be revealed by a competent examination by a licensed physician and shall be approved by a majority of a medical review committee as defined in KRS 161.661(13).

Benefits under this subsection shall apply in addition to benefits which may be payable under sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section.

(10) Any person who is receiving benefits and becomes disqualified from receiving those benefits under this section shall immediately notify the Teachers' Retirement System of this disqualification in writing and shall return all benefits paid after the date of disqualification. Failure to comply with these provisions shall create an indebtedness of that person to the Teachers' Retirement System. Interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum shall be charged if the debt is not repaid within sixty (60) days after the date of disqualification. Failure to repay this debt creates a lien in favor of the Teachers' Retirement System upon all property of the person who improperly receives benefits and does not repay those benefits.

The statute permits a refund of accumulated contributions to the estate of the teacher, if he dies intestate or does not assign such contributions, or to his assigned beneficiary if he names one. OAG 63-483.

A decree of divorce providing for the restoration of property under KRS 403.060 (repealed) operates to extinguish the interest of a deceased teacher’s former spouse which arose by virtue of being designated as the named beneficiary of her teachers retirement system benefits prior to the divorce. OAG 67-380.

Survivors who in 1962 elected to remain under the 1958 statute would also be eligible to take advantage of the 1970 increased benefits if they so elected. OAG 70-487.

In the case of a deceased teacher, under this section, either survivors’ benefits or a refund of contributions, but not both, is to be paid and the designated beneficiary gets a first chance. OAG 70-625.

A widow would not be entitled to a survivor’s benefit under this section if she is convicted of a felony for her husband’s death. OAG 70-692.

Where a widow is under indictment resulting from her husband’s death, no payments should be made as a widow’s death. OAG 70-692.

Where a teacher applied for service retirement February 17, 1975, to be effective the coming fiscal year and chose a straight life annuity with a refundable balance to her beneficiary, such retirement became effective on July 1, 1975, and the fact that she died July 29, 1975, prior to receiving her first check has no bearing on her retirement and her husband is entitled only to a refund of the balance in her account rather than the amounts provided under this section or KRS 161.525. OAG 75-579.

161.522. Survivor of member retired for disability may elect annuity. Upon the death of a member retired for disability who had a minimum of twenty-seven (27) years of service at the time of death, except as provided in KRS 161.661(6), the spouse, if named as the beneficiary of the member's account, shall be entitled to elect, in lieu of a refund of the member’s account, an annuity actuarially equivalent to the annuity that would have been paid to the deceased member had retirement for service been effective on the day immediately preceding the member’s death. In selecting this right, the spouse shall be limited to selecting an option providing a straight life annuity with refundable balance or a term certain option. There shall be a monthly minimum allowance of three hundred dollars ($300) as the basic straight life annuity. This section applies to surviving spouses of members who were receiving benefit payments under KRS 161.520 as of June 30, 1988, and to surviving spouses of members who die on or after July 1, 1984, except that the member shall have been retired for disability with a minimum of thirty (30) years of service if either of these two (2) conditions were met prior to July 1, 1990.

161.525. Death of member eligible to retire — Options of beneficiary — Monthly minimum allowance to surviving spouse.

(1) Upon death of a member in active contributing status at the time of death, who was eligible to retire by reason of service, the spouse, if named as the primary beneficiary of the member’s retirement account, or in the absence of an eligible spouse a legal dependent of the member, if named as the primary beneficiary, shall be entitled to elect, in lieu of a refund of the member’s account or benefits provided in KRS 161.520, an annuity actuarially equivalent to the attained age of the beneficiary to the annuity that would have been paid to the deceased member had retirement been effective on the day immediately preceding the member's death. Under the provisions of KRS 61.680, benefits shall be processed as if the member retired for service. In exercising this right the spouse or legal dependent shall be limited to selecting an option providing either a straight life annuity with refundable balance or a term certain option. A spouse may receive the annuity provided by this section at the same time as children are qualifying for survivors' benefits under the provisions of KRS 161.520; however, a legal dependent, other than a spouse, may not receive these payments if children have qualified for benefits under that section.

(2) A spouse qualifying for an annuity under subsection (1) of this section may defer the payments in order to reduce the actuarial discounts to be applied due to age.

(3) Upon death of a member in active contributing status at the time of his death, who had a minimum of twenty-seven (27) years of service, the spouse, if named as the primary beneficiary of the member's account shall be entitled to a monthly minimum allowance of three hundred dollars ($300) as the basic straight life annuity. This provision applies to surviving spouses of members who were receiving benefit payments under KRS 161.520 as of June 30, 1986, and to surviving spouses of members who die on or after July 1, 1986. (Enact. Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 22; 1968, ch. 136, § 7; 1972, ch. 82, § 15; 1976, ch. 351, § 11, effective July 1, 1976; 1986, ch. 440, § 8, effective July 1, 1986; 1990, ch. 442, § 9, effective July 1, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 512, effective July 13, 1990; 1994, ch. 369, § 10, effective July 1, 1994; 1996, ch. 359, § 7, effective July 1, 1996; 2004, ch. 121, § 10, effective July 1, 2004.)

Opinions of Attorney General. This section confers upon a deceased teacher's surviving spouse, providing the spouse is the designated beneficiary, the annuity the teacher could have taken the day before his death, and is limited by the provisions of KRS 161.620(4). OAG 67-443.

The survivor of a deceased member who, pursuant to this section, accepts a ten year certain annuity, cannot, without the consent of his beneficiary, change the beneficiary. OAG 70-365.

Where a teacher filed for retirement benefits by electing an annuity while designating her sister as beneficiary and then died two days before her retirement, the designation of beneficiary was effective and the sister was entitled to receive the annuity the deceased teacher would have received. OAG 71-466.

Where a teacher applied for service retirement February 17, 1975, to be effective the coming fiscal year and chose a straight life annuity with a refundable balance to her husband, such retirement became effective on July 1, 1975, and the fact that she died July 29, 1975, prior to receiving her first check has no bearing on her retirement and her husband is entitled only to refund of the balance in her account rather than the amounts provided under KRS 161.520 or this section. 161.530. Restoration of forfeited account — Exception.

Except as provided in KRS 6.696, if a member, whose account has been forfeited under previous provisions of this section, shall return to teaching in a covered position in Kentucky, and reinstates the lost service credit as provided in KRS 161.470(3), the funds transferred from the member's account shall be restored to his account, without interest, and shall be credited against the payment required for reinstatement of service credit.

161.540. Members' contributions — Picked-up contributions.

(1) Effective July 1, 1988, each member shall contribute to the retirement system nine and eight hundred fifty-five thousandths percent (9.855%) of annual compensation, except that university faculty members shall contribute eight and three hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (8.375%) of annual compensation. Payments authorized by statute that are made to retiring members for not more than sixty (60) days of unused accrued annual leave shall be considered as part of the member's annual compensation, and shall be used only for the member's final year of active service. The contribution of members shall not exceed these applicable percentages on annual compensation. When a member retires, if it is determined that he has made contributions on a salary in excess of the amount to be included for the purpose of calculating his final average salary, any excess contribution shall be refunded to him in a lump sum at the time of the payment of his first retirement allowance. In the event a member is awarded a court-ordered back salary payment the employer shall deduct and remit the member contribution on the salary payment, plus interest to be paid by the employer, to the retirement system unless otherwise specified by the court order.

(2) Each public board, institution, or agency listed in KRS 161.220(4) shall, solely for the purpose of compliance with Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, pick up the member contributions required by this section for all compensation earned after August 1, 1982, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining tax treatment under the United States Internal Revenue Code and KRS 141.010(10). The picked-up member contribution shall satisfy all obligations to the retirement system satisfied prior to August 1, 1982, by the member contribution, and the picked-up member contribution shall be in lieu of a member contribution. Each employer shall pay these picked-up member contributions from the same source of funds which is used to pay earnings to the member. The member shall have no option to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the system. Member contributions picked-up after August 1, 1982, shall be treated for all purposes of KRS 161.220 to 161.714 in the same manner and to the same extent as member contributions made prior to August 1, 1982.

Compiler's Notes. The Internal Revenue Code, referred to herein, is compiled as Title 26, U.S.C.

Opinions of Attorney General. Since a state's legislator's salary does not fall within the definition of "annual compensation" in KRS 161.220, a legislator who retains membership in the KTRS cannot legally make contributions to the KTRS or acquire credit in the KTRS, but must, in effect, relinquish his participation in the KTRS and participate in the KERS in order to acquire any service credit in a public retirement system — in this case the KERS. OAG 78-226.

University faculty members of Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System who are also covered by the social security system are not being discriminated against by having smaller contributions and benefits factors than other such members, as of 1980, since the differences are designed to offset social security increases. OAG 78-729.

Subsection (2) of this section and KRS 161.560, which are clear and unequivocal on their face, require an interpretation which would foreclose any direct payment by a local board of education to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System of a portion of the employee's contributions to the retirement system; however, these sections would not exclude any arrangement whereby a local board of education would reimburse its employees for a portion of the employee's contributions into the retirement system after the payroll deductions have already been made and credited to the KTRS. OAG 81-373.

161.545. Contributions and service credit for substitute service, part-time service, or leave of absence — Contributions not to be picked up.

(1) Members may make contributions and receive service credit for substitute, part-time, or any service other than regular full-time teaching as provided in the administrative regulations of the board of trustees if contributions were not otherwise made as a result of the service. Members placed on leave of absence may make contributions and receive service credit for this leave only if contributions are made by the end of the fiscal year next succeeding the year in which the leave was effective as provided in administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees. Contributions permitted after August 1, 1982, shall not be picked-up pursuant to KRS 161.540(2).

(2) Active contributing members of the Teachers' Retirement System, or former members who are currently participating in a state-administered retirement system, who were granted leaves of absence since July 1, 1964, for reasons of health as defined under the Federal Family Medical Leave Act of 1993, 29 U.S.C. secs. 2601 et seq., child rearing, or to improve their educational qualifications, and did not qualify at the time of the leave of absence to make contributions to the retirement system for the leave of absence as provided in subsection (1) of this section, may obtain credit for the leave of absence under the following conditions:

(a) The leave of absence shall be verified by a copy of the board of education minutes which granted the leave of absence or by other documentation that was generated contemporaneously with the leave that is determined by the retirement system to reasonably establish that a leave of absence was granted; and

(b) The member shall contribute the required percentage based on the salary received for the year immediately preceding the leave of absence plus interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) compounded annually from the beginning of the school year following the year of the leave of absence, and by depositing in the state accumulation fund an amount equal to this total.

(c) The member shall receive credit for no more than two (2) years under the provisions of this subsection.

(3) Contributions permitted under this section after August 1, 1982, shall not be picked-up pursuant to KRS 161.540(2).

Opinions of Attorney General. The fact a teacher was on unpaid leave of absence under KRS 161.770 may be shown by board minutes even though a specific item cannot be pointed to in the minutes; in this regard, if it can be shown through a composite of board minutes, probably extending over several years, and possibly with the aid of payroll records which would have been approved by board action at a meeting, that the employment status of a teacher could have been nothing other than being on a leave of absence under the authority of KRS 161.770, this would serve as compliance with this section. A Kentucky Teacher’s Retirement System member who did not officially request a maternity leave, and who did not supply a verified copy of the board minutes granting such leave of absence, may make contributions, if the member can produce board minutes showing that she was not terminated, then rehired. 161.5461. Purchase of service credit with rolled-over or transferred retirement funds.

(1) Any active contributing member may purchase service credit as authorized under KRS Chapter 161 by rolling over funds from a previous plan to the extent that rollovers are permitted by the rules set forth in the Internal Revenue Code. The rollovers may be made directly from a qualified plan or through a conduit individual retirement account as permitted by the rules set forth in the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Any active contributing member may purchase service credit as authorized under KRS Chapter 161 by transferring funds directly from a retirement system to the Teachers’ Retirement System in active contributing status who has a minimum of twenty (20) years of service credit. The payment shall be credited to the member’s account and shall be considered accumulated contributions of the member. Payment by the member may be by lump sum or by installment payments as provided in KRS 161.220(22). The payment shall not be picked up by the employer as described in KRS 161.540(2), and the member’s payment shall be credited to the member’s contribution account and shall be considered accumulated contributions of the member. Payment by the member may be by lump sum or by installment payments as provided in KRS 161.597. Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System shall recognize nonqualified service credit purchased with another retirement system only to the extent that the member had an equivalent number of full months of active employment in the position covered by the other retirement system during the period that the nonqualified service was purchased.

Opinions of Attorney General. With regard to members who purchase service credit pursuant to the statute and who qualify for retirement pursuant to KRS 161.600, the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System must provide medical insurance benefits to those members for those years purchased. OAG 99-7.

The purchase of service credits pursuant to the statute is not restricted to only those members who are retiring. OAG 99-7.

The payment for the purchase of service credits under the statute is not required to be only by lump sum payment; thus, members may pay for such service credits in installment payments pursuant to KRS 161.597. OAG 99-7.

161.547. Member having service as legislator may purchase 4 years’ credit in the retirement system.

A member of the retirement system having service as a Kentucky legislator which is not credited by any retirement system administered by the Commonwealth of Kentucky may present such service, not to exceed four (4) years, for credit in the retirement system by paying the full actuarial cost of the service as determined by the system actuary. The member may purchase all or part of his service as a legislator, but no less than one (1) year of service. The entire payment shall be placed in the teachers’ saving fund.

161.548. Purchase of service credit for service at a regional community mental health and mental retardation service program.

A member of the Teachers’ Retirement System who is in an active contributing status with the system, and who was formerly employed in a regional community mental health and mental retardation service program, organized and operated under the provisions of KRS 210.370 to 210.480, which does not participate in a state-administered retirement system, may obtain credit for the period of his service in the regional community mental health and mental retardation program by paying to the Teachers' Retirement System the full actuarial cost of the service credit purchased, as provided in KRS 161.220(22). The service credit purchased may not be used for meeting the service requirements set forth in KRS 161.600(1)(a) or 161.661(1). The payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 161.540(2), and the entire payment shall be placed in the teachers' savings fund.

161.549. Purchase of service credit for service at a Federal Head Start agency.

A member of the Teachers' Retirement System who is in an active contributing status with the system, and who was formerly employed by a Federal Head Start agency, operated under 42 U.S.C. secs. 9831 et seq., which does not participate in a state-administered retirement system, may obtain credit for the period of the member's service in the Head Start program by paying this service credit under the same conditions that out-of-state service credit may be purchased under KRS 161.515. The service credit purchased may not be used for meeting the service requirements set forth in KRS 161.600(1)(a) or 161.661(1). Payment for the service credit purchased may be made in installments in lieu of a lump-sum payment. The payment shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 161.540(2), and the entire payment shall be placed in the teachers' savings fund.

161.550. State's contribution to system.

(1) Beginning with July 1, each employer, except as provided under KRS 161.555, shall contribute annually to the retirement system a permanent amount equal to that contributed by members of the retirement system it employs plus an additional three and one-fourths percent (3.25%) of the total of salaries of members of the retirement system it employs to discharge the system's unfunded obligations with interest assumed by the state and to provide funding to the medical insurance fund as provided under KRS 161.420(5).

(2) In addition to the required contributions in subsection (1) of this section, the state shall contribute annually to the retirement system a percentage of the total salaries of the state-funded and federally funded members it employs to provide stabilization funding for the medical insurance fund. This contribution shall be known as the state medical insurance fund stabilization contribution. The percentage to be contributed by the state shall be determined by the retirement system's actuary for each biennial budget period. The percentage to be contributed by the state may be suspended or adjusted by the General Assembly if in its judgment the welfare of the Commonwealth so demands.

(3) Each employer shall remit the required employer contributions to the retirement system under the terms and conditions specified for member contributions under KRS 161.560. The state shall provide annual appropriations based upon estimated funds needed to meet the requirements of KRS 161.55; 161.507(4); 161.515; 161.545; 161.553; 161.605; 161.612; and 161.620(1), (3), (5), (6), and (7). In the event an annual appropriation is less than the amount of these requirements, the state shall make up the deficit in the next biennial budget appropriation to the retirement system. Employer contributions to the retirement system are for the exclusive purpose of providing benefits to members and annuitants and these contributions shall be considered deferred compensation to the members.

161.553. Funding of past statutory benefit improvements — Schedules for appropriations — Cost of living increases.

(1) The cost of providing statutory benefit improvements for annuitants may be funded by annual appropriations from the state on an actuarial amortized basis over the lifetime of the annuitants. The schedules in subsections (1)(a), (1)(b), and (1)(c) of this section are the annual appropriations which shall be made by the state for benefit improvements approved in the respective fiscal years or bienniums prior to July 1, 2006:

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). In amending this section, 1990 House Bill 655, Acts Ch. 442, § 11, did not underline the year “1990” which was intended to be added after “July 1,” at the beginning of the section. Section 20 of Acts Ch. 442 provides, however, that “the provisions of this Act shall become effective July 1, 1990.”

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

after, each employer shall contribute an amount equal to the employer contribution provided under KRS 161.550.

161.556. Employer contributions for members employed by regional educational cooperatives.

Each regional educational cooperative referred to in KRS 161.220(4)(e) employing members of the Teachers' Retirement System shall have the employer contributions provided in the same manner as for members employed by local boards of education.

161.560. Deduction and forwarding of teachers' contributions — Picked-up employee contributions — Correction of omitted member contributions.

(1) Each agency employing members of the retirement system shall deduct from the compensation of each member for each payroll period subsequent to the date the individual became a member, the percentage of his compensation due under the rates prescribed in KRS 161.540. No later than fifteen (15) days following the end of each payroll period, the agency shall forward all amounts deducted to the Teachers’ Retirement System. The retirement system shall charge the employing agency interest at an annual rate not to exceed twelve percent (12%) for deductions not remitted within the specified fifteen (15) days. Payroll reports, contributions lists, and other data required by administrative regulation of the board of trustees shall be submitted. Employers shall submit an annual report, in compliance with requirements of the retirement system, of member contributions and periods employed to the retirement system no later than August 1 following the completion of each fiscal year. The retirement system may impose a penalty on the employer not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) when the employer does not meet the August 1 reporting date. The deductions shall be made notwithstanding the fact that the salary as a result may be less than the minimum compensation provided by law. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions, and the deductions shall be considered as having been paid to the member. After August 1, 1982, member contributions shall be picked up by the agency pursuant to KRS 161.540(2).

(2) If an employer fails to deduct the correct retirement contribution from a member’s compensation, the member may make the contribution that should have been deducted by the employer and receive retirement credit for the payment. For correction of omitted member contributions that occur more than one (1) year after the year in which the error was made, the employer shall be 161.565 Reduction and pick-up of contributions by university faculty members.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of KRS Chapter 161, the contribution of university faculty members may be reduced by amounts up to two and two hundred fifteen thousandths percent (2.215%) if amounts sufficient to replace the reduction are authorized and contributed to the Teachers' Retirement System by the boards of regents of the employing university. After August 1, 1982, any contribution by a university faculty member shall be picked up by the employing university pursuant to KRS 161.540(2).

Opinions of Attorney General. ROTC teachers who hold regular teacher's certification are eligible for membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and their employing school district is required to deduct from their salary the membership dues as provided by this section. OAG 74-357. KRS 161.540(2) and this section, which are clear and unequivocal on their face, require an interpretation which would foreclose any direct payment by a local board of education to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System (KTRS) of a portion of the employee's contributions to the retirement system; however, these sections would not exclude any arrangement whereby a local board of education would reimburse its employees for a portion of the employee's contributions into the retirement system after the payroll deductions have already been made and credited to the KTRS. OAG 81-373.

161.566 Authorization for optional retirement plan for designated employees of certain public universities.

(1) An optional retirement plan is hereby authorized for designated employees of public postsecondary education institutions who are also eligible for membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System under KRS 161.220(4)(b) and 161.470(1). The purpose of the optional retirement plan shall be to provide suitable retirement and death benefits, while affording the maximum portability of these benefits to the eligible employees as an alternative to membership in the retirement system. Benefits shall be provided by the purchase of annuity contracts, fixed or variable in nature, or a combination thereof, at the option of the participant. The specific provisions of annuity contracts with respect to the benefits payable to members and their beneficiaries shall prevail over specific provisions relating to the same subjects found in KRS 161.220 to 161.716, other than this section.

(2) The boards of regents of those institutions identified in KRS 161.220(4)(b) shall select no less than two (2) but no more than three (3) companies from which to purchase contracts under the optional retirement plan. As criteria for this selection, the boards of regents shall consider, among other things, the following:

(a) The portability of the contracts offered or to be offered by a company, based on the number of states in which the company provides contracts under similar plans;

(b) The efficacy of the contracts in the recruitment and retention of employees for the various state public postsecondary education institutions;

(c) The nature and extent of the rights and benefits to be provided by the contracts for participating employees and their beneficiaries;

(d) The relation of the rights and benefits to the amount of contributions required;

(e) The suitability of the rights and benefits to the needs and interests of eligible employees and the various state public postsecondary education institutions; and

(f) The ability of the designated companies to provide the rights and benefits under those contracts.

161.568 Eligibility to participate in optional retirement plan.

(1) Eligibility to participate in the optional retirement plan shall be determined by the board of regents of each of the state public postsecondary education institutions identified in KRS 161.220(4)(b). The employees of these institutions of higher education who are initially employed on or after the implementation date of the optional retirement plan may make an election to participate in the optional retirement plan within thirty (30) days after their employment date. This election shall be irrevocable except as otherwise provided in this subsection. No member of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System who terminates employment and is subsequently reemployed by the same or another public postsecondary education institution which participates in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may be eligible to elect to participate in the optional retirement plan unless the date of reemployment is at least six (6) months after the date of termination. Any person who previously elected to participate in the optional retirement plan may irrevocably elect one (1) time during his or her lifetime to change his or her election and to prospectively participate in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. This election to change from the optional retirement plan to Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall be effective beginning on the first day of the first month immediately following the date that written application for the election is received in the retirement system's office on forms prescribed by the system. These elections shall be made in writing and filed with the appropriate officer of the employer institution.

(2) Elections of eligible employees hired on or after the implementation date of the optional retirement plan at their employer institution shall be effective on the date of their employment. If an eligible employee hired subsequent to the implementation date at the employer institution fails to make the election provided for in this section, he shall become a member of the regular retirement plan of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

161.569. Effect of election to participate — Payment of benefits — Taxation and attachment of benefits — Employer and employee contributions.

(1) Any person electing to participate in the optional retirement plan shall be ineligible for membership in the regular retirement plan of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System for as long as he is employed in a position for which the optional retirement plan is available, except as provided in KRS 161.568(1).

(2) Any person electing to participate in the optional retirement plan shall acknowledge in writing that the benefits payable to participants are not the obligation of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, and that these benefits and other rights of the optional retirement plan are the liability and responsibility solely of the designated companies to which contributions have been made.

(3) Benefits shall be payable to optional retirement plan participants or their beneficiaries by the designated companies in accordance with the contracts issued by each company and the retirement plan provisions adopted by each public institution.

(4) Annuity contracts issued under the optional retirement plan and all rights of a participant in the optional retirement plan shall be exempt from any state, local, or municipal tax; assessment for the insolvency of any life, health, or casualty insurance company; any levy or sale, garnishment, or attachment; or any process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as otherwise specifically provided by the contracts offered under the optional retirement plan adopted by the respective public institutions of higher education. Except contracts issued and rights accrued in the optional retirement plan on or after January 1, 1998, shall be subject to the tax imposed by KRS 141.020, to the extent provided in KRS 141.010 and 141.0215.

(5) (a) Each institution shall contribute on behalf of each participant in its optional retirement program the following:

1. To the designated company or companies, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System if the member had elected to participate in that plan instead of the optional retirement plan, less the amount contributed to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System pursuant to subparagraph 2. of this paragraph; and

2. To the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, an amount equal to the contribution which would have been payable to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System on account of the unfunded liability if the member had elected to participate in that plan instead of the optional retirement plan. The rate of contribution shall be determined annually by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System actuary. This payment shall continue to be made on behalf of all participants in the optional retirement plan until July 1, 2018, the current amortization period of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(b) Each participant shall contribute an amount equal to the present member contribution to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. Employee contributions to the optional retirement plan shall be made by salary reduction under either Section 403(b) or 414(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

161.570. Reports by employing agency. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (4506b-38) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 23.

161.580. Individual accounts to be kept — Other data — Summary plan description — Publication — Recipients.

(1) The board of trustees shall provide for the maintenance of an individual account for each member showing the amount of the member’s contribution and interest accumulations. Such individual accounts shall be identified in the records of the system by name, date of birth, and Social Security number. It shall collect and keep in convenient form such data as is necessary for the preparation of the required mortality and service tables and for the compilation of such other information as is required for the actuarial valuation of the assets.
161.585. Account of member, and medical records on file, confidential.
(1) Each member’s account shall be administered in a confidential manner and specific data regarding a member shall not be released for publication unless authorized by the member; however, the board of trustees may release member account information to the employer or to other state and federal agencies as it deems necessary.

(2) Medical records which are included in a member’s file maintained by the Teachers’ Retirement System are confidential and shall not be released unless authorized by the member in writing or as otherwise provided by law.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

161.590. Service credit at retirement.
(1) At retirement the total service credited to a teacher shall consist of prior and subsequent service rendered by him for which service credit has been allowed.

(2) Kentucky service, presented at the time of retirement, may not be used in calculating benefits under KRS 161.525, 161.620, or 161.661, if such service has been used to increase benefits in another retirement system, not including Old Age and Survivors Insurance Benefits under the Social Security Administration.

(3) No service credit shall be added to a member’s account after the effective date of retirement for service.

161.595. Service credit.
(1) Upon service retirement, a member of the Teachers’ Retirement System may obtain credit for all or any part of the service otherwise creditable under the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, the County Employees Retirement System, or in the service of the United States government for which service credit is not otherwise given, upon the payment by the member of the full actuarial cost of the service credit purchased as defined in KRS 161.525, 161.620, or 161.661.
161.220(22). Such payments shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 161.540(2).

(2) The amount paid under this section shall be considered as accumulated contributions of the individual member.

(3) No person shall be allowed credit for the same period of service in more than one (1) of these three (3) retirement systems.

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 338-342.

161.597. Installment payments for purchase of service credit by active contributing members.

(1) A member in active contributing status may purchase any service credit which the member is authorized to purchase by making installment payments in lieu of a lump-sum payment.

(2) To initiate an installment payment plan, a member shall make a written request to the retirement system for an estimate to purchase service credit by making installment payments.

(3) To qualify for installment payments, the total cost of the service purchase, including any chargeable interest, shall exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(4) Installment payments shall be at least fifty dollars ($50) per month and shall be made for a period of time which is not less than twelve (12) months nor more than sixty (60) months. Interest at eight percent (8%) per annum, unless the board specifies in an administrative regulation a different interest rate, shall be charged on all installment payment purchases of service credit that are purchasable at less than full actuarial cost.

(5) Installment payments shall be made on a monthly basis by payroll deduction or electronic fund transfer and forwarded separately to the Teachers’ Retirement System on forms or by computer format not later than fifteen (15) days following the end of each month. The payments shall be considered accumulated contributions and shall not be picked up as provided in KRS 161.560, except that subject to approval by the Internal Revenue Service and as permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, installment payments by payroll deduction shall be made on a tax-deferred basis.

(6) A member may elect to terminate payroll deductions at any time and purchase the remaining service credit by lump-sum payment. A member on a leave of absence may make personal installment payments. Termination of employment in a covered position shall terminate installment payments. If the member is later employed by a different employer in a covered position, the member may request a new estimate and reinstate installment payments. A member that misses two (2) consecutive installment payments shall be in default. A member in default shall receive service credit on a pro rata basis for the total amount of contributions made by installment payments. A member in default may not reinstate installment payments for twelve (12) months from the date the member was in default.

(7) If a member dies before completing scheduled installment payments, the named beneficiary of the member’s retirement account may pay the remaining balance due by a lump-sum payment within thirty (30) days of the death of the member.

Opinions of Attorney General. The payment for the purchase of service credits under the statute is not required to be only by lump sum payment; thus, members may pay for such service credits in installment payments pursuant to this section. OAG 99-7.

161.600. Retirement conditions.

(1) Effective July 1, 1988, a member of the retirement system may qualify for service retirement by meeting one (1) of the following requirements:

(a) Attainment of age sixty (60) years and completion of five (5) years of Kentucky service;

(b) Attainment of age fifty-five (55) years and completion of a minimum of five (5) years of Kentucky service with an actuarial reduction of the basic allowance of five percent (5%) for each year the member’s age is less than sixty (60) years or for each year the member’s years of Kentucky service credit is less than twenty-seven (27), whichever is the lesser number;

(c) Completion of twenty-seven (27) years of Kentucky service. Out-of-state service earned in accordance with the provisions of KRS 161.515(2) may be used to meet this requirement; or

(d) Completion of the necessary years of service under provisions of KRS 61.559(2)(c) if the member is retiring under the reciprocity provisions of KRS 61.680. A member retiring under this paragraph who has not attained age fifty-five (55) shall incur an actuarial reduction of the basic allowance determined by the system’s actuary for each year the member’s service credit is less than twenty-seven (27).

(2) Any person who has been a member in Kentucky for twenty-seven (27) years or more and who withdraws from covered employment may continue to pay into the fund each year until the end of the fiscal year in which he reaches the age of sixty-five (65) years, the current contribution rate based on the annual compensation received during the member’s last full year in covered employment, less any payment received for accrued sick leave or accrued leave from an employer. The member shall be entitled to receive a retirement allowance as provided in KRS 161.620 at any time after withdrawing from covered employment and payment of contributions under this subsection. No member shall make contributions as provided for in this subsection if the member is at the same time making contributions to another retirement system in Kentucky supported wholly or in part by public funds.

(3) Service credit in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System, the Legislators’ Retirement Plan, the County Employees Retirement System, or the Judicial Retirement System may be used in meeting the service requirements of subsection (1)(a), (b), and (c) of this section, provided the service is subsequent to July 1, 1956. Upon death, disability, or service retirement, a member’s accounts under all state supported retirement systems shall be consolidated, as provided by this section and by KRS 61.680, for the purpose of determining eligibility and amount of benefits, which shall include medical benefits. Upon determination of benefits, each system shall pay the applicable percentage of total benefits. The effective date of retirement under this subsection shall be determined by each retirement system for the portion of the payments that will be made.

(4) No retirement annuity shall be effective until written application and option election forms are filed with the retirement office in accordance with administrative regulations of the board of trustees.

(5) The surviving spouse of an active contributing member, if named as beneficiary of the member’s account, may purchase retirement credit that the member was eligible to purchase prior to the member’s death.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

This section was amended by three 1988 Acts, part of which conflict and cannot be compiled together. Pursuant to KRS 446.250, the later enactment prevails.

Cross-References. Application for retirement, 102 KAR 1:070.

Opinions of Attorney General. That portion of a regulation that fixes the effective date of all applications for service retirement as of July 1 of the fiscal year succeeding the fiscal year in which the application was filed, is valid as an explanation and elaboration of the phrase “end of the current fiscal year” as used in this section, but so much of the regulation as authorizes the executive secretary to make exceptions is invalid. OAG 60-792.

There is no vested right in a pension system until the participant has become an actual beneficiary, and consequently, the General Assembly may change teachers’ retirement benefits except where the benefits have become vested through the member’s having met the conditions and having become an actual beneficiary; so that a teacher who retires after the effective date of the 1968 amendment to subsection (1) of this section with fewer than five years of Kentucky service will not be entitled to a pension but in lieu thereof will receive a refund of his accumulated employee contributions. OAG 68-316.

A teacher who taught in Kentucky prior to 1941 would fulfill the condition of subsection (2) of this section when her Kentucky service, either prior or subsequent, totaled five years, and when she reached the age of 70. She would of course have to teach subsequently to 1941 in order to receive credit for her prior service under KRS 161.510 (now repealed); however, she would not have to have five (5) years of subsequent service. OAG 70-822.

The mandatory retirement age for teachers is set at 70 by this section and this may not be changed by a regulation of the board of education. OAG 72-363.

There is no age limit requiring retirement of substitute teachers. OAG 73-847.

Seventy is the mandatory retirement age, but a teacher between ages 65 and 70 is on a limited contract and does not have a right to work until age 70 if the school board decides prior to May 15 any year after age 65 not to rehire. OAG 74-454.

Upon reaching the age of 65 a school administrator no longer has a continuing service contract but may be employed on a limited contract from year to year until reaching the age of 70, the mandatory retirement age provided by this section. OAG 75-2.

An individual may serve as a superintendent under contract pursuant to KRS 160.350 until the end of the school year in which the age of 70 is reached. OAG 79-213.

Generally, in order to qualify for retirement, a member of the retirement system must have completed 27 years of service, notwithstanding accumulation of sick leave. OAG 91-219.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a “present” service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Compulsory Retirement.

A regulation requiring compulsory retirement of teachers at age 65 does not conflict with this section since a teacher’s employment between age 65 and age 70, the statutory age for compulsory retirement, is discretionary with the board of education under KRS 161.720. Belcher v. Gish, 555 S.W.2d 264 (Ky. 1977).
161.603. Resumption of teaching by retired member — Waiver of annuity payments.

(1) Any member retired by reason of service may waive his annuity and return to full-time employment in a position covered by the Teachers' Retirement System. The member shall receive no annuity payments while employed in a covered position, shall waive his or her medical insurance coverage with the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System during the period of reemployment, and shall receive the medical insurance coverage that is generally offered by the member's active employer to the other members of the retirement system employed by the active employer. The member's estate or, if there is a beneficiary optionally designated by the member, then the beneficiary, shall continue to be eligible for life insurance benefits as provided in KRS 161.655. Service subsequent to retirement shall not be used to improve an annuity, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) Any member who waives regular annuity benefits and returns to teaching or covered employment shall be entitled to make contributions on the salaries received for this service and have their retirement annuity recalculated as provided in the regular retirement formula in KRS 161.620(1) less any applicable actuarial discount applied to the original retirement allowance due to the election of a joint and last survivor option. Retirement option and beneficiary designation on original retirement shall not be altered by post-retirement employment nor shall dependents and spouses of the members become eligible for benefits under KRS 161.655. Service subsequent to retirement shall not be used to improve an annuity, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(3) When a member returns to full-time teaching or covered employment as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the employer is required to withhold and remit regular retirement contributions. The member must be employed full-time for at least one (1) consecutive contract year to be eligible to improve an annuity. The member will be returned to the annuity rolls on July 1 following completion of the contract year or on the first day of the month following the month of termination of service if full-time employment exceeds one (1) consecutive contract year. Any discounts applied at the time of the original retirement due to service or age may be reduced or eliminated due to additional employment if full-time employment is for one (1) contract consecutive year or longer.

(4) A member retired by reason of service who has been employed the equivalent of twenty-five (25) days or more during a school year under the provisions of KRS 161.605 may waive the member's retirement annuity and return to regular employment covered by the Teachers' Retirement System during that school year a maximum of one (1) time during any five (5) year period, beginning with that school year.

161.605. Resumption of employment by retired member — Continuation of retirement allowance — Nonteaching employment.

Any member retired by reason of service may return to work in a position covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and continue to receive his or her retirement allowance under the following conditions:

(1) Any member who is retired with thirty (30) or more years of service may return to work in a full-time or a part-time position covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and earn up to a maximum of seventy-five percent (75%) of the member’s last annual compensation measured on a daily rate to be determined by the board of trustees. For purposes of determining whether the salary of a member returning to work is seventy-five percent (75%) or less of the member’s last annual compensation, all remuneration paid and benefits provided to the member, on an actual dollar or fair market value basis as determined by the retirement system, shall be considered. Members who were retired on or before June 30, 2002, shall be entitled to return to work under the provisions of this section as if they had retired with thirty (30) years of service. Service credit purchased under the provisions of KRS 161.5465 may not be used to meet the thirty (30) year requirement set forth in this subsection.

(2) Any member who is retired with less than thirty (30) years of service after June 30, 2002, may return to work in a full-time or part-time position covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and earn up to a maximum of sixty-five percent (65%) of the member’s last annual compensation measured on a daily rate to be determined by the board of trustees. For purposes of determining whether the salary of a member returning to work is sixty-five percent (65%) or less of the member’s last annual compensation, all remuneration paid and benefits provided to the member, on an actual dollar or fair market value basis as determined by the retirement system, shall be considered.

(3) Reemployment of a retired member under subsection (1) or (2) of this section in a full-time teaching or nonteaching position in a local school district shall be permitted only if the employer certifies to the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System that there are no other qualified applicants available to fill the teaching or nonteaching position. The employer may use any source considered reliable including but not limited to data provided by the Education Professional Standards Board and the Department of Education to determine whether other qualified applicants are available to fill the teaching or nonteaching position. The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures to determine whether other qualified applicants are available to fill a teaching or nonteaching position and, if not, for filling the position with a retired member who will then be permitted to return to work in that position under subsection (1) or (2) of this section. The administrative regulations shall assure that a retired member shall not be hired in a teaching or nonteaching position by a local school district until the superintendent of the school district assures the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System that every reasonable effort has been made to recruit other qualified applicants for the position on an annual basis.

(4) Under this section, an employer may employ full-time a number of retired members not to exceed three percent (3%) of the membership actively employed full-time by that employer. The board of trustees may reduce this three percent (3%) cap upon recommendation of the retirement system’s actuary if a reduction is necessary to maintain the actuarial soundness of the retirement system. The board of trustees may increase the three percent (3%) cap upon a determination that an increase is warranted to help address a shortage in the number of available teachers and upon the determination of the retirement system’s actuary that the proposed cap increase allows the actuarial soundness of the retirement system to be maintained.
For purposes of this subsection, “full-time” means the same as defined by KRS 161.220(21). A local school district may exceed the quota established by this subsection by making an annual written request to the Kentucky Department of Education which the department may approve on a year-by-year basis if the statewide quota has not been met.
A district’s written request to exceed its quota shall be submitted no sooner than two (2) weeks after the start of the school year.

(5) A member returning to work in a full-time or part-time position under subsection (1) or (2) of this section will contribute to an account with the retirement system that will be administered independently from and with no reciprocal impact with the member’s original retirement account. A member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall make contributions to the retirement system at the rate provided under KRS 161.540. The second account shall independently meet the five (5) year vesting requirement as well as all other conditions set forth in KRS 161.600(1) before any retirement allowance is payable from this account. The retirement allowance accruing under this second account shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 161.620(1)(b). This second account shall not entitle the member to a duplication of the benefits offered under KRS 161.655, 161.620(7), or 161.675, nor shall this second account provide the benefits offered by KRS 161.520, 161.525, 161.661, or 161.663. A member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall waive his or her medical insurance with the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System during the period of reemployment and shall receive the medical insurance coverage that is generally provided by the mem-ber’s active employer to the other members of the retirement system that the active employer emloys. If medical insurance coverage is not available from the employer, the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System may provide coverage for the member. A member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not be eligible to purchase service credit for any service provided after the member’s effective date of retirement but prior to the date that the member returns to work.
A member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not be eligible to purchase service credit that the member would have otherwise been eligible to purchase prior to the member’s initial retirement. A member who returns to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, or in the event of the death of the member, the member’s estate or applicably designated beneficiary, shall be entitled, within ninety (90) days of the posting of the annual report submitted by the employer, to a refund of contributions as permitted and limited by KRS 161.470.

(6) The board of trustees may annually on July 1 adjust the current daily rate of a member’s last annual compensation, for each full twelve (12) month period that has elapsed subsequent to the member earning his or her last annual compensation, by the percentage increase in the annual average of the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the calendar year preceding the adjustment as published by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, not to exceed five percent (5%) annually. Each annual adjustment shall become part of the member’s daily rate base. Failure to comply with the salary limitations set forth in subsections (1) and (2) of this section as may be adjusted by this subsection shall result in a reduction of the member’s retirement allowance or any other benefit to which the member would otherwise be entitled on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each dollar that the member exceeds these salary limitations.

(7) (a) A retired member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall have
(c) Failure to comply with the separation-from-service requirements in this subsection voids a member's separation from service for a period of at least one (1) year if returning to work for the same employer on a full-time basis, and at least three (3) months if returning to work for a different employer on a full-time basis. A retired member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section on a part-time basis shall have separated from service for a period of at least three (3) months before returning to work for any employer.

(b) As an alternative to the separation-from-service requirements in paragraph (a) of this subsection, a retired member who is returning to work for the same employer in a full-time position under subsections (1) and (2) of this section may elect a separation-from-service of not less than two (2) months followed by a forfeiture of the retired member's retirement allowance on a month-to-month basis for each month that the member has separated from service for less than twelve (12) full months. A retired member returning to work for the same employer in a part-time position, or for a different employer in a full-time position, may elect an alternative separation-from-service requirement of at least two (2) months followed by a forfeiture of the member's retirement allowance for one (1) month. During the period that the member forfeits his or her retirement allowance and thereafter, member and employer contributions shall be made to the retirement system as a result of employment in any position subject to membership in the retirement system. The member shall contribute to an account with the retirement system subject to the conditions set forth in subsection (5) of this section. For purposes of measuring the separation-from-service requirements set forth throughout this section, a member's separation-from-service begins on the first day following the last day of paid employment for the member prior to retirement.

(8) (a) Effective July 1, 2004, local school districts may employ retired members in full-time or part-time teaching or administrative positions without limitation on the compensation of the retired members that is otherwise required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section. Under provisions of this subsection, a local school district may only employ retired members to fill critical shortage positions for which there are no other qualified applicants as determined by the local superintendent. The number of retired members that a local school district may employ under this subsection shall be no more than two (2) members per local school district or one percent (1%) of the total active members employed by the local school district on a full-time basis as defined under KRS 161.220(21), whichever number is greater. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall be subject to the separation-from-service requirements set forth in subsection (7) of this section. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall waive their medical insurance coverage with the retirement system during their period of reemployment and receive medical insurance coverage that is offered to other full-time members employed by the local school district. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall contribute to an account subject to the conditions set forth in subsection (5) of this section. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall make contributions to the retirement system at the rate provided under KRS 161.540. The employer shall make contributions at the rate provided under KRS 161.550. Local school districts shall make annual payments to the retirement system on the compensation paid to the reemployed retirees at the rates determined by the retirement system's actuary that reflect any accrued liability resulting from the reemployment of these members.

(b) The Department of Education may employ retired members in full-time or part-time teaching positions without the limitations on compensation otherwise required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section to fill critical shortage areas in the schools it operates, including the Kentucky School for the Blind, the Kentucky School for the Deaf, and the Kentucky Virtual High School. The department shall be subject to the same requirements as local school districts as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(9) Members who retired on or before June 30, 2002, may, for the fiscal year concluding on June 30, 2007, be reemployed under the one hundred (100) day provisions of this section as they existed on June 30, 2002, except that members returning to work under those provisions shall make contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System at the rates specified under KRS 161.540 and members' employers shall make contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System at the rates specified under KRS 161.550. Those members returning to work under the one hundred (100) day provisions of this section as they existed on June 30, 2002, shall further waive their medical insurance coverage with the retirement system during the period of reemployment and will instead receive the medical insurance coverage generally provided by their active employer to other members of the retirement system that the active employer employs. If medical insurance coverage is not available from the employer, the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may provide cover-

The return to work limitations set forth in this section and KRS 161.603 shall apply to retired members who are returning to work in the same position from which they retired, or a position substantially similar to the one from which they retired, or any position listed in KRS 161.220(4) which requires membership in the retirement system. Positions which generally require certification or graduation from a four (4) year college or university as a condition of employment which are created, or changed to remove the position from coverage under KRS 161.220(4) are also subject to the return to work limitations set forth in this section and KRS 161.603. The board of trustees shall determine whether employment in a non-teaching position is subject to this subsection.

161.220(4)(b) or (n), not to exceed the equivalent of twelve (12) teaching hours in any one (1) fiscal year. Retired members may be employed for a period not to exceed the equivalent of one hundred (100) days in any one (1) fiscal year in a part-time administrative or nonteaching capacity by an agency described in KRS 161.220(4) or (n) in a position that would otherwise be covered by the retirement system.

The return to work provisions set forth in subsections (1) to (9) of this section shall not apply to retired members who return to work solely for an agency described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n). Calculation of the number of days and teaching hours for part-time teaching, substitute teaching, or part-time employment in a nonteaching capacity under this section shall not exceed the ratio between a school year and the actual months of retirement for the member during that school year. The board of trustees by administrative regulation may establish fractional equivalents of a day of teaching service. Any member who exceeds the twelve (12) hour or one hundred (100) day limitations of this subsection shall be subject to having his or her retirement voided and be required to return all retirement allowances and other benefits paid to the member or on the member’s behalf since the effective date of retirement. In lieu of voiding a member’s retirement, the system may reduce the member's retirement allowance or any other benefit to which the member would otherwise be entitled on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each dollar of compensation that the member earns in employment exceeding twelve (12) hours, one hundred (100) days, or any apportionment of the two (2) combined.

When a retired member returns to employment in a part-time teaching capacity or in a nonteaching capacity as provided in subsection (12) of this section, the employer shall contribute annually to the retirement system on the compensation paid to the retired member at rates determined by the retirement system actuary that reflect accrued liability for retired members who return to work under subsection (12) of this section.

For retired members who return to work during any one (1) fiscal year in both a position described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n) and in a position described under another provision under KRS 161.220(n), and for retired members who return to work in a position described under KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n) in both a teaching and an administrative or nonteaching capacity, the board of trustees shall adopt a methodology for a pro rata apportionment of days and hours that the retired member may work in each position.

Employment by retired members, 102 KAR 1:035.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/1/2004). In subsection (13) of this statute, two references to “subsection (11) of this section” have been changed to read “subsection (12) of this section.” When the statute was amended in 2004 Ky. Acts ch. 121, sec. 16, the subsections were renumbered, but the references to subsection (11) were not changed to conform. The Revisor of Statutes has made the conforming change under authority of KRS 7.136.

(7/12/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

There is no age limit requiring retirement of substitute teachers. OAG 73-847.
161.607. Employment in position covered by other Kentucky retirement system.

(1) Any member of the Teachers’ Retirement System who enters employment covered by the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System, or the County Employees Retirement System, prior to July 1, 1976, may retain membership in the Teachers’ Retirement System instead of joining the new system.

(2) Retention of membership in the Teachers’ Retirement System by any member of the General Assembly who upon election is a contributing member of the Teachers’ Retirement System shall be effected by conforming with KRS 61.680(4)(c). Members of the General Assembly who retain membership shall make retirement contributions based upon their annual compensation as defined under KRS 161.220 or on their creditable compensation as defined under KRS 61.510, whichever is the larger amount. Service as a member of the General Assembly may be used to meet the service requirements of KRS 61.680(2)(a) regardless of the system to which contributions are made by the member.

(3) Any member of the Teachers’ Retirement System entering employment as described in subsection (1) of this section must exercise the option within ninety (90) days of the beginning of such employment.

(4) Persons who enter service covered by the Teachers’ Retirement System prior to July 1, 1976, and who hold membership in a Kentucky retirement system financed in whole or in part with public funds may retain membership in that system providing the statutes and regulations governing said system make continued membership possible.

(5) Any person who has elected an option provided in this section may cancel such election and gain the larger amount. Service as a member of the General Assembly may be used to meet the service requirements of KRS 61.680(2)(a) regardless of the system to which contributions are made by the member.

While the statutes do not specifically prohibit a subsequent change after an election has been made, neither do they give a covered employee the unqualified right to make such a change. However, in the absence of a specific provision prohibiting subsequent change after an election, and in view of the broad authorization for reciprocal arrangements, we believe the statutes would permit the various retirement systems to authorize a subsequent change, provided appropriate regulations are promulgated. OAG 69-501.

There is no statutory right for an employee who has made an election to remain in one of the three publicly financed Kentucky retirement systems to have his account frozen in that system and be treated as a new employee by the agency which has been employing him. Such procedure could not be permitted without appropriate reciprocal regulations by the retirement systems involved. OAG 69-501.

The term “employment covered by the Kentucky employees retirement system” in this section embraces the term “service” as defined in KRS 61.510(9) and as referred to in KRS 61.595 so that an employee of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture for the three years immediately preceding July 1, 1956, when there was no Kentucky Employees Retirement System in existence, would still be entitled to purchase credit in the Teachers’ Retirement System for the three years in question pursuant to the option contained in this section. OAG 73-749.

Any employee of the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television currently a member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System who, because of KRS 161.220(4), may be qualified to participate in the teachers’ retirement system has the option of joining the teachers’ retirement system as provided by subsection (3) (now subsection (4)) of this section or retaining membership in Kentucky Employees Retirement System as provided by KRS 61.680. OAG 74-749.

In the present situation, the language of subsection (5) of this section and KRS 61.680(4)(b) is clear and unambiguous, and while these statutes provide that an employee may retain Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System membership upon transfer to another agency covered by other government retirement systems, and that such an employee may cancel his election to retain KTRS membership, it specifically provides that any cancellation of option election must be made prior to January 1, 1977. OAG 78-744.

161.608. Computation of benefits of member who has an account with another state system.

The provisions of KRS 61.680 are hereby recognized and shall be followed in computing benefits of any member of the Teachers’ Retirement System who also has an account with the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, or State Police Retirement System.

Opinions of Attorney General. Persons who are covered by any one of the three publicly financed Kentucky retirement systems can maintain their coverage in the system of their choice provided they are qualified when they change jobs.
161.610. Withdrawal after thirty years — Benefit rights — Options. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4506b-42: amend. Acts 1950, ch. 194; 1962, ch. 64, § 13) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 23.

161.611. Supplemental retirement benefit plan — Purpose — Administration — Eligibility — Payments.

1. The board of trustees is authorized to provide a supplemental retirement benefit plan for the sole purpose of enabling the employer to apply the same formula for determining benefits payable to all members of the retirement system employed by the employer, whose benefits under the retirement system are limited by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time. This plan is intended to constitute a qualified governmental excess benefit plan as described in Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. The board of trustees shall administer this plan and have full discretionary fiduciary authority to determine all questions in connection with the plan. The board of trustees may adopt procedural rules and administrative regulations and may employ and rely on any legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, and agents as it deems advisable to assist in the administration of this plan.

3. All members and retired former members in the retirement system shall be eligible to participate in this plan whenever their benefits under the retirement system would exceed the limitation on benefits imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

4. On or after the effective date of this plan, the employer shall pay to each eligible member in the retirement system who retires on or after that date and to each former member who retired before that date and his or her beneficiaries a supplemental pension benefit, equal to the amount by which the benefit that would have been payable under the retirement system, without regard to any provision therein incorporating the limitation on benefits imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, exceeds the benefit actually payable, taking into account the limitation imposed on the retirement system by Section 415 of the code. These supplemental pension benefits shall be computed and payable under the same terms and conditions and to the same person as the benefits payable to, or on account of, an eligible member under the retirement system.

5. Benefits payable under this plan shall not be subject to the dollar limit applicable to eligible deferred compensation plans under Section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code, nor to the “substantial risk or forfeiture” rules of Section 457(f) of the code applicable to ineligible deferred compensation plans. In addition, benefits payable under this plan shall not be taken into account in determining whether any other plan of the employer is an eligible deferred compensation plan under Section 457 of the code.

6. Funding of benefits payable under this plan shall be provided by the state, as employer, and shall be segregated from funds that are maintained by the retirement system for payment of the regular benefits provided by the retirement system. The employer may establish a grantor trust for payment of benefits provided under this plan, with the employer treated as “grantor” thereof for purposes of Section 677 of the Internal Revenue Code. The rights of any person to receive benefits under this plan are limited to those of a general creditor of the employer.

Compiler’s Notes. Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, referred to in subsections (1), (3) and (4), is codified as 26 U.S.C. § 415.

161.612. Membership of individuals providing part-time and substitute services — Service credit — Participation in benefits.

Effective July 1, 2002, any individual occupying a position on a part-time basis that requires certification or graduation from a four (4) year college or university as a condition of employment and any individual providing part-time or substitute teaching services that are the same or similar to those teaching services provided by certified, full-time teachers shall be a member of the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System, according to the conditions set forth in this section, if the individual is employed by one (1) of the public boards, institutions, or agencies set forth in KRS 161.220, excluding those public boards, institutions, and agencies described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) and (n). Members providing part-time and substitute services shall participate in the retirement system as follows:

1. Members providing part-time and substitute services shall accrue service credit as provided under KRS 161.500 and be entitled to a retirement allowance upon meeting the service retirement conditions of KRS 161.600. The board of trustees shall adopt a methodology for crediting service credit to these members on a pro rata basis. The methodology adopted by the board of trustees may be amended as necessary to ensure its actuarial soundness. The retirement allowance for members providing part-time and substitute services shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 161.620. Members providing part-time and substitute services who meet the service retirement conditions of KRS...
161.600 may also be eligible to participate as approved by the board of trustees in the medical insurance program provided by the retirement system under KRS 161.675. Members providing part-time and substitute services shall make contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System at the rate provided under KRS 161.540. A member who provides part-time or substitute services, or in the event of the death of the member, the member's estate or applicable designated beneficiary, will be entitled, within ninety (90) days of the posting of the annual report submitted by the member's employer, to a refund of contributions as permitted and limited by KRS 161.470.

(2) The board of trustees shall adopt eligibility conditions under which members providing part-time and substitute services may participate in the benefits provided under KRS 161.520, 161.655, 161.661, and 161.663. The board of trustees may adopt eligibility conditions under which members providing part-time or substitute services may participate in other benefits offered by the retirement system. All eligibility conditions adopted by the board of trustees pursuant to this subsection may be amended as necessary to ensure their actuarial soundness.

(3) In addition to the pro rata methodology adopted by the board of trustees under subsection (1) of this section, members providing part-time and substitute services shall be subject to all limitations and conditions regarding the accrual, retention, accreditation, and use of service credit that apply to members providing full-time services. In addition to the eligibility conditions set forth by the board of trustees under subsection (2) of this section, members providing part-time and substitute services shall be subject to all limitations and conditions regarding both the eligibility to participate and the extent of participation in any benefit offered under KRS 161.220 to 161.716 that apply to members providing full-time services.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section to the contrary, instructional assistants who provide teaching services in the local school districts on a full-time basis in positions covered by the County Employees Retirement System who are used as substitute teachers on an emergency basis for five (5) days or less during any one (1) fiscal year shall not be considered members of the Teachers' Retirement System during that period in which they are serving as substitute teachers or in the event of the death of the member, the member's estate or applicably designated beneficiary.

(5) The board of trustees may adopt a pro rata methodology to determine the annual compensation of members providing part-time and substitute services in order to determine benefits provided under KRS 161.661 and 161.663. Members providing part-time and substitute services who had retirement contributions posted to their accounts during the previous fiscal year and who have not had those contributions refunded to them are eligible to vote for the board of trustees.

(6) The board of trustees of the Teachers' Retirement System shall be responsible for final determination of membership eligibility and may direct employers to take whatever action that may be necessary to correct any error relating to membership.

(7) The provisions of this section are not subject to KRS 161.714.

(Enact. Acts 2002, ch. 275, § 1, effective July 1, 2002; 2004, ch. 121, § 17, effective July 1, 2004.)

161.614. Court-ordered back salary and reinstatement.

A court order awarding additional back salary to or reinstating a member as a result of employment in a position covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall entitle the member to additional salary or service credit, or both, under the following circumstances:

(1) Members shall make contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System at the rate set forth in KRS 161.540 and members' employers shall make contributions at the rate set forth in KRS 161.550, with interest accruing on all contributions at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum from the end of each fiscal year that back salary or the reinstatement was ordered. Contributions, plus interest, shall be made for each year that back salary or reinstatement was ordered. No service or salary credit shall be credited to a member's account unless full contributions are paid to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(2) The member may have court-ordered back salary credited to his or her account only to the extent that the member actually received payment for the back salary and only to the extent that the court-ordered back salary is within the salary scale that was available to the member in the covered position for the years that the back salary was awarded. Court-ordered back salary can be credited to the member's account only as permitted under KRS 161.220(9) and (10). The member may have court-ordered service credited to his or her account only after the retirement system has received the contributions and interest on the full compensation that would normally be earned in the position that is the subject of the litigation.

(3) The member's employer ordered to pay back salary or to reinstate the member by a court of competent jurisdiction shall provide the retirement system with a breakdown of the back salary awarded to the member on a year-by-year basis.

(4) The calculations of the contributions and interest required to be paid for court-ordered back salary or reinstatement shall be provided by the retirement system to the member or the member's employer at the member’s or employer’s request. Requests for these calculations shall be made with at least two (2) weeks of advance notice to the retirement system to provide these calculations. The retirement system will calculate accrued interest as of the last day of the month during which payment of the full contributions are made.

(5) For purposes of this section, a settlement agreement that provides back salary or reinstatement, and is adopted by order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or is referenced in an order...
The retirement allowance, in the form of a life annuity with refundable balance, of a member retiring for service shall be calculated as follows:

(a) For retirements effective July 1, 1998, and thereafter, except as otherwise provided by this section, the annual allowance for each year of service shall be two percent (2%) of the final average salary for service performed prior to July 1, 1983, and two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the final average salary for service performed after July 1, 1983, for all members not employed by a state college or university. The annual retirement allowance for each year of service performed by members of the Teachers' Retirement System who are members under the provisions of KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n) shall be two percent (2%) of the final average salary. Actuarial discounts due to age or service credit at retirement may be applied as provided in this section.

(b) For individuals who become members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2002, except those persons who become members under KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n), and who upon retirement have earned less than ten (10) full years of service credit, the retirement allowance shall be two percent (2%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service. For individuals who become members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2002, except those persons who become members under KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n), and who upon retirement have earned at least ten (10) full years of service credit, the annual allowance for each year of service shall be two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the member's final average salary.

(c) The board of trustees may approve for members who initially retire on or after July 1, 2004, except those persons who are members under KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n), a retirement allowance of three percent (3%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service credit earned in excess of thirty (30) years. This three percent (3%) factor shall be in lieu of the two and one-half percent (2.5%) factor provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection for every year or fraction of a year of service in excess of thirty (30) years. Upon approval of this three percent (3%) retirement factor, the board of trustees may establish conditions of eligibility regarding the type of service credit that will qualify for meeting the requirements of this subsection. This subsection is optional with the board of trustees and shall not be subject to KRS 161.714.

(d) The retirement allowance of a member at retirement, as measured on a life annuity, shall not exceed the member's last yearly salary or the member's final average salary, whichever is the greater amount. For purposes of this section, "yearly salary" means the compensation earned by a member during the most recent period of contributing service, either consecutive or nonconsecutive, preceding the member's effective retirement date and shall be subject to the provisions of KRS 161.220(9) and (10).

(2) Effective July 1, 2002, and annually on July 1 thereafter, the retirement allowance of each retired member and of each beneficiary of a retirement option shall be increased in the amount of one and one-half percent (1.5%), provided the retired member had been retired for at least the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective. In the event that the retired member had been retired for less than the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective, then the increase shall be reduced on a pro rata basis for each month that the retired member had not been retired for the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the effective date of the increase.

(3) Any member qualifying for retirement under a life annuity with refundable balance shall be entitled to receive an annual allowance amounting to not less than four hundred dollars ($400) effective July 1, 2002, and not less than four hundred forty dollars ($440) effective July 1, 2003, multiplied by the service credit years of the member. These minimums shall apply to the retired members receiving annuity payments and to those members retiring on or subsequent to the effective dates listed in this subsection.

(4) The minimum retirement allowance provided in this section shall apply in the case of members retired or retiring under an option other than a life annuity with refundable balance in the same proportion to the benefits of the member and his beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided in the duly adopted option tables at the time of the member’s retirement.

(5) Effective July 1, 2004, the monthly allowance of each retired member and each recipient of a retirement option of the retired member may be increased in an amount not to exceed eight-tenths of one percent (0.8%) of the monthly allowance in effect the previous month, provided the retired member had been retired for at least the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective. In the event that the retired member had been retired for less than the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective, then the increase shall be reduced on a pro rata basis for each month that the retired member had not been retired for the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the effective date of the increase. The level of increase provided for in this subsection shall be determined by the funding provided in the 2002-2004 biennium budget appropriation.

(6) Effective July 1, 2005, the monthly allowance of each retired member and each recipient of a retirement option of the retired member may be increased in an amount not to exceed seven-tenths of one percent (0.7%) of the monthly allowance in effect the previous month, provided the retired member had been retired for at least the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective. In the event that the retired member had been retired for less than the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective, then the increase shall be reduced on a pro rata basis by each month that the retired member had not been retired for the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the effective date of the increase. The level of increase provided for in this subsection shall be determined by the funding provided in the 2002-2004 biennium budget appropriation.

(7) Effective July 1, 1990, monthly payments of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be payable for the benefit of an adult child of a member retired for service when the child’s mental or physical condition is sufficient to cause dependency on the member at the time of retirement. Eligibility for this payment shall continue for the life of the child or until the time the mental or physical condition creating the dependency no longer exists or the child marries. Benefits under this subsection shall apply to legally adopted survivors provided the proceedings for the adoption were initiated at least one (1) year prior to the death of the member. The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency and may require formal application or information relating thereto.

(8) Members of the Teachers’ Retirement System shall be subject to the annuity income limitations imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Service Code.

(9) Compensation in excess of the limitations imposed by Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be used in determining a member’s retirement annuity. The limitation on compensation for eligible members shall not be less than the amount which was allowed to be taken into account by the retirement system in effect on July 1, 1993. For this purpose, an eligible member is an individual who was a member of the retirement system before the first plan year beginning after December 31, 1995.
161.623. Use of unused sick-leave days to determine service credit.

(1) Effective July 1, 1982, and thereafter, a district board of education or other employer of members of the Teachers' Retirement System may compensate, at the time of retirement for service, an active contributing member for unused sick-leave days in accordance with this section.

(2) Upon the member's application for service retirement, the employer shall certify the retiring member's unused accumulated sick-leave balance to the board of trustees of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. The member's sick-leave balance, expressed in days, shall be divided by one hundred eighty-five (185) days to determine the amount of service credit that may be considered for addition to the member's retirement account for the purpose of determining the retirement allowance under KRS 161.620. Such sick-leave credit shall not be used for the purpose of determining whether the member is eligible to receive a retirement allowance.

(3) The board shall compute the cost to the retirement system of the sick-leave credit for each retiring member and shall bill the last employer of the retiring member for such cost. The employer shall pay the cost of such service credit to the retirement system within fifteen (15) days after receiving notification of the cost from the board.

(4) Retiring members who receive service credit under this section shall not be eligible to receive compensation for accrued sick leave under KRS 161.155(9) or any other statutory provision.

(5) Employer participation is optional and the employer may opt to purchase less service credit than the member is eligible to receive provided the same percentage of reduction is made applicable to all retiring members of the employer during a school fiscal year.

(6) The board of trustees shall formulate and adopt necessary rules and regulations for the administration of the foregoing provisions.

(7) Payments to the retirement system for service credit obtained under this section or for compensation credit obtained under KRS 161.155(9) shall be based on the full actuarial cost as defined in KRS 161.220(22).

Opinions of Attorney General. While subsection (1) of this section provided a mandatory increase applicable to all teachers retired prior to July 1, 1964, the increase must be regarded as increasing the actuarial value and would not necessarily increase monthly payments in benefit options other than the straight life annuity. OAG 68-274.

Cited: Watkins v. Oldham, 731 S.W.2d 829 (Ky. Ct. App. 1987).
The retirement option chosen by a retiree at the time of service retirement shall remain in force unless the retiree elects to make a change under the following conditions:

(a) A divorce, annulment, or marriage dissolution following retirement shall, at the election of the retiree, cancel any optional plan selected at retirement that provides continuing benefits to a spousal beneficiary and return the retiree to a single lifetime benefit equivalent as determined by the board; or

(b) Following marriage or remarriage, or the death of the designated beneficiary, a retiree may elect a new optional plan of payment based on the actuarial equivalent of a single lifetime benefit at the time of the election, as determined by the board. The plan shall become effective the first of the month following receipt of an application on a form approved by the board.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a beneficiary designation shall not be changed after the effective date of retirement except for retirees who elect the life annuity with refundable balance option or the predetermined years certain and life thereafter option.

(4) A member who experiences a qualifying event within sixty (60) days of the qualifying event.

(1) In the case of death of a member who has retired by reason of service or disability, any portion of the member’s accumulated contributions, including member contributions to the state accumulation fund and regular interest to the date of retirement, that has not, and will not be paid as an allowance or benefit shall be paid to the member’s beneficiary in such manner as the board of trustees elects.

(2) The member may designate a primary beneficiary or two (2) or more contingent beneficiaries to receive any remaining accumulated member contributions payable under this section. A contingent beneficiary may be designated in addition to the primary beneficiary or the cobeneficiaries. The member may designate two (2) or more contingent beneficiaries. To the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, a trust may be designated as beneficiary for receipt of any remaining accumulated member contributions. Any beneficiary designation made by the member shall remain in effect until changed by the member on forms prescribed by the retirement system, except in the event of subsequent divorce. A final divorce decree shall terminate the beneficiary status of an ex-spouse unless, subsequent to divorce, the member redesignates the former spouse as a beneficiary. A final divorce decree shall not terminate the designation of a trust as beneficiary regardless of who is designated as beneficiary of the trust. In the event that the member fails to designate a beneficiary, any remaining accumulated member contributions shall be payable to the member’s estate.

161.655. Life insurance benefit.

(1) Effective July 1, 2000, the Teachers’ Retirement System shall:

(a) Provide a life insurance benefit in a minimum amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for its members who are retired for service or disability. This life insurance benefit shall be payable upon the death of a member retired for service or disability to the member’s estate or to a party designated by the member on a form prescribed by the retirement system; and

(b) Provide a life insurance benefit in a minimum amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for its active contributing members. This life insurance benefit shall be payable upon the death of an active contributing member to the member’s estate or to a party designated by the member on a form prescribed by the retirement system.

(2) The member may name one (1) primary and one (1) contingent beneficiary for receipt of the life insurance benefit. To the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, a trust may be designated as beneficiary for receipt of the life insurance benefit. Any beneficiary designation made by the member shall remain in effect until changed by the member on forms prescribed by the retirement system, except in the event of subsequent divorce. A final divorce decree shall terminate the beneficiary status of an ex-spouse, unless subsequent to divorce the member redesignates the former spouse as a beneficiary. A final divorce decree shall not terminate the designation of a trust as beneficiary regardless of who is designated as beneficiary of the trust.

(3) Application for payment of life insurance proceeds shall be made to the Teachers’ Retirement System together with acceptable evidence of death and eligibility. The reciprocal provisions of KRS 61.680(2)(a) shall not apply to the coverage and payment of proceeds by the life insurance benefit under this section.

(4) Suit or civil action shall not be required for the collection of the proceeds of the life insurance benefit provided for by this section, but nothing in this section shall prevent the maintenance of suit or civil action against the beneficiary or legal representative receiving the proceeds of the life insurance benefit.

161.660. Disability allowance. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4506b-44: amend. Acts 1946, ch. 111, § 5; 1950, ch. 79, § 1; 1958, ch. 7, § 3; 1962, ch. 64, § 18) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 23.

161.661. Disability retirement.

(1) Any member who has completed five (5) or more years of accredited service in the public schools of Kentucky after July 1, 1941, may retire for disability and be granted a disability allowance if found to be eligible as provided in this section. Application for disability benefits shall be made within one (1) year of the last contributing service in Kentucky, and the disability must have occurred during the most recent period of employment in a position covered by the Teachers’ Retirement System and subsequent to the completion of five (5) years of teaching service in Kentucky. A disability occurring during the regular vacation immediately following the last period of active service in Kentucky or during an official leave for which the member is entitled to make regular contributions to the retirement system, shall be considered as having occurred during a period of active service. The annual disability allowance shall be equal to sixty percent (60%) of the member’s final average salary. Members with twenty-seven (27) or more years of service credit are eligible for service retirement only.

(2) The provisions of KRS 161.520, 161.525, and subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section shall not apply to disability retirees whose benefits were calculated on the service retirement formula nor to survivors of these members.

(3) Members shall earn one (1) year of entitlement to disability retirement, at sixty percent (60%) of the member’s final average salary, for each four (4) years of service in a covered position, but any member meeting the service requirement for disability retirement shall be credited with no less than five (5) years of eligibility.

(4) A member retired by reason of disability shall continue to earn service credit at the rate of one (1) year for each year retired for disability. This service shall be credited to the member’s account at the expiration of entitlement as defined in subsection (3) of this section, or when the member’s eligibority for disability benefits is terminated upon recommendation of a medical review committee, and this service shall be used in calculating benefits as provided in subsection (5) of this section, but under no circumstances shall this service be used to provide the member with more than twenty-seven (27) years of total service credit. The service credit shall be valued at the same level as service earned by active members as provided under KRS 161.600 and 161.620.

(5) Any member retired by reason of disability and remaining disabled at the expiration of the entitlement period shall have his disability benefits recalculated using the service retirement formula with service credit as set out in subsection (4) of this section. The retirement allowance shall be calculated as set forth in KRS 161.620, except that those persons less than sixty (60) years of age shall be considered as sixty (60) years of age. Members having their disability benefits recalculated under this subsection shall not be entitled to a benefit based upon an average of their three (3) highest salaries as set forth in KRS 161.220(9), unless approved otherwise by the board of trustees.

(6) Members who have their disability retirement allowance recalculated at the expiration of the entitlement period shall continue to have coverage under the post-retirement medical insurance program. Restrictions on employment shall remain in effect until the member attains age seventy (70) or until the member’s eligibility is discontinued. KRS 161.520 and 161.525 shall not apply to survivors disability retirees whose retirement allowances have been recalculated at the expiration of the entitlement period. Members who have their disability retirement allowance recalculated at the expiration of their entitlement period shall be entitled to a minimum monthly allowance of five hundred dollars ($500) as the basic straight life annuity. The minimum allowance shall be effective July 1, 1992, and shall apply to those members who have had their allowance recalculated prior to that date and to disability retirees who will have their benefit allowance recalculated on or after that date.

(7) Effective July 1, 1992, members retired for disability prior to July 1, 1964, shall be entitled to a minimum monthly allowance of five hundred dol-ars ($500) as their basic straight life annuity and their surviving spouse shall be eligible for survivor benefits as provided in KRS 161.520(1)(a) and (b).

(8) Any member retired by reason of disability may voluntarily waive disability benefits and return to

(9) In order to qualify for retirement by reason of disability a member must suffer from a physical or mental condition presumed to be permanent in duration and of a nature as to render the member incapable of being gainfully employed in a covered position. The incapability must be revealed by a competent examination by a licensed physician or physicians and must be approved by a majority of a medical review committee.

(10) A member retired by reason of disability shall be required to undergo periodic examinations at the discretion of the board of trustees to determine whether the disability allowance shall be continued. When examination and recommendation of a medical review committee indicate the disability no longer exists, the allowance shall be discontiuued.

(11) Eligibility for payment shall begin on the first day of the month following receipt of the application in the Teachers’ Retirement System office, or the first of the month next following the last payment of salary or sick leave benefits by the employer, whichever is the later date.

(12) No person who receives a disability allowance may be employed in a position that entails duties or qualification requirements similar to positions subject to participation in the retirement system either within or without the State of Kentucky. So doing shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall result in loss of the allowance from the first date of this service. A member who applies for and is approved for disability retirement on or after July 1, 2002, and whose annual disability benefit is less than forty thousand dollars ($40,000) may earn income in any occupation other than covered employment only to the extent that the annual income from the other employment when added to the annual disability benefit does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000). For any member who exceeds this limit as a result of income from other employment, the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System shall reduce the member’s disability benefit on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each dollar that the member’s combined annual disability benefit and annual income from other employment exceeds forty thousand dollars ($40,000). The board of trustees may annually increase the forty thousand dollar ($40,000) limit by the percentage increase in the annual average of the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the most recent calendar year as published by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, not to exceed five percent (5%).
All members who applied for disability retirement before July 1, 2002, and were approved as a result of that application shall be subject to the income limitations as they existed on June 30, 2002. The recipient of a disability allowance who engages in any gainful occupation other than covered employment must make a report of the duties involved, compensation received, and any other pertinent information required by the board of trustees.
(13) The board of trustees shall designate medical review committees, each consisting of three (3) licensed physicians. A medical review committee shall pass upon all applications for disability retirement and upon all applicant statements, medical certifications, and examinations submitted in connection with disability applications. The disposition of each case shall be recommended by a medical review committee in writing to the retirement system. Members of a medical review committee shall follow administrative regulations regarding procedures as the board of trustees may enact and shall be paid reasonable fees and expenses as authorized by the board of trustees in compliance with the provisions of KRS 161.330 and 161.340. The retirement system may secure additional medical examinations and information as it deems necessary. A member may appeal any final agency decision denying his or her disability retirement application pursuant to the provisions of KRS 161.250(2).

(14) A disability may be presumed to be permanent if the condition creating the disability may be reasonably expected to continue for one (1) year or more from the date of application for disability benefits. Any member who has voluntarily waived disability benefits or whose disability benefits have been discontinued on recommendation of a medical review committee, may apply for reinstatement of disability benefits. The application for reinstatement must be made to the retirement system within twelve (12) months of the date disability benefits terminated. If the termination of benefits were voluntary, the reinstatement may be made without medical examination if application is made within three (3) months of the termination date. Other applications for reinstatement will be processed in the same manner as new applications for benefits.

(15) No person who is receiving disability benefits under this section may be employed in a position which qualifies the person for membership in a retirement system financed wholly or in part with public funds. Employment in a position prohibited by this subsection shall result in disqualification for the receipt of disability benefits from the date of employment in the prohibited position.

(17) Any person who is receiving benefits and becomes disqualified from receiving those benefits under this section, or becomes disqualified from receiving a portion of those benefits due to income from other than covered employment, shall immediately notify the Teachers' Retirement System of this disqualification in writing and shall return all benefits paid after the date of disqualification. Failure to comply with these provisions shall create an indebtedness of that person to the Teachers' Retirement System. Interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum shall be charged if the debt is not repaid within sixty (60) days after the date of disqualification. Failure to repay this debt creates a lien in favor of the Teachers' Retirement System upon all property of the person who improperly receives benefits and does not repay those benefits. The Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may, in order to collect an outstanding debt, reduce or terminate any benefit that a member is otherwise entitled to receive.

Opinions of Attorney General. A teacher retired for disability would remain in disability retirement until her eligibility period had expired, even though she had reached age 60 during such eligibility period. OAG 64-741. An application for a disability allowance does not have to be made within any specific time. OAG 70-476. The application's condition at the time of the termination of employment would govern in determining whether or not he is disabled. OAG 70-476.

A member of the retirement system who qualifies for and accepts disability retirement may not thereafter during such period of disability elect to qualify and receive regular retirement for service until the period of eligibility for disability benefits has expired. OAG 73-181.

Where a school teacher was terminated in 1976, and instituted suit in an attempt to be reinstated, which suit was finally resolved against him in 1978, he clearly missed the deadline of one year provided in subsection (1) and could not, thereafter, apply for disability retirement. OAG 79-49.

A teacher seeking benefits under subsection (1) of this section while on leave of absence under KRS 161.770 has in effect terminated his or her tenure contract rights and accompanying rights and responsibilities with the board of education when the teachers' retirement system approves that teacher's application for disability retirement, which means the teacher has "retired" for purposes of KRS 161.720 to 161.810; and if the teacher, who has been granted leave of absence and accepted by the teachers' retirement system for retirement benefits, then becomes able to return to work, the board of education no longer has to afford to that teacher his or her former tenure rights. (2) (a) If the superintendent recovers from disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the employing board of education within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period but not later than April 15 prior to the beginning of the school term, the board of education shall reinstate the superintendent to active continuing status at the beginning of the school term. If notice of recovery from disability is not presented to the employing board of education within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period, or if the superintendent states to the board, in a verified document, prior to expiration of the twenty-four (24) calendar month period that he or she will not return to employment in the school system, the continuing service contract of the superintendent shall terminate as by retirement under the provisions of KRS 161.661.

(b) If the teacher recovers from disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the employing board of education within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period but not later than April 15 prior to the beginning of the school term, the superintendent shall reinstate the teacher to active continuing status at the beginning of the school term. If notice of recovery from disability is not presented to the superintendent within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period, or if the teacher states to the superintendent, in a verified document, prior to expiration of the twenty-four (24) calendar month period that he or she will not return to employment in the school system, the continuing service contract of the teacher shall terminate as by retirement under the provisions of KRS 161.661.

(3) Retirement because of disability under this section shall not be cause for termination of the contract of a teacher or superintendent under KRS 161.790 during the twenty-four (24) calendar month period described in this section. A teacher or superintendent who applies for disability retirement under the provisions of KRS 161.661 shall retain continuing service status during the period of time the application for disability retirement is being processed. If the application is not approved, the teacher or superintendent may return to the contract, employment, or leave status held prior to submission of the application.

(4) (a) If the superintendent recovers from the disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the employing board of education within twenty-five (25) through forty-two (42) months from the date of retirement, the board shall give priority consideration to reemployment of the superintendent for the first available position for which the superintendent is qualified and certified.

(b) If the teacher recovers from the disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the employing board of education within twenty-five (25) through forty-two (42) months from the date of retirement, the superintendent shall give priority consideration to reemployment of the teacher for the first available position for which the teacher is qualified and certified.

161.663. Disability retirement with less than required years of service.
Any active contributing member with less than five (5) years of Kentucky service may apply and be approved for disability retirement under KRS 161.661 if the member is found to be mentally or physically incapacitated as a result of an injury related directly to their covered employment. All conditions and restrictions specified under KRS 161.661 shall be applicable, except that the initial annual disability allowance shall be equal to fifty percent (50%) of the member’s current annual contract salary and the member’s last annual contract salary shall be used in lieu of the final average salary in the recalculation of the member’s benefit at the expiration of the eligibility period.

161.670. Disability to be established by medical examination. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4506b-45: amend. Acts 1982, ch. 64, § 19) was repealed by Acts 1986, ch. 43, § 23.

161.675. Hospital and medical benefits for eligible recipients of retirement allowances from Teachers’ Retirement System — Health insurance supplement payments — Coverage for spouses, dependents, and disabled children of retirees — Exemption from premium tax.

(1) The board of trustees shall arrange by appropriate contract or on a self-insured basis to provide a broad program of group hospital and medical insurance for present and future eligible recipients of a retirement allowance from the Teachers’ Retirement System. The board of trustees may also arrange to provide health insurance coverage by health maintenance organizations as defined in KRS 18A.225 as an alternative to group hospital and medical insurance for persons eligible for hospital and medical benefits under this section. The board of trustees may authorize present and future eligible recipients of a retirement allowance from the Teachers' Retirement System who are less than age sixty-five (65) to be included in the state-sponsored health insurance that is provided to active teachers and state employees under KRS 18A.225. Members who are sixty-five (65) or older and retired for service shall not be eligible to participate in the state employee health insurance program as described in KRS 18A.225.

(2) The coverage provided shall be as set forth in the contracts and the administrative regulations of the board of trustees. The board of trustees may change the levels of coverage and eligibility conditions to meet the changing needs of the annuitants and when necessary to contain the expenses of the insurance program within the funds available to finance the insurance program. The contracts and administrative regulations shall provide for but not be limited to hospital room and board, surgical procedures, doctors' care in the hospital, and miscellaneous hospital costs. An annuitant whose effective date of retirement is July 1, 1974, and thereafter, must have a minimum of five (5) years' creditable Kentucky service in the Teachers' Retirement System or five (5) years of combined creditable service in the state-administered retirement systems if the member is retiring under the reciprocity provisions of KRS 61.680 and 61.702. A member retiring under the reciprocity provisions of KRS 61.680 and 61.702 may not elect coverage through more than one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems. The board of trustees shall offer coverage to the disabled child of an annuitant regardless of the disabled child's age if the annuitant pays the entire premium for the disabled child's coverage. A child shall be considered disabled if he has been determined to be eligible for federal Social Security disability benefits.

(3) All expenses for benefits under this section shall be paid from the funding provisions contained in KRS 161.420(5), premium charges received from the annuitants and the spouses, and from funds that may be appropriated or allocated by statute.

(4) (a) The board of trustees shall determine the amount of health insurance supplement payments that the Teachers' Retirement System will provide to assist eligible annuitants in paying the cost of their health insurance, based on the funds available in the medical insurance fund. The board of trustees shall establish the maximum monthly amounts of health insurance supplement payments that will be made by the retirement system for eligible annuitants. The board of trustees shall annually establish the percentage of the maximum monthly health insurance supplement payment that will be made, based on age and years of service credit of eligible recipients of a retirement allowance. Monthly health insurance supplement payments made by the retirement system may not exceed the amount of the single coverage insurance premium chosen by the eligible annuitants. In order to qualify for health insurance supplement payments made by the retirement system, the annuitant must agree to pay the difference between the insurance premium and the applicable supplement payment, by payroll deduction from his retirement allowance, or by a payment method approved by the retirement system.

(b) The board of trustees may offer, on a full-cost basis, health care insurance coverage provided by the retirement system to spouses and dependents of eligible annuitants not otherwise eligible for regular coverage. Recipients of a retirement allowance from the retirement system must agree to pay the cost of this coverage by payroll deduction from their retirement allowance or by a payment method approved by the retirement system.

(c) The board of trustees shall offer, on a full-cost basis, health insurance coverage provided by the retirement system to the disabled child of an annuitant, regardless of the age of the disabled child. A child shall be considered disabled for purposes of this section if the child has been determined to be eligible for federal Social Security disability benefits.

(5) The board of trustees is empowered to require the annuitant and the annuitant's spouse to pay a premium charge to assist in the financing of the hospital and medical insurance program. The board of trustees is empowered to pay the expenses for insurance coverage from the medical insurance fund, from the premium charges received from the annuitants and the spouses, and from funds that may be appropriated or allocated by statute. The board may provide insurance coverage by making payment to insurance carriers including health insurance plans that are available to active and retired state employees and active teachers, institutions, and individuals for services performed, or the board of trustees may elect to provide insurance on a "self-insurance" basis or a combination of these provisions.

(6) The board of trustees may approve health insurance supplement payments to eligible annuitants who are less than sixty-five (65) years of age, as reimbursement for hospital and medical insurance premiums made by annuitants for their individual coverage. Eligible annuitants or recipients are those annuitants who are not eligible for Medicare and who do not reside in Kentucky or in an area outside of Kentucky where comparable coverage is available. The reimbursement payments shall not exceed the minimum supplement payment that would have been made had the annuitant lived in Kentucky. Eligible annuitants or recipients shall submit proof of payment to the retirement system for hospital and medical insurance that they have obtained. Reimbursement payments shall be made on a quarterly basis.

(7) Contracts negotiated may include the provision that a stated amount of hospital cost or period of hospitalization shall incur no obligation on the part of the insurance carrier or the retirement system.
(8) The board of trustees is empowered to promulgate administrative regulations to assure efficient operation of the hospital and medical insurance program.

(9) Premiums paid for hospital and medical insurance coverage procured under authority of this section shall be exempt from any premium tax which might otherwise be required under KRS Chapter 136. The payment of premiums by the insurance fund shall not constitute taxable income to an insured recipient.

(10) In the event that a member is providing services on less than a full-time basis under KRS 161.605, the retirement system may pay the full cost of the member’s health insurance coverage for the full fiscal year that the member is providing those services, at the conclusion of which, the retirement system may then bill the active employer and the active employer shall reimburse the retirement system for the cost of the health insurance coverage incurred by the retirement system on a pro rata basis for the time that the member was employed by the active employer.

Opinions of Attorney General. The board of trustees of the teacher’s retirement system is authorized to make payment from the hospital and insurance fund of the retirement system directly to an institution or individual who has provided or is providing services to a retired covered member teacher without the necessity of entering a contract. OAG 72-675.

161.680. Mistake in payment — Correction of error.

If any change or error in a record results in any individual receiving from the retirement system more or less than the individual was entitled to receive, the board of trustees shall, when the error is discovered, correct the error, and as far as practicable adjust the payments so that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which the individual was entitled shall be paid.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4506b-50) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 540, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section cannot be applied retroactively to correct an error in granting a full year’s service credit for half-time teaching, as it was a teachers’ retirement system policy during the period of time involved to give such credit and therefore there was no mistake. OAG 73-370.

A teacher who retires from his Kentucky teaching position without informing the teachers’ retirement system of any teaching service he may have accumulated as a teacher outside the state and whose annuity is calculated on the basis of his service in Kentucky cannot under this section be credited with his out-of-state service more than two years after the effective date of his retirement since a change or error in a record is not involved. OAG 74-671.

161.690. Falsifying record prohibited.

No person shall knowingly make any false statement, nor shall any person falsify or permit to be falsified any record of the retirement system in an attempt to defraud the system.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4506b-50) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 540, effective July 13, 1990.

161.700. Funds exempt from taxation and process — Taxability after December 31, 1997 — Benefits not considered marital property.

(1) The right of a member to a retirement allowance and to the return of contributions, any benefit or right accrued or accruing to any person under the retirement system, and the money in the various funds of the retirement system are exempt from any state or municipal tax, are not subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, or other process, and are unassignable except as provided in this chapter, and except for court or administratively ordered current child support, owed child support, or to-be-owed child support. Except retirement benefits accrued or accruing to any person under this retirement system on or after January 1, 1998, shall be subject to the tax imposed by KRS 141.020, to the extent provided in KRS 141.010 and 141.0215.

(2) Retirement allowance, disability allowance, accumulated contributions, or any other benefit under the retirement system shall not be classified as marital property pursuant to KRS 403.190(1). Retirement allowance, disability allowance, accumulated contributions, or any other benefit under the retirement system shall not be considered as an economic circumstance during the division of marital property in an action for dissolution of marriage pursuant to KRS 403.190(1)(d).

Opinions of Attorney General. Teachers are not required to pay the Kentucky income tax on amounts received by virtue of the “teachers’ retirement system,” OAG 65-89.

The exemption granted by this section is inoperaive against a levy properly made by the United States Internal Revenue Service under the Internal Revenue Code. OAG 67-424.

The clear language of this section dictates that all allowances from retirement accounts be excluded from consideration during the division of marital property in a divorce proceeding, regardless of the date of the deposit of said retirement funds. OAG 83-192.

Subsection (2) of this section clearly specifies that any “retirement allowance” shall not be considered as marital property; therefore, any allowance that is owed and payable to the member after the effective date of that subsection (July 1, 1980), cannot be considered in a divorce proceeding. This section does not speak to the date of deposit of the retirement fund, only the date of allowance; therefore there is no authority for a court to consider any retirement funds, even those funds deposited prior to July 1, 1980, in a decision regarding the division of marital property in a divorce proceeding taking place after July 1, 1980. OAG 83-192.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Application.
3. Federal taxes.
4. Pensions.

1. Constitutionality.

Subsection (2) of this section is not a prohibited special law under Const., § 59. Waggoner v. Waggoner, 846 S.W.2d 704 (Ky. 1992), cert. denied, 510 U.S. 932, 114 S. Ct. 346, 126 L. Ed. 2d 310 (1993).

Since subsection (2) of this section isrationally related to the legitimate objective of protecting teachers upon retirement, no infringement of spouse’s rights under equal protection was present. Waggoner v. Waggoner, 846 S.W.2d 704 (Ky. 1992), cert. denied, 510 U.S. 932, 114 S. Ct. 346, 126 L. Ed. 2d 310 (1993).

2. Application.

The application of subsection (2) of this section was not invalidly retroactive. Waggoner v. Waggoner, 846 S.W.2d 704 (Ky. 1992), cert. denied, 510 U.S. 932, 114 S. Ct. 346, 126 L. Ed. 2d 310 (1993).

A state cannot exempt property from the federal income tax created by Congress, and therefore, a teacher’s retirement benefits were properly subject to garnishment by the IRS. United States v. McGuire, 552 F. Supp. 503 (E.D. Ky. 1982).

4. Pensions.

Where the words in a statute are clear and unambiguous and express the legislative intent, there is no room for construction and the statute must be accepted as it is written; therefore as both subsection (2) of this section and KRS 403.190(4) are unambiguous in their language leaving no doubt that the legislature intended to exempt, as marital property, the entire pensions of a teacher and his/her spouse upon divorce. Turner v. Turner, 908 S.W.2d 124 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

That part of a teacher’s spouse’s pension which is over and above the value of the teacher’s plan should not be considered marital property; thus, even in a situation where the teacher/spouse has taught only a short time and has accrued a correspondingly small pension, and the other spouse has a large pension amassed after many years of work, the court is powerless to consider this “economic circumstance” when deciding how the other marital property is to be divided. Turner v. Turner, 908 S.W.2d 124 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

161.705. Voluntary contributions by or for member. [Repealed.]

161.710. Local system merged with state system.

(1) The local retirement systems merged with the state retirement system under the provisions of 1938 Ky. Acts (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 49, shall be discontinued. The payment of all benefits to members on the retired roll at the time of discontinuance shall become the obligation of the school district in which the local system was operated prior to its discontinuance. The method of determining and paying refundable deposits due members of the local system shall be as provided in 1938 Ky. Acts (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 49.

(2) Payments to annuitants in cities of the first class or in areas formerly constituting a city of the first class which have been consolidated with their county shall not exceed the amount being received by them at the time the local retirement system is discontinued. The sum that remains after the death of all annuitants shall be used by the local board of education for general school purposes.

(3) The local board of education shall continue to invest the funds transferred to it for the benefit of the existing annuitants as long as such annuitants live. Such investment shall be governed by 1934 Ky. Acts, ch. 65, Art. IX, except that the local board of education is substituted for the board of trustees of the local retirement system. The local board of education shall keep all funds transferred to it by the local retirement system and all income from the investment of such funds in a separate fund to be known as the annuity fund. The local board of education may pay from the fund any reasonable expenses necessary for the fund’s administration and general management. The local board of education shall safeguard the fund by requiring such additional surety bond of the treasurer as it deems necessary, by providing for an annual audit by a reputable auditing firm, by spreading on the minutes of the board of education at least annually a report of investments, assets, and liabilities, and the names, addresses, and annuities of annuitants, and by making such an appropriation to the fund from local school revenues as will guarantee the full and complete discharge of all obligations to annuitants.

ANALYSIS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Purpose.
3. Rights of employees on merger.
4. Payment from general funds.

1. Constitutionality.
   That portion of this section which authorized a special levy by the local board of education violated Const., § 51. Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337 (1941).

   Payment of teachers' retirement pensions does not violate Const., §§ 3, 179, 181 nor 181a (now 181). Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337 (1941).

2. Purpose.
   This section is intended to recognize rather than impair the right of retired teachers. Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337 (1941).

3. Rights of Employees on Merger.
   Retired teachers belonging to a local system who have made mandatory contributions have a vested contract right to payment which may not be revoked or impaired. Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337 (1941).

   Merger of Louisville system with state system caused cessation of conditions for which Louisville retirement trust fund was created, justifying precipitation of right of beneficiaries. City of Louisville v. Board of Educ., 291 Ky. 7, 163 S.W.2d 23 (1942).

   Where law under which Louisville teachers' retirement system was established provided that teachers terminating their employment or dying before receiving any benefits should be entitled to the return of one-half of the contributions paid in by them, such teachers were entitled, upon the merging of the Louisville system with the state system, to an immediate return of one-half of their contributions, by virtue of the provisions of Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, § 49, without being required to wait until their employment was terminated. City of Louisville v. Board of Educ., 291 Ky. 7, 163 S.W.2d 23 (1942).

4. Payment from General Funds.
   The intention of the legislature that local school districts shall continue liable for pensions due retired teachers under local retirement systems is so strong that, even though a special tax authorized for that purpose is unconstitutional, the districts must necessarily pay said obligations from general funds in order to effectuate said intention. Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337 (1941).

   Payments to retired teachers of pensions out of general school funds are for school purposes, and the legislature is authorized to so provide. Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337 (1941).

161.712. Payments to teachers who worked prior to July 1, 1940. [Repealed.]

Opinions of Attorney General. Since the membership of the system is composed of all new teachers and all present teachers, the contract is not merely between the retired members of the system and the Commonwealth, but between the present teachers and all new teachers and the Commonwealth. OAG 81-416.

The General Assembly is prohibited by this section, Const., § 19 and U.S. Const., art. I, § 10, from enacting any law which would impair or reduce the expected retirement benefit of any present or new teacher, or those benefits received by retired members; however, any amendment which would not reduce or impair benefits is not prohibited and the retirement system statutes may also be amended to affect those individuals who will become members of the system at a future date. OAG 81-416.

161.715. Pensions for certain teachers not eligible for benefits under teachers' retirement system. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (Acts 1962, ch. 140, §§ 1, 2) was repealed by Acts 1976, ch. 351, § 23.

161.716. Federal laws take precedence over Kentucky statutes pertaining to Teachers' Retirement System.

In the event that federal laws are in conflict with the Kentucky Revised Statutes pertaining to the Teachers’ Retirement System, federal laws shall take precedence. When necessary to comply with federal laws, the board of trustees may defer or stop payments of allowances until the conflict is resolved. The board of trustees shall adopt such regulations as are necessary to remove any conflicts with federal laws and to protect the interests of the members, survivors of members and the system. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 546, effective July 13, 1990.)
161.720. Definitions for teachers' tenure law.

(1) The term “teacher” for the purpose of KRS 161.730 to 161.810 shall mean any person for whom certification is required as a basis of employment in the public schools of the state, with the exception of the superintendent.
(2) The term “year” as applied to terms of service means actual service of not less than seven (7) school months within a school year; provided, however, that any board of education may grant a leave of absence for professional advancement or military leave for active duty service with full credit for service.
(3) The term “limited contract” shall mean a contract for the employment of a teacher for a term of one (1) year only or for that portion of the school year that remains at the time of employment.
(4) The term “continuing service contract” shall mean a contract for the employment of a teacher which shall remain in full force and effect until the teacher resigns or retires, or until it is terminated or suspended as provided in KRS 161.790 and 161.800.
(5) The term “continuing status” means employment of a teacher under a continuing contract.
(6) The term “standard” or “college” certificate for the purpose of KRS 161.730 to 161.810 shall mean any certificate issued upon the basis of graduation from a standard four (4) year college or completion of a local district alternative certification training program.
(7) The term “superintendent” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean the school officer appointed by a board of education under the authority of KRS 160.350 or any person authorized by law to perform the duties of that officer.
(8) The term “administrator” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean a certified employee, below the rank of superintendent, who devotes the majority of his employed time to service as a principal, assistant principal, supervisor, coordinator, director, assistant director, administrative assistant, finance officer, pupil personnel worker, guidance counselor, school psychologist, or school business administrator. The term “administrator” shall also include those assistant, associate, or deputy superintendents who do not fall within the definition of “superintendent” as set forth in subsection (7) of this section.
(9) The terms “demote” or “demotion” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean a reduction in rank from one position on the school district salary schedule to a different position on that schedule for which a lower salary is paid. The terms shall not include lateral transfers to positions of similar rank and pay or minor alterations in pay increments required by the salary schedule.

161.720. Definitions for teachers' tenure law. (1) The term “teacher” for the purpose of KRS 161.730 to 161.810 shall mean any person for whom certification is required as a basis of employment in the public schools of the state, with the exception of the superintendent. (2) The term “year” as applied to terms of service means actual service of not less than seven (7) school months within a school year; provided, however, that any board of education may grant a leave of absence for professional advancement or military leave for active duty service with full credit for service. (3) The term “limited contract” shall mean a contract for the employment of a teacher for a term of one (1) year only or for that portion of the school year that remains at the time of employment. (4) The term “continuing service contract” shall mean a contract for the employment of a teacher which shall remain in full force and effect until the teacher resigns or retires, or until it is terminated or suspended as provided in KRS 161.790 and 161.800. (5) The term “continuing status” means employment of a teacher under a continuing contract. (6) The term “standard” or “college” certificate for the purpose of KRS 161.730 to 161.810 shall mean any certificate issued upon the basis of graduation from a standard four (4) year college or completion of a local district alternative certification training program. (7) The term “superintendent” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean the school officer appointed by a board of education under the authority of KRS 160.350 or any person authorized by law to perform the duties of that officer. (8) The term “administrator” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean a certified employee, below the rank of superintendent, who devotes the majority of his employed time to service as a principal, assistant principal, supervisor, coordinator, director, assistant director, administrative assistant, finance officer, pupil personnel worker, guidance counselor, school psychologist, or school business administrator. The term “administrator” shall also include those assistant, associate, or deputy superintendents who do not fall within the definition of “superintendent” as set forth in subsection (7) of this section. (9) The terms “demote” or “demotion” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean a reduction in rank from one position on the school district salary schedule to a different position on that schedule for which a lower salary is paid. The terms shall not include lateral transfers to positions of similar rank and pay or minor alterations in pay increments required by the salary schedule. (Enact. Acts 1942, ch. 113, § 1; 1944, ch. 98; 1964, ch. 41, § 1; 1974, ch. 356, § 1; 1988, ch. 50, § 1, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 518, § 8, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, § 80, effective July 13, 1990; 1992, ch. 85, § 1, effective July 14, 1992; 1998, ch. 176, § 1, effective July 15, 1998; 2004, ch. 161, § 2, effective July 13, 2004.)
may employ a person as director of pupil personnel under the implementation of state board of education regulation 40.220(2) rather than employ a fully certified and experienced person who is available in the county but who has attained the age of 65 years. OAG 74-838.

Upon reaching the age of 65 a school administrator no longer has a continuing service contract but may be employed on a limited contract from year to year until reaching the age of 70, the mandatory retirement age provided by KRS 161.600. OAG 75-2.

Although KRS 161.765 applies to guidance counsellors, when a counselor is reassigned as a teacher at the same salary he is not entitled to a hearing under KRS 161.765 since he has not been demoted within the meaning of this section. OAG 75-368.

When a teacher transfers from the local board of education to the vocational school system, none of the teacher's accrued benefits are carried over to the new position. OAG 76-151.

Neither a teacher who has taught three hours per day for 185 school days nor a teacher who has taught full time for 94 school days may be considered to have a year of actual service for tenure purposes. OAG 76-278.

A teacher who was employed as a substitute teacher for at least 140 school days in the 1972-73 and 1973-74 school years and who was employed as a regular teacher during the 1974-75 and 1975-76 school years would have tenure in the school system if employed by the board of education for the academic year of 1976-77. OAG 76-282.

A teacher must be certified before commencing service which is to be credited toward the four years actual service in the same school district required for continuing service status. OAG 76-284.

Where a teacher taught regularly in the school system for four years and received a continuing education contract and then during the next three years taught but was required to take many days leave of absence due to illness, was on maternity leave and then resigned from her teaching position and such resignation was accepted and the following year she requested to be considered for a position and was reemployed, such teacher should be reemployed and given a limited contract for the school year; however, if such teacher is recommended to the board by the superintendent for a contract for the following school year that contract will be for a continuing service status. OAG 76-490.

The transfer from assistant principal to guidance counselor with an accompanying withdrawal of the pay increment provided for the position of assistant principal does not amount to a demotion. OAG 77-332.

It would appear that a demotion involves at least two positions and, accordingly, when a school board changes only contract characteristics, specifically duration of the contract, of a single administrative position, this action does not constitute a demotion for the purposes of KRS 161.765. OAG 78-148.

A superintendent is specifically excluded from the definition of the term “administrator” in subsection (8) of this section. OAG 79-111.

A teacher seeking benefits under KRS 161.661(1) while on leave of absence under KRS 161.770 has in effect terminated his or her tenure contract status and accompanying rights with the board of education when the teachers’ retirement system approves that teacher’s application for disability retirement, which means the teacher has “retired” for the purposes of KRS 161.720 to 161.810; and if the teacher, who has been granted leave of absence and accepted by the teachers’ retirement system for disability retirement benefits, then becomes able to return to work, the board of education no longer has to afford to that teacher his or her former tenure rights. OAG 79-157.

There are no provisions in the tenure laws to preclude a teacher from being employed for additional years of employment past the age of 70 years on a limited year-to-year contract basis under this section. OAG 81-72.

A teacher must teach at least 140 six-hour days in a 185-day school term in order to be given credit for a year under the tenure law. OAG 82-614.

Where a teacher worked only one-half time in the school years 1976-77, 1977-78, 1978-79 and 1979-80 and did not in any school year teach at least 140 six-hour school days so as to be entitled to a year of credit towards tenure, the board of education had no legal right to award a continuing service contract to her after she had completed four years of part-time teaching and such contract was not binding and was void and could have no legal effect; in such instance, the board should issue a limited contract to such teacher after a majority vote on a motion before the board to do so and the minutes of the board should reference the previous minutes when the unlawful tenure contract had been approved. OAG 82-614.

A teacher on a limited teaching contract only has a statutorily protected expectation of employment for a one-year term. OAG 84-43.

The federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act, (ADEA) as amended effective January 1, 1987, preempts and makes invalid the upper age restrictions found in subsection (4) of this section; school boards may not have any employment practice affecting employees in the protected age range (which is age 40 and over) that is motivated by or the result of age, and tenure school employees in the protected age range may hold that tenure status or merit status until they resign, retire, or until their contracts are lawfully terminated or suspended. OAG 87-12 (withdrawing OAG 79-204; opinion prior to 1988 amendment.)

A teacher with tenure in one district must achieve tenure in the second district within the statutory time period. OAG 91-189.

Under subsection (2) of this section, the part-time service of a teacher for school years 1988-1990 does not qualify for consideration for eligibility for tenure. OAG 91-189.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Legislative intent.
3. Continuing service contract.
5. Less than four year degree.
7. Administrator.
8. Resignation.
10. Transfer to noncertified position.
11. Demotion.
12. Notification requirements.
1. Legislative Intent.

The legislative intent of subsection (8) of this section was not to classify as an administrator one who, incidental to his primary duties which are not administrative in nature, occasionally evaluates or supervises other board employees. Bradshaw v. Board of Educ., 607 S.W.2d 427 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

Tenured school teachers who were suspended because of a violation of the U.S. Constitution and an exercise of arbitrary power prohibited by Const., § 2, since "administrators" as defined by subsection (8) of this section as it existed prior to its 1992 amendment did not include "principals" as "administrators", the court employing the "rational basis scrutiny" held that since there were several distinctions between "principals" and "administrators", there was a rational basis for the exclusion of "principals" from the definition of "administrators" and thus such exclusion did violate the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution or Const., § 2. Roberts v. Mooneyhan, 902 S.W.2d 842 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

3. Continuing Service Contract.

Where a high school classroom teacher also served as the head football coach at the school, the fact that during the time he was coach he had assistant coaches who were under his supervision was not enough to classify him as an administrator within subsection (8) of this section for the purpose of KRS 161.765 relating to the demotion of administrators, since his occasional supervision of other board employees was merely incidental to his primary duties which were not administrative in nature. Bradshaw v. Board of Educ., 607 S.W.2d 427 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

A certificate of professional standing may be abolished or limited by the legislature. Carpenter v. Board of Educ., 582 S.W.2d 911 (Ky. 1953).

5. Less Than Four Year Degree.

The General Assembly has the power to provide that teachers with less qualification than a four-year degree shall receive only a minimum salary and the fact that the motive of such a provision might be to make teaching so economically unattractive as to discourage the less-qualified teachers from continuing in service does not make the provision unfair. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901 (Ky. 1969).

The State Department of Education should use the means at its disposal to see that the provisions of the teachers' tenure law are observed. Marshall v. Conley, 258 S.W.2d 911 (Ky. 1953).

7. Administrator.

An assistant principal with administrative tenure was an "administrator" within the meaning of subsection (8). Harlan County Bd. of Educ. v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

8. Resignation.

Where plaintiff, a teacher, had been employed in one school district for six successive years, resigned, taught in another school system the following year, again resigned, took a year off and then taught for three years in a third school district before being released, he was entitled to no hearing under KRS 161.790, since, although he had achieved tenure at his first position, when he resigned he lost his tenure by reason of subsection (4) of this section and subdivision (1)(c) of KRS 161.740 is inapplicable. Carpenter v. Board of Educ., 582 S.W.2d 645 (Ky. 1979).

A superintendent is not afforded the protection of KRS 161.740 is inapplicable. Carpenter v. Board of Educ., 582 S.W.2d 911 (Ky. 1953).
161.765 which deals exclusively with the procedure for demotion of administrative personnel. Floyd v. Board of EDUC., 598 S.W.2d 460 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

The office of superintendent is outside the scope of the provisions of the Teacher Tenure Act. Floyd v. Board of EDUC., 598 S.W.2d 460 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

10. Transfer to Noncertified Position.
Where a high school principal was transferred, at the same pay level, to a newly created position, as the supervisor of transportation for the school system, the transfer from a certified to a noncertified position amounted to "termination" as a "teacher" under subsections (1) and (4) of this section; accordingly the principal was entitled to a hearing as required by KRS 161.790. Crawley v. Board of EDUC., 658 F.2d 450 (6th Cir. 1981).

11. Demotion.
Where an educator is transferred to a position of lesser responsibility, and the transfer is not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay, but there is to be a reduction in a subsequent year, the transfer becomes a demotion when (and if) that reduction takes place. Accordingly, where principal was transferred to less responsible post but his salary remained the same, it could not be said that he had been demoted from one position on the salary schedule to a position for which a lower salary was paid. Stafford v. Board of EDUC., 642 S.W.2d 596 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

In the case of the demotion or reassignment of a probationary administrator, the provision in the definition of a school year covering seven months' service only has meaning when coupled with the words "within a school year." Thus an administrator must only serve seven months "within each school year" beginning July 1 and ending June 30 in order to have worked "three years" as an administrator. If such administrator has already worked seven months during his third school year or will have worked seven months before June 30 of his third year of administrative service, he must be notified of a demotion before May 15 of that year, under this section. Board of EDUC. v. Paul, 846 S.W.2d 675 (Ky. 1992).

A full-time teacher in 1986-87 who had her 1987-88 contract reduced to half time, but received no notification of the reduction in responsibilities, was deemed reemployed for the succeeding school year which constituted her fourth year and satisfied the service requirement under the tenure law. Board of EDUC. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

13. Determining Type of Contract.
Where the school board minutes did not disclose whether teacher/plaintiff's contract was continuing or limited, resorting to other pertinent records was permissible. Board of EDUC. v. Jones, 823 S.W.2d 457 (Ky. 1992).

Where dismissed bus driver's lack of legitimate expectation of continued employment within the Whitley County Schools was evidenced by both his contract of employment and by this section, he could not pursue a due process claim based upon the assertion of a property right. Creager v. Board of EDUC., 914 F. Supp. 1457 (E.D. Ky. 1996).

Where the employment contract signed by teacher was clearly signed a "Limited Contract of Employment" appearing in large block letters and in bold type, the document unequivocally designated the period of employment under the contract as one year and nowhere provided that her contract was one of a continuing nature or tenured status. Board of EDUC. v. Jones, 823 S.W.2d 457 (Ky. 1992).

The superintendent shall be eligible for continuing contract status when he meets all requirements prescribed in KRS 161.720 to 161.810 for continuing contracts for teachers.

Compiler's Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1944, ch. 98) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 615, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. There is no conflict between this section and KRS 160.350 as, irrespective of when a superintendent becomes eligible for continuing contract status in the district, such status is not as to the position of superintendent of the school but just to employment in the school district. OAG 76-82; 76-99.
A local board of education may give a superintendent who is over 65 a contract for more than one year. OAG 79-213.
While a superintendent is eligible for tenure in a school system, a person holding the position of local school superintendent is not per se covered by the teacher tenure laws. OAG 79-213.
While a superintendent may acquire tenure in the same manner as for teachers, that does not make an appointment as a superintendent under KRS 160.350, which is under an entirely different contractual basis and which may be for one, two, three or four years, employment where "teacher tenure" may be transferred to the position pursuant to KRS 161.740; thus, where a teacher attains tenure in one school system and then accepts the position of superintendent of schools in another school district, the superintendent would be required to attain tenure in the new school system by following this section. OAG 80-147.

161.730. Limited or continuing contract with teachers required.
Each local district shall enter into written contracts, either limited or continuing, for the employment of all teachers.

Opinions of Attorney General. That a certain anticipated source or revenue fails to materialize cannot authorize a refusal by the local boards to honor the legal contractual obligations that exist with their teachers for at least a minimum school term. OAG 82-106.
Even though the contracts entered into between local boards and their teachers fail to reference the minimum 185 day school term, these contracts could not be construed to cover any period less than the 185 school days established by statute since all full-time teachers in the public common schools have, by operation of law, a contract to employment and salary for at least 185 school days and the possible reduction in state funds for teachers' salaries for two mandated in-service days in no way could be used to divorce the local school districts from their preexisting obligation of contracts for a minimum school term of 185 days. OAG 82-106.

Analysis

1. Right to continuing contract.
2. Length of contract.

1. Right to Continuing Contract.

A teacher, eligible for a continuing contract, after having taught two years under a limited contract, acquires no absolute right to a continuing contract upon subsequent reemployment under a limited contract. Payne v. Bush, 249 S.W.2d 789 (Ky. 1952).

2. Length of Contract.

Where there was no formal contract of employment between assistant supervisor and the board as contemplated by this section, his reemployment could not be for less than two years as provided by KRS 161.750 and although the board had the unquestioned right to transfer him from position of assistant supervisor to teacher it had no authority to reduce his salary for the second year. (Decision prior to 1964 amendment to KRS 161.750). Board of Educ. v. Moore, 264 S.W.2d 292 (Ky. 1953).

Where board reemployed principal year by year by accepting the recommendation of the superintendent and making a minute thereof despite the mandatory provision of KRS 161.750 that the reemployment may be for not less than two years, his contract extended through two school years and his salary could not be reduced during the second year upon transfer to a position paying less compensation without charges being preferred against him under KRS 161.790. Board of Educ. v. Justice, 268 S.W.2d 648 (Ky. 1954) (Decision prior to 1964 amendment of KRS 161.750).

161.740 Eligibility for continuing service status — Limited status employee or approved military leave — Transfer teachers — Reinstatement after service in Armed Forces.

(1) Teachers eligible for continuing service status in any school district shall be those teachers who meet qualifications listed in this section:
(a) Hold a standard or college certificate as defined in KRS 161.720 or meet the certification standards for vocational education teachers established by the Education Professional Standards Board.
(b) When a currently employed teacher is reemployed by the superintendent after teaching four (4) consecutive years in the same district, or after teaching four (4) years which shall fall within a period not to exceed six (6) years in the same district, the year of present employment included, the superintendent shall issue a written continuing contract if the teacher assumes his duties, and the superintendent shall notify the board of the action taken. A limited status employee on approved military leave shall be awarded service credit for each year of military service or each year of combined military and school service within a school year toward continuing contract status. If the leave time will qualify the teacher for continuing contract status, the local district may require the teacher to complete a one (1) year probationary period upon return. If required, the local district shall notify the teacher in writing within fourteen (14) days following receipt of the military leave request. Each day served in the General Assembly by a board of education employee during a regular or extraordinary session shall be included in the computation of a year as defined in KRS 161.720(2).
(c) When a teacher has attained continuing contract status in one district and becomes employed in another district, the teacher shall retain that status. However, a district may require a one (1) year probationary period of service in that district before granting that status. For purposes of this subsection, the continuing contract of a teacher shall not be terminated when the teacher leaves employment, all provisions of KRS 161.720 to 161.810 to the contrary notwithstanding; and the continuing service contract shall be transferred to the next school district, under conditions set forth in this section, for a period of up to seven (7) months from the time employment in the first school district has terminated. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to give a teacher a right to reemployment in the first school district during the seven (7) month period following termination.
(d) Service credit toward a continuing contract shall begin only when a teacher is properly certified as defined in KRS 161.720(6) or, in the case of a vocational education teacher, when the required certification standards established by the Education Professional Standards Board have been met.

(2) Vocational education teachers fulfilling the requirements in subsection (1) of this section as of July 15, 1982, shall be eligible for continuing service status.

(3) Whether employed under a limited contract or continuing service contract status, any teacher or superintendent who has been or may be hereafter inducted into the Armed Forces of this country, shall at the expiration of service be reemployed or reinstated in a comparable position as of the beginning of the next school year, provided application is made at least thirty (30) days before the opening of school, unless physically or mentally incapacitated according to medical notations on official discharge papers. Vacancies created by military leaves shall be filled by teachers or superintendents employed by the board of education under a limited contract of one (1) year or less.

Opinions of Attorney General. The board may, without cause, refuse to reemploy a teacher who has taught only two years in the school district. OAG 61-567.

This section does not require that the procurement of the continuance of or another certificate precede the four-year period of teaching within the district, and if a teacher who has taught four years in a school district and subsequently received his college certificate is recommended for reemployment, he is eligible for a continuing contract. OAG 61-567.

Under subsection (1)(b) of this section, a teacher who has four years of service within the district and who satisfied the other requirements is eligible for continuing contract status, if he is recommended for reemployment, whether that service be consecutive or not. OAG 61-597.

A teacher who holds a life extended teaching certificate based on less than graduation from a standard four-year college and who also holds an AB degree but has no teaching certificate based on that degree, does not meet the eligibility requirements for a continuing service contract, and the erroneous issue of such contract by a board of education is void. OAG 67-24.

A teacher returning to employment with a board of education after being discharged from military service is entitled to those increments which normally would have accrued if employment with the board had not been interrupted by military service. OAG 70-709.

The principles applicable to reinstatement of veterans in employment by the central branch of state government are equally applicable to employment with a board of education. OAG 70-709.

Where a teacher left his teaching position to enter military service and remained in the service for 25 years, on his return to teaching he was not entitled to credit military service in determining his salary increments. OAG 71-416.

A teacher who has taught in the same district and is recommended by the superintendent to be reemployed is issued a written continuing contract and the application blank a school board requires to be filled out and submitted each year does not constitute a contract. OAG 72-349.

A teacher acquires tenure even while teaching out of his qualified field if he has been doing so upon a provisional certificate. OAG 72-637.

A teacher who has taught four out of the last six years, is reemployed for a fifth year and who has a standard certificate has acquired tenure. OAG 72-637.

A teacher who taught on a limited contract for four years and was asked to resign after her fourth year with the understanding that she would be rehired and who was in fact rehired on her fifth limited contract would be eligible for tenure. OAG 72-664.

Subsection (2) (now (3)) of this section which contains the term “reemployed or reinstated in a comparable position” means that the employment after military service must be comparable to the prior employment only as to compensation and employee benefits but the employment assignment need not be the same or comparable to the employment assignment prior to military service and the reemployed teacher is entitled to be credited with the same seniority he would have gained upon proper performance of his employment if it had not been interrupted for military duty and to receive the same increments he would have received. OAG 73-266.

Subsection (2) (now (3)) of this section refers only to the armed forces of the United States, and has no reference to an elementary school principal being elected to the state legislature. OAG 73-322.

When a shortage of funds necessitates the reduction of teaching personnel, the only statutory preference granted is to teaching contracts with a continuing service contract and the school board upon the recommendation of the superintendent may reemploy or not reemploy such teachers as have a limited contract provided those not to be reemployed are notified by May 15th. OAG 73-383.

Since teachers’ tenure is regulated by statute it may not be altered by any regulation of a local board of education and under this section and KRS 161.720(1) a local board of education may not require a master’s degree of a teacher in order to qualify for a continuing contract. OAG 73-421.

When a teacher taught for four consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three years, returned from her leave and taught two consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486; 73-702.

Where a teacher with two years’ teaching experience in the county school system immediately prior to serving two years in the armed forces from which he was recently discharged timely applied for reemployment in the school system, said teacher should be “reinstated or reemployed in a comparable position” in conformity with the interpretation of that phrase and it was improper to notify this veteran that he would not be reemployed as a teacher because of loss of units and funds in the school system. OAG 73-513.

A teacher who had been employed for five consecutive years in the school district prior to July 1973, resigned his position in August 1973, and returned to his teaching position in January 1974 would be eligible for a limited contract but if at the end of the 1973-74 school year was reemployed, would then be eligible for a continuing contract by operation of law since he would meet all of the criteria of subsection (1)(b) of this section. OAG 74-31.

When a teacher is relieved from military service and makes proper application to be reemployed, the school district is required to promptly reinstate the teacher with all the rights and benefits provided public employees by KRS 61.371-61.379 which supersedes KRS 161.740(2). OAG 74-258.

The board does not have the option to delay, for one year, awarding a teacher who has served on four limited contracts, a continuing contract. OAG 74-290.

A teacher who has tenure after the effective date of the 1974 amendment cannot be placed on probationary status in any school district in the state. OAG 74-370.

When a teacher who has a continuing contract in one district transfers to another school district in the state, the employing district may employ the teacher with the understanding he is to be on probation for one year, but the employing board should include such a provision in the teacher’s contract and also record the condition in its official minutes. OAG 74-386, modifying OAG 74-370.

A teacher who had tenure but did not teach during the prior year because of dismissal or resignation can regain tenure in one year only by reemployment in the original district, and only then can the move be made to a new district without loss of the original tenure. OAG 74-421.

A school board cannot confer tenure upon a teacher as a teacher acquires tenure by operation of law when the conditions of this section are fulfilled. OAG 74-580.

Teachers who have not been on tenure in any system since the 1970-71 school year cannot be on tenure in the 1974-75 school year unless they have taught in the school district for four consecutive years or four out of the last six years and are not reemployed by the school district upon recommendation of the superintendent. OAG 74-590.
There is only one class of tenure and it includes school administrators who are required to have certification by the state department of education and are therefore included under the term "teachers" under KRS 161.720 for the purpose of continuing contract. OAG 72-2.

An individual, who has completed one year as an assistant principal and who for ten years just prior to said year was not employed in education and prior to the ten-year period, was a teacher on tenure, cannot be demoted without following the procedures of KRS 161.765 but under KRS 161.740 does not have tenure or a continuing contract and could be dismissed upon recommendation of the superintendent at the end of the school year without going through the procedures of KRS 161.790. OAG 75-413.

A teacher, after being employed for four years as principal in a school which has now been closed and then being demoted to an elementary teacher, cannot be given a one-year contract for the coming year as this section provides that when a currently employed teacher is reemployed after teaching four consecutive years in the same district, he shall have a continuing contract. OAG 75-492.

Where a teacher was employed by a board of education for four consecutive years from the 1970-71 school year through the 1973-74 school year, and where the teacher was rehired by the school board for the 1975-76 school year following his employment as a teacher in Ohio during the 1974-75 school year, the teacher was only eligible for a limited contract by the 1975-76 academic year, but upon reemployment for 1976-77, the teacher was entitled to a continuing status contract. OAG 76-277.

Neither a teacher who has taught three hours per day for 185 days nor a teacher who has taught full time for 94 school days may be considered to have a year of actual service for tenure purposes. OAG 76-278.

A teacher who was employed as a substitute teacher for at least 140 school days in the 1972-73 and 1973-74 school years and who was employed as a regular teacher during the 1974-75 and 1975-76 school years would have tenure in the school system if employed by the board of education for the academic year of 1976-77. OAG 76-282.

A teacher must be certified before commencing service which is to be credited toward the four years actual service in the same school district required for continuing service status. OAG 76-284.

Years spent in military service are not to be considered toward the four-year requirement for tenure status. OAG 76-316.

A teacher taught regularly in the school system for four years and received a continuing education contract and then during the next three years taught but was required to take many days leave of absence due to illness, was on maternity leave and then resigned from her teaching position and such resignation was accepted and the following year she requested to be considered for a position and was reemployed, such teacher should be reemployed and given a limited contract for the school year; however, if such teacher is recommended to the board by the superintendent for a contract for the following school year that contract will be for a continuing service status. OAG 76-490.

In a renewal of a limited contract situation, the absence of a recommendation to the board not to renew must be considered as a positive recommendation for renewal of the contract and those teachers in that situation would have a teaching contract for the ensuing year. OAG 77-308.

When a currently employed teacher who is eligible for continuing contract status is recommended for reemployment by the superintendent and the board votes favorably on that recommendation, the teacher is rehired and is entitled to tenure in the school system. OAG 77-413.

Where a teacher, who had attained tenure with a common school system, left to teach for seven years at a state correctional facility, and then rejoined the common school system, he lost his tenure when he resigned the county teaching position to accept employment with the state and since he had not been employed by another public common school the provision of subsection (1)(c) of this section is inapplicable and thus he must satisfy the requirements for securing tenure. OAG 78-319.

A teacher on tenure whose language of subsection (1)(c) of this section calls for continuity of teacher service from one school district to another, and any other construction would permit lapse of unlimited time between teaching service in one school district and another; if the lapse has been long enough, a one-year probationary period could be wholly insufficient to afford an opportunity for the second school district to evaluate the teacher’s performance before a tenure contract would have to be considered. OAG 78-320.

Although the chairman and secretary of the board of education, and the teacher, each signed a continuing service contract, the action would be ultra vires and void where the teacher had three years of experience teaching, and a limited contract must issue. OAG 78-831.

If a teacher moved from one school system where a tenure status contract was enjoyed in the 1973-1974 school year to another school system for the 1974-1975 school year, tenure status could have been given immediately or after a one-year probation but if the move had been made in the 1972-1973 school year, the school system would not have been at liberty to give a tenured contract two years hence for 1974-1975 and at least four years’ service would have been required before a teacher would have been eligible for a tenure contract. OAG 79-28.

Subsection (1)(c) of this section and KRS 161.155(3) are quite similar and should be construed consistently one with the other. OAG 79-148.

Where a school teacher has obtained tenure in a continuing service contract in one school district and becomes employed in another district, he can either be immediately granted a tenured contract without a probationary one-year period in the new district or can be placed on a one-year probation period, but the new superintendent and board cannot, under this section, wait two, three or four years before granting tenure in a continuing service contract. OAG 81-68.

A teacher must teach at least 140 six-hour days in a 185-day school term in order to be given credit for a year under the tenure law. OAG 82-614.

Where a teacher worked only one-half time in the school years 1976-77, 1977-78, 1978-79 and 1979-80 and did not in any school year teach at least 140 six-hour school days so as to be entitled to a year of credit towards tenure, the board of education had no legal right to award a continuing service contract to her after she had completed four years of part-time teaching and such contract was not binding and was void and could have no legal effect; in such instance, the board should issue a limited contract to such teacher after a majority vote on a motion before the board to do so and the minutes of the board should reference the previous minutes when the unlawful tenure contract had been approved. OAG 82-614.

Subdivision (1)(c) of this section, as amended in 1982, may be applied to any teacher who either had already resigned or retired since July 15, 1982, has resigned and seven months have not elapsed since the resignation; in either situation, at the time of the resignation, the teacher must have enjoyed continuing service contract status with the school district resigned from. OAG 82-619.

A teacher who had taught the prerequisite four years and had been reemployed by a board for the fifth year but who resigned before signing a continuing contract, and before performed any work at the beginning of the fifth year, acquired tenure and where such teacher had resigned after accepting employment with second school system, which system required teachers who had tenure in another district to serve a one year probationary period before being placed on tenure or continuing contract status, the teacher was entitled to a continuing service contract and tenure upon being reemployed by the second school system after serving the one-year's probationary service. OAG 82-619.

When a teacher with tenure in one district resigns and becomes employed in a second district, if the second district requires a year of probation, the teacher must complete probation during the time period that the teacher retains status in the former district. OAG 91-189.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a "present" service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

1. Eligibility.

This section does not require teaching in the six successive years immediately preceding the 1955-56 school year in its eligibility provisions. Cooksey v. Board of Educ., 316 S.W.2d 70 (Ky. 1957).

It is sufficient under this section for a teacher to have taught any six years, hold a certificate as defined in KRS 161.720 and be employed for the school year 1955-56. Cooksey v. Board of Educ., 316 S.W.2d 70 (Ky. 1957).

Where a teacher had taught three consecutive years before signing a limited contract of two years, she was entitled under the law to a continuing service contract at the end of the first year of the limited two-year contract. Moore v. Babb, 543 S.W.2d 373 (Ky. 1960).

In 1963, to be eligible for continuing service status, the four years of service required did not need to be accumulated after a certificate had been obtained but could include years of service acquired prior to the time of obtaining a certificate. Whitley County Bd. of Educ. v. Meadors, 444 S.W.2d 890 (Ky. 1969).

In 1971, a board of education improperly denied a continuing service contract to a teacher who had taught continuously in the same district from 1958 through 1971 except for the 1966-67 school year, since under the provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section he was eligible for such a contract. Estill County Bd. of Educ. v. Rose, 518 S.W.2d 341 (Ky. 1974).
to attain tenure had received a tenure contract by mistake, school board did not waive its right to insist upon the qualifications in this section. Dause v. Bates, 369 F. Supp. 139 (W.D. Ky. 1975), rev’d on other grounds, 502 F.2d 865 (6th Cir. 1974).

6. Nonrenewal of Contract. Although teacher had not yet completed four years employment, she was entitled to notice and a statement of the reasons for the decision of the school board not to renew her contract. Sparks v. Board of Educ., 549 S.W.2d 323 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977), overruled on other grounds, Singleton v. Board of Educ., 553 S.W.2d 848 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Teachers under limited contracts who completed four years of teaching had neither a statutory nor an implied right under the Fourteenth Amendment to a statement of specific reasons for the failure of the board of education to extend a continuing contract. Singleton v. Board of Educ., 553 S.W.2d 848 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where plaintiff, a teacher, was employed in one school district for six successive years, resigned, taught in another school system the following year, again resigned, took a year off and then taught for three years in a third school district before being released, he was entitled to no hearing under KRS 161.790, since, although he had achieved tenure at his first position, when he resigned he lost his tenure by reason of subsection (4) of KRS 161.720 and subdivision (1)(c) of this section is inapplicable. Carpenter v. Board of Educ., 582 S.W.2d 645 (Ky. 1979).

7. Transfer of Accumulated Benefits. The sick leave statute and the tenure statute, as embodied in KRS 161.155 and in this section respectively, are both designed to protect a teacher by allowing transfer from one school district to another without losing accumulated benefits. Young v. Board of Educ., 661 S.W.2d 787 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

8. Administrator. Unlike a teacher, a school administrator, even one who has completed three years administrative service, is not ever entitled to a continuing service contract as an administrator. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

9. Reduction of Responsibilities. A full-time teacher in 1986-87 who had her 1987-88 contract reduced to half time, but received no notification of the reduction in responsibilities, was deemed reemployed for the succeeding school year which constituted her fourth year and satisfied the service requirement under the tenure law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

Where a teacher had a reduction of responsibilities without proper statutory notification for both the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years, she was entitled to a full-time contract and full pay and benefits commensurate with her educational rank and teaching experience as determined by the school district’s approved salary schedule for the school years in question. Omitted contributions to the Kentucky Teachers Retirement System for 1987-88 and 1988-89 should also have been paid by the board and teacher in their proper proportions as determined by statutory law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

10. Determining Contract. Where the school board minutes did not disclose whether teacher/plaintiff’s contract was continuing or limited, resorting to other pertinent records was permissible. Board of Educ. v. Jones, 823 S.W.2d 457 (Ky. 1992).

161.750. Nonrenewal of limited contracts.

(1) Any teacher employed under a limited contract may be reemployed under the provisions of KRS 161.720 to 161.810 for the succeeding school year at the same salary, plus any increment or decrease as provided by the salary schedule, upon notification of the board by the superintendent of schools that the contract of the teacher is renewed.

(2) If the superintendent does not renew the contract he shall present written notice to the teacher that the contract will not be renewed no later than April 30 of the school year during which the contract is in effect. Upon receipt of a request by the teacher, the superintendent shall provide a written statement containing the specific, detailed, and complete statement of grounds upon which the nonrenewal of contract is based.

(3) The teacher shall be presumed to have accepted employment, unless he notifies the superintendent of schools in writing to the contrary on or before the fifteenth day of June, and a written contract for the succeeding year shall be executed accordingly. (Enact. Acts 1942, ch. 113, § 4; 1944, ch. 98; 1964, ch. 41, § 4; 1970, ch. 169, § 1; 1976, ch. 103, § 1; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. II, § 83, effective July 13, 1990.)

Cross-References. Teachers to be appointed after February 1, KRS 160.380.

Opinions of Attorney General. Mailing notice on May 15 to a teacher on a limited contract that his contract would not be renewed for the following year would not be effective where the notice could not possibly be received by him until a day or two later. OAG 71-338.

When a continuing service contract terminates by operation of law at age 65 the status of the teacher then becomes the same as one who is employed under a limited contract, and unless notified before May 15 that he is not reemployed for the ensuing year the teacher has a limited contract for the next year. OAG 72-363.

If a school board has given a written limited contract to a teacher between the ages of 65 and 70, but chooses in a subsequent year not to renew said contract, a statement that the board has a policy against employing teachers who have reached the age of 65 years is a sufficient reason for not renewing the teacher’s contract. OAG 73-231.

If a superintendent does not recommend a teacher for reemployment, that teacher’s contract does not automatically end with the school year as board of education action is absolutely necessary in order to create a contract or to deny a renewal of a contract which will otherwise be renewed by operation of law. OAG 74-661.

A local board of education can direct the superintendent to make a recommendation relative to a teacher’s contract since a recommendation is required by law and may be a part of appropriately adopted local board policies; the refusal by a superintendent to make a recommendation could be considered legal cause for the superintendent’s removal. OAG 80-205.

Although a superintendent could refuse to make a recommendation to the board of education regarding the renewal or not of a teacher’s contract, such refusal would be a neglect of a lawfully imposed duty. OAG 80-205.

If there is no recommendation by a superintendent and no action by the board of education, the teacher will be deemed reemployed since the board of education unequivocally cannot vote for nonrenewal of a teacher’s contract absent a recommendation of the superintendent. OAG 80-205.

The effect of a tie vote by a board of education on the renewal of a teacher’s contract is that the matter being voted upon has not been passed or approved. OAG 80-205.

Where a board of education member abstains from voting in a rehire or fire situation, the member’s “pass” vote is to be counted as voting with the majority of those present and voting. OAG 80-205.

A teacher who had taught the requisite four years and had been reemployed by a board for the fifth year but who resigned before signing a continuing contract, and before performing any work at the beginning of the fifth year, acquired tenure and where such teacher had resigned after accepting employment with second school system, which system required teachers who had tenure in another district to serve a one-year probationary period before being placed on tenure or continuing contract status, was entitled to a continuing service contract and tenure upon being reemployed by the second school system after serving the one-year’s probationary service. OAG 82-619.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

Absent any showing of a compelling governmental interest, the alleged policy of a school board in showing preference for hiring natives of its county would have constituted an inherently suspect classification and, therefore, would have been unconstitutionally discriminatory and preferential in violation of Const., §§ 1, 2, and 3. Johnson v. Dixon, 501 S.W.2d 256 (Ky. 1973).

2. Construction.

In this section, “may” has reference to the discretion of the board in employing teachers under limited contracts within the minimum and maximum limits provided by the statute. Board of Educ. v. Moore, 264 S.W.2d 292 (Ky. 1953) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

If the school board had reemployed a nontenured teacher for an additional school year or if he had not received written notice prior to May 15 of the year for which he was employed, then he would have a contract valid for the succeeding school year as provided by this section and his salary could not have been reduced except pursuant to KRS 161.760. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

3. Notice.

Where board did not give teacher notice as required by this section of intention not to reemploy her a short delay in obtaining a renewal certificate from the state superintendent did not justify the board in denying her the right to teach and it was liable for her salary as teacher for the school term which she would have earned if she had taught. Ball v. Bunch, 324 S.W.2d 828 (Ky. 1959).

Registered letters sent on May 1, 1973, to inform three teachers that their continuing service contract would expire on July 1, 1973, and would not be renewed met the requirements of subsection (2). Belcher v. Gish, 555 S.W.2d 264 (Ky. 1977), (decision prior to 1976 amendment).

Although teacher had not yet completed four years employment, she was entitled to more than sixty days of written notice prior to May 15 of the year for which she was employed, Board of Educ., 553 S.W.2d 848 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Requirement of giving specific reasons upon request is not a condition of the validity of the school board’s action in not renewing a contract. Sparks v. Board of Educ., 549 S.W.2d 323 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977), overruled on other grounds, Singleton v. Board of Educ., 553 S.W.2d 848 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a teacher has completed the four-year probationary period under a limited contract, thus attaining eligibility for a continuing contract, KRS 161.740 and not this section is the controlling statute regarding notice and the giving of reasons requirements. Singleton v. Board of Educ., 553 S.W.2d 848 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The giving of timely written notice by the local superintendent of schools to two untenured teachers that their contracts would not be renewed was sufficient to terminate their employment without the approval of the board of education. Sparks v. Board of Educ., 553 S.W.2d 394 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

A full-time teacher in 1986-87 who had her 1987-88 contract reduced to half time, but received no notification of the reduction in responsibilities, was deemed reemployed for the succeeding school year which constituted her fourth year and satisfied the service requirements under the tenure law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 373 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

Where a teacher had a reduction of responsibilities without proper statutory notification for both the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years, she was entitled to a full-time contract and full pay and benefits commensurate with her educational rank and teaching experience as determined by the school district’s approved salary schedule for the school years in question. Omitted contributions to the Kentucky Teachers Retirement System for 1987-88 and 1988-89 should also have been paid by the board and Powell in their proper proportions as determined by statutory law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 373 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

County’s procedure of notifying all untenured teachers that they will not be rehired, when in practice most are, is obviously an attempt to “circumvent” this section. Gibson v. Board of Educ., 805 S.W.2d 673 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Had the board of education provided a written statement of the actual reasons for refusing to rehire a nontenured teacher, as contemplated by subsection (2) of this section, its duty to him would have been fulfilled by the mailing of same to the teacher’s current address. Gibson v. Board of Educ., 805 S.W.2d 673 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Subsection (2) of this section requires a statement, if requested, from the school board to the nontenured teacher giving the specific, detailed and complete reasons why the teacher is not being reemployed. Failure to provide the statement results in the nontenured teacher being reemployed automatically by operation of law in the school system. Thompson v. Board of Educ., 838 S.W.2d 390 (Ky. 1992).

4. Reemployment.

Board has no right to contract for reemployment for one year only after employee has had a year's service or after the termination of the first contract and such reemployment contracts will be held to be for successive two-year periods commencing from the expiration of the year's service or after termination of the first contract. Board of Educ. v. Justice, 268 S.W.2d 648 (Ky. 1954) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

Where the defendant board of education entered into a "professional agreement" with the plaintiff education association outlining a five-step grievance procedure, this need not be utilized in a case where the board decides "not to reemploy" a teacher pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, since the board has an absolute right of dismissal which cannot be limited by contract. Board of Educ. v. Louisville Educ. Ass'n, 574 S.W.2d 310 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

5. Action Against Board.

Nontenured teacher who brought suit alleging that the school board wrongfully failed to renew his teaching contract was not required to go through the useless act of requesting the board to give him specific reasons for his not being reemployed when the board had already stated its reasons in a letter notifying him of the nonrenewal of his contract. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Subsection (2) of this section requires a board of education to do more than merely recite its provision, it requires a board to provide substantive reasons for nonrenewal of a nontenured teacher's contract. Phillips v. Board of Educ., 580 S.W.2d 730 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

A school board neither has to rehire a teacher on a limited contract nor provide him with a hearing if he is not rehired. Gibson v. Board of Educ., 805 S.W.2d 673 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

161.760. Notice of salary to be paid to teacher — Increases — Reductions in responsibility.

(1) The superintendent of schools shall give notice not later than forty-five (45) days before the first student attendance day of the succeeding school year to each teacher who holds a contract valid for the succeeding school year, stating the best estimate as to the salary to be paid the teacher during the year. The salary shall not be lower than the salary paid during the preceding school year, unless the reduction is a part of a uniform plan affecting all teachers in the entire district, or unless there is a reduction of responsibilities. Nothing herein shall prevent increases of salary after the superintendent's annual notice has been given. All teachers who refuse assignment shall notify the superintendent in writing not later than thirty (30) days before the first student attendance day of the school year.

(2) Transfer or change in appointment of teachers later than thirty (30) days before the first student attendance day of the school year shall be made only to fill vacancies created by illness, death, or resignations; to reduce or increase personnel because of a shift in school population; to make personnel adjustments after consolidation or merger; or to assign personnel according to their certification pursuant to KRS 161.010 to 161.120 provided, in the latter instance, that the teacher was appointed to a position outside his or her field of certification in the previous year.

(3) Reduction of responsibility for a teacher may be accompanied by a corresponding reduction in salary provided that written notification stating the specific reason for the reduction shall be furnished to the teacher not later than ninety (90) days before the first student attendance day of the school year.

(4) Employment of a teacher, under either a limited or a continuing contract, is employment in the school district only and not in a particular position or school.

Opinions of Attorney General. There is no reduction in the salary of a coach who is transferred to a teaching position if the compensation paid for the extra duty of coaching is terminated when he stops performing coaching services. OAG 61-559.

This section and KRS 161.780 are not in conflict since this section concerns termination of employment only and KRS 161.780 concerns refusal of an assignment. OAG 64-576.

An individual who served as a principal of a high school during the 1970-71 school year, and was reduced to the position of a teacher in an elementary school for the school year of 1971-72, was entitled to the same salary he received as a high school principal, since he was not notified of the reduction until after May 15, 1971, as required by this section. OAG 72-72.

A principal may not be given less increase in his over-all salary than the basic salary increase passed by the legislature for all teachers when all other teachers have received the stipulated increase. OAG 72-390.

A school board may not reduce a principal's extra pay for extra services without also making a reduction in the extra services accordingly. OAG 72-390.

If an elementary school principal was granted a leave of absence to serve in an elective office, he would not be entitled to his original position upon the termination of his leave of absence, but could be assigned by the board of education to any position. OAG 73-322.

No right upon the part of the teacher to have a hearing against the decision of the board in making the reassignment is implicit in this section and such decision can only be challenged upon the grounds that it is arbitrary. OAG 73-342.

When a school board decides to demote a principal or teacher it should give him notice prior to May 15th as provided by this section, together with a statement of the reasons for demotion, and within a reasonable time it should notify him of a given date between May 15th and July 1st upon which he may have a hearing if he desires one. OAG 74-96, modifying OAG 73-342.

As the superintendent is the executive agent of the board of education and has the responsibility to carry out the lawful orders of the board, the order of the board eliminating the position of deputy superintendent for the year 1973-74 and to so notify the incumbent is a lawful order but the incumbent must be notified by May 15 that his salary for the next year will be reduced or he will be entitled to at least the same salary he received during the present year. OAG 73-378.

When a board of education officially decides to eliminate a position or not to fill a position for the coming year and to employ the person filling the eliminated position in a position of reduced responsibility and salary, it is necessary that the employee be notified that his position and salary will be reduced for the coming year before May 15 and the superintendent and the board will than have until July 1 to decide on the elimination of a position for said employee. OAG 76-360.

School board may withhold an increment from a teacher’s salary where teacher did not conform to board policy requiring normal progress toward an M.A. degree, subject to the provisions of former KRS 157.420. OAG 74-290.

When the superintendent has not recommended a reduction in duties and salary and when a proper notice has not been given stating the reasons therefor by May 15, the board of education may not on its own will vote a reduction in salary. OAG 74-625.

There is no provision in this section which gives a teacher a right to a supervisory position because of his seniority, since the assignment of teachers and principals is entirely within the discretion of the school board. OAG 74-757.

Notice of the amount of a reduction in compensation due to the reduction or elimination of extra service must be given along with the notice of the reduction in extra service by May 15. OAG 75-339.

Serving as a coach or assistant coach of a school team is extra service as contemplated in this section. OAG 75-339.

A teacher who also is a coach may resign his coaching duties without resigning as a teacher and upon such resignation may be assigned to teach in another school in the district. OAG 75-397.

Not permitting a husband and wife to teach in the same building is a legitimate exercise of the power of the school board. OAG 75-532.

Although an outgoing superintendent of a county school system had the responsibility for making the recommendations for contracts for the limited contract personnel for the next school term by May 15, the new superintendent could determine position assignments of the certified personnel in the school system up to July 15. OAG 76-290.

A teacher who was hired to teach and placed in a reading position by the board does not have a claim to that position and her rights would not be violated if the principal and the superintendent later feeling it would be in the best interest of the school transferred the teacher to a fifth grade class in the same school, for a teacher, whether under limited or continuing contract, is employed in the school district only and not in a particular position or school and a teacher may be reassigned by the school board, upon recommendation by the superintendent, up to July 15 and after this date reassignment of certified personnel may be made only under the limited circumstances provided for in subsection (1) (now (2)) of this section. OAG 76-436.

Where because of budgetary considerations a county board of education must reduce the number of administrative personnel through the elimination of administrative positions, those individuals who have not completed three years of administrative service in the school system must first be recommended for demotion. OAG 77-282.

If the county board of education has not notified a certified employee who has held the position of athletic director that he will no longer be assigned that position and the reasons therefor and that there will be a reduction in pay, the board would be foreclosed from reducing that employee’s salary for the upcoming school year. OAG 77-573.

The dates specified in subsection (1) of this section are actual and no changes in the salary schedule may be made for the following school year thereafter, unless a deficit would otherwise result. OAG 78-641.

While a clear obligation rests with the local school superintendent to professionally advise and to prepare salary schedules, the local board is in a position of adopting as is or modifying the tendered salary schedule as it, in exercising its discretion consistent with state laws and budgetary constraints, deems necessary. OAG 78-641.

If employment of a teacher is going to be linked to a particular position or responsibility, such as coaching, the superintendent should recommend accordingly; and by like token the board of education for said employee is not at liberty to in essence, vote upon only part of the recommendation. OAG 80-205.

For individuals who have failed to hold administrative positions in a school district for at least three years, the school district is not required to implement the due process procedures including a hearing outlined in KRS 161.765, but must only follow this section. OAG 82-135.

Seniority is not required by statute to come into play in deciding which administrative employees to transfer as a result of reductions; however, school districts may adopt a procedure of considering seniority as a factor in a reduction of administrators’ situation. OAG 82-135.

Since the Court of Appeals has concluded that an administrator protected by KRS 161.765 should also have the benefit of the procedural safeguards of subsection (2) (now subsection (3)) of this section, if a school district, with the recommendation of the local superintendent, intends to demote an administrator with three or more years administrative service, the written notice of demotion and the opportunity for a due process hearing under KRS 161.765 must be completed before May 15. OAG 82-135.

Administrators and administrators, even those with more than three years of administrative service who are protected under KRS 161.765, do not have a statutorily protected right to a particular teaching or administrative position. OAG 82-135.

Where a local board of education has been paying a supplement to a teacher or a specific group of teachers for a period of several years, and then decides to reduce the supplement by a small amount over a period of years, with the intent to eliminating it, the board is not required to show that reduction when providing its July 1st best estimate of salaries or salaries to be paid to the teacher or group of teachers. OAG 85-87.

A superintendent may change assignments of personnel prior to July 16 without creating “vacancies” as defined by KRS 160.380(1)(b), but after July 15, when positions are occupied by personnel as assigned by the superintendent, and when certified position openings occur due to resignation, dismissal, transfer, death, nonrenewal of contract, or creation of new positions, those openings constitute “vacancies” under KRS 160.380(14)(b). OAG 91-149.

Employment of teachers is deemed to be employment in the district, not in a particular position or school, consequently, assignments of position and school, under certain conditions, do not constitute transfers when those assignments are different from previous assignments of position and school. OAG 91-149.

While the superintendent is responsible for personnel actions including, among other things, hiring and assignments, to the extent that the local board is responsible for control and management of school funds, the board may determine the amount of extended employment and compensation for personnel employed beyond the 185 day period and the salary to a teacher (which includes most administrators for purposes of the teachers tenure law), must be accompanied by appropriate notice. OAG 92-29.

1. Application.

This section applies to annual contract teachers and the notice required to alter their pay or reassign them; it does not apply to the demotion of tenured administrative personnel. Frisby v. Board of Educ., 707 S.W.2d 359 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

The Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA) Board of Education’s failure to take official, and presumably final, action in informing school personnel of demotion prior to May 15 as provided by subsection (3) of this section and thus invalidating the demotion had been changed by the enactment of KRS 160.390 which effectively supersedes the May 15 requirement and under the plain language of this section and KRS 160.390 makes the superintendent’s action of demotion effective upon mere written notice to the affected employee of the action. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

While this section is couched in terms only of “teachers” its provisions apply to school administrators as well, since, by definition, administrators are also teachers. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

Since superintendent’s action in demoting school administrator was effective when administrator received notice of demotion from superintendent, while KRS 161.765 admittedly provides administrators with enhanced procedural protections, it does nothing to change the effective date of a demotion, and it is that effective date that controls for the purpose of the May 15 deadline set forth in this section and the fact that an administrator might contest the demotion, and thus the action might not become final for some time is of no consequence under KRS 160.390(2). Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

Subsection (2) of this section does not require finality to effect a reduction in salary and by its very terms KRS 160.390(2) makes the superintendent’s personnel action effective upon receipt of the written notice by the affected employee; therefore, where administrator received notice of demotion on April 26 followed by a specific statement of reasons for the demotion on May 9, the requirements of subsection (3) of this section have been met. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

2. Reduction of Salary.

County board of education could not predicate any right to reduce school principal’s salary after August 1st upon the mere absence of a formal order reinstating his continuing contract suspended in March based on an order discontinuing school which order was rescinded in May and the board thereafter had a position in its school system for which he was qualified and to which the board assigned him in July. Board of Educ. v. Hogge, 239 S.W.2d 459 (Ky. 1951) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

While a principal holding a continuing contract under teacher’s tenure law could be transferred to a teaching position in another school his salary could not be reduced even though he was employed under a continuing contract stating his salary could be increased or decreased. Board of Educ. v. Hogge, 239 S.W.2d 459 (Ky. 1951) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

A board of education does not have the right to reduce the salaries of its school principals without a reduction in the salaries of its other teaching personnel, since the reduction of salaries of all principals in the district did not constitute a uniform plan affecting the entire teaching staff. Greenup County Bd. of Educ. v. Harper, 256 S.W.2d 37 (Ky. 1953), but see Preuss v. Board of Educ., 667 S.W.2d 391 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

This section says that if a teacher having continuing service status has been entrusted with a position of extra responsibility which carries extra compensation above the base salary, she shall be deemed to possess such experience, training and other qualifications as to command the higher pay, and is entitled to continue to receive the higher compensation by reason of such qualifications, without regard to whether she continues to be assigned extra duties. Board of Educ. v. Lawrence, 375 S.W.2d 830 (Ky. 1963).

Although he had refused a position as high school principal on the ground he was not qualified and later learned he was qualified, the board of education could transfer employee whose continuing service contract did not specify the school or class of position from elementary principal of one school to high school teacher in another school but it could not reduce his salary where the reduction was not part of a uniform plan affecting the entire district unless the continuing service contract was modified by mutual consent in writing. Huff v. Harlan County Bd. of Educ., 408 S.W.2d 457 (Ky. 1966).

A teacher was not estopped, by continuing to teach, from claiming his full former salary where his duties were reduced, but this section was not complied with as to salary reduction notification. Board of Educ. v. Stephens, 449 S.W.2d 421 (Ky. 1970).

The failure of the board of education to notify a teacher by May 15 foreclosed the board’s right to reduce the teacher’s salary for the ensuing school year, even though it had reduced his duties from those of a principal to a teacher. Board of Educ. v. Stephens, 449 S.W.2d 421 (Ky. 1970).

If the school board had reemployed a nontenured teacher for an additional school year or if he had not received written notice prior to May 15 of the year for which he was employed then he would have had a contract valid for the succeeding school year and his salary could not have been reduced except pursuant to the provisions of this section. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Even though tenured teacher was aware of reduction in duties and salary for ensuing year by May 15 of preceding year, the board of education had no right to reduce his salary for the ensuing school year where it failed to give him timely notice in writing of the proposed reduction in salary. Settles v. Camic, 552 S.W.2d 693 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a school board hired a math and science coordinator for 11 months, rather than nine and one-fourth months at an increased salary, and therefore was aware of his position despite their claims that he was not officially hired in a capacity as a math and science coordinator, and where the board subsequently stripped him of his coordinating duties and reduced his salary without the recommendation of the superintendent, its action was arbitrary, capricious and void. Board of Educ. v. Garner, 556 S.W.2d 453 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The notice required by this section to notify a teacher of the reason for reduction in his salary need not contain a specific reason for the reduction of that teacher’s responsibilities.

Where a notice of proposed demotion was sent to a school principal three days after the May 15 statutory deadline for notice of reduction in salary under this section, there was no valid notice of reduction in salary or reassignment since the notice was only superintendent's recommendation that she be demoted and the board of education had not yet acted on the superintendent's recommendation. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

A school board must affirmatively act on a superintendent's recommendation of a proposed demotion and notify the teacher involved of such action before May 15 in order for it to be effective; accordingly, where the superintendent's recommendation that the administrator be demoted from director of pupil personnel to a position as a classroom teacher was made in April, but the board of education failed to act on the recommendation until June, the notice requirements of subsection (2) (now (3)) of this section were not complied with and the board's action was void. Banks v. Board of Educ., 648 S.W.2d 542 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

Although statutes do not require a school district to compensate its certified personnel for extra services, once extra compensation is paid, no reduction thereof may be made except in the two situations allowed by subsection (1) of this section. Preuss v. Board of Educ., 667 S.W.2d 391 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

Where school system adopted new method of paying administrators which did not use the three components of base pay, extended pay and extra service pay, and principal's extra service pay was thereby reduced even though his total salary increased, principal, and others in same position, did incur a salary reduction under this section; since administrators' duties were not decreased and as they were not provided notice of the reduction in salary, the reductions were validly made only if the administrative salary schedule was a part of a uniform plan affecting the entire district. Preuss v. Board of Educ., 667 S.W.2d 391 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

Where a reduction decreased a component of salary paid only to principals and not to teachers, i.e., the extra service component, it was necessary, in order to be uniform, only that all principals with the same education, experience and other classifying factors received the same pay throughout the entire system; where that was done the reduction in the salary component did not violate this section even though it applied only to administrators and not to teachers. Preuss v. Board of Educ., 667 S.W.2d 391 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

3. “Major” Reduction.

A 25 percent reduction in earnings as a result of transfer would be a major, as opposed to a minor, reduction in earnings. Cooper v. Board of Educ., 587 S.W.2d 845 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

4. Uniform Plan of Reduction.

The specific notice of the nature of that provided in subsection (3) of this section is not required as a condition precedent to implementation of a state-mandated plan encompassing all teachers simply because some teachers are affected more than others or perhaps some teachers are not affected at all. White v. Board of Educ., 697 S.W.2d 161 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

“Uniform plan affecting all teachers in the entire district” does not mean that every teacher must suffer a like impact from a plan, or indeed any impact at all, rather, it means that a plan encompassing every teacher is valid notwithstanding that some teachers may be situated outside the scope of impact. White v. Board of Educ., 697 S.W.2d 161 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

The clear wording of this section mandates that reductions in salary which are a part of “a uniform plan affecting all teachers in the entire district” may be had without the specific notice required in subsection (3) of this section; this latter section is designed to give notice only to those persons who have suffered a reduction in responsibility and corresponding reduction in salary outside of an overall plan affecting all teachers. White v. Board of Educ., 697 S.W.2d 161 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

5. Employment for Less Than One Year.

6. Demotion.

Where an assistant principal was simply transferred to a position of less responsibility, which would command substantially less pay, but the transfer was not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay (and thus was not a demotion as defined), it nevertheless became a demotion when the pay was reduced in a subsequent year. Cooper v. Board of Educ., 587 S.W.2d 845 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

The Circuit Court did not err in requiring the county board of education to pay a school principal who had been demoted to classroom teacher the excess salary in the succeeding year after the demotion as he was paid in his last year as principal, where the school board had not yet acted on the superintendent's recommendation and reduced the principal's salary by May 15 of his last year as principal. Daugherty v. Hunt, 694 S.W.2d 719 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

In the case of the demotion or reassignment of a probationary administrator under the provisions of the Teacher Tenure Act, the definition of a school year covering seven months’ service only has meaning when coupled with the words “within a school year.” Thus an administrator must only serve seven months “within each school year” beginning July 1 and ending June 30 in order to have worked “three years” as an administrator. If such administrator has already worked seven months during his third school year or will have worked seven months before June 30 of his third year of administrative service, he must be notified of a demotion before May 15 of that year, under KRS 161.760. Board of Educ. v. Paul, 846 S.W.2d 675 (Ky. 1992).

7. Superintendent.

The office of superintendent is outside the scope of the provisions of the Teacher Tenure Act. Floyd v. Board of Educ., 598 S.W.2d 460 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

8. Administrators With Longer Tenure.

Where subsection (1) of KRS 161.765, which applies to an administrator with less than three years of administrative service, provides that procedural safeguards of this section concerning notice and reassignment must be complied with, subsection (2) of KRS 161.765, which provides no such express requirement, must be read together with this section in order to furnish administrators of longer tenure with procedural safeguards in addition to those provided under this section. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

9. Transfer.

The provisions of this section prohibiting the transfer of a teacher after July 15, except for specific, statutory exceptions, are to be strictly construed; accordingly, where the superintendent, in early July, recommended the transfer of two teachers but the board failed to approve the transfer, consistently deadlocking on a 2-2 vote for several days beyond July 15, the board, in effect, failed to act on the recommendation and consequently, the circuit court's finding that a de facto transfer had occurred was without authority and erroneous. Burkhart v. Board of Educ., 649 S.W.2d 855 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

By the enactment of this statute the General Assembly of Kentucky clearly established that a teacher who has a contract to teach, has no absolute right to a particular teaching job in a particular school and the school boards have discretion.
to transfer teachers within their district. Board of Educ. v. Jayne, 812 S.W.2d 129 (Ky. 1991).

Two teachers who were transferred to other schools after failing to improve their pass/failure rate, suffered no injury as they suffered no loss of pay, and no loss of fringe benefits, nor was there evidence indicating that the decision of the superintendent and the school board was based on racial discrimination, gender discrimination, religious discrimination, or political activity discrimination and therefore Const., § 2 was not invoked. Board of Educ. v. Jayne, 812 S.W.2d 129 (Ky. 1991).

161.765. Procedures for demotion of administrative personnel — Appeal.

(1) A superintendent may demote an administrator who has not completed three (3) years of administrative service, not including leave granted under KRS 161.770, by complying with the requirements of KRS 161.760.

(2) An administrator who has completed three years of administrative service, not including leave granted under KRS 161.770, cannot be demoted unless the following procedures have been complied with:

(a) The superintendent shall give written notice of the demotion to the board of education and to the administrator. If the administrator wishes to contest the demotion, he shall, within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice, file a written statement of his intent to contest with the superintendent. If the administrator does not make timely filing of his statement of intent to contest, the action shall be final.

(b) Upon receipt of the notice of intent to contest the demotion, a written statement of grounds for demotion, signed by the superintendent, shall be served on the administrator. The statement shall contain:

1. A specific and complete statement of grounds upon which the proposed demotion is based, including, where appropriate, dates, times, names, places, and circumstances;

2. The date, time, and place for a hearing, the date to be not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of service of the statement of grounds for demotion upon the administrator.

(c) Upon receipt of the statement of grounds for demotion the administrator shall, within ten (10) days, file a written answer. Failure to file such answer, within the stated period, will relieve the board of any further obligation to hold a hearing and the action shall be final. The board shall issue subpoenas as are requested.

(d) The hearing on the demotion shall be public or private, at the discretion of the administrator and shall be limited to the matters set forth in the written statement of grounds for demotion. The board shall provide to the administrator a verbatim transcript of the hearing. The board of education shall hear the case, with the board chairman presiding. The board, upon hearing the evidence and argument presented, shall retire to private chambers to arrive at a decision. Counsel or representatives for either party in the hearing shall not be consulted by the board unless the corresponding counsel or representatives for the other party are present.

Where a teacher had a reduction of responsibilities without proper statutory notification for both the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years, she was entitled to a full-time contract and full pay and benefits commensurate with her educational rank and teaching experience as determined by the school district’s approved salary schedule for the school years in question. Omitted contributions to the Kentucky Teachers Retirement System for 1987-88 and 1988-89 should also have been paid by the board and Powell in their proper proportions as determined by statutory law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 F.2d 376 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

12. — Reason.

Where letter informing teacher of removal as a coordinator and of a corresponding reduction in salary stated that the reason for such replacement was that the position would be incorporated into the central office staff but superintendent in his disposition, stated that the reason for transferring the duties was that he had had “numerous complaints among the vocational staff there” but declined to identify who had complained or what the complaints involved, the reason stated in the letter was not the reason underlying the action, and the notification does not satisfy subsection (3) of this section. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

When this section requires reasons, it means true reasons. Charges against a teacher must be specific enough for him to prepare a defense. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

13. — Notice.

Regarding notice of reduction of responsibility, actual notice is not sufficient to satisfy this section; written notification is required. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Where certified letter notifying teacher of his removal as vocational coordination and of a corresponding reduction in salary was delivered to the post office on May 13 and a return receipt placed in teacher’s box on that date but teacher did not pick up the letter until May 17, written notification was furnished teacher prior to May 15 as required by this section and his own failure to collect and read his mail does not negate that fact. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

The grounds for a demotion of an administrator are left to the sound discretion of the superintendent and board of education so long as they do not act in an arbitrary or unreasonable manner. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

It is clear from the language of this section that the prohibition against arbitrary action applies to all public bodies and all public officials, e.g., school boards and school superintendents, in their assertion or attempted exercise of political power. Board of Educ. v. Jayne, 812 S.W.2d 129 (Ky. 1991).
and unless a verbatim transcript of such consultation is made for the record.

(e) Within five (5) days from the close of the hearing, the board of education shall advise the parties of its decision and shall take official action in the case.

(f) Appeal from final board action may be taken in the same manner and under the same provisions as an appeal from tribunal action under KRS 161.790.

Opinions of Attorney General. This section has no application to personnel action taken before June 21, 1974. OAG 74-370.

This section deals only with demotion and not with dismissal. OAG 75-2.

Although this section applies to guidance counselors, where a counselor is reassigned as a teacher at the same salary he is not entitled to a hearing under this section since, in view of KRS 161.720, he has not been demoted within the meaning of the law. OAG 75-368.

An individual, who has completed one year as an assistant principal and who for ten years just prior to said year was not employed in education and prior to the ten-year period, was a teacher on tenure and had had at least three years' experience as an administrator comes under this section and cannot be demoted without following the procedures of this section. OAG 75-413; 76-99.

An athletic director would be an administrator for the purposes of this section. OAG 77-114.

Inasmuch as administrative service in another school system is of no consequence whatsoever as concerns this section, a certified employee who has in excess of three years of administrative experience but who has served only two years as a principal in the school system where presently employed would not be entitled to a hearing if demoted by the board. OAG 77-157.

The assignment of an administrator with at least three years' administrative service in the same school system to a teaching position or any position not having administrative responsibilities would be a demotion, irrespective of the similarity of salary. OAG 77-328.

Since years of service as superintendent of schools would not be counted for purposes of this section, a school business administrator who has completed two years of service following a four-year term as superintendent could be demoted. OAG 77-483.

A board of education could reduce the term of an elementary school principal's contract from 12 months to a lesser number of months, but could not reduce his salary without giving written notice as required by subsection (2) of this section. OAG 78-148.

An elementary school principal could not be demoted to a classroom teacher with a reduction in salary unless the procedures of this section were followed. OAG 78-148.

It would appear that a demotion involves at least two positions and, accordingly, when a school board changes only contract characteristics, specifically duration of the contract, of a single administrative position, this action does not constitute a demotion for the purposes of this section. OAG 78-148.

While upon timely recommendation by the superintendent and approval by the board of education (before May 15), an administrator serving a school system protected under the provisions of this section may still be assigned to a different administrative position in the school system, the new administrative position may not subject the individual to a substantial alteration in pay received for performing administrative services in the school system. OAG 78-793.

A demotion can be made, after a full following of the procedures mandated in the statute, on strictly economic and nonpersonal grounds. OAG 79-111.

If the reasons for the reduction in expenditures are fully given, the requirements of subdivision (2)(b) of this section will have been met. OAG 79-111.

This section does not give one protected by its provisions any right to a particular administrative position in the school system. OAG 79-111.

This section is not a "tenure" statute. OAG 79-111.

This section provides administrative procedural due process which must be complied with before a certified employee who has been an administrator in a school system for three years may be demoted. OAG 79-111.

For individuals who have failed to hold administrative positions in a school district for at least three years, the school district is not required to implement the due process procedures including a hearing outlined in this section, but must only follow KRS 161.760. OAG 82-135.

For those administrators who have the requisite three years or more administrative experience in a school district, which years need not be in the same administrative position, the detailed due process procedures of subsection (2) of this section must be followed before a school district may demote them back into the classroom. OAG 82-135.

Seniority is not required by statute to come into play in deciding which administrative employees to transfer as a result of reductions; however, school districts may adopt a procedure of considering seniority as a factor in a reduction of administrators situations. OAG 82-135.

Since the Court of Appeals has concluded that an administrator protected by this section should also have the benefit of the procedural safeguards of KRS 161.760(2), if a school district, with the recommendation of the local superintendent, intends to demote an administrator with three or more years administrative service, the written notice of demotion and the opportunity for a due process hearing must be completed before May 15. OAG 82-135.

Teachers and administrators, even those with more than three years of administrative service, do not have a statutorily protected right to a particular teaching or administrative position. OAG 82-135.

The demotion process under this section was not intended by the general assembly to be available solely as a disciplinary measure to be taken only if an administrator was not adequately performing expected administrative services. "Grounds" can also be premised upon budgetary problems. OAG 82-135.

A teacher may take an unpaid leave of absence for maternity, which may properly include time for care of a newborn infant, even if there is no disability, and this maternity leave shall be granted by the local board of education for a reasonable period of time on an individual basis, considering individual circumstances. OAG 86-66.

Effective July 13, 1990, the Kentucky Education Reform Act, House Bill 940, Acts Chapter 476, removed responsibility for personnel decisions from the local school board and placed that responsibility with the superintendent. Accordingly, the superintendent may legally demote a principal who has served three or more years in administrative service only upon fully following the procedures of this section. Similarly, the superintendent may legally demote a central office administrator (such as an assistant superintendent, general supervisor, director of pupil personnel, etc.) only upon fully abiding by this section. OAG 91-119.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Application.
   The language of this section would seem to indicate that it was intended to apply to disciplinary actions against tenured school administrators for it refers to giving complete and specific grounds upon which the proposed demotion is based including dates, names, places and circumstances; provides for a hearing of the grounds which may be in private at the request of the administrator; and provides that the board, upon hearing the evidence and argument of counsel, shall decide the issue. Cooper v. Board of Educ., 587 S.W.2d 845 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

   The Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA) Board of Education’s failure to take official, and presumably final, action in informing school personnel of demotion prior to May 15 as provided by KRS 161.760(3) and thus invalidating the demotion had been changed by the enactment of KRS 160.390 which effectively superseded the May 15 requirement and under the plain language of KRS 161.760 and 160.390 makes the superintendent’s action of demotion effective upon mere written notice to the affected employee of the action. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

   Since superintendent’s action in demoting school administrator was effective when administrator received notice of demotion from superintendent, while this section admittedly provides administrators with enhanced procedural protections, it does nothing to change the effective date of a demotion, and it is that effective date that controls for the purpose of the May 15 deadline set forth in KRS 161.760 and the fact that an administrator might contest the demotion, and thus the action might not become final for some time is of no consequence under KRS 160.390(2). Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

2. Hearing.
   Under this section, an administrator must be afforded a hearing in the event of demotion regardless of the reason for the demotion. Harlan County Bd. of Educ. v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

   Where an assistant principal was an administrator with tenure and, subsequent to his termination, was reemployed as an elementary school teacher, he was in fact demoted and was entitled to a hearing. Harlan County Bd. of Educ. v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

   The vote of the board of education to demote a school principal need not be held in public. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

   This section, as amended in 1990 to eliminate principals’ right to a hearing before demotion while protecting lesser administrators, did not deny equal protection where one basis for eliminating the right of principals to the cumbersome procedural safeguards of other administrators was to permit the swift removal of principals who may be in a unique position to hinder easy implementation of the Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA); therefore, there was a legitimate distinction between principals and other administrators supporting the sweep of the tenure statute. Arney v. Campbell, 856 F. Supp. 1203 (W.D. Ky. 1994).

   Where notice to school counselors only stated that demotion was based upon required reduction of expenditures and did not say why expenditures were required to be reduced, why the reduction should be applied to the counselors as opposed to reducing some other expenditure, why a particular counselor was selected as opposed to another counselor or other administrator of equal pay and rank, where the specific budget adjustment was made nor when a budget would be adopted for that year or if one had been adopted, such notice was inadequate. Hartman v. Board of Educ., 562 S.W.2d 645 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

   Where superintendent’s letter to administrator, while arguably containing only general statements of charges against administrator alluded to past correspondence between the two that set forth in some detail the source of the superintendent’s dissatisfaction with administrator’s performance, administrator was sufficiently informed of the specific reasons for his demotion and corresponding reduction in salary. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

   Subsection (2(b)(1) of this section protects administrators from demotions based on vague, unsubstantiated or generalized allegations of misconduct. The provision exists to allow administrators to know the specific nature of the charges against them, in order to evaluate the accusation intelligently and prepare for a hearing on the matter. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

   Although superintendent failed to set out a date, time and place for the hearing on the demotion of the administrator in letter sent to administrator informing him of the reasons for his demotion, where administrator requested and received a twenty-five day continuance, the failure to comply with the technical requirements of subsection (2(b)(2) of this section in no way compromised his defense, and no prejudice resulted. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839 (Ky. 1997).

4. Reinstatement.
   Where school principal had been demoted after a Roman circus type hearing by a school board biased against him, and based on testimony of a group of teachers similarly biased against him to the point they had agitated for his removal, the board’s decision was arbitrary and unreasonable and the trial court’s order reinstating the principal would be affirmed. Hart County Bd. of Educ. v. Broady, 577 S.W.2d 423 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

5. Lateral Transfer.
   This section cannot be evaded by the expedient of a lateral transfer to a position of less responsibility in one year followed by a reduction in pay in a succeeding year when the duties of the new position at the time of the transfer were so significantly less as to have justified a major reduction in pay at the time of transfer. Cooper v. Board of Educ., 587 S.W.2d 845 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

6. Demotion.
   Where an assistant principal was simply transferred to a position of less responsibility, which would command substantially less pay, but the transfer was not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay (and thus was not a demotion as defined), it nevertheless became a demotion when the pay was reduced in a subsequent year. Cooper v. Board of Educ., 587 S.W.2d 845 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

Where statement of grounds for school principal's demotion gave specific occasions with dates in some instances and in others, where dates were not given, the nature of the allegations were such that citing specific dates or occasions would not seem necessary to permit principal to formulate a defense, the statement sufficiently complies with the specificity and completeness of subsection (2)(b) of this section. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

Since this section does not set forth the grounds necessary to demote a school administrator who has completed three years of administrative service nor even state a specific requirement of "cause" for demotion, the grounds are left to the sound discretion of the local superintendent and board of education, subject to the limitation that the grounds not be arbitrary or unreasonable or otherwise violative of a right protected by the state or federal Constitution. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

Where an educator is transferred to a position of less responsibility, and the transfer is not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay, but there is to be a reduction in a subsequent year, the transfer becomes a demotion when (and if) that reduction takes place. Accordingly, where principal was transferred to less responsible post but his salary remained the same, it could not be said that he had been demoted from one position on the salary schedule to a position for which a lower salary was paid. Stafford v. Board of Educ., 642 S.W.2d 596 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

The Circuit Court did not err in requiring the county board of education to pay a school principal who had been demoted to classroom teacher the same salary in the succeeding year after the demotion as he was paid in his last year as principal, where the school board had not yet acted on the superintendent's recommendation and reduced the principal's salary by May 15 of his last year as principal. Daugherty v. Hunt, 694 S.W.2d 719 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

In suit by principal who was demoted to teacher, alleging that denial of his right to the pre-demotion hearing provided for administrators in this section deprived him of equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and an exercise of arbitrary power prohibited by Const., § 2, since "administrators" as defined by subsection (8) of KRS 161.720 as it existed prior to its 1992 amendment did not include "principals" as "administrators", the court employing the "rational basis scrutiny" held that since there were several distinctions between "principals" and "administrators", there was a rational basis for the exclusion of "principals" from the definition of "administrators" and thus such exclusion did violate the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution or Const., § 2. Roberts v. Mooneyhan, 902 S.W.2d 842 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

A school board must affirmatively act on a superintendent's recommendation of proposed demotion and notify the teacher involved of such action before May 15 in order for it to be effective; accordingly, where the superintendent's recommendation that the administrator be demoted from director of pupil personnel to a position as a classroom teacher was made according to law, and his due process rights were not offended. Petett v. Board of Educ., 684 S.W.2d 7 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

This section requires that an administrative position itself be certificated and that the employee also be specifically certified for the position, before the due process provisions of this section are triggered; thus, where the employee held an administrative position, but he was not certified as such by the State Board of Education, he was therefore not technically qualified for such position, so that his transfer from the position of health coordinator to teacher was made according to law, and his due process rights were not offended. Petett v. Board of Educ., 684 S.W.2d 7 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

The ordinary duties of a school principal differ greatly from those of a school teacher, as administrative personnel have either fiscal management duties and educational supervisory duties, or both, with responsibilities which are quite different from those of classroom teachers. The role of an administrator in carrying out policy and in formulating overall policy is also quite different from that of a teacher, and it is certainly not beyond reason that the legislature would deem it advisable not to give one whose supervisory and policy role is so different the same kind of job protection given to a classroom teacher. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

10. Superintendent.
A superintendent is not afforded the protection of this section which deals exclusively with the procedure for demotion of administrative personnel. Floyd v. Board of Educ., 598 S.W.2d 460 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

11. Administrators.

12. —Longer Tenure.
Where subsection (1) of this section, which applies to an administrator with less than three years of administrative service, provides that procedural safeguards of KRS 161.760 concerning notice and reassignment must be complied with, subsection (2) of this section, which provides no such express requirement, must be read together with KRS 161.760 in order to furnish administrators of longer tenure with procedural safeguards in addition to those provided under KRS 161.760. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

13. —Generally.
An administrator is one who (1) holds a position categorized as an administrative position pursuant to KRS 161.720(8), or pursuant to approval by the State Board of Education of the position as a certified administrative position; and (2) is duly certified by the State Board of Education as an administrator. Petett v. Board of Educ., 684 S.W.2d 7 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

The ordinary duties of a school principal differ greatly from those of a school teacher, as administrative personnel have either fiscal management duties and educational supervisory duties, or both, with responsibilities which are quite different from those of classroom teachers. The role of an administrator in carrying out policy and in formulating overall policy is also quite different from that of a teacher, and it is certainly not beyond reason that the legislature would deem it advisable not to give one whose supervisory and policy role is so different the same kind of job protection given to a classroom teacher. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

14. Probationary.
In the case of the demotion or reassignment of a probationary administrator, the provision in the definition of a school year covering seven months' service only has meaning when coupled with the words "within a school year." Thus an administrator must only serve seven months "within each school year" beginning July 1 and ending June 30 in order to have worked "three years" as an administrator. If such administrator has already worked seven months during his third school year or will have worked seven months before June 30 of his third year of administrative service, he must be notified of a demotion before May 15 of that year, under KRS 161.760. Board of Educ. v. Paul, 846 S.W.2d 675 (Ky. 1992).

15. Appeal.
Where a teacher received unequivocal notice that she would be demoted from an administrative position and reassigned as a special education teacher, and she failed to appeal the school board's action for approximately 15 months, her claim was properly dismissed. Frisby v. Board of Educ., 707 S.W.2d 359 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

At best, this section gives an administrator with at least three years experience an additional procedural opportunity to convince the board of the lack of merit in the superintendent’s recommendation of demotion, or that it violates a constitutional or statutory right. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

While KRS 452.430 generally calls for suits brought against the Kentucky State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education to be filed in the Franklin Circuit Court, KRS 161.765(2)(f) specifically addresses those situations where an administrator is appealing a local school board’s decision to uphold a demotion, and KRS 161.790(9), the more specific statute, provides for venue in the county where the district is located; accordingly, where the Kentucky State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education was performing the functions of the Letcher County Board when it upheld the demotions of two administrators, venue in the Letcher Circuit Court was proper for a case seeking review of the demotion decisions. Commonwealth v. Halcomb, — S.W.3d —, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. May 7, 2004).

Although administrators were aware of the grounds for their demotions for more than 20 days before the scheduled hearing date on their appeal of the demotion decisions, they were not given 20 days to prepare their defense after the hearing date was established, and thus the notice requirements of KRS 161.765(2) were not satisfied; however, the trial court, as an appellate body under KRS 161.765(2)(f), was limited to determining whether to affirm or to reverse and remand based upon the grounds provided under KRS 161.150(2), and the trial court’s order that the administrators be compensated for lost wages and other benefits was unauthorized and was reversed. Commonwealth v. Halcomb, — S.W.3d —, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. May 7, 2004).

Unlike a teacher, a school administrator, even one who has completed three years administrative service, is not ever granted a continuing service contract as an administrator. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

17. Removal.

An administrator has been given no right of tenure to an administrative position and may be removed from such position by the local board of education upon recommendation of the superintendent for any reason not offending some right protected by the state or federal constitutions or KRS 161.162 (repealed). Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

161.770 Leaves of absence.

(1) Upon written request of a teacher or superintendent, a board of education may grant a leave of absence for a period of not more than two (2) consecutive school years for educational or professional purposes, and shall grant such leave where illness, maternity, adoption of a child or children, or other disability is the reason for the request. Upon subsequent request, such leave may be renewed by the board. A board of education may pay a sum of money equivalent to all or any portion of salary to a teacher or superintendent who has been granted leave for educational or professional purposes if the person taking said leave agrees in writing to return to employment with the board for no less than two (2) years.

(2) Without request, a board of education may grant leave of absence and renewals thereof to any teacher or superintendent because of physical or mental disability, but such teacher or superintendent shall have the right to a hearing and appeal on such unrequested leave of absence or its renewal in accordance with the provisions for hearing and appeal in KRS 161.790.

(3) Upon the return to service of a teacher or superintendent at the expiration of a leave of absence, he shall resume the contract status which he held prior to such leave.

(4) Payments to any teacher or superintendent under this section by a local district are intended and presumed to be for and in consideration of services rendered and for the benefit of the common schools and such payments do not affect the eligibility of any school district to share in the distribution of funds from the public school funds as established in KRS Chapter 157.

Opinions of Attorney General. It is not an abuse of discretion for the board to grant a leave of absence to a teacher who, while unable to perform his duties because of illness, did not make a written request for leave until about seven or eight months after the inception of the illness, when the teacher had previously advised the superintendent orally of his illness. OAG 60-472.

A local board of education may not grant a teacher leave of absence with pay to serve on a committee appointed by the Commission on Public Education. OAG 60-1152.

The provisions of this section concerning the granting of leave of absence for illness are mandatory and the board must grant the leave on written request. OAG 61-633.

A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations, if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

The fact that a teacher has taught for several years possessing a disability which is actually sufficient to impair his teaching services does not estop the teacher from requesting a leave of absence because of that disability. OAG 68-586.

The phrase “other disability” as used in this section encompasses any disability which would substantially impair the effective performance by a teacher of the full scope of duties involved in the teaching assignments for which he is qualified and the fact that a teacher is able to perform satisfactorily in some other line of work which may be more sedentary and less strenuous, specifically having been elected to the office of county judge (now county judge/executive), would not in and of itself be conclusive as to lack of disability for teaching. OAG 68-586.

Maternity leave is not “sick leave” within the meaning of KRS 161.155 but a “leave of absence” under this section and as such it results in a cessation of salary benefits during the period of absence. OAG 70-730.

This section is to be regarded as exclusive and takes precedence over KRS 160.290. OAG 70-771.

Within the purview of this section, a district board of education may, in its discretion, grant a leave of absence to a superintendent for the purpose of his seeking and/or accepting the office of state superintendent of public instruction. OAG 70-771.

A board of education has discretion in granting leave for professional or educational purposes, but it has no discretion and must grant leave where illness, maternity, or other disability is the reason, if the request is the first request. OAG 71-303.

Where a teacher neither resigned nor requested maternity leave but merely informed the board that she could not teach the following year and was subsequently employed by the board on a continuing contract which provided that the teacher was entitled to accumulated leave, the board waived any contention that the teacher did not request maternity leave. OAG 71-303.

A teacher on leave of absence could not be paid for "calamity days" which were granted during the time of his leave. OAG 72-554.

A school board may grant a leave of absence, without loss of tenure, to an employee who takes employment with another educationally related system even though the teacher states that he may not return to employment in the school district at the end of his leave of absence, but such a statement could very well have an influence on the board's decision as to whether or not to grant the leave of absence. OAG 73-377.

A school board would not be authorized to grant a leave of absence to a teacher who is going to work outside of the educational field, as this section which permits the granting of a privilege to a public employee should be narrowly construed in the interest of the public and the board would not be authorized to grant a leave of absence for any purpose except an "educational or professional purpose." OAG 73-377.

When a teacher taught for four consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three years, returned from her leave and taught two consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received, unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486.

As a leave of absence from the school system can only be granted for illness, maternity or other disability, and educational or professional purposes and as operating a garbage service is not one of these statutory reasons, the school board should not have granted a leave of absence but should have required the teacher to resign or continue working and, if the teacher is on a bona fide leave of absence, he would be violating KRS 156.480 by selling his garbage service to the school system. OAG 73-651.

The board of education should deal with requests for maternity leave on an individual basis considering the time of the year in which the birth occurs and the physical condition of the teacher as reported by the teacher and her doctor, and keeping in mind that the only statutory purposes for leave are educational or professional purposes and where illness, maternity or other disability is the reason for the request. OAG 73-665.

Board of education may not grant a leave of absence to a teacher for one semester for the purpose of attending a professional baseball umpires school. OAG 74-157.

Although accumulated sick leave may not be granted for child care following childbirth, a leave of absence is appropriate for that purpose. OAG 75-259 (withdrawing OAG 73-585 and 74-274).

A board of education is not required to grant leave for child rearing as such is not a disability. OAG 76-18.

It is a continued absence for disability not supported by a doctor's statement of neglect of duty by h teacher. OAG 76-18.

A local board of education, in its reasonable exercise of discretion to grant a leave of absence for educational or professional reasons, may include working elsewhere in the teaching profession. OAG 79-106.

A local board of education may grant a leave of absence under this section without the local superintendent's recommendation. OAG 79-106.

Where a teacher talked about resigning, or requesting a leave of absence, less than a month before school was to open, so as to accept a teaching position elsewhere, but eventually just left to accept that position, and where the local board of education, upon learning of this, first voted to terminate her, but then, before notifying her, reversed itself and voted to grant her an unrequested leave of absence for the year, although there was no legally supportable reason why the teacher should not be denied a teaching position for the following year, since she never requested a leave as required by subsection (1) of this section, nevertheless the board's in granting the leave of absence to the teacher would be entitled to resume her original status, at the end of the year, if she elected to return. OAG 79-106.

A teacher seeking benefits under KRS 161.661(1) while on leave of absence under this section has in effect terminated his or her tenure contract status and accompanying rights with the board of education when the teachers' retirement system approves that teacher's application for disability retirement, which means the teacher has "retired" for the purposes of KRS 161.720 to 161.810; and if the teacher, who has been granted leave of absence and accepted by the teachers' retirement system for disability retirement benefits, then becomes able to return to work, the board of education no longer has to afford to that teacher his or her former tenure rights. OAG 79-157.

While participation as a representative in the General Assembly does not fall within the exact perimeters of this section, a local board of education could not legally deny an individual board employee a leave to serve in the General Assembly. OAG 80-18.

A board of education may require a physician's certificate of medical disability for purposes of this section so long as such certificate is required of all persons requesting leave for "illness, maternity or other disability." OAG 80-151.

A father is not eligible for leave under this section to care for a newborn child. OAG 80-151.

A request for leave by reason of "illness, maternity or other disability" may continue so long as a disability continues to exist and there is no two-year limit. OAG 80-151.

A teacher is not entitled to a maternity leave under this section if the teacher simply wants to stay home to take care of a child since a maternity leave is only available for a medical disability condition; when the teacher is no longer disabled from the pregnancy, childbirth and recovery therefrom, the teacher's leave of absence without pay should terminate, and she should commence her teaching duties. OAG 80-151.

Although KRS 161.155 will not permit a school board requirement of a physician's certificate of an employee's disability to work in that affidavit of the teacher will suffice, there is nothing in this section to preclude a board of education from requiring a physician's certificate; a school board could adopt such a policy pursuant to KRS 160.340(2)(e) which requires the board to adopt personnel policies that apply to certified employees. OAG 80-151.

This section places no duration limitation on a request for a leave due to "illness, maternity or other disability" since the two-year language is germane only to the educational or professional leave request as is the renewal language. OAG 80-151.

When a teacher has been approved to go on an unpaid leave of absence pursuant to this section for disability reasons, he or she is no longer entitled to use accumulated sick leave days, and is not entitled to pay for any holidays occurring during that absence. OAG 83-457.

The teacher on a leave of absence is subject to the usual application of school laws as to his or her employment contract status. OAG 84-43.

Subsection (3) of this section may not be construed so as to preclude a limited contract teacher on leave of absence in a different position than every other limited contract teacher so a school system; therefore, a nontenured teacher on leave of absence at the time renewal of his or her contract comes under consideration (before April 30th), may be recommended by a superintendent for nonrenewal the same as all other limited contract teachers in the school system. OAG 84-43.

The language in subsection (3) of this section is applicable and limited to a return to education responsibilities from a leave of absence during a given contract period, which, for a limited contract teacher is for a one year period only. OAG 84-43.

Payment by a board of education for the sabbatical leave of a teacher or superintendent is constitutional so long as the teacher or superintendent agrees to extend at least two years of future services to the school board. OAG 88-29.

When subsection (1) of this section authorizes a leave of absence for not more than “two (2) consecutive school years,” that period of time encompasses two consecutive time periods beginning on July 1 and ending on June 30. Therefore, this language does not authorize the granting of a leave of absence that spans three consecutive school years, although the leave may only last two consecutive calendar years. OAG 91-134.

Both this section and KRS 158.782(2) provide for the granting of a leave for a period of not more than two consecutive school years; however, both statutes authorize renewal of a leave of absence, upon approval. OAG 91-134.

A school board may grant an unpaid leave of absence only if it determines that the leave of absence falls within one or more of the statutory categories, i.e., educational or professional purposes, illness, maternity, adoption of a child, or other disability. OAG 01-9.

161.780. Termination of contract by teacher or superintendent — Resignation binding as of date of acceptance.

(1) No teacher shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract within thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the school term or during the school term without the consent of the superintendent. No superintendent shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract within thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the school term or during the school term without the consent of the employing board of education. A teacher shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract at any other time when schools are not in session by giving two (2) weeks written notice to the superintendent. A superintendent shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract at any other time when schools are not in session by giving two (2) weeks written notice to the employing board of education. Upon complaint by the employing board or superintendent to the Education Professional Standards Board, the certificate of a teacher or superintendent terminating his contract in any manner other than provided in this section may be suspended for not more than one (1) year, pursuant to the hearing procedures set forth in KRS 161.120.

(2) If a teacher voluntarily resigns his contract during the school term, the resignation shall be in writing and shall become binding on the date the resignation is accepted by the superintendent. No further action by the employing board is necessary. The resignation is effective on the date specified in the letter of resignation. A resignation, once accepted, may be withdrawn only with the approval of the employing board of education. Nothing in this subsection shall release the teacher from liability to the local board of education for breach of contract.

Compiler’s Notes. Section 2 of Acts 1990, ch. 56 provided that the provisions of KRS 161.780 shall apply to any litigation in progress on July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. KRS 161.760(1) and this section are not in conflict since KRS 161.760(1) concerns termination of employment only and this section concerns refusal of an assignment. OAG 64-576.

Although neither this section nor the regulation governing the procedure for suspending a certificate after a breach of contract provides any guidelines for when the complaint is to be made by the employing board, a local board of education should present the matter to the superintendent of public instruction within a reasonable period following the occurrence of the wrongful termination; the board would not be acting conscientiously to delay its complaint since the one-year suspension period was meant to coincide with the school year prior to which the wrongful termination took place. OAG 80-120.

The provisions of this section do not apply to terminations by teachers of their contracts while schools are in session during the regular school term. OAG 80-120.

(1) The contract of a teacher shall remain in force during good behavior and efficient and competent service by the teacher and shall not be terminated except for any of the following causes:

(a) Insubordination, including but not limited to violation of the school laws of the state or administrative regulations adopted by the Kentucky Board of Education, the Education Professional Standards Board, or lawful rules and regulations established by the local board of education for the operation of schools, or refusal to recognize or obey the authority of the superintendent, principal, or any other supervisory personnel of the board in the performance of their duties;

(b) Immoral character or conduct unbecoming a teacher;

(c) Physical or mental disability; or

(d) Inefficiency, incompetency, or neglect of duty, when a written statement identifying the problems or difficulties has been furnished the teacher or teachers involved.

(2) Charges under subsection (1)(a) and (1)(d) of this section shall be supported by a written record of teacher performance by the superintendent, principal, or other supervisory personnel of the district, except when the charges are brought as a result of a recommendation made under KRS 158.6455.

(3) No contract shall be terminated except upon notification of the board by the superintendent. Prior to notification of the board, the superintendent shall furnish the teacher with a written statement specifying in detail the charge against the teacher. The teacher may within ten (10) days after receiving the charge notify the commissioner of education and the superintendent of his intention to answer the charge, and upon failure of the teacher to give notice within ten (10) days, the dismissal shall be final.

(4) Upon receiving the teacher’s notice of his intention to answer the charge, the commissioner of education shall appoint a three (3) member tribunal, consisting of one (1) teacher, who may be retired, one (1) administrator, who may be retired, and one (1) lay person, none of whom reside in the district, to conduct an administrative hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B within the district. Priority for selection as a tribunal member shall be from a pool of potential tribunal members who have been designated and trained to serve as tribunal members on a regular and ongoing basis, pursuant to administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. Funds appropriated to the Department of Education for professional development may be used to provide tribunal member training. The commissioner of education shall name the chairman and set the date and time for the hearing. The hearing shall begin no later than forty-five (45) days after the teacher files the notice of intent to answer the charge.

(5) A hearing officer shall have final authority to rule on dispositive prehearing motions.

(6) The hearing may be public or private at the discretion of the teacher. At the hearing, a hearing officer appointed by the commissioner of education shall preside with authority to rule on procedural matters, but the tribunal shall be the ultimate trier of fact. The local board shall pay each member of the tribunal a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100) and travel expenses.

(7) Upon hearing both sides of the case, the tribunal may by a majority vote render its decision or may defer its action for not more than five (5) days. Provisions of KRS Chapter 13B notwithstanding, the tribunal decision shall be a final order and may be rendered on the record.

(8) The superintendent may suspend the teacher pending final action to terminate the contract, if, in his judgment, the character of the charge warrants the action. If after the hearing the decision of the tribunal is against termination of the contract, the suspended teacher shall be paid his full salary for any period of suspension.

(9) The teacher shall have the right to make an appeal to the Circuit Court having jurisdiction in the county where the school district is located in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. The review of the final order shall be conducted by the Circuit Court as required by KRS 13B.150.

(10) As an alternative to termination of a teacher’s contract, the superintendent upon notifying the board and providing written notification to the teacher of the charge may impose other sanctions, including suspension without pay, public reprimand, or private reprimand. The procedures set out in subsection (3) of this section shall apply if the teacher is suspended without pay or publicly reprimanded. The teacher may appeal the action of the superintendent if these sanctions are imposed in the same manner as established in subsections (4) to (9) of this section. Upon completion of a suspension period, the teacher may be reinstated.

Opinions of Attorney General. — School employees could not without the permission of the board and superintendent sign a letter in his capacity as an employee of the school system recommending that an individual be reelected to the General Assembly. OAG 73-342.

A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations, if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

A teacher under a continuing service contract may not be dismissed without cause and without following the provisions of this section. OAG 72-363.

This section does not apply to the assignment of duties and reduction in salary but it applies only to the termination of a contract for one of the causes specified in the statute as authorizing termination. OAG 73-342.

When a teacher taught for four consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three years, returned from her leave and taught two (2) consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received, unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486.

Since, under this section, the only way the continuing contract of tenured personnel can be terminated is by resignation, recommendation for cause, and that it is not necessary for the board of education to take any formal action at a board meeting relative to the continuing employment of tenured personnel, although there is no objection to incorporating into the minutes of the board the designation of names and positions of all tenured personnel in the school district for the ensuing school year. OAG 73-523.

A teacher was dismissed by the school board and accepted such termination voluntarily by not demanding or receiving a hearing upon notification of termination, if such teacher's civil rights were violated, not just contractual rights, any action for redress would have to be made in the courts but the present board would not be authorized to make a decision on such a matter or to grant tenure or restore sick leave. OAG 75-697.

An individual, who has completed one year as an assistant principal, who for ten years just prior to said year was not employed in education and prior to the ten-year period, was a teacher on tenure and has had at least three years' experience as an administrator, cannot be demoted without following the procedures of KRS 161.765 but under KRS 161.740 does not have tenure or a continuing contract and could be dismissed upon recommendation of the superintendent at the end of the school year without going through the procedures of KRS 161.790. OAG 75-413.

A board of education may not pay a suspended teacher any salary accumulated during his suspension unless it is determined at a hearing that the teacher's contract will not be terminated. OAG 76-102.

An order requesting a teacher to search for a bomb or other such device would be both unreasonable and dangerous and therefore a teacher's refusal to obey such an order would not be insubordination. OAG 77-254.

A local board of education may terminate the employment of a teacher under this section within the protected 40-70 age range based upon individual assessment of the teacher's ability, capabilities, etc. OAG 79-204.

If a superintendent determines that grounds exist for cause for contract termination, the procedures specified in this section are to be followed. OAG 83-362.

The term "teacher" in this statute embraces all certified employees in a school system below the superintendent. A principal or other administrator, in the context of school law, is first a teacher; in other words, the school administrator is a teacher assigned to administrative responsibilities in a school system. OAG 83-362.

As with the other listed discharge for cause categories, there are no definitions in subdivision (1)(b) of this section to guide a local superintendent and board of education relative to the scope of the terms "immoral" or "conduct unbecoming a teacher"; obviously then there is some discretion to be exercised in a fair and reasonable manner by a superintendent and subsequently by a board of education in commencing and conducting a proceeding to terminate a teacher's contract based upon one or more of these general legal cause categories. It is not believed the lack of definitions or need for exercising such discretion presents a problem of vagueness in this section. OAG 83-362.

A single act showing immoral character or conduct unbecoming a teacher may be sufficient if serious enough on its own to stand as the basis for termination of teacher contract proceedings under subdivision (1)(b) of this section; the fulfillment of the requirements of subdivision (2)(a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) in situations of this sort would be accomplished by some supervisory personnel of the board, superintendent or principal, preparing in writing the manner in which it is believed the teacher's performance will be compromised or in whatever way adversely affected by the act showing immoral character or unbecoming conduct. OAG 83-362.

Since a trait of character is the issue under subdivision (1)(b) of this section, one method of proving character would be by a showing of a specific act or acts; thus, a charge of "immoral character," as used in that subdivision, may be based upon a specific act inimical to the public welfare and perhaps more importantly the welfare of a community school system. OAG 83-362.

Acts involving dishonesty, sexual misconduct or criminal action may be considered as either immoral conduct or conduct unbecoming a teacher; obviously then there is some discretion to be exercised in a fair and reasonable manner by a superintendent and board of education relative to the continuing employment of tenured personnel although there is no objection to incorporating into the minutes of the board the designation of names and positions of all tenured personnel in the school district for the ensuing school year. OAG 83-362.

The tapes of the hearing concerning a teacher contract termination proceeding conducted pursuant to this section were available for public inspection under the Open Records Law, even though the tapes were in the possession of the reporter-transcriber rather than the Board of Education, as the teacher requested a public hearing and the matter had not reached the courts. OAG 87-62.

A recommendation of dismissal of a certified staff member from a distinguished educator is binding on the superintendent. Upon receiving the recommendation, the superintendent is required to notify the staff member pursuant to this section. OAG 92-135.

A tribunal is required to be appointed under subsection (4) of this section upon receipt of the teacher's notice of intention to answer the charge. OAG 92-135.

Teachers dismissed upon recommendation of a distinguished educator continue to have a statutory right to be given cause for their dismissal and a right of appeal. OAG 92-135.

Teachers retain the right to an individual determination of competence and compliance with school laws. The fact that the teachers are evaluated by the distinguished educator does not change the fact that, ultimately, dismissal occurs under this section for the reasons set forth therein. OAG 92-135.

Termination of a teacher who is placed on probation under the criteria of KRS 158.6455(5) constitutes termination for cause under this section, and accordingly invokes a right of appeal. OAG 92-135.

When a distinguished educator makes a dismissal recommendation to the superintendent pursuant to KRS 158.6455, that recommendation is binding on the superintendent. The recommendation is based on an individual evaluation of the teacher by the distinguished educator after a minimum of six months of evaluation. In view of the fact that the termination is for cause, based on an evaluation of the teacher, some documentation or evidence is required. OAG 92-135.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a "present" service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

A school district's denial of access to a settlement agreement with a former employee could not be justified by KRS 61.875(1)(l), operating in tandem with subsection (5) of this section upon receipt of the teacher's notice of intention to answer the charge. OAG 92-135.

1. Constitutionality.

Termination of a "tenured teacher" does not deprive the teacher of property interests and contract rights without procedural due process merely because the school board is cast into and occupies the roles of employer, accuser, investigator, prosecutor, judge and jury. Board of Educ. v. Burkett, 525 S.W.2d 747 (Ky. 1975). Where the teacher had a 15-year-old student show a controversial, highly suggestive, and somewhat sexually explicit movie to a group of high school students aged 14 to 17, she did not preview the movie, despite the fact that she had been warned that portions were unsuitable for viewing in this context, and she made no attempt at any time to explain the meaning of the movie or to use it as an educational tool, this section proscribing "conduct unbecoming a teacher" gave her adequate notice that such conduct would subject her to discipline; accordingly, this section was not unconstitutionally vague as applied to her conduct. Fowler v. Board of Educ., 819 F.2d 657 (6th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 986, 108 S. Ct. 502, 98 L. Ed. 2d 501 (1987).

2. Voluntary Leave of Absence.

Where a teacher took an indeterminate voluntary leave of absence without the consent of the school board, an act of resignation occurred and the school board was under no obligation to take the teacher back. Miller v. Noe, 432 S.W.2d 818 (Ky. 1968).

3. Charges.

Where written charges against teacher were so vague and indefinite so that they did not furnish teacher sufficient information upon which he could base a defense such charges were not sufficient to support order of dismissal. Osborne v. Bullitt County Bd. of Educ., 415 S.W.2d 607 (Ky. 1967).

A tenured teacher has the right to contest the truth of the grounds alleged for termination in a hearing before the school board and, if successful, in a trial de novo before the Circuit Court. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where the school board did not make any written findings indicating which charge it found to be grounds for termination but the record showed that the charges were proven by ample evidence, the dismissal was supported by the evidence and written findings were not required. Bell v. Board of Educ., 557 S.W.2d 433 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977). The board was not required to issue findings as to the particular charges of which a tenured teacher was deemed guilty, where there were only two (2) charges, and the evidence supported a finding of guilt on each charge. Mavis v. Board of Educ., 563 S.W.2d 738 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The charges against a teacher were not supported by written records of teacher performance, as required by this section, where the teacher had been employed in the school system for nine years and no written evaluation of his performance had been prepared during those years until only a few weeks before his discharge. Blackburn v. Board of Educ., 564 S.W.2d 35 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

A petition signed by parents of children in a teacher's class complaining of corporal punishment she inflicted on the children is not "written records" within subsection (2) (a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) of this section. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

One purpose of the requirements of subsection (2) (a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) of this section is to make the teacher aware of deficiencies so that she or he may correct same before being terminated. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Tape recordings and notes of student interviews made by the school superintendent of which a teacher was uninformed prior to a hearing to determine whether to continue her services are not "written records" within the meaning of subsection (2) (a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) of this section. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

4. Undesirable Reassignment.

The statutory method of terminating a teacher's tenure contract under this section and KRS 161.800 should be used rather than the indirect means of unworthy or undesirable reassignment. Lewis v. Board of Educ., 348 S.W.2d 921 (Ky. 1961).

5. Notice.

This section does not require greater exactitude than a civil complaint and fair notice of the essential notice and bases is sufficient. Board of Educ. v. Chattin, 376 S.W.2d 693 (Ky. 1964), overruled on other grounds, Osborne v. Bullitt County Bd. of Educ., 415 S.W.2d 607 (Ky. 1967).

Where formal notice of termination of contract referred to a supervisor's report for details of charges against teacher and it gave adequate notice of such details, the notice was sufficient. Knox County Bd. of Educ. v. Willis, 405 S.W.2d 952 (Ky. 1966).

Requirement of a very particular statement is a prerequisite to termination of an existing contract but does not apply to failure to renew a contract. Sparks v. Board of Educ., 549 S.W.2d 323 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977), overruled on other grounds, Singleton v. Board of Educ., 553 S.W.2d 848 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977). Where a charge of insubordination specified that a tenured teacher failed to obey the instruction of the superintendent that he cease and desist all forms of physical and mental punishment of students and where the charge of conduct unbecoming a teacher specified abusive treatment of young students, the charges and specifications coupled with the information furnished appellant as to the nature of anticipated testimony were sufficiently specific as to inform him of the acts which he had to defend against. Mavis v. Board of Educ., 563 S.W.2d 738 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The allegations made against a teacher were not in sufficient detail to satisfy the statutory requirements, and they did not afford him the notice to adequately prepare a defense where he was not told the names, dates, occurrences or other data upon which his supervisor relied to prove his inefficiency as a classroom teacher. Blackburn v. Board of Educ., 564 S.W.2d 35 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

The giving of mere notice of a general grounds for termination in the language used in the statute, such as inefficiency or inferiority, is not sufficient to inform a teacher of the specific nature of the charges against him, so as to permit the preparation of an adequate defense. Blackburn v. Board of Educ., 564 S.W.2d 35 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

6. Liability of Board Members.

The individual members of a school board are liable in damages for breaching a contract with a teacher employed by them. Race v. Humphrey, 301 Ky. 10, 190 S.W.2d 686 (1945).

7. Appeal.

The findings of the court on review should be given the same consideration as in the cases where the court acts in place of a properly instructed jury and unless the decision is flagrantly or palpably against the evidence the Court of Appeals will not set it aside. Hapner v. Carlisle County Bd. of Educ., 305 Ky. 858, 205 S.W.2d 325 (1947).

The Circuit Court is not confined to the record of the administrative body nor bound by its decision but may require a trial de novo especially where due process has not been observed in the administrative proceedings. Osborne v. Bullitt County Bd. of Educ., 415 S.W.2d 607 (Ky. 1967). See Story v. Simpson County Bd. of Educ., 420 S.W.2d 578 (Ky. 1967).

The opportunity for a de novo hearing at the Circuit Court level with the right to offer additional evidence, if so desired, was intended by the legislature to cure any deficiencies in the due process hearing at the board level. Kelly v. Board of Educ., 566 S.W.2d 165 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a teacher received unequivocal notice that she would be demoted from an administrative position and reassigned as a regular education teacher, and she failed to appeal the school board's action for approximately 15 months, her claim was properly dismissed. Frisby v. Board of Educ., 707 S.W.2d 359 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

While KRS 452.430 generally calls for suits brought against the Kentucky State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education to be filed in the Franklin Circuit Court, KRS 161.765(2)(D) specifically addresses those situations where an administrator is appealing a local school board's decision to uphold a demotion, and KRS 161.790(9), the more specific statute, provides for venue in the county where the district is located; accordingly, where the Kentucky State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education was performing the functions of the Letcher County Board when it upheld the demotions of two (2) administrators, venue in the Letcher Circuit Court was proper for a case seeking review of the demotion decisions. Commonwealth v. Halcomb, — S.W.3d —, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. May 7, 2004).

8. Insubordination.

Where teacher was denied reemployment after taking an unauthorized leave of absence, which demonstrated rank insubordination and amounted to neglect of duty on his part, his allegation that the defendants were motivated by political considerations was an unsupported legal conclusion and was insufficient to withstand the motion for summary judgment. Miller v. Board of Educ., 54 F.R.D. 393 (W.D. Ky.), aff'd, 452 F.2d 894 (6th Cir. 1971).

This section applies only where there is an element of misconduct on the part of the teacher which gives rise to the termination. Harlan County Bd. of Educ. v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Contracts of tenured teachers may be terminated for conduct unbecoming a teacher or immoral conduct involving off-campus activities involving students, notwithstanding written records indicating a satisfactory teacher performance. Board of Educ. v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837 (Ky. 1986).

Great care must be taken to ensure that proof of conduct of an immoral nature or conduct unbecoming a teacher which is sufficient to merit discharge of a tenured teacher should be of the same quality as required by other subsections of this section, that is, written documentation from impartial sources to substantiate the charges or its substantial equivalent. Board of Educ. v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837 (Ky. 1986).

Conduct of an immoral nature or conduct unbecoming a teacher which is sufficient to merit discharge of a tenured teacher, when it occurs in a context other than professional competency in the classroom, should have some nexus to the teacher's occupation, as was true where the defendant smoked marijuana with two (2) students. Board of Educ. v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837 (Ky. 1986).

A teacher is held to a standard of personal conduct which does not permit the commission of immoral or criminal acts because of their harmful implication made on the students. Board of Educ. v. McCollum, 721 S.W.2d 703 (Ky. 1986).

Where the teacher deliberately and intentionally took sick leave from his employment for the purpose of driving a coal truck to another state, he executed a false affidavit in regard to the sick day, and he failed to visit a homebound student for the minimum required time, there was substantial evidence supporting the termination of the teacher for conduct unbecoming a teacher under subdivision (1)(b) of this section. Board of Educ. v. McCollum, 721 S.W.2d 703 (Ky. 1986).

Where the teacher introduced a controversial and sexually explicit movie into a classroom of adolescents without preview, preparation, or discussion, her conduct constituted "conduct unbecoming a teacher" within the meaning of subdivision (1)(b) of this section. Fowler v. Board of Educ., 819 F.2d 657 (6th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 986, 108 S. Ct. 502, 98 L. Ed. 2d 501 (1987).

Statements made by education association, its representative and teacher at public meetings and hearings were protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, where association and teacher at school board meetings called for the termination of principal accused of using a racial epithet to introduce a school employee. Eaton v. Newport Bd. of Educ., 975 F.2d 292 (6th Cir. 1992), cert. denied, 508 U.S. 957, 113 S. Ct. 2459, 124 L. Ed. 2d 674 (1993).

10. — Dismissal of Former Superintendent.

It was not arbitrary and capricious for Commissioner of Education to require acting county school superintendent to dismiss former school superintendent who had been reassigned as an at-will employee and against whom serious charges of financial misconduct had been brought while formerly employed as superintendent. Shepherd v. Boyse, 494 F. Supp. 1168 (E.D. Ky. 1994).

11. Power of Board.

It was the intention of the legislature in enacting this section to allow the local board of education to make the final determination of dismissal and once the board's hearing is commenced, the superintendent may not attempt to terminate the proceedings by withdrawing his recommendation. Bell v. Board of Educ., 557 S.W.2d 433 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).
This section does not require that the board's deliberations and decision on termination must be held at a public meeting and, accordingly, a decision to dismiss two (2) teachers was not void because it was taken during a closed session. Bell v. Board of Educ., 557 S.W.2d 433 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977); Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

The power of the board of education to discipline teachers is not based on personal moral judgments by board members; it exists only because of the legitimate interests of the government in protecting the school community and the students from harm. Board of Educ. v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837 (Ky. 1986).

It was not the intention of the legislature to subject every teacher to discipline or dismissal for private shortcomings that might come to the attention of the board of education but have no relation to the teacher’s involvement or example to the school community. Board of Educ. v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837 (Ky. 1986).

County board of education had an inherent right to appeal decision of tribunal’s that teacher should not have been terminated on grounds that tribunal decision was arbitrary even though the board did not have a liberty interest at stake. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880 (Ky. 1996).

Although no express right of appeal was given board of education under subsection (8) of this section, since the three-member tribunal created in subsection (4) of this section is a separate and distinguishable entity from the county board of education and thus the tribunal is not an agent of the board, the board is not barred from appealing the tribunal’s decision that a teacher's contract should not be terminated. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880 (Ky. 1996).

12. — Constitutional Protection.

County board of education is a political body with a corporate structure and is entitled to the protection of Const., § 2. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880 (Ky. 1996).

13. Reviewing Tribunal.

Although a tribunal established pursuant to this section had authority to modify penalty imposed by superintendent, it did not have the authority to reduce teacher’s termination to a lesser sanction where the tribunal made specific findings that the teacher’s insubordination and conduct unbecoming a teacher merited termination, made no mitigating findings on behalf of teacher or any findings that superintendent had acted arbitrarily, and gave no reason for its reduction of the penalty. Gallatin County Bd. of Educ. v. Mann, 971 S.W.2d 295 (Ky. Ct. App. 1998).

Substantial evidence in the record supported the hearing tribunal’s conclusion that the school employee’s two (2) violations of the teacher tenure statute warranted a reprimand and suspension, and not the termination recommended by superintendent; the tribunal alone had the right under the statute to decide the appropriate sanction, thus, its other finding that denied the school employee’s motion for directed verdict on the issue of the termination of her contract as a teacher also had to be upheld since substantial evidence supported that decision as well. Fankhauser v. Cobb, — S.W.3d —, 2002 Ky. App. LEXIS 587 (Ky. Ct. App. Mar. 29, 2002).

14. Absence Due to Illness.

Where a teacher had frequently been unable to attend classes because of his illnesses, and had been granted a leave of absence to allow psychiatric care on at least one occasion and where he would be able to work only on a part-time basis and was still a patient in the University of Kentucky Medical Center, such evidence supported the board's decision to terminate his contract. Kelly v. Board of Educ., 566 S.W.2d 165 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

15. Incompetency as Grounds.

When the charges upon which the teacher is to be dismissed involve inefficiency, incompetency or neglect of duty, a written statement identifying the problem or problems must have been previously furnished to the teacher and it is clear that some opportunity for the teacher to correct the problem should be permitted. Blackburn v. Board of Educ., 564 S.W.2d 35 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Written charges, furnished to the teacher at the time of a termination, do not fulfill the requirement of a written statement identifying the problem when incompetency, inefficiency or neglect of duty are the grounds for such termination. Blackburn v. Board of Educ., 564 S.W.2d 35 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Where a year had passed since a teacher had been transferred, and she had subsequently been rehired, whatever notice of problems and difficulties she may have had then had dissipated, since the rehiring indicated the board was not too dissatisfied by her performance. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

16. Resignation.

Where plaintiff, a teacher, was employed in one school district for six successive years, resigned, taught in another school system the following year, again resigned, took a year off and then taught for three years in a third school district before being released, he was entitled to no hearing under this section, since, although he had achieved tenure at his first position, when he resigned he lost his tenure by reason of subsection (4) of KRS 161.720 and subdivision (1)(c) of KRS 161.740 is inapplicable. Carpenter v. Board of Educ., 582 S.W.2d 645 (Ky. 1979).

17. Transfer to Noncertified Position.

Where a high school principal was transferred, at the same pay level, to a newly created position as supervisor of transportation for the school system, the transfer from a certified to a noncertified position amounted to “termination” as a “teacher” under subsections (1) and (4) of KRS 161.720; accordingly, the principal was entitled to a hearing as required by this section. Crawley v. Board of Educ., 658 F.2d 450 (6th Cir. 1981).

18. Written Records of Teacher Performance.

Where the charge for termination of a tenured teacher is based on evidence of immoral character or conduct unbecoming a teacher, the requirement of former subdivision (2)(a) of this section, that the charge be supported by written records of teacher performance, did not require an evaluation of the teacher during the tenure of employment. Board of Educ. v. McCollum, 721 S.W.2d 703 (Ky. 1986).

The ordinary duties of a school principal differ greatly from those of a school teacher, as administrative personnel have either fiscal management duties and educational supervisory duties, or both, with responsibilities which are quite different from those of classroom teachers. The role of an administrator in carrying out policy and in formulating overall policy is also quite different from that of a teacher, and it is certainly not beyond reason that the legislature would deem it advisable not to give one whose supervisory and policy role is so different the same kind of job protection given to a classroom teacher. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

20. Appeal.

Although no express right of appeal was given board of education under subsection (8) of this section, under the Constitution it had such right to appeal three-member tribunal’s decision that teacher’s contract should not have been terminated. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880 (Ky. 1996).
161.795. Investigation of and records that school employee acted improperly relating to statewide assessment program — Certain records to be expunged.

(1) In cases where a decision or judgment was tendered in an administrative or judicial proceeding before July 15, 1998, in an investigation of allegations that a teacher, administrator, or other school employee acted improperly relating to the statewide assessment program required by KRS 158.6453, all references relating to the investigation, findings, and disciplinary actions shall be expunged from the individual’s personnel file by the local school district, and the Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board shall expunge any references to the investigation and findings in all agency files. This shall apply to all affected persons found not guilty of the allegations.

(2) After July 15, 1998, allegations that a teacher, administrator, or other school employee has acted improperly relating to the statewide assessment program required by KRS 158.6453 shall be investigated. If the individual is found not guilty of the allegations, all references to the charges shall be immediately expunged from the individual’s personnel file in the local school district, and the Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board shall expunge all references to the investigation from all agency files.

161.800. Suspension of contracts on reducing number of teachers.

When by reason of decreased enrollment of pupils, or by reason of suspension of schools or territorial changes affecting the district, a local superintendent decides that it shall be necessary to reduce the number of teachers, he shall have full authority to make reasonable reduction. But, in making such reduction, the local superintendent shall, within each teaching field affected, give preference to teachers on continuing contracts and to teachers who have greater seniority. Teachers whose continuing contracts are suspended shall have the right of restoration in continuing service status in the order of seniority of service in the district if teaching positions become vacant or are created for which any of the teachers are or become qualified.

(Enact. Acts 1942, ch. 113, § 9; 1944, ch. 98; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 249, effective July 13, 1990.)

Opinions of Attorney General. Under this section a teacher with a lifetime certificate based on 64 college hours and ten years’ experience has seniority over the teacher who possesses a temporary certificate with 120 college hours and only three years’ experience. OAG 61-528.

This section is applicable to both teachers with limited contracts and teachers with continuing contracts. OAG 61-528.

Seniority gives no special preference on non tenure teachers. OAG 73-383; 73-702.

When a shortage of funds necessitates the reduction of teaching personnel the only statutory preference granted is to teachers with a continuing contract, and the school board upon the recommendation of the superintendent may reemploy or not reemploy such teachers as have a limited contract provided those not to be reemployed are notified by May 15th.

OAG 73-383; 73-702.

When a teacher taught for four consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three years, returned from her leave and taught two consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received, unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486.

The suspension of contracts under this section must be based upon continuing contracts and seniority and further, the certification of the teacher must be taken into account. OAG 80-150.

The term “qualified” at the end of this section must be construed as equivalent to certification, thus, if a teacher suspended from the teaching field affected is properly certified to teach in another teaching field in the school system and the suspended teacher has greater seniority than teachers in the field for which he or she is also qualified, then the continuing contract status teacher with the least seniority in that teaching field may be suspended under this section and so on. OAG 80-150.

Seniority is not required by statute to come into play in deciding which administrative employees to transfer as a result of reductions; however, school districts may adopt a procedure of considering seniority as a factor in a reduction of administrators situation. OAG 82-135.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Construction.
2. Pre-suspension hearing.

1. Construction.

This section deals with seniority only as it affects employment and not as it affects position. Marshall v. Conley, 258 S.W.2d 911 (Ky. 1953).

2. Pre-Suspension Hearing.

Tenured school teachers who were suspended because of decreased enrollment did not have a property right in continued employment and its benefits to entitle them to a pre-suspension hearing. Downs v. Henry County Bd. of Educ., 769 S.W.2d 49 (Ky. Ct. App. 1988).

161.810. Continuance of status in case of annexation or consolidation of schools.

If an entire school district or that part of a school district which comprises the territory in which a school or schools are situated is transferred to any other district, or if the schools in an independent or county school district are consolidated or centralized, the teachers in such consolidated or centralized schools employed on continuing contracts immediately prior to such transfer, consolidation, or centralization shall, subject to the limitations imposed by KRS 161.800, have continuing service status in the newly centralized or consolidated school, or in the district to which the territory is transferred.

PENALTIES

161.990. Penalties.

(1) Any person who violates any provisions of KRS 161.164 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. Any school board candidate or school board member who willfully violates any provision of KRS 161.164 shall also be disqualified from holding the office of school board member.

(2) Any teacher or employee of a district who willfully violates any provision of KRS 161.164 shall be ineligible for employment in the common schools for a period of five (5) years.

(3) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 161.190 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(4) Any teacher who violates any of the provisions of subsection (2) of KRS 161.210 shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50) and upon conviction his certificate shall be revoked.

(5) A violation of any of the provisions of KRS 161.661 or 161.690 is a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

162.010. Title to school property.
The title to all property owned by a school district is vested in the Commonwealth for the benefit of the district board of education. In the acquisition of land for school purposes, whether by purchase or condemnation, or otherwise, the title obtained shall be in fee simple, except that title to land received from the federal government or any agency thereof can be received in other than fee simple with the approval of the Attorney General of the Commonwealth. Any reversionary interest in any land held by boards of education on June 14, 1934, shall not deprive such boards of the ownership of the buildings or other improvements thereon.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under this section, the title to land acquired for school purposes is required to be in fee simple, and the acquisition of land by deed of easement is not permitted. OAG 60-423.
A municipality may not erect a water tank on school premises without the consent of the board of education and the payment of fair compensation for the use of school property. OAG 63-1060.

The right of the grantor to place and use mining entries through the surface of the land adjacent to school buildings and near which school children might be playing would violate the statute. OAG 65-345.

The intent and purpose of the statute are satisfied if title is taken in fee simple only to the surface rights which are unlimited as to duration and descendibility. OAG 65-345.

Purchases of athletic equipment of over $1,000 by a district school board would have to be made by the bidding procedure even though the purchase money was derived from admissions to athletic exhibitions. OAG 69-327.
A school board is not required to obtain prior approval of the local planning unit in order to construct a new school building. OAG 69-659.

The exemption for schools contained in KRS 100.361(2) would not apply until the property is acquired. OAG 69-659.
A city could not require a contractor to obtain a building permit for the construction of a county school within the city limits. OAG 70-636.

A city could legally deed property for $1.00 to the Commonwealth for the benefit of the school board, with a reverter provision which would give a fee simple title subject to a right of entry (reverter), unless construction of a school building has begun within five years of the date of the deed's execution, but if construction has begun within five years, the title would become a fee simple absolute. OAG 70-797.

Where a school board bought land, the deed to which contained a covenant running with the land that the buyer would maintain a fence for the benefit of the adjoining tract, the covenant did not violate this section. OAG 71-407.

Where title to property conveyed by the United States to a local board of education was a fee simple title, the transaction did not require the specific approval of the Attorney General even though the deed to the United States by its grantor contained a special warranty. OAG 72-316.
It would be allowable for a transfer of property from the federal government to a Commonwealth school board to contain a right of entry clause so long as that right of entry is not carried beyond the 30-year limit set out in KRS 381.218. OAG 72-477.

Subsection (1) of KRS 156.070 does not give the State Board of Education the authority to enact an administrative regulation requiring that surplus property be disposed of either through sealed bids or by public auction, as the legal obligation of a school board in selling property is to get the fair market value for the property sold in order that its value will not be lost to the district and to school purposes and a school board has the legal authority to convey good title under this section to the surplus property it has agreed to sell. OAG 73-204.

Since public common school buildings and school property are public property, no alcoholic beverages may be consumed in public school buildings or on public school property at any time. OAG 76-266.

Once approval to sell school property as surplus is given by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, there is no legal requirement that a board of education must dispose of the property by public auction or advertisement of sealed bids and the board may establish a price for the land and sell to any purchaser willing and able to meet that price if the figure represents at least the appraised fair market value of the property. OAG 76-291.

A deed of property to a local school board, subject to the grant of a prior 20-year lease of a portion of the property, to a local community action agency, at an annual rental of $1.00 but with the requirement that the lessee keep the leasehold in good repair, does not destroy or impair severely the fee title to buildings and other improvements.

11. Decisions made by local school board.

1. Purpose of Acquisition.
The board of education had no power under this section to acquire any land except for school purposes. Ford v. Pike County Bd. of Educ., 310 Ky. 177, 220 S.W.2d 389 (1949).

2. School Purposes.
The phrase “school purposes” was broad and comprehensive and included building living quarters for teachers and custodial employees, where conditions warranted. Ford v. Pike County Bd. of Educ., 310 Ky. 177, 220 S.W.2d 389 (1949).

3. Title in Commonwealth.
Where property conveyed to private trustees in trust “for school purposes” was operated for many years by county board of education under agreement with trustees, the law vesting title to all school property in the Commonwealth operated to transfer title to the property from the trustees to the Commonwealth. Subsequent legislation requiring city independent district in which property was located to provide school service of the type being furnished in the school located on the property did not affect the title, which remained in the Commonwealth. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 292 Ky. 261, 166 S.W.2d 295 (1942).

When duty to provide school service for colored children in cities of fifth and sixth classes was transferred from county board to city board, city board was entitled to use school building formerly used by county board for colored children. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 292 Ky. 261, 166 S.W.2d 295 (1942).

5. Conveyance.

6. —Warranty Deed.
Where grantor, who had only a life estate, conveyed land to a school district under a general warranty deed, subsequent acquisition of the fee by the grantor injured to the benefit of the school district. Hollen v. Wolfe County Bd. of Educ., 307 Ky. 671, 212 S.W.2d 129 (1948).

Reversionary interest in school property will be enforced. Board of Educ. v. Society of Alumni of Louisville Male High Sch., Inc., 239 S.W.2d 951 (Ky. 1951).

7. Reversionary Interest.
This section did not bar operation of a reversionary clause in deed conveying land to school district for school purposes. Lykins v. Wolfe County Bd. of Educ., 307 Ky. 24, 209 S.W.2d 717 (1948).

Reversionary interest in school property will be enforced. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 292 Ky. 261, 166 S.W.2d 295 (1942).

8. —Creation.
A deed to school district containing a clause of reversion created in the trustees a determinable or qualified fee. Fayette County Bd. of Educ. v. Bryan, 263 Ky. 61, 91 S.W.2d 990 (1936).

A conveyance to be held so long as the property was used for school purposes did create a reversionary interest. Fayette County Bd. of Educ. v. Bryan, 263 Ky. 61, 91 S.W.2d 990 (1936).

Title to land should have reverted to grantor’s descendants where deed to school district, by describing land as that on which new school house “now stands,” and by providing that it was not to be conveyed for use of individual, created limitation or condition, and school district thereafter abandoned land and conveyed it to individual. Devine v. Isham, 284 Ky. 587, 145 S.W.2d 529 (1940).

9. —Trustee as Grantor.
Provision in deed of land made by grantor, who was member of trustees of school district, that land should revert to donors, their heirs and assigns, as soon as school site was changed, was void, since it was duty of trustees under this section to acquire title to school sites in fee simple, and hence successors of grantor could not recover land notwithstanding trustees had abandoned land for school purposes. Keeton v. Wayne County Bd. of Educ., 287 Ky. 174, 152 S.W.2d 595 (1941).

10. —Buildings and Improvements.
Where county board of education in violation of statute took title to school lot with a reversionary interest. School purposes did create a reversionary interest. Fayette County Bd. of Educ. v. Bryan, 263 Ky. 61, 91 S.W.2d 990 (1936).
remained in the Commonwealth for the benefit of the proper school district authorities. Cole v. Shockley, 309 Ky. 313, 217 S.W.2d 649 (1949).

Statute in existence at time a deed of land to school district was executed, and reading substantially as this section, was construed to prevent title to abandoned school building or equipment from passing to owner of reversionary interest in the land. Cole v. Shockley, 309 Ky. 313, 217 S.W.2d 649 (1949).

Provision providing that any reversionary interest in land used for school purposes should not deprive board of education of buildings or other improvements thereon, was not applicable to deed executed prior to passing of statute. Barren County Bd. of Educ. v. Jordan, 249 S.W.2d 814 (Ky. 1952).

11. Decisions Made by Local School Board.
The underlying theme of this section is that the actual decisions addressed hereunder are to be made by the local school board, not the state. Blackburn v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 749 F. Supp. 159 (E.D. Ky. 1990).

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

Analysis

1. Adverse possession.
2. School district abolished.
3. Conveyance.
4. Reversionary interest.

1. Adverse Possession.
Title to property for school purposes may have been acquired by adverse possession. County Bd. of Educ. v. Mill Creek Methodist Church, 242 Ky. 147, 45 S.W.2d 1026 (1932).

When a district was abolished, title to its property passed to the successor district. Breathitt County Bd. of Educ. v. Back, 214 Ky. 284, 293 S.W. 99 (1926).

3. Conveyance.
Boards of education had statutory authority to convey property. Bellamy v. Board of Educ., 255 Ky. 447, 74 S.W.2d 920 (1934).

A board of education could not rescind a conveyance made five years earlier by a former board on the mere ground that it was a bad bargain. Trustees of Congregational Church v. Board of Trustees, 230 Ky. 94, 18 S.W.2d 887 (1929).

Law that provided for acquisition of land for school in fee simple in school board while binding on the school board, did not bind the grantor and his privies, and did not invest a school board with better title than the deed purported to convey. Webster County Bd. of Educ. v. Gentry, 233 Ky. 35, 24 S.W.2d 910 (1930).

4. Reversionary Interest.
A conveyance “for school purposes” did not, in and of itself, create a reversionary interest. Binder v. County Bd. of Educ., 224 Ky. 143, 5 S.W.2d 903 (1928).

When the grantor of a lot to a school district was also one of the trustees, and received a valuable consideration, a clause of reversion could not have been enforced by him or a grantee without consideration. Terry v. Rose, 251 Ky. 314, 64 S.W.2d 909 (1933).

162.020. Transfer of property from one district to another — Title not affected — District may own school in another district.

(1) The title to school property in territory transferred from one (1) school district to another shall not be affected by the transfer. In case of the sale of such property the board of education to which the property belongs may allow a credit on the sale price of the property in proportion to the ratio which the school population of the transferred territory is to the total school population of the district from which the territory was transferred before the transfer was made.

(2) A board of education owning and operating a school plant in another district on June 14, 1934, may continue to own and operate the plant, and a county board of education may establish and maintain a school in an independent school district. Any independent school district may purchase school sites and establish and maintain schools outside the limits of the independent district, but independent districts containing cities of the first or second class shall not purchase school sites or establish or maintain schools outside the county in which the independent district is located.

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-5) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 549, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Construction.
2. Merger with two districts.

1. Construction.
This section contemplates a situation in which the district from which territory was transferred would continue to operate as a school district. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 774, 146 S.W.2d 30 (1940).

2. Merger with Two Districts.
Where town independent school district was dissolved and part of it went to city district and part to county district resulting in merger with those districts, equitable disposition of property of former town district would be to divide it between city and county districts in proportion of population which became part of city district to that which became part of county district; liabilities of former town district being assumed by city and county districts in same proportion. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 284 Ky. 774, 146 S.W.2d 30 (1940).

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 357, 358.

162.030. Condemnation of property for school purposes.
Each board of education may, when unable to make a contract satisfactory to the board with the owner for the purchase of real estate to be used for school purposes, initiate condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Eminent Domain Act of Kentucky (KRS 416.540 to 416.670), and the title to land so obtained shall be vested in fee simple.

Opinions of Attorney General. A city cannot require a subdivider to dedicate certain lands, shown or not shown on the master plan of current adoption, to the public for use as a site for schools and/or parks. OAG 65-417.

The discretion in the matter of the use of a school house is given to the board of education and not the principal, but, unless there is some good reason to refuse the use of the property to a particular organization, the board should allow requesting organizations the use of the property under uniform conditions. OAG 74-362.

NOTE TO DECISIONS

1. Future needs.
2. Resolution of board.
4. School purposes.
5. Compensation.

1. Future Needs.

Authority of school board to condemn is not limited to immediate needs only, but it may, and indeed should give consideration to future needs and the fact that a portion of the land taken will continue to be put to private use by a public utility holding a lease thereon until the needs of the board require its use does not destroy the right of eminent domain. Pike County Bd. of Educ. v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245 (Ky. 1955).

2. Resolution of Board.

Technical strictness in the language of resolution adopted by board of education in condemnation proceedings is not required. Pike County Bd. of Educ. v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245 (Ky. 1955).

Where board made an inadequate offer but left the matter open to further negotiation by “if they feel that they can make some offer with some degree of reasonableness attached thereto, we shall be happy to receive and consider their offer” there was a good faith effort to negotiate and the board’s offer was not a “take it or leave it” offer. Pike County Bd. of Educ. v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245 (Ky. 1955).

Where the board offered $150,000 for a 43.3-acre parcel when the owner had assessed the value of the entire 103-acre tract at $122,600, the condemnor made all the effort required by this section. Usher & Gardner, Inc. v. Mayfield Indep. Bd. of Educ., 461 S.W.2d 560 (Ky. 1970).

Where the approval of the proposed site by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Department of Education was clearly proved, there was ample evidence to support the finding of the trial judge that the proposed acquisition was for school purposes. Usher & Gardner, Inc. v. Mayfield Indep. Bd. of Educ., 461 S.W.2d 560 (Ky. 1970).

5. Compensation.

The landowner was entitled to receive as just compensation the difference in the fair market value of the total tract of land immediately before and immediately after the taking of a portion of the land for school purposes. Usher & Gardner, Inc. v. Mayfield Indep. Bd. of Educ., 461 S.W.2d 560 (Ky. 1970).

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 357.

162.040. Escheated property.

So much property in each school district as escheats to the state, and is not required by the provisions of KRS Chapter 393 to be disposed of in some other manner, shall vest in the state for the use and benefit of the public schools in the district. The board of education of the district may, in the name of the state and for the use and benefit of the schools of the district, by its chairman or other officer designated by it, enter upon and take possession of the property, or sue for and recover the property by action at law or in equity. The board may sell and convey any of the property by warranty deed or otherwise. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 550, effective July 13, 1990.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-56) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 550, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where escheated property formerly owned by a noncitizen of the United States is auctioned by the state with the state retaining the proceeds therefrom, the proceeds from the sale of the land are applied for the use and benefit of the public schools in the district in which the property is located, pursuant to this section. OAG 81-248.

NOTE TO DECISIONS

1. Undevised property.
2. Property owned by alien.

1. Undevised Property.

In the case of undevised property, the eight-year waiting period prescribed by KRS 393.020 is not necessary. Commonwealth ex rel. Bd. of Educ. v. Schultz’s Unknown Heirs, 268 Ky. 806, 105 S.W.2d 1067 (1937).

2. Property Owned by Alien.

The board of education of the school district in which property owned by an alien is situated may institute an action in the name of the Commonwealth to escheat the property. If the board has authorized the action, it is proper for the action to be brought by the Attorney General as relator. Commonwealth ex rel. Att’y Gen. v. Tamer, 293 Ky. 357, 169 S.W.2d 19 (1943).

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 10.

162.050. Use of school property for public purposes.

The board of education of any school district may permit the use of the schoolhouse, while school is not in session, by any lawful public assembly of educational, religious, agricultural, political, civic, or social bodies under rules and regulations which the board deems proper. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 551, effective July 13, 1990.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-53) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 551, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. The utterance of prayers or the reading of the Bible can continue in PTA meetings and voluntary Bible classes held without the regular school hours or school curriculum. OAG 64-111.
An independent school district can construct an auditorium-gymnasium and, after its completion, use the money which the city wishes to contribute as rent for the times when the building could be leased to the city. OAG 64-475.

A district school board could not give approval to a ministerial association to distribute New Testaments to pupils in their classrooms. OAG 68-452.

This section envisions occasional or spasmodic usage for short periods of time. OAG 71-212.

Under this section school students who voluntarily out of spontaneous wishes hold prayer sessions outside of regular school hours on school property may be permitted to continue to do so, as the school board is not violating constitutional principles in allowing this specific activity. OAG 72-386.

The use of school facilities is subject to the determination of a local board of education and it is paramount that the board adopt rules and regulations regarding the permitting of the use of school property so that such use does not in any way interfere with the conducting of any school program, curricular or co-curricular. OAG 79-321.

A local board of education has the lawful authority and duty to prescribe the manner in which school buildings and facilities may be used by groups during nonschool hours. OAG 80-78.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS

162.060. Plans for school buildings to be approved.

The chief state school officer shall be furnished a copy of all plans and specifications for new public school buildings contemplated by boards of education and for all additions to or alterations of old buildings. He shall examine or cause to be examined all such plans and specifications and shall approve or disapprove them in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education. Plan reviews for conformance with the Uniform State Building Code shall be conducted only by the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction. No board of education may award a contract for the erection of a new building or contract for an addition to or alteration of an old building until the plan has been approved by the chief state school officer.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Discretion of board and superintendent.
2. Contract for construction.
3. Decisions made by local school board.

1. Discretion of Board and Superintendent.

When the board has obtained the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of its plans for a new building, courts will not interfere with the proposed plans unless there is positive proof of fraud, collusion or a clear abuse of discretion since the obligation of locating school sites rests with the county board of education and it is not for the courts to say whether the board has acted wisely or unwisely in determining where the school should be located but the only question for the court's determination is whether the board is exceeding its authority or is acting arbitrarily. Perry County Bd. of Educ. v. Deaton, 311 Ky. 227, 223 S.W.2d 882 (1949).

2. Contract for Construction.

A board of education lacks the power or capacity to enter into a contract for school construction where the revenue bond method provided in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 is utilized. Hacker Bros. Constr. Co. v. Board of Educ., 590 S.W.2d 897 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

3. Decisions Made by Local School Board.

The underlying theme of this section is that the actual decisions addressed hereunder are to be made by the local school board, not the state. Blackburn v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 749 F. Supp. 159 (E.D. Ky. 1990).

Cited. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 407, 408.

162.065. Administrative regulations for use by local school boards when constructing schools using construction managers.

The State Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations for use by local school boards when constructing school buildings using construction managers. A construction manager is an experienced and qualified construction contracting organization that is paid a fee for its professional management and supervision services. The regulations shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) A standard “Request for Proposal” form, including appropriate criteria for use by local school boards to ensure only qualified construction managers are considered:
   (a) A list of successfully completed projects or a demonstrated capability to perform projects of a similar type;
   (b) A descriptive detail of projects showing the experience and the ability to perform budget estimating, value engineering, and scheduling; and
   (c) A list of experienced and qualified personnel with a track record of achieved quality and the capability to provide bidder solicitation;

(2) Adequate public notice of the invitation for proposals shall be given a sufficient time prior to the date set for the opening of proposals;
(3) A requirement for bids, when requested by a construction manager, be submitted to the architect or owner and opened in public;
(4) A requirement that all bids for school construction projects be advertised in newspapers with the largest local circulation;
(5) A sample fee schedule for construction manager services shall be developed by recommendation of a diversified committee consisting of Department of Education personnel, architects, and construction managers for the guidance of local school boards;
(6) A requirement that established qualifications-based selection procedures be implemented by local boards when selecting firms to provide architectural and engineering services.

162.066. Restriction on award of contracts by construction manager.
When a construction manager is utilized in construction, maintenance, repairs, or renovation or expansion of school facilities the construction manager shall not award construction contracts to any company which the manager owns or in which the manager has a financial interest if less than two (2) bids are accepted.

162.067. Application of KRS 162.065 and 162.066.
KRS 162.065 and 162.066 shall apply to all construction of new school facilities, maintenance, and repair of existing school facilities, renovation of existing school facilities, or expansion of existing school facilities.

162.070. Contracts for buildings, improvements, and materials to be let on competitive bidding — When advertisements not required.
The contracts for the erection of new school buildings, additions and repairs to old buildings, except additions or repairs not exceeding seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), shall be made by the board of education with the lowest and best responsible bidder complying with the terms of the letting, after advertisement for competitive bids pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, but the board may reject any or all bids. All necessary specifications and drawings shall be prepared for all such work. The board shall advertise for bids on all supplies and equipment that it desires to purchase, except where the amount of the purchase does not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), and shall accept the bid of the lowest and best bidder, but the board may reject any and all bids.

Opinions of Attorney General. Under the wording “lowest and best responsible bidder,” as set forth in this section, it means not only the lowest monetary bid, but it means that the factors of business judgment, capacity, skill, and responsibility of the bidder must be carefully assessed in awarding the bid. OAG 80-396.

Although site work can be and is usually interpreted to be a part of a project involving school building construction or remodeling, site work unrelated to school building construction does not come within the scope of this section. Thus, where a school district wished to correct a drainage problem at one of its schools, KRS 424.260 and the $7,500 “small purchases” ceiling was applicable to the contract for drainage site work. OAG 82-407.

To the extent this section and KRS 424.260 are in conflict, the provisions and therefore the $7,500 amount found in KRS 424.260, as amended in 1992, must be deemed to prevail over the lower $5,000 amount remaining in this section. OAG 82-407.

162.075. Compliance with code not necessary on purchases from federal government.
The provisions of KRS Chapter 45A and KRS 162.070 shall not apply to purchases made by the boards of education within the Commonwealth of Kentucky from the United States of America, or any agency thereof.

Cross-References. Political subdivision may purchase from federal government without taking bids, KRS 66.470.

Collateral References. 78 C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 409.

(1) Whenever a board of education deems it necessary for the proper accommodation of the schools of its district to enlarge sites for school buildings, to purchase new sites, which in the case of independent districts may be not more than two (2) miles without the boundary lines of the district, to improve, remodel, or restore school buildings, to erect or equip new school buildings, or for any or all of these purposes, and the annual funds raised from other sources are not sufficient to accomplish the purpose, the board shall make a careful estimate of the amount of money required for the purpose and shall determine the amount of money for which bonds shall be issued and the purpose to which the proceeds shall be applied. Upon request of the board of education of any district, the county clerk shall submit to the qualified voters of the district, the question as to whether bonds shall be issued for the purpose. The question shall be so framed that the voter may by his vote answer “for” or “against.”

(2) The request shall be accompanied by an ordinance or resolution which shall fix the time the bonds shall run and, if a serial issue, the amount to mature at each time. It shall limit the rate of interest to be permitted on the bonds, which shall not exceed the amount permitted by law, and the total amount of bonds to be issued, and shall provide for the levy of a tax to pay the interest and to create a sinking fund to retire them at their maturity.

3. The election shall be held not less than fifteen (15) nor more than thirty (30) days from the time the request of the board of education is filed with the county clerk, and reasonable notice of the election shall be given. The election shall be conducted and carried out in the school district in all respects as required by the general election laws, and shall be held by the same officers as required by the general election laws. The expense of the election shall be borne by the school district.

1. Authority of Board.
   Where school board was renting school building constructed under holding company plan, and one of buildings was destroyed by fire, school board had no authority to issue funding bonds to enable building to be reconstructed. Stith v. Board of Educ., 292 Ky. 91, 166 S.W.2d 58 (1942).

2. Stadium.
   A board is not authorized to expend funds for a high school stadium, as the latter is not a "school building" within the meaning of this statute. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 256 S.W.2d 29 (Ky. 1953).

3. Application of Proceeds.
   When the question submitted concerns only sites and buildings, no part of the bond proceeds may be used to equip buildings. Hager v. Board of Educ., 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475 (1934).

5. Time of Maturity.
   The question as to whether school improvement bonds should be callable before maturity is one of time of payment as dealt with in this section and not merely a mechanical detail as dealt with in KRS 162.090. Howard v. Board of Educ., 311 Ky. 130, 223 S.W.2d 721 (1949).

   Where board of education followed the procedure of this section and certified its action to the board of aldermen of city of first class, the proper tax levying authority, it was the duty of the board of aldermen to provide for the submission of the question of their issuance to the people and take other consistent proceedings.    The date of school elections is not controlled by Const., § 148. Mollette v. Board of Educ., 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990 (1935).

   Although polling hours are from six a.m. to four p.m., when an election is held at different hours it must be shown that such hours affected the result of the election. Mollette v. Board of Educ., 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990 (1935).

   It will be presumed that the election was held at the proper hours, even though call and notice provided otherwise. Mollette v. Board of Educ., 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990 (1935).

They shall be placed under the control of the board of education, and the board shall determine when, at what price and how the bonds shall be sold, the date, number of bonds, denomination, whether coupon or registered, the rate of interest, the frequency and place of payment of principal and interest, and other details as desired, embodied in the bonds or in the request providing for their issue. The board shall at once adopt a resolution in conformity therewith. The bonds shall be signed by the chairman and secretary of the board of education. 1. Sale and Issuance.

All of the authority vested in the board as to the sale and handling of the bonds and their payment is predicated upon the manner in which they are voted, which must be in accordance with the ordinance of the fiscal court providing for the bond election. Howard v. Board of Educ., 311 Ky. 130, 223 S.W.2d 721 (1949).

2. —Ordinance.

Absence of details in ordinance is not fatal in absence of showing that they were also omitted from bonds. Mollette v. Board of Educ., 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990 (1935).

3. —Time.

It is unnecessary that all bonds voted be issued and sold at the same time. Hager v. Board of Educ., 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475 (1934). See Runyon v. Simpson, 270 Ky. 646, 110 S.W.2d 440 (1937).

Lapse of more than four years from date of election authorizing a bond issue does not preclude issuance of part or all of said issue. Hager v. Board of Educ., 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475 (1934). See Runyon v. Simpson, 270 Ky. 646, 110 S.W.2d 440 (1937).

4. Obligations.

5. —School District.

The provisions of this section, making school bonds the obligation of the city in cases where the city school district embraces the city, cannot constitutionally be applied where the city boundaries extend beyond those of the school district, therefore the bonds constitute obligations of the school district, for which only property within the district may be taxed and for which only voters in the district may vote on the question of issuance of bonds. Board of Educ. v. City of Louisville, 258 S.W.2d 707 (Ky. 1953).

6. —Board of Education.

This section expressly makes the bonds a charge or obligation of the board of education except where the school district embraces a city of the first or second class. City of Louisville v. Board of Educ., 302 Ky. 647, 195 S.W.2d 291 (1946).

7. —City.

In independent districts embracing a city of the second class the bonds are bonds of the city. Hager v. Board of Educ., 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475 (1934). See Hager v. Cisco, 256 Ky. 708, 76 S.W.2d 614 (1934).

8. Competitive Bidding.

Bonds can be sold only upon competitive bidding after public and reasonable advertisement or a proposal to receive bids or offers for bonds proposed to be issued and sold; however, this decision is not retroactive, and applies only to future transactions. Eagle v. City of Corbin, 275 Ky. 808, 122 S.W.2d 798 (1938).

Where contract of board of education to issue bonds to purchaser was made before the effective date of Eagle v. City of Corbin, 275 Ky. 808, 122 S.W.2d 798 (1938), such contract was not invalidated by failure to advertise bonds for competitive bidding, since the decision in Eagle v. Corbin does not have retroactive effect. Ebert v. Board of Educ., 277 Ky. 633, 126 S.W.2d 1111 (1939).

The decision in Eagle v. Corbin, 275 Ky. 808, 122 S.W.2d 798 (1938), does not prohibit the sale of bonds upon competitive bids upon interest rates, as long as the ordinance states the maximum rate of interest. Funk v. Strathmoor Village, 278 Ky. 627, 129 S.W.2d 151 (1939).

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

1. Misapplication of Sinking Fund.
The fact that board had been enjoined, in suit by taxpayers, from further collection of original tax for bonds, was no defense where board had misapplied from sinking fund more than enough to pay the bonds. Board of Educ. v. Highland Cem., 292 Ky. 374, 166 S.W.2d 854 (1942).

Where school subdistrict used, for general school purposes, the proceeds of a tax levied to pay bonds, which proceeds would have been sufficient to pay bonds in full, bondholders were entitled to judgment requiring school board to pay bonds out of board’s general fund, and to levy a tax to pay the balance of the bonds if the amount in the general fund was not sufficient to pay the bonds in full. 2. All of the bonds voted by the various types of school districts and subdistricts prior to June 14, 1934, shall be retired and the interest paid thereon in accordance with the laws under which they were voted, and nothing in KRS 162.080 to 162.100 shall in any way impair any of such bond obligations or the interest thereon.

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4399-13) was repealed by Acts 1966, ch. 255, § 283.

162.120. Independent district in city may convey property to city to provide buildings.

To provide buildings for school purposes, boards of education of school districts embracing a city of any class may convey to the city a fee simple title with covenant of general warranty to a site now held or hereafter acquired by the boards of education.

Cross-References. City of first class may set apart land for municipal university, KRS 165.060.
Bond issue approval, 702 KAR 3:020.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where the fee simple title to school property was owned by the county and the city wanted to blacktop certain roads on the property, the county was liable for its apportionate cost of the improvement as a benefited property owner. OAG 60-377.

A fund resulting from the sale of school property could be used for the purchase of sites for school buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of school buildings, and for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of buildings, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 160.476, even though refunding revenue bonds were outstanding on other school property. OAG 66-224.

Other school property, title to which has been retained by the school district, does not represent part of the security for refunding revenue bonds issued to provide for a specific building. OAG 66-224.

Although, under this section through KRS 162.300, a certificate from the trustee stating certain bonds and coupons were redeemed and canceled is sufficient evidence that the bonds and coupons have been paid and properly canceled, the school board treasurer should normally visually inspect the bonds and coupons before incineration. OAG 72-487.

Under the provisions of this section through KRS 162.300 a school board may not relieve itself of liability for the bonds and coupons by a transfer of the “rental” money to a trustee since the board is contractually responsible for taking steps to ensure that the debt service and liquidation of coupons and bonds for the benefit of bondholders is effectively secured. OAG 72-487.

Under the provisions of this section through KRS 162.300 the school board should require the trustee to make an accounting each year of money received and bonds and coupons paid. OAG 72-487.

Under this section through KRS 162.300 any excess money left after liability for the bonds has ceased would revert to the school board treasury. OAG 72-487.

Under this section through KRS 162.300 if a paying agent or trustee pays a wrong bond or coupon the improper payment is the liability of the trustee and not the school as the board does not insure the trustee’s acts in this regard; therefore, the trustee is liable to the board but the board is liable to the holder. OAG 72-487.

Under this section through KRS 162.300 when bonds or coupons are not presented at maturity liability for these items would continue subject to the applicable statute of limitations. OAG 72-487.

Since financing of school bonds is done almost exclusively through the authority of KRS 162.120 through 162.300 and KRS 58.010 through 58.120, there is no authority for any change in the preexisting administration procedure used for school building revenue bonds and fiscal courts and county treasurers must continue to perform the customary functions heretofore served by them in that regard. OAG 77-139, modifying OAG 76-711.

The Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission Act, KRS 157.611 to 157.640, does not give the Commission unilateral power to choose whether Act or KRS 162.120 to 162.300 will be used to finance school building construction. OAG 86-50.

1. Conveyance and Lease Back.

Bonds issued by a city as a conduit of independent school district pursuant to KRS 162.120 to 162.300 to pay costs of school auditorium-gymnasium to be erected on site conveyed by county board of education to the independent school district which was to convey it to the city which was to lease it back to school district until retirement of the bonds would not constitute direct obligations of the city or of the independent school district but would be secured by a first lien upon the auditorium-gymnasium and the right of the bondholders to enforce the lien would in no way be affected by a merger of independent school district and county school district. Ranier v. Board of Educ., 273 S.W.2d 577 (Ky. 1954).

The school board had the right to convey a school site to the city and then lease back the site and improvements thereon. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

The school board is authorized to convey a building site to the city and then lease back with improvements financed by city's bonds. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

The authority of the school board to convey property to the city and then lease back the property with improvements was not conditioned upon financing under any particular statutory authority. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

2. Selection of Site.

The selection of the site is to be made by the board of education. Franklin County v. Franklin County Bd. of Educ., 267 Ky. 554, 102 S.W.2d 1024 (1937).

3. School Building.

An auditorium-gymnasium is a school building within the meaning of KRS 162.120 to 162.300. Ranier v. Board of Educ., 273 S.W.2d 577 (Ky. 1954).

4. Merger with County after Conveyance to City.

The fact that after conveyance to the city, the independent district was merged with the county district does not affect the right of the city to consummate the original plan. Piggott v. Kasey, 271 Ky. 651, 113 S.W.2d 5 (1938).

5. Acquisition of Property and Buildings.

A county or city may acquire property on which school buildings have already been erected and finance the cost of acquisition under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.300. Morgan v. Fayette County Bd. of Educ., 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64 (1943).

Regardless of time or amount, the voting of a tax to pay revenue bonds issued for school construction does not impose a tax in futuro but merely grants authority to the taxing power to increase the amount of annual tax that the law otherwise authorized to be levied and property transferred by county school board to city school district is not liable for county school building tax voted prior to the transfer. Board of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 250 S.W.2d 1017 (Ky. 1952).

7. Revenue Bonds.

Revenue bonds issued under KRS 162.120 to 162.300 did not constitute an indebtedness of county school district so city school district to which territory was transferred from county school district after voters of county district authorized a special school building tax to pay rentals for the school buildings to be erected and financed by the bonds was not liable for any part of the revenue bonds under proportional assumption statute KRS 160.065. Board v. Board of Educ., 250 S.W.2d 1017 (Ky. 1952).

City is required to cooperate with independent school district in the issuance and sale of bonds but it is merely a conduit through which the board of education acts to have the bonds issued and sold and has no discretion in the matter. Ranier v. Board of Educ., 273 S.W.2d 577 (Ky. 1954).

A board of education lacks the power or capacity to enter a contract for construction where the revenue bond method provided in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 is utilized. Hacker Bros. Constr. Co. v. Board of Educ., 590 S.W.2d 897 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

9. —Unenforceable.

Where a construction company was attempting to maintain an action on the basis that it had a valid contract with the school board, the contract was unenforceable because the approval of the voters of the county was not obtained, as required by § 157 of the Constitution; on the other hand, if the construction company was attempting to maintain the action on the basis that the revenue bond methods provided for in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 were followed, the contract was unenforceable because the only government agency possessing the power and authority to execute such a contract failed to do so. Hacker Bros. Constr. Co. v. Board of Educ., 590 S.W.2d 897 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

162.140. Lease of building by board of education.

Immediately upon the approval of the plans and specifications as provided in KRS 162.130, the board of education shall offer to lease the building for a term of one (1) year from the time the building is completed and ready for occupancy. The lease by its terms shall give the lessee the right and option to extend the term of the lease from year to year, for periods of one (1) year, until the original term of the lease has been extended for a total number of years, acceptable to the city, not exceeding thirty (30) years, at a rental which, if paid for the original term and for each of the full number of years for which the term is extended, will amortize the total cost of the erection of the building and appurtenances, provide an adequate maintenance fund and, in addition thereto, a sum sufficient to pay the cost of insuring the building against loss or damage by fire and windstorm or other calamity in such sum as may be agreed by the parties thereto.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4421-3) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 556, effective July 13, 1990.

Opinions of Attorney General. The school board has broad discretion under KRS 160.160 and 160.290 in the selection of school sites and the establishment of schools so that even if the county is the legal owner of the property and is leasing it to the school board under this section, as the school district holds equitable title, the fiscal court has no rights relative to a high school building which the board of education plans to tear down and replace with a new building, unless the county could negotiate to purchase the property from the school board. OAG 74-221.

A school board should not tie up school property for a period exceeding a year but should, instead, provide for an extension of the term of the lease from year to year, for periods of one year, for a specified number of total years. OAG 77-771.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Authority to lease.
2. Abuse of board's discretion.
3. Lease for thirty years invalid.

1. Authority to Lease.

The authority of the school board to convey property to the city and then lease back the property with improvements was not conditioned upon financing under any particular statutory authority. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

The school board had the right to convey a school site to the city and then lease back the site and improvements thereon. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

The school board is authorized to convey a building site to the city and lease it back with improvements financed by city's bonds. City of Bowling Green v. Board of Educ., 443 S.W.2d 243 (Ky. 1969).

2. Abuse of Board's Discretion.

Where county had existing bonded debt of $225,000 and the county board of education a debt of nearly $100,000 and estimates of future revenue indicated there would be available $2,000 to $5,600 more than necessary for servicing existing debts and meeting obligations incurred in building proposed... new school, approval of plan by which county board of education and fiscal court proposed to erect a new high school and issue $250,000 in bonds payable from rents received annually from school board over 20-year period was not an abuse of discretion. Carter v. Taylor, 313 Ky. 345, 213 S.W.2d 601 (1945).

2. Contract for Construction.
A board of education lacks the power or capacity to enter a contract for school construction where the revenue bond method provided in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 is utilized. Hacker Bros. Constr. Co. v. Board of Educ., 590 S.W.2d 897 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

3. Lease for Thirty Years Invalid.
A lease for one year with annual renewal option is valid, when rental involved does not result in violation of Const., § 157. However a 30-year lease is invalid since it does result in a violation of said constitutional section. Davis v. Board of Educ., 260 Ky. 294, 83 S.W.2d 34 (1935).

162.150. City may erect school buildings.
Any city may establish and erect school buildings and necessary appurtenances within the corporate limits under the provisions of KRS 162.160 to 162.280, for the purpose of supplying the board of education of the independent district embracing the city with adequate buildings necessary to carry out its duties and powers. Opinions of Attorney General. Other school property, title to which has been retained by the school district, does not represent part of the security for refunding revenue bonds issued to provide for a specific building. OAG 66-224.

A fund resulting from the sale of school property could be used for the purchase of sites for school buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of school buildings, and for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of buildings, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 160.476, even though refunding revenue bonds were outstanding on other school property. NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Acquisition of property and buildings.
2. Contract for construction.

1. Acquisition of Property and Buildings.
A county or city may acquire property on which school buildings have already been erected and finance the cost of acquisition under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.300 and several buildings or properties may be included in one mortgage and bond issue. Morgan v. Fayette County Bd. of Educ., 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64 (1943).
162.160 have been complied with, and until authorized by an ordinance specifying the proposed undertaking, the amount of bonds to be issued, and the maximum rate of interest the bonds are to bear. The ordinance shall further provide that the buildings and appurtenant facilities are to be constructed or acquired under the provisions of KRS 162.150 to 162.250.

Cross-References. Governmental agency may issue revenue bonds for any public project, KRS 58.010 to 58.120.

Bond issue approval, 702 KAR 3:020.

Opinions of Attorney General. The Kentucky statutes do not authorize the expending of bonds proceeds to renovate school buildings presently existing and already acquired. OAG 71-107.

The statutory sections relating to acquisition of existing buildings in this chapter and KRS Chapter 58 are broad enough to include, by reasonable implication, whatever may be properly spent for the functional adaptation of purchased buildings to school purposes. OAG 71-107.

Analysis

1. Sale of bonds.
2. Sources of loans.

1. Sale of Bonds.

Bonds issued hereunder may be sold directly to private individual by the city. J.D. Van Hooser & Co. v. University of Ky., 262 Ky. 581, 90 S.W.2d 1029 (1936). See Piggott v. Kasey, 271 Ky. 651, 113 S.W.2d 5 (1938). But see Eagle v. City of Corbin, 275 Ky. 808, 122 S.W.2d 798 (1938).

2. Sources of Loans.

Counties and cities, in financing construction of school buildings, may borrow money from sources other than the federal government. Morgan v. Fayette County Bd. of Educ., 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64 (1943).

Collateral References. 78A C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, §§ 478-499.

All bonds issued under the provisions of KRS 162.170 for common school purposes may bear interest at a rate or rates or method of determining rates, payable at least annually, and shall be executed in a manner and be payable at times, not exceeding thirty (30) years from the date of issue, and at a place as the governing body of the city determines. The bonds shall be sold in a manner and upon terms as the governing body of the city deems for the best interest of the city.

162.185. Applicability of KRS 162.170 and 162.180.

Nothing contained in KRS 162.170 or 162.180 is intended to or shall be construed to make interest rates applicable to revenue bonds issued by the governing bodies of state institutions of higher learning under KRS 162.340 to 162.380, inclusive, subject to regulation, establishment, limitation, or approval by the Kentucky Board of Education.

Cross-References. Bond issue approval, 702 KAR 3:020.

All bonds issued under the provisions of KRS 162.170 shall have all of the qualities of negotiable instruments, and shall not be subject to taxation. If any of the officers whose signatures appear on the bonds or coupons cease to be such officers before delivery of the bonds, the signatures shall nevertheless be valid for all purposes the same as if the officers had remained in office until delivery. The bonds shall be payable solely from the revenue derived from the school building as provided in KRS 162.230, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of the city within the meaning of the constitutional provisions or limitations. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it was issued under the provisions of KRS 162.150 to 162.280 and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of the city.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

The tax exemption feature does not violate Const., §§ 3, 170 or 171. J.D. Van Hooser & Co. v. University of Ky., 262 Ky. 581, 90 S.W.2d 1029 (1936).

162.200. Use of funds — Lien on building.
All money received from any bonds issued pursuant to KRS 162.170 shall be used solely for the establishment or erection of the school building and necessary appurtenances, except that the money may be used also to advance the payment of the interest on bonds during the first three (3) years following the date of the bonds. There shall be a statutory mortgage lien upon the school building and appurtenances in favor of the holders of the bonds and coupons. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 562, effective July 13, 1990.)

Other school property, title to which has been retained by the school district, does not represent part of the security for refunding revenue bonds issued to provide for a specific building. OAG 66-224.

162.220. Receiver in case of default.
If there is any default in the payment of the principal or interest on any of the bonds, any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer the school building on behalf of the city, with power to charge and collect rentals sufficient to provide for the payment of any bonds or obligations outstanding against the school building and for the payment of the operating expenses, and to apply the income and revenues in conformity with KRS 162.150 to 162.280, and the ordinance referred to in KRS 162.170 and 162.230. 162.230. Rent — Disposition to be fixed by ordinance.
At or before the issuance of the bonds, the governing body of the city shall, by ordinance, set aside and pledge the income of the building into a special fund to be used and applied in payment of the cost and maintenance of the building. The ordinance shall definitely fix the amount of revenue necessary to be set aside and applied for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds. The balance of the income shall be set aside for the reasonable and proper maintenance of the building, including a sufficient sum to pay the cost of insurance. The city governing body may provide by ordinance any provision and stipulation it deems necessary for the administration of the income for the security of the bondholders. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 565, effective July 13, 1990.)

162.240. Deposit and investment of sinking fund.
The sinking fund shall be deposited in a depository selected by the governing body of the city. The deposit, where practicable, shall be continuously secured by a pledge to the city of direct obligations of the United States, exclusive of accrued interest, at all times at least equal to the balance on deposit in the account, or in some other manner acceptable to the purchasers or holders of the bonds. The securities shall be deposited with the city or held by a trustee or agent satisfactory to the governing body of the city. The sinking fund may be invested in direct obligations of the United States. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 566, effective July 13, 1990.)

Opinions of Attorney General. Boards of education may place their general funds in banks designated as depositories pursuant to KRS 160.570 and obtain from such banks certificates of deposit representing time deposits of surplus funds subject to withdrawal on demand. OAG 64-70.

The "school building revenue bond and interest redemption fund" mentioned on the face of the specimen copy of a typical school bond is really a part and parcel of the "sinking fund" mentioned in this section, and the transfer of such funds finally to the trustee of the bonds does not automatically relieve the board of education of liability, since the board is contractually responsible for taking steps to insure that the debt service and liquidation of coupons and bonds for the benefit of bondholders is effectively secured. 162.250. Maintenance fund surplus to be transferred to sinking fund.

If a surplus is accumulated in the maintenance fund equal to the cost of maintaining the building during the remainder of the calendar or fiscal year, as may be provided by the ordinance required by KRS 162.230, and the cost of maintaining and operating the building for the succeeding like calendar or fiscal year, the excess over such amount shall be transferred to the sinking fund. 162.260. Refunding bonds may be issued.

The city may issue refunding bonds to provide funds for the payment of any outstanding bonds, in accordance with the procedure prescribed for the issuance of the original bonds. The refunding bonds shall be secured to the same extent and shall have the same source of payment as the bonds which are refunded. (4421-15: amend. 162.290. Alternative methods — Other procedure not required.

KRS 162.120 to 162.140 and KRS 162.150 to 162.280 are additional and alternate methods for the acquisition of school buildings by boards of education of independent districts embracing cities of any class, and do not include, alter, amend, or repeal any other statute. No proceeding shall be required for the acquisition of any school building or the issuance of bonds... under KRS 162.150 to 162.280 except such as are prescribed by those sections.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4421-4, 4421-19) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 570, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

A board of education lacks the power or capacity to enter into a contract for school construction where the revenue bond method provided in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 is utilized. Hacker Bros. Constr. Co. v. Board of Educ., 590 S.W.2d 897 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

162.300. Certain boards may obtain school buildings as provided in KRS 162.120 to 162.290.

County boards of education and boards of education of independent districts not embracing a city of any class may obtain buildings for school purposes by proceeding under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.290. When applied to such boards of education, KRS 162.120 to 162.290 shall be so read that the term:

(1) "City" means "county," including a county containing a consolidated local government, or "urban-county," as the case may be;

(2) "City clerk" means "county clerk" or the appropriate recordkeeping officer in an urban-county government or a consolidated local government;

(3) "Governing body of the city" means "fiscal court" or the governing body of an urban-county government or a consolidated local government, as the case may be;

(4) "Mayor" means "county judge/executive," "chief executive officer of the urban-county government," or "mayor of a consolidated local government," as the case may be; and

(5) "Ordinance" means either "ordinance" or "resolution."

Cross-References. Governmental agency may issue revenue bonds for any public project, KRS 58.010 to 58.120.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where the fee simple title to school property was owned by the county and the city wanted to blacktop certain roads on the property, the county was liable for its apportionate cost of the improvement as a benefited property owner. OAG 60-377.

A fund resulting from the sale of school property could be used for the purchase of sites for school buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of school buildings, and for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of buildings, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 160.476, even though refunding revenue bonds were outstanding on other school property. OAG 66-224.

Other school property, title to which has been retained by the school district, does not represent part of the security for refunding revenue bonds issued to provide for a specific building. OAG 66-224.

Where the construction of a school building and later lease back to the school district was to be assumed by the county, a company in which the county judge (now county judge/executive) was the principal stockholder would be prohibited from selling materials to private contractors building the school. OAG 66-564.

After merger, an urban-county government would stand in the place of the fiscal court as far as the agency to contract with the county board of education in connection with the construction of school facilities in the county and the issuance of bonds for such construction. OAG 74-187.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Authority of board.

The authority vested in the school board is clearly a general and comprehensive power, given it without limitation, express or implied, effective to forbid it from making its financing plan of a group conveyance of three school properties and providing for a refund of all taxes paid by holders of its school bonds where amount was within its annual income. Scott County Bd. of Educ. v. McMillen, 270 Ky. 483, 109 S.W.2d 1201 (1937).

County board of education is vested with the broad power and authority to control, buy and sell real estate for school sites, and to control and manage all public school property of its district and to use such school funds and property to promote public education in such ways as it deems necessary and proper in the exercise of its judgment and discretion. Scott County Bd. of Educ. v. McMillen, 270 Ky. 483, 109 S.W.2d 1201 (1937).

A county board of education had no authority to execute a plan by which board was to convey to a nonprofit corporation 20 percent of school property in county, but not site on which school building was to be erected, and corporation was to erect building and execute lease-option contract to board by which, after payment of rental for period of years, board was to become owner of all property conveyed to corporation. Weaks v. Board of Educ., 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094 (1940).

Board of education is naked trustee of school property and the real beneficiaries are the pupils for whose benefit school property is donated and the board could not appropriate the proceeds of fire policy taken out by it on colored schoolhouse which had been donated to it for exclusive benefit of the colored school district to the public school funds for the benefit of all public schools within its jurisdiction. Board of Educ. v. Todd County Bd. of Educ., 289 Ky. 803, 160 S.W.2d 170 (1942).

Where school board was renting school building constructed under holding company plan, and one of buildings was destroyed by fire, school board had no authority to issue funding bonds to enable building to be reconstructed. Stith v. Board of Educ., 292 Ky. 91, 166 S.W.2d 58 (1942).

2. Determination of Site.
Board of education and not the fiscal court has both the power and the duty to determine the site upon which school building will be erected. Franklin County v. Franklin County Bd. of Educ., 267 Ky. 554, 102 S.W.2d 1024 (1937).

3. Acquisition of School Buildings.
A county or city may acquire property on which school buildings have already been erected and finance the cost of acquisition under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.330. Morgan v. Fayette County Bd. of Educ., 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64 (1943).

County had authority to acquire school buildings from private holding company, and issue bonds in exchange for outstanding bonds of holding company and in such case several buildings or properties may be included in one mortgage and bond issue. Morgan v. Fayette County Bd. of Educ., 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64 (1943).

Counties and cities, in financing construction of school buildings, may borrow money from sources other than the federal government. Morgan v. Fayette County Bd. of Educ., 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64 (1943).

5. Lease of School Building.
Provision that lease of school building by fiscal court to school district would continue from year to year for a rental sufficient to pay interest on the bonds and eventually retire the bonds violated the constitutional limitation on indebtedness but it could be changed to one year with the privilege of renewal and the school board would not be presently bound for the entire period required for the rentals to liquidate the proposed indebtedness but would be bound only for one year at a time as renewed which would be within the income of the board for each particular year. Fiscal Court v. Board of Educ., 268 Ky. 396, 104 S.W.2d 1103 (1937).

6. Power of Fiscal Court.
When the legislature enacted this section it did not intend that the acts of a county board of education might be vetoed by the fiscal court. Pyfe v. Hardin County Bd. of Educ., 305 Ky. 589, 205 S.W.2d 165 (1947).

Fiscal court must comply with request of county board of education for issuance of revenue bonds for school buildings under this section, and cannot question need for buildings or use its own judgment as to whether bonds shall be issued. Pyfe v. Hardin County Bd. of Educ., 305 Ky. 589, 205 S.W.2d 165 (1947).

Where county had issued revenue bonds pursuant to this section under a plan where the school board conveyed a tract of land to the fiscal court which issued revenue bonds and constructed a school building and then leased the building to the school board for one year with option to renew for successive one year periods and when sufficient rentals were paid over a period of years to retire the bonds the land and building were to be conveyed by the fiscal court to the school board, one of the bondholders could not attack a proposed new bond issue on the same plan for an entirely separate school to be erected on a separate tract of land on the basis the board did not have enough finances since under the plan the bondholder was not concerned with the future soundness of the school system but took the risk that the school board could abandon the school building at the end of any year. Wagner v. Fiscal Court, 306 S.W.2d 288 (Ky. 1957).

162.310. State educational institution may convey building site.
For the purpose of providing buildings to be used in connection with any state educational institution, the governing body of the institution may convey to any person complying with KRS 162.320 and 162.330 a fee simple title, with covenant of general warranty of title, to real estate held by or for the institution, as a site for the buildings. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 572, effective July 13, 1990.)

Compiler's Notes. This section (4535cc-1) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 572, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.
This section and KRS 162.320 and 162.330 do not violate Const., § 51, or any other constitutional provision. McDonald v. University of Ky., 225 Ky. 205, 7 S.W.2d 1046 (1928).

162.320. Contract for erection of building.
Every person to whom a site for a building is conveyed pursuant to KRS 162.310 shall immediately enter into a written contract with some person approved by the governing body of the state educational institution, for the immediate erection on the site of a building with the necessary appurtenances, according to plans and specifications approved by the governing body of the state educational institution. The contract shall provide the time when the building shall be completed. The contractor shall enter into bond with the Commonwealth for the benefit of the state educational institution in the penal sum of not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the contract price for the completion of the work in the manner and within the time set out in the contract. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 573, effective July 13, 1990.)

162.330. Lease of building — Option to purchase.
Immediately upon the execution of the contract provided for by KRS 162.320, the person to whom the site... is conveyed shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the governing body of the state educational institution, a lease of the site and the building to be erected thereon, for a term of one (1) year from the time the building is completed and ready for occupancy, with an option in the lessee to extend the term of the lease for a term of one (1) year from the expiration of the original term of the lease and for one (1) year from the expiration of each extended term of the lease, until the original term of the lease has been extended for a total number of years to be agreed upon by the parties at a rental which, if paid for the original term and for each of the full number of years for which the term of the lease may be extended, will amortize the total cost of the erection of the building and appurtenances. The rent shall be paid at such times as the parties to the lease agree upon. The lease shall provide that the lessee may, at the expiration of the original or any extended term, purchase the leased premises at a stated price, which shall be the balance of the total cost of the erection of the building and appurtenances not amortized by the payments of rent previously made by the lessee. The lease shall provide that in the event of the exercise of the option to purchase the leased premises or in the event the lease has been extended for the full number of years which it is agreed the same may be extended, and all rents and payments provided for in the lease have been made, the lessor shall convey the premises to the lessee in fee simple with covenant of general warranty of title. The lease may provide that the lessee shall, as additional rent for the leased premises, pay all taxes assessed against the leased premises, and the cost of insuring the building erected thereon against loss or damage by fire and windstorm in such sum as may be agreed by the parties thereto.

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

162.350. Method of erection of buildings by state educational institutions.

The governing body of a state educational institution erecting a building or buildings pursuant to KRS 162.340 is subject to the provisions of KRS 162.170 to 162.240, KRS 162.260, 162.270, and 162.290, except that part of KRS 162.190 that provides that the bonds shall be payable solely from the revenue derived from the particular building or buildings erected. When so applied these sections shall be so read that:

1. “City” means “state educational institution”;
2. “Ordinance” means “resolution”;
3. “Governing body of the city” means “governing body of the institution”;
4. “School buildings” means the type of buildings contemplated by KRS 162.340;
5. “Thirty (30) years” in KRS 162.180 means “forty (40) years”;
6. “KRS 162.230” in KRS 162.190 and 162.220, means “KRS 162.230, 162.360, and 162.370”;
7. “KRS 162.150 to KRS 162.280” means “KRS 162.350 to 162.380.”

Compiler’s Notes. This section (4535m-2 to 4535m-8, 4535m-10 to 4535m-12, 4535m-14: amend. Acts 1958, ch. 147, § 1; 1968, ch. 110, § 20) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 576, effective July 13, 1990.

162.360. Revenues from building — Determination and use.
The governing body of a state educational institution erecting a building or buildings and appurtenances under the provisions of KRS 162.340 shall, by resolution, provide that the bonds shall be payable, solely from the revenues of such building or buildings, provided, said governing body may in its discretion, by said resolution, also provide that the bonds shall be payable from the revenues of any other building or buildings theretofore or as may be thereafter erected and used, in connection with the institution for educational purposes provided, further, any such provision for the payment of the bonds from the revenues of such other building or buildings theretofore erected shall be subject to and in all respects in full conformity and compliance with the rights of the holders of any bonds or obligations payable from the revenues of such other building or buildings theretofore issued by the governing body then outstanding. The resolution shall fix the initial minimum rents, tolls, fees, and other charges to be imposed in connection with the services furnished by the building or buildings to be erected and may also provide that the governing body of the institution shall monthly as the service accrues pay from the current funds of the institution or from student fees, or both, into the special fund provided by KRS 162.230, as that section is made applicable by KRS 162.350, a minimum amount representing the reasonable cost and value of any service rendered to the educational institution by such building or buildings in furnishing any educational facilities in the operation of the educational institution. The resolution shall fix the extent of the pledge of revenues from such other building or buildings toward the payment of the bonds and interest thereon and may specify the terms and conditions upon which additional bonds may be thereafter issued and sold ranking on a parity with and payable from the same source as the bonds authorized by such resolution, and such additional parity bonds may thereafter be issued and sold to pay all or any part of the cost of building or buildings and appurtenances. The resolution shall definitely fix the minimum amount of revenues necessary to be set apart on or before stated intervals and applied to the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds and the balance of the income and revenues shall be set aside as a proper operation and maintenance fund, including a sufficient sum to pay the cost of insuring the building or buildings against loss or damage by fire and windstorm or other calamity as may have been stipulated in the resolution or resolutions authorizing the bonds. The charges for the services from the building or buildings, together with the available revenues of any other building or buildings pledged to the payment of said bonds and interest thereon, shall be sufficient at all times to provide for the payment of such interest and to create a sinking fund to accomplish retirement of such bonds at or before maturity, and to pay the current operation and maintenance expenses of the building or buildings to the extent such expenses are not otherwise provided. The charges shall be revised from time to time so as to produce these amounts.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4535m-8: amend. Acts 1958, ch. 147, § 2) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 577, effective July 13, 1990.

162.370. Maintenance fund surplus.
If a surplus is accumulated in the maintenance fund equal to the cost of maintaining the building or buildings during the remaining portion of the calendar or fiscal year, as may be provided by the resolution adopted under KRS 162.360 and the cost of maintaining and operating the building or buildings the succeeding like calendar or fiscal year, the excess over such amount may be transferred at any time by the governing body to the sinking fund or may be used for any improvements, extensions, or additions to the building or buildings.

Compiler's Notes. This section (4535m-9: amend. Acts 1958, ch. 147, § 3) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 578, effective July 13, 1990.

162.380. Bonds are obligations of governing body — Resolution constitutes contract.
The bonds issued under authority of KRS 162.350 shall be obligations only of the governing body of the institution, payable as to both principal and interest from the revenues as pledged for that purpose. In no event shall they be considered a debt for which the credit of the state is pledged. Any resolution adopted under the provisions of KRS 162.350 or 162.360 shall constitute a contract between the governing body of the institution and the holder of any bond or coupon and shall be binding in all respects upon the governing body of the institution and its successors.

(1) Any board of education may obtain buildings for school purposes by proceeding under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.290 utilizing a nonprofit finance corporation established pursuant to the provisions of KRS 273.161 to 273.390, inclusive, and KRS 58.180 as an issuing agency for the bonds instead of a city or county. When applied to such boards of education, KRS 162.120 to 162.290 shall be so read that the term:
   (a) “City” means a finance corporation acting as an agency and instrumentality of the board pursuant to KRS 58.180;
   (b) “City clerk” means the secretary of the finance corporation;
   (c) “Governing body of the city” means the board of directors of the finance corporation or other governing body thereof;
   (d) “Mayor” means president or chief executive officer of the finance corporation; and
   (e) “Ordinance” means an ordinance, resolution, or trust indenture or a similar document.

(2) In order to promote uniformity in the financing of school facilities, each finance corporation shall include the identity of the school district for which it acts in its title and shall be designated as “.................. School District Finance Corporation.”

(3) Bonds issued by a finance corporation on behalf of a board of education shall constitute “bonds” within the meaning of KRS 157.615(3) and the School Facilities Construction Commission shall be authorized to assist qualified boards in meeting rental payments due under a lease from the finance corporation to the board which shall constitute a “lease” within the meaning of KRS 157.615(8).

162.440. Insurance fund for boards of education in cities of the second class or counties containing cities of the second class.

The board of education of any city of the second class or of a county containing a city of the second class may, by resolution, establish a fund to be known as the “insurance fund” after written approval of the plan to administer the fund has been secured from the chief state school officer. The resolution shall fix the maximum limit of the fund. The fund shall be maintained separate from the other funds and moneys of the board, and shall be used exclusively for replacing or repairing any injury or destruction to any of the buildings owned by the board or to their contents when caused by fire, tornado, windstorm, cyclone, casualty, explosion, riot, or flood, but not when caused by wear and tear or the natural processes of decadence or deterioration.

162.450. Payments into fund — Replacement of expenditures — Use of interest.
The board of education of a city of the second class, or of a county containing a city of the second class, may raise the maximum limit of the insurance fund from time to time as it deems best. Until the amount in the fund equals the maximum limit, the board of education shall each year, from the revenues under its control, set apart to the fund a sum equal to from one-twentieth ($\frac{1}{20}$) to one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of the maximum limit of the sum. When any portion of the fund is used, payments to restore the fund shall at once be begun and be continued until the restoration is complete. When the fund is, for any reason, below the maximum limit, the interest derived from the investment thereof shall be accumulated and added to the fund; otherwise the interest may be transferred to the general funds of the board.

When an injury occurs to any building or its contents from fire, tornado, windstorm, cyclone, casualty, explosion, riot, or flood, the business director or secretary of the board of education shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, prepare and file with the board a sworn written proof of loss, showing in detail the items of injury, and in detail an estimate of the extent of the financial loss and whether and to what extent the loss is covered by insurance, with the names of the companies, the number of the policies, and names of the agents. Before the board of education may appropriate any portion of the insurance fund, a committee appointed by the board shall report to the board in writing, making recommendations and answering in detail the following questions:

(1) What is the entire loss on the building? When and what caused it?
(2) What deduction should be made for wear and tear and the natural processes of decadence or deterioration?
(3) What portion of the loss proposed to be made good from this fund resulted from causes covered by this fund?
(4) Will it be practicable to make the restoration from the general fund and the proceeds of any insurance policies without assistance from this fund?
(5) If assistance is needed from this fund, how much? How will the portion so used be returned to the fund?
(6) Does the committee recommend an appropriation from this fund to aid in the restoration proposed? If so, how much?

162.490. Insurance fund may be used in case of delay in payment under insurance policy.

If any insurance company delays in paying to the board of education the amount of any loss under a policy, the board may, on the recommendation of its building and finance committee, appropriate from the insurance fund a sum not exceeding the amount of the probable loss under the policy to aid in the prompt restoration of the loss. The amount drawn from the insurance fund shall not exceed the amount collectible from the policy. A resolution shall be adopted setting over to the insurance fund the proceeds of the policy or sufficient thereof to replace the amount so used, and the proceeds when collected shall be so used and not otherwise.

162.520. Definitions for KRS 162.520 to 162.620.

As used in KRS 162.520 to 162.620, the following terms and words have the following respective meanings, unless another meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(1) “City” or “county” means “authority”;

(2) “Department” means the State Department of Education;

(3) “Board of education” means the governing body of a county school district, or of an independent school district, for which the authority issues its revenue bonds pursuant to KRS 162.520 to 162.620;

(4) “Project” means any undertaking to provide for a board of education any school buildings, facilities, improvements, and appurtenances authorized in KRS 162.120 to 162.300;

(5) “Lease” or “lease instrument” means a written instrument for the leasing of one (1) or more school projects executed by the authority as lessor and a board of education as lessee, conforming to the specifications set forth in KRS 162.140;

(6) “Bonds” or “bonds of the authority” means bonds issued by the authority under KRS 162.520 to 162.620, payable as to principal and interest solely from rentals received from a board of education pursuant to a lease.

162.530. Membership — Succession — Quorum — Compensation — Offices — Register of membership — Official records — Regulations — Meetings. [Repealed.]

162.540. Interpretation of terms in KRS 162.120 to 162.300 when applied to KRS 162.520 to 162.620.

Upon receiving a request in writing from a board of education, the authority may, in its discretion, assist such board of education in financing any project by acting in the capacity and manner authorized to be performed by cities under KRS 162.120 to 162.290, and by counties under KRS 162.300. When applied to the authority, KRS 162.120 to 162.300 shall be so read that the following terms and passages have the following respective meanings or interpretations:

(1) “City” or “county” means “authority”;

(2) “City clerk” or “county clerk” means “secretary or assistant secretary of the authority”;

(3) “Governing body of the city” or “fiscal court” means “authority”;

(4) “Mayor” or “county judge/executive” means “chairman or vice chairman of the authority”;

(5) “Ordinance” in the case of a city, or “resolution” in the case of a county, means a resolution of the authority;

(6) “Building and appurtenances” means “project” as defined in subsection (4) of KRS 162.520;

(7) The last sentence of KRS 162.190 shall read, “It shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it was or is issued under the provisions of KRS 162.520 to 162.620 (omitting reference to KRS 162.150 to 162.280 as such), and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of the authority or of the Commonwealth”;

(8) “City” or “county” means “authority”;

(9) “City clerk” or “county clerk” means “secretary or assistant secretary of the authority”;

(10) “Governing body of the city” or “fiscal court” means “authority”;

(11) “Mayor” or “county judge/executive” means “chairman or vice chairman of the authority”;

(12) “Ordinance” in the case of a city, or “resolution” in the case of a county, means a resolution of the authority;

(13) “Building and appurtenances” means “project” as defined in subsection (4) of KRS 162.520;
KRS 162.200 is modified to permit use of money received from bonds for the additional purpose of paying reasonable expenses incurred in the authorization, advertising, preparation, sale, and delivery of bonds, and may include a fee contracted to be paid to a fiscal agent for financial advice and services if the contract or agreement therefor shall have been approved by the board of education and by the authority;

As used in KRS 162.140, “lease” shall have the meaning defined in subsection (5) of KRS 162.520, and the same shall be recorded or filed for recording in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the project is situated, as evidenced by a written receipt or acknowledgment of filing issued by such clerk, or by a copy of the lease attested or certified by such clerk as being of record in his office. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the authority to obtain such evidence before delivery of the bonds to a purchaser thereof; but failure to obtain the same shall not affect the validity of the bonds in the hands of any purchaser or holder;

KRS 162.240 shall not apply; and the following provisions shall govern in lieu thereof: “One (1) or more depositories and paying agents may be selected and designated by the board of education, subject to the approval of the authority, which approval shall not unreasonably be withheld; but each depository and paying agent shall be a financial institution, within or without the Commonwealth, which is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. All deposits of sinking funds and of bond proceeds shall continuously be secured by a pledge to the authority of direct obligations of the United States, exclusive of accrued interest, at all times at least equal to the balance on deposit in the fund or account, such securities to be deposited with the authority or held by a trustee or agent designated by the authority; provided, however, in lieu of requiring such security the authority may in its discretion invest, or cause to be invested and reinvested, any moneys in direct obligations of the United States until such time as cash funds may be needed, and the authority may prescribe for the custody and safekeeping of such securities. When cash funds are needed, the authority shall direct the conversion into cash of such securities, or a sufficient portion thereof, and may require that the same be secured until disbursement, as herein provided. All income from such securities shall accrue to the board of education, but may be retained by the authority and credited upon any rental obligation of the board of education under the lease, or applied to supplement bond proceeds if the same should for any reason turn out to be insufficient to defray the costs and expenses of the project.”

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Escrow. Designation of an out-of-state bank as escrow agent whose duties were to protect bondholders rather than city does not invalidate revenue bond financing plan. Gregory v. City of Lewisport, 369 S.W.2d 133 (Ky. 1963).

162.550. Ownership of certain moneys determined. Moneys received by the authority as rentals under any lease, and from the sale of bonds, are declared not to be funds of the Commonwealth but shall be corporate funds of the authority to be held, administered, invested, and disbursed as trust funds under the terms, provisions, pledges, covenants, and agreements set forth in its leases and bond resolutions and bonds. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 586, effective July 13, 1990.)

162.560. Officers of authority to be bonded. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1960, ch. 81, § 6) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 7, § 12.

162.570. Authority required to record all financial transactions; report to Governor. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1960, ch. 81, § 7) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 7, § 12.

162.580. Duty of authority as to each bond issue. In connection with each bond issue of the authority, it shall be the duty of the authority:

1. To require the board of education to insure the project to its full insurable value, or to the amount of the bonds outstanding from time to time, whichever is the less, against the hazards covered by the standard fire insurance policy with standard endorsement of “extended coverage”; and to require that a copy of each policy be delivered to the authority for inspection and for its records;

2. To require periodic accounting from all depositories of funds, the same to be submitted on forms prepared and supplied by the authority;

3. To furnish to the auditing staff of the department a summary identification and description of each issue, and to request that the financial records of the board of education relating thereto be audited as a part of the annual audit of the board of education, and that a separate statement or report thereof be filed with the authority;

4. To send to each board of education, at least thirty (30) days before the due date of any rental payment, a notice of the amount of rental to become due, and the date thereof, and to require acknowledgment thereof;

(5) In the event of failure to receive from the board of education satisfactory evidence that sufficient funds have been transmitted to the authority, or will be so transmitted, for paying bond principal and/or interest when due, as provided in the lease, to notify and request that the department withhold, from the board of education a sufficient portion of any undisbursed funds then held or set aside or allocated to it, and to request that the department transfer the required amount thereof to the authority for the account of the board of education.

Collateral References. 78A C.J.S., Schools and School Districts, § 528.

162.590. Duty of department on request of authority.

It shall be the duty of the department, upon written request of the authority:

(1) To cause its auditing staff to audit the financial records of a board of education relating to any identified and described bond issue of the authority, as an incident to the department's next ensuing annual audit of such board of education, and each subsequent annual audit thereof; and to provide to the authority a statement or report thereof;

(2) Upon receiving a notification and request from the authority as described in KRS 162.580, to ascertain whether the lease of the board of education has been renewed and is in force in accordance with its terms; and if the same is ascertained to be in force, to withhold from the board of education a sufficient portion of any undisbursed funds then held or set aside or allocated by the department for the board of education, and to comply with the terms of the notification and request of the authority, for the account of said board of education.

Cross-References. Department of Education, KRS 156.010.

162.600. Bonds to issue in name of authority — Identification — Investment designation.

(1) Bonds of the authority shall be issued in the name of the authority, shall be designated "school building revenue bonds," or, if appropriate, "school building revenue refunding bonds," and shall additionally be identified by the name of the board of education executing the lease. If the authority shall issue more than one (1) series of bonds for the same lessee from time to time, each series, including the first or subsequent to the first, shall additionally be identified distinctly by alphabetical or chronological designation, by date of the bonds, or otherwise as the authority may determine.

(2) For the purposes of determining any limit prescribed by any law for investment of any public funds, or funds of banks, trust companies, insurance companies, building and loan associations, credit unions, pension and retirement funds, and fiduciaries, in obligations of a single obligor, bonds issued by the authority pursuant to KRS 162.520 to 162.620 shall not be deemed to be bonds or obligations of the same obligor except to the aggregate of all series of bonds involving leases of a single board of education.

(3) Bonds issued by the authority under the provisions of KRS 162.520 to 162.620 are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the Commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of a similar nature may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the Commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the Commonwealth is now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of a similar nature may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the Commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the Commonwealth is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

162.610. Transactions of authority exempt from other control. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (Acts 1960, ch. 81, § 11) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 7, § 12.

162.620. Sale of bonds — Conditions.

Bonds of the authority shall be sold only upon the basis of sealed bids or proposals, publicly solicited, received, opened and acted upon. The "publication area," as that term is used in KRS Chapter 424, shall not be deemed to be the area within which the office of the authority is situated, but shall be deemed to be the "publication area" of the board of education executing the lease. Each sale shall be publicly advertised by means of a notice conforming to the provisions of KRS 424.140(3), and the same shall be published at least one (1) time, at least seven (7) days in advance of the date set forth for opening bids, in a daily newspaper having bona fide general circulation throughout the Commonwealth. If such publication is made, it shall be sufficient for publication in the “publication area” to be made only one (1) time, at least seven (7) days in advance of the date set forth for the opening of bids, notwithstanding provisions for publication more often as provided in KRS Chapter 424. If a copy of the sale notice be delivered or transmitted in good faith to the qualified newspaper of the “publication area” in time for publication in an issue thereof published seven (7) days or more in advance of the date set forth for the opening of bids, and with direction for publication therein, any failure of such newspaper to make publication as directed shall not invalidate the sale of the bonds by the authority on the designated date, nor require postponement or cancellation thereof.

Penalties

162.990. Penalties.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 162.500 is liable to the board of education, in an action brought by the board of education, or by any citizen of the district, or by the chief state school officer, for the restoration of the wrongful appropriation. In addition, he is guilty of malfeasance in office and upon conviction shall forfeit his office, and may for each offense be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or imprisoned from one (1) to five (5) years, or both so fined and imprisoned. One-half (½) of the fine shall be paid to the board of education by the collecting officer.

163.032 Salary schedule for teachers in schools for deaf and blind.

(1) The Kentucky Department of Education, with assistance from the Kentucky Personnel Cabinet, shall adopt a salary schedule for teachers in the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind. The salary schedule shall be the same as salary schedules in effect in local school districts in counties containing a city of the first class and shall conform to the requirements for a single salary schedule as defined in KRS 157.320.

(2) Certified teachers in the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind shall have the same statutory employment status and benefits as certified teachers in the public schools.

(3) The Kentucky Department of Education, with assistance from the Kentucky Personnel Cabinet, shall adopt a salary schedule for administrators at the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind which will provide for equitable salaries between teachers and administrators. The salary schedule, which shall be computed prior to July 1 of each year, shall be based on two hundred sixty (260) days per year.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). This section was amended by three 1990 Acts. Where those Acts are not in conflict, they have been compiled together. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails, pursuant to KRS 446.250.

Opinions of Attorney General. There is a reasonable distinction which justifies the separate treatment given to the salaries of beginning teachers in the state-supported vocational schools, the State School for the Deaf, and the State School for the Blind; therefore, this section is not "special" legislation in violation of either § 59 or § 60 of the Constitution. OAG 85-86.

163.035 Business enterprises program for the blind. [Repealed.] Compiler's Notes. This section (Acts 1948, ch. 56, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1956, ch. 165, § 1; 1956, ch. 172, § 9.

Compiler's Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1988, ch. 289, § 1, effective July 15, 1988) was repealed, reenacted and amended as KRS 151B.175 by Acts 1990, ch. 470, § 34, effective July 1, 1990, which prevailed over an amendment by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 269.

163.090. Mayo State Vocational School. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (4526-10, 4526-11: amend. Acts 1966, ch. 184, § 3) was repealed by Acts 1976, ch. 327, § 8.

163.095. Application of bequests or donations. All bequests or donations made for a specified use with regard to the state vocational education program, vocational education facilities, vocational education personnel, or present or prospective vocational education pupils shall be applied to that use and no other so long as it is consistent with appropriate Kentucky Revised Statutes and the state plan for vocational education. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 593, effective July 13, 1990.)

163.098. Establishment of base salaries for principals. The principal of an area vocational education center or state vocational technical school shall be paid a base monthly salary, which is at least equal to the highest paid teacher supervised by the principal, when the education and experience of the principal is equal to or greater than that of the supervised employee. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 594, effective July 13, 1990.)

DEPARTMENT FOR THE BLIND

163.450. Purpose.
The purpose of KRS 163.450 to 163.470 is to provide for a separate and specialized agency for the blind to provide for and improve the rehabilitation of the blind and visually impaired citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky in order that they may increase their social and economic well-being and the productive capacity of the Commonwealth and the nation.

(Enact. Acts 1976, ch. 377, § 1.)

163.460. Definitions for chapter.
As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) “Department” means the Department for the Blind.
(2) “Legally blind” means a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correction or a visual field of 20 degrees or less.
(3) “Visually impaired” means a condition of the eye with correction which constitutes or progressively results for the individual in a substantial disability to employment.
(4) “Executive director” means the executive director of the Department for the Blind.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/94). This section was amended by 1994 Ky. Acts chs. 49 and 405. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 405, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails under KRS 446.250.

(1) There is created within the Cabinet for Workforce Development the Department for the Blind.
(2) The commissioner shall be appointed by the Governor upon the recommendation of the secretary of the Cabinet for Workforce Development to whom he shall be directly responsible.
(3) The department shall be the state agency responsible for all rehabilitation services for the blind and the visually impaired and other services as deemed necessary. The department shall be the agency authorized to expend all state and federal funds designated for rehabilitation services for the blind and visually impaired. The Office of the Secretary of the Cabinet for Workforce Development is authorized as the state agency to receive all state and federal funds and gifts and bequests for the benefit of rehabilitation services for the blind and visually impaired. The State Treasurer is designated as the custodian of all funds and shall make disbursements for rehabilitation purposes upon certification by the commissioner.
(4) (a) The Kentucky Department for the Blind State Rehabilitation Council is hereby created and established to accomplish the purposes and functions enumerated in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended. Members of the council shall be appointed by the Governor from recommendations submitted by the Department for the Blind consistent with the federal mandate to include a majority of individuals who are blind or visually impaired representing specified organizations, service providers, and advocacy groups. The composition, qualifications, and terms of service of the council shall conform to those prescribed by the federal law. There shall be statewide representation on the council.
(b) 1. Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, any vacancy occurring in the membership of the Department for the Blind State Rehabilitation Council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. The vacancy shall not affect the power of the remaining members of the council.
2. The Governor may delegate the authority to fill a vacancy to the remaining voting members of the council.
(c) Each member of the Department for the Blind State Rehabilitation Council may receive a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100), not to exceed six hundred dollars ($600) annually, for each regular or special meeting attended if the member is not employed or must forfeit wages from other employment. Each member may have travel expenses approved at the established state rate and expenses reimbursed at the established state agency rate for services such as personal assistance, child care, and drivers for attendance at council meetings, and in the performance of duties authorized by the Kentucky Department for the Blind State Rehabilitation Council. The per diem and expenses shall be paid out of the federal funds appropriated under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended.
(5) The department shall establish and implement policies and procedures for the carrying out of the program of services for the blind.
(6) At the close of each biennium, the department shall prepare a financial report and present it to the secretary of the Cabinet for Workforce Development and to the Governor. The biennial report shall be published. The biennial report shall also contain a precise review of the work of the department and contain necessary suggestions for improvement.
(7) The department shall coordinate its functions with other appropriate public and private agencies.

(8) The department shall perform all other duties as required of it by law.

(9) The commissioner shall hire personnel as necessary to carry out the work of the department and the provisions of KRS 163.450 to 163.470. Preference shall be given to hiring qualified blind persons.

(10) There shall be created under the authority of the department, to be directed by the commissioner, a Division of Client Services which shall provide intake and rehabilitation counseling services; distribute or sell technical educational and other aids to the blind; provide educational materials such as recorded texts, braille or large-type texts, or such other materials as may be deemed necessary for the education of the blind; research into the development of new technical aids for the blind, mobility training, work evaluation, personal adjustment, independent living, and other services as needed for blind adults, and services for the blind who have other disabilities; and promote employment of the blind in public and private sectors.

(11) There shall be established under the authority of the department to be directed by the commissioner, a Division of Business Enterprises. This division shall manage and supervise the Vending Facilities Program and license qualified blind persons as vendors. In connection therewith, the department shall be authorized to own or lease vending equipment for the operation of vending facilities in federal, state, private, and other buildings. The set-aside charges levied shall comply with the existing federal regulations as specified in 34 CFR 395.9. One (1) or more facility placement agents shall be employed to locate and establish additional vending facilities. The Department for the Blind shall make such surveys as may be deemed necessary to determine the vending facility opportunities for blind vendors in state buildings or on other property owned, leased, or otherwise occupied by the state government and shall install vending facilities in suitable locations on such property for the use of the blind. All of the net income from vending machines which are on the same property as a vending facility shall be paid to the blind vendor of the vending facility. Whenever there exists a conflict of interest between state agencies seeking to vend merchandise on the same state property, the agencies shall negotiate a fair agreement which shall protect the interest of both from unreasonable competition. The agreement shall be submitted to the custodial authority having jurisdiction over the property for approval. Provided, however, that in all situations the blind vendor shall be permitted to vend all items of merchandise customarily sold at similar vending facilities.

(12) There shall be established under authority of the department, to be directed by the commissioner, a Division of Industries for the Blind which shall provide industrial evaluation, training, and employment. Emphasis shall be on placement in public employment and long-term sheltered employment at industries for the blind. The Division of Industries for the Blind shall be abolished, effective July 1, 2000. The department, at all times, shall be authorized to provide industrial evaluation, training, and employment.

(13) The department shall provide staff services which shall include fiscal management, staff development and training, program development and evaluation, public information office, and other staff services as may be deemed necessary.

(14) The provisions of any other statute notwithstanding, the commissioner is authorized to use receipt of funds from the Social Security reimbursement program for a direct service delivery staff incentive program. Incentives may be awarded if case service costs are reimbursed for job placement of Social Security or Supplemental Security Income recipients at the Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA) level for nine (9) months pursuant to 42 U.S.C. sec. 422 and under those conditions and criteria as are established by the federal reimbursement program.

Compiler’s Notes. Title I, Subtitle B, Section 126 of the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1992, referred to in subsection (4) (a) of this section is compiled as 29 U.S.C. § 725. Title I, part A of the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1992, P.L. 102-529 referred to in subsection (4) (b) of this section is compiled as 29 U.S.C. §§ 701, 706, 707, 709, 711 to 715, 717, 718 - 718b, 721 to 723, 732, 750, 761a, 761b, 762, 770, 772 to 777b, 777d to 777f, 780, 781, 783, 791 to 795, 795d, 795e, and 795h.

Opinions of Attorney General. Where the Bureau (now Department) for the Blind, pursuant to subsection (14) (now (12)) of this section, operates a concession stand within the Louisville post office, the concession operation is subject to audit by the auditor of public accounts pursuant to KRS 43.050(2)(a); since the state auditor has the responsibility for auditing the Bureau for the Blind, there is nothing in the statutes that would permit him to accept an audit of the concession stand done by a Bureau for the Blind employee. OAG 80-155.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

By virtue of the provision of the state government vending facility program for blind vendors, subsection (11) of this section, and guided by federal law and regulations, authority for supervision and control of vending services operations must be deemed to reside in the state licensing agency and this supervisory authority includes a correlative right of product control; thus, state university could not extend to cola company an exclusive contract to sell its drink products on campus. Kentucky State Univ. v. Kentucky Dep’t for Blind, 923 S.W.2d 296 (Ky. Ct. App. 1996).
While provisions of the state government vending facility program for blind vendors did not prohibit state university from competing in any way with blind vendor in the area of food service, university was required to negotiate a fair agreement to protect blind vendor from unreasonable competition; this protection did not require extending to blind vendor a right of first refusal with every expansion of the university's food service line. Kentucky State Univ. v. Kentucky Dep't for Blind, 923 S.W.2d 296 (Ky. Ct. App. 1996).

163.475. Legislative findings and provisions relating to transition of operation of Kentucky Industries for the Blind.

(1) The General Assembly finds that the provision of industrial evaluation, training, and employment opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired is a valuable and necessary component of vocational rehabilitation services. The Department for the Blind has sole responsibility for and the obligation to operate and manage a Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind. This facility has struggled to meet these mandates but, faced with declining available state revenues, expects a continual diminishment to a submarginal operation with respect to providing viable long-term employment opportunities that are self-sustaining and sufficiently diversified for individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

(2) The General Assembly finds that increased flexibility in contract negotiation, purchasing, and hiring will enhance the competitiveness of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind, resulting in additional production contracts thereby guaranteeing continued and expanded jobs and other opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired. This flexibility and competitiveness can be achieved through the operation of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind by a nonprofit corporation, the members of which have expertise in management skills and background pertaining to sound business practices and rehabilitation philosophy.

(3) The General Assembly finds that a transition period from state division to a nonprofit operation is necessary to ensure the success and continuation of the important functions of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind. Therefore, the General Assembly shall continue to support the Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind through appropriations to the Department for the Blind for six (6) years in order to eliminate eventually the necessity for annual state appropriations. The Department for the Blind shall monitor and safeguard the expenditure of those public moneys for the use and benefit of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind and citizens who are blind and visually impaired in the Commonwealth.

(4) The General Assembly finds that the continued employment of current employees of the Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind is a necessary and important outcome. The Department for the Blind shall ensure through contractual provisions that the nonprofit corporation it contracts with pursuant to KRS 163.480(2) offers employment to every employee of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind at the time the nonprofit corporation assumes total responsibility for the operation of the workshop. The Department for the Blind shall maximize the retirement benefits for each current employee of the Division of Kentucky Industries for the Blind at the time the department contracts for total operation by the nonprofit corporation through the parted employer provisions of KRS 61.510 to 61.705.

(5) The General Assembly finds that at the time the Kentucky Industries for the Blind is operated totally by the nonprofit corporation, the Department for the Blind shall have the authority to convey ownership of the workshop to any nonprofit corporation with which it contracts pursuant to KRS 163.480(2) without financial consideration, including real and personal property, inventory of materials, and stores for resale. The instrument of conveyance to such nonprofit corporation shall provide that the real property and production equipment conveyed, or sufficient remuneration therefor, shall revert to the state at any time the nonprofit corporation or its successor shall cease operating the Kentucky Industries for the Blind for the benefit of individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

163.480. Department's authority to contract with nonprofit corporation for employment services.

(1) The Department for the Blind may contract, to the extent funds are available under this chapter and under conditions and standards established by the department, with any nonprofit corporation able to provide expertise in the operation of workshops for and rehabilitation of individuals who are blind or visually impaired and whose objectives are to carry out the purposes of KRS 163.470(13).

(2) The Department for the Blind shall contract with a nonprofit corporation, effective July 1, 2000, to provide industrial evaluation, training, and employment opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired as previously provided by the Division of Kentucky Industries for the Blind.

ACCESSIBLE ELECTRONIC INFORMATION

163.485. Legislative findings and declarations relating to accessible electronic information for the disabled.

The General Assembly finds and declares that:

(1) Approximately eight hundred seventy-four thousand (874,000) Kentuckians have disabilities and, of this number, approximately three hundred thousand (300,000) are blind or visually impaired or have other print impairments that prevent them from using conventional print material;

(2) Kentucky fulfills an important responsibility by providing books and magazines prepared in Braille, audio, and large-type formats to eligible blind and disabled persons;

(3) The technology, transcription methods, and means of distribution used for these materials are labor-intensive and cannot support rapid dissemination to individuals in rural and urban areas throughout the state;

(4) Lack of direct and prompt access to information included in newspapers, magazines, newsletters, schedules, announcements, and other time-sensitive materials limits educational, employment, and independent opportunities, literacy, and full participation in society by blind and disabled persons;

(5) This limitation can be overcome through the use of high-speed computer, radio, and telecommunications technology, combined with customized software, providing a practical cost-effective way to convert electronic text-based information into human or synthetic speech suitable for statewide distribution and accessible through radio, a touch-tone telephone, and modern telecommunications technology;

(6) Radio, telecommunications, and voice-based information systems are cost-efficient information delivery systems for this state;

(7) Federal funds have been used to develop the technology and infrastructure needed for statewide toll-free access to daily newspapers and other timely information of local, state, and national interests, providing an efficient and cost-effective means of reader registration, content acquisition, and intrastate telecommunications support; and

(8) Use of this accessible electronic information service will enhance Kentucky's efforts to meet the needs of blind and disabled citizens for access to information that is otherwise available in print, thereby reducing isolation and supporting full integration and equal access for such individuals.

Legislative Research Commission Note. 2004 Ky. Acts ch. 129, sec. 4, provides that 2004 Ky. Acts ch. 129, which creates KRS 163.485, 163.487, and 163.489, is to be known as the Accessible Electronic Information Acts.

163.487. Definitions for KRS 163.485 to 163.489.

As used in KRS 163.485 to 163.489, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “Accessible electronic information service” means news and other timely information, including but not limited to magazines, newsletters, schedules, announcements, and newspapers, provided to eligible individuals using high-speed computers, radios, and telecommunications technology for acquisition of content and rapid distribution in a form appropriate for use by those individuals; and

(2) “Blind and disabled persons” means those individuals who are eligible for library loan services through the Library of Congress and the Department for the Blind pursuant to 36 C.F.R. sec. 701.10(b).

163.489. Creation of Accessible Electronic Information Service Program — Access provided — Use of funding.

(1) The Accessible Electronic Information Service Program is created and shall be provided by the Department for the Blind. The program shall include:

(a) Intrastate access for eligible persons to read audio editions of newspapers, magazines, newsletters, schedules, announcements, and other information using a touch-tone telephone, radio, or other technologies that produce audio editions by use of computer; and

(b) A means of program administration and reader registration on the Internet, or by mail, telephone, or any other method providing consumer access.

(2) The program shall:

(a) Provide accessible electronic information services for all eligible blind and disabled persons as defined by KRS 163.487(2);

(b) Make maximum use of available state, federal, and other funds by obtaining grants or in-kind support from appropriate programs and securing access to low-cost interstate rates for telecommunications by reimbursement or otherwise.

(3) The Department for the Blind shall review new technologies and current service programs in Kentucky for the blind and visually impaired that are available to expand audio communication if the department determines that these new technologies will expand access to consumers in a cost-efficient manner. The department may implement recommendations from the Department for the Blind State Rehabilitation Council for improving the program.

Commission on Deaf and Hard of Hearing

163.500. Definitions of “deaf” and “hard of hearing.”

The “deaf” and “hard of hearing” are persons who have hearing disorders. They are people who cannot hear and understand speech clearly through the ear alone, with or without hearing aids.

163.505. Commission on the deaf and hearing impaired — Membership — Terms — Compensation. [Repealed.]

(2) All members shall serve three (3) year terms except state officials or their designees who shall serve during their terms of office. Of the members appointed pursuant to subsection (1)(a)2. through (1)(a)5. and subsection (1)(g) of this section, no more than three (3) of those members shall have terms beginning in the same year. Any person who is a member of the commission on July 13, 1990, shall serve until he resigns or until his term expires.

(3) Each member of the commission shall be reimbursed for his necessary travel and other expenses actually incurred in the discharge of his duties.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/15/98). This section was amended by 1998 Ky. Acts chs. 32 and 426. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 426, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails under KRS 446.250.

(1) The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall consist of:

(a) Seven (7) members appointed by the Governor as follows:

1. One (1) audiologist chosen from a list of three (3) names submitted by the Kentucky Speech and Hearing Association;

2. Three (3) hard of hearing or deaf persons chosen from a list of six (6) names submitted by the Kentucky Association of the Deaf;

3. One (1) deaf or hard of hearing person chosen from a list of three (3) names submitted by the American Association of Retired Persons, the initial appointment to be for a one (1) year term;

(b) One (1) representative of the Cabinet for Health Services appointed by the secretary;

(c) One (1) representative of the Cabinet for Families and Children appointed by the secretary;

(d) The secretary of the Education, Arts, and Humanities Cabinet or his designee;

(e) The president of the Kentucky Association for the Deaf or his designee;

(f) The president of the Kentucky Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf or his designee; and

(g) Three (3) persons appointed by the Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing as constituted in subsections (1)(a) through (1)(f) of this section, appointed as follows:

1. One (1) parent of a hard of hearing or deaf child;

2. One (1) representative of a public or private organization providing consistent services to the deaf and hard of hearing; and

3. One (1) member at large.

(2) Subject to the approval of the commission, the executive director shall:

(a) Employ clerical and other staff assistance;

(b) Prepare an annual report on the status of services to the deaf and hard of hearing;

(c) Promote the training of interpreters for the deaf and hard of hearing;

(d) Identify public and private agencies that provide services to the deaf and hard of hearing and cooperate in the coordination and development of these services;

(e) Survey the needs and compile a census of the deaf and hard of hearing.

(3) The commission shall advise the Governor and the General Assembly concerning policy and programs to enhance the quality and coordination of services for the deaf and hard of hearing.

(4) The commission shall cooperate with and assist local, state and federal governments and public and private agencies in the development of programs for the deaf and hard of hearing.

163.510. Duties of commission.

(1) The commission shall advise the Governor and the General Assembly concerning policy and programs to enhance the quality and coordination of services for the deaf and hard of hearing.

(2) The commission shall cooperate with and assist local, state and federal governments and public and private agencies in the development of programs for the deaf and hard of hearing.

(3) The commission shall review legislative programs relating to services to deaf and hard of hearing persons and shall conduct studies of conditions affecting the health and welfare of the deaf and hard of hearing.

(4) The commission shall oversee the provision of interpreter services to the deaf and hard of hearing, and may provide services if necessary.

163.515. Executive director — Duties.

(1) The commission shall employ an executive director who shall serve at the pleasure of the commission. The executive director shall be familiar with the problems of the deaf and hard of hearing.

(2) The commission shall cooperate with and assist local, state and federal governments and public and private agencies in the development of programs for the deaf and hard of hearing.

163.520. Providing data to commission.

All departments, divisions, boards, bureaus, commissions, or agencies of state government shall provide the commission data necessary to carry out its duties under KRS 163.510 and 163.515.
163.525. Distribution program for telecommunications devices for the deaf — Authority for administrative regulations.

(1) As used in this section and KRS 163.527:
(a) "Telecommunications device for the deaf" or "TDD" means a keyboard mechanism attached to a standard telephone set which allows for messages to be typed rather than spoken; and
(b) "TDD distribution program" means the program to furnish TDDs to deaf, hard-of-hearing, and speech-impaired persons in order that they may use the telecommunications relay service established pursuant to KRS 278.548. The program shall include maintenance and repair of the equipment.

(2) (a) On or before July 1, 1995, the Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall establish a program to distribute TDDs to any deaf, hard-of-hearing, or speech-impaired person qualified to receive the equipment pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.
(b) Prior to the establishment of the TDD distribution program, the Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall initiate an investigation, conduct public hearings, and solicit the advice and counsel of deaf, hard-of-hearing, and speech-impaired persons and the organizations serving them.
(c) The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may contract with any person, public, or private organization to provide part or all components of the TDD distribution program, if applicable statutory procurement provisions are followed. The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may use assistance from public agencies of the state or federal government or from private organizations to accomplish the purposes of this section. The Kentucky Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall enter into memoranda of agreement with the Public Service Commission for coordination and oversight of funding and operations to meet the objectives of this section and KRS 278.5499. The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may also enter into memoranda of agreement with other state agencies to accomplish the purposes of this section.

(3) Factors to determine a person's eligibility to receive a TDD shall include, but not be limited to:
(a) Kentucky residency;
(b) Attainment of at least five (5) years of age; and
(c) Certification as deaf, hard of hearing, or severely speech-impaired by a licensed physician, audiologist, speech pathologist, or by any other method recognized by the Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. Certification implies that the individual cannot use the telephone for communication without adaptive equipment.

(4) No more than one (1) TDD shall be provided to a person qualified to receive the equipment pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. However, a malfunctioning TDD originally distributed by the program may be returned for repair or replacement. The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may prioritize distribution of the TDDs on the basis of need.

(5) The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall establish procedures for application and distribution of TDDs by the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with provisions of KRS Chapter 13A.

163.527. Annual report on TDD distribution program.

The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall provide to the General Assembly an annual report on the operation of the TDD distribution program. The report shall be due on July 1 of each year, beginning July 1, 1995, and, at a minimum, provide:
(1) The number of persons served and the number of TDDs distributed;
(2) The revenues and expenditures of the program;
(3) Discussion of any major policy or operational issues;
(4) Any changes the commission plans to make in the program that does not require legislative action; and
(5) Any proposals for legislative changes in the program.

163.990. Penalty. [Repealed.]

2. “College Board Advanced Placement examination” means the advanced placement test administered by the College Entrance Examination Board.

3. “College Board” means the College Entrance Examination Board, a national nonprofit association that provides college admission guidance and advanced placement examinations.

4. “Dual credit” means a college-level course of study developed in accordance with KRS 164.098 in which a high school student receives credit from both the high school and postsecondary institution in which the student is enrolled upon completion of a single class or designated program of study.

5. “Dual enrollment” means a college-level course of study developed in accordance with KRS 164.098 in which a student is enrolled in a high school and postsecondary institution simultaneously.

COUNCIL ON POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

164.020. Powers and duties of council.

The Council on Postsecondary Education in Kentucky shall:

1. Develop and implement the strategic agenda with the advice and counsel of the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education. The council shall provide for and direct the planning process and subsequent strategic implementation plans based on the strategic agenda as provided in KRS 164.0203;

2. Revise the strategic agenda and strategic implementation plan with the advice and counsel of the committee as set forth in KRS 164.004;

3. Develop a system of public accountability related to the strategic agenda by evaluating the performance and effectiveness of the state’s postsecondary system. The council shall prepare a report in conjunction with the accountability reporting described in KRS 164.095, which shall be submitted to the committee, the Governor, and the General Assembly by December 1 annually. This report shall include a description of contributions by postsecondary institutions to the quality of elementary and secondary education in the Commonwealth;

4. Review, revise, and approve the missions of the state’s universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System. The Council on Postsecondary Education shall have the final authority to determine the compliance of post-secondary institutions with their academic, service, and research missions;

(5) Establish and ensure that all postsecondary institutions in Kentucky cooperatively provide for an integrated system of postsecondary education. The council shall guard against inappropriate and unnecessary conflict and duplication by promoting transferability of credits and easy access of information among institutions;

(6) Engage in analyses and research to determine the overall needs of postsecondary education and adult education in the Commonwealth;

(7) Develop plans that may be required by federal legislation. The council shall for all purposes of federal legislation relating to planning be considered the "single state agency" as that term may be used in federal legislation. When federal legislation requires additional representation on any "single state agency," the Council on Postsecondary Education shall establish advisory groups necessary to satisfy federal legislative or regulatory guidelines;

(8) Determine tuition and approve the minimum qualifications for admission to the state postsecondary educational system. In defining residency, the council shall classify a student as having Kentucky residency if the student met the residency requirements at the beginning of his or her last year in high school and enters a Kentucky postsecondary education institution within two (2) years of high school graduation. In determining the tuition for non-Kentucky residents, the council shall consider the fees required of Kentucky students by institutions in adjoining states, the resident fees charged by other states, the total actual per student cost of training in the institutions for which the fees are being determined, and the ratios of Kentucky students to non-Kentucky students comprising the enrollments of the respective institutions, and other factors the council may in its sole discretion deem pertinent;

(9) Devise, establish, and periodically review and revise policies to be used in making recommendations to the Governor for consideration in developing recommendations to the General Assembly for appropriations to the universities, the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, and to support strategies for persons to maintain necessary levels of literacy throughout their lifetimes including, but not limited to, appropriations to the Department for Adult Education and Literacy. The council has sole discretion, with advice of the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education and the executive officers of the postsecondary education system, to devise policies that provide for allocation of funds among the universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System;

(10) Lead and provide staff support for the biennial budget process as provided under KRS Chapter 48, in cooperation with the committee;

(11) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, review and approve all capital construction projects covered by KRS 45.750(1)(f), including real property acquisitions, and regardless of the source of funding for projects or acquisitions. Approval of capital projects and real property acquisitions shall be on a basis consistent with the strategic agenda and the mission of the respective universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System.

(b) The organized groups that are establishing community college satellites as branches of existing community colleges in the counties of Laurel, Leslie, and Muhlenberg, and that have substantially obtained cash, pledges, real property, or other commitments to build the satellite at no cost to the Commonwealth, other than operating costs that shall be paid as part of the operating budget of the main community college of which the satellite is a branch, are authorized to begin construction of the satellite on or after January 1, 1998;

(12) Require reports from the executive officer of each institution it deems necessary for the effectual performance of its duties;

(13) Ensure that the state postsecondary system does not unnecessarily duplicate services and programs provided by private postsecondary institutions and shall promote maximum cooperation between the state postsecondary system and private postsecondary institutions. Receive and consider an annual report prepared by the Association of Independent Kentucky Colleges and Universities stating the condition of independent institutions, listing opportunities for more collaboration between the state and independent institutions and other information as appropriate;

(14) Develop a university track program within the Kentucky Community and Technical College System consisting of sixty (60) hours of instruction that can be transferred and applied toward the requirements for a bachelor's degree at the public universities. The track shall consist of general education courses and pre-major courses as prescribed by the council. Courses in the university track program shall transfer and apply toward the requirements for graduation with a bachelor's degree at all public universities. Successful completion of the university track program shall meet the academic requirement for transfer to a public university as a junior. By fall semester of 1997, requirements for track programs shall be established for all majors and baccalaureate degree programs;

(15) Define and approve the offering of all postsecondary education technical, associate, baccalaureate, graduate, and professional degree, certificate, or diploma programs in the public postsecondary education institutions. The council shall expedite wherever possible the approval of requests from the Kentucky Community and Technical College System board of regents relating to new certificate, diploma, technical, or associate degree programs of a vocational-technical and occupational nature. Without the consent of the General Assembly, the council shall not abolish or limit the total enrollment of the general program offered at any community college to meet the goal of reasonable access throughout the Commonwealth to a two (2) year course of general studies designed for transfer to a baccalaureate program. This does not restrict or limit the authority of the council, as set forth in this section, to eliminate or make changes in individual programs within that general program;

(16) Eliminate, in its discretion, existing programs or make any changes in existing academic programs at the state's postsecondary educational institutions, taking into consideration these criteria:
   (a) Consistency with the institution's mission and the strategic agenda;
   (b) Alignment with the priorities in the strategic implementation plan for achieving the strategic agenda;
   (c) Elimination of unnecessary duplication of programs within and among institutions; and
   (d) Efforts to create cooperative programs with other institutions through traditional means, or by use of distance learning technology and electronic resources, to achieve effective and efficient program delivery;

(17) Ensure the governing board and faculty of all postsecondary education institutions are committed to providing instruction free of discrimination against students who hold political views and opinions contrary to those of the governing board and faculty;

(18) Review proposals and make recommendations to the Governor regarding the establishment of new public community colleges, technical institutions, and new four (4) year colleges;

(19) Postpone the approval of any new program at a state postsecondary educational institution, unless the institution has met its equal educational opportunity goals, as established by the council. In accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the council, those institutions not meeting the goals shall be able to obtain a temporary waiver, if the institution has made substantial progress toward meeting its equal educational opportunity goals;

(20) Ensure the coordination, transferability, and connectivity of technology among postsecondary institutions in the Commonwealth including the development and implementation of a technology plan as a component of the strategic agenda;

(21) Approve the teacher education programs in the public institutions that comply with standards established by the Education Professional Standards Board pursuant to KRS 161.028;

(22) Constitute the representative agency of the Commonwealth in all matters of postsecondary education of a general and statewide nature which are not otherwise delegated to one (1) or more institutions of postsecondary learning. The responsibility may be exercised through appropriate contractual arrangements with individuals or agencies located within or without the Commonwealth. The authority includes but is not limited to contractual arrangements for programs of research, specialized training, and cultural enrichment;

(23) Maintain procedures for the approval of a designated receiver to provide for the maintenance of student records of the public institutions of higher education and the colleges as defined in KRS 164.945, and institutions operating pursuant to KRS 165A.310 which offer collegiate level courses for academic credit, which cease to operate. Procedures shall include assurances that, upon proper request, subject to federal and state laws and regulations, copies of student records shall be made available within a reasonable length of time for a minimum fee;

(24) Monitor and transmit a report on compliance with KRS 164.351 to the director of the Legislative Research Commission for distribution to the Health and Welfare Committee;

(25) Develop in cooperation with each state postsecondary educational institution a comprehensive orientation program for new members of the council and the governing boards. The orientation program shall include but not be limited to the information concerning the roles of the council, the strategic agenda and the strategic implementation plan, and the respective institution's mission, budget, plans, policies, strengths, and weaknesses;

(26) Develop a financial reporting procedure to be used by all state postsecondary education institutions to ensure uniformity of financial information available to state agencies and the public;

(27) Select and appoint a president of the council under KRS 164.013;

(28) Employ consultants and other persons and employees as may be required for the council's operations, functions, and responsibilities;

(29) Promulgate administrative regulations, in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, governing its powers, duties, and responsibilities as described in this section;

(30) Prepare and present by January 31 of each year an annual status report on postsecondary education in the Commonwealth to the Governor, the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education, and the Legislative Research Commission;

(31) Consider the role, function, and capacity of independent institutions of postsecondary education in developing policies to meet the immediate and future needs of the state. When it is found that independent institutions can meet state needs effectively, state resources may be used to contract with or otherwise assist independent institutions in meeting these needs;

(32) Create advisory groups representing the presidents, faculty, nonteaching staff, and students of the public postsecondary education system and the independent colleges and universities;

(33) Develop a statewide policy to promote employee and faculty development in all postsecondary institutions and in state and locally operated secondary area technology centers through the waiver of tuition for college credit coursework in the public postsecondary education system. Any regular full-time employee of a postsecondary public institution or a state or locally operated secondary area technology center may, with prior administrative approval of the course offering institution, take a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term at any public postsecondary institution. The institution shall waive the tuition up to a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term;

(34) Establish a statewide mission for adult education and develop a twenty (20) year strategy, in partnership with the Department for Adult Education and Literacy, under the provisions of KRS 164.0203 for raising the knowledge and skills of the state’s adult population. The council shall:
(a) Promote coordination of programs and responsibilities linked to the issue of adult education with the Department for Adult Education and Literacy and with other agencies and institutions;
(b) Facilitate the development of strategies to increase the knowledge and skills of adults in all counties by promoting the efficient and effective coordination of all available education and training resources;
(c) Lead a statewide public information and marketing campaign to convey the critical nature of Kentucky’s adult literacy challenge and to reach adults and employers with practical information about available education and training opportunities;
(d) Establish standards for adult literacy and monitor progress in achieving the state’s adult literacy goals, including existing standards that may have been developed to meet requirements of federal law in conjunction with the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development: Early Childhood through Adulthood; and
(e) Administer the adult education and literacy initiative fund created under KRS 164.041; and

(35) Exercise any other powers, duties, and responsibilities necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to grant the Council on Postsecondary Education authority to disestablish or eliminate any college of law which became a part of the state system of higher education through merger with a state college.

Opinions of Attorney General. KRS 2.015, lowering the age of majority to 18 must be applied to the question of establishment of residence for tuition purposes. OAG 68-170.

The council does have the authority to “approve” a new professional school (engineering, dentistry, law, etc.) in the context of its planning function and also the discretion of nonapproval. OAG 71-251.

The General Assembly has reserved to itself the prerogative of delineating programs, roles, purposes and the types of colleges or schools which the state universities and colleges are authorized to provide. OAG 71-251.

This section, although requiring the Council on Public Higher Education (now Council on Higher Education) to “approve” all new professional schools and authorizing the council to give such approval in the planning context, falls short of delegating to the council the power to actually create and/or establish such new schools. OAG 71-251.

Subsection (3) (now (8)) of this section clearly authorizes the Council on Public Higher Education (now Council on Higher Education) to consummate and implement both the proposal for an academic common market and the proposal for a reciprocal tuition agreement with the state of Tennessee or any other state when such an agreement is, in the discretion of the Council, advantageous to the higher education programs for the citizens of Kentucky. OAG 74-12.

A professional program in subsection (8) is a program in a field where the graduate is required to obtain a license or certificate to practice his profession or a program where accreditation by a regional or national association is available. OAG 74-283.

Under subsection (8) (now (14)), the council has the power to review, approve or disapprove all proposed new programs in professional fields, whether the programs are pre- or post-baccalaureate. OAG 74-283.

KRS 314.111 vests the Kentucky Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration with the responsibility of approving all nursing education programs and nursing schools within the Commonwealth and this responsibility is not superseded by this section or by KRS 164.945 or 216.040 (repealed). OAG 75-251.

If no single institution of higher education has the responsibility for the development of a clinical educational experiences program or a statewide higher education television program, then under subsection (11), the council has the overall responsibility for the supervision and operation of such programs. OAG 75-533.

It is within the powers of the Board of Regents to establish a mandatory entertainment fee to be charged students for the financing of plays, concerts, movies and other activities. OAG 78-170.

Subsection (8) of this section clearly allows the council to permit the universities to offer new degrees and new programs at the graduate and professional level if the university is elsewhere authorized by statute to provide such a degree or program. OAG 91-126.

164.0206. Public postsecondary education institution's program in speech-language pathology and teacher education.

A public postsecondary education institution with a degree program in speech-language pathology and a teacher education program, under the direction of the Council on Postsecondary Education, and in consultation with the Education Professional Standards Board and the Kentucky Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, shall:

(1) Align the programs of studies for speech-language pathology and teacher education to permit a student to successfully prepare for licensure as a speech-language pathology assistant and certification as a bachelor’s level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders;

(2) Increase the number of qualified students accepted into programs leading to licensure as a speech-language pathologist or speech-language pathology assistant and certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, subject to:

(a) Requirements for program certification by national certifying bodies, including, but not limited to, student to faculty ratios;

(b) The strategic plans of the Council on Postsecondary Education and the postsecondary education institution; and

(c) The budgetary considerations of the postsecondary education institution.

(3) Provide expanded opportunities for speech-language pathology assistants working in public schools to pursue licensure as a speech-language pathologist or speech-language pathology assistant and certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, which may include:

(a) Expanded opportunities for admission to on-campus programs;

(b) The development and expansion of distance learning opportunities in collaboration with the Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual University; and

(c) Admissions requirements that take into account successful professional experience as a speech-language pathology assistant in lieu of other admissions requirements.

(1) The Collaborative Center for Literacy Development: Early Childhood through Adulthood is created to make available training for educators in reliable, replicable research-based reading models, and to promote literacy development. The center shall be responsible for:

(a) Developing and implementing a clearinghouse for information about models addressing reading and literacy from the elementary grades through adult education;

(b) Collaborating with public and private institutions of postsecondary education and adult education providers to provide for teachers and administrators quality preservice and professional development in early reading instruction, including phonics instruction;

(c) Assisting districts located in areas with low levels of reading skills to assess and address identified literacy needs;

(d) Providing professional development and coaching for classroom teachers, including adult education teachers, implementing selected reliable, replicable research-based reading models;

(e) Developing and implementing a comprehensive research agenda evaluating the early reading models implemented in Kentucky under KRS 158.792;

(f) Establishing a demonstration and training site for early literacy located at each of the public universities; and

(g) Evaluating the reading and literacy components of the model adult education programs funded under the adult education and literacy initiative fund created under KRS 164.041.

(2) The center shall submit an annual report on its activities to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission no later than September 1 of each year.

(3) With the advice of the Department of Adult Education and Literacy in the Cabinet for Workforce Development and the Department of Education, the Council on Postsecondary Education shall develop a process to solicit, review, and approve a proposal for locating the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development at a public institution of postsecondary education. The Council on Postsecondary Education shall approve the location and monitor the progress of the center.

164.033. Local P-16 councils.

(1) Effective August 1, 2002, the Council on Postsecondary Education shall administer a competitive grant program to enable the establishment of local P-16 councils. A P-16 council may be called a council of partners. The Council on Postsecondary Education and the Kentucky Board of Education shall jointly establish the criteria for participation in the grant program and the amount of funds available to each local P-16 council based on funds appropriated for this purpose. A postsecondary education institution shall assume the leadership role for managing a local P-16 council grant.

(2) A local P-16 council shall promote the preparation and development of teachers, the alignment of competency standards, and the elimination of barriers that impede student transition from preschool through baccalaureate programs.

(3) Each local P-16 council shall provide an annual written report of its activities and recommenda-
164.035. Needs assessment for adult education and workforce development. The Council on Postsecondary Education, in consultation with the Department for Adult Education and Literacy and the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development: Early Childhood through Adulthood, shall assess the need for technical assistance, training, and other support to assist in the development of adult education and workforce development that support the state strategic agenda and that include a comprehensive coordinated approach to education and training services. The council shall promote the involvement of universities; colleges; technical institutions; elementary and secondary educational agencies; labor, business, and industry representatives; community-based organizations; citizens’ groups; and other policymakers in the development of the regional strategies. (Enact. Acts 1997 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, § 23, effective May 30, 1997; 2000, ch. 526, §§ 5, 28, effective July 14, 2000.)

Legislative Research Commission Note. This section was amended by 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 526, sec. 5 and 28, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

164.097. Certification of postsecondary institutions to receive funds for teacher education or model program. No postsecondary education institution shall receive funds from the Council on Postsecondary Education from any trust fund for the purposes of teacher education or model programs of teaching and learning unless the Education Professional Standards Board has certified to the council that the institution has met the following conditions:

1) The college or university has developed viable partnerships with local school districts and schools;
2) There is evidence of ongoing dialogue and collaboration among liberal arts and sciences faculty and administrators with faculty and administrators in the department, school, or college of education;
3) The college or university has demonstrated a commitment to participate in teacher academies;
4) The college or university has an active recruitment plan for attracting and retaining minority faculty as well as students, and particularly in the department, school, or college of education;
5) The college or university has initiated the development of incentives or rewards for faculty across the institution to participate in service activities to local schools;
6) The department, school, or college of education has developed at least one (1) accelerated alternative plan for teacher education or nontraditional program of teacher preparation, or commits to developing an accelerated alternative or nontraditional program;
7) The department, school, or college of education provides consistent and quality classroom and field experiences, including early practicums and student teaching experience for all students;
8) The department, school, or college of education has, as an element of its curriculum, substantial course work and classroom and field experiences directly addressing teacher training in classroom management;
9) There are no major accreditation deficiencies; and
10) The institution has demonstrated at least one (1) or more innovations in teacher education. (Enact. Acts 2000, ch. 527, § 8, effective July 14, 2000.)

164.098. Duties of Council on Postsecondary Education relating to advanced placement, dual enrollment, and dual credit programs. By December 31, 2002:

1) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall promulgate administrative regulations that require public postsecondary educational institutions, beginning with the 2003-2004 school year, to grant credit toward graduation to a student who scores at least “3” on a College Board Advanced Placement examination.
2) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall publish information, in print and electronic format, about the scores required on College Board Advanced Placement examinations at which credit toward graduation and completion of degree requirements will be granted at all Kentucky public and private postsecondary educational institutions.
3) The Council on Postsecondary Education, in conjunction with the Kentucky Board of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board, shall develop guidelines for content knowledge and teacher training in dual enrollment and dual credit programs offered in Kentucky. (Enact. Acts 2002, ch. 97, § 5, effective July 15, 2002.)

Institutions of Higher Learning

164.2845. Tuition-free courses for supervising teachers and resource teachers.

1) In recognition of valuable service to the preparation of teachers and the need for all teachers to have continual professional growth, a supervising teacher or a resource teacher for teacher interns may, with prior approval of the course-offering institution, take a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term at any public postsecondary institution and pay no tuition. The postsecondary institution shall waive the tuition up to a maximum of six (6) credit hours.
2) The teachers covered in this section may exercise the tuition-free course option only if there is available space within a given course offering. A postsecondary institution shall not be required to establish a course to meet teacher requests.
(3) The tuition-free courses may be used to partially satisfy requirements for an advanced degree.

(4) Each public postsecondary education institution shall establish the procedures for implementing the provisions of this section, effective August 1, 2000.

164.2847. Waiver of tuition and mandatory student fees for Kentucky foster or adopted children.

(1) Tuition and mandatory student fees for any undergraduate program of any Kentucky public postsecondary institution, including all four (4) year universities and colleges and institutions of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, shall be waived for a Kentucky foster or adopted child who is a full-time or part-time student if the student meets all entrance requirements and maintains academic eligibility while enrolled at the postsecondary institution, and if:

(a) The student’s family receives state-funded adoption assistance under KRS 199.555;

(b) The student is currently committed to the Cabinet for Families and Children under KRS 610.010(4) and placed in a family foster home or is placed in accordance with KRS 605.090(3);

(c) The student is in an independent living program and the placement is funded by the Cabinet for Families and Children;

(d) The student who is an adopted child was in the permanent legal custody of and placed for adoption by the Cabinet for Families and Children. A student who meets the eligibility criteria of this paragraph and lives outside of Kentucky at the time of application to a Kentucky postsecondary institution may apply for the waiver up to the amount of tuition for a Kentucky resident; or

(e) The Cabinet for Families and Children was the student’s legal custodian on his or her eighteenth birthday.

(2) Tuition and mandatory student fees for any undergraduate program of any Kentucky public postsecondary institution, including all four (4) year universities and colleges and institutions of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, shall be waived for a Department of Juvenile Justice foster child who is a full-time or part-time student if the student meets all entrance requirements and maintains academic eligibility while enrolled at the postsecondary institution and obtains a recommendation for participation from an official from the Department of Juvenile Justice, and if:

(a) The student has not been sentenced to the Department of Juvenile Justice under KRS Chapter 640;

(b) The student has been committed to the Department of Juvenile Justice for a period of at least two (2) years;

(c) The student is in an independent living program and placement is funded by the Department of Juvenile Justice;

(d) The parental rights of the student's biological parents have been terminated; or

(e) The student was committed to the Cabinet for Families and Children prior to a commitment to the Department of Juvenile Justice.

(3) Upon request of the postsecondary institution, the Cabinet for Families and Children shall confirm the eligibility status under subsection (1) of this section and the Department of Juvenile Justice shall confirm the eligibility status and recommendations under subsection (2) of this section of the student seeking to participate in the waiver program. Release of this information shall not constitute a breach of confidentiality required by KRS 199.570, 610.320, or 620.050.

(4) The student shall complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid to determine the level of need and eligibility for state and federal financial aid programs. If the sum of the tuition waiver plus other student financial assistance, except loans and the work study program under 42 U.S.C. secs. 2751-2756b, from all sources exceeds the student's total cost of attendance, as defined in 20 U.S.C. sec. 1087ll, the tuition waiver shall be reduced by the amount exceeding the total cost of attendance.

(5) The student shall be eligible for the tuition waiver:

(a) For entrance to the institution for a period of no more than four (4) years after the date of graduation from high school; and

(b) For a period of five (5) years after first admission to any Kentucky institution if satisfactory progress is achieved or maintained.

(6) The Cabinet for Families and Children shall report the number of students participating in the tuition waiver program under subsection (1) of this section and the Department of Juvenile Justice shall report the number of students participating in the tuition waiver program under subsection (2) of this section on October 1 each year to the Council on Postsecondary Education and the Legislative Research Commission.

(7) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall report nonidentifying data on graduation rates of students participating in the tuition waiver program by November 30 each year to the Legislative Research Commission.

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

(a) Guarantee acceptance of or entrance into any postsecondary institution for a foster or adopted child;

(b) Limit the participation of a foster or adopted student in any other program of financial assistance for postsecondary education;

(c) Require any postsecondary institution to waive costs or fees relating to room and board; or

(d) Restrict any postsecondary institution, the Department of Juvenile Justice, or the Cabinet for Families and Children from accessing other sources of financial assistance, except loans, that may be available to a foster or adopted student.

164.2849. Legislative finding. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky finds and declares that it is in the best interests of the Commonwealth to encourage and support adults to adopt and provide foster care for children in the custody of the state. The General Assembly recognizes that a child whose care, custody, and control has been assumed by the Commonwealth as evidenced by termination of the rights of the biological parents and adoption from state custody or a custodial commitment to the Cabinet for Families and Children or the Department of Juvenile Justice is a special ward of the state and faces particular challenges in pursuing higher education. Because it is the intent of the General Assembly to support adoption, foster parenting, and educational advancement, the purpose of KRS 164.2847 is to provide postsecondary education advancement opportunity for foster and adopted children who are or were wards of the state. (Enact. Acts 2002, ch. 279, § 1, effective July 15, 2002.)

Professional Development for Child-Care Workers

164.518. Scholarships and awards for persons who are employed or provide training in child-care and early childhood settings.

(1) It is the intent of the General Assembly to create a seamless system to upgrade the professional development of persons who are employed or provide training in a child-care or early childhood setting through scholarships, merit awards, and monetary incentives, to assist these persons in obtaining a child development associate credential, post-secondary certificate, diploma, degree, or specialty credential in an area of study determined by the authority as recommended by the professional development council.

(2) Eligibility for scholarship funds shall be for individuals who do not have access to professional development funds from other education programs that receive state or federal funds, and who are:
   (a) Employed at least twenty (20) hours per week providing services in a child-care or early childhood setting; or
   (b) Involved in providing professional development training for teachers in an early childhood setting.

(3) The Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, after consultation with the Early Childhood Development Authority and the Cabinet for Families and Children, shall promulgate administrative regulations, including a system of monetary incentives for scholarship program participants for completing classes, in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A as necessary to implement this section.

164.680. Definitions for KRS 164.680 to 164.689. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.681. Division of Occupations and Professions to provide administrative services — Revolving fund — Directory of registered athlete agents — Administrative regulations. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.682. Requirement of athlete agent to register — Application — Fee — Grounds for denial — Availability of financial and business records — Annual contract reports. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.683. Prohibited acts. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.684. Requirements for athlete agent contract — Duty to report contract to athletic director or president — Postdating prohibited — Right to rescind. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.685. Notification to athletic director or president — Penalty. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.686. Damages for failure to notify — Limitation of actions. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.687. Referral of complaint — Investigation — Recommendation of disciplinary action — Appeal — Length of suspension or revocation — Reinstatement. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.689. Penalties for violation of KRS 164.680 to 164.687. [Repealed and reenacted.]

164.6901. Short title. KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 may be cited as the Uniform Athlete Agents Act. (Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 1, effective June 24, 2003.)

164.6903. Definitions for KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935. As used in KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “Agency contract” means an agreement in which a student-athlete authorizes a person to negotiate or solicit on behalf of the student-athlete a professional-sports-services contract or an endorsement contract;

(2) “Athlete agent” means an individual who enters into an agency contract with a student-athlete or, directly or indirectly, recruits or solicits a student-athlete to enter into an agency contract. The term includes an individual who represents to the public that the individual is an athlete agent. The term does not include a spouse, parent, sibling, grandparent, or guardian of the student-athlete or an individual acting solely on behalf of a professional sports team or professional sports organization;

(3) “Athletic director” means an individual responsible for administering the overall athletic program of an educational institution or, if an educational institution has separately administered athletic programs for male and female students, the athletic program for males or the athletic program for females, as appropriate;

(4) “Contact” means a communication, direct or indirect, between an athlete agent and a student-athlete, to recruit or solicit the student-athlete to enter into an agency contract;

(5) “Division” means the Division of Occupations and Professions in the Finance and Administration Cabinet;

(6) “Endorsement contract” means an agreement under which a student-athlete is employed or receives consideration to use on behalf of the other party any value that the student-athlete may have because of publicity, reputation, following, or fame obtained because of athletic ability or performance;

(7) “Intercollegiate sport” means a sport played at the collegiate level for which eligibility requirements for participation by a student-athlete are established by a national association for the promotion or regulation of collegiate athletics;

(8) “Person” means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or government; governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality; public corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity;

(9) “Professional-sports-services contract” means an agreement under which an individual is employed, or agrees to render services, as a player on a professional sports team, with a professional sports organization, or as a professional athlete;

(10) “Record” means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form;

(11) “Registration” means registration as an athlete agent pursuant to KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935;

(12) “State” means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States; and

(13) “Student-athlete” means an individual who engages in, is eligible to engage in, or may be eligible in the future to engage in, any intercollegiate sport. If an individual is permanently ineligible to participate in a particular intercollegiate sport, the individual is not a student-athlete for purposes of that sport. (Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 2, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.690.

164.6905. Role of Division of Occupations and Professions.

(1) By acting as an athlete agent in this state, a nonresident individual appoints the Division of Occupations and Professions as the individual’s agent for service of process in any civil action in this state related to the individual’s acting as an athlete agent in this state.

(2) The division may issue subpoenas for any material that is relevant to the administration of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935.

(3) The division may promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A that are necessary to carry out the provisions of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935. (Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 3, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.681.

164.6907. Certificate of registration required.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, an individual may not act as an athlete agent in this state without holding a certificate of registration under KRS 164.6911 or 164.6913(3).

(2) Before being issued a certificate of registration, an individual may act as an athlete agent in this state for all purposes except signing an agency contract, if:
   (a) A student-athlete or another person acting on behalf of the student-athlete initiates communication with the individual; and
   (b) Within seven (7) days after an initial act as an athlete agent, the individual submits an application for registration as an athlete agent in this state.

(3) An agency contract resulting from conduct in violation of this section is void, and the athlete agent shall return any consideration received under contract.

164.6909. Contents of application — Certificate from other state.

(1) An applicant for registration shall submit an application for registration to the division in a form prescribed by the division. An application filed under this section is a public record. The application must be in the name of an individual, and except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, signed or otherwise authenticated by the applicant under penalty of perjury and state or contain:
   (a) The name of the applicant and the address of the applicant's principal place of business;
   (b) The name of the applicant's business or employer, if applicable;
   (c) Any business or occupation engaged in by the applicant for the five (5) years next preceding the date of submission of this application; and
   (d) A description of the applicant's:
      1. Formal training as an athlete;
      2. Practical experience as an athlete agent; and
      3. Educational background relating to the applicant's activities as an athlete agent;
   (e) The names and addresses of three (3) individuals not related to the applicant who are willing to serve as references;
   (f) The name, sport, and last known team for each individual for whom the applicant acted as an athlete agent during the five (5) years next preceding the date of submission of the application;
   (g) The names and addresses of all persons who are:
      1. With respect to the athlete agent's business if it is not a corporation, the partners, members, officers, managers, associates, or profit-sharers of the business; and
      2. With respect to a corporation employing the athlete agent, the officers, directors, and any shareholder of the corporation having an interest of five percent (5%) or greater;
   (h) Whether the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection has been convicted of a crime that, if committed in this state, would be a crime involving moral turpitude or a felony, and identify the crime;
   (i) Whether there has been any administrative or judicial determination that the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection has made a false, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent representation;
   (j) Any instance in which the conduct of the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection resulted in the imposition of a sanction, suspension, or declaration of ineligibility to participate in an interscholastic or intercollegiate athletic event on a student-athlete or educational institution;
   (k) Any sanction, suspension, or disciplinary action taken against the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection arising out of occupational or professional conduct; and
   (l) Whether there has been any denial of an application for, suspension or revocation of, or refusal to renew, the registration or licensure of the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection as an athlete agent in any state.

(2) An individual who has submitted an application for, and holds a certificate of registration or licensure as an athlete agent in another state, may submit a copy of the application and certificate in lieu of submitting an application in the form prescribed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The division shall accept the application and the certificate from the other state as an application for registration in this state if the application to the other state:
   (a) Was submitted in the other state within six (6) months next preceding the submission of the application in this state and the applicant certifies that the information contained in the application is current;
   (b) Contains information substantially similar to or more comprehensive than that required in an application submitted in this state; and
   (c) Was signed by the applicant under penalty of perjury.

(Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 5, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler's Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.682.

164.6911. Division may refuse to issue certificate — Renewal of registration.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the division shall issue a certificate of registration to an individual who complies with KRS 164.6909(1) or whose application has been accepted under KRS 164.6909(2).

(2) The division may refuse to issue a certificate of registration if the division determines that the applicant has engaged in conduct that has a significant adverse effect on the applicant's fitness to act as an athlete agent. In making the determination, the division may consider whether the applicant has:

(a) Been convicted of a crime that, if committed in this state, would be a crime involving moral turpitude or a felony;
(b) Made a materially false, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent representation in the application or as an athlete agent;
(c) Engaged in conduct that would disqualify the applicant from serving in a fiduciary capacity;
(d) Engaged in conduct prohibited by KRS 164.6925;
(e) Had a registration or licensure as an athlete agent suspended, revoked, or denied, or been refused renewal of registration or licensure as an athlete agent in any state;
(f) Engaged in conduct the consequence of which was that a sanction, suspension, or declaration of ineligibility to participate in an interscholastic or intercollegiate athletic event was imposed on a student-athlete or educational institution; or
(g) Engaged in conduct that significantly adversely reflects on the applicant's credibility, honesty, or integrity.

(3) In making a determination under subsection (2) of this section, the division shall consider:

(a) How recently the conduct occurred;
(b) The nature of the conduct and the context in which it occurred; and
(c) Any other relevant conduct of the applicant.

(4) An agency agent may apply to renew a registration by submitting an application for renewal in a form prescribed by the division. An application filed under this section is a public record. The application for renewal must be signed by the applicant under penalty of perjury and must contain current information on all matters required in an original registration.

(5) An individual who has submitted an application for renewal of registration or licensure in another state, in lieu of submitting an application for renewal in the form prescribed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, may file a copy of the application for renewal and a valid certificate of registration or licensure from the other state. The division shall accept the application for renewal from the other state as an application for renewal in this state if the application to the other state:

(a) Was submitted in the other state within six (6) months next preceding the filing in this state and the applicant certifies the information contained in the application for renewal is current;
(b) Contains information substantially similar to or more comprehensive than that required in an application for renewal submitted in this state; and
(c) Was signed by the applicant under penalty of perjury.

(6) A certificate of registration or a renewal of registration is valid for one (1) year.

(Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 6, effective June 24, 2003.)

164.6913. Suspension, revocation, or non-renewal of certificate — Temporary certificate.

(1) The division may suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a registration for conduct that would have justified denial of registration under KRS 164.6911(2).

(2) The division may deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a certificate of registration or licensure only after proper notice and an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(3) The division may issue a temporary certificate of registration while an application for registration or renewal of registration is pending.

(Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 7, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler's Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.687.

164.6915. Fees.

An application for registration or renewal of registration must be accompanied by a fee in the following amount:

(1) An initial application for registration fee determined by the division, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300); and

(2) An annual renewal fee determined by the division, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300); or

(3) An application for registration fee based upon certification of registration or licensure issued by another state determined by the division, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 8, effective June 24, 2003.)

164.6917. Requirements for agency contract.

(1) An agency contract must be in a record, signed or otherwise authenticated by the parties.

(2) An agency contract must state or contain:

(a) The amount and method of calculating the consideration to be paid by the student-athlete for services to be provided by the athlete agent under the contract and any other consideration the athlete agent has received or may receive from any other source for entering into the contract or for providing the services;
(b) The name of any person not listed in the application for registration or renewal of registration who will be compensated because the student-athlete signed the agency contract;
(c) A description of any expenses that the student-athlete agrees to reimburse;
(d) A description of the services to be provided to the student-athlete;
(e) The duration of the contract; and
(f) The date of execution.

(3) An agency contract must contain, in close proximity to the signature of the student-athlete, a conspicious notice in boldface type in capital letters stating:

WARNING TO STUDENT-ATHLETE
IF YOU SIGN THIS CONTRACT:

1. YOU MAY LOSE YOUR ELIGIBILITY TO COMPETE AS A STUDENT-ATHLETE IN YOUR SPORT;

2. IF YOU HAVE AN ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, BOTH YOU AND YOUR ATHLETE AGENT MUST NOTIFY YOUR ATHLETIC DIRECTOR WITHIN 72 HOURS AFTER ENTERING INTO THIS CONTRACT; AND

3. YOU MAY CANCEL THIS CONTRACT WITHIN 14 DAYS AFTER SIGNING IT. CANCELLATION OF THIS CONTRACT MAY NOT REINSTATE YOUR ELIGIBILITY.

4. An agency contract that does not conform to this section is voidable by the student-athlete. If a student-athlete voids an agency contract, the student-athlete is not required to pay any consideration under the contract or to return any consideration received from the athlete agent to induce the student-athlete to enter into the contract.

5. The athlete agent shall give a record of the signed or otherwise authenticated agency contract to the student-athlete at the time of execution.

(Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 9, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.684.

164.6919. Notice to athletic director.

1. Within seventy-two (72) hours after entering into an agency contract or before the next scheduled athletic event in which the student-athlete may participate, whichever occurs first, the athlete agent shall give notice in a record of the existence of the contract to the athletic director of the educational institution at which the student-athlete is enrolled or the athlete agent has reasonable grounds to believe the student-athlete intends to enroll.

2. Within seventy-two (72) hours after entering into an agency contract or before the next athletic event in which the student-athlete may participate, whichever occurs first, the student-athlete shall inform the athletic director of the educational institution at which the student-athlete is enrolled that he or she has entered into an agency contract.

(Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 10, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.685.

164.6921. Cancellation of agency contract by student-athlete.

1. A student-athlete may cancel an agency contract by giving notice of the cancellation to the athlete agent in a record within fourteen (14) days after the contract is signed.

2. A student-athlete may not waive the right to cancel an agency contract.

3. If a student-athlete cancels an agency contract, the student-athlete is not required to pay any consideration under the contract or to return any consideration received from the athlete agent to induce the student-athlete to enter into the contract.

164.6923. Records to be retained by athlete agent.

1. An athlete agent shall retain the following records for a period of five (5) years:

   a. The name and address of each individual represented by the athlete agent;

   b. Any agency contract entered into by the athlete agent; and

   c. Any direct costs incurred by the athlete agent in the recruitment or solicitation of a student-athlete to enter into an agency contract.

2. Records required to be retained in subsection (1) of this section are open to inspection by the division during normal business hours.

(Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 12, effective June 24, 2003.)

164.6925. Prohibited acts.

1. An athlete agent, with the intent to induce a student-athlete to enter into an agency contract, may not:

   a. Give any materially false or misleading information or make a materially false promise or representation;

   b. Furnish anything of value to a student-athlete before the student-athlete enters into the agency contract; or

   c. Furnish anything of value to any individual other than the student-athlete or another registered athlete agent.

2. An athlete agent shall not intentionally:

   a. Initiate contact with a student-athlete unless registered under KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935;

   b. Refuse or fail to retain or permit inspection of the records required to be retained by KRS 164.6923;

   c. Fail to register when required by KRS 164.6907;

   d. Provide materially false or misleading information in an application for registration or renewal of registration;

   e. Predate or postdate an agency contract; or

   f. Fail to notify a student-athlete before the student-athlete signs or otherwise authenticates an agency contract for a particular sport that the signing or authentication may make the student-athlete ineligible to participate as a student-athlete in that sport.

(Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 13, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.683.

164.6927. Penalties.

1. Any person who engages in the business of an athlete agent or represents himself or herself as an athlete agent without being registered in accordance with KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.
(2) Any registered athlete agent who knowingly and willfully commits a prohibited act contained in KRS 164.6925 shall be guilty of a Class D felony.
(3) Any registered athlete agent who knowingly and willfully violates any provision of KRS 164.6917 shall be guilty of a Class D felony.
(4) A student athlete who knowingly and willfully violates any provision of KRS 164.6919 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.
(5) Any registered athlete agent or athlete who fails to make restitution to a college or university that prevails in a suit brought under KRS 164.6929 shall be guilty of a Class D felony.
(Repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 14, effective June 24, 2003.)

Compiler’s Notes. This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.686.

164.6929. Right of action of educational institution for damages caused by violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935.
(1) An educational institution has a right of action against an athlete agent or a former student-athlete for damages caused by a violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935. In an action under this section, the court may award to the prevailing party costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.
(2) Damages of an educational institution under subsection (1) of this section include losses and expenses incurred because, as a result of the conduct of an athlete agent or former student-athlete, the educational institution was injured by a violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 or was penalized, disqualified, or suspended from participation in athletics by a national association for the promotion and regulation of athletics, or by reasonable self-imposed disciplinary action taken to mitigate sanctions likely to be imposed by such an organization.
(3) A right of action under this section does not accrue until the educational institution discovers or by the exercise of reasonable diligence would have discovered the violation by the athlete agent or former student-athlete.
(4) Any liability of the athlete agent or the former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.
(5) The division may assess a civil penalty against an athlete agent or the former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.
(6) The division may assess a civil penalty against an athlete agent or a former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.
(7) The division may assess a civil penalty against an athlete agent or a former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.
(8) The division may assess a civil penalty against an athlete agent or a former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.
(9) The division may assess a civil penalty against an athlete agent or a former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.
(10) The division may assess a civil penalty against an athlete agent or a former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.

164.6931. Construction of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935.
In applying and construing this Uniform Act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.
(Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 16, effective June 24, 2003.)

164.6933. Effect of federal act.
The provisions of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 governing the legal effect, validity, or enforceability of electronic records or signatures, and of contracts formed or performed with the use of such records or signatures, conform to the requirements of Section 102 of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, Pub. L. No. 106-229, 15 U.S.C. sec. 7001 et seq., and supersede, modify, and limit the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.
(Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 17, effective June 24, 2003.)

164.6935. Severability.
If any provision of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 are severable.
(Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 18, effective June 24, 2003.)

Higher Education Assistance

164.757. District teacher certification loan fund.
(1) For purposes of this section unless the context requires otherwise:
(a) “Critical shortage area” means an area in which there are insufficient numbers of fully certified staff in a particular subject, school, or geographic location;
(b) “Emergency certified teacher” means an individual who has not completed certification requirements but has been awarded a temporary certificate for a certification area in which no fully qualified teacher was available;
(c) “Qualified teacher” means a teacher who holds the appropriate certification for a position unless the superintendent of the employing local school district has documented evidence that the teacher is unsuitable for appointment;
(d) “Qualified teaching service” means teaching for at least seventy (70) days each semester or the equivalent in the certification area for which an individual received a forgivable loan in the Kentucky school district that recommended the individual for a loan or in another Kentucky private or public school district in the certification area for which an individual received a forgivable loan if no position was available in the recommending school district at the time the individual completed his or her certification;
(e) “Semester” means a period which usually makes up one-half (½) of a school year or
(2) To increase the number of qualified teachers in local school districts and to reduce the number of emergency certified teachers, there is hereby created the district teacher certification loan fund in the State Treasury. The loans shall be used to provide forgivable loans to emergency certified personnel, fully certified teachers who are willing to seek additional certification in hard-to-fill or critical shortage areas, and paraprofessionals in local school districts to become fully certified teachers and to continue service within the local district.

(3) The fund shall be administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority. The authority shall promulgate administrative regulations to specify the terms and conditions of the award, cancellation, and repayment of loans, including but not limited to the maximum amount that may be loaned per term and the maximum aggregate amount per applicant, the selection process, eligibility for renewal, the specific administrative procedures for utilizing the funds, and the rate of repayment.

(4) To qualify for a forgivable loan, an applicant shall meet the following requirements:

(a) Be employed by a specific local district as a certified teacher, an emergency full-time or part-time teacher, an emergency substitute teacher, or a paraprofessional at the time he or she makes application for the loan;

(b) Be recommended by the superintendent as an individual that he or she would recommend to be employed in a teaching position for which the applicant is pursuing certification if the applicant fulfills all credentialing requirements;

(c) Be endorsed by the school-based decision making council of the school in which he or she serves to receive a loan for the purposes of obtaining teacher certification in a specific certification area; except that the endorsement shall not be construed as a commitment of securing a position in the particular school in the future;

(d) Be admitted and enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student in a Kentucky private or public postsecondary institution that offers a teacher certification program in the area for which he or she is seeking certification; and

(e) Be enrolled in a minimum of six (6) credit hours and not more than nine (9) credit hours during each semester of an academic term while employed concurrently in the school district and in not less than six (6) credit hours during the summer term. If a school district recommends an applicant for a loan under provisions of this section and grants a leave of absence to the employee to pursue certification, the employee shall be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate or graduate student as defined by the institution in which he or she is enrolled.

(f) “Summer term” means an academic period consisting of one (1) or more sessions of instruction between a spring and a fall semester at a postsecondary education institution.

(5) A participant in a local district alternative certification program as defined in KRS 161.048(2) may be eligible for a loan under provisions of this section to offset costs associated with the program. The authority shall establish by administrative regulation the specific requirements, notwithstanding requirements in subsection (4) of this section.

(6) A loan shall not be awarded or a promissory note cancellation shall not be granted to any person who is in default on any obligation to the authority under any program administered pursuant to KRS 164.740 to 164.785 until financial obligations to the authority are satisfied, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause.

(7) Recipients shall render one (1) semester of qualified teaching service for each semester or summer term for which a loan was received. Upon completion of each semester of qualified teacher service, the authority shall cancel the appropriate portion of the promissory notes.

(8) If the recipient of a loan fails to complete the certification at a participating institution or fails to render qualified teaching service in any semester following certification, unless the failure is temporarily waived for cause by the authority, the recipient shall immediately become liable to the authority for repayment of the sum of all outstanding promissory notes and accrued interest. Persons liable for repayment of loans under this subsection shall be liable for interest accruing from the dates on which the loans were disbursed.

(9) Failure to meet repayment obligations imposed by this section shall be cause for the revocation of a person’s certification, subject to the procedures set forth in KRS 161.120.

(10) All moneys repaid to the authority under this section shall be added to the fund in this section. Any fund balance at the close of a fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated for the purposes specified in this section.

(11) The authority may execute appropriate contracts and promissory notes for administering this section.

(12) If available funds are insufficient for all requested loans for eligible applicants during any fiscal year, the authority shall give priority consideration to eligible applicants who previously received loans. If funds are insufficient to make all requested renewal loans to eligible applicants, the authority shall reduce all loans to the extent necessary to provide loans to all qualified renewal applicants. If, after awarding all eligible renewal applicants, funds are not depleted, priority shall be given to loans for those applicants who are seeking certification in critical shortage areas.

164.769. Teacher scholarships for eligible persons agreeing to render qualified teaching service in Kentucky — Cancellation or repayment of notes.

(1) It is the intent of the General Assembly to establish a teacher scholarship program to assist highly qualified individuals to become certified Kentucky teachers and render teaching service in Kentucky schools.

(2) For purposes of this section, the terms listed below shall have the following meanings:

(a) “Critical shortage area” means an understaffing of teachers in particular subject matters at the secondary level, in grade levels, or in geographic locations at the elementary and secondary level, as determined by the commissioner of education in consultation with the authority. The commissioner and the authority may use any source considered reliable including, but not limited to, local education agencies to identify the critical shortage areas.

(b) “Eligible program of study” means an undergraduate or graduate program of study which is preparatory to initial teacher certification.

(c) “Expected family contribution” means the amount that a student and his family are expected to contribute toward the cost of the student’s education determined by applying methodology set forth in 20 U.S.C. sec. 1087kk to 1087tv.

(d) “Participating institution” means an institution of higher education located in Kentucky which offers an eligible program of study and has in force an agreement with the authority providing for administration of this program.

(e) “Qualified teaching service” means teaching the major portion of each school day for at least seventy (70) days each semester in a public school of the Commonwealth or a private school certified pursuant to KRS 156.160(3), except that an individual having a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq.), whose disability, certified by a licensed physician, prevents that individual from teaching a major portion of each school day, shall be deemed to perform qualified teaching service by teaching the maximum time permitted by the attending physician.

(f) “Semester” means a period of about eighteen (18) weeks, which usually makes up one-half (½) of a school year or one-half (½) of a participating institution’s academic year.

(g) “Summer term” means an academic period consisting of one (1) or more sessions of instruction between a spring and a fall semester.

(3) The authority may, to the extent of appropriations and other funds available to it pursuant to subsection (9) of this section, award teacher scholarships to persons eligible under subsection (4) of this section, who initially demonstrate financial need in accordance with standards and criteria established by the authority or received teacher scholarships pursuant to this section prior to July 1, 1996. Each teacher scholarship shall be evidenced by a promissory note that requires repayment or cancellation pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

(4) Kentucky residents who are United States citizens and enrolled or accepted for enrollment in an eligible program of study on a full-time basis at a participating institution shall be eligible to apply for and be awarded teacher scholarships. Teacher scholarships shall first be awarded to highly qualified eligible students who meet standards and requirements established by the Education Professional Standards Board pursuant to KRS 161.028 for admission to a teacher education program at a participating institution or who received teacher scholarships pursuant to this section prior to July 1, 1996. If funds are not depleted after awarding teacher scholarships to students who meet the preceding criteria, then awards shall be made to any otherwise eligible students seeking admission to a teacher education program.

(5) The authority shall establish, by administrative regulation, the maximum amount of scholarship to be awarded for each semester and summer term under this section, and shall prorate the amount awarded to any student enrolled less than full-time in accordance with paragraph (6)(a) of this section. The aggregate amount of scholarships awarded to an individual shall not exceed twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) for undergraduate students and seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for postbaccalaureate students, except that the aggregate amount of scholarships awarded to an individual who received teacher scholarships pursuant to this section prior to July 1, 1996, including any amount received pursuant to KRS 156.611, 156.613, 164.768, or 164.770, shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), and the amount of each scholarship to be awarded shall not exceed the applicant’s total cost of education minus other financial assistance received or expected to be received by the applicant during the academic period.

(6) (a) The authority shall disburse teacher scholarships to eligible students who agree to render qualified teaching service as certified teachers, and are unconditionally admitted and enrolled in an eligible program of study on a full-time basis, except that disbursements may be made to otherwise eligible students enrolled less than full-time in the semester or summer term in which the eligible program of study will be completed or otherwise eligible students having a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq.), who have been certified by a licensed physician to be unable to attend the disability. Teacher scholarships shall be disbursed to eligible students who received teacher scholarships pursuant to this section for recertification in a critical shortage area prior to July 1, 1996, who are enrolled in and 164.785. Qualifications for state assistance — Calculation — Adjustment for scholarship.

(1) The State of Kentucky shall grant an amount as provided in KRS 164.780 and this section to any applicant who meets the following qualifications:

(a) Is a Kentucky resident as defined by the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education;

(b) Has been accepted by or is enrolled as a full-time student in a program of study leading to a postsecondary degree at a Kentucky independent college or university which is accredited by a regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education and whose institutional programs are not composed solely of a sectarian instruction.

An otherwise eligible student having a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq.), certified by a licensed physician to be unable to attend the eligible program of study full-time because of the disability may also qualify under this paragraph; and

(c) Has not previously attended college or university more than the maximum number of academic terms of scholarships received. Upon completion of each semester of qualified teaching service, the authority shall cancel the appropriate number of promissory notes.

(d) If the recipient of a teacher scholarship fails to complete an eligible program of study at a participating institution or fails to render qualified teaching service in any semester following certification or recertification, unless the failure is temporarily waived for cause by the authority, the recipient shall immediately become liable to the authority for repayment of the sum of all outstanding promissory notes and accrued interest. Persons liable for repayment of scholarships under this paragraph shall be liable for interest accruing from the dates on which the teacher scholarships were disbursed.

(e) Recipients who have outstanding loans or scholarships under KRS 156.611, 156.613, 164.768, or 164.770 respectively, and who render qualified teaching service, shall have their notes canceled in accordance with subsection (6)(c) of this section.

(f) The authority shall establish, by administrative regulation, the terms and conditions for the award, cancellation, and repayment of teacher scholarships including, but not limited to, the selection criteria, eligibility for renewal awards, amount of scholarship payments, deferments, the rate of repayment, and the interest rate thereon.

(g) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the maximum interest rate applicable to repayment of a promissory note under this section shall be twelve percent (12%) per annum, except that if a judgment is rendered to recover payment, the judgment shall bear interest at the rate of five percent (5%) greater than the rate actually charged on the promissory note.

(7) A repayment obligation imposed by this section shall not be voidable by reason of the age of the recipient at the time of receiving the teacher scholarship.

(8) Failure to meet repayment obligations imposed by this section shall be cause for the revocation of a person’s teaching certificate, subject to the procedures set forth in KRS 161.120.

(9) All moneys repaid to the authority under this section shall be added to the appropriations made for purposes of this section, and the funds and unobligated appropriations shall not lapse.

(10) The authority may execute appropriate contracts and promissory notes for administering this section.

(11) If available funds are insufficient for all requested scholarships for eligible applicants, the authority shall give priority consideration to eligible applicants who previously received teacher scholarships. If funds are insufficient to make all requested renewal scholarships to eligible applicants, the authority shall reduce all scholarship awards to the extent necessary to provide scholarships to all qualified renewal applicants. If, after awarding all eligible renewal applicants, funds are not depleted, initial applications shall be ranked according to regulatory selection criteria, which may include expected family contribution and application date, and awards shall be made to highly qualified applicants until funds are depleted.

Compiler’s Notes. KRS 156.611, 156.613, 164.768 and 164.770 referred to in this section were repealed.

The council shall review the base amount of the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship beginning with the 1999-2000 academic year and each academic year thereafter and may promulgate an administrative regulation to make adjustments after considering the availability of funds.

(2) (a) The authority shall commit to provide to each eligible high school student the base amount of the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship for each academic year of high school study in the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship curriculum that the high school student has attained at least a 2.5 grade point average. The award shall be based upon the eligible high school student’s grade point average at the close of each academic year. An award attributable to a past academic year shall not be increased after the award has been earned by an eligible high school student, regardless of any subsequent increases made to the base amount of the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship through the promulgation of an administrative regulation by the council.

(b) Notwithstanding the definitions of “eligible high school student” and “high school” in KRS 164.7874, any high school student who maintains Kentucky residency and completes the academic courses that are required for a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship while participating in an approved educational high school foreign exchange program or participating in the United States Congressional Page School may apply his or her grade point average for that academic year toward the base as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection. The grade point average shall be reported by the student’s Kentucky home high school, based on an official transcript from the school that the student attended during the out-of-state educational experience. The council shall promulgate administrative regulations that describe the approval process for the educational exchange programs that qualify under this paragraph. The provisions in this paragraph shall likewise apply to any Kentucky high school student who participated in an approved educational exchange program or in a Congressional Page School since the 1998-99 school year and maintained his or her Kentucky residency throughout.

(c) 1. Notwithstanding the definitions of “eligible high school student” and “high school” in KRS 164.7874 and the requirement that a student graduate from a Kentucky high school, a high school student who completes the KEES curriculum while attending an accredited out-of-state high school or Department of Defense school may apply the grade point average for any applicable academic year toward the base as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection and shall also qualify for a supplemental award under subsection (3) of this section when:
   a. His or her custodial parent or guardian is in active service of the Armed Forces of the United States; and
   b. The custodial parent or guardian maintained Kentucky as the home of record at the time the student attended an accredited out-of-state high school or a Department of Defense school.

2. The student or parent shall arrange for the out-of-state school to report the student’s grade point average each academic year and the student’s highest ACT score.
to the Kentucky Department of Education as required under KRS 164.7885. The Council on Postsecondary Education shall promulgate administrative regulations implementing the requirements in this paragraph, including:

a. The documentation that the parent shall submit to the council establishing the student's eligibility for the scholarship; and

b. The assurances that an out-of-state institution shall submit to the Kentucky Department of Education for submission of the student grade point average.

3. The provisions in this paragraph shall apply to the 2001-2002 school year and thereafter.

(3) (a) The authority shall commit to provide to each eligible high school student graduating from high school before June 30, 1999, and achieving a score of at least 15 on the American College Test, a supplemental award for the award period beginning in the fall of 1999, based on the eligible high school student's highest ACT score attained by the date of graduation from high school. The amount of the supplemental award shall be determined as follows:

Subsequent supplemental awards for eligible high school students graduating before June 30, 1999, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) The authority shall commit to provide to each eligible high school student upon achievement after June 30, 1999, of an ACT score of at least 15 on the American College Test a supplemental award based on the eligible high school student's highest ACT score attained by the date of graduation from high school. The amount of the supplemental award shall be determined as follows:

The council shall review the base amount of the supplemental award beginning with the 2001-2002 academic year and each academic year thereafter and may promulgate an administrative regulation to make adjustments after considering the availability of funds.

(c) The council shall promulgate administrative regulations establishing the eligibility criteria and procedures for making a supplemental award to Kentucky residents who are citizens, nationals, or permanent residents of the United States and who graduate from a nonpublic secondary school not certified by the Kentucky Board of Education and Kentucky residents who are citizens, nationals, or permanent residents of the United States and who obtain a General Educational Development (GED) diploma within five (5) years of their high school graduating class, and students under subsection (2)(c) of this section who do not attend an accredited high school.

164.7881. Eligibility for educational excellence scholarship and supplemental awards — Time limits for receiving aid — Adjustment of amounts and loss of award — Extension of time limits — Senator Jeff Green Scholars.

(1) Eligible high school students who have graduated from high school and eligible postsecondary students who have earned a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and a supplemental award, or a supplemental award only pursuant to KRS 164.7879(3)(c), shall be eligible to receive the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award, or a supplemental award only for a maximum of eight (8) academic terms in an undergraduate or other postsecondary program of study at a participating institution, except as provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(2) To receive the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award, or a supplemental award only, an eligible high school or postsecondary student shall:

(a) Enroll in and attend a participating institution as a full-time student or a part-time student; and
(b) Maintain eligibility as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Eligibility for a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship or a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award shall terminate upon the earlier of:
   (a) The expiration of five (5) years following the student's graduation from high school, except as provided in subsection (5) or (6) of this section; or
   (b) The successful completion of an undergraduate or other postsecondary course of study.

However, any student who successfully completes the requirements for a degree or certification involving a postsecondary course of study that normally requires less than eight (8) academic terms to complete may continue to receive the benefits of a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award, or a supplemental award only, for a cumulative total of eight (8) academic terms if the student enrolls as at least a part-time student in a four (4) year program.

(4) (a) The maximum award amount shall be determined by the council and shall be adjusted as provided in this subsection. The award amount ultimately determined to be available to an eligible postsecondary student for an award period shall be delivered by the authority to the participating institution for disbursement to the eligible postsecondary student.

   (b) The authority shall, by promulgation of administrative regulations, provide for the proportionate reduction of the maximum award amount for an eligible postsecondary student for any academic term in which the student is enrolled on a part-time basis. Each academic term for which any scholarship or supplemental award funds are accepted by an eligible postsecondary student shall count as a full academic term, even if the award amount was reduced to reflect the part-time status of the eligible postsecondary student, except if the eligible postsecondary student interrupts enrollment during the award period for any reason specified in subsection (5) of this section, and the participating institution does not certify a cumulative grade point average for that student at the end of that award period.

(c) 1. An eligible postsecondary student who is enrolled full-time in an undergraduate program of study, in the pharmacy program at the University of Kentucky, or in a program of study designated as an equivalent undergraduate program of study by the Council on Postsecondary Education in an administrative regulation, shall receive the maximum award amount for the first award period that the student is enrolled in and attending the program of study.

   2. To retain the maximum award for the second award period, an eligible postsecondary student shall have at least a 2.5 grade point average at the end of the first award period, except that if the eligible postsecondary student interrupts enrollment during the award period for any reason specified in subsection (5) of this section, and the participating institution does not certify a cumulative grade point average for that student at the end of that award period, the eligible postsecondary student shall, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, retain the maximum award for the award period in which he or she resumes enrollment.

3. To retain the maximum award amount for subsequent award periods, an eligible postsecondary student shall have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or greater at the end of the prior award period, except that if the eligible postsecondary student interrupts enrollment during the award period for any reason specified in subsection (5) of this section, and the participating institution does not certify a cumulative grade point average for that student at the end of that award period, the eligible postsecondary student shall, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, retain the same award for the award period in which he or she resumes enrollment as he or she received in the award period in which enrollment was interrupted.

4. Any eligible postsecondary student who maintains a cumulative grade point average of less than 3.0 but at least 2.5 at the completion of any award period shall receive a reduction in the maximum award amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the maximum award amount for the next award period.

5. Any eligible postsecondary student who maintains a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.5 at the completion of any award period shall lose his or her award for the next award period.

6. Each participating institution shall certify to the authority at the close of each award period the cumulative grade point average of each Kentucky educational excellence scholarship recipient enrolled as a full-time or part-time student at the participating institution.

7. Any student who loses eligibility through failure to maintain the required cumulative grade point average may regain eligibility in a subsequent award period upon reestablishing at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average or its equivalent during a subsequent award period, as certified by the participating institution.

(5) The expiration of a student's eight (8) academic terms and five (5) year eligibility shall be extended by the authority upon a determination that the student was unable to enroll for or complete an academic term due to any of the following circumstances:
(a) A serious and extended illness or injury of the student, certified by an attending physician;
(b) The death or serious and extended illness or injury of an immediate family member of the student, certified by an attending physician, which would render the student unable to attend classes;
(c) Natural disasters that would render a student unable to attend classes; or
(d) Active duty status for the student in the United States Armed Forces or as an officer in the Commissioned Corps of the United States Public Health Service, or active service by the student in the Peace Corps Act or the Americorps, for up to three (3) years.

(6) An eligible postsecondary student who is enrolled at a participating institution in a five (5) year undergraduate degree program designated in an administrative regulation promulgated by the council shall be eligible to receive the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award, or the supplemental award only for a maximum of ten (10) academic terms. The expiration of an eligible postsecondary student’s five (5) year eligibility shall be extended to six (6) years for eligible postsecondary students meeting the requirements of this subsection.

(7) Each eligible high school student who attains a 28 or above on the ACT and a 4.0 grade point average for all four (4) years of high school shall be designated as a “Senator Jeff Green Scholar” in honor of the late Senator Jeff Green of Mayfield, Kentucky, First District, and shall be recognized by the high school in a manner consistent with recognition given by the high school to other high levels of academic achievement.

164.7883. Use of scholarship and supplemental award at out-of-state institution.
An eligible student who has earned a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, or the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award, and who is enrolled in an out-of-state institution shall be eligible to receive the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, or the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award, if he or she is enrolled in a degree program in a field of study that is not available at any participating institution in the Commonwealth. The Council on Post-secondary Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures to designate an out-of-state institution as an approved participating institution as defined in KRS 164.7874 and to notify the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority of its approval to transfer to the out-of-state institution the amount of the scholarship and supplemental award, earned by the eligible student.

164.7885. Annual submission by high schools of list of eligible students — Data in list — Verification of eligibility — Reduction of award — Authority for administrative regulations.
(1) Not later than August 1, 1999, and each June 30 thereafter, each Kentucky high school shall submit to the Kentucky Department of Education, which shall transmit to the authority, a compiled list of all high school students during the academic year. A high school shall report the grade point average of an eligible high school student pursuant to KRS 164.7874 by January 15 following the end of the fall academic term in which the student completed the high school graduation requirements. The list shall identify the high school and shall contain each high school student’s name, Social Security number, address, grade point average for the academic year, expected or actual graduation date, and highest ACT score. The list need not contain the ACT score if the authority receives the ACT score directly from the testing services. The authority shall notify each eligible high school student of his or her Kentucky educational excellence scholarship award earned each academic year. The authority shall determine the final Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award based upon the actual final grade point average and highest ACT score and shall notify each eligible high school student of the final determination. The authority shall make available a list of eligible high school and postsecondary students to participating institutions.
(2) The authority shall provide data access only to participating institutions that have either received an admission application from an eligible high school or postsecondary student or have been listed by the eligible high school or postsecondary student on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid.
(3) For each eligible postsecondary student enrolling in a participating institution after July 1, 1999, the participating institution shall verify to the authority:
(a) The student’s initial eligibility for a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award, or supplemental award only pursuant to KRS 164.7879(3)(c) through the comprehensive list compiled by the authority or an alternative source satisfactory to the authority;

(b) The student’s highest ACT score attained by the date of graduation from high school, provided that the participating institution need not report the ACT score if the authority receives the ACT score directly from the testing services;

(c) The eligible postsecondary student’s full-time or part-time enrollment status at the beginning of each academic term; and

(d) The eligible postsecondary student’s cumulative grade point average after the completion of each award period.

(4) Each participating institution shall submit to the authority a report, in a form satisfactory to the authority, of all eligible postsecondary students enrolled for that academic term. Kentucky educational excellence scholarships and supplemental awards shall be disbursed by the authority to each eligible postsecondary student attending a participating institution during the academic term within thirty (30) days after receiving a satisfactory report.

(5) The Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award shall not be reduced, except as provided in KRS 164.7881(4).

(6) Kentucky educational excellence scholarships and supplemental awards shall not be awarded or disbursed to any eligible postsecondary students who are in default on any obligation to the authority under any programs administered by the authority until financial obligations to the authority are satisfied, except that ineligibility may be waived by the authority for cause.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 164.753, the authority may promulgate administrative regulations for the administration of Kentucky educational excellence scholarships and supplemental awards under the provisions of KRS 164.7871 to 164.7885 and KRS 164.7889.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/14/2000).
This section was amended by 2000 Ky. Acts chs. 13 and 198. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 198, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails under KRS 446.250.

(3) Adopt a corporate seal and to change and amend it from time to time;
(4) Invest moneys within the program fund in any investments determined by the board to be appropriate, notwithstanding any other statutory limitations contained in the Kentucky Revised Statutes, which are specifically determined to be inapplicable to the savings plan trust;
(5) Enter into agreements with any institution of higher education, the Commonwealth of Kentucky, or any federal or other state agency or other entity as required for the effectuation of its rights and duties pursuant to KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380;
(6) Accept any grants, gifts, legislative appropriations, and other moneys from the Commonwealth, any unit of federal, state, or local government or any other person, firm, partnership, or corporation for deposit to the administrative fund or the program fund, which, in the case of any contributions from other than general funds of the Commonwealth, may be limited in application to definite classes of beneficiaries;
(7) Enter into participation agreements with participants;
(8) Make payments to institutions of higher education pursuant to participation agreements on behalf of beneficiaries;
(9) Make refunds to participants upon the termination of participation agreements pursuant to the provisions, limitations, and restrictions set forth in KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380;
(10) Appoint a program administrator and to determine the duties of the program administrator and other staff as necessary and fix their compensation within the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A;
(11) Delegate to the program administrator general supervision and direction over the administrative function of the trust and its employees in carrying out the policies, programs, administrative regulations, and directives of the board;
(12) Make provision for the payment of costs of administration and operation of the savings plan trust;
(13) Carry out the duties and obligations of the savings plan trust pursuant to KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380 and to have any and all other powers as may be reasonably necessary for the effectuation of the purposes of the savings plan trust and KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380; and
(14) Promulgate administrative regulations to implement the provisions of KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380 consistent with the federal Internal Revenue Code and administrative regulations issued pursuant to that code.

Compiler’s Notes. Section 13 of Acts 2000, ch. 382, effective July 14, 2000, read: “Moneys held by the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust on June 30, 2000, as an endowment for purposes of distributing investment earnings to beneficiaries enrolled in an institution of higher education in Kentucky may, at the discretion of the board of directors of the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority in its capacity of trustee, be distributed as follows:”

“(1) The investment earnings on the endowment fund accrued as of June 30, 2000, shall be allocated and proportionally added to each participant’s account in the program fund; and
“(2) The remainder of the moneys held in the endowment fund on June 30, 2000, including, but not limited to, any contributions to the endowment, may be distributed in any amount and combination of the following dispositions:
“(a) Proportionally added to each participant’s account in the program fund; or “(b) Transferred to the administrative fund.”

164A.315. Office facilities, clerical and administrative support for endowment trust.

The board shall provide to the endowment trust, by agreement, administrative and clerical support and office facilities and space. Reasonable charges or fees may be levied against the endowment trust pursuant to the agreement for the services provided by the board, the provision of office space and clerical and administrative support being deemed and declared to be provided for a valid public purpose of the Commonwealth.

164A.325. Additional powers of board as to savings plan trust.

In addition to effectuating and carrying out all of the powers granted by KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380, the board, as trustee, shall have all powers necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes, objectives, and provisions of KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380 pertaining to the savings plan trust, including, but not limited to, the power to:

(1) Engage investment advisors to assist in the investment of savings plan trust assets;
(2) Carry out studies and projections in order to advise participants regarding present and estimated future higher education costs and levels of financial participation in the trust required in order to enable participants to achieve their educational funding objectives;

(3) Contract, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 45A.345 to 45A.460 under KRS 45A.343, for goods and services and engage personnel as necessary, including consultants, actuaries, managers, counsel, and auditors for the purpose of rendering professional, managerial, and technical assistance and advice, all of which contract obligations and services shall be payable from any moneys of the trust;

(4) Participate in any other way in any federal, state, or local governmental program for the benefit of the savings plan trust;

(5) Promulgate, impose, and collect administrative fees and charges in connection with transactions of the savings plan trust, and provide for reasonable service charges, including penalties for cancellations and late payments in respect of participation agreements;

(6) Procure insurance against any loss in connection with the property, assets or activities of the savings plan trust;

(7) Administer the funds of the savings plan trust;

(8) Procure insurance indemnifying any member of the board from personal loss or accountability arising from liability resulting from a member's action or inaction as a member of the board; and

(9) Promulgate reasonable rules and regulations for the administration of the savings plan trust.

The savings plan trust shall have the authority to enter into participation agreements with participants on behalf of beneficiaries pursuant to the following terms and agreements:

(1) Each participation agreement shall require a participant to agree to invest a specific amount of money in the trust for a specific period of time for the benefit of a specific beneficiary. Participation agreements may be amended to provide for adjusted levels of contributions based upon changed circumstances or changes in educational plans and may contain penalties for failure to make contributions when scheduled;

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, participants may elect to enter into a lump-sum contribution participation agreement in connection with which a single, lump-sum contribution is made by the participant for the benefit of a beneficiary;

(3) Execution of a participation agreement by the trust shall not guarantee in any way that higher education costs will be equal to projections and estimates provided by the trust or that the beneficiary named in any participation agreement will:

(a) Be admitted to an institution of higher education;

(b) If admitted, be determined a resident for tuition purposes by the institution of higher education, unless the participation agreement is vested;

(c) Be allowed to continue attendance at the institution of higher education following admission; or

(d) Graduate from the institution of higher education;

(4) Beneficiaries may be changed as permitted by the rules and regulations of the board upon written request of the participant provided, however, that the substitute beneficiary shall be eligible;

(5) Participation agreements shall be freely amended throughout their terms in order to enable participants to increase or decrease the level of participation, change the designation of beneficiaries, and carry out similar matters;

(6) Each participation agreement shall provide that for vested participation agreements, the beneficiary shall be considered a resident of the Commonwealth for tuition purposes if the beneficiary enrolls in an institution of higher education in Kentucky;

(7) Each participation agreement shall provide that it may be canceled under the terms and conditions, including payment of the fees and costs, set forth in the rules and regulations promulgated by the board;

(8) The participation agreement shall ensure that contributions made pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be made in real or personal property other than cash and shall not exceed the anticipated higher education costs of the beneficiary;

(9) The participation agreement shall provide that the participant and the beneficiary shall not directly or indirectly or otherwise control the investment of contributions or earnings on contributions;

(10) Information obtained from a participant or a beneficiary and other personally identifiable records made by the trust in the administration of this chapter shall not be published or be open for public inspection pursuant to KRS 61.870 to 61.884, except as provided below:

(a) Upon written request, a participant or beneficiary or his legal representative shall be entitled to be advised of the aggregate balance of contributions and earnings for all participation agreements that designate that same beneficiary;
(b) Information may be made available to public employees in the performance of their duties, but the agency receiving the information shall assure the confidentiality, as provided for in this section, of all information so released;
(c) Statistical information derived from information and records obtained or made by the trust may be published, if it in no way reveals the identity of any participant or beneficiary; and
(d) Nothing in this section shall preclude the program administrator or any employee of the board from testifying or introducing as evidence information or records obtained or made by the trust in any proceeding under this chapter, in an action to which the trust is a party, or upon order of a court.

164A.335. Program and administrative funds for savings plan trust — Investment and payments from funds.
The board, as trustee, shall segregate moneys received by the savings plan trust into two (2) funds, which shall be identified as the program fund and the administrative fund. Transfers may be made from the program fund to the administrative fund for the purpose of paying operating costs associated with administering the trust and as required by KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380. All moneys credited to the administrative fund shall be deposited in accordance with KRS 41.070. All moneys paid by participants in connection with participation agreements shall be deposited as received into the program fund and shall be promptly invested and accounted for separately. Contributions shall be accounted for separately for each beneficiary. Deposits and interest thereon accumulated on behalf of participants in the program fund of the savings plan trust may be used for payments to any institution of higher education.

164A.337. Endowment trust for student financial assistance benefits — Authority to incorporate corporation to administer — Annual report.
(1) The board is authorized to incorporate an organization pursuant to KRS Chapter 273 for the eleemosynary, charitable, and educational purposes of administering an endowment trust. The organization so created shall be an instrumentality of the Commonwealth, but shall possess no part of the sovereign powers of the Commonwealth. The corporation shall be created to qualify as a tax exempt organization pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
(2) The endowment trust created pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall solicit and accept gifts, grants, donations, bequests, or other endowments, including general fund appropriations from the Commonwealth and grants from any federal or other governmental agency, for the purposes of the endowment trust.
(3) The endowment trust shall provide student financial assistance benefits, including, but not limited to, grants, scholarships, or loans to pay higher education costs of members of the public, designated as beneficiaries of participation agreements under the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust, who enroll in an institution of higher education in Kentucky.
(4) The board is authorized to transfer to the endowment trust, after its qualification under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, any funds or assets then held in the endowment fund initially established pursuant to KRS 164A.335.
(5) Any gifts, grants, or donations made by any governmental unit or any person, firm, partnership or corporation to the endowment trust shall be a grant, gift, or donation for the accomplishment of a valid public, eleemosynary, charitable, and educational purpose.
(6) The endowment trust shall submit an annual audited report, in accordance with KRS 164A.365(1) and (2), to the program administrator not later than the fifteenth of each September.

Compiler’s Notes. Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, referred to in subsection (4) of this section, is compiled as 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

164A.350. Ownership of contributions and interest — Cancellation of participation agreement — Transfer of ownership rights — Penalty on earnings refunded due to cancellation or nondistribution — Exemption from creditor’s execution.
For all purposes of Kentucky law, the following shall be applicable:
(1) The trust shall exercise ownership of all contributions made under any participation agreement and all interest derived from the investment of the contributions made by the participant up to the date of utilization for payment of higher education costs for the beneficiary. All contributions made under any participant agreement and interest derived from the investment of the contributions made by the participant shall be deemed to be held in trust for the benefit of the beneficiary;

(2) Any participant may cancel a participation agreement at any time, and terminate the trust's ownership rights thereby created in whole or in part, by delivering an instrument in writing signed and delivered to the program administrator or his designee. In the event the participation agreement is terminated in part, the trust shall retain ownership of all contributions made under the participation agreement not previously expended for the higher education costs of the beneficiary and not returned to the participant. The participant shall retain a reversionary right to receive upon termination the actual market value of the participant's account at the time of the cancellation, including interest, except that the participant may be required to pay a penalty upon the interest that has been credited to the participant's account in accordance with subsection (8) of this section;

(3) Any participant may cancel a participation agreement and shall be permitted to transfer funds to the Commonwealth postsecondary education prepaid tuition trust fund established in KRS 164A.701, and in compliance with administrative regulations promulgated by the board for the savings plan trust;

(4) If the beneficiary graduates from an institution of higher education, and a balance remains in the participant's account, then the program administrator shall pay the balance to the participant, except that the participant may be required to pay a penalty upon the interest that has been credited to the participant's account in accordance with subsection (8) of this section;

(5) The institution of higher education shall obtain ownership of the distributions made from the participant's account for the higher education costs paid to the institution at the time each payment is made to the institution;

(6) Any amounts received by the trust pursuant to the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust which are not listed in this section shall be owned by the trust;

(7) A participant may transfer the participant's rights to another eligible participant, including, but not limited to, a gift of the participant's rights to a minor beneficiary pursuant to KRS Chapter 385, except that, notwithstanding KRS 385.202(1), the transfer shall be effected and the property distributed in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the board or the terms of the participation agreement;

(8) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if any earnings on contributions are refunded due to cancellation of the participation agreement by the participant or nondistribution of the funds for payment of the beneficiary's higher education costs, the board may charge a penalty to the participant against the earnings on contributions.

No penalty shall be charged when a refund is made due to:

(a) The death, permanent disability, or mental incapacity of the beneficiary; or

(b) The beneficiary's receipt of a scholarship, an educational assistance allowance under Chapters 30, 31, 32, 34, or 35 of Title 38, United States Code, or a payment exempt from income taxation by any law of the United States, other than a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance within the meaning of Section 102(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. sec. 102(a), for educational expenses, or attributable to attendance at an institution of higher education, to the extent that the amount refunded does not exceed the amount of the scholarship, allowance, or payment; and

(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, contributions and earnings on contributions held by the trust shall be exempt from levy of execution, attachment, garnishment, distress for rent, or fee bill by a creditor of the participant or the beneficiary. No interest of the participant or beneficiary in the trust shall be pledged or otherwise encumbered as security for a debt.

164A.355. Effect of payments on determination of need and eligibility for student aid.

No student loan program, student grant program or other program administered by any agency of the Commonwealth, except as may be otherwise provided by federal law or the provisions of any specific grant applicable thereto, shall take into account and consider amounts available for the payment of higher education costs pursuant to the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust in determining need and eligibility for student aid.

164A.360. Borrowing from the trust.

The board, as trustee, may establish, by the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, a program of lending from any funds available to the trust, for participants and beneficiaries to borrow from the trust for the sole purpose of paying higher education costs to an institution of higher education. The interest rate payable by borrowers for any such borrowing shall be a rate established by the board from time to time. Any contribution to such loan program from the program fund or any loan made from the program fund shall be insured.

(1) The board shall submit an annual audited financial report, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, on the operations of the savings plan trust by the first day of November to the Governor, the General Assembly, and the Auditor of Public Accounts. The annual audit shall be made by an independent certified public accountant and shall include, but not be limited to, direct and indirect costs attributable to the use of outside consultants, independent contractors, and any other persons who are not state employees.

(2) The annual audit shall be supplemented by the following information prepared by the board:

(a) Any studies or evaluations prepared in the preceding year;

(b) A summary of the benefits provided by the trusts including the number of participants and beneficiaries in the trust; and

(c) Any other information which is relevant in order to make a full, fair, and effective disclosure of the operations of the savings plan trust and the endowment trust.

164A.370. Tax exemption.

The property of the trust and its income from operations shall be exempt from all taxation by the Commonwealth of Kentucky or any of its political subdivisions. Investment income earned on contributions paid by any participant and used for higher education costs defined in KRS 164A.305(6) or refunded under KRS 164A.350(8)(a) or (b) shall not be subject to Kentucky income tax by either a participant or any beneficiary of a participation agreement, the purposes for which the investment income was accrued being deemed and declared to be entirely public in nature. Earnings that are not used for higher education costs as defined in KRS 164A.305(6) and are refunded shall be subject to Kentucky income tax, except for earnings refunded pursuant to KRS 164A.350(8)(a) or (b).

This section was amended by 2003 Ky. Acts chs. 150 and 180, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

164A.375. Property rights to assets in trust.

The assets of the trust, including the program fund, shall at all times be preserved, invested and expended solely and only for the purposes of the trust and shall be held in trust for the participants and beneficiaries and no property rights therein shall exist in favor of the Commonwealth. The assets shall not be transferred or used by the Commonwealth for any purposes other than the purposes of the trust.

164A.380. Liberal construction.

KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380 shall be construed liberally in order to effectuate its legislative intent. The purposes of KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380 and all provisions of KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380 with respect to powers granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate such intent and purposes and not as to any limitation of powers.

164A.701. Commonwealth postsecondary education prepaid tuition trust fund — Prepaid postsecondary tuition administrative account.

(1) There is hereby created an instrumentality of the Commonwealth to be known as the “Commonwealth postsecondary education prepaid tuition trust fund”, to be governed by a board of directors and administered by the Tuition Account Program Office in the Office of the State Treasurer. The fund shall consist of payments received from prepaid tuition contracts under KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709. Income earned from the investment of the fund shall remain in the fund and be credited to it. The fund shall not constitute an investment company as defined in KRS 291.010.

(2) The purposes of the fund are:
(a) To provide affordable access to participating institutions for the qualified beneficiaries; and
(b) To provide students and their parents economic protection against rising tuition costs.

(3) The office and the facilities of the State Treasurer shall be used and employed in the administration of the fund including, but not limited to, the keeping of records, the employment of staff to assist in the administration of the fund, the management of accounts and other investments, the transfer of funds, and the safekeeping of securities evidencing investments. The office of the Treasurer and the board of the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, shall work together to jointly market, as appropriate, the Commonwealth Prepaid Tuition Plan and the Savings Plan established in KRS 164A.300.

(4) Assets of the fund shall constitute public funds of the Commonwealth and may be invested in any instrument, obligation, security, or property that constitutes legal investments for the investment of public funds in the Commonwealth that are deemed most appropriate by the board and may be pooled for investment purposes with any other investment of the Commonwealth that is eligible for asset pooling.

(5) The fund, through the State Treasurer, may receive and deposit into the fund gifts made by any individual or agency as deemed acceptable by the board.

(6) There is created a separate account within the State Treasurer’s office to be known as the prepaid postsecondary tuition administrative account for the purposes of implementing and maintaining the fund. Funds may be transferred from the property abandoned under KRS Chapter 393 to the administrative account and shall be repaid to the abandoned property fund no later than three (3) years after the transfer. The board may establish administrative fees for handling prepaid tuition contracts and deposit the money in this account.

(7) Four (4) years after July 14, 2000, the administration of the fund shall be transferred from the Office of the State Treasurer to the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority unless the General Assembly shall decide that the administration of the fund shall remain in the Office of the State Treasurer.

164A.703. Board of directors.
(1) The fund shall be governed by an eleven (11) member board of directors. The board shall have five (5) ex officio voting members including the State Treasurer, the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education or designee, the secretary of the Finance Cabinet or designee, the secretary of the Revenue Cabinet or designee, the chair of the Association of Independent Kentucky Colleges and Universities or designee, three (3) members appointed by the State Treasurer, and three (3) members appointed by the Governor. The executive director of the Higher Education Assistance Authority or designee shall serve as a nonvoting member. The gubernatorial and State Treasurer appointees shall have experience in finance, accounting, or investment management.

(2) Of the members to be appointed initially by the State Treasurer, one (1) shall be appointed for a three (3) year term, and two (2) shall be appointed for a four (4) year term; of the members to be appointed by the Governor, two (2) shall be appointed for a two (2) year term and one (1) for a three (3) year term. Thereafter, all appointments shall be for terms of four (4) years, except that appointments to fill vacancies shall be for the unexpired terms. No person shall be appointed to serve for more than two (2) successive four (4) year terms. No person holding a full-time office or position of employment with the state, any county or city, or any educational institution shall be eligible for gubernatorial appointment to the board.

(3) Members of the board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed expenses incurred in the performance of their duties at the same per diem and travel rate as is paid the employees of the state.

(4) The State Treasurer shall be the chair and presiding officer of the board. The State Treasurer may appoint other officers as the board may deem advisable or necessary. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the fund.

(5) The initial board appointments shall be made by October 1, 2000.

164A.704. Duties of board.
The board shall:
(1) Promulgate administrative regulations, set fees, and adopt procedures as are necessary to implement the provisions of KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709;
(2) Enter into contractual agreements, including contracts for legal, actuarial, financial, and consulting services;
(3) Invest moneys in the fund in any instruments, obligations, securities, or property as permitted by law and deemed appropriate by the board;
(4) Procure insurance to protect against any loss in connection with the fund’s property, assets, or activities and to indemnify board members from personal loss or accountability from liability arising from any action or inaction as a board member;
(5) Make arrangements with eligible educational institutions in the Commonwealth to fulfill obligations under prepaid tuition contracts, including, but not limited to, payment from the fund of the tuition cost on behalf of a qualified beneficiary to attend an eligible educational institution in which the beneficiary is admitted and enrolled;
(6) Develop requirements, procedures, and guidelines regarding prepaid tuition contracts, including but not limited to, the termination, withdrawal, or transfer of payments under a prepaid tuition contract; tuition shortfalls; number of participants; time limitations for prepaid tuition contracts and the use of tuition benefits; tuition conversions; payment schedules; payroll deductions; penalties for failure of purchasers to adhere to contracts; and transfer of prepaid tuition credits towards private education in the Commonwealth or for out-of-state institutions;
(7) Obtain appropriate actuarial assistance to establish, maintain, and certify a fund sufficient to defray the obligation of the fund, annually evaluate or cause to be evaluated, the actuarial soundness of the fund, and determine prior to each academic year the amount of prepaid tuition for each tuition plan and for each eligible educational institution for specific academic years, the corresponding value.
(8) Make an annual report each year to the Legislative Research Commission showing the fund’s condition;
(9) Market and promote participation in the fund; and
(10) Develop, sponsor, and maintain a scholarship program, if deemed feasible by the board, to provide the benefits of the fund to financially disadvantaged families and students of Kentucky under criteria established by the board to encourage students to obtain postsecondary education in Kentucky and otherwise consistent with the purposes of the fund.

164A.705. Obligations of fund and of purchaser or qualified beneficiary — Use of tuition account.
(1) The prepaid tuition contract entered into by the purchaser and the board shall constitute an irrevocable pledge and guarantee by the fund to pay for the tuition of a qualified beneficiary upon acceptance and enrollment at an eligible educational institution in accordance with the tuition plan purchased.

(2) Under a tuition plan for private colleges and universities, tuition shall be paid based on the same percentage that University of Kentucky tuition is increased from the year the prepaid tuition contract is purchased to the year of payment.

(3) The purchaser or qualified beneficiary shall pay to the eligible educational institution the amount of any prepaid tuition academic year conversion... shortfall and the amount of any prepaid tuition conversion shortfall.

(4) A qualified beneficiary attending an eligible educational institution may apply the value of a prepaid tuition account to a specific academic year at the maximum course load or maximum number of credit hours generally permitted to full-time undergraduates at that institution.

(5) The value of a prepaid tuition account remaining after tuition is paid may be used for other qualified educational expenses under administrative regulations promulgated by the board in compliance with 26 U.S.C. sec. 529. The board may permit the use of the value of a prepaid tuition account for part-time undergraduate enrollment or graduate programs at eligible educational institutions.

(6) In the event a qualified beneficiary attends an eligible educational institution for which payment of tuition is not guaranteed by the fund in whole or in part, and if the cost of tuition exceeds the value of a prepaid tuition account, the fund shall have no responsibility to pay the difference. If the value of a prepaid tuition account exceeds the cost of tuition, the excess may be used for other qualified postsecondary education expenses as directed by the purchaser.

(7) The value of a prepaid tuition account shall not be used in calculating personal asset contribution for determining eligibility and need for student loan programs, student grant programs, or other student aid programs administered by any agency of the Commonwealth, except as otherwise may be provided by federal law.

164A.707. Prepaid tuition contracts — Amendments — Accounts not subject to creditors or taxes — No guarantee of attendance at institution — Payment of contracts — Beneficiaries — Investments and earnings — Contracts not securities or annuities — Contracts subject to implied amendment by subsequent change to statute, regulation, or policy.

(1) Purchasers buying prepaid tuition for a qualified beneficiary shall enter into prepaid tuition contracts with the board. These contracts shall be in a form as shall be determined by the office. The contract shall provide for the purchase of a tuition plan for prepaid tuition for the qualified beneficiary from one (1) to five (5) specific academic years.

(2) Upon written notification to the office a purchaser may amend the prepaid tuition contract to change:

(a) The qualified beneficiary, in accordance with 26 U.S.C. sec. 529;
(b) The academic year or years for which prepaid tuition is purchased;
(c) A tuition plan designation to another tuition plan designation;
(d) The number of years for which prepaid tuition is purchased; or
(e) Other provisions of the prepaid tuition contract as permitted by the board.

(3) A prepaid tuition account shall not be subject to attachment, levy, or execution by any creditor of a purchaser or qualified beneficiary. Prepaid tuition accounts shall be exempt from all state and local taxes including, but not limited to, intangible personal property tax levied under KRS 132.030, individual income tax levied under KRS 141.020, and the inheritance tax levied under KRS Chapter 140. Payments from a prepaid tuition account used to pay qualified postsecondary education expenses, or disbursed due to the death or disability of the beneficiary, or receipt of a scholarship by the beneficiary shall be exempt from tax liabilities.

(4) Nothing in KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709 or in a prepaid tuition contract shall be construed as a promise or guarantee that a qualified beneficiary shall be admitted to an eligible educational institution, be allowed to continue to attend an eligible educational institution after having been admitted, or be graduated from an eligible educational institution.

(5) Prepaid tuition contract payments shall not be made in real or personal property other than cash and shall not exceed the prepaid tuition. Prepaid tuition contract payments may be made in lump-sum installments.

(6) The purchaser shall designate the qualified beneficiary at the time the purchaser enters into a prepaid tuition contract, except for a prepaid tuition contract purchased in accordance with KRS 164A.700(14)(d). In the case of gifts made to the fund, the board shall designate a qualified beneficiary at the time of the gift.

(7) The prepaid tuition contract shall provide that the purchaser and the qualified beneficiary shall not directly or indirectly or otherwise control the investment of the prepaid tuition account or earnings on the account. Payments made for prepaid tuition shall be accounted for separately for each qualified beneficiary. No interest or earnings on a prepaid tuition contract of the purchaser or qualified beneficiary. Prepaid tuition contract payments may be pledged or otherwise encumbered as security of a debt.

(8) A prepaid tuition contract does not constitute a security as defined in KRS 292.310 or an annuity as defined in KRS 304.5-030.

(9) Each prepaid tuition contract is subject to, and shall incorporate by reference, all operating procedures and policies adopted by the board, the statutes governing prepaid tuition contracts in KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709 and 393.015, and administrative regulations promulgated thereunder. Any amendments to statutes, administrative regulations, and operating procedures and policies shall automatically amend prepaid tuition contracts, with retroactive or prospective effect, as applicable.

164A.709. Termination of prepaid tuition contract or account — Transfer of funds.

(1) A purchaser may terminate a prepaid tuition contract at any time upon written request to the office.

(2) Upon termination of a prepaid tuition contract at the request of a purchaser, the office shall pay from the fund to the purchaser:
   (a) The value of the prepaid tuition account if the contract is terminated for:
       1. The death of the qualified beneficiary; or
       2. The disability of the qualified beneficiary that, in the opinion of the office, would make attendance by the beneficiary at an eligible educational institution impossible or unreasonably burdensome; or
       3. A request made on or after July 1 of the initial projected year of enrollment of the qualified beneficiary; and
   (b) The amounts paid on the purchaser's prepaid tuition contract if the contract is terminated and a request for refund is made before July 1 of the qualified beneficiary's initial projected year of enrollment. The board may determine a rate of interest to accrue for payment on the amount otherwise payable under this paragraph.

(3) At the option of the purchaser the value of the prepaid tuition account may be carried forward to another academic year or distributed by the fund upon the purchaser's request.

(4) All refunds paid shall be net of administrative fees as determined by the board. The office may impose a fee upon termination of the account for administrative costs and deduct the fee from the amount otherwise payable under this section.

(5) If a qualified beneficiary is awarded a scholarship that covers tuition costs included in a prepaid tuition contract, the purchaser may request a refund consisting of the amount of the value of the prepaid tuition account, not to exceed the amount of the scholarship.

(6) If the purchaser wishes to transfer funds from the prepaid tuition account to the Kentucky Higher Educational Savings Plan Trust, the purchaser may do so under administrative regulations promulgated by the board of directors of the Commonwealth postsecondary education prepaid tuition trust fund and the board of the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority.

(7) If the purchaser wishes to transfer funds from the prepaid tuition account to another qualified tuition program as defined in 26 U.S.C. sec. 529, the purchaser may do so under administrative regulations promulgated by the board.

(8) The board may terminate a prepaid tuition contract at any time due to the fraud or misrepresentation of a purchaser or qualified beneficiary with respect to the prepaid tuition contract.

PROPRIETARY EDUCATION

SECTION.

COMMERCIAL DRIVER'S LICENSE TRAINING

165A.515. Application of chapter.

(1) This chapter shall not apply to:
   (a) Any school or educational institution which offers to full-time, regularly enrolled students as a part of its curriculum a course in driving instruction for the purposes of obtaining a Kentucky Class D driver's license issued under KRS Chapter 186;
   (b) Automobile dealers and their salesmen who give instruction without charge to purchasers of motor vehicles; or
   (c) Employers who give instruction without charge to their employees.

(2) This chapter shall not apply to any college within the Kentucky Community and Technical College System which offers to part-time students a course in driver's instruction where there is not a school licensed pursuant to this chapter in the county.

(Repealed, reenact. and amend. Acts 2002, ch. 280, § 14, effective April 9, 2002.)

167.015. Management for Kentucky School for the Blind and School for the Deaf — Extramural services and programs.

(1) The Kentucky School for the Blind at Louisville, Kentucky, and the Kentucky School for the Deaf at Danville, Kentucky, shall be managed and controlled by the Kentucky Board of Education. The board shall have possession and the responsibility and authority for preservation, repair, and control of the buildings and ground belonging to the state and dedicated to the schools. The board may, except as provided in KRS 45A.045, sell any property held for the use and benefit of the schools, and purchase other property deemed by the board to be suitably and conveniently located, and erect buildings necessary for carrying out the purposes of the schools. The board may promulgate administrative regulations to carry into effect its powers with respect to the schools, and may require from the superintendent of the schools any reports and information it desires as to the condition of the schools.

(2) In addition to being recognized as a school providing quality, full-time educational services to students who are deaf and hard of hearing or who are blind or visually impaired, the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind shall also serve as the Statewide Educational Resource Center on Deafness and as the Statewide Educational Resource Center on Blindness, respectively. They shall provide technical assistance and resource services to local school districts, parents, and other agencies or organizations serving children and youth who are deaf and hard of hearing or who are blind or usually impaired. Depending on the availability of funding, services may include, but not be limited to, assessments; consultations on curriculum; language and communication; orientation and mobility; classroom devices, including telecommunication devices for the deaf and hard of hearing and Braille for the blind and visually impaired; assistive technology; professional development; and program development and implementation. The Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind may enter into collaborative agreements with local school districts and other public and private agencies to provide for regional or satellite programs for children and youth who are deaf and hard of hearing or who are blind or visually impaired.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

167.017. Appointment of superintendent of Kentucky School for the Deaf.

(1) The superintendent of the Kentucky School for the Deaf shall be appointed by the chief state school officer. The appointment shall be made upon recommendation of a search committee which shall be appointed by the Kentucky Board of Education whenever appointment of a superintendent becomes necessary.

(2) The search committee for the superintendent of the Kentucky School for the Deaf shall consist of the representative of the State Department of Education selected by the chief state school officer, one (1) representative of the Kentucky Association of the Deaf, Inc., one (1) representative of the Kentucky School for the Deaf Alumni Association, Inc., one (1) representative of the Kentucky School for the Deaf faculty, one (1) parent of a student at the Kentucky School for the Deaf, and one (1) representative of the Kentucky School for the Deaf advisory board. The search committee’s recommendation must be approved by a majority of the Kentucky Board of Education members.

(3) The superintendent of the Kentucky School for the Deaf may be removed from office by the Kentucky Board of Education only by a majority vote of the Kentucky Board of Education.

167.190. Adult blind. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes. This section (312) was repealed by Acts 1956 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 7, Art. II, § 8.

As used in KRS 167.210 to 167.240, unless the context otherwise requires, “deaf-blind children” are those children who are deaf or hard of hearing and have visual impairments, the combination of which causes such severe communication, developmental, and educational problems that they cannot profit satisfactorily from educational programs provided solely for the child with a visual disability or for the child with a hearing disability.

167.220. Authority of Department of Education.
The Department of Education is hereby authorized to expend available funds for the purpose of sending children who are deaf-blind to any facility, school, or institution, within or without the Commonwealth, which provides a qualified program of education for such children. Such funds may be spent for evaluation and diagnosis, room, board, tuition, transportation, and other items which are necessarily relevant to the education of such children. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 601, effective July 13, 1990.)

Cross-References. Vocational education and rehabilitation, KRS Ch. 163.

Opinions of Attorney General. In determining whether the State Department of Education can utilize a particular school to provide education for blind-deaf pupils, the criteria is not who owns and operates the school but in what manner and to what purpose is the school being conducted and if religion is part of the school program, the State Department of Education cannot utilize such a school to provide education for blind-deaf pupils. OAG 74-660.

Although this section does not authorize a school district to contract with an approved out-of-state school for special educational services for exceptional pupils who are not blind and deaf, it may do so under KRS 157.280. OAG 74-742.

167.230. Authority of bureau of education for exceptional children. [Repealed.]

167.240. Authority to adopt rules and regulations.
The State Department of Education is hereby authorized to adopt and promulgate such rules and regulations as it deems necessary and proper for carrying out the purposes of KRS 167.210 to 167.240. (Repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 602, effective July 13, 1990.)

Collateral References. 14A C.J.S., Colleges and Universities, § 17.

The chief state school officer may provide liability insurance or an indemnity bond against the negligence of drivers of motor vehicles owned or operated by the Department of Education for the transportation of members of the student bodies of the Kentucky School for the Blind, the Kentucky School for the Deaf, and the Eastern Kentucky Comprehensive Rehabilitation Center at Thelma. If the transportation of members of the student bodies is let out under contract, the contract shall require the contractor to carry an indemnity bond or liability insurance against negligence in such amounts as the chief state school officer designates. In either case, the indemnity bond or insurance policy shall be issued by a surety or insurance company authorized to transact business in this state, and shall bind the company to pay any final judgment not to exceed the limits of the policy rendered against the insured for loss or damage to property of any student or other person, or death or injury of any student or other person.

167.990. Penalties. [Repealed.]

168.100. Powers of authority.

168.010. Declaration of purpose.
It is declared to be the legislative purpose of KRS 168.010 to 168.100, and the public policy of the Commonwealth, that there be established, developed, and utilized in the public interest a network of educational television production and related facilities and transmission and relay stations such as will ultimately make available to students in public schools and state-supported institutions of higher education in the Commonwealth, and to any others who may choose to utilize the same, television programs and related services in aid of education, and for incidental use in other proper functions; and that the same be managed, controlled, and operated in the public interest by an independent corporate agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth having membership such as to be representative of the general public as well as public educational bodies at all levels.

Compiler's Notes. This section (Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 16, § 1; 1970, ch. 204, § 1) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476. Part V, § 603, effective July 13, 1990.

Collateral References. 74 Am. Jur. 2d, Telecommunications, § 192.

168.015. Legislative recognition of importance of education technology.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky recognizes that technology plays an important role in enlarging and enriching the school experiences of students and is vital to an efficient system of public schools.

168.020. Definitions for KRS 168.010 to 168.100.

As used in KRS 168.010 to 168.100, the following words and terms have the following meanings, unless in any instance, the context shall clearly indicate another meaning, in which event the context shall be controlling:

(1) “Authority” means the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television;

(2) “Board” means the Kentucky Board of Education;

(3) “Department” means the Kentucky Department of Education;

(4) “Public schools” means the state-supported schools of the elementary and secondary levels, as defined in KRS 157.320;

(5) “Commission” means the State Property and Buildings Commission of Kentucky;

(6) “Council” means the Council on Postsecondary Education in Kentucky;

(7) “University of Kentucky” means the University of Kentucky as one (1) entity, including its present and future extensions;

(8) “State colleges and universities” means and includes Eastern Kentucky University, Kentucky State University, Morehead State University, Murray State University, Northern Kentucky University, Western Kentucky University, and the University of Louisville, and institutions in the Kentucky Community and Technical College System;

(9) “Educational television” means and includes the production of television programs, the filming or taping thereof, the purchase or lease of filmed or taped programs produced by others, and the transmission or relaying of them for utilization:

(a) Which may be used in aid of education in the public schools and public institutions of higher education; and

(b) For limited and incidental use in furtherance of other proper public functions;

(10) “Television facilities” means and includes sites, buildings, structures, machinery, equipment, and installations, each with necessary or appropriate appurtenances, used or useful in the furtherance of educational television;

(11) “Related functions” or “related services” means and includes the use of facilities operated or leased by the authority, or which may be added or connected to such facilities as permitted by applicable statutes, and to prepare, transmit, or enable the exchange of nontelevision programs, services, or functions for and among the public schools, public institutions of higher education, and other state agencies:

(a) In aid of education; and

(b) For use in other proper public functions; provided, however, that such related functions or related services may include, but are not limited to, the following examples: computer-assisted instruction, data for teaching or administrative purposes, and educational noncommercial radio;

(12) “Related facilities” means and includes sites, buildings, structures, machinery, equipment, and installations, each with necessary or appropriate appurtenances, used or useful in the furtherance of related functions or services.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 659(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

168.030. Kentucky Authority for Educational Television.

An independent agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth is hereby created and established to be known as “The Kentucky Authority for Educational Television,” the same being a public body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, the power in its own name to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, to adopt and use a corporate seal, to adopt bylaws for the orderly conduct of its affairs and to alter the same from time to time, to prescribe and enforce regulations governing the use of educational television and television facilities and related functions and facilities, and generally to have and use all powers of private corporations as set forth in KRS Chapter 271B, except as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of KRS 168.010 to 168.100.

168.040. Membership of authority.
(1) The authority shall consist of nine (9) members, as follows:
The chief state school officer, ex officio, who shall initially serve as temporary chairman and shall call and preside over the organizational meeting or meetings until the members of the authority shall elect a chairman from among their number; a member of the staff or personnel of the department elected by the board upon recommendation of the chief state school officer as being qualified to serve as liaison and coordinator between the authority and the department on matters of curriculum, and his term shall be the same as that of the chief state school officer by whom he is recommended, but terminable by the board in the event he is transferred to other duties in the department, and automatically terminated in the event of his severance from the department for any reason; a representative of the University of Kentucky and a representative of the state universities to be elected by the Council on Postsecondary Education; and five (5) additional members appointed by the Governor who need possess no special or prescribed qualifications except that they shall be citizens of Kentucky.

(2) Effective at 11:59 p.m. on June 30, 1994, all terms of gubernatorial appointees to the authority shall expire. Effective July 1, 1994, five (5) appointees nominated pursuant to KRS 164.005 and appointed by the Governor shall become members of the authority.

168.050. Terms of members — Vacancies — Re-election or reappointment.
(1) Effective July 1, 1994, the terms of the members other than the chief state school officer and the member appointed from the staff or personnel of the department shall be originally, two (2) members for a term of four (4) years; two (2) members for a term of three (3) years; two (2) members for a term of two (2) years; and one (1) member for a term of one (1) year, to be determined by the Governor. Thereafter the terms shall be for four (4) years.

(2) In addition to vacancies from death or resignation, vacancies shall occur upon removal of permanent residence from the Commonwealth; in the case of the elected member representing the department and the board, by change of assignment or by severance from relationship with the department or the board for any reason; and, in the cases of the members representing the University of Kentucky and the state colleges, by termination of the member's membership on the council for any reason. Vacancies during the term of any member shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term only; and vacancies of elected or appointed members by reason of the expiration of the term shall be for terms of four (4) years each, in the same manner as the initial election or appointment, as the case may be.

(3) Elected or appointed members shall be eligible for reelection or reappointment for any number of terms, as long as the prescribed qualifications prevail.

(1) The authority shall meet not less frequently than quarterly, and otherwise as often as necessary for the orderly conduct of its affairs. If it sees fit to do so, it may establish in its bylaws, or by resolution, four (4) or more fixed dates for regular meetings at one (1) or more specified places, in which event any proper business may come before the authority on such occasions, and it shall not be necessary that the members be given notice thereof unless the chairman shall deem it necessary or desirable that the day, place, or hour be changed, whereupon notice to such effect shall be mailed to each member by the chairman or secretary, by ordinary first-class mail, postage prepaid, not less than one (1) week in advance. Regular meetings may be adjourned to convene again at another time and place, if the facts are shown in a motion or resolution adopted by a majority of those present and entered upon the minutes; and if such be done, the adjourned session shall constitute a continuation of the regular session without notice to absent members; but the motion or resolution of adjournment may specify that every reasonable effort be made to give such notice to absent members as time and circumstances may permit, whereupon the secretary (or in his absence the chairman or any designated member) shall make such effort and report the same and the success or failure thereof as to each member, at the occasion of the adjourned session of the regular meeting. Special meetings may be called by the chairman, vice chairman, secretary, or any two (2) members upon notice of the time, place and business to be transacted, similarly given; and special meetings may be adjourned in like manner as in the case of regular meetings, except that the matters considered shall be limited to such as are set forth in the notice of the special meeting.

(2) Any member may waive notice orally or in writing at any time before, at, or after any meeting; and the presence of a member at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice unless such member tenders at such meeting a written protest on the ground of want of sufficient notice.

168.070. Executive committee.
At such organizational meeting, or at any subsequent meeting, the authority may elect an executive committee, not less than three (3) in number, of which the chairman or vice chairman of the authority shall be a member and the presiding officer. The powers of the executive committee to transact business between meetings of the authority shall be defined, and may be limited, but it shall not be provided that actions of the executive committee within its defined powers and limitations are subject to review, or not final and binding as actions of the authority. The executive committee shall preserve minutes of its proceedings, and file a written copy thereof with the secretary at or before the next ensuing regular meeting of the authority.

168.080. Employees.
Subject only to availability of funds from any source, the authority may employ and prescribe the qualifications and duties of such persons as it may deem necessary to the proper performance of its purposes and functions, including an executive director to serve as the principal executive of the authority, and a chief engineer to supervise its engineering staff. Compensation shall be such as may be fixed in accordance with the standards established by the State secretary of the Personnel Cabinet, except that the compensation for those officers and employees exempt from classified services as provided in KRS 18A.115 shall be determined by the authority not to exceed the maximum established by KRS 64.640(2).

Opinions of Attorney General. Since under KRS 64.640 the Governor sets the compensation payable out of the State Treasury to each officer of an independent agency, the Authority for Educational Television can only recommend to the Governor the annual compensation of the agency's chief executive. OAG 77-707.

The statutes do not grant sole authority to Kentucky Authority for Educational Television to determine who may be exempt from KRS Chapter 18 (repealed, see KRS Chapter 18A); at most, they exclude from the commissioner of personnel's determination of salary those positions exempted by the merit system under KRS 18.140 (now see KRS 18A.115); Kentucky Educational Television was not given authority to exempt other positions not so listed, nor was it given the sole right to determine the salary of nonexempted positions. OAG 80-537.

168.090. Compensation and expenses of members.
(1) Members of the authority who are otherwise compensated by the Commonwealth on a full-time basis shall receive no additional compensation as members of the authority, or for attendance at meetings. Members who are not otherwise compensated by the Commonwealth on a full-time basis shall receive a per diem of fifty dollars ($50) for attendance at each meeting, including reasonable travel time necessarily required.

(2) All members may be reimbursed for actual travel and other proper expenses according to reasonable rules and regulations of the authority. The scope of travel shall not be limited to the confines of the Commonwealth; but may extend to any place outside the Commonwealth if specifically authorized by the authority by motion, resolution, or directive reciting the occasion, necessity, and persons authorized to travel.

168.100. Powers of authority.
The authority shall have no power of taxation, nor is it vested with the police power of the Commonwealth, except insofar as the exercise of the power of eminent domain may be deemed a part thereof. Otherwise, in general terms, it shall have and is hereby given all such constitutional powers as are necessary to its accomplishment of the purpose and implementation of the public policy set forth in KRS 168.010. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but only for assurance to parties transacting business with the authority, and who may demand and be entitled to assurance, the following specific powers are hereby vested in the authority:

Cross-References. Authority for Educational Television, and for the Kentucky Educational Television Commission, KRS 168.020.
(1) To receive and use in the furtherance of its lawful objectives state funds as may be appropriated or allotted to it, any funds received for services rendered under contract or from the sale of property owned by it, and contributions, matching funds, gifts, bequests, and devises from any source, whether state or federal, and whether public or private; unless the same be tendered subject to one (1) or more conditions which are inconsistent with KRS 168.010 to 168.100, or otherwise unlawful;

(2) To make contracts and agreements whereunder the authority may undertake to provide educational television facilities and related functions and facilities to or for any public body of the state or federal government in furtherance of educational television or in aid of any other public function. However, it shall be an express provision of every such contract that the authority will not undertake to transmit or relay, and will not permit any other party to transmit or relay, in the use of the authority’s television facilities, any subversive matter, any political propaganda, or any image or message in the interests of any political party or candidate for public office; or be used by, or in aid of, any church, sectarian, or denominational school; but this proviso is not intended and shall not be construed to be a limitation upon dissemination by the authority the legitimate objective instructional material which is properly related to the study of history or of current events, or which is no more than factually informative, of current issues of government, or of various political ideologies;

(3) To produce, prepare, transmit, and relay, either from life or by recording on tape or films, educational television programs and related services coordinated with the curricula prescribed or approved for the public schools of the Commonwealth by the department or the board pursuant to KRS 158.6451;

(4) To purchase or lease from others, or to contract with others for the use of, or the right to transmit or relay, similar educational television programs and related services, whenever in the opinion of the authority the same are suitable and cannot be produced as effectively or economically through the use of its own facilities;

(5) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to operate, television and related facilities deemed by the authority to be necessary in the furtherance of its lawful objectives; and in this connection to acquire property by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, in the manner authorized for the Department of Highways by the Eminent Domain Act of Kentucky, whenever the same cannot be purchased, leased, or otherwise acquired at a reasonable price after reasonable negotiations with the owner or owners. In all such matters, the authority shall be subject to the provisions of KRS Chapters 45A and 56;

(6) To prescribe standards for receiving instruments which are purchased in the future for use in the public schools, in order that reception of educational television programs and related services may be acceptable and in conformity with the manner of transmission thereof; and to disseminate such standards, together with technical information with regard to installations and use of receiving instruments, to all of the public school districts, or to such as may request the same;

(7) In its discretion and within the limitation of availability of funds from any sources, to:

(a) Establish a program of matching funds as an inducement to public school districts to purchase and install proper facilities for receiving and utilizing educational television programs and related services, especially in situations where by reason of topographical difficulties of reception, special antennas, or other equipment may be required, and

(b) If so requested by the boards of education of a sufficient number of public school districts, to purchase through the Finance and Administration Cabinet, subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 45A, receiving instruments on their behalf on a wholesale basis for the purposes of economy, any such purchases to be on a public competitive basis after due advertisement according to law, but restricted to such receiving instruments as meet the standards prescribed by the authority.

State Board of Education may acquire facilities for educational television, KRS 156.070.

Educational television equipment purchases, 702 KAR 3:170.

Opinions of Attorney General. A private college could not legally be permitted to erect an FM antenna on a tower built as an educational television facility. OAG 71-354.

KRS 168.010 to 168.100 expressly prohibit educational television facilities from being used in any way by or in aid of any church, sectarian or denominational school. OAG 71-354.

KRS 168.100(2) and 156.070 restrict the furnishing of educational television facilities and related functions and facilities to and for public bodies of state and federal government. OAG 71-354.

An employee of the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television under the state merit system who receives no profit from her work other than her regular salary may legally become a candidate for and serve, if elected, as a member of the local school board and at the same time retain her employment with the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television. OAG 76-394.

If this section was interpreted to prohibit Kentucky Educational Television from providing time for legally qualified candidates for public office it would conflict with the Federal Communications Act of 1934. OAG 79-465.

No provisions of state law prohibit Kentucky Educational Television (KET) from providing time for political candidates in programs produced, purchased or leased by KET for general broadcast purposes. OAG 79-465.
Subsection (2) of this section purports to proscribe the broadcast of, among other things, "political propaganda" or "any image or message in the interests of any political party or candidate for public office," only where such material is broadcast pursuant to a contract or agreement to provide educational television services or facilities "to or for any public body of the state or federal governments," and if the authority chooses to produce programming presenting political candidates not pursuant to any such contract or agreement, the statutory prohibition would be inapplicable. OAG 79-465.

The "political broadcast" limitation of subsection (2) of this section was imposed to protect the authority from any pressure to broadcast presentations of political candidates at the request of legislative or other governmental bodies, and was not designed to restrict its discretion in the production and selection of programming not broadcast under such an arrangement. OAG 79-465.

The legislative intent is that the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television is the state agency charged with operating the educational television network, and should be the licensee for the television transmitters; accordingly, licenses issued to the State Board of Education could be transferred to the Authority either by joint or separate resolutions of the boards or by executive order. OAG 80-511.

The decision to rent space on a tower belonging to the authority should be decided on the principles of good business. OAG 83-85.

There is no constitutional or statutory impediment against the authority renting tower space for fair market value to a religious organization since such a business transaction is neutral as to the purposes of the private organization which is the lessee and does not involve the issue of separation of church and state. OAG 83-85.

Under this section, the use of state funds appropriated for educational purpose may be applied by Kentucky Educational Television only for the benefit of public or common schools in order to avoid violation of Const., §§ 171, 184, 186, and 189. Accordingly, KET is required to charge nonstate schools, whether private and nonsectarian or parochial, for services delivered in the process of returning student responses to the KET master computer. OAG 91-71.

State Libraries—Librarians—State Archives and Records

Section.

171.130. Department for Libraries and Archives — Commissioner.

171.140. General powers and duties.

171.145. Authority to provide library services for qualified readers with disabilities.

171.410. Definitions for KRS 171.420 to 171.740.

Department for Libraries and Archives

171.130. Department for Libraries and Archives — Commissioner.

The Department for Libraries and Archives is established. The department shall be headed by a commissioner whose title shall be state librarian who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Governor, and who shall have had technical training in the field of library science.

171.140. General powers and duties.

(1) The department shall give assistance and advice to all state institutional and public libraries, and to all counties in the state which propose to establish public libraries, as to the best means of their establishment and operation and may send any of its members to aid in organizing such libraries or assist in the improvement of those already established.

(2) It may receive gifts which may be used or held for the purpose given, and may purchase and operate traveling libraries under such conditions and rules as it thinks necessary to protect the interests of the state and best increase the efficiency of its service to the public.
(3) The department may issue printed material, such as lists and circulars of information, and in the publication thereof may cooperate with other state library commissions and libraries, in order to secure the more economical administration of the work for which it was formed. It may provide for library educational opportunities in various parts of the state.

(4) The department shall perform such other service in behalf of public libraries as it considers for the best interests of the state.

(5) The department shall maintain a strong central collection of library materials in a variety of formats and assure access to those materials and to other information resources throughout the state and nation for the purposes of providing information and reference services to state government agencies and of supplementing the resources of local libraries.

(2438c-4; 1990, ch. 62, § 2, effective July 13, 1990.)

Cross-References. Private contributions to be deposited in State Treasury, KRS 41.290.

171.45. Authority to provide library services for qualified readers with disabilities.

For the benefit of qualified readers with disabilities of Kentucky, the Department for Libraries and Archives may make available books and other reading matter in Braille, talking books or any other medium of reading used by qualified readers with disabilities. To this end, the department is authorized to provide library services for qualified citizens with disabilities of the Commonwealth through contract, agreement or otherwise with the Library of Congress or any regional library thereof.

Cross-References. Court records, control by Supreme Court, KRS 26A.200, 26A.210. Open records law, KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

Opinions of Attorney General. Neither the interested person nor his representative has the right to reproduce the records of a district board of education by any photostatic means whatsoever. OAG 68-291.

Where the necessary interest is present, the interested person or his representative is entitled to obtain a certified copy of the contract between the board of education and the secretary upon payment of such reasonable fee therefor as may be prescribed by regulation of the district board. OAG 68-291.

Information concerning textbook titles and course enrollment requested by a private bookstore would be a part of the university’s records and would be subject to the statutory privilege of inspection by any interested person. OAG 69-24.

It is apparent from the 1982 amendment to subdivision (1) of this section, which added cards, tapes, disks and recordings to the definition of “records,” that it was the intent of the legislature to facilitate the maintenance of public records by modernizing the means of preserving those records; therefore, it appears that Kentucky law does permit Kentucky State University to maintain its records via microfilm microfiche. OAG 83-161.

171.420. State Archives and Records Commission.

The State Archives and Records Commission, is hereby created and shall be a seventeen (17) member body constituted as follows: The state librarian or his designee, who shall be the chairman of the commission, secretary of the Education, Arts, and Humanities Cabinet or his designee, the Auditor of Public Accounts or his designee, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or his designee, the director of the Legislative Research Commission or his designee, the Attorney General or his designee, the director of the Office for Policy and Management or his designee, the chief information officer or her or his designee, one (1) member appointed by the Governor from a list of three (3) persons submitted by the president of the University of Kentucky, one (1) member appointed by the Governor from a list of three (3) persons submitted by the president of the Kentucky Historical Society, one (1) member appointed by the Governor from a list of seven (7) persons with one (1) name submitted by each of the presidents of the state universities and colleges, four (4) citizens at large, and one (1) member appointed by the Governor from a list of three (3) persons, with one (1) name submitted by each of the presidents of the Kentucky League of Cities, the Kentucky Association of Counties, and the Kentucky Association of School Administrators. Vacancies shall be filled by the Governor in the same manner as initial appointments are made. All members shall serve for a term of four (4) years, provided that one (1) of the initial appointments shall be for a term of four (4) years, one
(1) for three (3) years, one (1) for two (2) years, and one
(1) for one (1) year. The commission shall advise the Department for Libraries and Archives on matters relating to archives and records management. The commission shall have the authority to review and approve schedules for retention and destruction of records submitted by state and local agencies. In all cases, the commission shall determine questions which relate to destruction of public records, and their decision shall be binding on the parties concerned and final, except that the commission may reconsider or modify its actions upon the agreement of a simple majority of the membership present and voting.

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/14/2000).
This section was amended by 2000 Ky. Acts chs. 506 and 536, which are identical and have been codified together.

171.430. Expenses of commission members.
Members of the commission shall serve without compensation other than actual expense of attending meetings of the commission or while in the performance of their official duties in connection with the business of the commission.
(Enact. 1958, ch. 49, § 3, effective June 19, 1958.)

171.440. Commission meetings.
The commission shall meet in the City of Frankfort, but the commission may, by majority vote, hold special or regular meetings in other locations when the work of the commission would be facilitated thereby. The commisson shall hold not less than four (4) meetings during each calendar year and may hold such special meetings as may be necessary to transact the business of the commission. All meetings shall be called by the chairman, or when requested in writing by any two (2) members of the commission.
(Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 4; 1982, ch. 245, § 3, effective July 15, 1982.)

171.450. Department procedures and regulations.
(1) The department shall establish:
(a) Procedures for the compilation and submission to the department of lists and schedules of public records proposed for disposal;
(b) Procedures for the disposal or destruction of public records authorized for disposal or destruction;
(c) Standards and procedures for recording, managing, and preserving public records and for the reproduction of public records by photographic or microphotographic process;
(d) Procedures for collection and distribution by the central depository of all reports and publlications, except the Kentucky Revised Statutes editions, issued by any department, board, commission, officer or other agency of the Commonwealth for general public distribution after July 1, 1958.
(2) The department shall enforce the provisions of KRS 171.410 to 171.740 by appropriate rules and regulations.
(3) The department shall make copies of such rules and regulations available to all officials affected by KRS 171.410 to 171.740 subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A.
(4) Such rules and regulations when approved by the department shall be binding on all state and local agencies, subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A. The department shall perform any acts deemed necessary, legal and proper to carry out the duties and responsibilities imposed upon it pursuant to the authority granted herein.
(Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 5; 1970, ch. 92, § 34; 1982, ch. 245, § 4, effective July 15, 1982; 1984, ch. 353, § 1, effective July 13, 1984.)

Legislative Research Commission Note. (10/5/90). Pursuant to KRS 7.136(1), KRS Chapter 13A has been substituted for the prior reference to KRS Chapter 13 in this statute. The sections in KRS Chapter 13 were repealed by 1984 Ky. Acts ch.

In order for proper planning to be accomplished, the department shall cause a records management survey to be conducted in accordance with the regulations issued by the department.

171.470. Records management promotion — Reports.
The department is authorized to make continuing surveys of government records and records management disposal practices and to obtain reports thereon from state and local agencies; to promote, in cooperation with the various state and local agencies, improved records management practices and controls in such agencies, including the central storage or disposition of records not needed by such agencies for their current use; and to report to the Governor semiannually. The department shall submit a biennial report to the General Assembly.

The secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, at the request of the commission, shall have authority to design, build, purchase, lease, maintain, operate, protect, and improve buildings or facilities, including a state archives and records center building, used for the storage of noncurrent records of state and local agencies. The cabinet shall have custody and control of all such buildings and facilities and their contents.
(Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 8; 1970, ch. 92, § 37.)

171.500. Central depository.
The department is hereby constituted the central depository for public records. It shall be the duty of all departments, boards, commissions, officers or other agencies of the Commonwealth to supply to the central depository copies of each of their reports and publications issued for general public distribution after July 1, 1958, in the number and in the manner prescribed by rule or regulation promulgated by the department pursuant to KRS 171.450. College, university, and public libraries may be constituted depository libraries by written order of the department. The central depository shall supply copies to such depository libraries in the number and in the manner prescribed by rule or regulation promulgated by the department pursuant to KRS 171.450.

171.510. Advisory groups for commission.
The commission may from time to time appoint advisory groups to more effectively obtain the best professional thinking of the bar, historians, political scientists, accountants, genealogists, patriotic groups, and associations of public officials on the steps to be taken with regard to any particular group or type of records.

171.520. Supervision of state and local agencies — Plan for comprehensive records management system for state government — Rules and regulations.
(1) The department shall, with due regard to the program activities of the state and local agencies concerned, prescribe the policies and principles to be followed by state and local agencies in the conduct of their records management programs, and make provisions for the economical and efficient management of records by state and local agencies by analyzing, developing, promoting, and coordinating standards, procedures, and techniques designed to improve the management of records, to insure the maintenance and security of records deemed appropriate for preservation, and to facilitate the segregation and disposal of records of temporary value and by promoting the efficient and economical utilization of space, equipment, and supplies needed for the purpose of creating, maintaining, storing, and servicing records. The department may accept, administer and grant any money appropriated or granted to it, in addition to appropriations from the general fund, for providing and improving records management programs of state and local agencies.
(2) To effect the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the department shall prepare a plan for a comprehensive records management system for Kentucky state government. This plan shall include a proposal for funding through cost allocation or other methods in lieu of a general fund appropriation. The plan shall provide for a records management certification program, to identify state agencies in compliance with records management practices implemented by the department, and shall be completed by July 1, 1987. The plan shall be submitted to the Office of Policy and Management and the Legislative Research Commission for evaluation.
(3) The department shall promulgate necessary rules and regulations for the furtherance of this section.

Cross-References. Records management program, 725 KAR 1:050.

171.530. Retention and recovery of records.
The commission shall establish standards for the selective retention of records of continuing value, and the department shall assist state and local agencies in applying such standards to records in their custody. The department shall notify the head of any such agency of any actual, impending, or threatening unlawful removal, defacing, alteration, or destruction of records in the custody of such agency that has come to its attention, and initiate action through the agency head or Attorney General for the recovery of such records as shall have been unlawfully removed and for such other redress as may be provided by law.

171.540. Inspection of agency records.
The department is authorized to inspect or survey the records of any state or local agency, as well as to make surveys of records management and records disposal practices in such agencies, and shall be given full cooperation of officials and employees of agencies in such inspection and surveys; provided, that records, the use of which is restricted by or pursuant to law or for reasons of security or the public interest, shall be inspected or surveyed only in accordance with law, and the rules and regulations of the department.

171.550. Processing and servicing records.
The department is authorized to establish an interim records center or centers for the storage, processing, and servicing of records of state and local agencies pending their deposit in the State Archives and Records Center or their disposition in any other manner authorized by law, and to establish, maintain and operate centralized microfilming, photostating, indexing, decontamination and lamination and any other records repair and rehabilitation services for state and local agencies.

171.560. Transfer of records.
Subject to applicable provisions of law, the department shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the transfer of records from the custody of one (1) state or local agency to that of another.

(Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 16; 1970, ch. 92, § 43.)

171.570. Extension of agency retention period.
The department may empower any state or local agency, upon the submission of evidence of the need therefor, to retain records for a longer period than that specified in any approved disposal schedule, or by law but the agency shall report all such actions to the commission at its next meeting for approval or disapproval.

171.580. Historical records.
The department, whenever it appears to be in the public interest, is authorized:

(1) To accept for deposit in the State Archives and Records Center the records of any state or local agency or of the General Assembly that are determined by the department to have sufficient historical or other value to warrant their continued preservation;

(2) To direct and effect the transfer to the department of any records that have been in existence for more than fifty (50) years and that are determined by the department to have sufficient historical or other value to warrant their continued preservation, unless the head of the state or local agency which has custody of them certifies in writing to the department that they must be retained in his custody for use in the conduct of the regular current business of the said agency;

(3) To direct and effect, with the approval of the head of the originating agency, or its successor, if any, the transfer of records deposited, or approved for deposit, in the State Archives and Records Center to public or educational institutions for special research or exhibit purposes; provided that title to such records shall remain vested in the Commonwealth of Kentucky unless otherwise authorized by law, and provided further such records may be recalled after reasonable notice in writing;

(4) To direct and effect the transfer of materials from private sources authorized to be received by the State Archives and Records Center by the provisions of KRS 171.620.

171.590. Public nature of records in department’s custody.
The department shall be responsible for the custody, use, and withdrawal of records transferred to it. All papers, books, and other records of any matters so transferred are public records and shall be open to inspection by any interested person subject to reasonable rules as to time and place of inspection established by the department; provided that whenever any records, the use of which is subject to statutory limitations and restrictions, are so transferred, the department shall enforce such limitations. Restrictions shall not remain in effect after the records have been in existence for fifty (50) years.

Cross-References. Open Records Law, KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

171.600. Servicing records.
The department shall make provisions for the preservation, management, repair and rehabilitation, duplication and reproduction, description, and exhibition of records or related documentary material transferred to it as may be needful or appropriate, including the preparation and duplication of inventories, indexes, catalogs, and other finding aids or guides facilitating their use.

171.610. Facilities for public inspection.
The department shall make such provision and maintain such facilities as it deems necessary or desirable for servicing records in its custody that are not exempt from examination by statutory provisions or other restrictions.

171.620. Private documents of public interest.
The department is authorized, whenever it is deemed to be in the public interest, to accept for deposit:

(1) The papers and other historical materials of any Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, or of any other official or former official of the state or its subdivisions, and other papers relating to and contemporary with any Governor or former Governor of Kentucky, subject to restrictions agreeable to the department and the donor;

(2) Documents, including motion picture films, still pictures, sound recordings, maps, and papers, from private sources that are appropriate for preservation by the state government as evidence of its organization, functions, policies, and transactions or those of its subdivisions.

171.630. Reproduction fee.
The department may charge a fee not in excess of ten percent (10%) above the costs or expenses for making or authenticating copies or reproductions of materials...
171.640. Documentation of agency matters — Standards, rules and regulations.

The head of each state or local agency shall cause to be made and preserved records containing adequate and proper documentation of the organizational functions, policies, decisions, procedures, and essential transactions of the agency and designed to furnish information necessary to protect the legal and financial rights of the government and of persons directly affected by the agency's activities. Such documentation shall be created, managed, and preserved in accordance with standards, rules and regulations prescribed by the department under the provisions of KRS 171.410 to 171.740. (Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 24; 1986, ch. 66, § 2, effective July 15, 1986.)

Opinions of Attorney General. Since the Open Records Act does not regulate management practices of keeping public records and since the Attorney General's decisions are limited to whether a requested document is in the possession of a public agency and whether such document is subject to public inspection, the request that university, in not identifying one person as the official custodian in charge of enforcing proper records keeping practices, be charged with violating the Open Records Act as well as the request for provision of a copy of the university's records were denied. OAG 94-ORD-8.

When the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or any state agency or subdivision or the principal officer thereof shall reproduce and preserve for record any records or papers by photographic, microphotographic, non-erasable optical image, or other process which accurately reproduces the original records, which forms a durable medium, and which is performed in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the department, the original may be disposed of or destroyed. (Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 26; 1970, ch. 92, § 51; 1986, ch. 223, § 1, effective July 15, 1986; 1990, ch. 37, § 1, effective July 15, 1986.)

Legislative Research Commission Note. (7/13/90). This section was amended by two 1990 Acts which do not appear to be in conflict and have been compiled together.

Compiler's Notes. This section was amended by § 82 of Acts 1990, ch. 88 to contingently become effective as provided by § 93 of Acts 1990, ch. 88. However, § 93 of Acts 1990, ch. 88 was repealed by § 30 of Acts 1992, ch. 324, effective July 1, 1992. Therefore the amendment of this section by § 82 of Acts 1990, ch. 88 became effective July 1, 1992.

171.670. Destruction of records.

When there is a question whether a particular record or group of records should be destroyed, the commission shall have exclusive authority to decide whether or not the record or group of records are to be destroyed. (Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 27; 1962, Art. V, § 4; 1970, ch. 92, § 52; 1982, ch. 245, § 6, effective July 15, 1982.)

171.680. Records management by agencies.

(1) The head of each state and local agency shall establish and maintain an active, continuing program for the economical and efficient management of the records of the agency.

(2) Such program shall provide for:
   (a) Effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business;
   (b) Cooperation with the department in applying standards, procedures, and techniques designed to improve the management of records;
   (c) Promotion of the maintenance and security of records deemed appropriate for preservation, and facilitation of the segregation and disposal of records of temporary value;
   (d) Compliance with the provisions of KRS 171.410 to 171.740 and the rules and regulations of the department. (Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 28; 1970, ch. 92, § 53.)

Opinions of Attorney General. The University of Kentucky subverted the intent of the Open Records Act, which is essentially related to the intent of the State Archives and Records Act, by failing to develop an adequate program for ensuring records management through agency oversight of employee records handling practices; and by failing to develop a coherent scheme for the organized maintenance of records at identified maintenance locations. OAG 94-ORD-121.

171.690. Storage of agency records.

Whenever the head of a state or local agency determines that substantial economies or increased operating efficiency can be effected thereby, he shall provide for the storage, processing and servicing of records that are appropriate therefor in the records center maintained and operated by the department or, when approved by the department in such location maintained and operated by the head of such agency. (Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 29; 1970, ch. 92, § 54.)

171.700. Certification of records.

Any official who is authorized to certify to facts on the basis of records in his custody is authorized to certify to facts on the basis of records that have been transferred by him or his predecessors to the department, further provided, that any fee due any official of the state or its subdivisions shall not be eliminated by KRS 171.410 to 171.740. (Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 30; 1970, ch. 92, § 55.)

171.710. Safeguarding agency records.

The head of each state and local agency shall establish such safeguards against removal or loss of records as he transferred to its custody. All such fees shall be paid into a revolving fund for the continuation of such services on as self-sustaining a basis as possible. There shall be no charge for making or authenticating copies or reproductions of such materials for official use by the government of the Commonwealth of Kentucky; provided that reimbursement may be accepted to cover the cost of furnishing such copies or reproductions that could not otherwise be furnished. (Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 23; 1970, ch. 92, § 50.)
shall deem necessary and as may be required by rules and regulations issued under authority of KRS 171.410 to 171.740. Such safeguards shall include making it known to all officials and employees of the agency that no records are to be alienated or destroyed except in accordance with law, and calling their attention to the penalties provided by law for the unlawful removal or destruction of records.

Opinions of Attorney General. The University of Kentucky subverted the intent of the Open Records Act, which is essentially related to the intent of the State Archives and Records Act, by failing to develop an adequate program for ensuring records management through agency oversight of employee records handling practices. OAG 94-ORD-121.

171.720. Agency recovery of records.
The head of each state and local agency shall notify the department of any actual, impending or threatened unlawful removal, defacing, alteration or destruction of records in the custody of the agency that shall come to his attention, and with the assistance of the department shall initiate action through the Attorney General for recovery of such records as shall have been unlawfully removed and for such other redress as may be provided by law.

171.730. Effect on public accounting and confidential nature of agency records.
Nothing in KRS 171.410 to 171.740 shall be construed as limiting the authority of the State Auditor, or other officers charged with prescribing accounting systems, forms, or procedures or of lessening the responsibility of collecting and disbursing officers for rendering of their accounts for settlement. Nothing in KRS 171.410 to 171.740 shall be construed as changing, modifying or affecting the present law or laws concerning confidential records of any state agency and the use thereof. All such laws remain in full force and effect.
(Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 33.)

171.740. General assembly records.
The Legislative Research Commission shall, unless otherwise directed by the Senate or House of Representatives obtain at the close of each session of the General Assembly all of the noncurrent records of the General Assembly and of each committee thereof and transfer them to the State Archives and Records Center for preservation.
(Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 34.)

Penalties

171.990. Penalties.
(1) Any person or library board violating any of the provisions of KRS 171.240 to 171.300 shall be fined not less than ten ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.
(2) The board for certification of librarians may revoke the certificate of any person violating any of the provisions of KRS 171.240 to 171.300, or any of the regulations as established by the board for certification.

(3) Any person knowingly violating the rules and regulations of the department pursuant to the provisions of KRS 171.450, 171.560, 171.670, 171.710, or 171.720 is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor and is also liable for damages or losses incurred by the Commonwealth. Any state employee who knowingly violates these provisions shall also be subject to dismissal from state employment upon a determination of fact, at a hearing, that a serious violation did occur. The employee’s right to appeal to the state personnel board is not abridged or denied. In the event of an appeal, the decision of the state personnel board is final.

(4) State employees dismissed under the provision of subsection (3) of this section shall have the right to reapply for state employment in accordance with state personnel rules governing dismissal. Such individuals shall have the full rights and privileges accorded under applicable equal opportunity laws.

TITLE XV
ROADS, WATERWAYS, AND AVIATION

CHAPTER 178
COUNTY ROADS—GRADE CROSSING ELIMINATION

SECTION.
178.200. Tax levy to retire bonds and pay interest.
178.290. Construction of sidewalks along public roads — School bus turn-around areas.

Penalties

178.990. Penalties.

178.200. Tax levy to retire bonds and pay interest.
(1) If bonds are sold to enable the fiscal court to construct roads and bridges, the fiscal court shall levy a tax of not over twenty cents ($0.20) on the one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the county. The tax shall be collected as other county taxes and allocated, first, to the payment of the interest on the bonds, and the balance placed to the credit of a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds.

(2) Any accumulation in the sinking fund may be loaned by the fiscal court on first mortgage real estate security, on the basis of fifty percent (50%) of its value, at the legal rate of interest, which shall accrue to the sinking fund, but before the loan is made all titles shall be looked up and papers approved by the county attorney.
(3) For the 1966 tax year and for all subsequent years the rate levied by the levying authority under the provisions of this section for levies which were approved prior to December 16, 1965, shall be the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (3) of this section no tax rate shall be set lower than that necessary to provide such funds as are required to meet principal and interest payments on outstanding bonded indebtedness.

(1) The fiscal court of any county may submit to the voters at a special election to be held for that purpose, the question of voting a tax of any sum not exceeding twenty cents ($0.20) on the hundred dollars ($100) on all property subject by law to local taxation, for the construction of the public roads and bridges of the county, as the fiscal court directs. The order of the fiscal court calling the election shall specify the amount of the tax to be levied each year and the number of years for which the tax may be imposed, not exceeding ten (10) years, and shall also provide that no money in excess of the amount that can be raised by the levy in any one (1) year shall be expended in that year.

(2) The fiscal court may borrow money and issue bonds therefor in advance of the collection of the tax for any year, but the amount borrowed shall not exceed eighty percent (80%) of the estimated tax for the year. The amount of the tax shall be estimated according to the assessment and collection of the preceding year. Any money so borrowed shall be paid out of the money raised from the tax in the year in which the money is borrowed.

(3) For the 1966 tax year and for all subsequent years the rate levied by the levying authority under the provisions of this section for levies which were approved prior to December 16, 1965, shall be the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section.
